CYCLISTS' CALENDAR
Sun Rises 5 44 a. m.
Sun Sets 6 24 p m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 7.24 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Fair tonight and Sunday; stationary temperature. Thermometer 45.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., SATURDAY, APRIL 1, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

WORDS THAT HAVE AND WILL LIVE FOR AGES.

Usual Union Good Friday Services Held Last Night.

SERMONETTES WERE HEARD

MEETING WAS HELD IN THE CRESCENT AVENUE CHURCH.

Seven Pastors Take Up the Words That Jesus Spoke While Being Crucified and Draw Conclusions That are Spiritually Uplifting—Large Audience in Attendance—What the Pastors Said.

According to a well established custom, almost all the Protestant churches in the city joined in holding a union Good Friday service last night. The service was held in the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, and consisted principally of remarks by seven of the pastors of Plainfield churches on the words spoken by Christ while hanging on the cross. These short sermonettes were interspersed with hymns, responsive readings and prayer, but formed that part of the service around which all the rest clung.

The first word, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what to do," was commented upon by Rev. W. C. O'Donnell, of the Monroe Avenue church. He drew as a lesson from it that this prayer showed the consistency of the life of Jesus. The first words from his lips prove that he practiced what he preached.

Rev. G. K. Newell, of Hope chapel, spoke on the second word, "Verily, I say unto thee, today shalt thou be with me in paradise," and called attention to the importance of that day. The same day on which he was condemned and crucified, he was in paradise, and Mr. Newell urged upon his hearers the necessity of some day deciding to follow Him.

"Behold thy son, behold thy mother," was the third word, and Rev. W. C. Snodgrass, of the First Methodist church, pointed out the marvelous sympathy in that exclamation as well as the marvelous self control. Christ had risen to that level, when he gave utterance to those words, when he touched all humanity, and spoke to the whole human race.

Rev. C. E. Herring, of the First Presbyterian church, called attention to the fourth word, "My God, My God, Why Has Thou Forsaken Me," and asked his hearers to notice that they came after several other expressions, as though Jesus thought of his forsaken condition last.

Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Ph.D., of Trinity Reformed church, said that only once did Christ give way to his personal feelings and that was when he said, "I thirst," after he had prayed for the forgiveness of his enemies and had comforted his mother. Then he thought of himself, and of his sufferings. We today can quench His thirst by ministering to his people, and thus to him.

Rev. Floyd Appleton, of Grace P. E. church, drew his remarks from the sixth word, "It is finished." He said that Christians should not look upon Good Friday as a day of darkness, but in the light of a festival. He said that in the East Christ crucified is not looked upon as a martyr but as a kink.

The last word, "Father, into thy hands I command my spirit" was spoken of by Rev. A. E. Main, of the Seventh-Day church. Naturally, his remarks were of a concluding character, leaving some wholesome thoughts to ponder over during tomorrow. He spoke of the fatherhood of God, and how Jesus, all the way to the cross, knew He was the loved of his Father. Jesus, he said, surrendered his life voluntarily. Death may be our conquorer, but Jesus went to grave to rob death of its sting.

The attendance was large, and the offering was made to the Children's Home.

New Building for Bank

The First National Bank, of Bound Brook, will occupy their new bank building on Hamilton street, Bound Brook, on and after Monday. This afternoon a reception will be held at the building and the depositors and friends have been invited to inspect the place.

'Coon Ran Away.

There was a 'coon hunt at Campbell's, Avon Park, Wednesday night. The raccoon, captured by George Gould, was released and a large party of men and dogs started after it. The chase was futile, however, the 'coon escaping.

Judge Bartine Buys the Elkwood.

Judge Bartine, of Somerville, has purchased the Elkwood building on West Second street, and will improve the building with a view of renting offices, etc.

TO CHANGE DWELLINGS AND MAKE STORES.

THE PLANS OF MRS. DURLASH.

Will Improve Valuable Property on Watchung Avenue and Front Street.

The opening through of Watchung avenue and the building of the Watchung avenue bridge is gradually extending the business section of the city in the direction of Watchung avenue and East Front street. The demand has already been felt by one of the principal owners there, Mrs Durlash, who owns the northeast corner property.

Those who remember the troubles between the city and various property owners in that vicinity will recall the dispute over one of the houses owned by Mrs. Durlash. The piazza of the house now extends over the sidewalk line and it is claimed that the city can, at any time, compel her to tear down or move the building.

Mrs. Durlash is now preparing to make some temporary changes to her houses and convert them into stores. It is proposed to remove the piazzas and old fronts of the houses and put in store fronts with show windows.

EASTER WEEK EVENTS

PLEASURABLE AFFAIRS TO FOLLOW THE LENTEN SEASON.

It Promises Less Gayety Than Some Other Years, but Still Society Will Take on a Lively Turn in Many Ways.

The Easter season, while promising less gayety than some other years, will have a moderate share of pleasures and entertainments. Some dinners are to be given Easter eve, ushering in the joyous season with pleasant family reunions and that most delightful form of modern entertainment, the jolly house party.

Monday evening there will be a subscription dance in the Casino for society young people. Tuesday evening Mrs. Frank J. Smith will give a recital at the Casino. She will be assisted by Frank J. Smith and other well-known musicians. Wednesday afternoon will occur the marriage and wedding reception of Miss Cornelia Faber to Edmund Rushmore at the home of the bride's father, Alexander Edward Faber, of Rockview avenue. Thursday evening the cantata of Belshazzar will be given at the Casino by the choir of Grace church. Friday evening a formal club dance will be held in the Park clubhouse. Saturday afternoon there will be a tea given by the Misses Tracy, daughters of J. Evarts Tracy, of West Eighth street, from 4 to 6 o'clock. Other teas less formal, other weddings and dinners galore will occupy the attention of many hosts and hostesses and give pleasure to many guests.

FACTORY FOR NEW BOUND BROOK.

Syndicate Will Erect Six Buildings in Which to Make Army Supplies.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Bound Brook April 1—A deal has been consummated whereby eighteen acres of Conrad Egel's farm in New Bound Brook, just east of the Pierce property, have passed into the possession of a syndicate of capitalists. Surveyors are now at work laying out the land and preparing for the erection of six large buildings. The building will start shortly and will be completed this spring. The syndicate will then start a manufactory there of army supplies and will employ 400 hands.

The Glee Club

In regard to Rutgers College Glee Club, which will appear at Y. M. C. A. hall Monday evening, April 3d, for the benefit of the Plainfield High School Athletic Associations, the Baltimore Sun speaks as follows: "This organization is certainly excelled by no other college club in the country. The concert was one of the finest ever given in this city."

No Need for Lodge Rooms.

When the Suydam building on East Front street was erected two years ago, the upper or third floor was designed to be used as lodge rooms. As it happened, all the local lodges were provided for and the new quarters were not needed. Carpenters are now at work changing the lodge rooms into flats which will then be placed on the market.

Important to Bicyclers.

Even more important to a bicycler than a good wheel is perfect sight, as this is the greatest of guarantees against accident. It behooves every wheelman therefore to insure himself as to the condition of his eyes, which will be freely and reliably made known to him by an expert examination at Collier's.

—Ten dollars in gold will be given to the best cakewalkers at the ball of the Twilights in the Crescent Rink Monday night.

MUSIC FOR EASTER DAY

PROGRAMMES TO BE RENDERED IN THE LOCAL CHURCHES.

All Denominations Will Unite Tomorrow to Celebrate the Day That Christ Arose, With Joyous Anthems.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

At the Congregational church Easter will be observed with special services both forenoon and afternoon. The morning service will be enriched with instrumental trios rendered by Mrs. B. T. Barnes, Mrs. M. E. Dwight, and Mr. Cloeckner, of Elizabeth, violinist; and with two soprano solos, "I Know That My Redemer Liveth," and "O, Come Unto Him," by Miss Kelly, of New York. The subject of the Easter sermon will be "The Open Gates." The Sunday-school service will include in its programme, in addition to Easter carols and instrumental trio, a violin solo and an address by President of A. V. V. Raymond, of Schenectady.

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH.

Morning.

Organ—"Festival Prelude in C.." Eugene Thayer
Anthem—Te Deum Laudamus," F Mosenthal
Response in F.....W. O. Wilkinson
Gloria in C.....Juan Alzamora
Offertory Anthem—"The Risen Lord" C. W Greene
Anthem—"The Saviour Hath Risen." W. C. Williams
Organ Postlude—"March Triumphale." J. T. Stone

Evening.

Organ Prelude—"Fugue in C".....C. H. Rink
Anthem—"Christ the Lord is Risen Today." W. C. Williams
Offertory Anthem—"Easter Bells are Chiming".....A. F. Loud
Selections from "Sacred Songs."
Organ—"Festvorspiel in C".....L. Liebig

Miss Etta Krymer, soprano; Miss Minnie Williams, contralto; H. J. Martin, Jr., tenor; A. J. Moore, bass; A. L. Titsworth, organist and choir director.

HOLY CROSS CHURCH.

Morning Prayer with Holy Communion at 11 a. m.
Processional—"Welcome Happy Morning," Sullivan
Easter Anthem—"Christ Our Passover." Parisean tone arranged
TeDeum.....C. K. Fay in A
Jubilate.....Garrett in F
Introit Hymn—"Christ is Risen Today." Worgan
Kyrie Eleison.....Sullivan in E flat
Credo.....Eyre in do
Gloria.....Eyre in do
Sermon Hymn—"The Strife is O'er." Palestrina
Offertory Anthem—"This is the Day Which the Lord Hath Made".....Cooke
Sursum Corda } .....Eyre in E flat
Sanctus }
Communion Hymn—"I Hunger and I Thirst." Hosking
Gloria in Excelsis.....Old Chant
Recessional—"Christ the Lord is Risen Again".....E. J. Hopkins

Evensong at 4:30 p. m.

Processional—"We March, We March to Victory".....Barnby
Magnificat.....Morley in F
Nunc Dimittis.....in G
Hymn—"Alleluia! Song to Jesus.....Elliot
Recessional—"Christ the Lord is Risen Again" Hopkins

Cornet, Mr. Smith; organ, Geo. Hosking.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

At the First Baptist church tomorrow morning there will be special music suitable for Easter. The large choir will be led by Howard Case, organist, who will have the assistance of C. P. Mall, the violoncello soloist, and Prof. Conde, violinist. The anthems will include the following: "Awake Ye Saints," by Schnecker; "As It Began to Dawn," by Foster; "Hail to the Risen Lord," by Gaul; "I Am He That Liveth," by King; "When It Was Yet Dark," by Woodman. The Sunday-schools will meet at 3 p. m., when Easter carols, instrumental solos and quartettes, vocal solos by the church soloists will be included in the programme of service.

Glen-Moore.

E. S. Wells, as is generally known, has been for the past six months a very sick man, and on that account has decided on the abandonment of his breeding enterprise. The blizzard prevented shipment of his consignment to the recent New York sale, and he has therefore decided on a closing-out event at the farm. He has always been a good buyer of a good horse, and is a discriminating student of the breeding problem; hence his stock is of the highest class individually, as well as royally bred. At his sale, which will occur at the farm, April 5th, (and be held under the auspices of the Faaig-Tipton Co.,) buyers will have an opportunity rarely offered of obtaining some choice campaigning material. Regular trains from New York and Philadelphia will stop at Glen-Moore—a station of the Central Railroad of New Jersey, right on the farm.

In Favor of Vaccination.

President S. St. John McCutchen, of the Borough Board of Education, informed a Press reporter yesterday that he was heartily in favor of having the school children vaccinated, and a notice urging this had been promulgated by the State board. He also stated that it is not within the power of the local board to compel vaccination, although every effort would be made to have it become as general as possible.

RUSHED TO DEATH IN BURNING BARN.

Horse, Frantic With Fright, Broke Away From Rescuers.

BIG BARNS DESTROYED.

FARM BUILDINGS OF ALBERT MANNING BURNED.

The Light of the Conflagration Could be Seen for Many Miles—Neighbors Formed Bucket Brigade and Saved the Homestead From the Flames—Loss Will Reach $3,000—Partially Insured

(Special to The Daily Press)

South Plainfield, April 1—The large barns belonging to Albert Manning, just north of the South Plainfield pond on the road to Plainfield, were completely destroyed by fire early last evening. One of the horses broke away from its rescuers and dashed back into the burning building where it was creamated.

The fire started in the main barn a few minutes after 6 o'clock. The family and neighbors turned out to save the horses and wagons. Two of the men rushed into the blazing stable and tried to lead the horses out by their halters. One was successfully dragged out. The other horse reached the door, then broke away and was last seen dashing back to its stall.

The building burned very rapidly, and it was only by the greatest exertion that the wagons and part of the farm machinery was saved.

The east wind sent the sparks in the direction of the Manning homestead and soon flames burst forth from the roof of it. The neighbors formed a bucket brigade and finally extinguished the blaze after considerable damage had been done. A shed, to the windward of the fire, escaped destruction.

The loss will reach nearly $3,000, including the barns and their contents and the damage to the house. There were three tons of hay stored in the barn. The light of the fire could be seen for miles.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders.

—Press want ads pay

—There is a probability that Sycamore avenue in the city may be macadamized this summer.

—Unity Lodge, No. 102, K. of P., will work the first rank on two candidates next Wednesday night.

—Staff Captain Glassy, assisted by Captain Norris, will conduct a special meeting at the Salvation Army Hall tonight.

—An addition has been made by S. A. Cruikshank, of Belvidere avenue, to his large stables in the rear of his residence.

—The date for the supper to be given to the Berean class of Warren chapel by the Ladies' Aid Society has not yet been fixed.

—A Danish Lutheran service will be given in the German Lutheran church next Monday night. Special music will be rendered.

—Crosby & Hill will give one bottle of Royal tooth powder free to every purchaser of 50 cents at there notion counter. See advertisement.

—Attention is called to all interested in up to date laundry work. See advertisement in another column of City Steam and Hand Laundry, 19 Somerset street.

—If you are looking for an up-to-date laundry just glance down Somerset street and you can't help seeing a large artistic sigh. City Steam and Hand Laundry, 19 Somerset street.

—In addition to the special Easter music at the First Presbyterian church tomorrow evening, the sermon of the pastor, Rev. C. E. Herring, will be illustrated by stereopticon views from Tissot's "Death and Ressurection of Christ."

—The statement in the News to the effect that Adam Blair, the West Sixth street livery stable keeper, was going to sell his goods at auction was unqualifiedly false. On the contrary, Mr. Blair's business has so improved that he is going to enlarge his stables this spring.

—John G. Bantle has removed his tailoring establishment from 432 Watchung avenue to his new building No. 426 Watchung avenue, where he has all modern facilities for the tailoring business, he having had the building erected purposely for the business. Mr. Bantle has the reputation of turning out only first class work.

FIREMEN DID GOOD WORK

BARN HOUSING THE SCOTCH PLAINS STAGE WAS BURNED.

Origin of the Fire is a Mystery—Adjoining Houses and Barns Are Saved Through Active Work of Firemen.

Fire was discovered last evening at 10:10 o'clock in the barn on Chatham street occupied by Thomas Newman, stage driver, and owned by Abram King. An alarm of fire was sent in from Box 141 by Garrett Kiely, who secured a key at Powers' drug store on Somerset street. The department responded quickly and worked about one hour to extinguish the flames.

The firemen did great work in saving the adjoining barns and houses. A portion of the Newman barn was destroyed, and a shed and one stage was completely destroyed. All of the horses were saved. It was only necessary to use one line of hose.

What caused the fire is a mystery. It started in the old stage and was burning rapidly when discovered by the neighbors. There is an insurance on the property, but the loss is not a heavy one.

The neighbors assisted the firemen in rescuing the horses and other things in the barn and from under the shed before they were burned. The Scotch Plains stage was scorched considerable and it will require a good deal of work to put it in condition to use again.

TO DECORATE GRAVES.

Heroes of the Most Recent War Not to Be Forgotten Memorial Day.

Charles A. Peterson, of Watchung avenue, has been interesting himself lately in getting up enthusiasm among the young soldiers who enlisted in the late war, and arranging to take part in a body in the G. A. R. exercises on Memorial Day.

There are two soldiers buried here, and Peterson proposes to decorate those two graves when the G. A. R. men are looking after the graves of those who fell in the Civil War. In time the young men may attach themselves to the National Guard, but this will be discussed Monday night when they meet to make further arrangements.

TO PHILADELPHIA BY TROLLEY.

Continuous Line Across This State the Big Scheme of the North Jersey Company.

The papers providing for the leasing of the North Hudson County Railway Company's lines to the North Jersey Street Railway Company are being prepared. This amalgamation, which has been expected for several months, will be one more step towards the formation of a continuous trolley line across New Jersey from the Hudson to Philadelphia. Over connecting trolley roads it will soon be possible to ride from Jersey City west as far as New Brunswick, Middlesex county. In the meantime the trolley roads east of Philadelphia, in New Jersey, are being developed and extended westward to meet the roads from the east. Soon the remaining connection links necessary to complete the cross-state line, will be provided by the construction of a line from Camden to Bordentown and Trenton, from Trenton to Princeton, and from Princeton to New Brunswick.

Ten Cent Wonders.

VanEmburgh places on sale today banded tumblers at 10 cents a dozen; hatchets, hammers, curry combs, grass sickles, saws, ice tongs, mason's trowels, granite cuspadors, quart bottles ammonia, and hundreds of other articles in china, glassware and household articles at 10 cents. Come tonight.

Sign of Summer.

P. M. French got out his sprinkling carts this morning and watered the streets in the heart of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Waring, of Park avenue, are expected home from Atlantic City Monday.

Mrs. LeLuca, of Bound Brook, will be brought to the hospital this afternoon for treatment.

Former Mayor Alexander Gilbert and wife have returned from their trip to Nassau and the south.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. John Christensen, of Woodland avenue, is very ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. Charles J. Taggart, formerly of Plainfield, but now of New York, is in town to spend Easter with friends.

Mrs. E. M. Ruggles, of West Third street, left today for Lakewood to spend a short time with her daughter, Mrs Hurling.

Former Mayor John F. Wilson and daughter, Miss Minnie Wilson, of "Tunlaw," left this morning for Philadelphia to spend Sunday with friends.

Clarence Lyons, who has been spending the winter at the home of his uncle, Nelson Runyon, of East Ninth street, has returned to his home at Northport, L. I.

MET A WATERY GRAVE WHILE ON A FURLOUGH.

FATE OF A UNITED STATES MARINE.

John Daley, a Brother of Mrs George Schick, of Scotch Plains, is Found Dead

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Scotch Plains, April 1—Mrs. George Schick has received the sad news of the death of her brother, John Daley, who was serving as a marine in Uncle Sam's navy and was stationed at Norfolk, Va. Mr. Daley's death is shrouded in mystery and all the intelligence the commanding officer was able to write was that the deceased had been granted a ten days' furlough March 13th. When night came he failed to return.

After ten days he was dropped as a deserter, although his record was very high. Several days ago a body was found floating in the river, and from appearances it had been in the water for several weeks. An examination of the clothing revealed the mystery of why John Daley had failed to return when his furlough was up. The commanding officers wrote Mrs. Schick that there was a suspicion of foul play about the case, but there were no signs of such on the body.

The United States authorities will no doubt probe the matter to the end, and in a short time more particulars will be forthcoming. Mr. Daley enlisted in the service at the beginning of the war between the United States and Spain, and was in Cuba through the thickest of the fray.

BUILDING BOOM BEGINS.

THE WEST END OF THE CITY SEES THE MOST ACTIVITY.

Work Started on a Number of New Residences of Varying Values—Who Are Building and Where Located.

Slowly but surely Plainfield is reaching out, and the open fields of a few years ago are now occupied by many charming residences and homes. This spring sees the steady growth of the building in the outskirts. Judging from the increase, the promised season of prosperity is beginning to make itself felt.

That part of the West End, bounded by Monroe and Grant avenues, West Seventh and West Fourth streets, has been the centre of a strong building movement. The Plainfield Real Estate Company has some six residences nearly arrived at completion and has now just started the erection of another three story frame residence on West Sixth street. A. D. Thompson, president of that company, is personally building an elaborate residence on West Seventh street, near Monroe avenue.

John D. Runyon has also started a handsome new residence on West Sixth street near Monroe avenue.

A. A. Stryker has been busy all winter in that section and six new houses have been the result of his labors. He found ready purchasers for them and has now just started on two new ones on West Sixth street street, near Monroe avenue.

In the eastern end of the city, William H. Bohl is active. He has just started work on three new residence on Kensington avenue, north of Putnam avenue. They will cost $4,000 each.

Real Estate Movements.

LaRue & Cuming, of North avenue, has rented A. B. Dunlap's house on East Sixth street to J. Warren Brown; H. Riker, house, 10 Craig place to Mr. Crowell, of Rahway; the Elliott property, corner West Eighth street and Clinton avenue, to H. Pew; the Lee farm, near Bound Brook, to M. D Smalley, of Dunellen; Mrs. DeBaud's house, East Front street to Mrs. J. Pitts, of Jersey City.

He Enjoyed a Sleigharide.

David T. Kenney, of the borough, had a novel experience Thursday. Up on the St. Lawrence river he was sleighriding on ice that covered a channel 60 feet deep. Huge snowdrifts were all around and the snow bore him company all the way from Clayton and Round Island to Carthage.

Orient Degree Conferred

Last evening in the rooms of Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., the Orient Degree was conferred on forty eight candidates and there was a very enjoyable time for all present. The attendance was very large. After the initiatory work a good time was had in the good of the order

Pleasure at the Park Club.

Thursday evening of next week an entertainment will be given at the Park Club. Miss Addie Parker Jackson, Messas. VanEps and W. E. MacClymont will furnish the programme. The following evening there will be a club dance for the members and their friends.

—Use Press want ads.

TROLLEY SEEKS ITS PATH INTO RAHWAY.

Ordinance Granting Franchise Introduced Into Council.

GRIDIRONING THE COUNTY.

A PERFECT NETWORK OF TROLLEY TRACKS IS PLANNED.

Col. Hine Says That if the Franchise is Granted Immediately the Company Will Have the Road in Operation by July 1st—Orders for Material Have Been Given—Work Will Soon Begin.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Rahway, April 1—The public hearing on the application of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railroad Company for a franchise to build a trolley road through this city was held at the Common Council rooms last evening.

Col. E. W. Hine, of the trolley company, asked that action on the application be not delayed as the company wished to get to work at once. He said: "We don't want to build this road next year, but now, so that we can begin to carry passengers before the last of July. After putting the franchise on its first reading the meeting adjourned until next Tuesday evening.

After the meeting in an interview with The Press representative Col. Home said that all the material for the road had been ordered and that the Pennsylvania Iron Works would start Monday to roll the rails and that just as fast as they are turned out they will be distributed along the line of the main line from Plainfield and Elizabeth and on the line of the cross town line. He also stated that the company would make application at the meeting of the Board of Freeholders Thursday of next week for permission to build on Westfield avenue in the city of Rahway. This is required as the avenue is a county road.

If the company is granted this franchise it will connect all parts of Union county by trolley. The cross town line will start at Milburn, where it connects with the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad, run to Westfield, where it passes within fifty feet of the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company's depot, then on to Picton, and by the depot of the Lehigh Valley Railroad to Rahway where it makes connections with the Pennsylvania Railroad. It will also connect at Milburn with the Consolidated Traction Company's Newark line and at Westfield with the proposed line from Elizabeth to Plainfield.

A Veteran Advertiser.

S. C. Peck, Jr., the dry goods merchant, has the honor of being the oldest advertiser with the proprietor The Daily Press. Mr. Peck became an advertiser in the Constitutionalist in 1870 and has been patronizing either that paper or The Daily Press ever since. Peck's ads. are characteristic for their simplicity and effectiveness, and probably attract as much attention as any announcement in The Daily Press. But hereafter they will attract even more, for Mr. Peck has increased his space double the usual amount. Look out for "Peck's corner."

Real Red Men Coming.

The Red Men's fair which is to be held in Washington Hall next week, promises to be one of the most novel of the kind ever held here. Among the attractions for Wednesday night "Red Men's Night," will be twelve members of Buffalo Bill's Indian band. John Burke, formerly of Dunellen, a Red Man, is responsible for thus securing this unexpected treat. Wm. F. Cody, "Buffalo Bill," is also a member of the Improved Order of Red Men.

Goes With a Banking Firm.

James A. Stafford, of Grandview avenue, who has been cashier for A. M. Griffin for several years, has resigned that position and will start Monday with a banking firm on Wall street, New York. Mr. Stafford is an enterprising young man and will undoubtedly make his way to a position of trust and importance.

Good Things for Pastor.

Rev. Scott Wallace, of West Front street, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church, was agreeably surprised last evening by a number of the women members of his church, who brought many good things to the pastor that will be very acceptable. After the arrival of the guests a short thanksgiving service was held.

Preparatory Services.

The regular preparatory service was held at the First Baptist church last evening and was attended by a large number of members. Tomorrow morning the Lord's Supper will be observed at this church.

LET US ARM YOU!

It's quite necessary, because while Uncle Sam is settling scores with the Spaniards you're bound to have a little brush at home at the same time, and there's nothing like being ready for emergencies. Until you can sign a perpetual truce with sun, wind and storm, your house and other buildings will need to be fortified with paint, and ours are like a 20-inch chilled steel armor.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

ROGERS.
232 West 2d St.
Seafood for Health
Always
Desirable
when direct from the nets.

M. E. STEPHENSON,
146 NORTH AVE.
Weddings, Dinners and Receptions supplied with every requisite. China, Glass, Linen and Silver to loan.
ESTIMATES
cheerfully furnished. Telephone orders will receive prompt attention.
TELEPHONE 624.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections
210 PARK AVE.

HENRY LIEFKE,
201-203 West Front St.
BAKER AND CONFECTIONER
Try my New England and Home Made Bread. Vienna Bread a specialty. Goods delivered to all parts of the city.

PHILLIP SWAIN,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.
317 West Front street.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

E. B. Maynard,
NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

SPRING LAMB FOR EASTER.

This is spring Lamb and not mutton, we carry mutton also, but there is a difference. When you ask for Spring Lamb you get it, and nothing else. It is tender and delicious. We also have a full line of Poultry of the highest grade, just try our Philadelphia Farm Fed Turkey, Boston Ducks, Chickens of all kinds and broilers. Our Roast Beef is always up to the mark.

If you want a very choice Easter Dinner get your Meat and Poultry from us.

FRED ENDRESS,
131-135 West Front Street ONLY

ALEX. LUSARDI.
211 West Front Street,
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery. Nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores 1 year

L. L. Manning & Son,
STEAM
GRANITE WORKS,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church. Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

New York Announcement.
SPRING—1899.
Horner's Furniture.
The BEST IN THE MARKET, because representing the productions of the best makers only. Other advantages are the unequalled assortments in all lines, whether wanted for city or country houses, and the very moderate prices at which the goods are marked.

The completeness of our assortments can best be understood from the fact that we carry in stock, and exhibit, more than two hundred and fifty distinctly different Bedroom Sets in every variety of material, as well as endless lines of Parlor, Drawing Room, Library and Dining Room Furniture, ranging from the modest and inexpensive to the most elaborately carved and inlaid.

In a word, every article required for use, comfort and adornment in the household can be had with its plainly marked moderate price at the Great Furniture Emporium of

R. J. Horner & Co.,
Furniture Makers and Importers,
61-65 W. 23d St., New York
(Adjoining Eden Musee.)
Horner & Co.'s establishment is one of the sights of New York.—Newspaper Comment.

This question of
EYES
is a most serious one. Too lengthy to discuss here. If your eyes are causing you discomfort, or if you suffer with headache, neuralgia or pain in the eyes, consult our specialist at
107 E. Front Street Every Thursday
Hours 10 to 5. Free Examination. Work guaranteed.
LEECH, STYLES & CO.

Chas. Eisenberg's
WALL PAPER AND PAINT STORE,
Stillman Building, 310 W. Front St.
I am pleased to call the attention of the public to the fact that I do first-class paper-hanging, decorating, in and outside painting at the very lowest prices. I carry a full line of the latest designs of wall paper such as blanks, flats, gilts, embossed, ingrain, tiles, tapestry, silks, stripes, linoustra, leather effects and burlaps. I carry the largest assortment in the State. Send postal or call on Telephone Number 1073 and I will call on you with samples, or you can call at my store at the above address and convince yourself. I give 30 days time to responsible parties to pay their bills, as a guarantee for first-class work. I sell wall paper and paints at factory prices. Sample books furnished to the trade at my stores, 310 W. Front St., Plainfield, N.J., 312 Main St., Orange, N. J., 81 Springfield Ave., Newark, N. J., and Warehouse, 12, 14, 16 Mercer St., Newark, N. J. Stores open evenings until 9 o'clock. CHAS. EISENBERG, Prop.
310 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

REVERE HOUSE
PARK AVENUE, 7th and 8th sts. | PLAINFIELD, New Jersey.
Families accomodated for the Spring and Summer months at greatly reduced prices
The house contains all modern improvements lighted by Gas and Electricity. Sanitary arrangements perfect. Cuisine unsurpassed.
GEO. B. DE REVERE

ESTATE OF OLIVER B. TWEEDY, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, executors of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscribers under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the eighteenth day of March, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same from the subscribers.
DEXTER O. TIFFANY,
FLORENCE TWEEDY,
Executors.
3 25 9s

ESTATE OF JOSEPH P. MASON, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, administratrix of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the twenty-first day of March, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.
ANNIE WRIGHT MASON,
Administratrix.
3 25 9s

McCullough's STEAM MILL.
at Steiner place, North Plainfield
R. H. McCullough, Prop'r
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

Your Valuables,
will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.
Lock boxes from $3 50 to $10 a year

REMOVAL.
I have moved my stock of
BOOTS AND SHOES
TO 120 W. FRONT ST., with Crane, the hatter.
B. R. FORCE.

Dead Horses Removed Free.
RUCKMAN BROS.,
Telephone Call 65,F., NEW BURNSWICK, N. J.
12 134 m

OUR SOLDIERS REST

After Taking the Rebel Capital They Feast on Fruit.

AGUINALDO HAD LEFT TOWN

Believed That Insurgents Can Make but Little Further Resistance—Elaborate Preparations Had Been Made for the Evacuation—Remarkable Record of the American Soldiers.

Manila, April 1.—Advices from Malolos say that the victorious American army is feasting on cocoanuts and bananas and enjoying a well-earned rest, while the hospital train is bringing the wounded back to Manila.

The Kansas regiment and the Montana regiment, on entering the city, found it deserted, the Presidencia burning and the rebels retreating toward the mountains in a state of terror.

It is believed they cannot in future make even a faint resistance. The American loss was small.

It is evident that the rebels for some time past had abandoned all hope of holding their capital, for the Americans found there evidences of elaborate preparations for evacuation. On the railroad the rails and ties for about a mile had been torn up and probably thrown into the river, and the only prisoners captured were a few Chinamen. They said Aguinaldo left Malolos on Wednesday.

The principal citizens of Malolos, their families and goods have been taken into the country over the railroad, while others departed on foot, carrying their possessions and driving their cattle and other animals before them. Most of the rebel forces were removed Thursday to positions east of the railroad, leaving only some small bands in the strong trenches in front of Malolos.

Gen. MacArthur started for the rebel capital at 7 o'clock in the morning with two rapid-fire guns flanking the track and two guns of the Utah Battery on the right, and two guns of the Sixth Artillery on the left of the rapids, firing continuously.

The Kansas and Montana regiments moved upon Malolos and the Nebraska and Pennsylvania regiments and the Third Artillery kept along the right of the railroad.

The only effective stand made by the rebels was at a bamboo and earthen work, half a mile from Malolos and on the right, where the Nebraska regiment, as was the case yesterday, had the hardest work and suffered the greatest loss. Col. Funston, always at the front, was the first man in Malolos, followed by a group of dashing Kansans.

The Filipino flag, which was flying from the centre of the town, was hauled down by some men of the Montana regiment, who triumphantly raised their own above it.

From the columns of smoke arising from the city it seems as if the whole place was ablaze. It turned out, however, that only the Presidencia, or government building, and a few of the smaller buildings had been set fire to by the rebels before they evacuated the place.

Rebels Losing Strength.

From the reports gathered by the American officers from prisoners and others, it is believed that the rebel army is constantly losing strength on account of desertions, and that although the enemy may make one or two more stands, the forces of Aguinaldo will degenerate, in perhaps a month, to a few hundreds, who may continue waging a guerilla warfare in the mountains.

The American troops behaved splendidly. They advanced steadily against successive lines of trenches, through woods and jungles, and suffering from frightful heat. In addition, the American volunteers were handicaped in fighting by the fact that their Springfield rifles are of shorter range than the Mauser rifles in the hands of the rebels. Under those circumstances, the steady progress of our troops is a really remarkable achievement.

But the most noteworthy feature of this onward sweep of the Americans is the patience and endurance of the private soldiers. They have never hesitated to plunge across any kind of difficult country, against any number of the enemy and in the face of positions of entirely unknown strength.

Advance of Gen. Hall.

Manila, April 1.—Gen. Hall's brigade advanced yesterday from Mariquina up the Mateo River Valley almost to Montalban, driving the enemy to the hills on the north. The rebels were in considerable force at the junctions of the rivers Nanca and Ampit with the Mateo; but the American artillery soon scattered them with heavy loss. The American loss was one killed, Lieut. Gregg, of the Fourth Infantry. Gen. Hall eventually returned to the waterworks.

Gen. King advanced from the San Pedro Macati, establishing headquarters at Pasig.

Recent copies of the "Republican Filipina," Aguinaldo's official organ, contains a proclamation to the effect that certain parties are raiding the northern towns and ordering the same to join the Filipino army immediately or take consequences when Aguinaldo shall have finished with the Americans.

This is construed as meaning that Macabolas, the Governor of the five northern provinces, is unfriendly to Aguinaldo. If this be true, Aguinaldo's retreat is undoubtedly cut off at the railroad beyond San Fornando.

The "Republica Filipina," on March 22, published an extra edition containing a statement to the effect that the Americans had attacked Pasig, that many of them were killed, and a majority of the remainder were wounded, while 180 of them were taken prisoners.

The American steamer Roanoke recently picked up a native boat containing a dozen Spanish prisoners who had escaped from Dagupan, and had been nearly three days afloat with neither food nor water. They reported that the prisoners expected to be killed when the Americans advanced, but knew nothing of the fate of those in the southern towns.

Gen. Otis Heard From.

Washington, April 1.—The following dispatch was received at the War Department:

"Manila, March 31.

"Adjutant-General, Washington:

"Troops resting at Malolos. Considerable portion of the city destroyed by fire. Our casualties one killed, fifteen wounded. Hall has returned with his troops to former position north of Manila. OTIS."

THE BEEF INQUIRY.

More Testimony that the Canned Article Was Not Attractive.

Washington, April 1.—Yesterday's session of the army beef inquiry board was attended by a number of officers of the medical corps of the army. Col. Charles R. Greenleaf, with Gen. Miles in his Porto Rican campaign, was called.

He had eaten some of the canned roast beef and did not relish it. "It was not palatable to the sight," he said, "and it was awkwardly to the taste without condiments, such as salt and pepper."

Col. B. F. Pope, chief surgeon of the Fifth Army Corps, in the Santiago campaign, testified concerning the food supply of that campaign. The hard bread he found good, and the canned vegetables generally so. The canned beef, "wrongly labeled roast beef," he did not speak of in such high terms. "We accepted it as a part of the ration," he said, "and ate it as well as we could; but it was unsatisfactory in appearance and entirely lacking in savor. It was also stringy and tough, and in some cases it decomposed, causing the cans containing it to swell. I also noticed that it deteriorated rapidly after being exposed to the air. The great trouble seemed to be the lack of facilities for cooking the beef.

"It was not so bad in the form of stews or hash as when eaten without cooking or preparation in any way. Taken in that way it was a very unsatisfactory diet. In appearance it was bleached and washed out, exsanguinated. It looked like beef from which beef tea had been made. It has struck me since that the nutritive qualities of the beef were extracted in boiling, and my personal opinion is that as food it possessed a very low order of nutritive value. It was a very trying food, unless eaten with the eyes shut. The roast feature of it was all on the label—not in the can.

He had been unable to trace any special diseases to the food used in Cuba, but he thought that the use of the canned beef would tend to weaken the men and cause disease. "After the command became broken down by disease," he said, "the canned beef became unendurable, and nausea and dysentery became very common."

The refrigerated beef Dr. Pope pronounced good. The troops had been compelled to trim off spoiled parts, but after this was done and the meat nicely cooked it was very palatable and nutritious.

No Sunday Shows in Washington.

Washington, April 1.—Washington, under the present system of government by a board of three Commissioners, has always been known as a place of strict Sunday observance. Especially was this true regarding places of amusement. Within the past year or two, however, there has been noticed a laxity on this score. Managers of vaudeville houses, encouraged by the example of more protentious places which occasionally gave to their patrons a concert of more or less sacredness, opened their doors to sacred concerts.

Finally, last week, the proprietors of one of these houses, which had heretofore kept out of the Sunday field, boldly announced a regular variety performance for Sunday night, and it was given. This caused the storm of indignation that had been brewing in religious official circles for some time to break about the heads of the Commissioners.

Mr. Kernan told the Commissioners that he was personally opposed to Sunday theatricals and had been compelled to direct attention to the advantage others had taken of the absence of any law against Sunday shows by giving a full fledged week day show on Sunday himself.

At the request of Commissioner Ross Mr. Kernan promised to keep his placed closed as heretofore; and subsequently a like promise was received from the managers of other places of amusement. Washington therefore will continue to be a no-Sunday-show town.

Sampson's Squadron Sails from Kingston.

Washington, April 1.—Admiral Sampson's squadron of evolution, consisting of seven vessels, has sailed from Kingston, Jamaica, for La Guayra, Venezuela, the southernmost point of the cruise. The provision ship Supply left the squadron at Kingston and is proceeding to New York. Admiral Sampson informed the Navy Department that J. C. Darcey, an oiler of the Detroit, died on March 30 of wounds received in a fight at Kingston, presumably the affray between sailors of Sampson's squadron over the claims of the men of the New oYrk for a share in the credit of destroying Cervera's fleet.

Porto Rico Tranquil.

San Juan, Porto Rico, April 1.—Much indignation is felt here at the publication of reports that the people of this island were ripe for rebellion. It is hard to understand how such alarming rumors originated. There never has been any attempt at insurrection since the occupation by the American forces. The natives have no arms, and they have no organization, and what is more to the point, they have no disposition to rebel. There have been a few fights, and the usual number of rum riots in many of the places where troops have been quartered.

The American officers here have no apprehension whatever of any uprising and laugh at the idea.

Counterfeiters Arrested.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., April 1.—United States Marshal Bacharach and Secret-Service Detective G. O. Barker, yesterday arrested Charles Moses for counterfeiting. He was sent to jail in default of $6,000 bail. A big counterfeiting outfit was found hidden in an outhouse at his home. It is the apparatus used by a gang of men, who have flooded New Jersey and the eastern part of this state with counterfeit dollars and half-dollars. George S. Czepaplas, the leader, was captured some time ago, and is now in jail at Pittsburg. Others are under surveillance, and more arrests are expected.

MILES FOR PRESIDENT

It Is Said the Beef Inquiry Will Make Him a Candidate.

NEW RIFLES FOR THE ARMY

The Government Armory is Working Its Maximum Capacity—Financial Side of the Philippine War Not Troubling the Administration—13,000 Soldiers Returned from Cuba in March.

Washington, April 1.—It is evident that the friends of Gen. Miles expect to try to develop his Presidential boom during the next few days' proceedings of the beef court inquiry. There was an indication of the course to be pursued by the Miles defense in the questions asked by Major Lee, who represents the General before the court, during the last two days of the investigation.

From the question asked Gen. Ragan and others, it is evident that the intention is to claim that the President and Senator Hanna knew all about the contracts for beef. It is believed that the friends of Gen. Miles hope to turn the campaign now being waged against Gen. Alger to President McKinley and Senator Hanna.

It is expected that those newspapers which have been strongly backing Gen. Miles will take up this attack, if the material is furnished them, and it is evident that the Miles people are going to supply this material if possible.

Rifles for the Army.

Washington, April 1.—In order to maintain the supply of rifles demanded by the regular forces of the United States, and to provide for the equipping of all volunteer regiments, the Springfield armory has been directed to work for the present at its maximum output rate of 200 firearms for each eight hours' work.

The guns now being fabricated are of the type known as "model of 1898." They possesses many advantages over the earlier Krag-Jorgensens manufactured at Springfield, and to a great extent eliminate all former causes for complaint. The sights for the new guns are immensely superior to the earlier ones, and in the model 1898" the rear sights permit of correction for drift and wind. It was the latter feature which many army officers have claimed was all that was needed to make the Krag-Jorgensen the most accurate military rifle in the world. It was no easy matter for soldiers accustomed to the drift and windage sights on the latest modelled Springfield to take kindly to the early type Krag-Jorgensen, fitted with open sights, and corrected for drift for only two ranges—500 and 1,000 yards.

In addition to sight improvements, the new guns are being supplied with attachments to the magazine-box which permit of loading direct from a clip. A detailed account of this new magazine attachment has been given in these dispatches.

Meeting of the Cabinet.

Washington, April 1.—The Cabinet discussed routine matters of administration for nearly two hours yesterday but no business of great importance was transacted. There was a desultory discussion of the campaign in the Philippines, in which some disappointment was expressed by the President and his advisers that Aguinaldo and his immediate followers could not be overtaken at the time the city of Malolos was captured by the American troops. General satisfaction was felt, however, with the progress of the campaign, and it will be the policy of the Administration to push the operations north of Malolos with all possible vigor.

The Samoan question was touched upon only briefly at the meeting. Secretary Hay gave the President and members of the Cabinet all the information that the State Department possessed in regard to the situation at Apia, but it was said after the meeting that no further advices had been received.

The President and the Cabinet were greatly interested in unofficial information that a new party has been launched in Porto Rico by native leaders, bearing the name of the Republican party, and embodying in general the principles which characterize the party of the same name in the United States.

No Bond Issue Needed.

Washington, April 1.—The continued war in the Philippines has not shaken the belief of Secretary Gage that he will be able to get along without a bond issue. "Indeed," he said to your correspondent this morning. "I am more convinced of it now than ever, for the outlook is better than my original calculations."

"But the Philippine war is an expensive thing," he was reminded.

"It costs us something in shot and shell and medical supplies," he answered, "but we shall not have any trouble about the financial side of it."

The Returning Volunteers.

Washington, April 1.—During the month of March 13,000 troops have been landed in the United States from Cuba. This work has required especial expeditionary measures on the part of the quarantine service, but so far all the requirements made upon the service have been met. The War Department has exercised unusual haste because of the desire to avoid the necessity of compliance with the order of the Treasury Department requiring the disinfection of all the baggage of returning troops and their equipment prior to entry. This has been successfully accomplished by the co-operation of the marine-hospital service and the Quartermaster-General' office, without an exception.

A dispatch received at the War Department says that the Second Illinois regiment will leave Havana to-day for Savannah, Ga., via. Tampa.

Mr. Sherman Convalescent.

Washington, April 1.—Ex-Secretary Sherman passed a comfortable night and the following bulletin was issued by his physicians:

"Mr. Sherman has entirely recovered from his pneumonia; is convalescing and gaining strength slowy."

Grandest and most attractive
Easter Millinery Display
ever shown.

Bonnets, Round Hats, Toques and Misses' Dress Hats. Brilliant showing of untrimmed Hats in endless variety, representing the best ideas of foreign and domestic manufacture, at the lowest prices compatible with excellent quality.

Ladies' Tailor-made Suits.

In original and up-to-date styles of Broadcloths, Venetians and Coverts, handsomely lined, worth $12, at $7.49.

Yard-wide all-linen Toweling, worth 25c yard, special at 10c yard.

New Spring Silks.

Rich qualities, handsome styles, economical prices. Bargains like these should appeal to all who value money.

Plain Colored Taffetas

in garnet, helio and torquoise, worth 75c, at 49c yard.

Fancy corded and plaid Silks, every thread pure silk, in every conceivable shade, special at 85c yard.

BOEHM'S.

"The Standard of Highest Merit."
FISCHER PIANOS
Artistically and Musically Perfect.

Nearly sixty years of honest and intelligent effort along the most progressive lines of piano construction, have made for these instruments a reputation permanent and unsurpassed. "The Standard of Highest Merit" as applied to the Fischer Piano means the perfection of Tone, Action, Artistic Workmanship and Durability; making it pre-eminently the model home piano of America. World-renowned for Purity and Power of Tone, Durability and Tone-Sustaining Quality. All the latest and most artistic designs in cases, in beautifully figured and rare woods, to conform to any surroundings.

OVER 107,000 SOLD.

We have also a large stock of almost new and good second-hand pianos of our own and other celebrated makes, which we have taken in exchange on purchase of new Fischer Pianos. Every one of these instruments has been thoroughly overhauled and put in good order at our factory, and will be sold at very low prices.

Sold at Moderate Prices—Cash or Easy Payments.
33 UNION SQUARE—WEST, NEW YORK.
Between 16th and 17th Streets.
Catalogue, Terms, etc., mailed free on application.

The VAN'S They
sell the same as they buy, cheap. A bargain got should be a bargain given. Every item stands on its own merits as an individual bargain. We might fill this paper with talk, but what we want you to do is to visit our store, especially our always daylit basement, where we have the most complete ten cent department in the city. Here you buy the biggest on earth for the money.
10 CENTS

VanEmburgh & Son.

Van Arsdale's Shoes.
Men's, Women's and Children's Footwear
For Easter, Spring and Summer.
We believe the goods we are now showing contain the best selection of stylish and reliable footwear we have ever offered, and at our well-known popular prices.

VAN ARSDALE,
Repairing Properly Done. 127 East Front St.

The Shoe Store
AROUND THE CORNER.
Men folks all know what the W. L. Douglas Shoe is. They are better this year than ever. More style and wear than any $3 shoe in the market. If you want $3.00 worth of good shoe leather, try our W. L. Douglas shoe.
A. WILLETT & SON,
NO. 107 PARK AVE.

SPECIAL SALE
Over 13 hundred pairs of shoes. Nothing to say about the price, only that the lowness of it will surprise everybody.
SHERWIN'S, 149 West Front St.

THE NEW CLOTHING STORE

322 West Front St., Near Grove.

ALL GOODS MADE IN OUR FACTORY IN PLAINFIELD.

You can buy a suit of clothes here for $6 that would cost you $10 in any other retail store,

Because { They come direct from the manufacturer to the consumer. All middle profits are done away with.

We give our customers the benefit and enable you to buy new, stylish, nicely tailored Clothing at two profits under the market. Read the price list carefully, then come and let us prove to you that what we say is right.

MEN'S SUITS in up-to-date Worsteds, Cheviots, Cassimeres and Serges. $2 75, $3, $3 25, $3 50, $3 75, $4, $4 50, $4.75, $5, $5 25, $5.50, $5.75, $6, $6 25, $6 50, $6.75, $7, $7 25, $8, $9, $10 and $12, worth from $5 to $18. And WE HAVE YOUR SIZE in anything you may select.

BOYS' LONG PANT SUITS, 14 to 19, at $2 50, $2 75, $3, $3 25, $3 50, $3.75, $4, $4.25, $4.50, $4 75, $5, $5.25, $5 50, $5.75, $6 and $7. Worth from $4 to $10 50. Over 50 styles to select from.

CHILDREN'S KNEE PANT SUITS in Reefer and three piece Suits at 69c to $4, worth 50 per cent. extra.

SPRING TOP COATS in Coverts, Oxfords and fashionable Cheviot effect, $3.75 to $8. Some of these are beauties.

Also a full line of Men's, Boys' and Children's single Pants at prices that will surprise you.

Our Special Order Department

has been a great success. It seems to have been the missing link. We are having everyday demands from men who cannot be fitted from ready to wear stock. It is a boon to mothers of fat boys, who have been unable to buy clothes in the city before. We make them a suit of clothes to order for less than they could buy it ready made for in any other store. Come and see for yourself, as many others are doing, and you will be glad you came.

SCHEPFLIN & SCHULTZ,

Wholesale Clothing Manufacturers.

M. J. CASHIN, Manager Retail Store.

322 West Front Street. Schepflin Block

I am getting along splendid, since I commenced using Ripans Tabules. I can do all my housework now without sitting down to rest, and can walk first-rate, no pains nor aches about me.

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES (in a paper carton without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR FIVE CENTS. This low-priced sort is intended for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (120 tabules) will be sent by mail for forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents. RIPANS TABULES may also be had of grocers, general store keepers, news agents and at liquor stores and barber shops.

A Great Sale of Kid Gloves Saturday.

Nearly 600 pairs Women's Kid Gloves to be 65c a pair. All the fashionable shades, including black and white. Button and clasp fastenings. Every pair guaranteed perfect. About 300 pairs Real Kidskin Gloves of an extra fine quality, all leading shades, button, hook and clasp styles. These gloves are fitted to your hands and fully warranted, 98c the pair, worth 1.25.

A great Ribbon Bargain.

1,000 yds plain Taffeta Ribbon, pure silk, cord edge, suitable for shirring, at 15c a yard, regular price 25c.

I. LEDERER.

DUN'S WEEKLY REPORT.

Business Seems to Experience That Tired Feeling So Usual in Spring.

New York, April 1.—Failures during the first quarter of 1899 have been in amount of liabilities not more than about $26,6[illegible],330, against $31,710,142 last year, $44,007,910 in 1897, and $57,525,135 in 1896. While the later returns may increase the amount for the quarter a little, the complete return which will be given next week will be very remarkable in comparison with that of any previous year.

Business is not at present improving. There has been something very like a check, partly the result of heavy buying since January 1st to anticipate the market, partly caused by the uncertainty about the operation of many combinations, and a shade of doubt about foreign exchange is attributed, with or without reason, to preparations of the overnment for paying off the $20,000,000 assured by the treaty with Spain, and if such preparations were begun just before the pressure which April settlements usually cause they were enough to cause some annoyance. The new rule of the clearing house banks at New York about taxation of country checks also causes some shifting of accounts. But the money market throughout the country is well supplied.

A period of transition from one ownership and management to another, and from one industrial system to another, when it affects many hundred establishments throughout the country, inevitably causes some hesitation in business. A little later the many hundred concerns may be doing more business than ever, as they were just before combinations were effected. But at the point of transition nobody knows just what to expect.

There is much withdrawal of iron business because continuance of high prices is doubted, because great purchases made by many works have not been met by orders, and because works affected by many other combinations proposed are not inclined to buy more largely.

More evidence appears that the woolen manufacture is not helped as yet by new combinations or the prospect of them, and the buying demand has been disappointing in many ways, though in dress goods active.

The boot and shoe business is again halting because of difference between buyers and sellers as to prices, large orders being refused, and others withdrawn because dealers will not pay advances which manufacturers ask.

The fluctuations of the wheat market have been large and tend on the whole toward higher quotations.

In spite of all the gain in railway earnings, the doubt about stock values has hindered advance, although the rise has been $1.60 per share for the week, and for the industrials $3.06 per share. Conservative people are picking up good securities from the great lot offered, and will not be found behind in the end.

The money market at New York has been influenced by the idea that the Treasury is buying $20,000,000 to meet the Spanish demand. But the volume of aggregate business has not been less than in previous weeks, showing for the last week of March 57.5 per cent. increase over last year, and 67.6 per cent. over 1892.

Railroad earnings for three weeks of March have been 4.1 per cent. larger than last year and 9.8 per cent. larger than in 1892. Failures for four weeks have been $8,245,826, of which manufacturing were $3,450,988 and trading $4,080,965. Failures for the week have been 194 in the United States against 220 last year, and 26 in Canada against 27 last year.

BRYAN WILL SURELY ATTEND.

Eugene V. Brewster the Committeeman, Issues a Statement to That Effect.

New York, April 1.—Eugene V. Brewster issued a typewritten statement today regarding the Bryan silver banquet. In it he said:

"The statement of John Brisben Walker and his followers that they will give a banquet at the Grand Central Palace on the night of April 19 is too absurd to require any denial.

"To dispel all doubts in the public mind as well as in the minds of all friends and admirers of the Chicago platform policy and others who have forwarded money to me for tickets for a Chicago platform Jefferson dinner, we, the only authorized arrangements committee of fifteen, in order to avoid all dispute in the future hereby desire to announce that the Jefferson dinner will be given by Chicago platform Democrats on Wednesday, April 19, at 7 p. m., in the Grand Central Palace, at which Col. William J. Bryan will be present and make an address. All applications for tickets should be forwarded to our treasurer, E. V. Brewster, No. 16 Court street, Brooklyn. One dollar should be inclosed for each ticket desired."

Mr. Brewster when asked about the refusal of a Manhattan hotel manager to allow the committee to rent a room in his place as headquarters, said:

"Oh, it is another Tammany scheme to spoil our dinner. From a legal standpoint it is a gross breach of contract for which the hotel people could be held responsible."

Spaniards Leave Cuba.

Havana, April 1.—The steamer Montserrat sailed to-day for Spain with 280 Spanish passengers, formerly small merchants of Cuba.

There have recently been at least three authentic murders of Spaniards in the country, and in some cases men of property have been killed. There are men in Havana who say the evidence points to Cuban soldiers as the guilty parties, and they assert that since Gen. Gomez was deposed as commander-in-chief the Cubans have not had a head to enforce discipline and punish crime. In the past Gen. Gomez punished murders of this kind with death, but since his removal Cubans have been taking advantage of the lack of discipline to retaliate upon their war enemies on the island.

The Samoan Difficulty.

Berlin, April 1.—The United States Ambassador, Mr. Andrew D. White, visited the Foreign Office and informed the officials there that the latest proposals of Germany regarding Samoa had been favorably received at Washinton. The attitude of the press is fair and moderate, although some of the newspapers are attacking the authorities bitterly, claiming that they are making too many concessions to the United States and Great Britain.

THE CHANNEL HORROR

An English Excursion Boat Goes Down in Ten Minutes.

A NUMBER OF LIVES LOST

The Captain Stayed on the Bridge Giving Orders to the Last and Went Down With His Ship Woman and Children Cared for First—Survivor's Story of the Disaster.

Southampton, April 1.—The passenger steamer Stella, plying between this port and the Channel Islands, which crashed upon the dreaded Casquet Rocks, near the Island of Alderney, in a dense fog and foundered in ten minutes, her boilers exploding, resulted in great loss of life.

One report has it that 120 lives were lost. The officials of the London and Southwestern Railway Company, which owned the Stella, declare that the loss of life will not exceed seventy. Three boats are missing.

The Stella left Southampton conveying the first daylight excursion of the season to the Channel Islands. There were about 185 passengers on board and the crew numbered thirty-five men. The weather was foggy, but all went well until the afternoon, when the fog became most dense.

At 4 o'clock the Casquet Rocks suddenly loomed up, and the steamer almost immediately afterwards struck amidships. The captain, seeing that the Stella was fast sinking, ordered the lifeboats to be launched. His instructions were carried out with the utmost celerity, and the women and children were embarked in the boats. Then the captain ordered the men to look after themselves.

A survivor states that he and twenty-five others put off from the Stella in a small boat. The sea was calm, but there was a big swirl around the rocks. When this boat was a short distance away from the wreck, the boilers of the Stella burst with a terrific explosion, and the vessel disappeared stern foremost in the sea.

The last thing the survivor saw was the figure of the captain of the Stella, standing calmly on the bridge and giving his orders. The captain perished with his vessel, owing to the great suction caused by the sinking steamer.

Continuing, the survivor said: "The suction was so tremendous that we thought our little craft would be engulfed. I saw six boats, including the collapsible boat, besides our own, leave the wreck. They contained altogether between eighty and 100 persons. Five of the boats were soon lost to view, but we took a boat, filled with women, in tow, and taking the oars in turn rowed all night long until most of us dropped asleep, thoroughly exhausted.

"We sighted a sailboat at 6 o'clock in the morning, but the Great Western Railway Company's steamer Lynx, from Weymouth, had meanwhile hove in sight. She bore down on us and took us all on board. She eventually landed us at Guernsey."

The Great Western Railroad Company's steamer Vera, from Southampton, picked up forty others of the survivors and landed them at Guernsey.

TO INVESTIGATE TAMMANY.

The Committee of the N. Y. Legislature Appointed for That Purpose.

Albany, April 1.—The following are the members of the Assembly special committee which is to investigate the raising of a corruption fund among the members of the New York city police force to kill the New York city police bill in the Senate: Messrs. Mazet and Fallows of New York, Costelo of Oswego, McEwan of Albany, Wilson of Kings, Republicans, and Hoffman of New York and Boland of Buffalo, Democrats. The above committee was announced by the Speaker of the Assembly.

The inquiry into the Tammany administration of the affairs of New York city, with particular reference to the alleged corrupt influence which Tammany has exerted at Albany this winter, will not be formally begun until next week.

Republican Policemen Have No Fear.

New York, April 1.—Tammany's astuteness in placing Republican police captains in the precincts in which corruption is more likely to exist is causing much comment. Capt. Diamond, in command of the East Fifth street station, the first Republican captain appointed under the Greater New York charter, said:

"If politics entered into my transfer to this precinct I know nothing of it. I have been here since last November, and have done my best to improve conditions in the precinct. I have had many members of the clergy and old residents compliment me upon the conditions here now. Many cafes have been forced to close, and other radical changes effected. I am satisfied to have any investigating committee do its full duty as far as I am concerned. I will stand on my police record. I know nothing of any system of levying taxes upon the men in my precinct for any purposes."

Capt. Hogan, in charge of the Eldridge street station, also Republican, said: "I have been here about six weeks, and succeeded Capt. Chapman. No request was ever made by me for this asignment, nor do I know of any Tammay politics causing my transfer to this command.

"My work as captain of this precinct has been such that I fear no investigation. No rumor even has ever reached me of a levying of assessments upon my men. I don't believe the printed statements. They surely do not apply in this precinct."

For a Hayes Memorial.

Columbus, O., April 1.—The Ohio State Archæological and Historical Society has undertaken to secure the title to and possession of the property known as Spiegel Grove, at Fremont, O., the home of the late ex-President Rutherford B. Hayes, with a view to preserving it as a memorial. The society has secured from the family of the late ex-President a proposition by which they agree to deed Spiegel Grove to the society on condition that a fund of $25,000 be raised and permanently invested to provide an income to insure the proper care of the property.

TO FOSTER CUBAN SHIPPING.

New Orders Issued by President McKinley.

Washington, April 1.—President McKinley, by an order made public today through Assistant Secretary of War Meiklejohn, has taken the first important step toward laying the foundation for a purely Cuban merchant marine. As an initial step in that direction he has ordered that all registry fees imposed for documenting foreign vessels in Cuba be abolished. The old Spanish fee for vessels was $5 per ton, as shown by the vessels' registered tonnage. President McKinley now proposes to abolish all fee. This will not only allow the Cubans to purchase ships in the cheapest markets of the world, but will enable them to build up the carrying trade which they so much need, and which, by an onerous tax under Spanish rule, was almost impossible.

Cuba has no ship yards. With no stringent restrictions upon the coasting trade, Cuba is expected in time to establish ship yards of her own. But in the interval shipbuilding nations, such as the United States and England, will profit more or less by the order. Cuban vessels at present are compelled to pay local tonnage dues of only 2 cents per ton at Cuban ports.

The coastwise trade of Cuba covers a distance of over 3,000 miles. The flag adopted for Cuban vessels is blue with a white canton. Although no reciprocal terms have been entered into by which the Cubans can trade with American ports, nevertheless they are privileged to do so, but, of course, they must pay the same duties as other alien vessels. The United States Government does not guarantee Cuban vessels protection outside of Cuban ports, except only in ports of the United States. Should the Cubans carry on a shipping trade with Venezuela and Mexico, as some of the owners of vessels have already done, they must take the risks that accompany the act.

President McKinley has also amended the customs tariff and regulations for ports in Porto Rico. Hereafter shooks and headings will pay a duty of only 18 cents per 100 kilos. Heretofore they have paid 36 cents per 100 kilos. Hence the reduction is 50 per cent. on this article alone. The object of this reduction is to enable the Porto Ricans to secure cheap packages for the shipment of raw sugar and molasses.

The President has also directed that the customs tariff and regulations for ports in Porto Rico be amended by the insertion of a paragraph permitting articles of the growth, produce and manufacture of the island of Porto Rico which are exported to a foreign country and returned without having been advanced in value or improved in condition by any process of manufacture or other means, and upon which no draw-back or bunty has been allowed, to be returned to the island free of duty. A similar amendment has been made to the Cuban tariff.

Dr. Kennedy Sentenced to Die.

New York, April 1.—Justice Williams in the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court yesterday sentenced Samuel J. Kennedy, the convicted murderer of Dollie Reynolds, to be put to death in Sing Sing prison in the week beginning May 22. Kennedy, before sentence was passed, said to the Court:

"I am entirely innocent of this crime. My conscience is perfectly clear. I am as innocent of this crime as you are, Judge. I was convicted on false evidence got up by the detectives."

Kennedy will be taken to Sing Sing in the afternoon. His lawyers will appeal the case. The frequency of conviction in murder trials upon purely circumstantial evidence furnished by detectives, is occasioning comment among the legal fraternity of the metropolis.

Emeline C. Reynolds was found dead on the morning of August 16, 1898, in a room in the Grand Hotel, her skull having been crushed with some heavy weapon. Upon her was found a worthless check for $13,000, which, it was alleged, Kennedy had given her to induce her to intrust money to him to bet on the races according to his system. Kennedy told various stories of his doings on the night of the murder, and several employees at the hotel identified him as the man they had seen with Miss Reynolds. Other witnesses in defence swore to an alibi.

In Office Thirty-three Years.

Trenton, April 1.—To hold an important political office for thirty-three years is nothing uncommon, but to occupy such a place for that period under constantly changing governments is a record rarely met with. Col. Edward D. Fox, executive clerk of New Jersey, although a Democrat in politics, has consecutively served fourteen Governors belonging to both of the two great political parties. But politics made little difference to Col. Fox, who has held one of the most responsible and important offices under the State government without interruption since 1865. Col. Fox's long service in his office, which is an appointive one, has been mainly due to his efficiency and thorough knowledge of the business of the Executive Dpartment. In fact, so familiar has he become with the affairs of the Governor's office that he is practically deputy private secretary to the Governor, discharging the duties of the private secretary whenever that officer is absent.

Big Fall of Rock at Niagara.

Niagara Falls, April 1.—The greatest fall of rock from the Niagara cliffs that has taken place in years occurred about 5 o'clock yesterday, when a mass estimated to weigh over 10,000 tons plunged from the top of the bank at the Whirlpool Rapids down upon the Gorge Railroad tracks and the lower buildings and shaft of the famous Buttery elevator. The buildings at the foot of the bluff, just rebuilt after the wreck of the old shaft by wind a few weeks ago, were crushed and buried under the debris from the cliffs.

A portion of the elevator shaft was wrecked. At this spot the Gorge Railroad tracks are buried, one bowlder alone of the mass weighing about 200 tons. Between this bowlder and the cliff there is a big mountain of shale, which was the resting place of the limestone ledge at the top of the bank. Another great rock, weighing many hundred tons, is gradually breaking away from the cliff and is expected to fall soon. Had the fall of rock occurred in the daytime life would almost certainly have been ost. The Gorge road has not been running this winter.

Until April 1st, 1899.

Great Cut in Prices.

Full set of Teeth	$7 50
Filling at reduced Prices.
Extracting, one or two	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas Extracting	$1 00

TERMS CASH.

DR. C. H. CLARK

Office at residence, 209 E. FRONT ST.

Mrs. John Brown

Successor to JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned

FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.

Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimate cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.

FRANK BURKE, Manager.

BICYCLES BICYCLES

George Gould,

AGENT FOR

VICTOR, PATEE, WAVERLY, IVANHOE and NASSAU SPECIAL

Rents, Repairs, Sundries and Storage.

326 PARK AVENUE.

CLIFTON BUILDING.

NEW YORK CITY AND COUNTRY WORK OUR SPECIALTY. | Satisfaction guaranteed. Stages to hire.

OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

F. A. LONG,

No. 106 SOMERSET ST

Near Manning Avenue.

Up-to-Date Cash Grocery Store

Orders called for and delivered in any part City or Dunellen.

ARLINGTON HOTEL.

(Splendid Mountain View.)

SOMERSET ST. AND GREENBROOK ROAD.

Charles Jensen, Prop'r.

First class bar. Large parlor with piano for parties, receptions etc. Stable and shed accommodations.

M. POWERS,

DEALER IN

LEHIGH COAL.

FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.

Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A

Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

E. S. F. RANDOLPH,

DRUGGIST,

Cor. Liberty and Fourth Sts. Telephone 781

PRESCRIPTIONS FILLED DAY OR NIGHT.

TRY THE

QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,

No 218 E. Front St.

Goods called for and delivered free of charge.

Domestic or gloss finish.

H. HAND,

Licensed :: Auctioneer.

OFFICE— Corner South Ave. and Berckman St.

REAL ESTATE and FIRE INSURANCE.

11 16 1m

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .

(Licensed)

J. H. Staats, Prop'r.

107, 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.

EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.

AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

Wm. J. Pearson,

(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)

Carpenter and Builder

15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to.

SOMERSET HOTEL

Somerset St. and Lincoln Place.

North Plainfield, N. J

W. F. DREYER, Proprietor.

AMPLE ACCOMODATIONS FOR MAN AND BEAST.

F. A. DUNHAM,

—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—

109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 67 F

J. C. Pope & Co.,

INSURANCE AGENTS,

110 East Front St.,

Plainfield, N. J

WHY DO YOU SUFFER

so long with an aching tooth? We think there is nothing worse. So easy to prevent it if you would have them examined more often. Stop the pain and save the tooth when you can. We always need all we have, and of course never miss them till they're gone. Free advice for the asking.

OFFICE HOURS 8 TO 6.

Full Set guaranteed	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown (22 k.)	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c to 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. C. W. LEONARD,

FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE

Over City National Bank

Entrance on Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

Arrival and Departure of Mails

NEW YORK MAILS.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m., 3:00, 5, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m., 12:30 2:00, 5:00, 7:30 p.m.

SOMERVILLE and EASTON.

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m., 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA - Direct.

Arrive—8:40 and 11:30 a. m., 1:00 and 3:00 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a. m., 5:00 p. m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE.

Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M

STAGE ROUTE.

Plainfield and Scotch Plains.

STAGE LEAVES PLAINFIELD (E. FRONT ST., OPP. PARK AVE.) 9:30 a. m., 12:45, 4:00 and 6:00 P. M.

STAGE LEAVES SCOTCH PLAINS (FRONT POST OFFICE) 10:30 a. m., 2:00, 5:00 and 7:00 p. m.

Upon notice a special stage will be held for parties of six or more attending the theatre or other attraction.

THOS. NEWMAN, Prop.

FRENCH

Plate glass mirror, oak mantel, complete with summer front, for $13.00. You can't equal it elsewhere.

CURTIS M. THORPE,

310-312 PARK AVE.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills

—25c.—

A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.

MALLINSON'S

North and Watchung avenues.

EASTER

Cards and Novelties. Paas Egg Dyes at

HARPER'S,

411 Park Ave Plainfield, N. J

RUSHMORE & CO.

WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST

Dealers in

Lumber, Coal and Wood

Moulding & Planing Mill

Turning and Scroll Sawing.

L. A. HUMMER,

Variety Market.

Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.

163 SOMERSET STREET.

Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.

MONEY TO LOAN.

197 North Ave.

Wm. D. Thickstun. John P. Emmon

Telephone 601.

An Enormous Stock of

EASTER PLANTS

and flowers at Stanley's two stores, 138 and 142 North Ave. Lilies, Azaleas, Spiræas, Hyacinths, etc. Also a large quantity of assorted plants at bargain prices. Rubber plants, Palms, Ferns, etc., etc. Inspection invited.

Charles L. Stanley,

135 AND 142 NORTH AVENUE.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 5:30 p. m.

108 North avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week
$5 a year—in advance
No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada
Delivered by carrier or by mail.
The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district
Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.
Advertising rates mailed on request.
Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N.J., APRIL 1 1899.

FEATURES OF TODAY'S PRESS.

PAGE 1.—Important local news.
PAGE 2.—Telegraphic news.
PAGE 3.—Telegraphic news.
PAGE 4.—Editorial and gossip.
PAGE 5.—Vicinity news.
PAGE 6.—Religious news.
PAGE 6.—German news.
PAGE 7.—Miscellaneous.
PAGE 8.—Sporting and local news.

COMING EVENTS.

April 2—F. H. Martin will speak and Prof. Charles Wold will give selections on musical glasses.
April 3—Missionary study class will be organized at the Y. M. C. A.
April 3—Ball and cakewalk of Twilight Social Club at Crescent Rink.
April 3—Common Council meets.
April 3—Rutgers College Glee Club at Y. M. C. A. Hall. Benefit Plainfield High School Athletic Association.
April 4—Recital by Mrs. Frank J. Smith at the Casino.
April 6—"Feast of All Nations," lecture room Trinity Reformed church.
April 6—Bel-bazaar at the Casino.
April 6—"Natural Gas" at Music Hall. Benefit of stage hands.
April 8—Concert by the Cecelia Bradford Trio at Y. M. C. A. Hall.

The Easiest Way

To rent your house if it is in prospect of remaining vacant for the next twelve months is to step into or send to The Daily Press office a small advertisement for the Cent-a-word Column.

The Cost Is Trifling

When you consider the profitable results that may come from such publicity. Thousands of Plainfield people have tried it and found that the plan

Works and Pays Well.

Playing Poker in Plainfield.

According to the decision of the Councilmanic police committee, as told in the news columns of The Daily Press yesterday, those seductive and ubiquitious poker parties, which heretofore have been the cause of numerous and exciting raids by the police, will hereafter go on uninterrupted if the players are sequestered in a private house that is not known or cannot be proven to be a regular gambling house.

The action of the Honorable Councilmen has not been taken with a view of condoning or protecting indiscriminate gambling in poker and sundry games of chance, but the arrival at an understanding with the law. For several years past it has been a practice of the police to make raids on poker parties, etc., in private houses, and to arraign the players, or such of them as had not vamoosed through windows, blind doors and under beds, before the city cadi. Almost invariably a conviction has resulted. In pursuance of this policy the police made a raid of a West End house two weeks ago and gathered in several men whom they charged with gambling in violation of the city ordinances.

When the prisoners were arraigned the officers offered the usual run of testimony, but Judge Runyon declared that the police had not acted as the law directed and he therefore discharged the prisoners, much to the astonishment of the officers.

In view of the gossip over the outcome of the raid and the unfavorable position the involved policemen were placed in, it was decided by the police committee that it would be best to have a strict understanding with the law. And then followed the formal charges made against the officers, which resulted in a little quiet and thorough summing up of the city ordinances. The result was that Judge Runyon's position was found to be perfectly correct.

The decision of the police committee will doubtless have a tendency to make the police more careful in making raids in the future similar to those that have taken place in the past, but because quiet games will be tolerated in private houses it does not mean that Plainfield is going to become a veritable little Monte Carlo. The ordinance is broad and effective enough to prevent Plainfield's name from becoming a reproach to an orderly and respectable community.

In years gone by we have heard much about the splendid things that might be expected if the tin plate industry was only fostered under the benign protection of a high tariff. One of the splendid results buyers of tinplate are now enjoying is the payment of $4 per box where only $2 85 was demanded six months ago. It is impossible to believe, however, that the tin plate trust has anything to do with the raise, for doesn't our own Governor aver that trusts make products cheaper rather than higher.

Somerville is engaged in a struggle to raise a sufficient sum of money to build a hospital. The endless chain is one of the schemes resorted to, and already it has been productive of much cash. As a rule we look upon the endless chair business as an unmitigated nuisance, but when it is engaged in such an undertaking as seeking to raise funds for hospital it is a noble work that deserves success.

The Cranford Chronicle observes that if some of the tradesmen of that town would follow the example of a Plainfield business man and post a placard on their desks stating that "the credit department is on the roof; take the elevator," the wolf would not poke his nose so persistently through the store doors.

The Philadelphia Record thinks that with wars, rumors of wars and Algerism turning his hair grey, President McKinley appears to be still hunting trouble. He has announced to his Cabinet that he will soon issue a civil service order placing 6,500 offices at the disposal of Republican spoilsmen.

We are informed that by actual count one hundred and twenty-seven (127) men were seen to go into one of the "leading hotels" in Bound Brook on Sunday, March 19th.—Rev. A. L. Wilson, Prohibitionist, in Bound Brook State Centre.

Perhaps they went in to "see a man." Is that so remarkable that a "sentinel" should post himself so as to keep tabs all day?

Former Mayor William B. Strong, of New Brunswick, has again been nominated for that office by the Democrats. The Democrats think there is something in the name that means more than the personal identity it conveys.

Dr. Sivers has declined to accept the Democratic Mayoralty nomination in Rahway. The doctor doubtless considers that he has enough troubles now.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

If there is any truth in the reports, a good deal of Plainfield's sewage is running into the Greenbrook and thence finds its way to the Bound Brook and so to the Raritan river at this place. Such a pollution of so small a stream as the first-mentioned is clearly a menace to health and liable to breed disease. The Plainfield authorities should find a remedy.—Bound Brook Chronicle.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

The Sawtelle Dramatic Company had an appreciative audience at Music Hall last night, on which occasion they presented a stirring drama entitled "A Race for Life." It was well rendered, with good scenic and electrical effects, enlisting the services of all the company in the several roles. Tonight the company concludes their engagement and will give for the first time here, a war drama, said to be superior to any we have yet seen. It is founded on real incidents of the late Spanish American War, and has for a title "Uncle Sam in Cuba." Entirely new and beautiful scenery is to be introduced, and it is said to be the best acted play of the entire week's offering. The company as a whole have made favorable impression with our theatregoers, and there will undoubted be a good attendance tonight.

* * * * * *

In "Natural Gas," which comes to Music Hall for the stage hands' benefit next Thursday night, Edward Girard has expended great care and expense in making the production the best this hilarious company has ever had. New dialogue, bits of business, new music and specialties have been introduced, and "Natural Gas" this season is better than ever. Among the company will be found such top-liners as Steve Jennings, Frank O'Brien, Andy Barr, Florence E. Evans, Jessie Gardner and Nina Bertolini. All who haven't seen "Natural Gas" will want to see it, and doubtless all who have seen it will want to see it again.

GRAIN-O BRINGS RELIEF

to the coffee drinker. Coffee drinking is a habit that universally indulges in and almost as universally injures. Have you tried Grain-O? It is almost like coffee but the effects are just the opposite. Coffee upsets the stomach, ruins the digestion, affects the heart and disturbs the whole nervous system. Grain-O to the stomach, aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. There is nothing but nourishment in Grain-O. It can't be otherwise. 15 and 25c. per package.

EASTER Millinery, Easter Ribbons, Easter Kid Gloves, Easter Stock Collars, Easter Laces, Easter Handkerchiefs, Easter Ties, Easter Tailor-made Suits and a thousand desirable needs for Easter. Such an array of dainty feminine necessities it is seldom your good fortune to see, and certainly never have seen before in Plainfield, and are new and the latest.

DO NOT FAIL to see our new tailor-made Suits. Unquestionably the most perfect-fitting, stylish, best finished suits obtainable for the price, $9.98 to $22. Equal to custom work.

MEN'S

EASTER TIES.

Few New York City stores show a stock of Ties such as we are now showing. Easter Ties to suit everyone. Imperial Four-in-Hands, Imperial Tecks, Dewey Puff Ties, Club Ties, Band Bows, Shield Bows, White Lawn and Colored Ties and Bows. New Collars, New Cuffs, New Gloves, Collar Buttons, Cuff Buttons, Boston Garters, Arm Bands, Etc., Etc.

We have beyond question the best stock of ever shown in this city.

MEN'S SHIRTS

Men's $1 Fancy Laundered Shirts 89c each.

Full Line

FANCY SOCKS,

Embroidered, plaids and Roman stripes,

25c to 50c

Men's 15c fast black Socks, 10c pair.

Are you going away to Spend Easter? If so, you may need a trunk. Our little steamer trunks are "as handy as a pocket in a shirt." Small, light, strong, hold just enough. Dress suit cases from $1 98 to $6 48.

NEW TRUNKS.

Men's Trunks.
Ladies' Trunks.
Steamer Trunks.
Cheap Trunks.

High priced Trunks. Leather bound, brass trimmed, roomy, strong, elegant and moderate.

PRICED $2.75 TO $10.

OFFER EXTRAORDINARY!

Today with each cash purchase of $1 or more we will give free of charge 1 box of the celebrated "Royal" Tooth Powder, guaranteed to be as good as Lyon's or money refunded.

Down Stairs.

1 Solid Oak Sideboard, bevel French plate mirror, 6 cane seat, full size Dining Chairs, 1 6 feet solid Extension Dining Table, total value $24, for Saturday only $19.98
TRADING STAMPS, TOO.

WOODHULL & MARTIN.

234-236-238 WEST FRONT ST.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Marshal Campbell is now using the bicycle owned by the borough to cover his beat, and finds it less difficult than walking.

—Society will not wheel this evening at the Crescent Rink, as those who wheel are desirous of observing Holy Week to the close.

—The Sunday-school of the Park Avenue Baptist church will hold a special Easter service, tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Members of the Home department are specially invited.

—Rev. Dr. A. V. V. Raymond at one time pastor of Trinity Reformed church and now president of Union College, will preach in the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church tomorrow morning and evening.

—There will be a business meeting of the Primary Teacher's Union next Monday afternoon at the Y M. C. A. building. A feature of the meeting will be a talk by Miss Nuttman, vice-president of the Elizabeth Union.

—Special Easter services will be held by the Sunday school of the Congregational church tomorrow afternoon at 2:45 o'clock. There will be an address by Rev. Dr. A. V. V. Raymond, president of Union College.

Working Night and Day

The busiest and mightiest little thing that ever was made is Dr. King's New Life Pills. Every pill is a sugar-coated globule of health, that changes weakness into strength, listlessness into energy, brain fag into mental power. They're wonderful in building up the health. Only 25c per box. Sold by L. W. Randolph.

GRAND FAIR

under the Auspices of

Miantonomo Tribe, No. 118,

Improved Order of Red Men,

—AND—

Iona Council, No. 14, D. of P.

IN

WASHINGTON HALL,

West Second St.,

Tuesday, April 4, to Saturday, April 8,

inclusive.

DANCING EVERY EVENING

Unique novelties exhibited. Something new each night. 4 1 7

John G. Bantle,

428 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

First-class

TAILOR

SPECIALTY OF

Ladies' Tailor-made Garments

Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

—Putnam & DeGraw are showing a fine line of Easter neckwear.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL!

MAZE EDWARDS, Lessee and Manager. Telephone 722.

ONE WEEK, BEGINNING MARCH 27, 1899.
Daily Matinees commencing Tuesday.

MISS JESSIE SAWTELLE

AND MR. GEO. H. SUMMERS supported by the superb
SAWTELLE DRAMATIC CO.
REPERTOIRE.

EVENINGS. MATINEE.
Thursday—"Slaves of Gold." "Faust."
Friday—"Race for Life."
Saturday—"Uncle Sam in Cuba." To be announced.

New and up-to-date Specialties, Scenery, Mechanical and Electrical Effects. Popular prices, 10, 20 and 30c. Matinees, Adults, 20c. Children 10c. Seats now on sale at box office.

THIRTEENTH GRAND

Ball AND Prize Cakewalk

of the

TWILIGHT SOCIAL CLUB,

at the

CRESCENT RINK,

Plainfield, N. J.,

Easter Monday Night

April 3d, 1899.

Music by Rogers. Tickets 50c.
Grand march at 9 o'clock. Cakewalk at 11:30.
3 31 3

CONCERT BY

Rutgers College Glee Club

For the Benefit of the Plainfield High School Athletic Associations.

Y. M. C. A. Hall, Monday Ev'g, April 3, 1899. ADMISSION, 35 CENTS.

Tickets for sale at Armstrong's Pharmacy.
3 31 3

CHAS. L. FORCE,

Architect and Superintendent.

167 Duer St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given. 1 31 tf

PECK'S CORNER.

It is not necessary to buy poor goods to economize when

PECK

is here with goods that have value at about the same price.

Look at his line of DRESS TRIMMINGS & DRESS LININGS.
Exceptional values.

Look at
3 PAIR HOSE AT $1.00.

Look at
LACES AND EMBROIDERIES.
Cannot be equalled.

AUCTION DISPERSAL SALE of Trotting Bred Stock

at the

FAMOUS GLEN-MOORE STOCK FARM,

Glen-Moore, N. J.,

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 5th, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m. sharp, (rain or shine.)

Owing to the serious and continued illness of E. S. Wells, the proprietor, the horse stock of this famous establishment—including speedy youngsters, desirable roadsters and one of the most royal bands of brood mares in America—will positively be dispersed by auction. It will be the opportunity of a lifetime for bidders, as, all in all, the superior of the stock has never been put under the hammer.

By special arrangements, the following R. R. Trains stop at the farm:
FROM NEW YORK, Foot of Liberty St. Central R. R. of N. J.
6 a. m. 7.45 a. m. 9 a. m. (Local, 11:45 a. m. (This train too late for commencement of sale.)

FROM PHILADELPHIA, Reading Terminal Depot.
8:00 a. m. 9:30 a. m. Local at 1:30 p. m. (Too late for commencement of sale.)
Catalogues ready. Apply to E. S. Wells, Glen-Moore, N. J., or Fasig Tipton Co., Madison Square Garden, New York. 4 1-4

When March winds blow,
And our face and hands chap so
USE CHAP CURE.
Manufactured only by
T. S. ARMSTRONG, "The Apothecary"
COR. NORTH AND PARK AVES.

J. F. MacDonald. UPTOWN GROCER. 186 E. Front Street.

20 Fresh Eggs, direct from farmers	25c
Best Jersey E R. Potatoes	43c basket
Best Oil, 5 gal.	45c
Minnesota Flour	55c bag, $4.35 bbl
4 lbs. Carolina Rice	25c
Best Oatmeal	3c lb
Best Pure Lard, no compound	7c lb
Large California Prunes	4 lbs for 25c
O. K. B. Powder	18c
Gold Medal Milk	8c
Kirkman's Borax Soap (6 C. box)	23c
Fine Tomatoes	7c can
Fine Corn	6c can
N. O. Molasses	33c gal
2 bottles Best Maple Syrup	25c
Canned Salmon	8 can
Pea Beans	5c quart
Lima Beans	8c quart
Lemon and Ginger Snaps	5c lb

We won't say anything about our 20c Coffee. Everybody uses it.

$3.50 "ELITE" $3.50

The swell new shoe for men, sells for $3 50. We believe it is better than any $3 50 made. Goodyear welt, hand sewed process; made of fine calf skin, Russia and patent leather; slick, up-to-date styles, fit for a king to wear. Come and see them.

J. & M. FINE SHOES FOR MEN, claimed to be the best $5.00 shoe made.

We sell Men's Shoes, $1 25 up. We sell Women's Shoes, 98c up. "Sorosis" the new shoe for women, $3 50. "Superior," the newer shoe for women, $3.00.

NEW DRESS SUIT CASES, TRUNKS, BAGS.

DOANE & EDSALL.

JEWELRY.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.

Bead Chains 25c and 49c. Gold Chains 25c and 50c. Bracelets 25c and 50c
Buckles, Brooches, Waist Sets, Cuff Buttons, Belt Pins, etc.
We are agents for the
CELEBRATED "EIGHMIE" SHIRTS.

"Feast of all Nations"

IN THE LECTURE ROOM OF

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH

Thursday Evening, April 6,

For Benefit of Young Women's Mission Band of the Church

SUPPER a la Carte during the evening. If stormy the "Feast" will be continued the following evening.

ADMISSION . . 10c
3 31 6

RECITAL

By Mrs. FRANK J. SMITH, assisted by
Miss Martha Miner, Soprano,
Mr. G. Morgan Stricklett, Tenor,
Mr. Frank J. Smith, Accompanist.

At the Casino,

TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 4, at 8:15

Tickets can be obtained at Armstrong's, Leggett's and Randolph's Drug Stores, or of the Patronesses.

PRICE ONE DOLLAR.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
ABSOLUTELY PURE
Makes the food more delicious and wholesome
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, April 1.—All the town was shocked to hear of the death of Mrs. J. Y. Wilson, which occurred at Muhlenberg Hospital, Plainfield, yesterday morning. Mrs. Wilson had been seriously ill for a month, but it was hoped that an operation would be the means of curing her. It was not so, and she passed away twenty-four hours after being placed upon the operating table. Mrs. Wilson was a member of the Seventh Day Baptist church, and an earnest Christian woman. She leaves a husband and four children, Mrs C. R. Clawson, of Salem, West Virginia; Miss Edith C. Wilson, who attends the State Normal school; Howard S., of Spotswood, N. J. a teacher, and J. Alfred teacher of one of the district schools in Piscataway. Arrangements for the funeral will be made later.

There has been quite a little moving about here the past week, and more will follow during the next six days. Very few people are moving out of the borough, it is said.

Miss Mabel Jamison, soprano soloist, has been engaged to sing for another year in the choir of the Second Presbyterian church, Rahway.

A Good Friday service was held in Holy Innocents' church last night. There were remarks made upon the "Seven Words from the Cross."

Lewis and Joseph Thomas have returned from Princeton College to spend the Easter vacation with their mother, Mrs. Nancy Thomas.

Tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock Rev. Mr. Elliott, of Roselle, will address the Methodist Sunday school on "Missions."

Rev E S. Jamison goes to Newark next Tuesday to assist in the examination of ministerial students.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. VanSyckel will spend next week with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Cramer, of Fort Lee.

The Misses Barrett will entertain the Washington Avenue Card Club Monday evening.

The regular monthly meeting of the Borough Council will be held Monday night.

The Board of Education will hold their regular meeting Tuesday evening.

The Crokinole Club met Thursday night at the home of Charles Carpenter.

Alvah Gray, who has been confined to his home by illness, is better.

Special Easter services will be held in all the churches tomorrow.

Smith Watson, engineer, is laid off on account of illness.

William H. Terry spent yesterday in New York.

NEW MARKET

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press)

New Market, April 1.—Mrs. Frazee Suydam, of Oak Tree, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Pizie.

Rev. Martin Sindall, the new pastor of the Seventh-Day Baptist church, preached his first sermon this morning. There was a good attendance at the service.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, April 1.—Township Committee met in the town rooms last evening. Routine business and the approving of the bonds of the recently elected officers of the township was the business of the meeting.

County Superintendent Shearer, of Elizabeth, visited the public school Friday. Mr. Shearer was more than pleased with the working of our school and expressed himself as very much pleased.

Announcement.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Cream Balm in liquid form, which will be known as Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price, including the spraying tube, is 75 cts Druggists or by mail. The liquid form embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not dry up the secretions but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY.

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—Moraller, the jeweler, has moved to the store adjoining Armstrong's pharmacy on Park avenue.

—Samuel Dreier, of West Front street, has been making several improvements to his property.

—The Sunday school of the Congregational church will hold special Easter exercises tomorrow afternoon.

—Work has just been started in putting a large addition on the house, 928 Central avenue, owned by Charles W. McCutchen.

—The members of Columbia Lodge, A. O. U. W., are getting up a card containing the name, address and business of every member of the lodge.

—The Women's Society for Christian Work of the Seventh Day Baptist church has arranged an Easter supper for the evening of April 12th.

—There is a lively sale of tickets for the concert of the Rutgers Glee Club in Y. M. C. A. Hall, Monday evening, for the benefit of the athletic associations of the High School.

—Supper will be served a la carte at the "Feast of All Nations," to be given at Trinity Reformed church Thursday evening, April 6th. The affair will be for the benefit of the Young Women's Mission Band.

—A. F. Naylor, of Somerset street, has just returned from Princeton, where he had an interview with Mrs. Grover Cleveland Mr Naylor was engaged to clean several carpets for Mrs. Cleveland, and she was so well pleased that she unhesitatingly gave him the privilege of using her name in recommending the work.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, run down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.

pleased.

Mrs. William Maguire entertained the Thursday Afternoon Euchre Club at her home this week. The afternoon was given up to euchre and social chat after which refreshments were served.

Miss Mackey has returned to her home in Plainfield after a short visit with her aunt Mrs. John Marsh.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Morey are entertaining Mr. Morey's two sisters from New York for a few days.

Fred Smith is able to resume his position after a short illness.

WESTFIELD

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Westfield, April 1.—The Board of Education has organized by electing John B. Green, president; John J. Coger, clerk. These officers served last year. As the number of members of the Board has been reduced to five three members was made a quorum. The president was instructed to name an advisory committee of ladies to visit the schools. The following committees were appointed: Supplies, Clark and Forster; buildings and grounds, Coger and Knight; teachers, Knight and Clark; outlying schools, Forster and Knight; finance, Forster and Clark.

Surveyors were at work in town yesterday taking measurements for the proposed trolley line from this town to Rahway. One of the men told a Press representative that the line would be staked out during the coming two weeks and that work would then begin as the company wished to get the road built in time for the summer traffic.

F. W. Morse, of the Garwood Land and Improvement Company, in reply to a question put to him yesterday, said that it was not settled whether the new organ factory would locate there or not, but that the company was still considering the site.

Sergeant Robert Embleton, of the Two Hundred and Third Regiment, of New York, who has been stationed at Greenville, N C, has been mustered out of the service and will return to his home in this town this evening.

PEOPLE COME AND GO.

PERSONAL MENTION OF INTEREST TO PRESS READERS.

Some Come to Enjoy Pleasures of Plainfield, Others Journey to Either Mountain or Shore for Recreation.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hobbs, of Pearl street, is quite ill.

Miss Stella Brooks, of Duer street, is entertaining a friend from out of town.

John Green, who has been living on Steiner place, has moved to Stone street.

Miss Alberta Livezey, of Prospect avenue, is visiting friends in Pennsylvania.

Miss Rachel Emmons, of Rockview avenue, is entertaining relatives from Newark.

Miss Mary VanEps, of Front street, will spend Sunday at Somerville with relatives.

Mrs. Francis Wood, of Franklin place, who has been very ill, is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. H M. Maxson, of Central avenue, are stopping at Atlantic City for a few days.

Miss Henderson, of High Bridge, is visiting her brother, Wilbur Henderson, of West Second street.

Albert B. Meredith, of West Sixth street, left yesterday afternoon to spend his vacation at Boston.

O. P. Mitchell, who has been visiting friends here, has returned to his home at Havre de Grace, Md.

Miss Bessie Ross, of Bound Brook, spent yesterday with her friend, Miss Estella Brooks, of Duer street

Miss Grace E Overton, of Rockview avenue, is home from school in Boston for the spring vacation.

Sydney R. Litsworth, of Alfred University, is spending his Easter vacation at his home on West Fifth street.

The friends who have been visiting the Misses Carroll, of Westervelt avenue, returned home this morning.

Miss Humble, of Somerset street, who has been visiting friends at Bound Brook, has returned home.

William Hagan and family, of Prospect avenue, will move to Brooklyn April 1st and take up their residence there.

Arthur W. Lederer, of West Front street, is at home now enjoying the Easter vacation from Princeton University.

Rev. J. W. Richardson, of the Park Avenue Baptist church, has been called to Boston, owing to the illness of his father.

Mr. and Mrs. H J. Martin, of Jackson avenue, are enjoying a visit from their son, Willard Martin, who is employed at Siegfried, Pa.

John Randolph, the colored assistant of A. M. Runyon & Son, leaves their employ to-day and goes to New York to accept a position there.

Mrs J T Armstrong and son, Howard, of Brooklyn, are visiting at the home of Mrs Armstrong's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Moses D. Brown, of East Fourth street.

Grand Guide and Deputy Grand Master V W. Nash, of Columbia Lodge, A O U W, will visit Success Lodge, of Newark, in his official capacity Tuesday night.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.
Sold by Druggists, 75c.
Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Red Hot From the Gun

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman, of Newark, Mich., in the Civil War. It caused horrible Ulcers that no treatment helped for 20 years Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Cures Cuts, Bruises, Burns, Boils, Felons, Corns, Skin Eruptions. Best Pile cure on earth. 25cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

IF your grocer says he does not keep our Flavoring Extracts, ask him to get them for you. yes on

A. L. Kaerth & Co.
132 E. Second St.

AT RANDOLPH'S !

Roots and Herbs are numerous, yet we urge the combination of

Randolph's -:- Sarsaparilla

is one of the best to clean the blood. None better. Only 50 cents per bottle.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. TELEPHONE CALL 109.

A. M. Runyon & Son,
UNDERTAKERS,
No. 402 Park Ave. Tel. 40.
Office open night and day.
OFFICE OF HILLSIDE CEMETERY.

GEO. W. COLE,
UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,
200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

H. DeMOTT,
UNDERTAKER
AND EMBALMER.
Residence and office 89 Somerset St.
TELEPHONE 248 B.

DIED.

STINE—In this city, Thursday, March 30th, 1899, Violetta R., wife of Wm. Stine. Funeral services at her late residence, 509 West Front street, Monday, April 3d, at 2 p. m. 3 31 2

WILSON—At Dunellen, N. J., March 31, 1899, Sarah Francis Wilson, beloved wife of James Y. Wilson, age 48 years, 8 months, 22 days. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend the funeral service, on Sunday afternoon, April 2d, at her late residence at 2 p. m., and at the Seventh-Day Baptist church, New Market, N. J., at 2:30 p. m.

WANTS AND OFFERS

7 ROOM house to let, on Clinton avenue, near Front street. Apply 1220 West Front street 3 31 2

FOR SALE—7 room house, on Manson place, a great bargain; 10 per cent down, balance monthly payments. Plainfield Real Estate Co. 4 1 3

7 ROOM house to let, and barn. 682 West Third street; city water; sewer connection. Apply 1220 West Front street. 3 31 2

WANTED—A dressmaker on coats and skirts. Address A. B., care Press. 3 31 2

LOST—Dark green pocketbook containing money and rings, between Watchung avenue and Richmond St Reward, Press office. 3 31 2

GOOD cook and laundress would like situation in private family, no objections to country. Call 517 West Second street. 3 31 2

WANTED—Situation as assistant cook or waiter or at stable work 612 West Fourth street. 3 31 2

TWO new, 10 room dwellings, all modern improvements, small mortgages will exchange for larger dwelling. Chas H. Lyman, 215 North avenue, over Mallinson's drug store. 4 1 3

FIVE rooms with bathroom and attic to let. 717 South avenue. 3 31 6

WANTED—Customers for 100 pairs Ladies' Assorted Shoes, at 49 cents pair at 120 West Front street Great Bargains, B. R. Force. 3 31 2

COMMUTERS wheels stored. J T. Vail, 177 North avenue. 3 25 7

TO LET—2 or 3 unfurnished rooms. 106 Somerset street. 3 03

ROOMS to rent. Enquire 27 Somerset place. 3 31 7

SEPARATE storage rooms, plastered walls, in Stillman Block. 3 1 w s tf

TO LET—Double House, all improvements, recently been placed in complete order. 407 LaGrande Ave. Enquire Agents or B. O Bowers. t-s tf

BEAUTIFULLY situated farm, of 118 acres, near Plainfield, all under high state of cultivation, running brook through the property, dwelling 16 rooms, in good order, new out building will be sold at a great bargain, or exchange same for nicely situated dwelling in Plainfield. Chas. H. Lyman, 215 North avenue, over Mallinson drug store. 4 1 3

TO RENT—Half double house, 10 rooms, 351 East Third street; rent $16. Call 353 East Third street 3 20 12

NINE ROOM HOUSE to let all improvements, East Second street. Enquire Wm. Newcorn, 204 West Front street. 2 21 tf

WOMAN wants work by the day. Call at 305 East Fourth street. 3 29 4

FOR SALE OR RENT—A very convenient house, 5 rooms, city water and closet. Enquire 206 West Fourth street. 3 29 4

BARN to let, Second street, near Watchung avenue. Apply at Daily Press office. 3 13 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first class places at the Swedish Intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

LOST—English setter, with black head and rump tan jowels; New York license tag 10474 Return to J Kirkner, 411 West 8th street, and receive reward. 3 27 tf

WANTED—Houses to rent from $15 up. Elston M. French & Co. 2 1 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

NICELY situated dwelling, value $4 000 cash, free and clear, to exchange for larger property; send description of what you have to Chas H. Lyman, 215 North avenue. 4 1 3

6 ROOM house, new, near Netherwood station; to let or for sale. Sherwin's shoe store. 3 22 tf

DESIRABLE rooms with board, eight minutes walk to station 21 Sandford avenue. 3 7 tf

FOR SALE—Stone stepping blocks, hitching posts flagging and curbing. Mrs L Kuhn, 32 Watchung avenue, 2nd door from the race 3 17 14

FOR RENT—After April 1st, the large store, No. 207 Park avenue, now occupied by Moraller as jewelry store. Partitions will be removed to make the store full depth of building viz ninety feet. Apply Room No. 3, Marsh Building. 1 14 t 4 1 8

SACRIFICE house, barn and lot, 60 by 160. North Plainfield; price $2,700. Address Owner, care Press. 3 30 6

FOR SALE—In Plainfield, N J., a very desirable residence conveniently located to both station and stores; 14 rooms; city water; good sewerage; electric lights; large piazza; stable; large lot with trees and shrubbery. Will be sold at a bargain, owner's business necessitating his removal Inquire E. C Mulford, Real Estate office, Plainfield, opposite Railroad Station. 3 28 5

FOR SALE 10 per cent down, balance monthly payments; two new 6 room dwellings, situated on West Front street, near Grant avenue. Plainfield Real Estate Co., 215 North avenue 4 1 3

FOR SALE—Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine, No. 9, in good condition; cheap. Call at 303 Madison avenue. 3 28 tf

5 LARGE airy rooms to let, corner Somerset street, and Manning Ave. Apply David D. Smalley, 33 Manning avenue. 3 29 6

TO LET—Furnished front room with bath. Mrs. E. E. Hann, 20 Somerset place. 3 31 2

FOR SALE cheap, nearly new house, 6 rooms, in North Plainfield; good location; terms to suit. Don't pay rent; buy and save money. Inquire 148 or 160 Duer street. 3 21 tf

LARGE, airy, well furnished rooms on LaGrande avenue to rent with board; convenient to depot and churches Address LaGrande avenue care Press. 3 27 6

TO RENT—The new dwelling house, 929 Madison avenue; has all the modern improvements throughout Street macadamized to curb. Apply to John M. Whiton, 821 Central avenue. 3 17 tf

BEAUTIFULLY situated property, in choice location of Brooklyn; cash value $12 000 mortgage $6 000 at 5 per cent. to exchange for Plainfield property of same value. Chas H Lyman, 215 North avenue. 4 1 3

7 ROOM house to let. 60 Grandview avenue; terms moderate.

WANTED—3 or 4 cheap rooms, in North Plainfield; state price Address Y., care Press. 4 1 3

LOST—Black and tan dog, answers by name Dewey. Reward if returned to 618 East Sixth street.

TO LET—At Dunellen, dwelling with seven rooms; large garret; dry cellar; also two stores. Inquire of A. F. Todd.

112 JACKSON avenue, first floor, four rooms, to let. 4 1 2

LARGE pleasant rooms, furnished or unfurnished; good table. 434 corner Fifth street and Watchung avenue. 4 1 6

TO LET—6 room house $12 month; 163 Duer street. Inquire 148 or 160 Duer street. 3 21 tf

TO LET—Half house, city water; 6 rooms; $10 per month. Inquire at 138 Duer street. 3 30 tf

GENTLEMAN can have furnished room and board, with grown private family; moderate price. Address A. J., care Press.

HOUSEKEEPER—Refined, middle age lady wishes position as housekeeper for elderly widow's family. Address A. W., care Press

WANTED—Girl for general housework, or young girl who can cook, no washing. Mrs Cathcart, Rockview and West End avenues.

MANICURING, 25 CENTS.
REMOVING CORNS, 25c.
SHAMPOOING With Massage, 50c.
M. V. Stickle, 149 E. Fifth St.

CROSBY & HILL

SUCCESSORS TO EDWARD WHITE.

FREE !

One bottle of Royal Tooth Powder or one bottle of Royal Talcum Powder with every purchase of 50c at our Notion Counter.

SPRING SEASON'S SELLING HAS BEGUN.

We've put winter behind us, the different sections are blooming with the freshness of spring. We'll try to tell you about the new merchandise as it arrives, endeavor to interest you in it, emphasize its merits, make an earnest effort to impress you favorably. Our showing is by far the best you have ever seen in this city; our aim is to show how worthy goods can be bought and sold with thoughts for the merchant and thoughts for the customer. We are striving to prove that our interests as store-keepers and your interests as store patrons are mutual. No shadow of extortion is permitted in our prices. The proudest dollar in the land and the poorest dollar of the breadwinner meet here on a footing of commercial equality.

The Millinery Showing.

The Millinery Department blossoms forth with a richness and elegance of wealth and beauty never before equalled in this city, (a fact every day admitted by the most competent judges). We invite you to participate in this showing. Your Easter bonnet will be promptly turned out on a few hours' notice. We have made elaborate preparations for a large business.

Easter Gloves.

69c, the $1.00 quality.

Sixteen hundred pairs of Ladies' Kid Gloves of a very excellent quality, the colors are black, tan, mode, grey, pearl and white, the quality is equal to any dollar glove you have ever bought and will give splendid satisfaction.

$1.10, the usual $1.25 quality.

We show this morning about 1,000 pairs of Ladies' Kid Gloves of our own importation. Every new spring shade is included in the lot, the quality is equal to any $1.25 glove and is covered by our liberal guarantee.

Tailor-made Suits.

Everything we show in tailor-made suits is the season's newest product, made by manufacturers of the highest standing expressly for ourselves. The fit, the finish and the style will more than meet your expectation; the smallness of price will be the only disappointment.

7.98. Tailor-made suit, splendid quality of all-wool cheviot serge, jacket lined with silk rhadmere, skirt cut full and wide, lined with percaline; a regular $10 suit.

10.00. All-wool serge suits, jackets satin lined, skirts cut with the new flounce, very full and wide, lined with percaline. Colors are black, royal blue, navy blue and tan shades; the value is $12.50.

11.98. Six different styles of tailor-made suits of all the newest spring colorings, most of the jackets are taffeta silk lined and are the newest shapes shown; the values range from 12.50 to 17.50.

Separate Skirts and Spring Jackets.

3.50. Ladies' all-wool covert cloth jacket, made in correct style, tan shades only, fully worth 4.50.

5.00. Women's coats in all-wool venetian cloth, lined with rhadmere.

2.98. Ladies' dress skirts of brilliantine, mohair or serge, new flume cut, percaline lined and velvet bound; worth 3.50.

4.75. Ladies' dress skirts of all-wool cheviot and venetian cloth, percaline lined and velvet bound; worth 6.00.

5.00. Ladies' black taffeta waist, body and sleeves all small tucking, newest cut; worth 6.50.

The newest shapes and styles of cotton gingham and madras waists are all displayed here and are a wonderfully choice collection.

Easter Neckwear for Men and Women.

Our showing of Easter neckwear is very large, the styles are very nobby and new, the prices are disappointingly low.

17c for men's neckwear, usually sold at 25c. 39c for men's neckwear, usually sold at 50c.

The prices of ladies' neckwear range from 25c to 1.75; the variety is very large and includes everything that is new.

Carpet Dep't.

Our Carpet Department is located on the third floor and is easy of access by an elevator, a perfect daylight department. We are prepared to execute all orders promptly on the shortest notice. We quote a few interesting prices:

50c.—Best quality ten-wire tapestry carpets.
69c.—Saxony, Axminster Carpets, all choice new patterns.
59c.—Best quality all-wool Ingrain Carpets.

THE MARCH OF PROGRESS

in wall paper can best be witnessed in our magnificent stock, comprising all of the latest and artistic patterns, on paper of the very best texture

MARSH, AYERS & CO.

Wall Papers, Paints, Oils, Glass, Etc.
201 Park Ave, Corner Second St.
Telephone Call 635. Estimates Furnished.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.
Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.
MUNN & CO. 361 BROADWAY, New York

FREY & MURPHY,

CUSTOM TAILORS

26 Somerset St.

Spring Samples Now Ready.

Largest Repairing and Cleaning Establishment in Plainfield.

Repairing and Cleaning properly done in a first-class manner.

Prices Low, Styles First-Class.

Everything for the Garden.

SWEET PEAS the choicest, fancy Lawn Grass Seeds and odorless lawn dressing.

'Phone No. 6.

A. M. Griffen, 119 East Front St.

IMPORTED

OLIVE OIL.

75c per Bottle.

Finest Quality Obtainable

POWERS' PHARMACY

Somerset Street and Craig Place.

Safe Deposit Vaults

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK.

Of Plainfield, New Jersey.

Capital.....$200,000
Surplus and Profits.....$ 90,000

J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashr.
H. M. ESTILL, Vice " D. M. RUBY JR. Asst

DIRECTORS:

Charles Potter, Wm. McD. Coriell,
P. M. French, H. Mulford Estill,
Wm. M. Stillman, Isaac W. Bushmore
J. W. Johnson, Wm. B. Coddington,
F. S. Runyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per annum.

VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

BANANAS 12c. and 15c. per doz.
ORANGES 15 and 18 for 25c.
Confectionery and fruit, lowest prices.

C. E. BICKNELL,
"On the Bridge." Somerset St.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,

Painters and Paper Hangers,

Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets

Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto--first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11 t

A. LUSARDI,
120 NORTH AVENUE.
Wholesale and Retail
Dealer in choice fruit of all kinds, of Confectionery, Peanuts' Cigars, etc. Soda Water of all flavors and always ice cold. Branch store corner Front and Somerset streets.

J. W. VANSICKLE.
122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly.
TELEPHONE 148 b.

EDUCATIONAL.

GREGG SHORTHAND SCHOOL

Babcock Building,

The latest and best system. Stenographers filling positions after 3 months.

DAY AND EVENING.

W. E. Van Wert, Principal.

Standard Typwriters in use.

MISS SARAH A. PALMER,

TEACHER OF PIANO (Virgil Method)
AND THEORY IN ALL ITS BRANCHES.

The Virgil method and the Practice Clavier give to the pupil not only finger agility, but also mental control and concentration, whereby alone the best results can be obtained.
123 East Sixth street.

Piano Instruction

Virgil Clavier Method a specialty.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and
MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
915 MADISON AVE.
Sight Reading Classes, vocal and instrumental.

F. V. L. Goodwin,
TEACHER OF MUSIC.

Lessons given at home on Piano. Special attention to beginners. Residence.
105 MANNING AVENUE,
North Plainfield, N. J.

SHORTHAND! BOOKKEEPING!

No better systems can be found than those taught in : : : :

PLAINFIELD BUSINESS COLLEGE,

City Bank Building.
Both sexes. Day and Night. Come and see us.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.

William Holmes

(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Duff.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE,
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 149 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711,
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park Avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

Flynn Bros.,

SHOE DEALERS,

222 WEST FRONT STREET,

Near Music Hall,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods

Have stood the test for years.

LAIRE'S

SPRING AND SEASONABLE GOODS.

Garden Wheel Barrows.
Garden Tools, all kinds.
Garden Seeds, all varieties.
Lawn Seed.
Lawn Dressing.
Fertilizers, all kinds.
Lawn Rakes.
Ask to see the finest family scale made, for $1.50.

TELEPHONE CALL 682.

THE J. P. LAIRE HARDWARE CO.

EUROPE, starting June 29, 69 days, 48 days or 41 days; English coaching, Holland, Germany, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, Paris. Experience, fourteen years. Particulars of HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS, Plainfield, N.J.

REMOVAL!

L. MORALLER & SON

Watchmakers and Jewelers

will remove to 219 Park avenue about April 1st. Next to Armstrong's Drug Store. 3 15 1m

THE CRESCENT HOTEL.,
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

THE WOMAN'S WORLD

WHAT THEY WORE.

Costumes at the Marlborough Reception to Wales.

At the concert given in Blenheim Castle when the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough entertained the Prince and Princess of Wales, the ladies wore their finest costumes.

The Princess of Wales wore a magnificent pearl gray satin, trimmed with rare Honiton lace. In her hair was a tiara of diamonds and about her throat a deep band of diamonds, clasped by a great square of rubies. A big butterfly of diamonds was on her shoulder. Princess Charles of Denmark, the popular Princess Maud, wore white satin and a great many diamonds dotted about her pink and white bodice. Her sister, Princess Victoria, wore white satin, with garlands of pink roses.

Lady Londonderry wore white striped silk trimmed with old Italian point lace; a band of diamonds was placed across her hair in the new fashion.

Of Americans there were two in the house party—Lady Randolph Churchill, who looked handsome in white satin, with smart touches of black velvet, and Mrs. George Curzon, who was lovely in a gown of becoming pink and white. The youthful hostess wore a regal white velvet, trimmed on the skirt with vandykes of darkest sable, and sable trimming on the bodice. Her diamonds outshone those of royalty. She wore a girdle of diamonds about her waist, a diamond collar, ropes of pearls, and a diamond coronet in her hair with the ducal strawberry leaves. The men appeared in their gay uniforms, the militia, yeomanry, and members of hunt clubs adding to the brilliancy of the scene by their attire. The Prince and the Duke wore the uniform of the Queen's Own Oxfordshire Hussars—dark blue jacket with silver trimmings, red knee breeches and high boots, and carried a black busby with white aigrette.

The library, where the concert was held, is a stately room 200 feet in length, and is rich in statuary, paintings, bronzes and armor. At one end is an alabaster statue of Queen Anne, to whose munificence the Duke's family owe the possession of Blenheim.

About Wedding Rings.

The fashion of the plain gold wedding ring seems to have descended to us from the times of the Saxons, without any impulse from written authority or rubric. Widows, formerly, wore their ring on the thumb as an emblem of widowhood. The smallest wedding ring probably ever made is that which was used for the fiancilleas of Princess Mary, daughter of Henry VIII, to the Dauphin of France, son of King Francis I. The Dauphin was born February 20, 1518, and as a matter of state policy the bridal ceremony took place on October 5, of the same year, with great pomp, at Greenwich. The 2-year-old bride was dressed in cloth of gold and blazing with jewels. Cardinal Wolsey placed the diminutive ring of gold upon the child's finger, and Admiral Bonnivet, as proxy for the baby bridegroom, passed it over the second joint. The bride was blessed and Mass performed by Wolsey, the King and the whole court attending.

Their Views of Men.

An English woman has collected the following remarks of famous women about men:

"Men work and think, but women feel."—Christina G. Rossetti.

"No man is altogether evil; there is latent good in him."—Edna Lyall.

"One cannot know what a man really is by the end of a fortnight."—Jane Austen.

"All careers are desirable for men who know how to make them so."—Geogges Sand.

"Men shrink much more than women from any physical suffering or deformity."—Dinah C. Mulock.

"No man ever distinguished himself who could not bear to be laughed at."—Maria Edgeworth.

Marry or Pay.

The wise legislators of the Argentine Republic have been much troubled about providing a population for their large and fertile country. They have decided to provide a remedy by making marriage almost compulsory.

A law has been introduced, the first clause of which reads: "On and after the 1st day of January, 1897, every male from the age of twenty to eighty shall pay a tax till he marries, and shall pay it once in every month."

The next clause is more severe, and reads: "Young celibates of either sex who shall without legitimate motive reject the addresses of him or her who may aspire to her or his hand, and who continue contumaciously unmarried, shall pay the sum of 500 piastres for the benefit of the young person, man or woman, who has been so refused.—New York Herald.

A Go-Ahead Woman.

Queen Christina of Spain is a very go-ahead woman, and long before the restriction on horseless carriages in our metropolis were removed, she ordered an electric victoria to be built for her in London. The machinery is underneath, and hardly shows at all, and the stored energy is chiefly under the seats. It is said that there is sufficient power to keep the carriage going at a pace of ten miles an hour for one hundred hours. The electric lamps are on each side of the box seat, and one is in the middle, and does a great deal towards filling up the vacant space where there is no horse.

FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.

THE CLEVER SEALS.

How They Play in the Aquarium—A London Seal Says "Mamma."

The Aquarium in Castle Garden has proved as great a source of delight as its most sanguine promoters could have hoped. Of all its occupants, none receives more attention from young people than the two young seals that amuse the public all day with their tricks.

The fish excite interest because they are so strange and curious, and different from anything that lives on the land. The seals owe their popularity to another cause, for they have all the best qualities of those animals which are most companionable to man.

The elder of the seals is Nelly, an amiable and beautiful creature, two years and six months old. The other is her brother, and is not yet full grown, on which account he is known as Baby.

Nelly is decidly the more vivacious of the two seals in the Aquarium. She has already learned many amusing tricks, although her education is yet in an elementary stage. She comes promptly when she is called, stands up on her divided tail and most politely shakes flippers with the keeper. Then when she is told to go and play she turns a somersault into the water and there performs many feats of aquatic gymnastics. She is able to stay under water three or four hours, but that is not a feat Nelly feels called upon to perform in the Aquarium. It is one she would resort to in a storm at sea. She seems to be greatly pleased with her commodious tank.

It is supposed that Baby needs more rest than his sister, because he is still growing. He spends a considerable part of his time asleep. Then Nelly will steal up to him and nip him smartly in the flipper. This irritates the youth, and he turns on the disturber. A brief mill follows, in which Baby is invariably worsted.

At times they play together amicably, wrestling and chasing one another through the water. They play tag in the water in a way that should set a stimulating example to small boys.

The seal is capable of learning a surprising number of accomplishments. No animal excepting the pig has proved himself more useful in public exhibitions and better able to perform feats of an intellectual nature. Learned pigs have been known since the remotest antiquity, but seals are now their rivals in erudition.

London was recently entertained by a talking seal. This animal did not articulate very clearly when he tried to speak English, but perhaps he would have done better in a language more suited to his vocal organs. "Mamma" was the word which he pronounced most distinctly, and very touching it was to hear him say it, for he had doubtless been brutally snatched from the arms of a loving parent in Alaska or some other distant place. All his remarks were full of meaning and expression. When asked if he would like to fish he squeaked "yes" in a most unmistakable manner. He also had a very graceful way of returning thanks for a plug of tobacco. It was one of his many peculiarities to be fond of chewing.

The seal has shown himself able to read as well as any other animal. He may be taught to combine letters of the alphabet so that they spell things which he needs.—New York Journal.

A KING IN RAGS.

He Sells Papers, but is Nevertheless a True Nobleman.

In a Christmas sermon written for the New York Journal Rev. Dr. Charles H. Eaton tells this beautiful story:

One Christmas Eve, but a few years ago, a ragged newsboy was seen to enter a saloon on Printing House Square. He sold a few papers, and just before he left the room he hesitated for a moment before a small box standing on the counter, marked "Gifts for Poor Children." When the boy thought no one was looking he dropped a few pennies into the box—all the profits of his sale—and ran out into the night.

A witness to his generous act followed him. It was very cold and snow was on the ground. The boy was seen to hurry away to a staircase on the outside of a building, and there creep under the slight protection of the boards. There he lay down to sleep with only the heavens for a roof, and the moist ground for a bed. When asked why he who had no home and was compelled to sleep in the cold and the snow had given his all, he replied: "I thought there were some poor children not so well off as I am. I can sell papers, you know."

Is not the highest order of nobility shown in the spirit and conduct of this street gamin? In gracious courtesy, in tender usefulness, it was never surpassed, perhaps never equalled, by king or priest.

Local-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Sachsen.

Dresden. Einem Gefreiten war auf öffentlichem Tanzsaal von dem Führer der Schankhaus-Dienstpatrouille befohlen worden, während der Tanzpause das Seitengewehr umzuschnallen. Ein civilistischer Freund des Gefreiten, der diesem sagte, er solle das nicht thun, wurde vom hiesigen Landgericht nach Paragraph 112 des Reichsstrafgesetzbuches zu—zwei Monaten Gefängniß verurtheilt.—In einem Anfall von Verzweiflung hat die Ehefrau des arbeitslosen Pferdebahnschaffners Roeder ihre vier Kinder vergiftet und dann Selbstmord durch Ertranken begangen.

Calbitz. Auf dem Rittergute Kötitz spielten mehrere Kinder vor einer offenstehenden Scheune, als plötzlich der Wind das Scheunenthor aus den Angeln hob und es so unglücklich auf das sechsjährige Söhnchen des Käsers Kunze schleuderte, daß das Kind in Folge der erlittenen Verletzungen nach einer Stunde starb.

Chemnitz. Dieser Tage fand die Einweihung der auf dem Stephansplatz errichteten Synagoge stat. Sie bildet ihrer Konstruktion, ihres imposanten Aeußeren und ihrer geschmackvollen inneren Einrichtung wegen eine neue Sehenswürdigkeit unserer Stadt. Der Bau, dessen Kosten etwa 225,000 Mark betrugen, wurde im August 1897 begonnen.

Döbeln. Das goldene Ehejubiläum beging in seltener geistiger und körperlicher Frische der frühere Handarbeiter Karl Traugott Gehre und dessen Ehefrau Amalie geborene Wolf.

Leipzig. Aus öffentlichen Mitteln wird hier die Errichtung einer großen Wasserheilanstalt geplant.

Mittweida. Ein hiesiger Hausbesitzer ließ seinen zahlreichen Miethern die briefliche Nachricht zugehen, daß sie für die Jahre 1899 und 1900 jeder Entrichtung von Miethszins, sowie Abgabe für Benutzung der städtischen Wasserleitung entbunden seien.

Thüringische Staaten.

Jena. An der Pfeiffer'schen Erziehungsanstalt fand kürzlich die mündliche Reifeprüfung statt. An derselben nahmen, nachdem ein Schüler zurückgetreten war, ein anderer in Folge schwerer Erkrankung von der Theilnahme hatte absehen müssen, noch 26 Schüler Theil, von welchen 25 die Prüfung bestanden.

Meiningen. Von denjenigen Regimentern, welche den Sieg bei Wörth mit haben erringen helfen, hat bis jetzt noch kein Denkmal auf dem dortigen Schlachtfeld das in hiesiger Residenz garnisonirende 32. Regiment. Diesem Mangel wird noch im laufenden Jahre abgeholfen werden: mit der Errichtung eines auf 20,000 Mark veranschlagten Denkmals für die 32er ist bereits begonnen worden, und am 6. August wird die Enthüllung des Denkmals erfolgen. Die Weihrede hält ein ehemaliger Angehöriger der 32er, Pfarrer Ketels in Meeder bei Koburg.

Rudolstadt. In der Obstfelderschmiede im oberen Schwarzathal geriethen mehrere beim Bahnbau beschäftigte Arbeiter in Streit. Ein Arbeiter Grimm aus Kronach verschaffte sich ein Schlachtmesser aus der Küche und lauerte dem Arbeiter Scherngel aus Oberjeiring in Oesterreich, als dieser sich nach Hause begeben wollte, auf und stieß ihm das Messer in die Brust, so daß er kurze Zeit darauf der tödtlichen Verletzung erlegen ist.

Freie Städte.

Hamburg. Die „Hamburg-Amerika"-Linie hat den Passagieren der „Bulgaria" bei ihrer Ankunft dahier in Anbetracht der von ihnen der Schiffsbesatzung in der Zeit der schweren Noth geleisteten hilfreichen Dienste den in New York gezahlten Passagepreis zurückerstattet.—Dr. med. Rudolf Wolf, einer der beschäftigsten und beliebtesten Aerzte Hamburgs, ist im 64. Lebensjahre verschieden. Herr Dr. Wolf war lange Jahre Chefarzt des Freimaurer-Krankenhauses und genoß als Operateur einen hohen Ruf.—Beim Gebet verstorben ist der 80jährige Inhaber der Schreiber'schen Pension in der Grindelallee, Herr Schreiber. Er befand sich in einer Synagoge und versah das Amt eines Vorlesers. Mitten im Gebet schwankte er plötzlich und brach, ehe ihm andere Andächtige Hilfe leisten könnten, todt vor seinem Betpult zusammen.

Bremen. Herr W. Theodor Fischer, der Begründer der Tabaksfirma Theodor Fischer u. Co., eines der ältesten Mitglieder der Bremischen Kaufmannschaft, beging in rüstiger Frische seinen 80. Geburtstag.—In Ellen soll eine staatliche Irrenanstalt errichtet werden. Der Kostenaufwand beträgt 665,000 Mark.

Lübeck. Nach lebhafter Debatte stimmte der Bürgerausschuß der Einführung einer 6 Mark jährlich betragenden Radfahrsteuer zu. Der Senat hatte 10 Mark beantragt.—Um den größten Seeschiffen zu ermöglichen, den Lübecker Hafen zu erreichen, wird mit Sicherheit erwartet, daß die mit 5,000,000 Mark veranschlagte Vertiefung des Travefluffes bis Travemünde auf 7½ bis 8 Meter noch 1899, vor der Fertigstellung des Elbe-Trave-Kanals, in Angriff genommen wird.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express.
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store 126 Park avenue. 10 1 1y

(A)

AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

Spring's patterns in every line are nearly all in—a grand spectacle!

How's this for "bigness?"

Think of it! Nothing but Furniture and Carpets, yet great spaces given up to single lines, like this: 28x56 feet to enameled beds and bedding—25x200 feet to bedroom suits—120x210 feet to a grand showing of parlor suits—45x65 feet to dining-room furniture—200x25 feet to carpets alone—25x100 feet to baby carriages! The same liberality in departments given up to couches, fancy dressers, chiffoniers and stands, desks, tables and the like!

Not alone the greatest store—but easiest in terms, lowest in prices. Call—get acquainted.

$14.98—this antique finish suit—24x30 beveled plate mirror, splasher back to washstand—usually $20.

$10.98—Adjustable Head Couch—5 positions—splendid make—corduroy upholstery—heavily fringed—$15 usually. Others start at $5.95.

Carpets—Spring colors and designs—lovely to look upon—immense variety—the greatest in all this city. Not an old pattern in the stock. Prices are so low competing houses quake to hear of 'em. Come and prove it yourself!

$2.49—this go-cart—new in pattern, and graceful in build. Big line of baby carriages, too. $3.49 up.

$1.95—this very same Enameled Bed—$3.00 is its just and rightful value.

$1.98—Solid oak, fancy shaped top, French legs, well finished—a good snap at $3.00

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,
Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.
CARFARE PAID TO OUT-OF-TOWN BUYERS.
A Private Delivery Wagon Sent on Request.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

— DEALERS IN —

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO

SPECIAL SALE.

We will sell skirts and suits of our own make for this week at a price that will require no brass band to sell. An examination of our goods is all that is necessary. Ladies, as a rule know where and when to buy. Our prices are lower than the lowest. For fit and make there are no equal in town. Call and inspect our stock.

Cloos & Richardson. LADIES' TAILORS, 225 W. FRONT ST

SPRING HATS,
SPRING NECKTIES,
SPRING SHIRTS
AT
JAMES R. BLAIR'S,
126 PARK AVENUE.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER.
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phœnix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life Telephone No. 672.

COAL
C is for coal, clean, cheery and cheap.
O is the order to lay in a heap.
A is the atmosphere warmed by its glow.
L is the light that starts it to go, and to get the best coal buy of Stevens & Co.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.
THE DELINEATOR AND GLASS OF FASHION
For April Now Ready. Ask for the April Fashion Sheet.
Subscriptions taken.
A. L. & M. D. GORSLINE,
144 PARK AVE. PLAINFIELD, N. J.

5,000 FEET OF
MOULDINGS IN GILT AND HARD WOOD
Bring Your Pictures and Have Them Framed
At the PLAINFIELD ART GALLERY, Y. M. C. A. Building

Jersey Poultry
is the specialty of
SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue
Have you tried their
SAUSAGE
It is the best made in
PLAINFIELD

Elston M. French & Co.
Successors to VanBuren Bros.
Real Estate and Insurance.
Largest agency in the city. Loans negotiated.
168 NORTH AVENUE.
Opposite Depot

H. Eggerding,
121 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR,
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall Streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 20th, 1898.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 6 37, 6 29, 7 00, 7 26, 7 55, 7 55, 8 00, 8 12, 8 30, 8 37, 8 48, 9 26, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 00, 1 15, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 54, 5 37, 6 04, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 00, 7 26, 8 45, 9 15, 10 17, 11 26 p. m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 59, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 16, a. m.; 12 m., 12 58, 1 45, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 02, 8 12, 8 52, 9 16, 10 22 p. m.

Leave New York, foot Liberty St. at 4 00, 4 30, 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00 a. m.; 12 00 m., 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 40, 5 00, 5 15, 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 30, 11 45 p. m.; 12 15, 1 00 night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 00, 9 00, 9 15, a. m.; 12 m., 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 7 30, 9 00, 10 00 p. m.; 12 15 night; 1 00 a. m.

Leave New York South Ferry from Whitehall St. at 7 10, 7 55, 8 35, 9 05, 9 55, 11 55 a. m., 12 55, 1 25, 2 25, 3 25, 3 35, 3 55, 4 35, 4 55, 5 25, 5 55, 6 10, 6 25, 6 55, 7 25, 7 40, 8 10, 9 10, 9 55, 11 40 p. m., 12 10 night. Sundays—At 6 55, 8 55 a. m., 12 00 m., 12 55, 1 25, 3 55, 6 40, 7 25, 8 55, 9 55 p. m., 12 10 night.

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 37, 6 29, 7 00, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 35, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 1 15, 2 12, 3 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 54, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 8 45, 10 17, 11 26 p. m. Sunday 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 32, 10 22 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 30, 8 05, 8 38, 9 03, 10 08 a. m.; 12 10, 1 05, 1 35, 2 40, 3 35, 4 02, 4 40, 5 04, 11 5 45, 6 19, 7 35, 8 10, 9 35, 10 05, 11 25 p. m. Sunday, 7 15, 9 05, 11 35 a. m.; 1 10, 2 45, 4 05, 55, 7 35, 9 15, 10 15 p. m.

Passengers for Newark please change car Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00 m., 1 01, 2 11, 2 27, 3 22, 4 35, 5 03 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 36, 11 29, p. m; 12 44 night. Sunday 5 48, 8 06 55, a. m; 2 08, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 16, 11 14 p. m

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7, 7 27, 7 33, 7 45, 8 20, 9 15, 9 35, 10 15, 11 45, a. m; 12 50, 1 53, 2 05 2 20, 4 30, 5 28, 6 05, 6 08, 6 45, 8 22, 8 45, 11 05 p. m Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 45 a. m; 12 35, 1 20, 5 15, 6 27, 7 55, 8 05, 8 45, 10 00 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m., 1 01 2 [illegible], 5 23, 6 28, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45 [illegible] 06 a. m; 2 08 6 35 p. m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 01, 8 15, a. m; 12 36, 4 10, 5 10, 7 17, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 11 22 a. m 4 00 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield 7 12 a. m; 5 25 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c., with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

1 01 p. m. way for Easton, German Valley and Chester, connecting at Junction for station on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 27 p. m. For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaququa, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton, with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

5 25 p. m., for Flemington and Easton connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For German Valley and Chester Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

5 06 a. m. Sundays for Easton.

9 03 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley and Flanders, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 36 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc., and at Junction for D. L. & W R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 8 37, (5 37 for Sea Girt 6 18, 10:27 a. m.; 3 46, 6 21 p. m. Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 55, 10:27 a. m; 1 15, 3 46, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 8 45 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 15 p m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10:27 a. m.; 1 15, 3 46, 6 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat 8 37, 8 13 9 55 (Lakewood only) a.m., 1 15, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 29, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, 5 34*, 6 38*, 11 21 p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 8 46, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, 5 09*, 6 38* p m.; 1 17 night

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 29, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01 2 16, 4 14, 5 34*, 6 38* 8 21, p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 8 46, 9 55 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, 5 09*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 5 34*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m; 2 16, 5 09*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m; 6 38 p m. Sundays 6 38 p m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H OLDHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent

LEHIGH VALLEY RAILROAD.

Time table in effect Feb. 5, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

WESTWARD.

8 05 a. m. daily, 6 26 and 7 26 p. m. daily except Sundays. Easton local.

6 26 p. m. Sunday evening local for Mauch Chunk.

9 03 a. m. daily; Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

11 02 a. m., 5 22 and 9 43 p. m. daily except Sunday. Local for Bound Brook.

12 52 p. m. daily except Sunday "Black Diamond Express" for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

2 04 p. m. daily local for Easton and Wilkes Barre.

4 58 p. m. daily except Sunday, express for Wilkes Barre, Scranton, Pottsville, Hazleton Shamokin, L. & B. Junction and principal intermediate stations.

7 08 and 9 22 p. m. daily, solid vestibule express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

9 02 p. m. Daily express for Easton, Bethlehem, Mauch Chunk, Sayre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge, carries sleeping car passengers only, and no baggage east of Buffalo.

EASTWARD.

For New York and Brooklyn local 6 40, 7 40 and 9 40 a. m., 3 04 and 5 18 p. m. daily except Sunday. Sunday 10 29 a. m., and 6 04 p. m. Express 7 16, 8 14, 10 09 a. m., 12 15, 2 50, 5 10, 7 07 and 9 06 p. m. daily except Sunday. Sunday 7 06 8 14 a. m., 2 50 and 7 07 p. m.

PERTH AMBOY BRANCH.

For Perth Amboy and intermediate stations 8 12 10 08 a. m., 5 22 and 7 23 p. m. daily except Sundays. Sunday 10 29 a. m. and 7 06 p. m.

Trains leave Perth Amboy (State street) 7 18 8 35 a. m., 4 30 and 6 35 p. m., daily except Sunday. Sunday 7:18 a. m. and 5 42 p. m.

For further information call on or address the Ticket Agent, South Plainfield, N. J. Through tickets to all important western points may be purchased at the South Plainfield office.

Col. BOLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent,
S. Bethlehem, Pa.

CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent
26 Cortlandt St., N. Y. City.

NEW YORK TERMINALS—Foot of Cortlandt Desbrosses and West 23d streets.

[Copyright, 1899, by F. Tennyson Neely.]

[CONTINUED.]

CHAPTER XV.

April had gone and May, and June was well nigh half over. The old semaphore of Telegraph hill would have worn itself out signaling side wheel steamers had it still been in operation. The transcontinental railway was stretching out up the valley of the Platte toward the center of the continent, but Wells, Fargo and the pony express charging a dollar a letter were the only transcontinental rapid transit of the day.

People still went to and from the distant east by way of Aspinwall and Panama, and the big boats of the Pacific Mail were crowded, going or coming, and one bright June day two women in mourning were escorted aboard the Sonora and shown to their little stateroom, one a decidedly pretty girl, the other a sad faced, careworn, delicate looking widow, 10 or 12 years, apparently, the senior.

They sailed with only one friend to see them off—an aid-de-camp of the commanding general—yet not without much curiosity on the part of the younger woman as to the composition of the passenger list. Even before they were beyond the rocky scarp of Alcatraz—for few things are impossible to a pretty woman—she had been able to secure a copy and to say, with bated breath, to the languid invalid: "At least, he's not going on this ship. It might be better if he were"—for Miss Geraldine Allyn had not lost faith in her power to charm.

And one reason why the "he" referred to was not going on this ship was that the sisters Nevins and Allyn had "booked" their passage nearly two weeks before, it being useless to remain longer on the Pacific coast in hopes of finding the fugitive husband, for the consul at Guaymas was authorized to report the death, at Hermosillo, "through wounds and exposure, of the gallant but unfortunate captain, whose mind must have given way under his accumulation of troubles." A seal ring that Nevins used to wear and some letters were all he had to leave, and these had been duly forwarded to the address of his wife, whose pathetic inquiries for further particulars elicited nothing more reliable than that Nevins was dead and buried and that was the end of him. The quartermaster got "transportation" for them to New Orleans. A sum sufficient for their immediate needs was placed in their hands. Another sum, which did not receive immediate acknowledgment, was also sent to the disconsolate widow, and now they were going, and that was all.

Going, too, was Loring, though not on that trip—shaking, so to speak, the dust of California from his feet, a silent but much disgusted man. For nearly five weeks he had lived a life that would have tried the endurance of the patriarch of Holy Writ and wrecked the sunny nature of a Tapley. Hounded day after day by the so called agent of the Escalantes, with insolent demands for property that was never in Loring's possession; threatened with arrest if he did not make restitution or propose an equivalent; sent practically to Coventry by officials at headquarters, to whom he was too proud or too sensitive to dilate upon his wrongs or to tell more than once the straight story of his innocence; saved from military arrest only by the "stalwart" letter written by the Yuma surgeon, in response to his urgent appeals; comforted measurably by Blake's eloquent, but emphatically insubordinate outburst at the expense of department headquarters; unable to bring to bear for nearly five weeks the mass of testimony as to character forthcoming from the superintendent and officers at West Point, and the letters of classmates and comrades who knew him and felt that the charges must be false, our engineer passed through an ordeal the like of which few men have had to encounter.

Then the unexpected happened. The captain of the Idaho slowly recovered his mind and strength, and, with convalescence, came keen recollection of all that had occurred. He, too, made full report to the owners of Loring's coolness and determination the night of the wreck, and was amazed to be told of the charges against that officer.

"Who says so? Who makes such accusations?" he demanded angrily, and was informed that his friend and shipmate, Purser Traynor, was the person, whereat the big skipper gave a long, long whistle, looked dazed again, smote his thigh with a heavy fist, and presently said, "Just you wait a little," wherewith he took himself off. Traynor and the first officer had been very "thick" for a fortnight or so, though that dinner had never come off. Traynor and the first officer had both been promised excellent berths the moment the new steamer arrived that was to take the place of the Idaho. But the captain went cruising out beyond Sacramento, where the purser had a little nest and brood, and came back later with a tale he poured into the ears of the company, the result of which was that Traynor was informed he would be wise to seek other employment, there would be no place for him on the new Montana, and Traynor took first boat for the Columbia and got far away from San Francisco.

No specific charges had been laid at his door, said the owners, when questioned. Nothing had been proved, nothing probably would be, that they knew of, but the captain had sailed with Traynor several years and had views of his own as to that gentleman's integrity, which, when communicated to Mr. Traynor, did not seem to surprise him and remained uncontradicted.

Then came the captain to department headquarters. The British sailor has scant reverence for soldiers of his own land and less for those of any other, no matter what the rank, and this particular son of the sea was more Briton than Yankee, despite the fact that he had "sailed the California trade" long years of his life and had taken out his papers in the early statehood of that wonderful land. Ever since the days of Stockton and Kearney he had fed fat the ancient grudge he bore the army and steered as clear of soldier association as was possible for a man whose ship was dependent in great measure on army patronage. Days before his unheralded coming to general headquarters the rumors of Loring's bravery and coolness the night of the wreck had been floating about the building. But the engineer had drawn into his shell. He came and went to and from the office assigned to him, working apparently over field reports and maps, and never entered another room in the building unless sent for. It was believed that he had written urgently to the chief of engineers requesting to be relieved from further duty at San Francisco. He was neither cleared nor convicted of the allegations at his expense. There seemed no way of bringing about either result in the absence or silence of witnesses. But meantime he had bitterly resented the apparent readiness of certain of the officials to look upon him with suspicion and had withdrawn from all except most formal and distant association. No wonder he desired to be relieved from further service with or near them.

Mrs. Nevins had insisted on removing to a cheap lodging in Sacramento as soon as able to move at all, and had taken her dependent sister with her, sorely against that young woman's wish, as she had made an impression, a decided impression upon an unmarried aid de camp who was reported to be wealthy, but whose attentions fell short of the matrimonial point as the poverty of the sisters became revealed to him. There was, therefore, no longer to Loring the possible embarrassment of meeting or seeing the girl who had so wronged him, yet there was constant evidence of the seeds that she had sown. Some man, he felt sure, must have kept alive the rumors to his discredit, and the extreme constraint of manner, the avoidance shown by this very gentleman, stamped him in all probability as the person at fault. Loring was only waiting now for proofs.

It so happened the very day the stanch old salt came searching through the building in quest of his friend that the general with two aids and others of his staff had assembled in the office of Colonel Strain. Several of them had known and sailed with the Idaho's master and liked her captain well, despite his frequent flings at soldiers. His appearance at the doorway, therefore, was the signal for quite a cordial welcome. The general himself came forward to take him by the hand and say how sorry he was at the loss of his ship and how he hoped soon to see him on the decks of a bigger and better one. But the bluff captain thought as little of land generals as of lubbers of lower grade, and was not as grateful as he should perhaps have been, and was evidently looking for something beyond the sympathetic group, and presently said so.

"You sent for me, sir?"

"I've come to see Mr Loring, by George! I haven't laid eyes on him since the night he backed me up in restoring order and discipline on my ship. That man ought to have been a sailor! Where'll I find him?" he concluded, abruptly, staring round at the circle of somewhat embarrassed faces.

"We heard some rumor about this, captain," said the general. "Suppose you come into my office and tell me the whole story?"

"Why not right here, where they can all hear?" was the instant answer. "I'm told that more'n one man has been at work trying to rob him of the credit, and as for Mr. Jennings, who was our first officer, I gave the company a piece of my mind the moment I heard it, and I've got a tongue lashing in store for him. 'Tain't the first I've had to give him, either, and it won't be the last if he ever runs foul of me again. They tell me, what's more, that Escalante's agent has had the impudence to come here a dozen times threatening Mr. Loring. Next time he comes you have him kicked out and charge it to me. That man's a thief, and so is one of the Escalantes—if not more than one. As for Loring, he's head and shoulders above any of the young fellows that have sailed with me, and when I was flattened out by the rush of that cowardly gang he stood up to 'em like a man. That one shot of his brought 'em up with a jerk and put an end to the trouble."

He broke off short and glanced about him to note the effect of his words. It was an awkward moment. Three of the group had had their doubts as to the possibility of Loring's being culpable, but so disturbed and partially convinced had been the general and his chief of staff, so active had been the aid-de-camp referred to in his collection and dissemination of scandal at Loring's expense, that no one felt able to say anything until the general himself had spoken. The chief evidently felt his dignity assailed and his commanding attitude imperiled. No further revelations ought to be allowed except such as should be filtered through him or his accredited staff officer.

"Come into my den, captain," he exclaimed, therefore. "You interest me greatly, and I want to hear all about it."

"I'll come quick enough," said the captain briefly, "after I've seen Loring. I want to shake hands with him, I say, before I do anything else. Where'll I find him?" And with most depressing disregard of the general's greatness, the sailor would have turned his back on the entire party in order to find his injured friend, but the chief was a strategist.

"Ah, go to Mr. Loring, captain," said he to a ready staff officer, "and say to him that I desire he should come to my room a moment!" And the aid-de-camp was off like a shot, so the seaman could only wait. The general led the way into his comfortable room and signaled to one or two to follow, and presently back came his messenger and a moment after him—grave, composed, but freezingly formal—there at the door stood the engineer. His eyes brightened up the instant he laid them on the Idaho's sturdy commander, but etiquette demanded that he should first address the general.

"You sent for me, sir?"

"I did, Mr. Loring. Our good friend, Captain Moreland, has been telling us of your most—er—praiseworthy conduct the night of the disaster. We all, I wish to assure you, are—er—gratified to hear of this. And now it has occurred to me that Captain Moreland might be able to throw some light on the very unpleasant matter which we had to bring to your attention a few weeks since. Surely he must know something of these—er—people who were your accusers."

The general was seated at his big desk. He was flanked by the adjutant general and backed by a brace of aids. Moreland, the mariner, was standing at the table and started forward as Loring entered as though to grasp his hand. The general still considered it essential to observe a certain air of formality in speaking. It was as though he had begun to believe Loring an injured man, and therefore he himself must be an aggrieved one, for surely the lieutenant should have spared the general the mortification of being placed in the wrong.

But to this tentative remark Mr. Loring made no reply. He stood calmly before the department commander, looking straight into his face, but did not open his lips.

"I say," repeated the general in louder tone, "the captain appears to know and may be able to tell us something about the people who were your accusers."

"Possibly, sir," said Loring, finding that he was expected to say something, but with an indifference of manner most culpable in one so far inferior in rank.

"I was in hopes, Mr. Loring," said the general, evidently nettled, "that you would appreciate the evident desire of myself and confidential officers to see you relieved of these—er—aspersions. For that reason I urged Captain Moreland to make his statement public."

And still looking straight at the department commander, whose florid face was turning purple, Loring was silent. Perhaps after a month of accusation, real or implied, on the part of the general and the "confidential officers" he found it difficult to account for the sudden manifestation of desire to acquit. He was thinking, too, of a tear stained little letter that had come to him only a few days earlier—the last from Pancha before the child was formally entered at the school of the good gray sisters. He was wondering if she at 16 were really more alone in her little world than he in the broad and liberal sphere of soldier life. Then the sight of Moreland's weather beaten face, perturbed and aggrieved, gave him a sense of sympathy that through all the weeks of his virtual ostracism had been lacking. He had other letters, too, worth more than a dollar apiece, which was what their carriage cost him, bidding him have no fear; documents of weight were coming that would teach the authorities of the Pacific coast the error of their views and ways, but of these he did not care to speak. He choose to wait the coming of the documents themselves. The silence, however, was oppressive, and the sailor spoke.

"If the only accusers this gentleman has are Escalantes, or associates of the Escalantes, you'd better beg his pardon and have done with it," said he, and thereby put the matter in its most luckless way.

Angrily the general turned to the aid-de-camp fidgeting on his left.

"Do you know whether the Escalantes are the sole accusers, captain?" said he deliberately.

"I regret to say that they are not," was the answer. "And Mr. Loring has shown strange reluctance, to put it mildly, to meet the others."

"I have answered, once and for all, every charge brought to my ears," said Loring, turning on the speaker, with eyes that blazed, and Moreland, who had seen him cool and composed in the face of panic, marveled now to note the intensity of his emotion, for Loring was white and trembling, though his gaze was steady as the hand that held back the terror stricken crew that wild night on the waters.

"Perhaps you are unaware of the more recent developments—and the source of information," said the aid uneasily.

"I am, and I demand the right to know or to meet both without delay.

"Now come out with your story."

Captain Moreland"—and here he turned on the wondering sailor—"can you be here tomorrow?"

"Certainly I can and will," was the prompt answer.

"That wouldn't help," said the aid-de-camp, on whom all eyes were fixed again. "My informant couldn't be here."

"Very good; we'll go to your informant, then," answered Loring.

Another silence. It was not Loring now who seemed hesitant or reluctant. It was the aid. There came a knock at the door. An orderly appeared with several telegraphic dispatches. Colonel Strain stepped forward, took them, shut the door in the orderly's face, handed them to the general and resumed his seat. Glad of a diversion, the commander glanced at the superscription. "Here is one for you, sir," said he to the engineer, who received it, but did not open it. He was again facing the embarrassed aid, who finally found words.

"Mr. Loring, my informant was here a whole month and said you refused to appear. Now—they are beyond recall, unless—it should come to trial."

The answer came like a flash.

"Your informant, sir—and there was but one—would never appear in the event of trial. That informant sailed three days ago on the Sonora, and you know it." Then, as a sudden thought struck him, he tore open his dispatch and read, then turned again to his faltering opponent. "So long as that informant could be confronted you kept me ignorant of any new allegations, if there were any. Now come out with your story, and by the next steamer I'll run it down."

TO BE CONTINUED.

O'Neill's.

Sixth Avenue, 20th to 21st Street, New York.

Importers and Retailers

Fine Millinery, Dry Goods,
Fancy Goods, Cloaks, Costumes,
Housefurnishings, Groceries,
Etc., Etc.

SEND FOR OUR

ILLUSTRATED FASHION CATALOGUE.

It tells you all about the Immense variety of goods we Sell.

A Postal Card Will Bring It to You.

H. O'Neill & Co., Sixth Avenue, 20th to 21st Street, N. Y.

R. FRUCHT

NO. 218 to 224 PARK AVENUE.

Wholesale and Retail Dealer in

BICYCLES,

Saddles, Handlebars, Oils, Carbon for Bicycle Gas Lamps, Pedals, Cement, Rims, Hubs, Spokes.

and all other articles pertaining to Bicycles. Also dealer in Edison Graphophone and photograph materials, and also sole agent for Plainfield of the Tribune Bicycle, the best in the world. I have taken permanent possession of the premises I recently purchased, 218, 222 and 224 Park avenue, nearly opposite North avenue, and there opened a bicycle store and repair shop, and will sell bicycles and bicycle goods at great bargains. Every man and woman who deals with me will save money. I buy for spot cash and sell for same, thus saving a percentage which I share with my customers. I guarantee to sell goods of this kind as low as can be purchased in New York City or elsewhere. My policy is to give my customers the full benefit of the lowest cash prices for best goods. Call at my store and procure my prices and be covinced. t-s tf

GREAT CLOTHING SALE

Special for 10 days. We will sell the balance of our heavy weight goods, consisting of

OVERCOATS AND SUITS

at 1-2 the former prices in order to make room for our handsome line of spring goods, which is arriving daily.

THIS SALE FOR 10 DAYS ONLY

So call and get rigged up for a little money

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,
206 West Front Street.

Hats and Gents' Furnishings.

STANDARD FOR THE WORLD.

Stop and See the

1899 Chainless

and others.

We have a few bargains in

SECOND HAND WHEELS

COLUMBIA BICYCLE AGENCY,
405 PARK AVENUE. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED IN
REPAIR WORK by C. L. Thorn, of the Columbia Agency.

A Double Bill
EASTER WEEK

Our Easter panel, "Innocence" given free to purchasers of tea, coffees, baking powder, etc A Lady's Rocker given to purchasers of one pound baking powder.

GRAND UNION TEA CO.
138 West Front street

H. E. Gayle. 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
[illegible] a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain rices. Send 5c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review Lathrop & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 29 North avenue.

William Hand & Son,
STAGES
For Parties, etc. 518 Park avenue.

WASHINGTON
VIA
OLD POINT COMFORT
is the most attractive short trip at this season of the year.

STEAMSHIPS OF THE
OLD DOMINION LINE
PERFORM DAILY SERVICE

Through tickets returning from Washington by rail or water

For full information apply to:
OLD DOMINION S. S. COMPANY
Pier 26, North River, NEW YORK
W. L. Guillaudeu Vice-Pres.,
& Traffic Mgr.
10 28 11

MISS JENKINS,
PARLOR MILLINERY
303 East Sixth Street.

NEUMAN BROS.

The popular Grocers, have a full line of

Table Delicacies.

Plum pudding and sauces, table raisens, fig Jordan Almonds, paper shell almonds, Ganable walnuts, new hickory nuts, new assorted mixed nuts, nut meats in boxes, fancy Florida grape fruit, seedless oranges, tangerines, Florida oranges, table apples, 25 dozen fancy celery and all table delicacies constantly on hand.

501-503 WATCHUNG AVE., COR. FIFTH ST.

C. ARNOLD, 35 Somerset Street,
has an elegant display of
Genuine Spring Lamb,
JERSEY BROILERS AND POULTRY
of all kinds. It will do your heart good to inspect my stock before purchasing your Sunday dinner. 3 21 tf

COLLIER,
SCIENTIFIC OPTICIAN.
Established 1869.
103 Park Avenue

Leggett's
SYRUP WHITE PINE AND TAR

is growing more popular every day. Why? Because it is a simple, palatable, reliable

Cough Remedy.

Try it, is all we ask.

25c. a Bottle.

Leggett's Pharmacy,
Y. M. C. A. Building.

Ladies Desiring . . .
KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING
done will please leave orders with Mrs. Force, 304 Central avenue, and it will receive prompt attention.

Real Estate, Stocks, Bonds and mortgages, in time of financial depression may depreciate greatly in value, but a Life Insurance Policy in The Prudential, which forms a part of the assets of an estate, never pays less than One Hundred Cents on the Dollar.

WRITE
Home Office Newark, N.J. THE PRUDENTIAL Insurance Co. of America.

JOHN F. DRYDEN, President. LESLIE D. WARD, Vice-Pres.
EDGAR B. WARD, 2d Vice-Pres. and Counsel. FORREST F. DRYDEN, Secretary.

J. ELSTON WOODLAND, Superintendent,
Cor. E. Front St. and Park Ave. Box 790, Plainfield, N. J.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Mr. Groendyke, of West End Park, is out of town for a few days on business.

Albert Garland, of New Brunswick, will spend tomorrow in Plainfield with friends.

Mrs. Fred Canfield, of Somerville, is the guest of relatives in Plainfield for a few days.

Silas Yerkes, of East Sixth street, has returned from an out-of-town business trip.

Miss Denton, of Prospect Hill, is slowly recovering from the effects of a tedious illness.

Harold Williams, of Elmwood place, is recovering from a severe attack of whooping cough.

Alex. Gee, of Bayonne, who has been visiting relatives in Plainfield, has returned home.

Miss Addie Weaver, of West End Park, has returned from a visit with out of town friends.

Miss Ada Woodruff, of New York, is the guest of Miss Amy G. Burt, of West Seventh street.

Miss Rockafellow, of Elizabeth, is visiting her parents on West Front street for a few days.

Mrs. Ferdinand O. Smith, of West Front street, has returned from a visit with out of town friends.

Mrs. Archibald Butler, of Putnam avenue, has returned from a short visit with Somerville relatives.

Orville T. Waring, of the University of Pennsylvania, is spending his vacation at his home on Willow avenue.

Rev. J. W. Richardson, of Prospect avenue, is expected to return today from Boston, where he has been for several days.

Mrs J. R. Truell and her daughter, Mrs. R F. Johnston, of Central avenue, have returned after a visit at Westerley, R. I.

Howard T. Lewis, of Alfred University, has been spending a few days at the home of his aunt, Mrs. George H. Babcock, of West Eighth street, has gone to his home near Westerley, R. I., to spend Easter.

Harry Hyndman, of the University of Pennsylvania, is the guest of his friend, George B. Snediker, of Grove street, over Easter.

Walter E. Probasco, of the dentistry department of the University of Pennsylvania, is at his home on East Front street for the Easter vacation.

Robert Whittaker, of circus fame, has been visiting his sister in this city. Yesterday he returned to Philadelphia, where he is stopping for the present.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Press want ads bring results.

—Next Wednesday evening a number of young society people from the city and borough will give a dance at the Park Club.

—Next Tuesday evening the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Plainfield Catholic Club will hold their regular business meeting and arrange for some social events.

—You are invited to call at Swain's, 317 West Front street, and see the beautiful Platino prints now so popular. An elegant assortment of fancy metal frames, gold gilt and burnished. Also some pictures, very suitable for this Easter season, either for your own use or as a gift to a friend. 3 31 2

—Miss Anno O. Marsh, of 915 Madison avenue, is forming a class for beginners from 8 to 10 years of age. The object of the class is to teach the rudiments of music and to train the hand for playing according to the clavier method. The expense for scholars will be small and applications should be made early.

—The Plainfield High School Athletic Associations have been very fortunate in securing Rutgers College Glee Club for their annual concert, which takes place at the Y. M. C. A. hall Monday evening. The Philadelphia Record says of them: "Rutgers College Glee Club is certainly the best of its kind that ever visited Philadelphia. All the voices are fine and many of them far above the average.'

To Cure a Cough in One Day
To Cure a Cold in One Day
To Cure Sore Throat in One Day
To Cure Hoarseness in One Day

Take Cleveland's Lung Healer, 25c. Trial size free. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenue.

THE PULPIT SUBJECTS.

SERVICES IN THE LOCAL CHURCHES TOMORROW.

What Plainfield Ministers Will Talk About for the Elevation of the Minds and Morals of Their Congregations.

St. Mary's (R. C.) church, Rev. P. E. Smyth, pastor.—Masses at 7:30, 8:30, 9:30, 10:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 2:30; evening devotions at 8.

St. Joseph's (R. C.) church, Rev. William H. Miller, pastor.—Masses at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m.; Sunday-school at 3; evening devotions, 8.

Mission Church of the Heavenly Rest, Clinton avenue, William Winans Moore and Francis Gregory Moore, Lay Readers—9:45, Sunday-school; 11, morning service.

Grace P. E. church, Rev. E. M. Rodman, rector, Rev. F. Appleton, curate—7, 8 and 10:30, celebrations of the Holy Communion; 7:30, children's festival.

B. W. Hand's residence, 1045 West Seventh street — 10:30 a. m., Rev. J. B. Cleaver will speak in the interest of the "Christian Church."

First Presbyterian church, Rev. C. E. Herring, pastor—Morning, children's service; evening, special music Tissot's "Death and Resurrection of Christ," illustrated.

Filmore Baptist church, Rev. W. D. Johnson, pastor—11, sermon, subject, "Who Will Move the Stone?" 3, Sunday school; 8, sermon, subject, "The Story of the Resurrection.'

Calvary Baptist church, Rev. Scott Wallace, pastor—11, sermon by Rev. Geo. H. Jones, subject, "The Resurrection;" 3, Sunday school; 7, Young People's Union; 8, sermon by the pastor, subject, "The Resurrection."

All Souls' church, Rev. A. C. Nickerson, pastor—10:30, sermon, subject, "The Life of God in the Soul of Man." Easter music. Reception of new members into the church. 11:30, Sunday-school.

Trinity Reformed church, Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, pastor—Services appropriate to Easter will be held. Morning, sermon, subject, "Risen Indeed;" 2:30, Sunday school; evening, special services by the Sabbath-school.

Christian church, Grove street, Rev. H. W. McKane, pastor—Morning subject, "The Resurrection Day;" evening, special music and sermon, subject, "He is Risen."

Wilson Memorial chapel—Evening. W. D. Murray will speak.

Reform Hall—4 p. m., William F. Sharkey will lead the meeting. Mrs. Pope will sing.

Church of the Redeemer. Rev. W. Montgomery Downey, rector — 7:30, Holy Communion; 11:15, morning prayer, sermon and Holy Communion; 4:30, Sunday-school festival.

St. Stephen's church, Rev. S. P. Simpson, rector — 7:30, Holy Communion; 10:30, morning prayer; 11, Holy Communion and sermon; 5, children's service; 7:45, evening prayer and sermon.

First M. E. church, Rev. W. C. Snodgrass, pastor — 10:30 and 7:45, preaching services; 2:30, Sunday-school; 3, Easter observance; 7, Epworth League service.

Monroe Avenue church, Rev. William C. O'Donnell, pastor—10, Sacrament of the Lord's Supper and reception of members; 3, Sunday-school Easter service; 7:15, Epworth League; 8, sermon, subject, "The Story of the Sepulchre." Mrs. Douglass will sing.

Grace M. E church, Rev. G. W. Gardner, pastor—10:30, sermon, subject, "St. Paul and the Doctrine of the Resurrection;" 2:30, Sunday-school and special Easter exercises; 7, Epworth League service, Miss Bertha Stevens, leader; 7:45, sermon, subject, "The Buried Talent."

Park Avenue Baptist church, Rev. John Wilbor Richardson, pastor—10:30, sermon, subject, "The Easter Emancipation;" 2:45, Sunday-school; 7:30 sermon, subject, 'Resurrection Facts."

Y. M. C. A.—9:30 and 5:15, Bible classes; 4:15, men's meeting, F. H. Martin will speak and Prof. Charles Wold will render selections on musical glasses. 4:15, boys' meeting, Irving L. Brady will speak and there will be the same musical attractions.

Bethel chapel, Rev. F. D. Tildon, pastor—11, song and praise service; 3, Sunday-school; 8, Easter service, songs and recitations by the Young People's Union.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on L. W. Randolph, Druggist, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

No Assessments. No Assessments.

WE PAY FOR ALL IMPROVEMENTS AND

You Reap the Harvest in Increase of Valuation.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY IS NOW

Why Not Take Advantage of What We Offer?

You cannot help but make money. If you will only buy. Don't you believe what you read? If not take a walk or a trolley ride to the property of the Plainfield Real Estate Co.

Prosperity shows itself on every hand. Buildings in course of erection everywhere on their property. Just think of it, out of 200 lots mapped out we have

Only 60 Lots Left.

If you are not convinced by all this, that by purchasing now you can make money, we will introduce you to people who will not sell for twice what they paid for their lots less than three years ago. And remember that the 60 lots left, fronting on

Grant Avenue, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th Streets, are the choice of the whole property and will be sold at hard-time prices and on easy terms. For maps and further particulars call or write the

Plainfield Real Estate Co.,

215 North Ave., corner of Watchung.

A Chance for the Masses for Easter CLOTHING.

THE GREATEST SALE OF SPRING CLOTHING for Men, Boys and Children ever held in Plainfield. The prices are within the reach of all and defy competition. Sale positively begins this Saturday, April 1, at 8 a. m., at 214 West Front street, next door to Music Hall. Right from under the auctioneer's hammer we have purchased at 35c on the Dollar, $7,000 worth of the best tailor-made Spring Clothing, all this season's manufacture, from the well-known stock of Messrs. Rothschild, Levi & Co., of Rochester, N. Y. This is known as the best ready-made Clothing Manufacturer in the United States.

This sale will continue for a short time only. Every dollar's worth of their stock must be converted into cash at once. We deal in reliable clothing only, and will not undertake to sell a dollar's worth unless we know that the goods will give as good wear as if you paid us what the garment is worth. Everything sold as represented or money refunded. Our prices, which are the lowest ever heard of for the best grade of clothing, will show the immense saving at a glance, and it will pay lawyers, doctors, mechanics and farmers—in fact, everybody who has cash, to come miles to buy your from us. STUDY THIS PRICE LIST and bring it with you, so that you can get your goods just as these prices.

Dress Suits, Business Suits, Spring Overcoats, Coats and Vests and Trousers

Men's tweed and cheviot spring suits, regular price 7.00, our price 2.75. Men's fine cheviot and cassimere sack suits in newest shades, regular price 9.00-10.00, our price 3.75. Men's sack or cutaway suits in Scotch cheviots, diagonals and worsteds, regular price 13.00, our price 5.50. Men's tailor-made dress suits in sack or cutaway style, made from the very finest goods, including diagonal, French clay worsteds and the John Taylor celebrated cassimere and homespuns, regular price 18.00, 20.00 and 22.00, our price 6.50, 7.50 and 8.50. We have over 3,000 suits to choose from. No matter how particular your tastes are, you are bound to find something suitable. Men's extra durable working pants, regular price 2.00 and 2.50, our price 1.00 and 1.50. Men's extra dress pants in worsteds, regular price 4.00 to 5.00, our prices 2.00 and 3.00. A lot of youths' long pants from 60c up.

Youths' suits made from best worsteds and cheviots, regular price from 6.00 to 12.00, our price 2.50 to 7.00. Men's covert cloth Spring overcoats in the latest shades and cuts, regular price from 10.00 to 15.00, our price from 3.50 to 6.90. A good all wool child's suit, ages from 5 to 8 years made with sailor collars, middy vestee style or double breasted, regular price from 2.50 to 3.00, our price 1.00 to 1.25 and 1.50. Very fine middy suits with combination collars and vests, regular price 6.00, our price 2.00 to 2.50. Children's suits from 8 to 16 years, all wool, regular price from 3.00 to 4.00, our price 1.50 to 1.90. Boys' knee pants from 15c to 45c. Men's latest spring styles derbies from 85c to 1.25 worth double.

It would be well to come early, so you can get your choice.

NEW YORK CLOTHING CO.

M. Weinberger, Manager.

214 W. FRONT ST. Next Door to Music Hall. PLAINFIELD, N. J.

All cars stop at our door. Carfares paid to all out-of-town buyers.

Excelsior Mattress, cotton top, full size, from $1.75; special. Every kind of Bedding, Springs and Iron Beds. Mattresses made over. Carpets and Rugs cleaned on the floor to look like new.

A. F. NAYLOR.
BEDDING
Factory and Store. 23 SOMERSET ST

SPRING CLEANING will soon be here, and while cleaning up your homes do not forget to clean your system.

Hepburn's Blood Purifier for the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys, will do this in a satisfactory manner. Money refunded if it don't do what is claimed for it. We have made and sold it the same way for the past 14 years.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY, HEPBURN & CO.
Cor. Park Ave. and Second St. Telephone 671.

SCIENTIFIC MASSAGE
Facial Massage and Steaming.
THERMO-ELECTRIC BATHS.
MISS HOLMES, 440 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J. 3 1 tf

Samples of new Spring colors can be obtained at the dry goods stores. Bring the samples and last year's dress goods in and see if we can't dye this year's shades and save buying new goods.

HILLIER & CO.,
129 West Front Street,
Opposite White's. 'Phone 851.

HURRAH! HURRAH! HURRAH!

Here we are, the largest and best equipped laundry in your state. We not only say this, but it is a positive fact. Our numerous laundries and branches are located in all the principal cities of the States of NEW YORK, NEW JERSEY AND PENNSYLVANIA.

And can frankly say that the work turned out by each is appreciated by our numerous patrons. The introduction of has gained great fame. And still another great advantage is gained by your laundry coming to us, and that is, all your open front shirts are ironed by hand. Your collars and cuffs are turned and tipped in the proper way the maker intends them to be. Telephone or drop us postal. Will call and deliver free of charge.

Our Celebrated Domestic Finish

City Steam and Hand Laundry
19 SOMERSET ST.
TELEPHONE.
Morey & LaRue, Proprietors,
PLAINFIELD N. J.

Cycle and Camera in Ireland.
ILLUSTRATED LECTURE
In the First Presbyterian Church,
Tuesday, April 4, 1899,
By the Pastor, CHARLES E. HERRING.
TICKETS 25c. 4 1 4

Tickets for the Cantata of "Belshazzar" to be given by Grace Church Choir at the CASINO
Thursday Evening, April 6th
can be procured at the drug stores of RANDOLPH, ARMSTRONG AND MALLINSON.
Also from members of the choir 3 28 tf

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the stockholders of the PLAINFIELD GAS LIGHT COMPANY for the election of directors will be held at the office of the Company, 110 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J., on TUESDAY, APRIL 4th, 1899, at 4 p. m.

H. G. RUNKLE, Secretary.
3 1 4

Monroe B. Long, M D., President. Eugene M. Laing, Vice-President.
Robert A. Meeker, Secretary. Robert J. Shaw, Treasurer.

THE UNION BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.
OFFICE, 203 PARK AVENUE.

Special Features

A uniform Loaning Rate of $8.67 Per month on each $1,000 borrowed. ANY additional amount may be paid in, no matter how small, with any monthly instalment; thus maturing the stock that much sooner.

It accommodates itself to the financial condition of the borrower instead of compelling him to pay a certain fixed amount each month.

Liberal Withdrawals With Interest

THE MEMBERS MAY WITHDRAW AT ANY TIME AND RECEIVE THE WHOLE AMOUNT PAID IN AND AFTER ONE YEAR SIX PER CENT INTEREST ON THE SAME.

The whole or any part of the loan can be paid off at any time.

A New Series Issued Every Month.

To Investors

PAID-UP OR INCOME STOCK, COSTING $60 PER SHARE AND BEARING 5 PER CENT INTEREST AND HAVING A MATURITY VALUE OF $100 PER SHARE is issued from time to time, as the board of directors may determine, and is especially desirable for those wishing a secure and profitable investment.

For further particulars inquire at the office, 203 Park Ave., Room 8, or address the secretary.

R. A. MEEKER,
203 PARK AVE.

DOBBINS. CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE

Advertised Letters.

Plainfield, N. J., March 27, 1899.

Barnes Sarah	Hammond F G
Bisoto Mrs	Hughes G L
Carter G-o	Kopotoff M Jane
Carter Jennie Mrs	Manlu J P M s
Catlin Louisa E Miss	Schumertz Katie Miss 2
Dunn David	Smith DeWitt
Foster C M	Stratton W S
Green E C Miss	Stevens Sarah Miss

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR
Sun Rises 5:40 a. m.
Sun Sets 6:26 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 7 26 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Increasing Cloudiness Tonight, Tuesday Probably Rain. Thermometer 48.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., MONDAY, APRIL 3, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

GLAD EASTER CAROLS HEARD IN CHURCHES.

Special Services Were the Rule In Christian Circles.

CHILDREN TOOK A PART.

LARGE AUDIENCES PARTICIPATED IN THE COMMEMORATION EVENT.

Beautiful Floral Decorations Added Their Significance to the Day—Elaborate Musical Programme Rendered in Every Church—Gift of Handsome Collection Plates Received by Trinity Society.

The grandest and most auspicious event in evangelical churches is Easter. That day, commemorative of the rising of Christ from the tomb, was celebrated in the Plainfield churches with services bearing out the full significance of the day. Elaborate decorations, special musical programmes and inspiring sermons were heard in every church. The following gives a concise description of the services in this city and borough:

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH.

Trinity Reformed church was filled with the fragrance of flowers yesterday and the services commemorative of Easter were glad and joyous as befitted the day. At the morning service the pastor, Rev. Cornelius Schenck, Ph. D., delivered an excellent sermon, using as his text "The Lord Is Risen Indeed." The choir also rendered Easter anthems.

In the evening the service was given over to the children in the primary department, who, under the direction of Mrs. J. M. Tier, the superintendent, delighted the congregation with their songs and recitations of Easter Day. At both services the edifice was filled from pulpit to the doors.

The floral display in front of and on the pulpit platform was beautiful, consisting of greens, palms, lilies and cut flowers tastfully arranged. On the organ front the word "Hallelujah" in large white letters, on a background of green, made a prominent and appriate part of the decorations. A cross of green and white occupied a prominent position to the preacher's right. The decorations altogether pleased all, and the committee from the Ladies' Christian Work and Christian Endeavor Societies deserve thanks for their efforts.

Before the regular morning offering was taken Dr. Schenck gave his congregation a genuine surprise by informing them of the gift to the church from the Whatsoever Circle, King's Daughters, of six new plates for collecting the offerings of the church. Dr. Schenck spoke gratefully of the forethought on the part of these "Daughters of the King," as he called them, and on behalf of the congregation thanked them most heartily. He also said that a good way for the people to show their appreciation of the gift is by keeping the plates full. The plates are handsome blackwalnut ones, with maroon colored velvet cushions. Around the rim, in raised carved letters is a text. Three of them bear this inscription, "The Lord Loveth a Cheerful Giver, and three, "Give Alms of Thy Goods."

As the superintendent, E. E. Anthony is away, Fred E. Smith, assistant superintendent, took charge of the exercises in the evening. The Sunday-school sat in the front pews of the church, while the congregation occupied the seats in the rear. The following programme was rendered by the members of the primary department: "The Date for Easter," Elmer Bohan; "Easter Greeting," Bessie Randall; "Easter," Cornelius Schenck, Jr.; "In the Early Dawning," Anna Bodine and Lillie Luckey; song, (by school,) "A Happy Easter Day;" "An Easter Resolve," Helen Woolley; "Easter Lilies," Rowland Reighton; "Easter-tide," Elsie Dunavan; "Easter Day," Harold Schenck; an Easter object lesson, Anna Boes, Florence Wilson and Hermina Lighthouser; "Easter Lesson," Ida Tier; "Easter Guests," Rose Hook, Elsie Dunavan, Mildred Caleen and Laura Bodine; "Easter Comfort," Edith Caleen; "Easter Bells," John Schofield; song, "Sing a Happy Song of Easter," Bessie Randall and Ida Tier; "Believe We Christ is Risen," Mary Neal. There were a few closing remarks by the pastor and by Mr. Smith, who also read a letter from Mr. Anthony, who sent greetings.

The singing at both services was by the regular church choir. Mr. Titsworth, the organist, who trained them, was repaid for his labors by the excellent work rendered at both services.

HOPE CHAPEL.

There was an unusual display of Easter lilies, cut flowers and potted plants at Hope chapel yesterday. In the afternoon the Junior Endeavorers sang a few Easter carols and at night there was a special service of song.

ALL SOULS' CHURCH.

A good congregation attended the Easter service at All Souls' church yesterday. The pastor preached a sermon on the "Life of God in the Soul of Man." An Easter anthem was spiritedly given. Two persons united with the church, and were given a right hand of fellowship by the pastor, Mr. Warren B. Travell and Miss Elsie Van Zandt. The decorations were in white and gold against tall palms, the stately Easter lilies comporting well with the mural decorations of this tasteful little church.

WARREN CHAPEL.

Easter Sunday was observed with special exercises in Warren chapel yesterday morning and afternoon. The pastor, Rev J. O. McKelvey preached an Easter sermon and there was also special music. The decorations were very pretty.

FIRST M. E. CHURCH.

Easter Sunday was observed in the First M. E. church yesterday in proper fashion. The pastor, Rev. Dr. W. C. Snodgrass, preached appropriate sermons at both morning and evening services. The chorus choir, under the direction of Miss Jessie Utter, organist, rendered a number of special Easter anthems. A huge bank of palms, Easter lillies, and other potted plants hid the pulpit and platform.

In the afternoon at 3 o'clock, the Sunday school held a special service in the church. The church choir was present and sang several anthems. There were also carols by the school.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN

This church observed Easter appropriately with special music. The church was prettily decorated. In the morning a programme of vocal music arranged and composed by Fred Schilling, organist, was presented. In the evening the service consisted of an exhibition, for the first time, of Tissot's "Death and Ressurection of Christ.

MT. ZION A. M. E.

Rev. James E. Groves, the pastor of the Mt. Zion A. M E. church, remembered the day in his sermons, and so did the choir in their choice of music. The flowers were numerous, and well displayed about the pulpit.

GRACE M. E. CHURCH.

The usual Easter services were held at this church. The church decorations were attractive. The afternoon service was of great interest to the large number of people present. Superintendent John Valiant was in charge, and the choir was assisted by Dyckman Wincker, Clarence Hillman, violin, and Walter Serrell, flute.

ST. STEPHEN'S

The rector, Rev. Simpson, officiated at a full choral service at St. Stephen's church yesterday morning. The decorations about the altar were palms, lilies and cut flowers.

PILLMORE AVENUE.

At the Pillmore Avenue Baptist church, the pastor preached Easter sermons at both the morning and evening services. There was music appropriate to the day, and a profusion of flowers.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

The services at this church were interesting. The decorations were especially beautiful. At the morning service the chorus choir rendered several anthems, one of which was given by the woman of the choir. There were also solos by Miss Harris, G. W. Smith and Wm. Holmes, and P. Ludwig Conde assisted with the violin.

At the afternoon service the Sunday schools of the Home church, East Third Street Mission and Mt. Olive Baptist churce assembled and joined in attractive programme.

The annual report of the home school was given by Secretary, W. C. Chapman. It showed that at present there are 432 scholars enrolled with an average attendance of 241.

The report of the Mt. Olive Baptist Sunday-school showed a membership of 160 with an average attance of 83.

Superintendent L. W. Randolph, for the East Third Street Mission, reported a membership of 120, an increase of 29 over last year.

ST MARY'S CHURCH.

The services yesterday were of a character commemorative of the day and were given with a splendor characteristic of the Catholic church. The high altar was beautifully decorated with many potted and cut flowers, while within the sanctuary there was a profusion of palms and other plants. Over the altar stood out prominently the words "He is Risen; Alleluia," and over the tabernacle was a beautiful crystal cross.

The choir had been enlarged for the occasion and reflected great credit on themselves, the solo soprano, Miss May Flanagan, rendering her part of the difficult musical programme in a

CONTINUED ON PAGE 8

TAX RATE LIABLE TO JUMP EIGHT POINTS.

Annual City Budget to be Made up This Evening.

$4,000 MORE FOR STREETS.

BUSINESS CENTER WILL BE COVERED WITH ASPHALT.

Bonds to be Issued to Cover the Expense of Making the Improvement—Fire Department to Receive an Increase of About $2,200, Which Will be for the Use of New Engine House.

At the meeting of the Common Council this evening the appropriations for the year will be made, and every taxpayer is interested to know what the tax rate for the coming year will be. Judging from present indications there is every reason to believe that the rate this year will be nearly $2.50, an advance of nearly eight points over the present rate.

This estimate is based on the assessment made last year. In the appropriations to be made this evening the streets will receive an increase of $4,000, which it is considered is not any too little to carry on this work. It is the intention of the street committee to asphalt Park avenue and Front street this year before cold weather sets in again, and to do this work bonds will be issued for the purpose, so that the expense will not be added to the tax budget. The street committee is very anxious to make this year a memorable one in repairing streets and no doubt this will be accomplished.

The appropriation for the fire department will receive an increase of about $2,200, which will be used to take care of the new engine house and such other improvements as the committee will find it necessary to make.

The police department will receive no increase, as the present amount deemed sufficient. The appropriations for the other departments of the city work will remain about the same.

FORMER PLAINFIELD WOMAN DEAD

Mrs. John H. Angleman Succumbs to a Long Illness in Bayonne.

The many friends of Mrs. John H. Angleman, of Bayonne, will be shocked to learn of her sudden death which occurred yesterday morning at her home after an illness of two weeks with pleuro-pneumonia. Mrs. Angleman was a member of the Woman's Relief Corps and two weeks ago she attended a gathering in this city when she contracted a severe cold which resulted in her death.

She was 38 years old, and has resided in Bayonne for five years. She was the daughter of Thomas McClain of Illinois. She resided in Plainfield for twelve years. She leaves a husband and two children a boy and a girl.

The funeral services will be held tomorrow evening from the late home in Bayonne and on Wednesday afternoon from the residence of her brother-in-law, Isaiah L McVoy, 305 East Front street, at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be in the Methodist Cemetery.

Glee Club Tonight

The Richmond Dispatch speaks in the following terms in regard to Rutgers College Glee Club which is to appear at Y. M. C. A. hall this evening in a benefit concert for the athletic associasions of the High School. "Rutgers College Glee Club, in the fifth entertainment of the Star course, under the Young Men's Christian Association, was greeted by a very flattering audience at the Association Hall last evening, and indeed renewed their most favorable impression made last winter, when here under the same auspices."

To Look Into the Valley Wreck.
(Special to The Daily Press)

New Brunswick, April 3.—The April term of court begins today. The Grand Jury will be called upon to investigate the accident on the Lehigh Valley Railroad near Bound Brook in which eighteen persons were killed. The matter was investigated by the Prosecutor, and the result of his investigations will be laid before the Grand Jury.

New Church Organist.

Mr. Miller, of Boston, has secured the position of organist at the First Presbyterian church and will commence his duties next Sunday. Mr. Miller played on trial at the church two weeks ago and by a unanimous vote of the choir he was selected.

To Banquet at the Kensington

The Plainfield Medical Association will meet tomorrow evening at the Kensington Hotel and have their quarterly banquet. Proprietor Staats is getting up a fine menu for the function.

"DIPLOMACY" TO BE ACTED BY AMATEURS

Sardou's Great Play Will Be Produced for Charity.

FINE TALENT IN THE CAST.

THE DRAMA TO BE PERFORMED IN MUSIC HALL APRIL 29TH.

Rehearsals Have Been Going On For Some Time, and the Details are Having Thorough Attention From the Players—Alfred Young, of New York, is Acting as Coach—Those in Cast.

Sardou's great play, "Dipolmacy," will be given in Music Hall Saturday evening, April 29th, by Plainfield talent for Plainfield charities. All arrangements have been made and the cast is now complete. Rehearsals have been going on for some time past, and the details of the performance are having the thorough attention that characterizes the work of the company producing the play. The former plays produced by the members of this cast were well rendered. All remember "Esmeralda," "Young Mrs. Winthrop" and "The Grey Mare," which were successes. Last year "Caste," a difficult play, which required fine rendition to achieve success, was given in the Casino in aid of Muhlenberg Hospital. The performance brought forth unstinted praise, and by request it was reproduced in Music Hall, where a large audience greeted it with expressed approval. Both performances added a comfortable sum for the hospital.

"Diplomacy" is a choice piece, having an almost unprecedented history both in the talent employed in it and in the number of times which it has been performed. It is constantly being revived by the best people in the profession, and within a short time a company of the highest ability will play it in New York.

When this play was first produced in London and New York it ran continuously for months. The great scene in the third act, known as the "Scene of the Three Men," produced a sensation and is considered one of the greatest scenes in English drama. The memory of it still lives in the minds of those who saw Wallack, Montague and Robinson, who were the "three men" that appeared in it when it was first played in America at Wallack's.

Alfred Young, of New York, is instructing the cast in the various parts. Following is the cast:

Count Orloff ..... P. A. Pincoffs
Baron Stein ..... W. L. Saunders
Henry Beaucier ..... D. M. VanVliet
Capt. Julian Beauclerc ..... Alfred Young
Algie Fairfax ..... Laurens H. VanBuren
Markham ..... Harry M. Curtis
Antoine / Sheppard ..... Arthur Murphy
Clerk ..... Harry M. Curtis
Marquise de Rio Zares. Miss Lily Gordon Wickersham
Dora ..... Mrs. W. L. Saunders
Comtesse Zicka ..... Miss Grace Webster Cooley
Lady Henry Fairfax ..... Miss Florence Waring
Mion ..... Miss Huntington

The sale of seats begins tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at Armstrong's drug store.

DOG STRUCK BY A TRAIN. FELL IN CYCLIST'S PATH.

THRILLING SIGHT ON PARK AVENUE.

Canine Hit by a Blue Line Flyer and Fell to the Same Spot That Cyclist Arrived at.

A peculiar accident occurred to Edgar Brokaw, sexton of the Park Avenue Baptist church, Saturday afternoon, while he was riding his wheel through Park avenue, coming toward the railroad bridge. Just before he reached it a Blue Line flyer came along and hurled a good-sized dog from the bridge. He went up in the air a considerable distance and when he came down he landed directly in the centre of Park avenue just as Mr. Brokaw came along. The cyclist and the canine reached the same spot at the same time and the former could not help running over the dog. In coming in contact with the animal Mr. Brokaw was thrown from his wheel and went head-first into the gutter, suffering considerable from shock. Aside from a few bruises and scratches Mr. Brokaw escaped any serious injury. The dog, however, made his escape after such a thrilling experience and he was not injured in the slightest degree. He went down the street like a streak of lighting and has not been seen since.

Younger Veterans to Organize

A meeting of those interested in forming some kind of an organization to decorate the graves this year of those who fell in the late war, will be held tonight in Hope chapel. All who enlisted for the war are invited to be present and give their opinions as to what should be done.

RUM OR NO RUM THE ISSUE AT LINCOLN.

The Town Divided Over Question of a Saloon.

MERRY WAR IN PROGRESS.

MATTER TO BE HEARD IN MIDDLESEX COUNTY COURT.

George Tooman Will Make Application to Judge Strong Tomorrow, but He Will Have to Face a Remonstrance From Prominent Citizens—Mayor and Councilmen Opposed to Saloon License.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Lincoln, April 3—For the past two weeks parties have been scouring Piscataway township to get signers for a license for a saloon at Lincoln, and have been successful in securing the required number of names. But notwithstanding this several remonstrances were drawn up and women and men have circulated them in and about Lincoln, asking those opposed to a licensed saloon at Lincoln to sign them. The remonstrances have been signed by the Mayor and members of the Council, by the proprietors of the four factories, by many employes of the factories, and by every prominent resident or property owner, including the two land companies of Lincoln.

In an inverview Mayor Drake said, "This is the fight we have been looking for," that he had been told by some that the women question of governing Lincoln hurt the town—as it kept the town from getting a saloon. The Mayor has invariably replied, "long may the women rule."

Many who have signed the protest say they would not object to a good hotel at Lincoln, but a saloon, never!

It is said that the applicant for the saloon at Lincoln is George Tooman, and that the application will be presented at the court in New Brunswick tomorrow.

Those who protested against it have secured Hon. Howard MacSherry, of New Brunswick, to look after their interests.

HIS STEPS WERE UNCERTAIN.

Owen McCarthy Did Not Mind Policeman and Landed in the Rookery.

Owen McCarthy, of this city found a box of shoes, a package and the street cars too much to watch all at once Saturday night, laboring under the disadvantage of being intoxicated, as he was. Patrolman Mattox found him leaning against a building on the corner of Front street and Park avenue, and after ordering him three times to go home and stop stumbling about in the way of pedestrians, locked him up. This morning City Judge Runyon fined McCarthy $3 which he paid.

Recital Programme.

The following is the programme to be given at the recital arranged by Mrs. Frank Smith, which will be heard at the Casino tomorrow evening:

Duet—"Parting" ..... Nicolai
Miss Miner and Mr. Stricklett.
In the Garden with the Persian Poet Saadi. [Sir Edwin Arnold
Mrs. Smith.
(Musical accompaninament written by Frank J. Smith.)
Songs—Jover ..... Brownell
My Rosary ..... Nevin
Come to Me ..... Bemberg
Mr. Stricklett.
Cicely and the Bears ..... Lilliput Levee
Mrs. Smith.
Songs—The Danza ..... Chodwick
Irish Folk-Song ..... Foote
A Thought ..... Park
Miss Miner.
A Pair of Lunatics, (dramatic sketch). Walkes
Mrs. Smith.

An Incipient Fire.

Last Saturday evening at 11:20 o'clock Patrolman Weizenried was walking away from the Netherwood Railway Station, when he was informed by some men that Johnson's woodshed on South avenue was on fire He then sent in an alarm of fire from box No. 28, North and Woodland avenues. The department responded quickly, but on arriving at the scene of the fire they learned that they were not wanted. The fire was very small and was quickly extinguished by the residents on the property.

A First Bridesmaid.

Miss Edith Hyde, daughter of Mr and Mrs. Charles E. Hyde, of East Front street, will be the first of six bridemaids at the marriage of Miss Ada Godfrey to Wyllys Rossiter Betts Thursday afternoon April 6th. The marriage will take place in St. Thomas's Protestant Episcopal church Fifth avenue and Fifty-street street, New York.

Prize Choristers.

Prize choiristers of Grace choir for March were Harry Messersmith, Harris Egan, Raymond Cohen, Vincent Miner, Malcolm Davis and the Misses C. Woodword and E. VanDeventer.

THE HUNTERSON LEASED

THE FAMOUS HOSTELRY LEASED BY MAJOR COLEMAN.

The New Proprietor Will Run the House as a Summer and Winter Resort—To Open the Middle of Next Month.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New York, April 3—Major Coleman, of Washington, D.C., leased today the Hotel Hunterston at Netherwood of Dr. Robert Hunter, of New York.

The lease takes effect at once and is for three years, with privilege of five years longer and option to purchase the whole property.

The hotel will be opened May 15th next and will be run summer and winter in first class style.

Major Coleman is well known in connection with the Coleman House at Asbury Park, and later of the Richmond House at Washington, D. C.

BUGGY SMASHED TO PIECES.

Simon Mantz's Horse Had an Exciting Run at New Market.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Market, April 3—An exciting runaway was witnessed here Saturday afternoon, in which a rubber-tire runabout belonging to Simon Mantz, of Plainfield, was completely wrecked. Mr. Mantz tied his horse in front of the Nelson House while he entered a house near by. In some way the horse broke his bridle and got loose.

In a moment he was running down the street, the runabout colliding with trees and posts until at last, wrecked and broken into bits, the animal left what remained of it and continued his run unencumbered. The horse when caught was found to have been cut a little about the knee.

DEATH OF MRS. HELEN L. GREEN

Died in New York But Remains to be Interred in North Plainfield.

Mrs. Helen L. Green, formerly of this city, and widow of the late Frank C. Green, died at her home on West Ninety-eighth street, New York, yesterday morning. The remains will be brought to this city tomorrow afternoon and the interment will take place in the North Plainfield cemetery on the arrival of the 1 o'clock train. Mrs. Green is the last member of the family to pass away. Her death will be a shock to many of her friends in this city, who did not know of her critical illness.

Grace M. E. Church Finances.

Yesterday morning at Grace M. E. church Mr. Valiant, for the trustees, presented a partial report of the financial condition of the church for one year up to date, taking into account the new parsonage just completed. It showed the finances to be in an exceedingly good condition. It was stated that the parsonage would cost about $2,500 completed, and taking in account everything there is an increase in property valuation of about $1,500.

His Money Went For Rum.

Charles Frang, who says his home is at Weston, near Bound Brook, applied to the police Saturday night for lodgings, as he said he had no money. He was allowed to go early yesterday morning, and immediately procured a quart bottle of whiskey, by night he was drunk, so was arrested and locked up by Sergeant Kiely. Sentence was suspended upon him this morning.

Assistant Superintendent Now.

A. V. Lunger, of Watchung avenue, one of the employees of the Prudential Insurance Company, under Superintendent Bell, at Dover, Morris county, has been promoted to the position of assistant superintendent, and today enters on his duties as such.

Elders and Deacons to Be Chosen.

A meeting of the members of the Crescent Avenue church will be held in the chapel of that church Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Three elders and one deacon will be elected and the reports from the different departments of the church work will be made.

Hard Fall Off From a Bicycle.

John Dillon, aged 25 years, fell off his wheel at the corner of Seventh street and Plainfield avenue yesterday afternoon and was taken to the hospital. Convulsions followed and the patient is now suffering from a slight concussion of the brain.

Concert Tonight.

The Rutgers College Glee Club will give a concert in Y. M. C. A. Hall tonight at 8 o'clock for the benefit of the Plainfield High School Athletic Association and the Girls' Athletic Association of the High School.

To Test Fire Alarm Boxes.

Fire alarm boxes 12, 13 and 41 will be tested tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Herbert Taylor, of Fairview avenue, has gone to Boston on a business trip.

—Use Press want ads.

WANT A RECEIVER FOR CARRABELLE COMPANY.

R. F. Brokaw, of Bound Brook, Asks Chancellor for One.

PROPER NOTICE IS SERVED.

CARRABELLE COMPANY INCLUDES MANY LOCAL INVESTORS.

Chancellor McGill Issues a Rule to Show Cause Why a Receiver Should Not Be Appointed for Carrabelle Land and Lumber Company—Mr. Brokaw Claims He Could Not Collect Notes of $200.

Application was made before Chancellor McGill last week by Richard F. Brokaw, of Bound Brook, for a rule to show cause why a receiver should not be appointed for the Carrabelle Land and Lumber Company, the main office of which incorporation is located at 215 North avenue. Mr. Brokaw alleged that he held notes against the concern to the amount of some $200 which he claims he is unable to collect. He stated that he believed that the company was insolvent and wanted a receiver appointed. Notice was served on the company Saturday. The hearing was set for April 10th.

The Carrabelle Company includes a number of local investors among its stockholders. The officers are all of this city. They are A. D. Thompson, president and general manager; F. S. Runyon, vice-president; Theodore F. French, secretary and treasurer.

A Daily Press reporter interviewed the president, A. D. Thompson, this morning. He admitted that the application had been made but did not apprehend any serious outcome from it. Senator Charles A Reed, Mr. Thompson's legal representative, was also interviewed. He knew that the application had been made but was not yet acquainted with the details. He expected that it would be fought.

The Carrabelle Company was organized in this city a number of years ago with a view to develop the timber resources of a tract of woodland near Carrabelle, Florida. The company purchased several hundred acres of forest and erected sawmills at Carrabelle and Appapachicola, Fla. The property of the company lies along the Appapachicola, New and Ocklockonee rivers. The valuable yellow pine and cypress timber was cut down and brought to the saw mills and thence shipped to New York and nothern ports for railroad timbers and ties. A T. Swartz is the superintendent of the company at Carrabelle.

MASTER LOWE CHRISTENED.

Impressive Easter Even Service for a Youthful Boroughite.

The annual Easter Even and Holy Baptism services of the Church of the Holy Redeemer, were held Saturday afternaon at 4:30 o'clobk. Among the children baptised was Master E. Frankin Lowe, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Lowe, of Fairview avenue. He was attended by his parents, with Mrs. Frank Anderson, of Brooklyn, and Mrs. J. Myron Hamilton, of Newark, as sponsors. His grandmother, Mrs. Laura F. Burtis, Mrs. Herbert Taylor, of Fairview avenue, his cousins, Miss Elsie Burtis and Master Eric Burtis, of New York, and Master Harsal Hamilton, of Newark, were also present. His cousin, Master Willie Burtis, son of Councilman Burtis, being absent on account of illness, being confined to his room with whooping cough.

The usual impressive rites and musical service of the Episcopal church being beautifully rendered under the able supervision of the renowned rector, Master Franklin acting with becoming dignity through out. The Easter decorations of the church, of course, adding to the beauty of the occasion.

Brought Back a Brown Complexion.

Morris and Clarence Sutphen, of West Second street, returned home on Friday evening from the Bermuda Islands, as brown as berries, where they have been spending a delightful winter. Clarence, who was ill when he left Plainfield, is greatly improved. The young men found a pleasant home with a family at Warkick, East, near Hamilton, and the balmy climate and life in the country awheel, did wonders for both of them.

To Make Hall Look Like a Forest.

The decorating committee having the Red Men's fair, which opens tomorrow night, in charge will commence decorating Washington Hall tomorrow. It is proposed to trim the hall so as to make it look as much like the forest as possible.

John L. Force has left the Hotel Kensinton and will have charge of the buffet at McVey's Hotel.

THE PALACES AND TEMPLES OF ANCIENT EGYPT

had their walls shining with gold and sparkling with precious stones, but modern art has contrived to design decorations of a less costly character in the beautiful designs and refined colors and shades of Wall papers, friezes, etc., such as Woolston & Buckle keep in their varied and elegant stock at such tempting prices.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

ROGERS.
232 West 2d St.
Seafood for Health
Always
Desirable
when direct from the nets.

M. E. STEPHENSON.
146 NORTH AVE.
Weddings, Dinners and Receptions supplied with every requisite. China, Glass, Linen and Silver to loan.
ESTIMATES
cheerfully furnished. Telephone orders will receive prompt attentention.
TELEPHONE 624.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections.
210 PARK AVE.

HENRY LIEFKE,
201-203 West Front St.
BAKER AND CONFECTIONER
Try my New England and Home Made Bread. Vienna Bread a specialty. Goods delivered to all parts of the city.

PHILLIP SWAIN.
ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.
317 West Front street.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street. 619

E. B. Claynard,
NEW SHOP NEW FURNITURE BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist....
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

SPRING LAMB FOR EASTER.
That is Spring Lamb and not mutton, we carry mutton also, but there is a difference. When you ask for Spring Lamb you get it, and nothing else. It is tender and delicious. We also have a full line of Poultry of the highest grade, just try our Phil Capon, Fancy Phil Turkey, Boston Ducks, Chickens of all kinds and broilers. Our Roast Beef is always up to the mark.
If you want a very choice Easter Dinner get your Meat and Poultry from us.
FRED ENDRESS,
131-135 West Front Street ONLY.

ALEX. LUSARDI.
211 West Front Street,
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery. Nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores 991 year

L. L. Manning & Son,
STEAM
GRANITE WORKS,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

EAGAN WAS WARNED

Told Him the Refrigerated Beef Would Not Keep There.

CONFLICTING TESTIMONY

Hospital Officials Believe Sickness of Soldiers Was Caused dy Other Than Food Conditions—One Instance Where Bad Beef Spoiled Supplies Intended for Admiral Sampson's Fleet.

Washington, D. C., April 3.—More testimony was introduced before the Beef Court of nquiry at its last session to show that General Eagan had been advised that it was impossible to keep refrigerated beef in Cuba long enough to issue to the soldiers, and that he was informed that live cattle could be sent there and killed as required by the troops.

G. W. Simpson, of Boston, a dealer in live cattle, testified about his interviews with General Eagan before the letting of the contract for beef for the army. He said General Eagan told him that only bids for refrigerated beef would be considered, and that consequently he had not put in a bid. General Eagan talked to him about a process for preserving beef so that it would keep seventy-two hours, but he did not say that the General told him that this process was to be used on the beef sent to Cuba.

There was more testimony from army surgeons as to the canned beef and the refrigerated beef. Their opinion of the refrigerated beef was generally favorable. As most of them had served in the hospital, where little or none of the canned roast beef was used, their testimony in regard to this meat was not as valuable as that of men who had served with the troops in the field. They generally attributed the sickness among the men to the climate and the fruits of Cuba, rather than to meat.

Major Blair E. Taylor, in charge of the hospital at Fort McPherson, said the beef furnished the hospital was all of excellent quality.

Major Charles L. Heilman, who was in command of the general hospital at Montauk Point, testified that all intestinal troubles there were attributed to malaria, and not to food. The food question did not arise at all.

Lieutenant Colonel Calvin Dewitt, in charge of the general hospital at Fortress Monroe, said that very few intestinal diseases were treated at that institution, and that those were not attributed to insufficient or poor diet. No canned beef was used.

Major H. P. Burmingham told of the conditions at the Ponce general hospital, of which he was in charge. He had used both refrigerated beef and canned roast beef there, as well as the native beef. It was necessary to use the native beef the day it was killed, to prevent spoiling, and the refrigerated beef was preferred to the native article. He had found the canned beef satisfactory in stews and had heard no complain concerning it.

Major D. M. Appel told of his experience during the war at Mobile, Miami and in New York. He had been in charge of the hospitals at the two first named places and of the distribution of the soldiers who were ill. He had heard many complaints from the men and surgeons concerning the meat supplied, especially on the transports, and he thought it probable that some intestinal troubles had been thus caused. The surgeons complained especially of the lack of proper food for the sick. He had heard in New York that many of the men had refused to receive the canned beef, but he had attributed the inanition manifested to the sickness itself.

Lieutenant William B. Conrad, of the Twenty-third infantry, who had charge of the cooking for the mess on the transport ndiana, said the refrigerator beef had kept for about two weeks, but that after this it became so badly tainted that many of the men would not use it. Some of them also objected to the canned roast beef. The ndiana carried fresh food supplies for Admiral ampsSon's fleet, but much of them were spoiled by the beef.

The odor from the hold was like that from a horse that had been dead for a week or two, anl was so strong that the men would get out of the way when the door was opened. Eight thousand pounds were thrown overboard, but the remainder was issued to the fleet, though considerable of it was tainted.

CUBAN ASSEMBLY HOLDS OUT.

Fails to Raise a Loan, but Still Has Hope.

Havana, April 3.—The Cuban Assembly met at Cero Saturday. Dispatches were read from Senores Villalon and Hevia, the Cuban Commissioners who were sent to the United States to see about raising a loan, saying that they had failed to fulfill their mission and would leave for Cuba. Gen. Manuel Sanguily read a dispatch from an American syndicate saying that the syndicate was yilling to raise a loan for the Cubans under certain conditions. The dispatch intimated that Senores Villalon and Hevia had not been foolishly, but the Assembly was assured that it need not despair; that the syndicate was working among the most important men in Washington and that the outlook was favorable to the accomplishment of its object.

After the reading of the dispatch Sanguily and Gualberto Gomez addressed the Chamber in opposition to the suggestion of a dissolution of the Assembly. A vote was taken on the question of dissolution, and by an overwhelming majority the Chamber resolved not to dissolve until Senores Villalon and Hevia had arrived and made a report of their mission.

Senor D'Esvernine, Secretary of Finance, leaves for Washington on Tuesday next to explain to President McKinley the principle and effect of the decree issued by Gen. Brooke in regard to mortgages upon Cuban estates which was set aside by Secretary Alger.

Gen. Fitzhugh Lee is organizing a Cuban rural guard in the province of Havana, which, when completed, will be put under command of Gens. Nodarse and Perasea.

Gen. Maximo Gomez is preparing a manifesto praising the Americans and advising the Cubans to follow the Americans policy of government.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

It means it is the purest made.
Soaps, strong with alkali, will eat
And burn the clothes, and leave them frayed,
But Ivory Soap is clean and sweet.
It washes out the stain and dirt,
And leaves the fabric all unhurt.

COPYRIGHT 1898 BY THE PROCTER & GAMBLE CO. CINCINNATI

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

Dr. H. K. Carroll, commissioner to Porto Rico, tells an interesting incident in connection with Mrs. Carroll's trip to the island in February. Mrs. Carroll expected to sail on a certain date and informed her husband that if she left on the fixed date she would simply cable the word "coming," and that would mean to imply that she would sail on a Wednesday. For some reason there was a delay in starting of one day, the knowledge of which came to Mrs. Carroll after she sent the telegram. In the meantime Dr. Carroll had promised to make an address at a celebration arranged for on the island and he was present at the affair when a messenger informed him that Mrs. Carroll had arrived. The doctor hastened away, telling one of those in charge of the celebration that he could not possibly make the address. He met Mrs. Carroll, who expressed some disappointment that her husband was not looking for her. But the doctor explained matters by telling her that he had interpreted her message wrong and did not expect her until another date. Mrs. Carroll made the trip to Porto Rico entirely alone and she experienced no difficulties whatever. She was not sick either going or coming and enjoyed her trip and stay on the island exceedingly.

* * * * * *

At the tobacco store of M. C. Dobbins, on North avenue, opposite The Daily Press office, there is on exhibition a handsome and very costly collection of rare birds that were captured and mounted by the late Prof. C. K. Howlett, who was for many years the leading texidermist and authority on ornithology in this country. The birds, all of a rare specie, are mounted in cases in an unusual attractive manner. In each case there is painted various scenes to harmonize with the places inhabited by the birds. In the collection there are four of six calves that were gestated at one birth, also the embryo of a seventh calf. The authenticity of this fact is attested by a statement given by Mayor Parson, of Pittsford, Monroe county, N. Y., where the birth took place. This collection was arranged twenty years ago and is in a remarkable state of preservation. Mr. Dobbins was able to secure the cases, twenty-two in all, through relatives of Mr. Howlett, and he cordially invites all to call and examine the collection. It is doubtful if there is another collection of similar character in this State and it is well worth one's time to see it.

Who Were They?

A party of young Plainfield fellows who visited New Brunswick last Saturday night were too much interested in the sights and missed the trolley car that they should have taken and on reaching Bound Brook found that it was a case of walk home. They tried resting in the railway station to kill time until the 3 o'clock train Sunday morning, but were run out of there and concluded to walk home.—New Brunswick Fredonian.

Elizabeth Democratic Primaries.
(Special to The Daily Press)

Elizabeth, April 1—The Democratic primaries were held Thursday night in the odd-numbered wards of Elizabeth. The nominees for Aldermen were: Third ward, John Corrigan; Fifth ward, Cornelius J. Daly; Seventh ward, Paul Nolle; Ninth ward, Francis X. Engel; Eleventh ward, Jacob W. Sheppard.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Baseball bats are bound to make a hit shortly.

—No matter how timid a tailor may be, it's his business to feel eager for the frey—on trouser ends.

—Taking sugar of lead by mistake nearly caused the death of Mrs. Herman Linn, of Williamstown.

—Ten mills make a cent, but the fellow who owns ten mills nowadays is pretty sure to make a million.

—The beats of the borough marshals will be changed this evening and hereafter the first of every month.

—Charles Roberts, of this city, has opened a livery stable on Somerset street in the rear of Henry DeMott's place of business.

—Messrs. Krauss, ice dealers in New Brunswick, will have charge of the sale of Lake Hopatcong ice in Plainfield this summer.

—Glassboro residents talk of taking advantage of the new township law and asking for an appropriation of $42,000 for water works and an electric light plant.

DEATH OF BARONESS HIRSCH.

Never in America Yet Her Benefactions Were Millions.

Paris, April 3.—Baroness Hirsch, widow of Baron Hirsch, the Hebrew philanthropist, is dead.

Princely as have been the sums which within the last few years Baroness Hirsch has given to the cause of charity in America, it appears that they constitute but a part of her total benefactions in a land which she had never even seen.

Baroness Hirsch's principal contribution to the cause of charity in Tmerica was the great sum of $1,000,000 donated to the Baron Hirsch fund for the purpose of ameliorating the condition of poor Hebrews. On another occasion she learned that the Baron Hirsch Fund school in New York was being conducted in a rented building. This seemed to her poor economy, and she immediately sent a check for $150,000 to defray the cost of purchasing a site and erecting a suitable building.

Similarly she learned that there was a mortgage on the building of the Educational Alliance, in Jefferson street, and sent a contribution of $100,000 to pay it off and provide needed improvements. On another occasion she made a provision for an endowment of $200,000 for a working girls' school in New York.

In all probability this by no means represents all her charities in New York, for the Baroness was ever strongly opposed to permitting her benefactions to become public. At the time she was sending large sums to America she asked whether it was not possible that her name as the donor might be kept secret. She was assured, however, that in view of the magnitude of the sums involved this would be impossible.

Among the Baroness' many gifts to charity in Europe was a donation of 2,000,000 francs to the Pasteur Institute in Paris; a similar sum to found an asylum for the employes of the railroads of Turkey, in which her husband had vast interests, and large endowments for hospitals in London and Paris and other European capitals.

Husband and wife were beautifully fittel for each other, both having the same tastes and both finding their chief pleasure not so much in the accumulation of money as in using it wisely and well in the cause of human advancement and the relief of human suffering.

After her husband's death the Boroness devoted the greater part of her energies to the furthering of the philanthropic schemes set on foot by him. Up to the last she was able to direct all her affairs unaided, except by a force of secretaries and clerks. She was an indefatigable worker, and not infrequently spent a portion of her evening after dinner at her desk, writing or dictating letters or examining accounts or reports. In spite of this, however, she always knew how to so economize her time as to devote a reasonable portion of it to the society of her friends.

Mrs. Reinmer, of Somerville, has been spending a few days with Plainfield friends.

OTIS WILL PUSH AHEAD

Cables He Will Continue an Aggressive Camgaign.

ARMY RESTING AT MALOLOS

Victorious American Troops Recovering from the Fatigue of a Hard Week's Work—King in a Hot Skirmish—Troops East of Manila Watching the Rebels Under Gen. Pio del Rio.

Washington, D. C., April 3.—With information showing that the insurgent army is disorganized and with the announcement from General Otis of his intention to continue an active campaign, the authorities express themselves as very satisfied with the situation in the Philippines.

This dispatch was received from General Otis:

"Adjutant General, Washington:

"Quiet prevails. Have directed troops at Malolos and on railroad on reconnoitring duty. Find insurgents only in small portions of surrounding country, who retire on the approach of our troops. Few of our troops moving to a new position. Preparing for a continued active campaign. Army in excellent spirits. OTIS."

It was reported here Saturday that Aguinaldo had sent representatives to Manila to treat with the Philippine Commission, but Acting Secretary Meiklejohn declared that the report is absolutely unfounded. Mr. Meiklejohn expressed the utmost satisfaction with the condition of affairs on the island of Luzon as reported by General Otis, and is confident that within a very short time the trouble will have ended.

General Otis' instructions to the troops at Malolos and along the railroad to proceed on reconnoitring duty is construed at the department to mean that he is trying to locate any present bodies of the enemy which may still be ready for operations, and should they be found it is expected he will take steps to immediately crush them. oS far he has found, according to his report, that the insurgents are only in small forces in the surrounding territory, but it may be that Aguinaldo is keeping small detachments in the field while he is re-forming his army at his new headquarters.

It would not surprise the officials to that the Philippine Commission has determined to delay the issuance of its proclamation calling upon the insurgents to lay down their arms and return to their ordinary avocations, and promising them amnesty and home rule under the direction of the commission. This proclamation has been prepared, and it was the expectation of the authorities that it would be published immediately after the fall of Malolos. The face that it has been withheld is regarded as an indication of the commission's belief that it would be wiser if it should wait until Aguinaldo's forces are given a more complete drubbing by the American troops than any they have yet received. There is no intention on the part of the Administration to interfere with the commission, and the President is confident that it understands the situation much better than he does.

Supply Ship Celtic Reaches Manila.

Washington, April 3.—A dispatch received at the Navy Department from Admiral Dewey reported the arrival of the supply ship Celtic at Manila. The Celtic started from New York with the Oregon and the Iowa, and accompanied the Iowa from Callao, Peru, to San Francisco. Then she started alone for Manila with a cargo of refrigerated beef for Dewey's fleet. She will be used as a cold storage vessel on the ACsiatic station. The gunboat Castine sailed to-day from Colombo for Singapore, whence she will start direct for Manila.

The Army at Rest.

Manila, April 3.—The American forces commanded by General MacArthur are still resting at Malolos. The men are in good condition, considering the fatigues of the campaign.

Considerable rebel forces have been collected along the fronts of General Lawton and General Hall, who are holding the line from the water works to Lalonia. There is shooting nightly along this line, apparently for the purpose of breaking the Americans' sleep. Consequently, General Lawton has detailed five sharpshooters from each company to attend to those of the rebels, and the Americans are picking off the rebel shooters.

It is reported that three thousand rebels, under General Pio del Pilar, are concentrated at Cainta and Taytay. General King sent forward a reconnotring party, consisting of two companies of the North Dakota regiment, and a brisk engagement followed, during which seven Filipinos were killed. On the American side a litutenant and two privates were wounded.

MOVE TO BEAT JONES OF TOLEDO.

Democrats and Republicans Unite Against Fraudulent Registration.

Toledo, O., April 3.—The Republican and Democratic Executive Committees sprung a sensation by taking combined action to defeat Mayor Jones for reelection on an independent ticket. The committees filed challenges with Boards of Elections against 500 registeres voters and the Republican committee followed by swearing out warrants for the arrest of 300 registered voters, who, it is charged, are repeaters. Some of the warrants were served and the others will net be unless the accused persons attempt to vote at the election to-day.

The men arrested were placed under bonds for their appearance for trial. Not one of them could furnish bail and they were jailed. Mayor Jones was appealed to by the men for assistance, but he refused to listen to them, saying that if he interested himself in their behalf his political opponents would make capital out of it. The men charged with fraudulent registration are almost all residents of the Tenderloin district, and are avowed Jones adherents. The frauds practiced at registration were never equalled in Toledo polls. Scores of men registered as living numbers which were found to be vacant lots. Other numbers given were vacant storerooms, saloons which the men visited to get free lunches and brothels.

Mullins
218-220 MARKET STREET, NEWARK.

Homes Furnished For $1 a Week.

$9 95 will buy one of these Solid Oak Chamber Suits, neatly carved, with bevel plate mirror, only..... $9.95

WE have the largest stock of Chamber Suits ever offered in the city (in all woods.) from $9.75 to $250.

Handsome new Parlor Suits in Silk Damask, Tapestry, Plush or Velour, this week $24 50

We are now showing over 300 new Parlor Suits—all the very latest designs, without any doubt the largest and handsomest stock of Parlor Suits in the city. Prices from $22.50 to $350.

THIS IS CARPET HEADQUARTERS.
MULLINS SPRING CARPETS
And one visit to our store will convince you. Be sure and see our stock and get our prices before you buy.
Tapestry Brussels 45c to 75c yd
Velvets, 75c to $1 yd.
Moquettes, 90c yd.

This is the Week to Buy Your Baby Carriage.

All New Designs, at Reduced Prices, from $3 25 to $25.
Go Carts this week at $1.50.
THIS CARRIAGE ONLY $6.75
Open an Account with Us and You Will Save Money.

MULLINS & SONS,
218-220 Market St., Newark.
Branch Houses 78-84 Myrtle Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y. 121-125 Newark Ave., Jersey City, N. J., 136-138 Main St., Paterson, N. J.

The VAN'S They
sell the same as they buy, cheap. A bargain got should be a bargain given. Every item stands on its own merits as an individual bargain. We might fill this paper with talk, but what we want you to do is to visit our store, especially our always daylit basement, where we have the most complete ten cent department in the city. Here you buy the biggest on earth for the money.
10 CENTS

VanEmburgh & Son.

Van Arsdale's Shoes.
Men's, Women's and Children's Footwear
For Easter, Spring and Summer.
We believe the goods we are now showing contain the best selection of stylish and reliable footwear we have ever offered, and at our well-known popular prices.
VAN ARSDALE.
Repairing Properly Done. 127 East Front St.

The Shoe Store
AROUND THE CORNER.
Men folks all know what the W. L. Douglas Shoe is. They are better this year than ever. More style and wear than any $3 shoe in the market. If you want $3.00 worth of good shoe leather, try our W. L. Douglas shoe.
A. WILLETT & SON,
NO. 107 PARK AVE.

SPECIAL SALE
Over 13 hundred pairs of shoes. Nothing to say about the price, only that the lowness of it will surprise everybody.
SHERWIN'S, 149 West Front St.

THE NEW CLOTHING STORE

322 West Front St., Near Grove.

ALL GOODS MADE IN OUR FACTORY IN PLAINFIELD.

You can buy a suit of clothes here for $6 that would cost you $10 in any other retail store,

Because { They come direct from the manufacturer to the consumer. All middle profits are done away with.

We give our customers the benefit and enable you to buy new, stylish, nicely tailored Clothing at two profits under the market. Read the price list carefully, then come and let us prove to you that what we say is right.

MEN'S SUITS in up-to-date Worsteds, Cheviots, Cassimeres and Serges, $2 75, $3, $3 25, $3 50, $3 75, $4, $4 50, $4.75, $5, $5 25, $5.50, $5.75, $6, $6 25, $6 50, $6.75, $7, $7 25, $8, $9, $10 and $12, worth from $5 to $18 And WE HAVE YOUR SIZE in anything you may select.

BOYS' LONG PANT SUITS, 14 to 19, at $2 50, $2 75, $3, $3 25, $3 50, $3.75, $4, $4.25, $4.50, $4 75, $5, $5.25, $5 50, $5.75, $6 and $7. Worth from $4 to $10 50. Over 50 styles to select from.

CHILDREN'S KNEE PANT SUITS in Reefer and three piece Suits at 69c to $4, worth 50 per cent. extra.

SPRING TOP COATS in Coverts, Oxfords and fashionable Cheviot effect, $3.75 to $8 Some of these are beauties.

Also a full line of Men's, Boys' and Children's single Pants at prices that will surprise you.

Our Special Order Department

has been a great success. It seems to have been the missing link. We are having everyday demands from men who cannot be fitted from ready to wear stock. It is a boon to mothers of fat boys, who have been unable to buy clothes in the city before. We make them a suit of clothes to order for less than they could buy it ready made for in any other store. Come and see for yourself, as many others are doing, and you will be glad you came.

SCHEPFLIN & SCHULTZ,

Wholesale Clothing Manufacturers.

M. J. CASHIN, Manager Retail Store.

322 West Front Street. Schepflin Block.

For the last year and six months I had been troubled with the HIVES, and had two physicians, who prescribed a blood tonic and to bathe the hives with saleratus. The tonic did not seem to do me any good, so I gave up all medicine and used nothing but the saleratus. The hives were so itching and painful that I did not have one good night's sleep while I was troubled with them. I had them so bad that I wore gloves at night in order not to scratch them, as it took so long for them to heal. I also had to go to the expense of buying a rug in order not to ruin the carpet in the bedroom when taking the saleratus bath, which I would have to take three and four times a night, and I tell you it was an awful trouble every night. At first when the hives appeared they were as large and had the same appearance as a peanut, and then they were more easily cooled and disappeared quick, but when I started to take the Tabules they were as small as a pea and stung more and were hard to cool off. I don't know how to praise Ripans Tabules enough, and it seems like a new life to me, for the hives have mostly all disappeared and some nights I have not any. I am now on my eighth 5-cent package, and shall continue to take R·I·P·A·N·S until they establish a permanent cure. To recommend them to all my friends is the best I can do for Ripans Tabules. I am thirty-seven years of age, and have been attending bar for twenty years.

WANTED—A case of bad health that R·I·P·A·N·S will not benefit. Send 5 cents to Ripans Chemical Co., No. 10 Spruce Street, New York, for 10 samples and 1,000 testimonials. R·I·P·A·N·S, 10 for 5 cents, or 12 packets for 48 cents, may be had of all druggists who are willing to sell a low priced medicine at a moderate profit. They banish pain and prolong life. One gives relief. Note the word R·I·P·A·N·S on the packet. Accept no substitute.

A Great Sale of Kid Gloves Saturday.

Nearly 600 pairs Women's Kid Gloves to be 65c a pair. All the fashionable shades, including black and white. Button and clasp fastenings Every pair guaranteed perfect. About 300 pairs Real Kidskin Gloves of an extra fine quality all leading shades, button, hook and clasp styles. These gloves are fitted to your hands and fully warranted, 98c the pair, worth 1.25.

A great Ribbon Bargain.

1,000 yds plain Taffetta Ribbon, pure silk, cord edge, suitable for shirrhaing, at 15c a yard, regular price 25c.

I. LEDERER.

CROKER WILL TESTIFY

Glad to Give the Investigating Committee Any Aid He Can.

MAZET WILL OUT DO LEXOW

Suggestion That Committee Subpoena the Tammany Leader Brought Counter-Suggestion from Democrats—Wigwam's Chieftain Says He Will Respond If Wanted but He is Going to England.

New York, April 3.—It is the desire of the special committee that will investigate the Tammany administration, Assemblyman Mazet declared, to get all the information possible on the subjects which led up to the pending investigation. In order to facilitate the accomplishment of this object the wisdom of sending subpoenas to the Republican leaders, as well as the Tammany leaders, may yet be seen.

The chairman of the special Assembly committee declared that no half way measures would be adopted. He said the investigation would be impartial and complete, and that the committee would not be "called off" by any one.

Mr. Croker seemed to be greatly surprised when told of the report that he was to be one of the first witnesses subpoenaed. It was news to him, he said. But he seemed entirely willing to appear before the committee if his evidence was desired.

"I do not know that there is anything of interest that I could say to the committee," Mr. Croker said. "If the members desire me as a witness, however, I shall be glad to give them any information I have that might be of interest to them."

But, if Chairman Mazet desires to get Mr. Croker's testimony he will have to get after it right away. The Tammany leader, as has been known to his friends for several months, will leave for England about the middle of April. He goes abroad every year about April 15, and had his plans for the English racing season all made long before it became known that the Republicans would have another investigation.

Mr. Croker has not finally set the day for his departure, but will sail within a week after the Jeffersonian dinner of the Democratic Club, which will take place on April 12.

The question as to what witnesses shall be subjoenaed rests in the hands of Chairman Mazet. Mr. Mazet, when asked who would be subpoenaed, said he dil not know.

"That matter rests entirely with the members of the committee," said Mr. Mazet. "They will settle that question, as well as every other one. When the members of the committee get together in Albany we shall decide what witnesses to subpoena, and shall make plans for the investigations. Until then nothing definite about our plans will be known."

Speaking in a general way Mr. Mazet said:

"What power will the committee have in subpoenaing witnesses?"

"The same identically as a court. If the person subpoenaed fails to respond he will be punished for contempt of court. The witness thus defaulting can be tried before a court, or, if the committee prefers, he will be tried before the legislative bar, as we call it."

"And if persons subpoenaed leave the city to escape testifying they can be brought back?"

"Certainly; they are extradictable just the same as any fugitive from justice."

"You intend to thoroughly investigate other city departments as well as the Police Department, do you not, Mr. Mazet?"

"We do. The investigation is not an anti-Tammany crusade. Our purpose is to investigate the workings of the city and county under the new charter and our work will be complete, you may be assured. The scope of the charter is very broad and there are great possibilities."

"Then the investigation will be strictly non-partisan?"

"Strictly. We will not favor or spurn any person or persons guilty of a breach of the trust imposed on them. Our probes will strike where they may, and you may be very positive in stating that the investigation will not be 'called off' under any circumstances. We have evidence to work on already, and are sure to be furnished with much more."

Much interest centred in the selection of counsel for the committee. It was generally agreed that former Judge William N. Cohen would be the chief counsel, but this part of the programme had been changed. One report was that former Judge Cohen felt unequal to the undertaking, owing to the condition of his health. Another report was that the former Judge would not be engaged as counsel owing to his political alliances. Mr. Cohen is one of Edward Lauterbach's closest friends, and one of his warmest supporters is Charles A. Hess, Republican leader in the Twenty-fifth Assembly district, and a brother of Police Commissioner Jacob Hess. Former Judge Cohen is also is allied in politics with Abraham Gruber.

Senator Platt expressed surprise over the report that George J. Gould, president of the Manhattan Railway Company, would be one of the star witnesses before the Mazet committee. This report was taken to mean that the recent fight between Tammany Hall and the Manhattan company might be made a subject for official inquiry. It seems, however, that Senator Platt and Mr. Gould often discuss express matters together and that they had a conversation on that subject on Friday. As far as could be learned, the possibility of Mr. Gould being subpoenaed as a witness has not been considered.

Schley for Commander.

Washington, April 3.—Considerable interest is attached to the election of officers of the Loyal Legion on May 3 next. The Nominating Committee has just issued a ticket, naming Admiral Schley for commander. The only other nominee of Spanish-American war fame is Brigadier General John W. Clous, United States Volunteers, named for junior vice commander. He served as Judge Advocate on the staff of General Miles in the Porto Rican campaign and was afterward secretary of the Cuban Evacuation Commission.

CHICAGO METHODS ADVISED.

John C. Sheehan Would Treat Franchise Grabbers With the Rope.

New York, April 3.—Ex-Police Comsioner, and deposed head of the Tammany society, John C. Sheehan, fresh from Hot Springs and meetings with William J. Bryan, said last night that it would be an outrage for the city to give away the franchise for the underground rapid transit road, which, he declared, was the last franchise of value left for the city to part with. He placed its value at $100,000,000, and said that ropes should be used to punish men guilty of bestowing its upon any private corporation.

In Chicago a few months ago the people got ropes and threatened to use them in just such a case as this," said Mr. Sheehan. "I believe that the people of New York city not only ought to get out ropes, but use them on the persons responsible for the attempt to surrender the franchise.

"This proposition to give away this franchise is most contemptible. It is one of the greatest outrages of our time. This railroad company has already grabbed so much that there is nothing left for the city to derive any revenue from in order to reduce the rate of taxation.

"This road can be built by the city and with the city's money. The people a few years ago voted on the question of its construction by the city and the question was decided affirmatively by a large majority.

"If it is true that the finances of the city are in such a condition that the work cannot be done now, this cannot last much longer. The time is not far distant when the people will be able to understand the work.

"Much is being said about the increase in the valuation of real property and the consequent increase in taxation. There has been agitation as to the proper remedy. In the face of this State of things are the people going to sit quietly by and see $100,000,000 of their property given away? I believe they are not.

"It is true that the people are anxious to have rapid transit, and in order to get it there may be some persons who are willing to dispose of the franchise to the company willing to build the most readily. But no corporation to which the franchise might be given could complete the road sooner than the city could.

"I have no doubt that the city could finish it and have it in operation in four years, and I think it would be a paying investment from the time it was opened."

Mr. Croker Favors Private Ownership.

Richard Croker is of the opinion that a private corporation should be permitted to purchase the right to construct the rapid transit tunnel and road. Speaking on this subject, Mr. Croker said:

"I believe an opportunity should be given to bid for the franchise when responsible persons come forward and want it. The citizens of New York want rapid transit, and they should get it. They have been hanging on to straps and tumbling over one another long enough. What is wanted now is speedy and comfortable and safe transportation."

Chicago Betting Favors Harrison.

Chicago, Ill., April 3.—The campaign for the Mayoralty is practically closed, with the betting 2 to 1 in favor of Mayor Harrison's re-election. It is estimated by the Board of Election Commissioners that 210,000 votes will be cast Tuesday. The interest of the voters is very great, owing to the questions regarding the length of franchises to street railway corporations and municipal ownership, which have been the issues of the campaign.

While the Republican managers say they are hopeful, owing to the split in the Democratic ranks, and the appearance of former Governor Altgeld as a candidate, there is no doubt that thousands of Republicans will vote for Mayor Harrison because of his against the fift-year franchise demanded by the street railways.

Mayor Harrison does dot believe that municipal ownership of street railways can be accomplished in less than twenty years, while Mr. Altgeld wants to attempt municipal ownership right away.

The Democratic managers figure that the Mayor will get at least 175,000 votes, which would leave only 135,000 to be divided between Zina R. Carter, the Republican nominee, and Mr. Altgeld. Of these Carter is allowed 115,000 and Altgeld but 20,000.

The Republican managers figure on 135,000 votes for Carter, and they allege that Altgeld will get fully 75,000, if not more. At the very outside they concede 100,000 to Harrison, notwithstanding the fact that even money is being bet that Harrison will have a majority over Carter and Altgeld.

Altgeld is the puzzle. His is called "the campaign of hate," because it is known he desires Harrison's defeat above all things; yet so great is his strength that the regular Democrats fear him. He says Harrison is in reality being backed by the corporations he denounces, is not a real silver man and not in favor of municipal ownership.

The great drawback to Carter's campaign is that he is receiving the enthusiastic support of the newspaper owned by Mr. Yerkes, and the assertion is positively made by the Democrats that if Carter is elected the Republican Legislature wil pass a law within a week practically permitting the street railways to get what they want.

TO ASSASSINATE FRENCH PRESIDENT

Another Man Who Looked Like Him Killed by Mistake.

Paris, April 3.—A wealthy gentleman named Tourret was shot dead on the Bois de Boulogne by a man who mistook his victim for President Loubet to whom M. Tourret bore a striking resemblance.

The murderer, whose name is Ozouf and who is 38 years old, is thought to be insane.

Ozouf is an electrical engineer, who lost his fortune in the Panama smash. It is suggested that the mention of the Panama scandals in connection with M. Loubet's election is responsible for the man's idea of assassinating the President.

The assassin fired two bullets into M. Tourret, who expired immediately afterward. Ozouf was promptly arrested.

INTENSE SUFFERING

FROM DYSPEPSIA AND STOMACH TROUBLE

Instantly Relieved and Permanantly Cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

A New Discovery, But Not a Patent Medicine.

Dr. Redwell relates an interesting account of what he considers a remarkable cure of acute stomach trouble and chronic dyspepsia by the use of the new discovery, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

He says: "The patient was a man who had suffered to my knowledge, for years with dyspepsia. Everything he ate seemed to sour and create gases in the stomach; he had pains like rheumatism in the back, shoulder blades and limbs, fullness and distress after eating, poor appetite and loss of flesh; the heart became affected, causing palpitation and sleeplessness at night.

I give him powerful nerve tonics and blood remedies, but to no purpose. As an experiment I finally bought a fifty cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at a drug store and gave them to him. Almost immediate relief was given and after he had used four boxes he was to all appearances, fully cured.

There was no more acidity or sour watery risings, no bloating after meals, the appetite was vigorous and he has gained between 10 and 12 pounds in weight of solid, healthy flesh.

Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are advertised and sold in drug stores, yet I consider them a most valuable addition to any physician's line of remedies, as they are perfectly harmless and can be given to children or invalids or in any condition of the stomach with perfect safety, being harmless and containing nothing but fruit and vegetable essences, pure pepsin and Golden Seal.

Without any question they are the safest, most effective cure for indigestion, biliousness, constipation and all derangements of the stomach, however slight or severe."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are made by the F. A. Stuart Co., of Marshall, Mich., and are sold by druggists everywhere at fifty cents per package.

Little book on stomach diseases mailed free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall Mich

New York Announcement.

HORNER'S FURNITURE

is the subject of this announcement. The term stands for everything that is reliable and fashionable in Furniture, in both the simple and ornate lines, whether wanted for town or country homes. Two other important features are the moderate prices at which the goods are marked, and their unequalled assortments.

Dining-Room Furniture in all finishes of Antique, Belgian, Flemish and English, with Tables, Dining Chairs, China Closets and Side Tables to match.

Bedroom Furniture in all the various woods and finishes, including special lines for country homes. Brass Bedsteads in over 70 patterns from $13.00 upward. Enameled Iron Bedsteads from $4.50 up.

Latest designs in Parlor Furniture, Library Furniture Hall Furniture, Venetian Carved Furniture.

Couches, Settees, Easy Chairs, Rockers, Morris Chairs, Dressing Tables, Cheval Glasses, Writing Desks, etc., etc., all in unequalled assortments, and all prices.

Your inspection cordially invited.

R. J. HORNER & CO.

Furniture Makers and Importers,

61, 63, 65 W. 23d St., New York.

(Adjoining Eden Musee.)

This question of

EYES

is a most serious one. Too lengthy to discuss here. If your eyes are causing you discomfort, or if you suffer with headache, neuralgia or pain in the eyes, consult our specialist at

107 E. Front Street Every Thursday

Hours 10 to 5. Free Examination. Work guaranteed.

LEECH, STYLES & CO.

REMOVAL.

I have moved my stock of

BOOTS AND SHOES

TO 120 W. FRONT ST., with Crane, the hatter

B. R. FORCE.

Until April 1st, 1899.

Great Cut in Prices.

Full set of Teeth	$7 50
Filling at reduced Prices.
Extracting, one or two	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas Extracting	$1 00

TERMS CASH.

DR. C. H. CLARK

Office at residence, 209 E. FRONT ST.

Mrs. John Brown

Successor to

JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned

FROM $0.00 UPWARDS.

Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 140 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.

FRANK BURKE, Manager.

BICYCLES BICYCLES

George Gould,

AGENT FOR

VICTOR, PATEE, WAVERLY, IVANHOE and NASSAU SPECIAL

Rents, Repairs, Sundries and Storage.

326 PARK AVENUE.

CLIFTON BUILDING.

NEW YORK CITY AND COUNTRY WORK : : OUR SPECIALTY. : : | Satisfaction guaranteed. Stages to hire.

OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

F. A. LONG,

No. 106 SOMERSET ST Near Manning Avenue.

Up-to-Date Cash Grocery Store

Orders called for and delivered in any part City or Dunellen.

ARLINGTON HOTEL.

(Splendid Mountain View.)

SOMERSET ST. AND GREENBROOK ROAD.

Charles Jensen. Prop'r.

First class bar. Large parlor with piano for parties, receptions etc. Stable and shed accommodations.

M. POWERS,

DEALER IN

LEHIGH COAL.

FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.

Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A.

Yard 726 to 737 South Ave.

E. S. F. RANDOLPH.

DRUGGIST,

Cor. Liberty and Fourth Sts. Telephone 781.

PRESCRIPTIONS FILLED DAY OR NIGHT.

TRY THE

QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,

No. 337 Park Avenue

(Miller Building.)

Goods called for and delivered free of charge.

Domestic or gloss finish.

H. HAND,

Licensed : : Auctioneer.

OFFICE— Corner South Ave. and Berckman St.

REAL ESTATE and FIRE INSURANCE.

11 16 1m

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .

(Licensed)

J. H. Staats, Prop'r.

107, 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.

EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.

AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

Wm. J. Pearson,

(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)

Carpenter and Builder

15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to.

SOMERSET HOTEL

Somerset St. and Lincoln Place.

North Plainfield, N. J

W. F. DREYER, Proprietor.

AMPLE ACCOMODATIONS FOR MAN AND BEAST.

F. A. DUNHAM,

—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—

109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87 F

J. C. Pope & Co.,

INSURANCE AGENTS.

110 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J

WHY DO YOU SUFFER

so long with an aching tooth? We think there is nothing worse. So easy to prevent it if you would have them examined more often. Stop the pain and save the tooth when you can. We always need all we have, and of course never miss them till they're gone. Free advice for the asking.

OFFICE HOURS 8 TO 6.

Full Set guaranteed	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown (22 k.)	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c to 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. C. W. LEONARD,

FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE

Over City National Bank

Entrance on Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

Arrival and Departure of Mails

NEW YORK MAILS.

Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30 a. m., 3:00, 5, 8:20 p. m.
Close—7:30, 9:15 a. m., 12:30, 2:00, 5:00, 7:20 p.m.

SOMERVILLE and EASTON.

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m., 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 and 11:30 a. m., 1:00 and 8:00 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a. m., 5:00 p. m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:20 p. m.

WARRENVILLE.

Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M

STAGE ROUTE.

Plainfield and Scotch Plains.

STAGE LEAVES PLAINFIELD (E. FRONT ST., OPP. PARK AVE.) 9:30 a. m., 12:45, 4:00 and 6:00 P. M.

STAGE LEAVES SCOTCH PLAINS (FRONT POST OFFICE) 10:30 a. m., 2:00, 5:30 and 7:00 p. m.

Upon notice a special stage will be held for parties of six or more attending the theatre or other attraction.

THOS. S. NEWMAN, Prop.

FRENCH

Plate glass mirror, oak mantel, complete with summer front, for $13.00. You can't equal it elsewhere.

CURTIS M. THORPE,

310-312 PARK AVE.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills

25c.

A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.

MALLINSON'S

North and Watchung avenues.

EASTER

Cards and Novelties. Paas Egg Dyes at

HARPER'S,

411 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J

RUSHMORE & CO.

WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST

Dealers in

Lumber, Coal and Wood

Moulding & Planing Mill

Turning and Scroll Sawing.

L. A. HUMMER,

Variety Market.

Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.

163 SOMERSET STREET.

Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.

MONEY TO LOAN.

197 North Ave.

Wm. D. Thickstun. John P. Emmon

Telephone 601.

An Enormous Stock of

EASTER PLANTS

and flowers at Stanley's two stores, 138 and 142 North Ave. Lillies, Azeleas, Spireas, Hyacinths, etc. Also a large quantity of assorted plants at bargain prices. Rubber plants, Palms, Ferns, etc., etc. Inspection invited.

Charles L. Stanley.

138 AND 142 NORTH AVENUE.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. POREE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:30 p. m.

166 North avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week
$5 a year—in advance
No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada
Delivered by carrier or by mail.
The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district
Any subscriber failing o receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.
Advertising rates mailed on request.
Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N.J., APRIL 3 1899.

FEATURES OF TODAY'S PRESS.

PAGE 1.—Important local news.
PAGE 2.—Telegraphic news.
PAGE 3.—Telegraphic news.
PAGE 4.—Editorial and gossip.
PAGE 5.—Vicinity news.
PAGE 6.—Woman's department.
PAGE 6.—German news.
PAGE 7.—Miscellaneous.
PAGE 8.—Sporting and local news.

COMING EVENTS.

April 3—Missionary study class will be organized at the Y. M. C. A.
April 3—Ball and cakewalk of Twilight Social Club at Crescent Rink.
April 3—Common Council meets.
April 3—Rutgers College Glee Club at Y. M. C. A. Hall. Benefit Plainfield High School Athletic Association.
April 4—Recital by Mrs. Frank J. Smith at the Casino.
April 6—"Feast of All Nations," lecture room Trinity Reformed church.
April 6—Belshazzar at the Casino.
April 6—"Natural Gas" at Music Hall. Benefit of stage h nds.
April 8—Concert by the Cecelia Bradford Trio at Y. M. C. A. Hall.

The Easiest Way

To rent your house if it is in prospect of remaining vacant for the next twelve months is to step into or send to The Daily Press office a small advertisement for the Cent-a-word Column.

The Cost Is Trifling

When you consider the profitable results that may come from such publicity. Thousands of Plainfield people have tried it and found that the plan

Works and Pays Well.

On the Right Tact.

Another newspaper of power and respectability has been added to the ranks of independent journalism in New Jersey. It is the Newark Daily Advertiser, which for many years was the subservient tool of politicians and other personages who had axes to grind in public channels. But that is of the past; today the Advertiser is a creator and leader in honest journalistic thought.

Newark is now on the threshhold of an exciting and important municipal campaign, but the Advertiser is not at the beck and call of men who would use it only for their personal advancement and aggrandizement. It is independent in action and arrayed for whoever is on the people's side. But it is not niggardly in its professions of devotion to the public weal, and therefore it announces that its colums are open to both sides for communications of decent language and reasonable length. That is the idea that has characterised the policy of The Daily Press ever since it has been in existence, and we are in a position to say that it is eminently popular and satisfactory one. The fact The Daily Press leads in the amount of business transacted by local newspapers, and that it is recognized as the most influential paper in Plainfield, demonstrates beyond peradventure that independent journalism is the best.

The success of the Advertiser under its present magagement, both in relation to the business that it does and the influence that it wields, shows that it is on the right tact. If it continues along that line it will continue to prosper and grow.

What May Happen.

The North Jersey Enterprise, published at Roselle, indulges in some inside information about Republican politics in Union county, and avers that Assemblyman Squire will not be a candidate for renomination next fall. The Enterprise ascribes his decision to retire to the fact that there is "so much talk about Elizabeth 'hogging' all the offices."

But the Honorable George is not to retire altogether from politics nor is he going to smother his aspirations in other directions. The Enterprise sums it up in this way: "So much bitterness of feeling has been roused over the matter that it is said that Assemblyman George A. Squire, whose home is at Elizabeth, and who is unfortunae in his environments, has about decided not to try to secure a re-election this fall. It is said by his friends that he will bow his head before the storm which has been raised, and that he will be content provided he is given a place on the Republican ticket by the next Republican convention as a candidate for some county office instead of being again a candidate for the Legislature."

This leads the Enterprise to say further: "Speaking of 'favorite sons,' what is the matter with James W. Hope, of Roselle, as the Republican candidate for the Assembly, to succeed George A. Squire?"

April Fools' day would not seem real if we were not regaled each year with the wonderful stories of that man of wonderful longevity, Noah Raby, of the Piscataway poorhouse. That a man should have to wait till he is some six score and over years in age, and then an inmate of a poorhouse, before his deeds, as well as his habits, should occupy columns of newspaper space, shows how uneven the ways of life are.

The volunteer troops from the far west received but little glory, except that which was found in doing disagreeable routine camp duty, in the exciting events in the Spanish-American war, but in the conflict with the Filipinos they are doing nobly and bravely their duty to Uncle Sam, winning the laurels of war as only American can.

Interesting local news will be found on page 2.

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

It wasn't a bet, only an understanding between Mayor N. B Smalley and Assessor E. M. French before election, that if Smalley lost the Assessor was to wear a silk hat, but if he was elected Mayor he would become the possessor of a gavel. Saturday His Honor received a marble block, bearing the inscription "Mayor" on one side, "N. B. S." on the other, and the date of the election on one end. It was carefully wrapped up and the Mayor thought that he was the victim of an April fool joke. The gavel, which is made of ivory and ebony, came afterwards with a little speech by the Assessor.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

There is a rare treat in store for the lovers of legitimate farce comedy next Thursday night when Edward Girard's famous comedy of "Natural Gas" appears at Music Hall, for the stage hands benefit. Mr. Girard will be seen in his original character of "Whirlom O Rourke" and this season is introducing many new and novel specialties, bits of business, etc., never before seen in the other productions of this famous play. Miss Florence S. Evans assumes her original part of "Kitty Maloni." Miss Jessie Gardner, appears in the soubrette role of "Jimsey." Frank O'Brien, the famous acrobatic comedian, appears in the character of "Neise N. Howell," the actor, and introduces his world-famous specialty. Miss Nina Bertolini portrays the role of "Daisy," the society queen. Others who go to make up this really all-star cast are Chris Green, Geo. Manchester, etc.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss VanBoskerck, of Seventh street, is enjoying a few days at Lakewood.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. LaRue, of Jackson avenue, have moved to the Thorn flats on Somerset street.

Julius Williams, of Elmwood place, returned Saturday from an extended business trip in the west.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Thorn, of East Second street, have been entertaining their daughter from Orange.

Horace J. Martin, Jr., of Jackson avenue, will make his appearance in society tomorrow evening, when a "coming out" party will be given in his honor.

F. M. Bacen, of West Fifth street, left this afternoon on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, for Chicago. From there he goes to Council Bluff, Iowa, where he will remain for a week or two on business.

A Plank Shad Dinner.

A private party of local business and lodge men enjoyed a genuine plank shad dinner at the Hotel Kensington Saturday night. Proprietor Staats served the dinner in fine shape and won the praise of his guests. Plainfielders who take meals at the Kensington are surprised at the elegance of the cuisine served there.

—The Queen City Laundry has this day removed its place of business from No. 218 East Front street to 337 Park avenue. Miller building.

DRINK GRAIN-O

after you have concluded that you ought not to drink coffee. It is not a medicine but doctors order it, because it is health building and invigorating and appetizing. It is made from pure grains and has that rich seal brown color and tastes like the finest grades of coffee and costs about 1/4 as much. Children like it and thrive on it because it is a genuine food drink containing nothing but nourishment. Ask your grocer for Grain-O, the new food drink, 15 and 25c.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders.

—Press want ads pay

—There will be a regular meeting of the Board of Education this evening.

—Next Friday evening an important meeting of the Borough Council will be held.

—The regular April meeting of the Common Council will be held this evening.

—There will be a conclave of Trinity Commandery, No. 17, K. T., this evening.

—Tomorrow evening the Domino Club will give a dance in the Fanwood Clubhouse.

—The Plainfield Clinical Society will hold a regular meeting tomorrow at the hospital..

—There will be a meeting of the Sons of Veterans tomorrow evening and a full attendance is desired.

—Each table in the dining room at the Kensington Hotel was graced by a handsome Easter lily yesterday.

—This evening a district meeting of Odd Fellows will be held in the rooms of Plainfield Lodge, No. 45, I. O. O. F. A banquet will follow in Washington Hall.

—The members of Grace M. E church and Sunday-school will go on their annual excursion to Asbury Park Thursday, July 27th, and will unite with the First M. E. and Monroe Avenue churches. The date, July 16th, previously announced for the excursion, was incorrect.

—The Scandinavians of this city will give an entertainment and dance to be held in Saengerbund Hall, Somerset street, for the benefit of Mrs. A. Jacksen, whose husband died last February from the effects of a fall. The affair will be held Thursday evening, April 20th, and the admission, including supper, will be 50 cents.

The Appetite of a Goat

Is envied by all poor dyspeptics whose Stomach and Liver are out of order. All such should know that Dr. King's New Life Pills, the wonderful Stomach and Liver Remedy, gives a splendid appetite, sound digestion and a regular bodily habit that insures perfect health and great energy. Only 25 cents at any Drug Store.

Monroe B. Long, M.D., President. Eugene M. Laing, Vice-President.
Robert A. Meeker, Secretary. Robert J. Shaw, Treasurer.

THE UNION BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.

OFFICE, 203 PARK AVENUE.

Special Features

A uniform Loaning Rate of $8.67 Per month on each $1,000 borrowed. ANY additional amount may be paid in, no matter how small, with any monthly installment; thus maturing the stock that much sooner.

It accommodates itself to the financial condition of the borrower instead of compelling him to pay a certain fixed amount each month.

Liberal Withdrawals With Interest

THE MEMBERS MAY WITHDRAW AT ANY TIME AND RECEIVE THE WHOLE AMOUNT PAID IN AND AFTER ONE YEAR SIX PER CENT INTEREST ON THE SAME.

The whole or any part of the loan can be paid off at any time.

A New Series Issued Every Month.

To Investors

PAID-UP OR INCOME STOCK, COSTING $60 PER SHARE AND BEARING 5 PER CENT INTEREST AND HAVING A MATURITY VALUE OF $100 PER SHARE is issued from time to time, as the board of directors may determine, and is especially desirable for those wishing a secure and profitable investment.

For further particulars inquire at the office 203 Park Ave., Room 8, or address the secretary,

R. A. MEEKER, 203 PARK AVE.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages there should be cleanliness.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

Tickets for the Cantata of "Belshazzar"

to be given by Grace Church Choir at The

CASINO

Thursday Evening, April 6th

can be procured at the drug stores of RANDOLPH, ARMSTRONG AND MALLINSON.

Also from members of the choir 3 28 tf

A CONCERT

for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. will be given in Association Hall

Saturday Evening April 8th.

By the Cecelia Bradford Trio, of New York. ADMISSION 25 cents. 4 3 6

Moving Time

This is the time that tries men's souls. Many annoying things occur to vex the heart of the good housewife. Things are broken or lost, carpets and shades don't fit, new furniture is needed, old articles must be replaced by something more in keeping with new surroundings, new conditions develop new needs, etc. etc., until distraction almost ensues. But as "every cloud has a silver lining"—just so is there a way out of all your perplexities. Your wants may be so easily, quickly and satisfactorily met by calling on us and making known your needs. If you want Carpets, we have them and they were never so cheap, never so beautiful and entirely new. If shades are needed they are here, mounted on best spring rollers in any desired color. If your windows require odd sizes we can make them for you at once. Does your Kitchen need a new covering? Oil Cloths and Linoleums may be had for the asking. We lay them for you if you wish it. Worn places in carpets may be covered by rugs. A special Wilton Nubia Rug (worth $1.25) at 98c. will answer the purpose. If your Library, Dining Room or Office needs a new art-square, say about 9x12, you may have one of Ingrain, Reversible Jute, Reversible Wool or Wilton Velvet from $6.98 to $33, according to your taste or the condition of your pocketbook. It may be that your table needs replenishing with some new dishes. Several new Open Stock dinner patterns imported for the first time this season may be the means of relieving this difficulty. Kitchen utensils perhaps should be replaced by articles that are brighter, newer and more convenient. We are not sure but that the servent girl question might be solved in great measure by more liberal patronage of our culinary department. Lace Curtains, Chenille Curtains, Tapestry Curtains, Sash Curtainings, Vestibule Lace, Curtain Poles and Fixtures, Upholstery Tapestries, etc. All kinds of Furniture we sell cheaper than any other house in the business.

Remember This.

All our goods are new, fresh and reliable. No Auction goods handled, no old goods from other stores.

Tuesday Specials.

70-in Bleached Table Linen (75c quality)	50c yd
2.00 Napkins 3/4 size	1.50
20-in Cotton Diaper	40c pc
15c India Linen	10c yd
44-in Figured Brilliantine 50c quality	29c yd
15c Black Moire Percaline	10c yd
52-in All Wool Venetian Suiting	75c yd
40-in Silk Warp Henrietta 1.00 quality	75c yd
42-in Silk Warp Henrietta 1.50 quality	1.25
42-in Silk Warp Henrietta 1.75 quality	1.50

DOWN STAIRS.

Rattan Carpet Beaters	10c
Tampico Scrub Brushes	5c
White Wash Brushes	19c up
Kalsomine Brushes	39c up
Mop and Handle complete	19c
Horse Brushes	10c
Carriage Whips	10c
Surcingles	10c
Genuine Fibre Pails	25c
3 Hoop Cedar Pails	25c
Enameled Slop Jar	50c

WOODHULL & MARTIN,
234-236-238 WEST FRONT ST.

PECK'S CORNER.

It is not necessary to buy poor goods to economize when

PECK

is here with goods that have value at about the same price.

Look at his line of DRESS TRIMMINGS & DRESS LININGS. Exceptional values.

Look at 3 PAIR HOSE AT $1.00.

Look at LACES AND EMBROIDERIES. Cannot be equalled.

GEO. W. COLE,
UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER.
200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

H. DeMOTT,
UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER.
Residence and office 59 Somerset St.
TELEPHONE 248 B.

DIED.

ANGLMAN—In Bayonne, N. J., Sunday, April 2d, 1899, Sarah B., wife of John H. Anglman, aged 38 years, 5 months.

Funeral services at the residence of her brother-in-law, Isaiah L. McVoy, 305 East Front street, Wednesday, April 5th, at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited. 4 3 2

WANTS AND OFFERS

FOR SALE—7 room house, on Manson place, a great bargain; 10 per cent down, balance monthly payments. Plainfield Real Estate Co. 4 1 3

TWO new, 10 room dwellings, all modern improvements, small mortgages will exchange for larger dwelling. Chas H. Lyman, 215 North avenue, over Mallinson's drug store. 4 1 3

FIVE rooms with bathroom and attic to let. 717 South avenue. 3 31 6

ROOMS to rent. Enquire 27 Somerset place. 3 31 7

BEAUTIFULLY situated farm, of 118 acres, near Plainfield, all under high state of cultivation, running brook through the property, dwelling 16 rooms, in good order, new out building, will be sold at a great bargain, or exchange same for nicely situated dwelling in Plainfield. Chas. H. Lyman, 215 North avenue, over Mallinson drug store. 4 1 3

TO RENT—Half double house, 10 rooms, 351 East Third street; rent $16. Call 353 East Third street. 3 20 12

NINE ROOM HOUSE to let all improvements, East Second street. Enquire Wm. Newcorn, 204 West Front street. 2 21 tf

BARN to let, Second street, near Watchung avenue. Apply at Daily Press office. 3 13 tf

WANTED—Girl for general housework, must have reference and be a good cook. Apply this evening, 319 LaGrande avenue.

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

LOST—English setter, with black head and rump tan jowels; New York license tag 10454. Return to J. Kirkner, 431 West 8th street, and receive reward. 3 27 tf

TO LET—Two four room flats, with improvements; very convenient. T. Callahan, Richmond and Third Sts. 3 31 eod tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Chas. L. Moffett, Attorney, cor. Park and North Aves. 12 11 eod tf

WANTED—Houses to rent from $15 up. Elston M. French & Co. 2 1 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

NICELY situated dwelling, value $4 000 cash, free and clear, to exchange for larger property; send description of what you have to Chas H. Lyman, 215 North avenue. 4 1 3

6 ROOM house, new, near Netherwood station; to let or for sale. Sherwin's shoe store. 3 22 tf

DESIRABLE rooms with board, eight minutes walk to station. 21 Sandford avenue. 3 7 tf

FOR SALE—Stone stepping blocks, hitching posts flagging and curbing. Mrs L Kuhn, 32 Watchung avenue, 2nd door from the race. 3 17 14

FOR SALE 10 per cent down, balance monthly payments; two new 6 room dwellings, situated on West Front street, near Grant avenue, Plainfield Real Estate Co., 215 North avenue. 4 1 3

SACRIFICE house, barn and lot, 60 by 160. North Plainfield; price $2,700. Address Owner, care Press. 3 30 6

FOR SALE—Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine, No. 9, in good condition; cheap. Call at 303 Madison avenue 3 28 tf

5 LARGE airy rooms to let, corner Somerset street, and Manning Ave. Apply David D. Smalley, 33 Manning avenue. 3 29 6

TO LET—Furnished front room with bath. Mrs. E E. Hann, 20 Somerset place 3 31 2

FOR SALE cheap, nearly new house, 6 rooms, in North Plainfield; good location; terms to suit. Don't pay rent; buy and save money. Inquire 148 or 160 Duer street. 3 21 tf

LARGE, airy, well furnished rooms on LaGrande avenue to rent with board; convenient to depot and churches. Address LaGrande avenue, care Press 3 27 6

TO RENT—The new dwelling house, 929 Madison avenue; has all the modern improvements throughout. Street macadamized to curb. Apply to John M. Whiton, 821 Central avenue. 3 17 tf

FARM of 108 acres, near Bernardsville, Somerset county, for sale or exchange for Plainfield property; two dwellings on property; plenty fruit; five barns; land well watered. E. D. Barrett, 148 East Fifth street. 4 3 6

LOST—From 125 East Second street, scotch terrier dog. His return will be appreciated and expense paid.

WANTED—Large pony, suitable for harness and saddle; must be sound and gentle price reasonable. Address W., care Press. 4 3 2

GIRLS wishes situation at housework. Call 513 West Sixth street.

FOR SALE—Who wants bargain? Fourteen room house, improvements; large barn; near trolley; central location; opportunity, buy cheap and sell dear. Come! see what $3,000 will do. Money to loan. LaRue & Cuming, North avenue, near Watchung.

SIX ROOM flat to let, all the improvements, corner Front street and Madison avenue, over the music store. Inquire Samuel Dreier, 429 West Front street. 4 3 tf

WANTED—50 or 75 bunches of stalks or clover hay, for cow feed. Address C. J. Ackerman, Clinton avenue City. 4 3 3 o

BOY wanted, 14 to 16 years old, to take care of horse, cow etc. Call J. C. Ackerman, Clinton avenue, near Samptown 4 3 3

6 ROOM house to let. 162 Manning avenue. 4 3 2

WANTED—Young girl (white) to assist with light housework and care for baby. Call 320 West Second street. 4 3 2

WANTED—Second-hand platform scales for weighing feed. C. A. Ives, box 87, Dunellen, N. J. 4 3 2

TWO seated wagon wanted, station or depot preferred, must be in good order and price low. Address with particulars, "Carriage," care Press. 4 3 3 eod

BEAUTIFULLY situated property, in choice location of Brooklyn; cash value $12,000, mortgage $6,000 at 5 per cent, to exchange for Plainfield property of same value. Chas H Lyman, 215 North avenue. 4 1 3

WANTED—3 or 4 cheap rooms, in North Plainfield; state price. Address Y., care Press. 4 1 3

112 JACKSON avenue, first floor, four rooms, to let. 4 1 2

LARGE pleasant rooms, furnished or unfurnished; good table. 434 corner Fifth street and Watchung avenue. 4 1 6

TO LET—6 room house, $12 month; 163 Duer street. Inquire 148 or 160 Duer street. 3 21 tf

TO LET—Half house, city water; 6 rooms; $10 per month. Inquire at 138 Duer street. 3 30 tf

SCIENTIFIC MASSAGE
Facial Massage and Steaming.
THERMO-ELECTRIC BATHS.
MISS HOLMES, 440 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J. 3 1 tf

MANICURING, 25 CENTS.
REMOVING CORNS, 25c.
SHAMPOOING, With Massage, 50c.
M. V. Stickle, 149 E. Fifth St.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
ABSOLUTELY PURE
Makes the food more delicious and wholesome
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, April 3—At the Methodist church yesterday morning a special responsive service was read. In the afternoon Rev. Mr. Elliott, of Roselle, adddressed the Sunday-school upon "Missions," and at the evening service the choir rendered an Easter concert. The floral decorations were very pretty.

Postmaster Charles Corlell has been asked so many times recently about the time of the running of the Bound Brook trolley cars, that he has compiled a time table and placed it in the office. The schedule varies so that the table needs often to be changed.

The funeral of Sandford Staples' little four-year-old girl, who died of scarlet fever Friday, was held this morning at 10 o'clock from the house Rev. Frank Fletcher officiated. Interment was in the Samptown cemetery.

Rev. Joseph Beers, whose death occurred in Brooklyn Thursday, was a former pastor of Holy Innocents' church. The funeral was held yesterday.

Miss Weatherwax and Miss Wilgus, two of the school teachers, are spending their vacation at Red Bank, the home of Miss Wilgus.

R. F. Bogardus has rented the Barker house on Main street, and will move into it in a few days.

Easter music was rendered in St. John's church yesterday morning by a largely augmented choir.

The school children are happy as there is no school this week, it being the Easter vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglass have moved into their newly-rented house on Washington avenue.

The Sunday-school had charge of the Easter service in the Presbyterian church last night.

One candidate was initiated into the United Order of the Golden Cross at its last meeting.

Miss Lillie Van Middleswoth spent Saturday visiting friends and relatives in Plainfield.

Clayton Kuhn and William H. Ryno are both riding new wheels this season.

Miss May Whitney, of Plainfield, visited friends in the borough Friday.

Mrs. Josephine Dunham is visiting her brother at Westfield.

Miss Ella Dunham spent yesterday with out-of town friends.

NEW MARKET

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press)

New Market, April 3.—Rev. Frank Fletcher, of the Baptist church, preached two special Easter sermons yesterday at the morning and evening services. The church was lavishly decorated with palms and lilies, and the choir rendered special music.

The funeral of Mrs. J. Y. Wilson was held yesterday afternoon from the Seventh-Day Baptist church at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. A. H. Lewis, D.D., of Plainfield, officiated. Interment was in Hillside cemetery, Plainfield.

Joseph Kelly has secured the position of station agent at the depot made vacant by the resignation of J. Y. Rupell.

Landlord Casterline, who has taken possession of the Nelson House, will have a public opening Tuesday night.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, April 3d.—Interesting union services of the Baptist and Methodist churches and the Epworth League and Christian Endeavor Societies were held in the Methodist church, Sunday evening. Rev. Mr. Shott preached the sermon of the evening. Miss Nancy Wade led the young peoples meeting. It has been customary for the two churches to hold union services the first Sunday in the month. This arrangement has been changed and beginning this month the services will be held the last Sunday evening of each month.

The Saturday Night Club, of Fanwood, held another of their weekly hops in the fire house Saturday evening. These hops, which have proved to be a large factor in social life of the borough during the past winter, will soon be brought to a close much to the regret of those who have enjoyed the weekly meetings of the club.

Miss Nancy Wade, who has been spending her Easter vacation with her parents, has returned to her duties as teacher in Newark.

Mrs. Francis Flannery, of New York, who has been visiting relatives in town, has returned to her home.

Mrs. Wm. Hazell, of Elizabeth, has been ending a few days with her parent Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Frentz.

Wm. VanWalkunburg has moved from Westfield avenue to his own house on barth avenue.

Charles Naugh, of Plainfield, is visiting his cousin, Miss Helen Whitenack, for a few days.

Henry Kenhn has the contract for painting the Baptist parsonage.

WESTFIELD

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Westfield, April 3—Lawrence Bogert, who has been the organist and musical director of the Congregational church for the past year and has by hard work and plenty of it brought the music of this church to a high standard, has been compelled to resign on account of business engagements.

Ralph C. Pearsall, who served as Corporal of the Third Regiment, New Jersey Volunteers, will deliver a lecture, picturing soldier life in the camps at Sandy Hook, Fort Wadsworth, Pompton Plains and Atlanta, Ga., before the members of the Epworth League of the Methodist church Thursday evening.

Tomorrow evening the sacred cantata, "The Great Light," will be given by a chorus of forty voices at the Presbyterian church. The soloists on this occasion will be Miss Katherine Opdyke, soprano; Mrs. Prentiss, contralto; Horace Wright, tenor, and William Holmes, baritone.

SMALLEYTOWN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Swalleytown, April 3.—Frank Stiles who has lived on the Stiles saw mill property for the past 35 years, will remove to the property formerly owned by Wm. H. Ruckman near Smalleytown.

Peter Burnett has the contract to repair the road near his place secured through Wm. H. Rogers, Committeeman.

John P. Wolfe and wife who have been sick with the grip for the past ten days are just able to get out.

George Baker and family have removed to the Powelson place.

Mr. Powelson and wife have removed to New York.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY.

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—There will be a regular meeting of the Borough Board of Health this evening.

—Two members received the right hand-of-fellowship at the First Baptist church yesterday morning.

—Tomorrow evening a regular communication of Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. and A. M., will be held.

—For a night of pleasure attend the thirteenth grand ball and prize cakewalk of the Twilight Social Club at the Crescent Rink tonight.

—Tomorrow evening at Washington Hall, and continuing every evening during this week, there will be a grand fair under the auspices of Miantonomo Tribe, I. O. R. M., and Iona Council, Degree of Pocohontas.

—An event of more than passing interest will be the "Feast of All Nations" at Trinity Reformed church next Thursday evening. It will be a novelty, and the Young Women's Mission Band, for whose benefit it is given, deserve a large patronage. Supper will be served a la carte.

He Fooled the Surgeons.

All doctors told Renick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest Pile cure on earth, and the best Salve in the World. 25 cents a box. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

PEOPLE COME AND GO.

PERSONAL MENTION OF INTEREST TO PRESS READERS.

Some Come to Enjoy Pleasures of Plainfield, Others Journey to Either Mountain or Shore for Recreation.

Andrew Cox, of Liberty street, is detained at home by illness.

Miss Dunham, of Arlington avenue, is entertaining her cousin from Brooklyn.

Miss Ada Tunison, of New York, spent yesterday with friends in this city.

Mayor Smalley, of the borough, is able to be about again after a slight illness.

Miss Clawson, of Brook avenue, has been entertaining her cousin from Westfield.

The Misses Giddis, of Mt. Horeb, spent yesterday in the borough with relatives.

Miss Bowers, of Manning avenue, spent yesterday with her parents, at Basking Ridge.

Miss Mocraft, of West Front street, will leave tomorrow for New York where she will live.

Mr. and Mrs. George Randolph, of Brooklyn, were the guests of borough relatives yesterday.

Rev. George Angleman and family, are visiting Mrs. Angleman's parents on West Front street.

J. M. McNaughton and family, of West Front street, spent Sunday in Brooklyn with friends.

Mr. and Mrs Francis Hastings Flannery, of New York, spent Sunday in Plainfield with relatives.

L. A. Rheaume has removed from Church street to West Sixth street, corner of Arlington avenue.

Garrett Powers, of the borough, has about recovered from his recent illness and is able to be out again.

Mrs Penny and Miss Penny, of Easton, Pa, have returned home after a pleasant visit with Plainfield relatives.

George VanNest and family, of Dunellen, spent yesterday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Conover, of Elmwood place.

The Misses Brown, of New York, have returned to their home after spending a few days with the Misses Blimm, of Somerset street.

Mrs. James Clarkson, of East Second street, has about recovered from the effects of a recent accident when her ankle was sprained.

Miss Mary Brown, of East Fourth street, has received word from her brother in Nebraska that he has about recovered from his critical illness.

Mr. and Mrs A. C. Vail, of West Eighth street, who have been at Hamilton, Bermuda Islands, returned home Friday evening, on the Pretoria.

Edgar W. Williams, stenographer to the Porto Rican Commission, of which Dr Carroll is the head, returned Saturday from Washington. He will reside in this city while the report is in preparation.

Frank Cokefair, of Crescent avenue, is enjoying a visit from his cousin, Abram Albertson, of Bangor, Pa., who was a member of the famous 71st Regiment of New York, that experienced some hard fighting in the recent war at San Juan. Mr. Albertson is looking remarkably well, but he shows in a measure the result of his experience.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be distroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.
Sold by Druggists, 75c.
Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that, too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night, and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

Bon Ami
Cleans and Polishes
BY DISSOLVING THE DIRT OR TARNISH, AND CAUSING NO WEAR ON THE SURFACE CLEANED.

AT RANDOLPH'S !

Roots and Herbs are numerous, yet we urge the combination of

Randolph's -:- Sarsaparilla

is one of the best to clean the blood. None better. Only 50 cents per bottle.

L. W. RANDOLPH,
Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.
PLAINFIELD, N. J. TELEPHONE CALL 109.

"PAY CASH AND SAVE MONEY" AT

V. L. FRAZEE'S,
THE PEOPLE'S CASH GROCER
151 West Front Street.

SPECIAL PRICES FOR ALL THIS WEEK.

Good New York State Creamery Butter	19c lb
Fresh Jersey Eggs, every Egg guaranteed -	15c doz
Best Elgin Creamery Butter	22c lb
Granulated Sugar	5c lb
Best Sugar Cured Hams	8½c lb
Best Early Rose Potatoes	43c basket
Carolina Rice	4 lbs 23c
Paris Sugar Corn	9c can, 3 cans for 25c
Good Sweet Sugar Corn	6c can
Best Tomatoes, NO BETTER, solid packed	7c can
Best New York State Sugar Corn	7c can
Marrowfat Peas	6c can
Good Early June Peas	8c can
Best Small Early June Peas, NO BETTER	10c can
Best Lard	5c lb
Best Full Cream Cheese	12c lb
Best Minnesota Patent Flour per bbl	$4.40
" " " " 24 1-2 lb bag	55c
If one baking is used and not satisfactory money returned for whole bag or barrel.
Best California Prunes	5c, 7c, 8c and 9c lb
" " Dried Peaches	12c lb
New Dried Lima Beans	8c quart
" " White Beans	5c quart
Aunt Jemima Pancake Flour	9c pkg
3 lb package Best Prepared Buckwheat	10c
3 lb Package Best Prepared Flour	10c
Best Rolled Oats	3c lb, 6 lbs for 15c
Pure Vermont Maple Syrup	25c quart bottle
Magnolia Condensed Milk	8c can
Fern " "	7c can
Pickles	7c doz
Best New Orleans Molasses	33c gal
" Vanilla Drip Syrup	33c "
" Old Cider Vinegar	15c "
" 150 Test Oil	5 gals for 45c
Washing Soda	1c lb
Babbitt's Soap	2 cakes for 7c
Higgin's German Laundry Soap	3c cake
Fairbank's Soap	10 cakes for 25c
Duryea's Best Starch	4c lb, 7 lbs for 25c
Duryea's Best Corn Starch	6c package
Fine Fat Mackerel	9c each, 3 for 25c
Shredded Codfish	5c package
New Columbia River Salmon	10c can
1 lb box Davis O. K. Baking Powder	18c
25 Best Lemons for	25c
Best Mocha and Java Coffee	25c lb
Lion Coffee	9c lb
3 lb Can Best Bartlett Pears for	10c
3 lb Cans California Peaches	13c can, 2 for 25c
Best Ginger Snaps, Lemon Cakes, Nic Nacs, Soda and Oyster Crackers	5c lb
Best Clothes Pins	1c doz
Mince Meat	7c pkg
Kirkman's Borax Soap, 6 cakes in a box for	23c

THIRTEENTH GRAND
Ball and Prize Cakewalk
of the
TWILIGHT SOCIAL CLUB,
at the
CRESCENT RINK,
Plainfield, N. J.,
TONIGHT.
Music by Rogers. Tickets 50c.
Grand march at 9 o'clock. Cakewalk at 11:30.
3 31 3

RECITAL
By Mrs. FRANK J. SMITH, assisted by
Miss Martha Miner, Soprano,
Mr. G. Morgan Strickiett, Tenor,
Mr. Frank J. Smith, Accompanist.
At the Casino,
TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 4, at 8:15
Tickets can be obtained at Armstrong's, Leggett's and Randolph's Drug Stores, or of the Patronesses.
PRICE ONE DOLLAR.

IF
your grocer says he does not keep our Flavoring Extracts, ask him to get them for you.
A. L. Kaerth & Co.
132 E. Second St.

GRAND FAIR
under the Auspices of
Miantonomo Tribe, No. 118,
Improved Order of Red Men,
—AND—
Iona Council, No. 14, D. of P.
IN WASHINGTON HALL,
West Second St,
Tuesday, April 4, to Saturday, April 8,
inclusive.
DANCING EVERY EVENING
Unique novelties exhibited. Something new each night. 4 1 7

"Feast of all Nations"
IN THE LECTURE ROOM OF
TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH
Thursday Evening, April 6,
For Benefit of Young Women's Mission Band of the Church.
SUPPER a la Carte during the evening. If stormy the "Feast" will be continued the following evening.
ADMISSION . . 10c.
3 31 6

CROSBY & HILL
SUCCESSORS TO EDWARD WHITE.

SPRING SEASON'S SELLING HAS BEGUN.

We've put winter behind us, the different sections are blooming with the freshness of spring. We'll try to tell you about the new merchandise as it arrives, endeavor to interest you in it, emphasize its merits, make an earnest effort to impress you favorably. Our showing is by far the best you have ever seen in this city; our aim is to show how worthy goods can be bought and sold with thoughts for the merchant and thoughts for the customer. We are striving to prove that our interests as store-keepers and your interests as store patrons are mutual. No shadow of extortion is permitted in our prices. The proudest dollar in the land and the poorest dollar of the breadwinner meet here on a footing of commercial equality.

The Millinery Showing.

The Millinery Department blossoms forth with a richness and elegance of wealth and beauty never before equalled in this city, (a fact every day admitted by the most competent judges). We invite you to participate in this showing We have made elaborate preparations for a large business.

REMARKABLE GLOVE VALUES.

69c, the $1.00 quality.

Sixteen hundred pairs of Ladies' Kid Gloves of a very excellent quality, the colors are black, tan, mode, grey, pearl and white, the quality is equal to any dollar glove you have ever bought and will give splendid satisfaction.

$1.10, the usual $1.25 quality.

We show this morning about 1,000 pairs of Ladies' Kid Gloves of our own importation. Every new spring shade is included in the lot, the quality is equal to any $1.25 glove and is covered by our liberal guarantee.

Tailor-made Suits.

Everything we show in tailor-made suits is the season's newest product, made by manufacturers of the highest standing expressly for ourselves. The fit, the finish and the style will more than meet your expectation; the smallness of price will be the only disappointment.

7.98. Tailor-made suit, splendid quality of all-wool cheviot serge, jacket lined with silk rhadmere, skirt cut full and wide, lined with percaline; a regular $10 suit.

10.00. All-wool serge suits, jackets satin lined, skirts cut with the new flounce, very full and wide, lined with percaline. Colors are black, royal blue, navy blue and tan shades; the value is $12.50.

11.98. Six different styles of tailor-made suits of all the newest spring colorings, most of the jackets are taffeta silk lined and are the newest shapes shown; the values range from 12.50 to 17.50.

Separate Skirts and Spring Jackets.

3.50. Ladies' all-wool covert cloth jacket, made in correct style, tan shades only, fully worth 4.50.

5.00. Women's coats in all-wool venetian cloth, lined with rhadmere.

2.98. Ladies' dress skirts of brilliantine, mohair or serge, new flume cut, percaline lined and velvet bound; worth 3.50.

4.75. Ladies' dress skirts of all-wool cheviot and venetian cloth, percaline lined and velvet bound; worth 6.00.

5.00. Ladies' black taffeta waist, body and sleeves all small tucking, newest cut; worth 6.50.

The newest shapes and styles of cotton gingham and madras waists are all displayed here and are a wonderfully choice collection.

Neckwear for Men and Women.

Our showing of neckwear is very large, the styles are very nobby and new, the prices are disappointingly low.

17c for men's neckwear, usually sold at 25c. 39c for men's neckwear, usually sold at 50c.

The prices of ladies' neckwear range from 25c to 1.75; the variety is very large and includes everything that is new.

Carpet Dep't.

Our Carpet Department is located on the third floor and is easy of access by an elevator, a perfect daylight department. We are prepared to execute all orders promptly on the shortest notice. We quote a few interesting prices:

50c.—Best quality ten-wire tapestry carpets.
69c.—Saxony, Axminster Carpets, all choice new patterns.
59c.—Best quality all-wool Ingrain Carpets.

THE MARCH OF PROGRESS

in wall paper can best be witnessed in our magnificent stock, comprising all of the latest and artistic patterns, on paper of the very best texture.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.

Wall Papers, Paints, Oils, Glass, Etc. 231 Park Ave. Corner Second St. Telephone Call 435. Estimates Furnished.

50 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & CO. 361 BROADWAY, New York

FREY & MURPHY,

CUSTOM TAILORS

26 Somerset St.

Spring Samples Now Ready.

Largest Repairing and Cleaning Establishment in Plainfield.

Repairing and Cleaning properly done in a first-class manner.

Prices Low, Styles First-Class.

Everything for the Garden.

SWEET PEAS the choicest, fancy Lawn Grass Seeds and odorless lawn dressing.

'Phone No. 6.

A. M. Griffen, 119 East Front St.

IMPORTED

OLIVE OIL.

75c per Bottle.

Finest Quality Obtainable

POWERS' PHARMACY

Somerset Street and Craig Place.

Safe Deposit Vaults

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK.

Of Plainfield, New Jersey.

Capital.....$200,000.
Surplus and Profits.....$90,000.

J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. BUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTIL, Vice " D. M. BUNYON, Ass't

DIRECTORS:

Charles Potter, Wm. McD. Oriel,
P. M. French, H. Mulford Estil,
Wm. M. Stillman, Isaac W. Bushmore,
J. W. Johnson, Wm. R. Goddington,
F. S. Bunyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per annum.

VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE.

BANANAS 12c. and 15c. per doz.
ORANGES 15 and 18 for 25c.
Confectionery and fruit, lowest prices.

C. E. BICKNELL,
"On the Bridge." Somerset St.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,

Painters and Paper Hangers,

Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets

Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11 t

A. LUSARDI,
120 NORTH AVENUE.
Wholesale and Retail
Dealer in choice fruit of all kinds, of Confectionery, Peanuts' Cigars, etc. Soda Water of all flavors and always ice cold. Branch store corner Front and Somerset streets.

J. W. VAN SICKLE.
122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly.
TELEPHONE 148 b.

EDUCATIONAL.

GREGG
SHORTHAND SCHOOL
Babcock Building,
The latest and best system. Stenographers filling positions after 3 months.
DAY AND EVENING.
W. E. Van Wert, Principal.
Standard Typwriters in use.

MISS SARAH A. PALMER,
TEACHER OF PIANO (Virgil Method)
AND THEORY IN ALL ITS BRANCHES.
The Virgil method and the Practice Clavier give to the pupil not only finger agility, but also mental control and concentration, whereby alone the best results can be obtained.—
123 East Sixth street.

Piano Instruction
Virgil Clavier Method a specialty.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and
MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
915 MADISON AVE.
Sight Reading Classes, vocal and instrumental.

F. V. L. Goodwin,
TEACHER OF MUSIC.
Lessons given at home on Piano. Special attention to beginners. Residence.
105 MANNING AVENUE,
North Plainfield, N. J.

SHORTHAND! BOOKKEEPING!
No better systems can be found than those taught in : : : :
PLAINFIELD BUSINESS COLLEGE,
City Bank Building.
Both sexes. Day and Night. Come and see us.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Duff.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE,
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 109 Park avenue, at 8:15 p m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711,
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

Flynn Bros.,
SHOE DEALERS,
222 WEST FRONT STREET,
Near Music Hall,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods

Have stood the test for years.

LAIRE'S
SPRING AND SEASONABLE GOODS.

Garden Wheel Barrows.
Garden Tools, all kinds.
Garden Seeds, all varieties.
Lawn Seed.
Lawn Dressing.
Fertilizers, all kinds.
Lawn Rakes.
Ask to see the finest family scale made, for $1.50.

TELEPHONE CALL 682.

THE J. P. LAIRE HARDWARE CO.

EUROPE, starting June 29, 69 days, 48 days or 41 days; English coaching, Holland, Germany, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, Paris. Experience, fourteen years. Particulars of HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS, Plainfield, N.J.

COLLIER,
SCIENTIFIC OPTICIAN.
Established 1869.
103 Park Avenue

THE CRESCENT HOTEL,
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

CHILDREN'S COSTUMES.

Gowns For the Use of Little and Big Girls.

Large girls are dressed in very much the same fashion as their newly young ladyfied sisters, the difference often consisting solely in the length of the skirt. A girl under 21 is always supposed to dress with simplicity, but the schoolgirl's costume must be as correct and free from vagary as if she wore long gowns. With children, on the contrary, something a little fanciful is desirable, lively opposition of color and quaint forms being entirely suitable for little people while they are really little. Plainness of design is always in the best taste, and no style of making should be chosen which interferes with the comfort or the free movement of the child. Up to the age of 7 years the Mother Hubbard gown may be worn, although the old fashioned frocks having a skirt and bodice sewed to a belt are now fashionably revived. The soft sash tied at the back is as a consequence again adopted. Plaids and dotted or flowered goods are used, and there are exquisite corded dimities, with the tiniest possible figures in blue, pink or yellow, which make the daintiest of hot weather frocks, cool and easily laundered. A little child should have many of these, that they may be frequently changed; therefore simplicity of style is essential. They require little trimming, narrow valenciennes lace and some ruffles of the same material as the gown being quite enough.

GIRL'S COSTUME.

The picture shows a girl's dress of Scotch plaid in which red predominates. The skirt is trimmed with a band of guipure over red satin. The bodice has red satin revers crossed in front, bordered with insertion and a ruffle of guipure. The plaited chemisette is of white silk, the collar and ruche of red satin. The belt is also of red satin, tied at the back with long ends. The hat of red grosgrain is lined with white silk and trimmed with coques of white silk. JUDIC CHOLLET.

WEDDING GOWNS.

Hints For the Benefit of Expectant Brides.

The enormous vogue of mousseline de soie as a trimming and for entire gowns and bodices does not decline, doubtless because it is so favorable to all complexions and has so soft and delicate an effect, no matter in what color it appears. Some of the warm weather hats newly shown consist of wire frames completely covered with mousseline de soie, which is shirred closely, with little headings forming a mossy surface.

BRIDAL TOILET.

A bride's gown need not necessarily be dead white. It may be pearl, cream or ivory white, according to the taste of the wearer. Ivory or cream is usually preferred for brunettes, pearl or snow white for blonds. Whatever white is selected, all the accessories—shoes, stockings, gloves and trimmings—should be of the same tone; otherwise the effect is glaringly bad. Satin is still the usual material for wedding gowns, but white moire or fleur de velours is also admissible. The better the quality of the material the longer the train may be, while if the goods are inexpensive the train must be short. The petticoat should be very long, but should have no train. The inside of the hem of the train is usually faced with scant ruffles of silk, mousseline de soie or lace.

A wedding gown of satin is shown which has a perfectly plain skirt. The bodice is close fitting at the back, but forms a blouse in front. There is a chemisette, front and back, of plaited white mousseline de soie, outlined by a tiny garland of orange blossoms. The collar and belt are of satin, and a satin rosette is placed near the left shoulder, with long ends reaching almost to the foot of the skirt. A spray of orange flowers depends from the left side of the belt. The sleeves are plain, with flaring wrists.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

FASHION HINTS.

Lovely Silks For the Up to Date Woman's Wear.

It would seem that the silken fabrics produced during the winter could not be surpassed for beauty, but certainly some of those just prepared for use appear to excel them. Upon white or delicately tinted grounds of moire antique or of grosgrain with a woven, self colored figure are thrown printed designs of a chine character of the most exquisite coloring and composition. The designs are floral and seem to be melting into the fabric, so delicate is their coloring. Although the flowers themselves are not very large, they appear in large groups or garlands, sometimes forming a vague stripe. Of course gowns of such elaborately decorated fabrics require hardly any trimming, as ornamentation would obscure the pattern. They are perfectly cut and fitted and are made preferably in the princess style, that fashion allowing the largest unbroken surface of goods.

The usual navy or Yale blue silk with white designs is seen in more profusion than ever this year. It has been worn for many summers, and, being very serviceable and generally becoming, it seems to enjoy a permanent vogue. The designs are chiefly of an arbitrary character this time—broken lines, curves and geometrical suggestions, placed close enough together so that the ground is well covered.

SILK PETTICOAT.

The picture illustrates a petticoat of pink and white broche silk. It has a deep flounce of white surah, ornamented with lace insertions and ruffle and groups of small tucks. The corset is of pink satin, and the corset cover is a little sleeveless bolero of pink surah, trimmed with lace and insertion and tied in a knot in front.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

SPRING GOWNS.

New Developments For the Coming Season.

A new fancy for covering gowns is the employment of black net over white silk or satin. The net is usually embroidered, and sometimes several thicknesses of mousseline de soie of different shades are interposed between the silk and the tulle or net to give a changeable effect. These rainbow tints are peculiarly attractive under flounces of black chantilly.

Large flowers are now worn in the hair with evening dress and are placed at each side of the coil of hair, high up or above each ear, in the old fashioned style. Camellias, roses, dahlias, even peonies, are thus used.

The Louis Quinze coat is a charming garment and is favored for small dinners, receptions and teas. It need not be of the same material as the skirt, although the two should harmonize. The vest, over which it opens, is of different color, and both coat and vest are often embroidered. The revers are small. A cravat of lace or mousseline de soie and wrist frills of equal delicacy are essential accompaniments.

Blouses are not well represented among spring styles, the close fitting, pointed bodice coming to the front once more in most costumes. The bolero, which had fallen into the background more or less, is again in evidence, many cloth costumes being completed by a bolero of velvet of a darker tone. It comes down to the waist line and opens in front to show a yoke or plastron.

BENGALINE GOWN.

The illustration shows a costume of red bengaline. The skirt has two circular flounces trimmed with bands of black satin. The pointed bodice is ornamented with black embroidery and has revers of black satin, which open over a cravat and jabot of embroidered white tulle. The close sleeves have bands of black satin at the top and wrist. The round hat of black straw is decorated with a long black plume, a bow of red satin and a gold buckle. JUDIC CHOLLET.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Mecklenburg.

Rostock. Hier wurde von der Polizei jede Märzfeier verboten.

Robertsdorf. Dem Erbpächter Frehse sind die Scheune und das Viehhaus abgebrannt; 26 Kühe konnten nicht gerettet werden.

Braunschweig.

Braunschweig. Dieser Tage feierte hier in voller geistiger und körperlicher Frische Hofrath Dr. Ferdinand Fäsebeck, wohl der älteste noch praktisch thätige Chirurg Deutschlands, seinen 90. Geburtstag. Eine große Zahl Ehrungen wurde ihm zu Theil. Fäsebeck, der seinerzeit lange Jahre an der früheren Braunschweigischen Anatomie anatomischen Unterricht ertheilt hatte, versieht trotz seiner 90 Jahre noch eine ausgedehnte Praxis, und der kleine liebenswürdige, überaus rüstige Herr ist in allen Kreisen der Residenz hochgeachtet und beliebt.

Großherzogthum Hessen.

Darmstadt. Die Revisionsklage des zu zwei Monaten verurtheilten Direktors des Mainzer Gaswerks Heffemer ist vom Reichsgericht als begründet erachtet worden; die neue Verhandlung findet hier statt.

Hochheim. In der sogenannten Riesenmühle brach ein Feuer aus, das die Mühle nebst Maschinenhaus und die Stallung einäscherte, während das angrenzende Wohnhaus stark beschädigt wurde. Die Mühleneinrichtung nebst Vorräthen ist ein Raub der Flammen geworden. Das Mobiliar aus dem Wohnhause konnte gerettet werden. Der Schaden beträgt ungefähr 50,000 Mark. Allem Anscheine nach entstand das Feuer in Folge von Selbstentzündung, die durch den Mühlenbetrieb hervorgerufen wurde.

Mainz. Die hessische Staatsregierung trägt sich mit der Absicht, die Erhebung des Brückengeldes auf der Straßenbrücke zwischen Mainz und Kastel an den Meistbietenden zu verpachten. Als die Schiffbrücke noch die beiden Ufer zwischen Mainz und Kastel verband, war das Recht der Brückengeld-Erhebung ebenfalls an einen Privatunternehmer verpachtet.—Die Forderung für die Entfestigung Kastels beläuft sich auf 8,000,000 Mark.

Bayern.

München. Die lange geführten Verhandlungen wegen der Mainkanalisation zwischen Preußen und Bayern sind zum Abschluß gelangt und haben zu folgendem Ergebniß geführt: Preußen übernimmt die Arbeiten nicht bis zur Landesgrenze, sondern nur bis zu dem es interessirenden Punkt Hanau; von Hanau ab fallen die Arbeiten Bayern zu, das an der Weiterführung des Kanals das größte Interesse habe.—Das Militärbezirksgericht verurtheilte den Gemeinen des bayerischen 1. Train-Bataillons Georg Rühlsteiner von Mosham wegen Selbstverstümmelung—er hatte sich ein Fingerglied abgehackt—zu einem Jahr Gefängniß.

Cham. Das in der Nähe von hier gelegene, früher den Freiherrn v. Schacky gehörende Rittergut Thierlstein wurde von dem jetzigen Besitzer Herrn Ritter sammt Einrichtung und Inventar um 190,000 Mark an drei Viehhändler verkauft. Herr Ritter hatte das Gut vor einigen Jahren um 200,000 Mark gekauft, und 90,000 Mark auf Umbauung und Reparaturen verwendet. Die neuen Besitzer des Gutes wollen es zertrümmern.

Deggendorf. In einem Anfalle geistiger Störung hat sich der ehemalige Rentamtsbeibote Josef Reichl durch einen Revolverschuß in die Schläfe entleibt. Der Verstorbene erlitt vor einiger Zeit einen Schlaganfall, der ihn an der ferneren Ausübung seines Berufes hinderte, so daß er in grenzenlose Noth gerieth. Den Unglücklichen, der auch den Feldzug 1870—71 mitgemacht hat, beweinen eine schwer krank darniederliegende Wittwe und drei Kinder.

Freising. Der Dekan des Landkapitels Freising, Pfarrer Höfelschwaiger in Haindlfing, ist in Folge eines Schlaganfalles plötzlich gestorben.

Griesbach. In der Staatswaldung zwischen hier und Reutern entstand neulich ein Waldbrand, der dem Bestande hätte gefährlich werden müssen, wenn er nicht durch zufällig des Weges kommende Leute entdeckt worden wäre. Es brannten auf etwa 1½ Tagwerk in einem jungen Eichenbestand das Laubwerk und niederes Gesträuche. Beherzte Männer wendeten die Gefahr durch rasches Eingreifen ab. Die in der Nähe liegende herrliche junge Fichtenwaldung war schwer bedroht. Das Feuer ist ohne Zweifel durch herumziehendes Volk verursacht worden.

Your Valuables
will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.
Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

McCullough's
STEAM MILL
at Steiner place, North Plainfield
R. H. McCullough, Prop.
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning &c. Estimates cheerfully given.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express.
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Laire's Hat Store 126 Park avenue. 10 1 1y

(B)
AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED
Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

A Bold Move In
Parlor Suits
Without an Equal in the History of This House!
Even that great 3rd floor of ours doesn't begin to hold 'em all. The Parlor

Suit Like Cut,
$19.75—
$30 usually.

Carved mahogany-finish frame—green Roman plush, embroidered backs, elegant and striking.
Others at even greater price-drops.

Full overstuff tapestry covering, tops tufted and corded.
At $45.50, was $65.

Again, inlaid, mahogany-finish frame, Roman plush covering.
At $50, was $75.

And—striped Silk Damask Suit, mahogany frame, piano polish—at $75—was $125.

Another—having Turkish backs, full overstuffed—heavy fringe, for $90—was $175.

Bedroom Suits
—A great crash in their prices, too.

For $10.98—a $14 Suit.
Antique oak finish, well constructed, nice looking.

For $14.98—a $20 Suit.
24x30 mirror, all new in shape and make-up.

For $55—a $75 Suit.
Elegant—in curly birch—superbly carved.
Fully 300 other suits at lowest prices ever put on record.

Carpets—All in
This season's loveliest colors and patterns—thousands of rolls—prices that NO other store can touch, they're so low.

Go-Carts—$2.49
And up—biggest line in all this city. Baby Carriages, too—$3.48 up.

SWEEPING REDUCTIONS ON SIDEBOARDS AND EXTENSION TABLES.

The Portland Range—and the Domestic Sewing Machine—2 good things.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,
Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.
CARFARE PAID TO OUT-OF-TOWN BUYERS.
A Private Delivery Wagon Sent on Request.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

SPECIAL SALE.
We will sell skirts and suits of our own make for this week at a price that will require no brass band to sell. An examination of our goods is all that is necessary. Ladies, as a rule, know where and when to buy. Our prices are lower than the lowest. For fit and make there are no equal in town. Call and inspect our stock.
Cloos & Richardson. LADIES' TAILORS, 325 W. FRONT ST

SPRING HATS,
SPRING NECKTIES,
SPRING SHIRTS
AT
JAMES R. BLAIR'S,
126 PARK AVENUE.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER.
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phœnix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. Life INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672.

COAL
C is for coal, clean, cheery and cheap.
O is the order to lay in a heap.
A is the atmosphere warmed by its glow.
L is the light that starts it to go, and to get the best coal buy of Stevens & Co.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.
THE DELINEATOR AND GLASS OF FASHION
For April Now Ready. Ask for the April Fashion Sheet.
Subscriptions taken.
A. L. & M. D. GORSLINE.
144 PARK AVE. PLAINFIELD, N. J.

5,000 FEET OF
MOULDINGS IN GILT AND HARD WOOD
Bring Your Pictures and Have Them Framed
At the PLAINFIELD ART GALLERY, Y. M. C. A. Building

Jersey Poultry
is the specialty of
SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue
Have you tried their
SAUSAGE
It is the best made in
PLAINFIELD

Elston M. French & Co.
Successors to VanBuren Bros.
Real Estate and Insurance.
Largest agency in the city. Loans negotiated.
163 NORTH AVENUE.
Opposite Depot

H. Eggerding,
121 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall Streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 20th, 1898.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 7 00, 7 26, 7 55, 8 05, 8 28, 8 30, 8 37, 8 48, 9 35, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 1 15, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 54, 5 37, 6 04, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 09, 7 39, 8 45, 9 15, 10 17, 11 28 p. m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 59, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10, a. m.; 12 m., 12 58, 1 45, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

Leave New York, foot Liberty St, at 4 00, 4 30, 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00 a. m.; 12 00 m., 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 40, 5 00, 5 15, 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 30, 11 45 p. m.; 12 15, 1 00 night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 00, 9 00, 9 15, a. m.; 12 m.; 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 7 30, 9 00, 10 00 p. m.; 12 15 night; 1 00 a. m.

Leave New York South Ferry from Whitehall St. at 7 10, 7 55, 8 35, 9 05, 9 55, 11 55 a. m., 12 55, 1 25, 2 25, 3 25, 3 55, 4 35, 4 55, 5 25, 5 55, 6 15, 6 25, 6 55, 7 25, 7 40, 8 10, 9 10, 9 55, 11 00 p. m., 12 10 night. Sundays—At 6 55, 8 55 a. m., 12 00 m., 12 55, 1 25, 3 55, 6 40, 7 25, 8 55, 9 55 p. m., 12 10 night.

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 37, 6 29, 7 00, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 35, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 1 15, 2 12, 3 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 54, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 8 45, 10 17, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 32, 10 22 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 30, 8 05, 8 38, 9 08, 10 08 a. m.; 12 10, 1 05, 1 35, 2 40, 3 35, 4 02, 4 40, 5 04, 5 15, 5 45, 6 19, 7 35, 8 10, 9 35, 10 06, 11 26 p. m. Sunday, 7 15, 9 05, 11 35 a. m.; 1 10, 2 45, 4 05, 5 55, 7 35, 9 15, 10 15 p. m.

Passengers for Newark please change car Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00 m., 1 01, 2 11, 2 27, 3 22, 4 35, 5 03, 5 34, 6 04, 6 08, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 10 44 p. m.; 12 44 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 06, 8 55, a.m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p.m

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7, 7 27, 7 33, 7 45, 9 20, 9 15, 9 35, 10 15, 11 45, a. m.; 12 50, 1 53, 2 05, 3 20, 4 30, 5 28, 6 05, 6 08, 6 45, 8 22, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 45 a. m.; 12 55, 1 20, 5 15, 6 27, 7 55, 8 05, 8 45, 10 00 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m., 1 01, 2 7, 5 25, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 9 44, 10 06 a. m.; 2 03 6 35 p. m.

Leave Easton at 6 06, 7 01, 8 15, a. m.; 12 36, 4 16, 5 10, 7 17, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 11 22 a. m.; 4 30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield 7 12 a. m.; 5 25 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

8 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

9 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

3 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R., Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c., with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

1 01 p. m. way for Easton, German Valley and Chester, connecting at Junction for station on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 27 p. m. For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton, with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

5 25 p. m., for Flemington and Easton connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 38 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For German Valley and Chester, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

9 21 p. m.—For Easton.

8 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

9 06 a. m. Sundays for Easton.

2 06 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley and Flanders, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc., and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, (5 37 for Sea Girt) 8 13, 10:37 a. m.; 3 46, 6 21 p. m. Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 9 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 58, 10:37 a. m.; 1 15, 3 46, 4 37, 6 21, 6 30, 8 45 p. m. Sundays 9 52 a.m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 15 p m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10:37 a. m.; 1 15, 3 46, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat 3 37, 8 13 9 58 (Lakewood only) a.m., 1 15, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 9 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 29, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 04, 5 34*, 6 38*, 8 21 p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 8 46, 9 58, 10 44 a.m.; 2 16, 4 55, 5 09*, 6 38* p m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 29, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, 5 34*, 6 38* 8 21, p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 8 46, 9 55 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, 5 09*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 5 34*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a.m.; 2 16, 5 09*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m; 6 38 p m. Sundays, 6 38 p m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked * change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H OLHAUSEN, General Superintendent.

H. P. BALDWIN, General Passenger Agent.

LEHIGH VALLEY RAILROAD.

Time table in effect Feb. 5, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

8 05 a. m. daily, 6 [illegible] p. m. daily except Sundays. East[illegible]

6 25 p. m. Sunday evening local for Mauch Chunk.

9 02 a. m. daily; Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

11 32 a. m., 5 22 and 9 43 p. m. daily except Sunday. Local for Bound Brook.

12 32 p. m. daily except Sunday "Black Diamond Express" for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

2 04 p. m. daily local for Easton and Wilkes-Barre.

4 50 p. m. daily except Sunday, express for Wilkes-Barre, Scranton, Pottsville, Hazleton, Shamokin, L. & B. Junction and principal intermediate stations.

7 05 and 9 22 p. m. daily, solid vestibule express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

9 02 p. m. Daily, express for Easton, Bethlehem, Mauch Chunk, Sayre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge, carries sleeping car passengers only, and no baggage east of Buffalo.

EASTWARD.

For New York and Brooklyn local 6 40, 7 40 and 9 40 a. m., 3 04 and 5 18 p. m. daily except Sunday. Sunday 10 29 a.m., and 6 04 p.m. Express 7 46, 8 14, 10 09 a.m., 12 15, 2 50, 5 10, 7 07 and 9 06 p. m. daily except Sunday. Sunday 7 06, 8 14 a.m., 2 50 and 7 07 p. m.

PERTH AMBOY BRANCH.

For Perth Amboy and intermediate stations 8 12 10 06 a. m., 5 22 and 7 26 p. m. daily except Sundays. Sunday 10 29 a. m. and 7 06 p. m.

Trains leave Perth Amboy (State street) 7 13, 8 35 a. m., 4 30 and 6 25 p. m., daily except Sunday. Sunday 7:13 a. m. and 5 42 p. m.

For further information call on or address the Ticket Agent, South Plainfield, N. J. Through tickets to all important western points may be purchased at the South Plainfield office.

Col. ROLLIN H. WILBUR, General Superintendent, S. Bethlehem, Pa.

CHAS. S. LEE, General Passenger Agent, 26 Cortlandt St., N. Y. City.

NEW YORK TERMINALS—Foot of Cortlandt, Desbrosses and West 23d streets.

A WOUNDED NAME

BY BRIG. GEN. CHAS. KING, U.S.A.

[Copyright, 1899, by F. Tennyson Neely.]

[CONTINUED.]

CHAPTER XVI.

The worst of having a man of Moreland's views present on such an occasion is that the whole thing is sure to be noised abroad with scant reference to military propriety. Moreland told the owners of the steamer line, the Chamber of Commerce, the easily gathered audience on Rush and Montgomery streets, the usual customers at Barry & Patton's, the loungers in the lobbies of the hotels—everybody who would listen, and who would not—how that brave fellow Loring, who ought to have been a sailor, faced down that quartet of "blue bellied lobsters" at headquarters. The general was not a popular character. His principal claim to distinction during the great war seemed to be that of being able to criticise every other general's battles and to win none of his own.

"He never went into a fight that he didn't get licked," declared the exultant Moreland, "and now he's bowled over by his youngest lieutenant."

The story of that interview went over the bay like wildfire and stirred up the fellows at the Presidio and Angel island, while the islanders of Alcatraz came bustling to town to learn the facts as retailed at the Occidental and to hear something more about that queer, silent fellow Loring. Among the junior subalterns in the artillery were one or two who knew him at the Point, and they scouted the story of his having ever stolen a cent's worth, or the idea of extracting anything about the matter from his lips. The latest yarn in circulation was that after the now famous interview Loring had "laid for" Captain Petty, the aid-de-camp referred to, a young Gothamite of good family who had got into the regulars in the war and out of company duty from that time to this, and, having met the aid-de-camp, Loring had thereupon calmly pulled the gentleman's aquiline nose for him.

Petty could not be found. He had gone to Fort Yuma on important business for the department commander, was the explanation. The general properly refused to be interviewd by reporters of the papers, and couldn't be approached by anybody else on the subject. Only two things were positively known. Lieutenant Loring had received telegraphic notification from the chief of engineers of his relief from duty in the department and his assignment to similar work in the department of the Platte, and it was rumored, though it could not be confirmed, that the general had been directed by telegraph to designate a staff officer to receipt to Lieutenant Loring at once for the public property for which he was accountable in order that the latter officer might take an early steamer for the isthmus, as his services were urgently needed at his new station. It was an open secret that the general considered himself aggrieved by the action of the authorities at Washington, and said so. He had made no charge against Lieutenant Loring. He had merely called that gentleman's attention to the very serious allegations laid at his door, and this was true. On the other hand, people who had been permitted to know anything about the matter, notably certain senior officers of the engineer corps not under the general's orders, and one or two staff department officers who, unhappily for themselves, were under his orders and subject to his semioccasional rebuke, now openly said that not one allegation against Loring came from a reliable or respectable source, and that it was an outrage to have held him even to inferential account on the statement of such a cad as Escalante's agent, who hadn't been near the office since the recovery of Captain Moreland, the insinuations of Mr. Purser Traynor, now totally vanished, and the rumored aspersions of a fair incognita, known only to Captain Petty, a man who had few associates in the "line" or outside the limited circle of the general's personal staff, and who was not too well liked even there.

And, as the revulsion of feeling set in, Petty set out for Yuma. "Where there is so dashed much smoke," said he, as it later transpired, "there must be some fire," and the general had bidden him go to Yuma, to Gila Bend, to Guaymas, to the devil, if need be, and find out all the facts. But the linesmen at Presidio and the jovial blades at Moreland's elbow were loud in their laughing statement that if Petty were looking for fire he could have found it here in abundance. Loring could have given him more than he wanted.

Then came the order in the case of Captain Nevins, dismissing that worthy from the service on charges of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman, and awarding a year's imprisonment at such penitentiary, etc., as the reviewing authority should direct, and by the same post the official order transferring Lieutenant Loring of the engineers to duty in the department of the Platte, and then what did the steamship company do but issue invitations for a dinner to be given in honor of that distinguished young officer, and great was the noise thereof until it was known that the gentleman had gracefully, but firmly, declined.

Then the papers said "it was rumored" that the general had forbidden his acceptance, despite the fact that the general had expressed publicly his gratification that the company had at last done something in recognition of its indebtedness to the army, which was most adroit and equally impersonal. And all the while Loring himself was having anything but an enviable time of it. A man so reticent and retiring could not but be annoyed by the persistent calls and cross questions of all manner of people in whom he had but small personal interest. He wished to have nothing whatever to say upon the subject, denied himself to reporters and relapsed into impenetrable reserve when importuned by brother officers whom he but slightly knew.

One or two with whom he would gladly have held counsel were far removed, one at least forever, from his circle. The stalwart old inspector, Turnbull, lay sleeping his last sleep in the cemetery at Monterey. The veteran who served as president of the Nevins court was in far Arizona, and Blake, sound of heart, if not of head, was under a cloud at Yuma. His forceful expressions concerning the imbecility of department officials led to his being confined very closely to company work and minor, yet exacting, duties at the post, all because of his abandonment of Lieutenant Loring at a critical moment, said the few defenders of the department's letter to the post commander on that subject. "All because of his too vehement defense of Loring," said everybody else.

With feverish eagerness Loring awaited the sailing of the next steamer. Every item for which he stood accountable was then at his office, invoices and receipts made out in full. Nothing was needed but the officer designated to relieve him. The Columbia was to leave on Saturday, and up to Thursday evening no relief had appeared. Friday morning the adjutant general received a written communication most respectful, yet urgent in terms, requesting that the officer might be designated without further delay, and as no answer was received up to noon Loring followed it with a personal call upon the chief of staff, who said the general had the matter under advisement.

"My luggage goes aboard the Columbia tonight, sir, and I should be aboard by 10 o'clock tomorrow," said Loring. Colonel Strain coughed dubiously.

"It might be impracticable to relieve you from duty so soon. The general is in communication with the war department upon the subject, and possibly if—you—had had the courtesy to call upon the general or upon me, his chief of staff, and to explain your wishes the thing might have been arranged."

Loring flushed. He saw through the motive at a glance, and could have found it easy to express his opinion in very few words. There are times when a man is so goaded that an outburst is the only natural relief, but it is none the less fatal. There might even be method in the colonel's manner, and Loring curbed with long practiced hand both tongue and temper. It would have been warrantable to say that the manner of both the general and his chief of staff had been too repellant to invite calls, but he knew that whatever the merits of the case, superior officers, like inferior papers, always have the last word. He might be only inviting reprimand. Without a word, therefore, he faced about, went straight to the telegraph office down the avenue and wired to Washington:

Steamer sails noon Saturday; not yet relieved. What instructions?

By that hour there would be no one in the office of the chief of engineers at Washington, but Loring addressed it direct to the home of the assistant, upon whose interest in the case he had reason to rely, and then returned at once to his desk. Were he not to be there it would place it in the power of a would be oppressor to say the officer designated to receive the property had called during office hours and could not find Mr. Loring. And then, with such patience as he could command, Loring received the visitors who kept dropping in, among them the boisterous Moreland, whose bay of Biscay voice had become almost as trying to his host as to the other occupants of the building, and during the long afternoon awaited the action of the general upon his morning's letter and that of the war department upon his telegram.

Four o'clock came at last. Office hours were over. Neither relief nor reply had reached him. He heard the halls resounding to the footsteps of officers and clerks as they closed their doors and left the building. Bidding his assistant remain a moment, he strode to the farther end of the long passage. The general was at the moment issuing from his private office, conversing with two of his staff. The adjutant general, a bundle of papers in his hand, was hastily crossing the hall toward his own office. Loring raised his hat in grave salutation to his commander, who bowed with dignified reserve in return, and a moment later the engineer was facing the colonel at his desk.

"Colonel Strain," said he, "I have much to do. Will you name the hour at which I am to meet my relief?"

"Mr. Loring," said the official tartly, "when we are ready to relieve you, the order will be issued—and not before."

"Colonel Strain," answered Loring, "I shall be at my desk all evening, ready to receive that order." And wheeling about he met the general at the door. An open telegram was in the latter's hand, a queer look on his flushed and angry face. Relieving his impatient clerk, Loring seated himself to answer a letter, and there fell from the package he drew from his pocket a little note, and with a sudden pang of shame and sorrow he stooped and picked it up. It was only a tiny missive, only a few sad, almost pleading words. Did he mean to go without a word of goodby to Pancha? His heart reproached him as he remembered that this had reached him two days before.

He was writing a note to the lady superior, telling her of his expectation of sailing on the morrow and asking if he might be permitted to call to say adieu to his little friend of the shipwreck when an orderly entered.

"Colonel Strain's compliments, and he desires to see the lieutenant at once." It was not customary for officers to be so summarily summoned after office hours, but Loring went. With a hand that trembled visibly, but with every effort to control his voice, the chief of staff held forth a telegram and said, "The general desires to know, sir, whether you have sent any telegram to Washington which can account for this?"

Loring took it and slowly read it. Divested of address and signatures, it read as follows:

The secretary of war is informed that Lieutenant Loring has not been relieved as directed. Report reason by telegraph.

Loring deliberately finished reading, and then deliberately looked up.

"I have, sir."

"Then it is the general's order, sir," said the chief of staff, "that you go at once to your quarters in close arrest."

TO BE CONTINUED.

A Double Bill

EASTER WEEK

Our Easter panel, "Innocence" given free to purchasers of teas, coffees, baking powder, etc. A Lady's Rocker given to purchasers of one pound baking powder.

GRAND UNION TEA CO.

138 West Front street.

Leggett's

SYRUP WHITE PINE AND TAR

is growing more popular every day. Why? Because it is a simple, palatable, reliable

Cough Remedy.

Try it, is all we ask.

25c. a Bottle.

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

NEUMAN BROS.

The popular Grocers, have a full line of

Table Delicacies.

Plum pudding and sauces, table raisens, fa Jordan Almonds, paper shell almonds, Ganable walnuts, new hickory nuts, new assorted mixed nuts, nut meats in boxes, fancy Florida grape fruit, seedless oranges, tangarines, Florida oranges, table apples, 25 dozen fancy celery and all table delicacies constantly on hand.

501-503 WATCHUNG AVE., COR. FIFTH ST

H. E. Gayle. 18 VINE STREET.

(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)

Carpenter and Builder

ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN

is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 5c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 209 North avenue.

William Hand & Son,

STAGES

For Parties, etc. 518 Park avenue

SHERIFF'S SALE—In Chancery of New Jersey. Between Charles DeHart Brower, complainant, and Elizabeth B. Demarest and others, defendants. Fi. fa. for sale of mortgaged premises.

By virtue of the above stated writ of fieri facias, to me directed, I shall expose for sale by public vendue, at the Court House, in the city of Elizabeth, N. J., on at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, all that tract or parcel of land and premises, hereinafter particularly described, situate, lying and being in the city of Plainfield, in the county of Union and state of New Jersey:

WEDNESDAY, THE NINETEENTH DAY OF APRIL, A. D. 1899,

Beginning at a point, being the southerly corner of Crescent avenue and Seventh street, thence along the southwesterly line of Crescent avenue a southeasterly course two hundred (200) feet to a point and corner of land of Job Male; thence along lands of said Job Male in a southwesterly course one hundred and three (103) feet, more or less, to a corner of Henry B. Morehouse's land; thence along his line in a northwesterly course one hundred and ninety-seven (197) feet, more or less, to the southeasterly line of Seventh street; thence along said southeasterly line of Seventh street in a northeasterly course one hundred and nineteen (119) feet, more or less, to the place of beginning.

Being the same premises conveyed to the said David M. Demarest by George Watson and wife by deed, on the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and recorded 13th of October, 1874, in book 94 of deeds for Union county, pages 209, 210 and 211.

WILLIAM T. KIRK, Sheriff.

COWLES & CAREY, Sol'rs.

3 20 td EDJ&PP Fees—$8.10.

Chas. Eisenberg's

WALL PAPER AND PAINT STORE,

Stillman Building, 310 W. Front St.

I am pleased to call the attention of the public to the fact that I do first-class paper-hanging, decorating, in and outside painting at the very lowest prices. I carry a full line of the latest designs of wall paper such as blanks, flats, gilts, embossed, ingrain, tiles, tapestry, silks, stripes, linoustra, leather effects and burlaps. I carry the largest assortment in the State. Send postal or call on Telephone Number 1073 and I will call on you with samples, or you can call at my store at the above address and convince yourself. I give 30 days' time to responsible parties to pay their bills, as a guarantee for first-class work. I sell wall paper and paints at factory prices. Sample books furnished to the trade at my stores, 310 W. Front St., Plainfield, N.J., 312 Main St., Orange, N. J., 61 Springfield Ave., Newark, N. J., and Warehouse, 12, 14, 16 Mercer St., Newark, N. J. Stores open evenings until 9 o'clock. CHAS. EISENBERG, Prop.

310 West Front Street, Plainfield, N. J.

REVERE HOUSE

PARK AVENUE, 7th and 8th sts. | PLAINFIELD, New Jersey

Families accomodated for the Spring and Summer months at greatly reduced prices.

The house contains all modern improvements lighted by Gas and Electricity, Sanitary arrangements perfect. Cuisine unsurpassed.

GEO. B. DE REVERE

Dead Horses Removed Free.

RUCKMAN BROS.,

Telephone Call, 55 F., NEW BURNSWICK, N. J.

12 134 m

C. ARNOLD, 38 Somerset Street,

has an elegant display of

Genuine Spring Lamb,

JERSEY BROILERS AND POULTRY

of all kinds. It will do your heart good to inspect my stock before purchasing your Sunday dinner. 3 21 tf

MISS JENKINS,

PARLOR MILLINERY

303 East Sixth Street.

John G. Bantle,

428 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

First-class

TAILOR

SPECIALTY OF

Ladies' Tailor-made Garments

Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

DOBBINS. CIGARS.

108 NORTH AVE.

HURRAH! HURRAH! HURRAH!

Here we are, the largest and best equipped laundry in your state. We not only say this, but it is a positive fact. Our numerous laundries and branches are located in all the principal cities of the States of NEW YORK, NEW JERSEY AND PENNSYLVANIA.

And can frankly say that the work turned out by each is appreciated by our numerous patrons. The introduction of has gained great fame. And still another great advantage is gained by your laundry coming to us, and that is, all your open front shirts are ironed by hand. Your collars and cuffs are turned and tipped in the proper way the maker intends them to be. Telephone or drop us postal. Will call and deliver free of charge.

Our Celebrated Domestic Finish

City Steam and Hand Laundry

19 SOMERSET ST.

TELEPHONE.

Morey & LaRue, Proprietors.

PLAINFIELD N. J.

L. MORALLER & SON

Watchmakers and Jewelers

HAVE REMOVED TO 219 PARK AVE.

Next to Armstrong's Drug Store. 3 15 1m

The fat undertaker,
Who plants by the acre,
Poor victims of cough and cold,
Is sighing and crying,
For we've all stopped dying,
Since Brazilian Balm was sold.
And for those who desire
Not just yet to go higher
It is worth its weight in gold.

For sale by all druggists. L. W. Randolph, Wholesale Agent.

Grandest and most attractive

Easter Millinery Display

ever shown.

Bonnets, Round Hats, Toques and Misses' Dress Hats. Brilliant showing of untrimmed Hats in endless variety, representing the best ideas of foreign and domestic manufacture, at the lowest prices compatible with excellent quality.

Ladies' Tailor-made Suits.

In original and up to date styles of Broadcloths, Venetians and Coverts, handsomely lined, worth $12, at $7.49.

Yard-wide all-linen Toweling, worth 25c yard, special at 10c yard.

New Spring Silks.

Rich qualities, handsome styles, economical prices. Bargains like these should appeal to all who value money.

Plain Colored Taffetas

in garnet, helio and torquoise, worth 75c, at 49c yard.

Fancy corded and plaid Silks, every thread pure silk, in every conceivable shade, special at 85c yard.

BOEHM'S.

GREAT CLOTHING SALE

Special for 10 days. We will sell the balance of our heavy weight goods, consisting of

OVERCOATS AND SUITS

at 1-2 the former prices in order to make room for our handsome line of spring goods, which is arriving daily.

THIS SALE FOR 10 DAYS ONLY

So call and get rigged up for a little money.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,

206 West Front Street.

Hats and Gents' Furnishings.

STANDARD FOR THE WORLD.

Stop and See the

1899 Chainless

[and others.

We have a few bargains in

SECOND HAND WHEELS

COLUMBIA BICYCLE AGENCY,

405 PARK AVENUE. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED IN REPAIR WORK by C. L. Thorn, of the Columbia Agency.

$3.50 "ELITE" $3.50

The swell new shoe for men, sells for $3 50. We believe it is better than any $3.50 made. Goodyear welt, hand sewed process; made of fine calf skin, Russia and patent leather; slick, up-to-date styles, fit for a king to wear. Come and see them.

J. & M. FINE SHOES FOR MEN, claimed to be the best $5.00 shoe made.

We sell Men's Shoes, $1.25 up. We sell Women's Shoes, 98c up. "Sorosis" the new shoe for women, $3 50. "Superior," the newer shoe for women, $3.00.

NEW DRESS SUIT CASES, TRUNKS, BAGS.

DOANE & EDSALL.

When March winds blow,
And our face and hands chap so

USE CHAP CURE.

Manufactured only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG, "The Apothecary"

COR. NORTH AND PARK AVES.

JEWELRY.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.

Bead Chains 25c and 49c. Gold Chains 25c and 50c. Bracelets 25c and 50c Buckles, Brooches, Waist Sets, Cuff Buttons, Belt Pins, etc.

We are agents for the CELEBRATED "EIGHMIE" SHIRTS.

J. F. MacDonald.

UPTOWN GROCER. 186 E. Front Street.

20 Fresh Eggs, direct from farmers	25c
Best Jersey E R. Potatoes	43c basket
Best Oil, 5 gal.	45c
Minnesota Flour	55c bag, $4.35 bbl
4 lbs. Carolina Rice	25c
Best Oatmeal	3c lb
Best Pure Lard, no compound	7c lb
Large California Prunes	4 lbs for 25c
O. K. B. Powder	18c
Gold Medal Milk	8c
Kirkman's Borax Soap (6 C. box)	23c
Fine Tomatoes	7c can
Fine Corn	6c can
N. O. Molasses	33c Gal
2 bottles Best Maple Syrup	25c
Canned Salmon	8 can
Pea Beans	5c quart
Lima Beans	8c quart
Lemon and Ginger Snaps	5c lb

We won't say anything about our 20c Coffee. Everybody uses it.

WASHINGTON

VIA

OLD POINT COMFORT

is the most attractive short trip at this season of the year.

STEAMSHIPS OF THE

OLD DOMINION LINE

PERFORM DAILY SERVICE

Through tickets returning from Washington by rail or water

For full information apply to

OLD DOMINION S. S. COMPANY

Pier 26, North River, NEW YORK

W. L. Guillaudeu Vice-Pres. & Traffic Mgr.

10-28 1y

Ladies Desiring . . .

KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING

done will please leave orders with Mrs. Force, 304 Central avenue, and it will receive prompt attention.

The Newark Trading Stamp Co have moved their show-rooms to 146 Central Avenue,

Corner Second St.

The Anti-Trading Stamp Bill having failed to pass the Legislature, can be had from all up-to-date merchants as a form of discount for cash purchases.

Sperry & Hutchinson's Original GREEN Trading Stamps.

Ask for them, and take no others.

EASTER IN CHURCHES

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.

commendable manner. A feature was the stringed orchestra, which added much to the music. Miss Smith presided at the organ. The responses were sung by a choir of twenty boys. Rev. Father Westman, curate, celebrated the mass and Rev. Father Smyth, pastor of the church, delivered a sermon on the Resurrection.

GRACE P. E. CHURCH.

Easter was observed in the usual way at Grace P. E. church by a full choral service in the morning and a children's festival in the evening. The organist, Mrs. William Freeman, took particular pains with the choir this year. The full choir was out in the morning. The soloists were Miss Mabelle Smith, Miss Mary E. Collier, Herbert Schutt, Arthur L. Freeman, Fred J. Pope, Fred F. Freeman and Harry Messersmith. The evening service consisted of carols and an address by Rev. Floyd Appleton.

ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH.

The musical programme rendered at St. Joseph's church was of more than usual excellence. At the 8:30 o'clock mass in the morning appropriate hymns were sung by the children's choir, under the direction of Mrs. M. A. Reilly. At 10:30 a. m, the regular choir, assisted by Miss Alice Quinn, violinist, rendered Giorza's Second Mass, arranged for violin, organ and choir. The choir, under the direction of J. E. Bailey, surpassed all previous efforts.

MT. OLIVE BAPTIST.

Yesterday morning at this church an appropriate sermon was delivered by the pastor and there was some special music. In the afternoon the Lord's Supper was observed, and in the evening a special programme was given by the children and Pastor Jackson gave another interesting sermon. The pastor was very agreeably surprised to receive from the members a handsome purse of money for which he is very thankful.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

Easter Sunday was observed in the Congregational church yesterday morning and afternoon with special services. The floral decorations were unique. In the morning, the pastor, Rev. Charles Lyman Goodrich, preached an Easter sermon on "The Open Door." The special music included two instrumental trios by Mrs. B. T. Barnes, organist; Mrs. M. E. Dwight, pianist, and Anton Gloeckner, of Elizabeth, violinist, and two soprano solos from "The Messiah," by Miss Kelley, of New York.

The exercises of the afternoon were under the auspices of the Sunday-school. There was singing by the school, several anthems by the Sunday-school quartette. The primary department had its share in the exercises.

CHURCH OF THE HOLY CROSS.

Beautiful music and flowers were the features of the Easter Day celebration at the Church of the Holy Cross yesterday. Large congregations were present at morning and evening prayer and the musical programme, published in Saturday's Daily Press, was well carried out by the large choister choir of the church. George Hosking, the organist, was in charge. He was assisted in the music by Owen Smith, cornetist. The rector, Rev. T. Logan Murphy, preached an appropriate discourse.

CRESCENT AVENUE CHURCH.

Elaborate musical services marked the observation of Easter Sunday at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church yesterday. The floral decorations were magnificent.

Rev. Dr. A V. V. Raymond, president of Union College, officiated at both morning and evening services. He preached able sermons appropriate to the season. The musical programme was rendered by the regular church quartette choir, and Frank J. Smith, the organist. The musical programme was very fine.

GERMAN REFORMED CHURCH.

The usual services were held at this church and in addition some special music appropriate to Easter was presented. The pastor, Rev. George Hauser, preached sermons morning and evening that were both interesting and inspiring.

MONROE AVENUE M. E. CHURCH.

The largest Sunday morning congregation in the history of the Monroe Avenue church, gathered there yesterday morning for the Easter morning service and to partake of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper which was also observed. The following were received on probation at the service:—William McCoome, Lucinda Beekman, Ruth Thompson, Ethel Stryker, Minne Gunzleman, William Fielding, Bruno Tabbert and Albert Tabbert. Miss Lucy Smith united in full membership. Mrs. Cox and her son united by letter. The Sunday-school held its Easter services in the afternoon at three o'clock.

SEVENTH DAY BABTIST CHURCH.

Eastertide was observed in the Seventh Day Baptist church, Saturday morning. There was an Easter sermom by the pastor, Rev. A. E. Main, and special anthems by the chorus choir at the morning service. In the afternoon, an Easter service was given by the primary department.

The church was prettily decorated with the Easter lilies and palms, which was banked about the front of the platform.

PARK AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH.

At the morning and evening services at the Park Avenue Baptist church, the pastor, Rev. J W. Richardson, preached Easter sermons, and the choir rendered Easter anthems with solos by Thomas A. Cuming The pulpit was hidden in a wealth of green foliage, lilies and plants. Special exercises for the home department of the Sunday-school were held in the afternoon. Rev. Mr. Richardson made an address, the lessons of the past quarter were reviewed, and a duet was sung by Miss Ada Runyon and Miss Adelia Runyon.

CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER.

The services at this church were of the usual Easter kind, and consisted of special music and an appropriate sermon by the rector, Rev. G. M. Downey. There was a large attendance at the morning service and another large attendance at the vesper service. The church was tastily decorated with flowers, all of which added much to the attractiveness of the services.

The music under the direction of Choir Master Sprowl was very choice and ably rendered. The united Easter offering was the largest ever taken up in the parish and amounted to $865, which will be devoted to the building fund for the new church.

CHURCH OF THE HEAVENLY REST.

The Easter services at the Church of the Heavenly Rest were both appropriate and elaborate. The floral decorations were the most beautiful ever seen in the edifice while the congregation was the largest that has gathered there in some time. W. W. and F.G. Moore, lay readers, officiated. The choir did especially fine in the rendition of the musical programme. In the morning a special service was held for the Sunday-school, when W. W. Moore presented each of the scholars with colored eggs, on which was the date and the name of the church.

TREASURE UNTOLD

is in every wardrobe in the shape of clothing that has been side-tracked because of its soiled or faded appearance.

A little money spent with us will put that clothing in wearable condition.

Cleaning and dyeing.

HILLIER & CO.,

129 West Front Street,

Opposite White's. 'Phone 851.

To Cure Constipation in One Week
To Purify the Blood in One Week
To Strengthen Nerves in One Week
To Cure Sick Headache in One Day

Take Cleveland's Celery Compound Tea, 25c. Trial size free. It it fails to cure your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenues.

PROPOSED LABOR HOME WILL BE AT LINCOLN.

OFFER OF LAND TO BE ACCEPTED.

Committee from the State Federation of Trades and Labor Unions Favorably Impressed.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Newark, Monday, April 3. — The recently projected scheme of Henry J. Gottlob, chairman of the executive board of the State Federation of Trades and Labor Unions, for the establishment of a State home for aged and infirm union workmen, of whatever craft, has taken shape. Saturday Mr. Gottlob, accompanied by Messrs. Wm. Marburgher and Otto Kimbe, of this city, and George Knobloch, of Paterson, also members of the executive board, went to Lincoln, where they have been invited to locate the home.

They were met by Mayor Silas D Drake and Messrs W. W. Smalley, Charles E. Dunham and Fred Davey, of the Lincoln Realty Company. A plot of ground, 500 x 250 feet in dimensions, was inspected an offered for the proposed home free of all charge.

Another tract of land, comprising 150 building lots, was also offered on condition that they be sold and the money thus obtained be used for the construction of the home.

It is likely that the State Federation will shortly accept the offers of land and proceed with the project.

MORE CHANNEL WRECKS.

Three Collisions Follow the Stella Disaster and Steamer Goes Ashore.

Southampton, England, April 3.—Following close upon the wreck of the steamer Stella on the Casquet Rocks, four more disasters occurred in the Channel. Fourteen men were lost in two of the wrecks.

The British steam collier Heathpool, from Sunderland for St. Nazaire, France, was run down and sunk off Beachy Head by collision with the British steamer Ethelhilda. The Heathpool was a steamer of 600 tons and was built at Sunderland in 1885.

Eight of the Healthpool's crew were drowned.

The London and Southwestern Railway Company's steamer Southwestern, which was sent to search for bodies of victims of the wreck of the Stella, went ashore near Cape la Hague, on the coast of Normandy, opposite Aurignye Island, in the same district as the Casquet Rocks. Her hull is stove in, but the crew has remained on board.

A French fishing smack, which was off Dover, was in collision with an unknown vessel, possibly the Ethelhilda. Six of her crew were drowned. The Ethelhilda, which is commanded by Captain Harrison, left Buenos Ayres on February 26 for Antwerp.

The German steamer Pontos, from Rosario about February 24, is reported sunk in the Channel after being in collision with the British steamer Star of New ealand, which arrived at London on February 28, from Wellington, New Zealand, and which was outward bound. The boats of the Star of New Zealand were stove in and she is returning to London.

Twelve seamen who left the German steamer in a boat were picked up exhausted and landed here. The captain and nineteen of the crew were landed at Hastings, while a large up channel steamer rescued twelve of the crew and six passengers. Thus all on board were saved.

Sold The Goods Too Low.

St. Louis, April 3.—The Passaic Printing Company of New Jersey has filed suit in the United States Court against the Ely & Walker Dry Goods Company. Damages to the amount of $50,000 are asked. The petion of complaint charges that the Ely & Walker Dry Goods Company had injured the complainant's business in this city by issuing a circular quoting prices on certain prints that they had no right to quote. Of the damages asked $10,000 is prayed for as remuneration for the cost of renaming goods and for cancelled orders; $20,000 damages for orders that would have been given, but which it is alleged were denied on account of the circular, and $20,000 for punitive damages to the firm's reputation as a manufacturer of only high-grade goods.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help, but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion build up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by L. W. Randolph, druggist. Guaranteed.

SPORTING.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

Frank Hedden and John Welch went gigging in Green Brook Thursday night, and captured 28 large suckers.

The closing exhibition of the Y. M. C. A. physical department will take place about the middle of next month. There will be work on the apparatus and also a game of basket ball.

Walter L. Long, of Park avenue, shot two large fish hawks near the South Plainfield pond Thursday. One is a male and the other a female. They measure five feet from tip to tip. Frank Hedden is going to stuff and mount them for him.

GOLF.

Tomorrow evening the annual meeting of the Park Golf Club will be held when officers will be elected and other important business transacted.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

John J. Murphy, of the firm of Frey & Murphy, tailors, was compelled to go to one of the New York hospitals this morning, suffering with lung troubles.

The delegates that went from this city Friday to the Presbyterian meeting at Metuchen were Mrs Wm. Shotwell, Mrs. Olssen, Misses Bertha and Mabel Townley.

Master Eric Burtis and Miss Elsie Burtis, of New York, who have been spending the holy week vacation with their uncle, Councilman Murray Burtis, of Fairview avenue, returned to New York today.

BOULEVARD COMMISSIONERS.

To Resume the Work of Condemning Lands on Westfield Avenue.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, April 3.—Frederick C. Marsh, James O. Clark and Joseph A. Hubbard, commissioners appointed to condemn land necessary to widen Westfield avenue through Union township, have appointed April 10th at the court house at 10 o'clock a. m., as the time and place to continue the condemnation proceedings.

About 70 tracts of land in Union township remain to be condemned, all of which will be taken up by the commissioners, and as soon as their report is confirmed the actual work of widening the avenue and constructing a street railway will begin.

ACTION ON JOHN KEAN'S FRANCHISES.

The Ordinance Ordered to Third Reading. Streets to be Paved.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, April 2.—The City Council Saturday night passed on its first and second reading the ordinance giving Senator John Kean permission to extend his street railroad through the city to Union Township, and also to change the motive power to electricity. The ordinance will be published for two weeks before being taken up for its final adoption. There is no doubt of its passage, and electric cars will be running, it is said, from the Staten Island and Elizabethport ferry to Union Township by August 1.

—The Rasores Club will meet tomorrow morning with Mrs. Joseph W. Yates, East Seventh street.

THE POPE'S DAILY ROUTINE.

Chevalier Pio Centra, His Personal Attendant, Tells of His Life.

Rome, April 3.—Chevalier Pio Centra, the Pope's personal attendant, furnishes the following information about his condition and his daily routine since he recovered from the immediate effects of the recent operation:

"The Pope almost invariably awakens at daybreak. When I enter the room I find him sitting up in bed with a rosary in his hands. At 8 o'clock several of his secretaries come in. He talks of ordinary topics and listens while they read the newspapers to him. An hour later he receives Cardinal Rampolla or Mgr. Tripepi anl transacts political and ecclesiastical business. Occasionally he gives audiences to foreign prelates in Rome.

"Toward midday the Pope, who all this time has been abed, dresses, but only to change his resting place to an armchair. In the afternoon his Holiness does nothing in the way of work. He reads a little, but never writes. His chief pleasure is to talk about his favorite books, or hear them read. His physicians visit him twice daily, at 9 o'clock in the morning and at 5 in the afternoon. The Pope continually talks of his approaching death with the sweetest resignation. Occasionally he has expressed a desire that he may be spared a short time longer to complete some work for the Church. His physical frality is something to marvel at, but the spirit burns with the fire almost of yoith. Mentally he is as strong as when in the full flush of his powers, and nothing seems to tire his brain. It is quite true tha tthe Pope has composed some poems during his illness. He is always making verses, but never attempts a long-sustained poetical effort. The Pope reads and dictates corrections and alterations, for he is never satisfied with his work.

"After all the years I have watched his Holiness I cannot believe that death is near him. He absolutely has no organic disease. The present weakness will pass. He has always been physically weak, and that fact, in my opinion, furnishes the secret of his usually excellent health."

—Moraller, the jeweler, has moved to the store adjoining Armstrong's pharmacy on Park avenue.

No Assessments. No Assessments.

WE PAY FOR ALL IMPROVEMENTS AND

You Reap the Harvest in Increase of Valuation.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY IS NOW

Why Not Take Advantage of What We Offer?

You cannot help but make money. If you will only buy. Don't you believe what you read? If not take a walk or a trolley ride to the property of the Plainfield Real Estate Co.

Prosperity shows itself on every hand. Buildings in course of erection everywhere on their property. Just think of it, out of 200 lots mapped out we have

Only 60 Lots Left.

If you are not convinced by all this, that by purchasing now you can make money, we will introduce you to people who will not sell for twice what they paid for their lots less than three years ago. And remember that the 60 lots left, fronting on

Grant Avenue, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th Streets, are the choice of the whole property and will be sold at hard-time prices and on easy terms. For maps and further particulars call or write the

Plainfield Real Estate Co.,

215 North Ave., corner of Watchung.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL!

MAZE EDWARDS, Lessee and Manager. Telephone 722.

THUR DAY NIGHT, APRIL 6, 1899.

STAGE HANDS BENEFIT.

Donnelly & Girard's Greatest Farce Comedy Success,

"NATURAL GAS."

Introducing Mr. Eddie Girard in his Original Characters, supported by a Cast of Unexcelled Superiority.

Prices 25c. 35c. 50c. and 75c. Reserved seats at Box Office. Open daily from 9 a. m.

CONCERT BY

Rutgers College Glee Club

For the Benefit of the Plainfield High School Athletic Associations.

Y. M. C. A. Hall, Monday Ev'g, April 3, 1899. ADMISSION, 35 CENTS.

Tickets for sale at Armstrong's Pharmacy. 3 31 3

SPRING CLEANING

will soon be here, and while cleaning up your homes do not forget to clean your system.

Hepburn's Blood Purifier

for the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys, will do this in a satisfactory manner. Money refunded if it don't do what is claimed for it. We have made and sold it the same way for the past 14 years.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY, HEPBURN & CO.

Cor. Park Ave. and Second St. Telephone 671.

Excelsior Mattress,

cotton top, full size, from $1.75; special. Every kind of Bedding, Springs and Iron Beds.

Mattresses made over.

Carpets and Rugs cleaned on the floor to look like new.

A. F. NAYLOR.

BEDDING

Factory and st re. 28 SOMERSET ST

Advertised Letters

Plainfield, N. J., April 3, 1899

Bellis Miss May	Lewis Mrs Lucy
Brown Mr A G	Moncton Mr George A
Brown Miss Margaret	Ollis Mr Sydney L
Burrell Mr Jacob	Palson Miss Julee Lina
Carter Mrs Augusta	Reid Miss Emma
Campbell Mr R	Riene Mr John
Cobb Mr J M	Rogers Mr E H
Howard Mr Walter	Scruggs Miss Sallie W
G Mr	Smith Mr W R
Greene Mr William	Sutton Mrs S P
Hunter Mr	Wilson Miss Susie
Hurlburt Mr & Mrs A.	Work Mr Chas L

659 South street

E. D. BARRETT,

Sanitary Plumbing.

Steam and Hot Water Heating.

Telephone 612. 148 East Fifth Street.

4 3 1m

A Chance For the Masses.

The greatest sale of spring clothing for men, boys and children ever held in Plainfield The prices are within the reach of all and defy competition. Right from under the auctioneer's hammer we have purchased at 35c on the dollar $7,000 worth of the best tailor-made Spring clothing, all this season's manufacture, from the well-known stock of Messrs. Rothschild, Levi & Co, of Rochester, N Y., known as the best ready made clothing manufacturers in the United States. This sale will continue for a short time only. Every dollar's worth of their stock must be converted into cash at once. Study this price list and bring it with you, so that you can get your goods just at these prices:

Men's tweed and cheviot spring suits, regular price 7.00, our price 2.75. Men's fine cheviot and cassimere sack suits in newest shades, regular price 9.00-10.00, our price 3.75. Men's sack or cutaway suits in Scotch cheviots, diagonals and worsteds, regular price 13.00, our price 5.50. Men's tailor-made dress suits in sack or cutaway style, made from the very finest goods, including diagonal, French clay worsteds and the John Taylor celebrated cassimere and homespuns, regular price 18.00, 20.00 and 22.00, our price 6.50, 7.50 and 8.50. We have over 3,000 suits to choose from. No matter how particular your tastes are, you are bound to find something suitable. Men's extra durable working pants, regular price 2.00 and 2.50, our price 1.00 and 1.50.

Youths' suits made from best worsteds and cheviots, regular price from 6.00 to 12.00, our price 2.50 to 7.00. Men's covert cloth Spring overcoats in the latest shades and cuts, regular price from 10.00 to 15.00, our price from 3.50 to 6.90. A good all wool child's suit, ages from 5 to 8 years made with sailor collars, middy vestee style or double breasted, regular price from 2.50 to 3.00, our price 1.00 to 1.25 and 1.50. Very fine middy suits with combination collars and vests, regular price 6.00, our price 2.00 to 2.50. Children's suits from 8 to 16 years, all wool, regular price from 3.00 to 4.00, our price 1.50 to 1.90. Boys' knee pants from 15c to 45c. Men's latest spring styles derbies from 85c to 1.25 worth double.

It would be well to come early, so you can get your choice.

New York Clothing Co.

M. Weinberger, Manager. 214 West Front St., next door to Music Hall, Plainfield, N. J.

All cars stop at our door. Carfare paid to all out-of-town buyers.

Cycle and Camera in Ireland.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE

In the First Presbyterian Church,

Tuesday, April 4, 1899,

By the Pastor, CHARLES E. HERRING. TICKETS 25c. 4 1 4

DEAD HORSES

Removed free. Rickman Brothers, 611 South Second Street. Main office New Brunswick N. J. Telephone Call, 65 F.

Fertilizer Works, Livingston Park, N. J. 4 3 3m

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the stockholders of the

PLAINFIELD GAS LIGHT COMPANY

for the election of directors will be held at the office of the Company, 110 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J., on TUESDAY, APRIL 4th, 1899, at 4 p. m.

H. G. RUNKLE, Secretary.

3 1 4

CHAS. L. FOROE,

Architect and Superintendent.

208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given. 1 31 tf

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR
Sun Rises 5 39 a. m.
Sun Sets 6 27 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 7 27 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Probably Rain this Afternoon and Tonight, Wednesday Fair. Stationary Temperature. Ther. 52.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., TUESDAY, APRIL 4, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

MONEY NEEDED FOR CITY GOVERNMENT.

Annual Budget Made up by the Common Council.

INCREASES WERE VOTED.

CORPORATION COUNSEL MARSH RECEIVED INCREASE IN ISALARY.

An Ordinance Adopted on Second Reading to Reorganize the Fire Department on a Paid Call System—$2,000 Voted for Improvements for the Public Library—Contract for Storm Sewer.

The regular April meeting of the Common Council was held last evening and a great amount of business was transacted in the interest of the city. As stated yesterday, the appropriations were made for the year with an increase in several departments.

An ordinance to reorganize the fire department was adopted on second reading, and the sidewalk ordinance was advanced on its third reading. The sum of $250 was granted the corporation counsel for extra legal sewer work, and $850 for increased duties under the Martin Act proceedings. The contract for building a storm sewer in Park avenue was awarded to Patsy Christmas. The extra sum of $2,000 was voted to the Public Library for improvements stated to be a necessity. These were the important matters considered at the meeting.

Bids for the construction of a storm sewer in Park avenue were received from Patsy Christmas, of this city, and A. D. Hamblin, of East Orange, and after the same were considered by the streets and sewer committee the contract was awarded to Patsy Christmas, whose bid in round figures was $1,971.45, which is $170 below the bid of Mr. Hamblin.

As previously advertised, a public hearing was given, pro and con, on the proposed new sidewalk ordinance. There being no one present who desired to speak on the ordinance, it was adopted on its third reading.

Allen P. Eddy, through his lawyer, asked the Council to refund an excess tax levied on his property on Muhlenberg place. H. J. Runyon and others petitioned the Council to widen Rahway road ten feet, and the property owners would contribute the necessary land. An anonymous petition was received complaining of the condition of Putnam avenue.

The directors of the Public Library asked the Council for $3,600 for the coming year, also the sum of $2,200 to make alterations and to properly heat and light the Public Library. The matter was referred to the finance committee.

City Judge Runyon reported that 103 cases had been disposed of during the past quarter and $174 had been received in fines. The Judge thanked the Council for the efforts in making the City Jail habitable, and urged that better quarters be provided as soon as possible.

Street Commissioner Gavett reported the granting of thirteen sewer permits, and that fourteen permits were granted by Building Inspector Doane.

Mr. VanHerwerden moved that the sum of $681.45 be appropriated for the use of the Board of Health, and stated that the finance committee did not favor the granting of an additional $318.55 at the present time. The Board asked for the additional amount to make in all $1,000 the amount desired.

Resolutions were offered by Mr. VanHerwerden that $3 800 be granted the Public Library, that $12,000 be appropriated for lights and trees, that a tax of $2 be levied on every dog in the city, that Collector Martin be made delinquent tax collector and that City Judge Runyon be authorized to issue the necessary tax warrants.

Mr. VanHermerden stated that the finance committee thought that owing to the increased duties of Corporation Counsel C. A. Marsh, that his salary should be increased. Mr VanHerwerden then moved that Mr. Marsh's salary for this year be $1,250, and that he receive in addition $750 for his labors in connection with the Martin Act Commissioners. This last named amount is to be paid out of the sum collected under the Martin Act.

Mr. Corlell, of the fire and building committee, presented a report on reorganizing the fire department. It provides for the call system of twenty-four men at $25 per year each; that two more full paid men be employed; that the old hook and ladder truck and a hose wagon be placed in the new engine house; that the apparatus in the West Second street house be transferred to fire headquarters; that

CONTINUED ON PAGE 8

WALKED WELL FOR GOLD

CAKE WALK AND BALL OF TWILIGHT SOCIAL CLUB.

Held in Crescent Rink Last Night—Big Turnout for the Affair—The Higgins' Carried off Honors In Cakewalk.

There were over seven hundred people who turned out for the Twilight ball and cake walk last night and thronged the Crescent Rink until sunrise this morning. Some went to dance and others to see the fun. The event of the evening was, of course, the cake walk for $10 in gold. Such prizes are not common in cake walks and it spurred the competitors to great exertions. The walk was not held until midnight, however, and until that hour the time passed rapidly with dancing.

There were five couples in line when the "Georgia Camp-meeting" was struck up by Rogers' orchestra. They each walked ten minutes and gave the spectators every conceivable kind of move and step The couples appeared in the following order:—Jack Kennedy and Miss Annie Sears; Michael Higgins and Miss Mamie Hoagland, of Bound Brook; John Goff and Miss Mamie Higgins; Michael Higgins and Miss Kate Higgins; Johnston Young and Miss Annie Hart.

A committee of judges, with Councilman Walter L Hetfield as chairman, decided that it lay between Goff and partner and Higgins combination These two couples tried again and Mr. Higgins received the verdict. They did some wonderful work on the floor. Theo. Smith was floor manager. The other members of the committee were F. S. Moore and E. C. Searing.

THE SOCIAL SEASON ACTIVELY RESUMED.

SUBSCRIPTION DANCE AT CASINO.

Third of Series of Dances That Have Taken the Place of the Assemblies in This City.

The third of the series of subscription dances at the Casino, which take the place of the Assemblies, this year, was held last evening. Plainfield society turned out en masse after the quietude of Lent and made the dance one of the most successful of the season. It was largely attended by the local society set and a number of out-of-town guests who are visiting at Plainfield homes.

The Casino was prettily decorated for the occasion while the many beautiful gowns added to the brilliancy of the scene. Dancing was continued without cessation until an early hour this morning with only an interval for refreshments.

The committee in charge was the same that has arranged the previous subscription dances this season, Dr. F. C. Ard, Francis A. Cokefair, Gifford W. Cooley, Clifford A. McGee, Thomas R. VanBoskerck, Orville G. Waring and Edward T. Wilson.

A Parlor Meeting.

A parlor meeting will be held in the room of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union tomorrow at 3 p. m. Mrs. Mary G. Stuckenberg, of Boston, will speak on "Home Life in Germany." Mrs. Stuckenberg spent several years in Berlin, Germany, while her husband, Prof. J. H. Stuckenberg, was pastor of the American church. They opened their home to American visitors by giving receptions, and the holidays were always remembered in inviting to their homes and hearts guests from America who were visiting this Capital city. There are three families at least who first met Mrs. Stuckenberg in Germany. Possibly there may be others who remember her hospitality.

Remembered in Athens.

The editor of The Daily Press is in receipt of a newspaper from Athens, Greece, which was sent by Dr. E. M. Rodman, who is a member of the Honeyman party now travelling through the Holy Land. Owing to ack of space The Press is unable to make any lengthy extracts from the paper, but it is well edited and is a credit to its editor.

A Birthdry Surprise.

Thirty friends of Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Rosenstell, of Somerset street, tendered him a birthday surprise last night, Sunday having been his birthday. The evening was spent in dancing and playing games. One feature of the evening was a cake walk in which Miss Sadie Bimm and Irving Mills were winners. The party left at midnight.

Leased Music Hall.

Maze Edwards, manager of Music Hall, has leased that theatre for next year and has already booked a large number of the best attractions for the amusement of Plainfielders next year. The theatre will be opened in August by the Kennedy Players. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards will spend the summer in California.

NEW STONE ROADWAY FOR FRANKLIN PLACE.

MACADAMIZING HAS NOW BEGUN.

It is a Much Needed Improvement and Will Be Greatly Appreciated By the Residents

Work was begun yesterday morning preparatory to the macadamizing of Franklin place, between East Fifth street and LaGrande avenue. A gang of men are now at work removing the earth from the middle of the roadway, where the macadam is to be put.

The improvement is a needed one and will be appreciated throughout the city as well as in that neighborhood. The remainder of Franklin place is in good condition, but that section becomes almost impassable at every heavy rain. It will be generally used by horsemen and wheelmen as a short cut to South avenue, now that Richmond street has the trolley and is in such poor condition.

VESTRYMEN ARE CHOSEN

ANNUAL MEETING OF GRACE P. E. CHURCH HELD.

Treasurer's Report Showed That Over $9,000 Has Been Received and Expended—Change of Date for Meeting.

The annual meeting of Grace P. E. church for the election of two wardens, and seven vestrymen, and the transaction of other business, was held last night. The wardens elected were D. C. Ivins and T. Minford. The vestrymen were M. S. Ackerman, E H. Booth, G. J. Coe, W. T. Gough, C. C. Howard, N. P. Rogers and L. G. Timpson.

The treasurer's report showed receipts for the year of $9 350.53, disbursements, $9 205 74 leaving a balance of $144 79. A resolution was introduced changing the time of holding the annual meeting from the Monday after Easter to the first Monday following the first Sunday in Advent. This was opposed by J. B. Dumont, and there was a discussion between one or two of the members as to the advisability of making the change, but when it was put to a vote the resolution was adopted by a vote of 22 to 10. As the action of the church has to be certified to the city clerk, a rising vote was taken.

J. B. Dumont, George S. Clay and R Henry Depew were elected delegates and M. S. Ackerman, George M. Randall and L. G. Timpson alternates to attend the annual convention of the diocese to be held at Princeton in May.

Holy Cross Election.

The annual parish meeting of the Holy Cross P E church was held in the parish house last evening. The election of officers and delegates was held and resulted as follows: Wardens, Dr. J. H. Carman and Horsley Barker; vestrymen, Thomas E. Warman, Arthur T. Gallup, William A. Westphal, John D. James and Clarence L. Murphy; delegates to the Diocesan Convention at Princeton, Dr. John H. Carman, Boardman Wright and Clarence L Murphy; alternates, Horsley Barker, William A. Westphal and John D. James.

Church of Redeemer

Last evening the annual parish meeting of the Church of the Redeemer was held at which time G. P. Dupee and James A. Alexander were selected as vestrymen: E. C. Perkins, H. R. Phillips, Thomas Lloyd, George T. Rhoades, A. E. Faber, Jr. George P. Dupee, James A. Alexander and A. E. Faber, Jr., were chosen delegates to the church convention, and as alternates H. R. Phillips, Thomas Lloyd and George T. Rhoades were selected. No decision was reached regarding the proposed change in holding the church election.

Funeral of Mrs. Stine.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. William Stine were held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the house on West Front street. The attendance of relatives and friends was large. Rev. Dr. Yerkes, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated and spoke feeling words about the life and character of the departed. He told of her exemplary Christian life and how faithful she had been in serving the Lord. There was an impressive display of floral tributes from friends. The interment took place in Hillside Cemetery.

Missonary to Talk.

Mrs Price, formerly a missionary to China and later in the Micronesian Islands, will address the meeting of the Woman's Association of the Congregational church in the parsonage parlor Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Doctors' Banquet.

The quarterly meeting and banquet of the Plainfield Medical Association will be held tomorrow evening at the Hotel Kehsington, instead of this evening as previously reported.

CITY CARS TO RUN FASTER AT NIGHT.

The Summer Schedule of Local Trolley Cars in Force.

TO RUN LATER HEREAFTER.

WILL CONNECT WITH CARS FOR BOUND BROOK.

Plainfield Street Railway's Cars Will Hereafter Run on Twelve Minutes Headway All the Time—New Schedule of Brunswick Traction Company is Announced—Summer Riding Popular.

Trolley car riding is expected to become very popular in this section of Jersey this summer. The traction companies think so, anyway, and are preparing to adapt themselves to circumstances. The local system, controlled by the Plainfield Street Railway Company, has now adopted its summer schedule and the cars in the city are running according to the new orders just issued by Superintendent John Adelmann.

During the winter, the cars ran on twelve minute headway during the day and beginning at 7 o'clock in the evening, ran on fifteen minutes headway the rest of the evening. Last summer, the hour for change from twelve to fifteen minutes headway was made at eight instead of seven The change was thought necessary at one time to prevent too fast running at night in the suburbs. With experience, it is now believed that the twelve minute headway can be continued throughout the evening in safety and give the people the advantage of the better service. The new summer orders provide for twelve minute headway between the cars all the time.

As heretofore, the cars will leave the depot at North avenue on the hour and every twelve minutes thereafter. In the morning, the first car leaves the car house at 5:40. At 6 o'clock, the first car will leave the Netherwood, Monroe avenue and Johnston's Drive terminals of the line. At 6:06 o'clock, the first car will leave the Dunellen terminal.

Everyday except Saturday, the last car in the evening will leave Netherwood at 11:48, and make its way to the carhouse via Front street and Grant avenue. The last car will leave the end of the Somerset street branch and proceed direct to the carhouse. At the Monroe avenue terminal, the last car will leave at 11:24 The last car will leave Dunellen terminal at 11:42 and proceed to the North avenue station and thence to the carhouse.

On Saturday evenings, the last cars from the Netherwood and Johnston's Drive terminals will leave at midnight, from the Monroe avenue terminal at 11:36 and from Dunellen at 11:42.

The Brunswick Traction Company has also announced its new timetable between Dunellen and Bound Brook. The Plainfield Street Railway cars will hereafter connect with the Brunswick Company cars at the Dunellen or Jefferson avenue terminal Brunswick cars will run on 45 minutes' headway instead of an hour headway as heretofore, and are announced to make connections at Bound Brook with the other lines without long waits.

According to the new timetable the Brunswick cars will leave the Dunellen terminal as follows: In the morning at 7:07, 7:52, 8:37, 9:22, 10:07; 10:52, 11:37. In the afternoon and evening at 12:22, 1:07, 1:52, 2:37, 3:22, 4:07, 4:52, 5:37, 6:22, 7:07, 7:52, 8:37, 9:20, 10:20, 11:20.

As it takes one of the Plainfield cars 18 minutes to make the trip from the North avenue station to the Dunellen terminal, it is easy to calculate the car necessary to take to make connection with the car for Bound Brook.

House Turned Topsy Turvey.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Westfield, April 3.—Burglars entered the house at the corner of Elm and Walnut streets, between Thursday night and Saturday morning, and turned the interior of the house upside down in their efforts to find money and valuables. The house is occupied by Miss Grace Harned and two other school teachers. There is nothing missing.

To Argue a Motion.

Wm. Newcorn went to New Brunswick today to argue a motion to set aside answers to certain interrogatories in the damage case of C.T. Rogers, of New Market, against the Brunswick Traction Company, which will be tried in New Baunswick during the April term of court.

Borough Physician Sworn In.

Dr. J. Hervey Buchanan, the borough physician, was sworn into office yesterday by Mayor Smalley.

—Press want ads bring results.

FRIGHT CRAZED HER, NOW A RAVING MANIAC.

RESULT OF ROUGH TREATMENT.

Catharine Shoemaker's Mind Destroyed by Horrible Experiences of Two Years Ago.

Catharine Shoemaker, of Oak Tree, is in the Middlesex county jail awaiting examination on the charge of being a dangerous maniac. The woman is about forty, and for a number of years has lived with her brother in an old house.

About two years ago roughs from Metuchen and New Brunswick, while on a drunken frolic, broke into the house on a cold night and, though the woman was ill in bed, dragged her out in her night clothing, tock her in their wagon, and left her some miles from home, to get back the best way she could. She was found hours afterward, fully five miles from Oak Tree.

Since then her mind has been affected, and it is charged that her present condition is due to her experience on that night.

A DISTRICT MEETING

ODD FELLOWS MET IN FRATERNAL FORM LAST NIGHT.

After Business Was Finished a Banquet and Entertainment Was Enjoyed Several Lodges Represented.

The district meeting of the Odd Fellows was held last night in the rooms of Plainfield Lodge, No. 44, in the Babcock building, and was followed by a banquet and entertainment in Washington Hall. Representatives from Whitehouse, Millstone, Neshanic, Bound Brook and Westfield were present, and after the business of the district was finished, all adjourned to the hall and took part in the festivities.

District Deputy Horton, of this city, was present, and so was Grand Master M. B. Wood, of Newark. His staff consisted of E. O. Bussing, of Lindhurst, grand warden; Augustus Grassman, of Hoboken, grand representative; E. L. Ross, of Cape May Court House, grand conductor; H. S Pine, of Camden, grand guardian.

The spread was under the direction of Eden Boice and included a varied bill of fare. Professor Burke, the famous slack wire walker, entertained the members with feats of agility, and John Becker recited one of Edgar Allan Poe's unpublished poems, "The Murderer," in a highly tragic style which called forth rounds of applause. B. W. Hand also made a speech, and Professor Carpenter entertained them with piano selections.

The committee of Plainfield Lodge who had charge of the entertainment consisted of John Carney, chairman, Henry Nichwitz, Simon Mantz, Stephen Schlief and John Bowman.

His Singing in Demand.

Wm. Holmes, of West Front street, appeared last evening at Cranford in a concert given by the musical club of that place. Friday evening Mr. Holmes will take part in a cantata entitled "The Great Light," which is to be given at Westfield in the Presbyterian church. This evening he will, together with George H. Smith and W. E. MacClymont, appear in an entertainment to be given in the town hall at Bound Brook.

Got in Jail at Last.

Charles Franz was arrested Sunday night for being drunk and disorderly. Yesterday morning City Judge Runyon suspended sentence on him. Last night the same fate befell Franz. This morning, however, there was a change in the programme. The Judge decided that two arrests in two days was too much, so he sent Franz to jail for forty days in default of $10 fine.

Opening Sale of Seats.

The opening sale of seats for the amateur production of "Diplomacy" in Music Hall, April 29th, took place at Armstrong's drug store this morning. There was a rush for the good seats.

To Go to Manila.

Walter Stewart, of this city, has secured the appointment of second lieutenant in the Third Infantry, U. S. A., and will leave for Manila in a few days with his regiment.

Officers Installed.

The newly elected officers of Howell Division, Sons of Temperance, were installed last night. The work was done by Mrs. Sarah A. Mattox, district deputy.

Hello, Mr. Mayor.

A telephone has been placed in the office of Mayor Smalley, of the borough, where the Council rooms are located.

Engagement Announced.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Charlotte Messersmith, of Washington street, to F. Talmage Ross, of the borough.

Elmer Garretson, of East Millstone, is visiting Plainfield friends.

COLLEGE MEN SANG WELL

SUCCESSFUL CONCERT BY RUTGERS COLLEGE GLEE CLUB.

Was for Benefit of Athletic Associations of the High School—Programme Was Well Rendered and Much Enjoyed.

The glee club from Rutgers College entertained a large audience at Y. M. C. A. last evening for the benefit of the Girls' Athletic Association, of the Plainfield High School, and the Plainfield High School Athletic Association. The programme was largely musical and was rendered to the satisfaction of the audience.

It was the first appearance of the Rutgers Glee Club in this city for several years and the college boys made very favorable impression. The members of the club were all arrayed in the cap and gown. The programme included choruses by the club, solos by George W. Wilmot and Harold Thomas Edgar, a quartette by Messrs. Wilmot, Fisher, Richters and Edgar, and recitations by Orville Earl Fisher.

The selections were all good, but "The Continuous Show" and "Chestnuts" found special favor. Fisher's recitations were particularly pleasing.

The concert was a complete success, and the athletic associations netted a good balance as a result of it.

AN INCIPIENT FIRE.

Small Ice House Set on Fire by a Spark From a Locomotive.

A small ice house on the south side of the Central railroad tracks below Grant avenue caught fire this afternoon at 2 o'clock from a spark from a passing locomotive. An alarm was sent in and the fire department responded, but the flames were under control before they arrived at the scene. The structure was owned by Mrs. Brown. The damage was $25.

While the steamer was passing by Potter's press works one of the horses drawing it fell from exhaustion or some other cause and was dragged for a considerable distance by the momentum of the steamer and its comrade. The animal was badly cut and bruised and may be seriously injured. The driver retained his seat and was not hurt.

STITT ESTATE PARTITION.

Heirs Seek to Extract Their Respective Shares of the Patrimony.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, April 4—William H. Stitt and Addie L. Stitt, of Westfield, have filed a suit in lis pendens, praying for a partition of property in the old Stitt estate. The will was probated about two years ago and under its terms the estate was to be sold and the proceed were to be divided equally among the heirs. This has never been done and the suit is to compel the execution to hasten matters along.

The estate is a large one, estimated to be worth about $150,000, and all of it is located in Union county, the most of it in Westfield township.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss Piker, of Arlington, has returned after a short visit with her father on West Front street.

William Grannst, of Trenton, returned home yesterday after a short visit with Plainfield relatives.

Former Mayor C. J. Fisk and family have returned from Florida and will remain at home for the present.

Mrs. Taylor, of New York, is on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Hiram A. Woodruff, of Westervelt avenue.

A. A. Philo, of Keyport, who has been spending a short time with his brother in the borough, has returned home.

George VanNest and family, of Dunellen, who have been visiting Plainfield relatives, have returned home.

Miss Nettie Davis and Miss Bessie Ross, of Bound Brook, have been visiting Miss Estella Brooks, of Duer street.

Miss Edith Hamilton, of Baltimore, is spending Easter week at the home of her uncle, Mr. Jennings, of Rockview avenue.

Miss Amy G. Burt, of West Seventh street, returned to her studies at the Centinary Collegiate Institute at Hackettstown today.

Mrs. VanVliet and her daughter, Miss VanVliet, of New York, are stopping with Mrs. VanVliet's son, D. M. VanVliet, of Washington avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schaffer and daughter, Marion, of Newark, who have been visiting C. A. Steadman, of 42 Mountain avenue, returned yesterday.

Irving Clark, of Princeton University, is spending his Easter vacation at his home on Crescent avenue. He is accompanied by a classmate, Mark Wilson.

—The Red Men's fair opens in Washington Hall tonight.

FRED MARTIN WINS THE PRESS CONTEST.

Final Announcement of Result of Subscription Contest.

ONE CHANGE IN ORDER.

VERY FEW OF THE SUBSCRIBERS HAVE DISCONTINUED.

One Condition of the Contest was That All Subscribers Must Take The Press for a Month to Count—The Month is Over Now—Revised List of the Leading Contestants Follow—The Prizes.

The Daily Press subscription contest closed a month ago. Yesterday afternoon Manager of Circulation C. F. Stout announced the final results. Fred Martin was the enterprising young man to finish first in the contest and has now before him a complete course at the Plainfield Business College. P. J. Galbraith is second and goes to the Gregg School of Shorthand. Charles Dean finishes third and wins the Webster's International Dictionary, offered as third prize in the contest. The time they spent in hustling for new subscribers for The Daily Press is now well repaid. They worked hard and have succeeded in the accomplishment of that for which they aimed.

One of the conditions in the contest was that no subscriber was to count on the various lists unless he or she continued to be a subscriber for a month at least. That necessitated the postponement of the final result until a month after the contest closed, in order to see the exact standing of each contestant under the rules of the contest. Of course, there were a few of the subscribers who stopped before the month was over. The percentage was remarkably small, however, considering the circumstances. Of the 288 new subscribers added to the subscription lists by the contest, only seven per cent. have discontinued their paper.

The wait of the month made one change in the order of the contestants. Dean had been second by a lead of one. He fell back to third. The order of the various contestants was published March 3d at the close of the contest. The revised list of the first three contestants is as follows:

	Total number of subs turned in by three leading contestants.	Number of subs who did not take paper regular length of time to be counted.	Total number of bona fide subs turned in by the three leaders.
Fred Martin	57	3	54
P. J. Galbraith	53	2	51
Charles Dean	54	7	47

State of Health of the Borough.

There was a regular meeting of the Borough Board of Health last evening but only routine business was considered The Board expected to be able to do something regarding the appointment of local milk inspectors but the Legislature did not adopt the measure giving this added power to local Boards of Health. The three cases of typhoid fever in the borough were considered by the Board and it was stated that strong efforts are being made to ascertain the cause for the outbreak. As yet the Board has not been able to determine the cause. No other cases of contagion were reported.

Railroad Detective Now.

Former Chief Marshal William A. Wilson, of the borough, has secured an excellent position with the Central Railroad of New Jersey as detective. He entered upon his duties today.

Attachment Cases Go Over.

The attachment cases against Mrs. Nancy Purviance, which were to have come up before Justice Nash this morning, were adjourned for one week.

Wesley and Charles Randolph, of Brooklyn, have been visiting Plainfield relatives.

Miss Josephine Fritz, of Somerset street, has returned from Scranton after a two months' visit with her aunt, Mrs. Koch.

Francis W. Frost, of Crescent avenue, will sail for England Thursday morning on the Hamburg-American steamer Augusta Victoria.

Charles Cranston, of Jackson avenue, who underwent an operation recently, is steadily improving and his ultimate recovery is assured.

Miss Hallie Garrison and Miss Louise McComb, of Jersey City, visited at the home of Miss M. Eleanor VanDyke, of East Front street, yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Springer, of Grove street, have returned from Tenafly, where they attended the funeral of Mr. Springer's mother, Mrs. A. V. Springer, who died Friday. Mrs. Springer was buried Sunday in Evergreen cemetery.

THE PALACES AND TEMPLES OF ANCIENT EGYPT

had their walls shining with gold and sparkling with precious stones, but modern art has contrived to design decorations of a less costly character in the beautiful designs and refined colors and shades of Wall paper, friezes, etc., such as Woolston & Buckle keep in their varied and elegant stock at such tempting prices.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

ROGERS.
232 West 2d St.

Seafood for Health
Always
Desirable
when direct from the nets.

M. E. STEPHENSON,
146 NORTH AVE.

Weddings, Dinners and Receptions supplied with every requisite. China, Glass, Linen and Silver to loan.

ESTIMATES
cheerfully furnished. Telephone orders will receive prompt attention.
TELEPHONE 624.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections
210 PARK AVE.

HENRY LIEFKE,
201-203 West Front St.
BAKER AND CONFECTIONER
Try my New England and Home Made Bread. Vienna Bread a specialty. Goods delivered to all parts of the city.

PHILLIP SWAIN,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.
317 West Front street.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street. 619

E. B. Claynard,
NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

SPRING LAMB FOR EASTER.

That is spring Lamb and not mutton, we carry mutton also, but there is a difference. When you ask for Spring Lamb you get it, and nothing else. It is tender and delicious. We also have a full line of Poultry of the highest grade, just try our Phil Capon, Favorite Turkey, Boston Duck, Chickens of all kinds and broilers. Our Roast Beef is always up to the mark.

If you want a very choice Easter Dinner get your Meat and Poultry from us.

FRED ENDRESS,
131-135 West Front Street ONLY

ALEX. LUSARDI.
211 West Front Street,
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery. Nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores 1 year

L. L. Manning & Son,
STEAM
GRANITE WORKS,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 100 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

Of Local Interest

Some people we Know and We Will Profit by Hearing About Them.

This is a purely local event.
It took place in Plainfield, N. J.
Not in Buffalo, N. Y.
You are asked to investigate it;
Asked to believe a citizen's word,
To confirm a citizen's statement.
Any article that is endorsed,
That obtains resident advocates,
Is more worthy of confidence
Than a far off foreign article
Testified to by foreign people.

Mrs. Wm. H. Ludlow of 88 Jackson avenue says:—"I was troubled with kidney complaint, backache and a sort of dull pain across my loins for several years. If I sat for any length of time and tried to rise I had a sharp pain in the kidneys. Walking any distance or much standing aggravated the difficulty. I could not rest well at night from the fact that I had to be constantly changing about from one position to another trying to free myself from pain. I used quite a number of remedies but got no permanent relief. I was prevailed upon to get Doan's Kidney Pills from L. W. Randolph's drug store. In justice to them I must say they did me a great deal of good. It is seldom that I feel any pain in my back, and when I do, a few doses of this remedy never fails to relieve me. I know others who have used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results. From my experience I can honestly recommend to all who suffer from Kidney troubles."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

This question of
EYES
is a most serious one. Too lengthy to discuss here. If your eyes are causing you discomfort, or if you suffer with headache, neuralgia or pain in the eyes, consult our specialist at
107 E. Front Street Every Thursday
Hours 10 to 5. Free Examination. Work guaranteed.
LEECH, STYLES & CO.

HURRAH! HURRAH! HURRAH!
Here we are, the largest and best equipped laundry in your state. We not only say this, but it is a positive fact. Our numerous laundries and branches are located in all the principal cities of the states of
NEW YORK, NEW JERSEY AND PENNSYLVANIA.
And can frankly say that the work turned out by each is appreciated by our numerous patrons. The introduct on of
Our Celebrated Domestic Finish
has gained great fame. And still another great advantage is gained by your laundry coming to us, and that is, all your pet front shirts are ironed by hand. Your collars and cuffs are turned and ti ped in the proper way the maker intends them to be. Telephone or drop us postal. Will call and deliver free of charge.
City Steam and Hand Laundry
19 SOMERSET ST.
TELEPHONE.
Morey & LaRue, Proprietors.
PLAINFIELD N. J.

MISS JENKINS,
PARLOR MILLINERY
303 East Sixth Street.

DOBBINS.
CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

REVERE HOUSE
PARK AVENUE. 7th and 8th sts. PLAINFIELD, New Jersey.
Families accomodated for the Spring and Summer months at greatly reduced prices.
The house contains all modern improvements lighted by Gas and Electricity. Sanitary arrangements perfect. Cuisene unsurpassed
GEO. B. DE REVERE

Ladies Desiring . . .
KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING
done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 0[illegible] Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention.

REMOVAL.
I have moved my stock of
BOOTS AND SHOES
TO 120 W. FRONT ST., with Crane, the hatter,
B. R. FORCE.

CHAIRMAN BREWSTER AND BRYAN.

Manager of Silver Dinner Makes Another Proclamation.

Brooklyn, April 4.—Eugene V. Brewster, treasurer of the Chicago Platform Dinner Committee, has made public a part of William Jennings Bryan's telegram of last Saturday, hitherto withheld. Mr. Bryan says: I" think the two meetings should be held on different nights, so that all Democrats and workingmen can attend both.'

Mr. Brewster voiced sentiments as antagonistic to the Crokerites as ever. He said: "I shall certainly advise our committee not to invite to our dinner on April 19 any one who has accepted an invitation to the Croker dinner. The line of demarcation between Democracy and Plutocracy is plainly drawn. A person cannot be a sheep and a goat at the same time. Any one who attempts to attend both dinners is a dissembler. I think that after what has happened no man can accept an invitation to both dinners. Our invitations will be sent out long before the date of the Democratic Club dinner.

"I hope the Committee of Seven, now a committee of five, will give their proposed workingmen's dinner, but I fear they will not succeed. If they do I am quite sure Col. Bryan will address them. But the two meetings will have to be held on different nights. One will certainly be given on April 19, at the Grand Central Palace, and Mr. Bryan will be there. There has been no quarrel between us and the Committee of One Hundred, as some would have you think."

"Will your committee invite Sheehan, Danforth and Sulzer?" Mr. Brewster was asked.

"Yes, I think it will."

"It is my belief that any workingman who does not care to attend our dinner will not care to attend any dinner. All the workingmen, I feel sure, are in favor of Bryan and his cause. I feel confident that Mr. Bryan will be elected President next year. Don't you know that Thomas Jefferson was defeated in 1796, just as Col. Bryan was in 1896? Jefferson was elected in 1800. Bryan will be elected in 1900."

Relative to the free offer of 1,500 bottles of wine for use at the silver dinner Mr. Brewster declared that he would advise their acceptance at the meeting to be held at the Grand Central Palace.

Mr. Brewster says that he will attend the Manhattan Single Tax Jeffersonian dinner and the one proposed by the workingmen, if the latter will sell him a ticket. "I am deeply disappointed," he said, "at receiving no invitation from Croker for his $10 banquet, but he may invite me yet. Our invitations will be out for distribution on Wednesday."

Vanderbilt-Fair Wedding.

New York, April 4.—The marriage of Miss Virginia Fair to W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., occurred at noon to-day at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Herman Oelrichs.

Miss Fair's wedding robe was of ivory satin. It was covered all over with Irish lace, and the front of the skirt adorned with long insertions. All of the upper corsage was of lace. The sleeves, made chiefly of lace, reach barely to the elbows, and the costume was completed by white kid gloves. Over all was a veil of white tulle.

Prominent among the presents were four gold loving cups sent by the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough. There were other loving cups among the collection, one being from Stanford White and one from Mrs. W. Storrs Wells. There were twenty-four gold plates from Mr. and Mrs. H. McKay Twombly and two silver salvers and a tureen given by Mrs. Elliott F. Shepard, one of the bridegroom's aunts. There were several solid silver table sets, among the donors of which were Mrs. Herman Oelrichs, Mr. and Mrs. William Douglas Sloane, Mrs. Arthur Kemp, Mrs. Frederick Neilson, Mr. O. H. P. Belmont and Harold Sterling Vanderbilt, the bridegroom's younger brother.

Among Miss Fair's most valuable gifts are a string of pearls from William K. Vanderbilt, a stomacher of diamonds from Mrs. John W. Mackay and an exquisite set of diamonds and rubies from Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont. On all the tables were handsome silver candelabra.

Movements of Our Ships.

Washington, April 4.—The gunboat Machias has arrived at Livingston, Guatemala, to look after the welfare of certain American citizens who are said to be in trouble there. The Buffalo has sailed from Singapore for Port Said on her way to New York, bringing home a number of officers and men from Dewey's fleet, whose time has expired. The Annapolis and Vicksburg have arrived at Havana. The Dolphin has arrived at Yorktown, Pa.

The little captured Spanish gunboats Alvarado and Sandoval, which have been lying at the Washington navy-yard during the winter, sailed for Portsmouth, N. H., where they are to be thoroughly repaired and reconstructed.

The Badger has sailed from Callao for San Francisco.

Canada's Defenses Weak.

Buffalo, April 4.—A dispatch from Quebec says that it is now publicly admitted that the Dominion of Canada is practically without defences, and has no army worthy of the name. This statement is made upon the authority of the head of the supposed army, Gen. Hutton, an imperial officer, who has seen active service in various parts of the empire, notably in Egypt, where he has served with Gens. Gordon, Sir Evelyn Wood and Kitchener. He has been newly appointed to the command of the Canadian forces, and his first official report upon the condition of the supposed army has created a sensation in military, civil and political circles in Canada. The General declines to speak of the force at all as an army. In fact, he declares that it is not an army.

W. W. Astor's Taxes.

New York, April 4.—William Waldorf Astor, accompanied by his counsel, Charles Peabody, Jr., appeared before the Tax Commissioners yesterday and filed an application for exemption from taxes on his personal property, estimated at $2,000,000, on the ground that he is a non-resident.

President Feitner asked Mr. Astor if he had renounced his citizenship. Mr. Astor answered that he had not, but that had nothing to do with his residence. President Feitner said that the matter would be referred to the full

DR. PARKHURST SCOFFS

Says the Proposed Investigation of Tammany is Absurd.

HOLDS PLATT RESPONSIBLE

Nothwithstanding the Doctor's Position the Counsel of the Society for the Prevention of Crime Will Assist the Legislative Committee—It is Positive Asserted That Mr. Croker Will Testify.

New York, April 4.—Richard Croker will surely be subpoenaed to appear before the Mazet investigating committee, and at a date so early as not to interfere with his announced intention of starting for Europe April 18 or 19.

Frank Moss, counsel for the Society for the Prevention of Crime, commonly known as the Parkhurst Society, will handle the probe for the committee.

According to present indications the investigation will begin with the Police Department, and that part of the work will be interrupted by the calling of Mr. Croker, for it cannot be concluded by the time set by the Tammany Boss for his departure. It will also go into the workings of the District Attorney's office.

That is all that could be said to-day by persons in a position to know what the scope of the investigation is to be. As to plans or detail no one knows them, for they have not yet been considered.

Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst, who was intimately connected with the previous investigation of Tammany government, is not in sympathy with the present movement. In an interview he said:

"All the newspaper statements connecting the society with the present investigation are without any authority from the society itself. We have not been requested to furnish any evidence we may have against the Van Wyck administration, and the society has held no meeting to take action upon the matter. You may state, however, that I have absolutely no faith in the sincerity of this investigation. I do not think that it was appointed for the sake of purifying the present Police Department or any other branch of the municipal service. I think that it was appointed for reasons best known to the Republican machine—to Platt. The absurdity of the whole transaction is shown by the fact that the influences behind this investigation could have prevented the present state of affairs had they chosen to do so. Had Platt not run Gen. Tracy against Mr. Low there would have been no corrupt Police Department to investigate. The Republican machine is, therefore, investigating abuses for which it is responsible itself. I, therefore, have no faith in the sincerity of its intentions."

"Will the society furnish the committee evidence, if asked to do so?" Dr. Parkhurst was asked.

"I cannot say that it will," he replied. "It has not yet held any meeting to take action on that point."

Robert Mazet, chairman of the investigating committee, this morning declared that he had not no consultation with Mr. Platt during his stay in New York and that he would have none. He admitted, however, that he had met and talked with Mr. Quigg about "matters in which we have a common interest." He declined to say what these matters were, or whether they referred to the committee or not. Mr. Mazet, in asserting his absolute independence of Mr. Platt, said that he would put him on the witness stand if it were necessary to the complete fulfillment of his duty.

"If any one has any charges to make against Senator Platt," said he, "he has perfect liberty to do so, and these charges will be as thoroughly investigated as those against Tammany itself. We do not propose to spare any Republicans in this inquiry; if their heads happen to be in the way, they will get hit. Thus there is little occasion for the suggested Senate committee to examine into the doings of certain Republicans. I don't think Mr. Platt or any one else has anything to fear from such an investigation. I am sure that it would be uncalled for, both because there are no such illegalities as are alleged, and because, if any one thinks they do exist, all he needs to do is to suggest them to us and they will be looked into carefully and impartially. This challenge includes the charges, if there are any made, against Mr. Platt."

EVIDENCE IN GUILFORD TRIAL.

State Will Try to Prove That Emma Gill Died in the Prisoner's House.

Bridgeport, Conn., April 4.—After a three-days' rest the Fairfield County Criminal Supreme Court resumed here yesterday the trial of Dr. Nancy Guilford for the killing of Emma Gill of Southington. Eight days have been devoted to the State's side of the case, and there was no sign that it was nearing completion. State Attorney Fessenden informed the Court last Thursday afternoon that he would move for the admission of a new line of testimony.

The State had already produced evidence which established the finding of the dismembered body in Yellow Mill pond on Sept. 13 and 14, its identification as the body of Emma Gill, the visit by Emma Gill and Harry Oxley to Mrs. Guilford's house, the fact that payments had been made to Mrs. Guilford by Oxley and the fact that compromising correspondence passed between them. The prosecution has also brought out the fact that compromising articles were found in Mrs. Guilford's house by the detectives, and that her laundry mark, "G. 51," found on the clothes around the dismembered body, was found on the clothing in her house. The State informed the Court that it desired to introduce evidence to show that Oxley returned from Boston to Bridgeport on Aug. 24, when arrangements were made with Mrs. Guilford for her to perform a criminal operation on Emma Gill; that Oxley returned to Southington, met Emma Gill on Saturday, Aug. 27, secured her consent and sent her down to Bridgeport to the home of Mrs. Guilford. The defense objected strenuously on several grounds, but after a protracted argument the court agreed to admit the

THE SAMOAN TROUBLE.

President Considering the Appointment of an American Member.

Washington, April 4.—The President and Secretary Hay have been considering the selection of an American representative on the Samoan Commission, an indication of their confidence in the agreement of the three powers upon the commission plan. The United States representative will probably not be a member of Congress, but some person thoroughly familiar with Samoan affairs. The question is a complex one, having generally dropped out of public notice during the last ten years, and the number of persons who are well posted upon it is extremely limited. The German Government is believed to be much better off in this respect. The State Department regards it as essential that the commission be appointed at the earliest possible moment. In the absence of an acceptance by Great Britain of the commission plan, it has been impossible to outline any instructions.

It does not follow, because the commission is appointed, that it is to at once overthrow the treaty of Berlin. On the contrary, it is entirely possible that the commission will be able to adjust conditions at Apia and elsewhere in the Samoan group to the terms of that treaty, and it is conceived here that all that is needful for reforming conditions there and placing them on a basis that will insure a tranquil and satisfactory administration of affairs, may be secured through the adoption of some additional articles to the Berlin convention, not even affecting the general principle of the tri-partite control. It is felt that whatever may be the faults of the tri-partite principle, conditions can be more easily adjusted under it than by turning to some new and untried plan to which it may not be possible to secure the adhesion of all three treaty powers.

Many cable dispatches have been passing between Washington and London in regard to the Samoan settlement. The main point is on determining exactly the extent of authority which the high commission is to possess. Lord Salisbury is not disposed to agree to the plan until he fully understands the details. The British Government is as ready as the United States or Germany to accept the general principle, but it wants to know in advance as to the power of the commission. As Lord Salisbury is in the South of France, the inquiries and replies have to be forwarded to him from London, so that necessarily there is considerable delay. The indications are that the British authorities will accept the agreement within a day or two, but there is still a chance, although a very slight one, of a refusal.

The negotiations are now concentrated on three points, viz.: First, Is the Commission to report, or is it to have executive power? Second, Will the action of the Commission be determined by a majority, or will unanimous action be required? Third, If a majority determination is arranged, what safeguards are to be provided to insure unanimous execution. This last point—as between majority or unanimous action—is a vexing one, and is the same which has arisen between the consular officials in Samoa.

An agreement upon King Oscar as final arbitrator would obviate a deadlock, but this has not been proposed officially.

Turkey Ready for War.

London, April 4.—In connection with the collision of Bulgarian and Turkish frontier guards at Kozyl-Agob, between Jamboli and Adrianople, an important strategic point for Turkey if she desires to put troops into Budgaria, a correspondent from Macedonia to the "Pall Mall Gazette" says:

"Grave consequences cannot be deferred much longer. The whole province is armed and matters are rapidly drifting into open revolution. The people are drilling for the coming struggle, and the country is virtually in a state of siege. Turkish troops have been pouring into most of the disturbed districts, and are concentrating chiefly in the north. Reinforcements are arriving daily. Detachments guard the Oriental Railway from Salonica to the Servian border, and the garrisoned towns are packed with soldiers.

"There is a general feeling of unrest, trade is at an absolute standstill and the Ottomans are preparing in deadly earnest, because they are convinced that Bulgaria is at the bottom of the troubles in Macedonia, and will certain actively support the expected rising, encouraged by Russian influence. It is estimated that 100,000 men are under arms, ready for action in the immediate repression of the coming rebellion."

Services for Windsor Victims.

New York, April 4.—Funeral services for the victims of the Windsor Hotel fire were held at 3 o'clock yesterday in the Church of the Heavenly Rest at Fifth avenue and Forty-fifth street. The Rev. Dr. D. Parker Morgan, who conducted the services, delivered a short aldress. Some of the victims of the fire were his parishioners. Besides Dr. Morgan's address, the hurch choir of thirty voices singing several anthems, and the Windsor orchestra played Chopin's Funeral March. The unidentified bodies, about thirty in all, taken from the ruins of the hotel, were not in the church during the services. They will remain at the morgue, from which they will be take n to-day for burial in the Sleepy Hollow Cemetery at Tarrytown. The Cemetery Association two weeks ago offered ground to Warren F. Leland, the proprietor of the hotel, for the interment of the dead, and the New York Central Railroad offered to carry the bodies from the city to Tarrytown free of charge.

Dr. Morgan will conduct simple services over the graves.

A New Bid for Rapid Transit.

New York, April 4.—The Metropolis Contract Company has submitted to the Rapid Transit Committee a proposition to build the rapid transit road.

The offer to construct the road for $33,000,000, and to complete it in two years and six months, and to pay 5 per cent. of the gross receipts from all sources until the road is turned over to the city.

They will deposit a bond of $15,000,000 to guarantee the completion of the road, will charge only five cents fare and will transfer with any other road.

At the end of the specified time the city is to own the road clear of all debt. The bonds are to be deposited with the United States Trust Company.

R. FRUCHT NO. 218 to 224 PARK AVENUE.
Wholesale and Retail Dealer in
BICYCLES,
Saddles, Handlebars, Oils, Carbon for Bicycle Gas Lamps, Pedals, Cement, Rims, Hubs, Spokes.
and all other articles pertaining to Bicycles. Also dealer in Edison Graphophone and photograph materials, and also sole agent for Plainfield of the Tribune Bicycle, the best in the world. I have taken permanent possession of the premises I recently purchased, 218, 222 and 224 Park avenue, nearly opposite North avenue, and there opened a bicycle store and repair shop, and will sell bicycles and bicycle goods at great bargains. Every man and woman who deals with me will save money. I buy for spot cash and sell for same, thus saving a percentage which I share with my customers. I guarantee to sell goods of this kind as low as can be purchased in New York City or elsewhere. My policy is to give my customers the full benefit of the lowest cash prices for best goods. Call at my store and procure my prices and be covinced. t-s tf

STANDARD FOR THE WORLD.
Stop and See the
1899 Chainless
and others.
We have a few bargains in
SECOND HAND WHEELS
COLUMBIA BICYCLE AGENCY,
405 PARK AVENUE. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED IN
REPAIR WORK by C. L. Thorn, of the Columbia Agency

$3.50 "ELITE" $3.50
The swell new shoe for men, sells for $3.50. We believe it is better than any $3.50 made. Goodyear welt, hand sewed process; made of fine calf skin, Russia and patent leather; slick, up-to-date styles, fit for a king to wear. Come and see them.
J. & M. FINE SHOES FOR MEN, claimed to be the best $5.00 shoe made.
We sell Men's Shoes, $1 25 up. We sell Women's Shoes, 98c up. "Sorosis" the new shoe for women, $3 50. "Superior," the newer shoe for women, $3 00.
NEW DRESS SUIT CASES, TRUNKS, BAGS.
DOANE & EDSALL.

GREAT CLOTHING SALE
Special for 10 days. We will sell the balance of our heavy weight goods, consisting of
OVERCOATS AND SUITS
at 1-2 the former prices in order to make room for our handsome line of spring goods, which is arriving daily.
THIS SALE FOR 10 DAYS ONLY
So call and get rigged up for a little money.
WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.
206 West Front Street.
Hats and Gents' Furnishings.

The VAN'S They
sell the same as they buy, cheap. A bargain got should be a bargain given. Every item stands on its own merits as an individual bargain. We might fill this paper with talk, but what we want you to do is to visit our store, especially our always daylit basement, where we have the most complete ten cent department in the city. Here you buy the biggest on earth for the money.
10 CENTS
VanEmburgh & Son.

Van Arsdale's Shoes.
Men's, Women's and Children's Footwear
For Easter, Spring and Summer.
We believe the goods we are now showing contain the best selection of stylish and reliable footwear we have ever offered, and at our well-known popular prices.
VAN ARSDALE.
Repairing Properly Done. 127 East Front St.

The Shoe Store
AROUND THE CORNER.
Men folks all know what the W. L. Douglas Shoe is. They are better this year than ever. More style and wear than any $3 shoe in the market. If you want $3.00 worth of good shoe leather, try our W. L. Douglas shoe.
A. WILLETT & SON,
NO. 107 PARK AVE.

SPECIAL SALE
Over 13 hundred pairs of shoes Nothing to say about the price, only that the lowness of it will surprise everybody.
SHERWIN'S, 149 West Front St.

Direct from the Manufacturer to the Consumer.

ONE BIG WEEK.

Last Week Was One Continuous Rush from Monday Morning Until Saturday Night.

The old adage "Prices Tell," has been well illustrated with us by the patronage we have received since we opened the retail store.

The comment of all our customers are summed up in one sentence, viz; The cheapest line of stylish well-made clothing we ever saw. Here is a list of some of our most ready sellers.

Lot 4734, 5086, 5081, 5094 — 3.50 These are men's sack suits in fancy mixtures and we recommend them to anybody who wants solid wear for little money. $5.00 is cheap for them.

Lot 4567, 4561, 5067, 5059 — 3.75 These have been general favorites and are going fast. We were compelled to fill in on some of them. They are all right.

Lot 4600, 4605, 4589, 4592 — 4.75 Strictly all wool. We invite you to compare this line with the average $8.00 suit.

Lot 5232, 4630, 5011, 5027 — 5.00 Cheviots and fancy worsteds fit for anybody to wear any place. We have 19 styles at $5.00.

Ask to see Lot 5319, 5322, and 5380, 5383. These are $10.00 and they are beauties.

Lot 4896—Blue Serge, wire woven, $6.75, worth $10.00.
Lot 5406—Blue Serge, wide wale, very popular, $7.00. Compare them with the ordinary $12.00 suit.

Come and see our silk-lined overcoat, silk-lined to the edge. Those Fancy Vests the $4.00 kind, we have them for $2.00. You will be surprised to know that we sell a child's suit with extra pants for 98 cents.

SCHEPFLIN & SCHULTZ,

M. J. CASHIN, Manager Retail Store.

322 West Front Street. Schepflin Block

At the drug store of J. Milhau's Sons, in New York City, on Broadway, just below Dey, the clerk from whom a package of Ripans Tabules was bought, said:

"Ripans is one of the best sellers in our line. We sell a great many gross a month, and entirely on their merits, too. The five-cent packages seem to sell as freely as chewing gum does."

To the inquiry as to what seems to have created the demand, he said:

"Next to the clever advertisements, which make the name known, the very oddity of the name assists the first sale. After that they go on their merits. Those who buy them buy again and again. The demand seems to be on the increase constantly. The combination is O. K. I do not believe that anything could be added to or taken from it without detraction."

A new style packet contai[illegible] (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR FIVE CENTS. Th[illegible] for [illegible] cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York—or a [illegible] Tabules) will be sent for five cents.

A Great Sale of Kid Gloves Saturday.

Nearly 600 pairs Women's Kid Gloves to be 65c a pair. All the fashionable shades, including black and white. Button and clasp fastenings. Every pair guaranteed perfect. About 300 pairs Real Kidskin Gloves of an extra fine quality, all leading shades, button, hook and clasp styles. These gloves are fitted to your hands and fully warranted. 98c the pair, worth 1.25

A great Ribbon Bargain.

1,000 yds plain Taffetta Ribbon, pure silk, cord edge, suitable for shirrilaing, at 15c a yard, regular price 25c.

I. LEDERER.

A BROKEN REBELLION

The Insurgent Army is Disorganized and Discouraged.

NATIVES RETURNING HOME

Gen. Otis Cables That the Indications Are That Aguinaldo Is Thoroughly Whipped—Dewey Congratulates the Army's Commander.

Washington, April 4.—The following cablegram was received at the War Department early this morning:

"Manila, April 4, 1899.

"Adjutant General, Washington:

"Present indications denote insurgent government in perilous condition; its army defeated, discouraged and scattered. Insurgents returning to their homes in cities and villages between here and points north of Malolos, which our reconnoitering parties have reached and desire protection of Americans. News from Visayan Island more encouraging every day. OTIS."

Natives Continue to Return.

Manila, April 3, 6.30 P. M.—The natives continue returning to their homes. They are coming in all along the American lines, and many of them, seeing the promises of good treatment are fulfilled, are inducing their relatives to return to their homes.

Major-General Otis has received the following message:

"Hearty congratulations on the most magnificent work of the army.

"DEWEY."

The United States Philippine Commission, the last member of that body, Col. Charles Denby, former Minister to China, having arrived here, will discuss the situation. The Commissioners are hopeful of a speedy restoration of peace, believing hostilities will soon be confined to the habitual revolutionists.

Brig.-Gen. Otis sails for home on board the transport Sherman to-day. He says he believes the insurrection has received its death blow. The Sherman will also take the sons of Col. John Hay, Secretary of State, and Senator Hale, of Maine, who have witnessed much of the fighting with the army, and the bodies of Col. Harry C. Egbert, of the Twenty-second Infantry, killed on March 26, and other officers who have recently fallen in battle.

Gen. Wheaton has assumed command of the brigade lately commanded by Gen. Otis. The Third and Twenty-second regiments, of Gen. Wheaton's command, are returning to this city.

Otis Reports More Casualties.

Washington, April 4.—Under this date Gen. Otis reports from Manila the following casualties:

March 25.—Twenty-second Infantry—Wounded, Company H, Private Fritz Nerter, wrist, moderate.

April 1.—First North Dakota, Company H, Second Lieut. Dorman Baldwin, leg, severe; Company D, Corporal J. C. Byron, forearm, moderate; Private E. Morgan, eyebrow, slight; Third Infantry, Second Lieut. Chauncey B. Humphrey, forearm, slight; First Nebraska, Company D, Capt. Martin Herpolsheimer, forearm, moderate, accidental.

Cable February 7, reporting Egger, First Nebraska, killed, is error. No such man.

Department Officials Pleased.

Washington, April 4.—War Department officials were pleased by the cheering dispatch from Gen. Otis, received to-day. They argue that the Filipinos are now aware that it will be impossible to accomplish anything by fighting.

It is evident by the reference which Gen. Otis makes to reconnoitering parties that he is having the country thoroughly covered, and that the information which they are giving him is the basis of the dispatch received to-day. It is believed that desertions will soon deplete the army of Aguinaldo to little or nothing. It would not take long for an army of the kind he has gathered to melt away and disappear in the mountains and jungles of Luzon.

That portion of the dispatch relating to the Visayans refers to the operations of which Iloilo is the base.

Acting-Secretary Meiklejohn to-day said that the receipts in the Philippine Island since the Americans took possession, on August 13, 1898, up to the first of January were $1,819,813. The receipts for January, February and March, so far as reported, were $1,168,666, of which amount $40,000 is from Iloilo and $40,000 from Cebu. It is believed that the total showing of $2,988,480 would have been much larger had all the ports of the islands been in our possession.

The Capture of Iloilo.

San Francisco, April 4.—A staff correspondent of the Associated Press with the American troops in the Philippine Islands sends by the steamer Nippon Maru the following notes from the field:

The engagement which resulted in the capture of Iloilo was begun by the insurgents firing on the Petrel. The Boston and Petrel replied with shells, which soon laid the place in ruins. The insurgents then retired after burning the town. Most of the white people were out on the transports when the conflagration started. One instance is known where this was not the case, and it was one calculated to steady the aim of every soldier in Iloilo. The insurgents captured an English girl, and, locking her up in a house, burned it down over her head. She managed to escape, but died shortly afterward of her injuries.

Iloilo now presents a sad spectacle of desolation. All that is left of the once beautiful city are a few buildings along the water front. Already, however, matters are becoming settled. A post-office has been established, also a courthouse and all the necessary offices for transacting the business of the State.

The Americans have captured a battery of seven guns from the insurgents and brought their prizes into the city. The losses of the insurgents on this island are not known, as they removed their dead and wounded from the field.

WAGES INCREASED.

Fully 130,000 Cotton Workers in New England Benefited.

Boston, April 4.—Cotton mills generally in the New England States, operating more than three-quarters of the total number of spindles in the North, began the week under an advanced wages scehdule, which in nearly all of the mills is about the same as that which existed prior to the general reduction made in the early part of 1898, and which it is estimated, directly affects from 130,000 to 140,000 hands employed by more than 120 corporations. The reduction made in 1898 averaged a little more than 10 per cent.

Wages were advanced last week in the Atlantic and Pacific Mills at Lawrence, at the Exeter Manufacturing Company of Exeter, N. H.; the Pittsfield Mills at Pittsfield, N. H., and one or two others, and in most of the cotton mills in Rhode Island, New Hampshire, and Maine as well as a large number in this State, including the corporations of Fall River, which employ more than 27,000 hands, the mills of New Bedford, employing about 9,000 and those at Lowell, with from 17,000 to 20,000 operatives. Of the New Hampshire mills, the Amoskeag corporation of Manchester has about 8,000 on its pay-roll. The fifteen mills owned by Robert Knight in Rhode Island and in this State are included in to-day's advance.

The restoration gives general satisfaction in manufacturing centres, although in a small number of places the operatives assert that the advance is not as great as the reduction of 1898. The slashers of Fall River have informed the manufacturers that the adjustment is not altogether satisfactor, but no serious trouble is anticipated. The weavers at one of the Parkhill Company's mills in Fitchburg have struck because the advance was too small, but an early adjustment is expected.

There also is some dissatisfaction at the Lancaster Mills, in Clinton, and at one or two other points.

Epidemic of Expositions.

Philadelphia, April 4.—The list of industrial expositions which are to be held during the next few years is a large one. During the present season Omaha is to repeat, and, if possible, eclipse her success of last year by holding a "Greater America" exposition. It is stated that the expenditures on its building and grounds already aggregate $2,000,000. Philadelphia's exposition is well under way.

In 1900, nobody ventures to compete with the attractions which Paris will offer. For 1901, however, Buffalo and San Francisco have expositions enterprises under way. The first-named city has already raised a large amount of money, and is appealing to State and National treasuries for a million more. San Francisco has fixed on a name for its display. "The Pacific Ocean and International Exposition."

In 1902 Toledo proposes to celebrate the centennial of Ohio's admission to the Union, and is already raising funds in an enthusiastic fashion. St. Louis and New Orleans propose exhibitions for 1903, but have made no definite arrangements as yet. On the other side of the water, Glasgow is preparing for an exhibition in 1901, which will doubtless secure many of the exhibits that have been shown at Paris.

Batteries for the Philippines.

New York, April 4.—Three batteries of United States artillery, from the forts in this section of the country are to-day en route for the Philippine islands. Battery F, Fourth Artillery, from Fort Adams, R. I., was landed this morning at the West Shore Depot in Weehawken, by the Fall River liner Plymouth. Two other batteries belonging to the Fifth Artillery, from the forts in New York harbor, were put aboard the same transcontinental train by the army transfer boat Fred Meigs.

Each battery numbers 120 men and four officers, and is supplied with a hospital outfit. The men are in high marching order. At the last moment the batteries were directed to leave their guns in the East. When they reach San Francisco the artillerymen will be given new field rifles which have made for the use of smokeless powder.

Alabama Iron Works Purchased.

Birmingham, Ala., April 4.—The Empire Steel and Iron Company, recently formed in New York, which is purchasing a number of idle furnace plants in the East, which it will develop, has bought the Bay State Iron Furnace at Fort Payne, and is said to be after several other inactive plants in this State, Georgia, and Tennessee, with a view to reviving them. The Bay State Furnace was built by New Englanders during the boom at Fort Payne ten years ago, but has been idle for several years. It is owned by the Bessemer Land and Improvement Company of Bessemer, Ala. The Empire Company's plan is said to be to secure and develop idle furnace plants throughout the South and West, and thus become a large producer of pig iron. New York capitalists are said to be behind it.

Thanks from Mr. Kipling.

New York, April 4.—Mr. Kipling sat up yesterday for the first time. One of the first things he did was to write the following letter to the newspapers:

Dear Sir.—Will you kindly allow me through your columns to attempt some acknowledgment of the wonderful sympathy, affection and kindness shown toward me during my recent illness, as well as of the unfailing courtesy that controlled its expression? I am not strong enough to answer letters in detail, so I must take this means of thanking, as humbly as sincerely, the countless people of good-will throughout the world who have put me under a debt I can never hope to repay. Very faithfully yours.

Beef Inquiry to End.

Washington, April 4.—The beef inquiry board had no witnesses to-day. Major Lee, who represents Major-Gen. Miles, presented an additional list for the board to summon. It was considered in executive session. The examination will be resumed to-morrow.

Among those ready to testify is Major Daly, who first made the charge that refrigerated beef was chemically treated. Gen. Miles also will be given an opportunity to reappear. The Board is anxious to close the inquiry, and it is believed will be able to finish the testimony this week.

HONORING OUR HEROES

President McKinley Recounts the Deeds of the Soldiers.

MILES MAY AGAIN TESTIFY

At the Interment on Thursday All Proper Military and Naval Honors Will Be Paid—National Ensign to Be at Half Mast—Military and Naval Honors.

Washington, April 4.—The President to-day issued the following executive order:

"It is fitting that in behalf of the Nation, tributes of honor be paid to the memories of the noble men who lost their lives in their country's service during the late war with Spain. It is the more fitting, inasmuch as in consequence with the spirit of our free institutions and in obedience to the most exalted promptings of patriotism, those who were sent to other shores to do battle for their country's honor under their country's flag, went freely from every quarter of our beloved land. Each soldiers, each sailor, parting from home ties and putting behind him private interests in the presence of the stern emergency of unsought war with an alien foe, was an individual type of that devotion of the citizen to the State which makes our Nation strong in unity and in action.

"Those who died in another land left in many homes the undying memories that attend the heroic dead of all ages. It was fitting that with the advent of peace, won by their sacrifice, their bodies should be gathered with tender care and restored to home and kindred. This has been done with the dead of Cuba and Porto Rico. Those of the Philippines still rest where they fell, watched over by their surviving comrades, and crowned with the love of a grateful nation. The remains of many brought to our shores have been delivered to their families for private burial. But for others of the brave officers and men who perished there has been reserved interment in ground sacred to the soldiers and sailors, amid the tributes of military honor and National mourning they have so well deserved.

"I therefore order that upon the arrival of the cortege at the National cemetery at Arlington, all proper military and naval honors be paid to the dead heroes; that suitable ceremonies shall attend their interment; that the customary salute of mourning be fired at the emetery, and that on the same day at 2 o'clock p. m., Thursday, the 6th day of April, the National ensign be displayed at half staff on all public buildings, forts, camps, and public vessels of the United States, and that 12 o'clock noon of said day all the departments of the Government at Washington shall be closed.

"WILLIAM M'KINLEY."

"Executive Mansion, April 3, 1899."

In the same connection Acting Secretary of War Meiklejohn issued this order:

"The remains of officers and soldiers who lost their lives in the war with Spain during the operations in Cuba and Porto Rico will be interred with due and fitting ceremonies in the national cemetery at Arlington, Va., on Thursday, April 6, at 2 p. m. By direction of the President, all of the United States troops serving in the vicinity of Washington, together with the National Guard of the District of Columbia, will be assembled at Arlington on the date in question to participate in the funeral ceremonies."

A REMARKABLE SWINDLE.

Half of the Funds of a Building and Loan Association Stolen.

Buffalo, April 4.—A bold swindle on the stockholders of the Globe Savings and Loan Association has been disclosed and the chief swindlers are under arrest. They are John L. White, said to be a lawyer of New York city, with an office at No. 220 Broadway, and Charles L. Eastwood, also of New York. Other participators in the swindle are being sought by the police. One of these, whose name is not disclosed, paved the way for the swindle. He came here about four weeks ago, representing himself as a New York lawyer, and approached the officers of the Globe Association with a project of a building-association trust, by which much additional money could be made for the stockholders. These officers swallowed the bait, eight of the twelve directors of the asociation resigned, and a new board was elected containing Eastwood, White, and one or two other strangers. Then the old officers resigned, and White was chosen president and Eastwood secretary and treasurer, these offices having been combined by a change in the by-laws.

Mr. Miller, the former treasurer of the association, introduced Eastwood at the banks where the association had on deposit an aggregate of $21,800. Later, Eastwood visited the City National Bank without Miller, but with another stranger for whom the police are looking. He told the bank officials that the association had bought land in Queens county from the stranger for $10,500, and he identified the stranger, for whom the bank cashed a check for the amount named, signed by Eastwood as secretary and treasurer of the association. The detection of the swindle came about when Eastwood tried to transfer the association's money from other banks to the City Bank. President Block of the Citizens' Bank was suspicious and warned the attorney of the association.

The association will lose nothing, as the old officers have placed $10,500 in the hands of the counsel for the association if the money paid out by Eastwood is not recovered. It is admitted by these former officials that they received valuable inducements to allow the Eastwood-White crowd to get control of the association, but it is believed that they had any suspicion of a criminal purpose.

Greek Ministry Out.

Athens, April 4.—A committee of the Chamber of Deputies having declared that the election of M. Zaimis, the President of the Council of Ministers and Minister of Foreign Affairs, was invalid, owing to bribery and intimidation, the cabinet, after to-day's meeting, resigned.

Until April 1st, 1899.

Great Cut in Prices.

Full set of Teeth	$7 50
Filling at reduced Prices.
Extracting, one or two	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas Extracting	$1 00

TERMS, CASH.

DR. C. H. CLARK
Office at residence, 209 E. FRONT ST.

Mrs. John Brown

Successor to JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned

FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.

Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.

FRANK BURKE, Manager.

BICYCLES BICYCLES

George Gould,

AGENT FOR

VICTOR, PATEE, WAVERLY, IVANHOE and NASSAU SPECIAL

Rents, Repairs, Sundries and Storage.

326 PARK AVENUE.

CLIFTON BUILDING.

NEW YORK CITY AND COUNTRY WORK OUR SPECIALTY. Satisfaction guaranteed. Stages to hire.

OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

F. A. LONG, No. 106 SOMERSET ST. Near Manning Avenue.

Up-to-Date Cash Grocery Store

Orders called for and delivered in any part City or Dunellen.

ARLINGTON HOTEL.

(Splendid Mountain View.)

SOMERSET ST. AND GREENBROOK ROAD.

Charles Jensen, Prop'r.

First class bar. Large parlor with piano for parties, receptions etc. Stable and shed accommodations.

M. POWERS,

DEALER IN

LEHIGH COAL.

FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.

Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A.
Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

E. S. F. RANDOLPH.

DRUGGIST,

Cor. Liberty and Fourth Sts. Telephone 781

PRESCRIPTIONS FILLED DAY OR NIGHT.

TRY THE

QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,

No. 337 Park Avenue

(Miller Building.)

Goods called for and delivered free of charge.

Domestic or gloss finish.

H. HAND,

Licensed Auctioneer.

OFFICE— Corner South Ave. and Berckman St.

REAL ESTATE and FIRE INSURANCE.

11 16 1m

HOTEL KENSINGTON

(Licensed)

J. H. Staats, Prop'r.

107, 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.

EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

Wm. J. Pearson,

(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)

Carpenter and Builder

15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to.

SOMERSET HOTEL

Somerset St. and Lincoln Place.

North Plainfield, N. J

W. F. DREYER, Proprietor.

AMPLE ACCOMODATIONS FOR MAN AND BEAST.

F. A. DUNHAM,

CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.

109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87 B.

I. C. Pope & Co.,

INSURANCE AGENTS,

110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

WHY DO YOU SUFFER so long with an aching tooth? We think there is nothing worse. So easy to prevent it if you would have them examined more often. Stop the pain and save the tooth when you can. We always need all we have, and of course never miss them till they're gone. Free advice for the asking.

OFFICE HOURS 8 TO 6.

Full Set guaranteed	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown (22 k.)	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c to 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. O. W. LEONARD,
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.
Over City National Bank
Entrance on Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

Arrival and Departure of Mails

NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30 a. m., 3:00, 5, 6:20 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m., 12:30, 2:00, 5:00, 7:20 p.m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m., 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—8:40 and 11:30 a. m., 1:00 and 3:00 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a. m., 5:00 p. m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M

STAGE ROUTE.

Plainfield and Scotch Plains.

STAGE LEAVES PLAINFIELD (E. FRONT ST., OPP. PARK AVE.) 9:30 a. m., 12:45, 4:00 and 6:00 P. M.

STAGE LEAVES SCOTCH PLAINS (FRONT POST OFFICE) 10:30 a. m., 2:00, 5:00 and 7:00 p. m.

Upon notice a special stage will be held for parties of six or more attending the theatre or other attraction.

THOS. S. NEWMAN, Prop.

FRENCH

Plate glass mirror, oak mantel, complete with summer front, for $13.00. You can't equal it elsewhere.

CURTIS M. THORPE,

310-312 PARK AVE.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills

25c.

A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.

MALLINSON'S

North and Watchung avenues.

EASTER

Cards and Novelties.
Paas Egg Dyes at

HARPER'S,

411 Park Ave Plainfield, N. J

RUSHMORE & CO.

WATCHUNG AVE.

and FOURTH ST

Dealers in

Lumber, Coal and Wood

Moulding & Planing Mill

Turning and Scroll Sawing.

L. A. HUMMER,

Variety Market.

Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.

163 SOMERSET STREET.

Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.

MONEY TO LOAN.

197 North Ave.

Wm. D. Thickstun. John P. Emmson

Telephone 601.

An Enormous Stock of

EASTER PLANTS

and flowers at Stanley's two stores, 135 and 142 North Ave. Lilies, Azeleas, Spireas, Hyacinths, etc. Also a large quantity of assorted plants at bargain prices. Rubber plants, Palms, Ferns, etc., etc. Inspection invited.

Charles L. Stanley,

135 AND 142 NORTH AVENUE.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:30 p. m.

156 North avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week

$5 a year—in advance.

No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada

Delivered by carrier or by mail.

The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district

Any subscriber failing o receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N.J., APRIL 4 1899.

FEATURES OF TODAY'S PRESS.

PAGE 1.—Important local news.
PAGE 2.—Telegraphic news.
PAGE 3.—Telegraphic news.
PAGE 4.—Editorial and gossip.
PAGE 5.—Vicinity news.
PAGE 6.—Woman's department.
PAGE 6.—German news.
PAGE 7.—Miscellaneous.
PAGE 8.—Sporting and local news.

COMING EVENTS.

April 3—Missionary study class will be organized at the Y. M. C. A.
April 3—Ball and cakewalk of Twilight Social Club at Crescent Rink.
April 3—Common Council meets.
April 3—Rutgers College Glee Club at Y. M. C. A. Hall. Benefit Plainfield High School Athletic Association.
April 4—Recital by Mrs. Frank J. Smith at the Casino.
April 6—"Feast of All Nations," lecture room Trinity Reformed church.
April 6—Bel-bazzar at the Casino.
April 6—"Natural Gas" at Music Hall. Benefit of stage hands.
April 8—Concert by the Cecelia Bradford Trio at Y. M. C. A. Hall.

The Easiest Way

To rent your house if it is in prospect of remaining vacant for the next twelve months is to step into or send to The Daily Press office a small advertisement for the Cent-a-word Column.

The Cost Is Trifling

When you consider the profitable results that may come from such publicity. Thousands of Plainfield people have tried it and found that the plan

Works and Pays Well.

Municipal elections will be held Tuesday of next week in Newark, Jersey City, Paterson, Trenton, Hoboken and other North Jersey cities, and much interest is being manifested in the result. Each party is making a most determined effort for victory. The Republicans have strong hopes of carrying Newark, Paterson and Trenton, and reducing the Democratic majority in Jersey City. A Republican triumph would mean an endorsement of the record made by the late Legislature, while a defeat would signify its condemnation. The Democrats, on the other hand, feel confident of a victory in nearly all of the contests.

Josephus Shann, who has been one of the pillars of Union county Democracy for these many years, and is of the old Jeffersonian school, has been prevailed upon to accept the Mayoralty nomination of the party in Rahway. Mr. Shann is one of the old-time editors of New Jersey, and for many years was one of the leaders in this section of the State. Mr. Shann merits the confidence of the voters; if he is elected he will be a Democrat, but not one that will illy consider the needs of the office he has been nominated for.

The Real Estate News, edited by the great and only Silas Dewey Drake, takes a novel view of Plainfield, as follows:

Plainfield is not dead, and if not asleep is very sick. If asleep, it should be awakened; it has slept long enough. If sick, call the doctor, whether it be an allopath or homœopath. Get a doctor who will put it on the right path. We believe that Plainfield is suffering merely from a sort of spring fever trouble, one of those tired feelings, which very many people have who are waiting for some one to come along and drop some money into their lap. The kind of a feeling that some one else ought to do something.

The Hon. James Hamilton Lewis, late Congressman from Washington, whose picturesque personality in the National Capitol made him one of the passing celebrities of the Democratic party during his term, has accepted an invitation to all the Jeffersonian dinners that are on tap in New York. The abundance of the Hon. Mr. Lewis' appetite is not exactly known, but his capacity for talk justifies the suspicion that whether it is a ten to one or a one to ten strike he will be all right in his element when cigars are reached.

The new rule adopted by the New York Clearing House, requiring banks affiliated with it to charge customers a ten cent fee for collecting out-of-town checks, will probably have the effect of making the use of postal money orders more popular, inasmuch as the extra expense of the check paying will fall on the drawer.

It has been pointed out that of the 52 000 000 square miles of the whole world 22 288 152 are held in colonial or protectorate form and that all of this territory has been acquired by Christian Governments since 1500 and the greater part since 1600.

Perhaps the reason Governor Voorhees no decided opinions about the trusts which seek a refuge in New Jersey is because he feels that there are two sides to every argument. The astute politician is very careful about such things.

Missouri calculates to become a rival of New Jersey in the trust making business by adopting a system of corporation laws similar to those in the State. Thus New Jersey is put in the light of a bad example.

Elizabeth officials have taken up the matter of better streets in a thoroughly earnest way. Well, it is time, for of all the towns in New Jersey there are none that possess worse streets than Elizabeth

In comparison to the amount of advantage that New Jersey affords the trusts of the country the State is but slimly recompensed for the State's protection and encouragement.

Truth is stanger than fiction and this leads the Chicago News to observe that there are lots of people who are averse to associating themselves with strangers.

One by one Plainfield is losing the municipal institutions that identifies it with the old days. The passing of the volunteer fire department is evidence of it.

Isn't it about time for Newark citizens of both parties interested in having the best possible kind of government to get together? —Newark News.

That depends upon the point of view.

Former Mayor William S. Strong has declined to be a candidate for Mayor again on the Democratic ticket in New Brunswick.

No one would complain if the anticipated increased tax rate was an April Fool joke.

The day of perpetual franchises is rapidly drawing to a finish.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

Harry Mitchell, of West Third street, is the proud father of an eighteen months-old boy who seems possessed of marvelous strength for one so young. Yesterday he amused himself throwing 7-pound flat-irons around, and could actually hurl them a distance of five feet.

* * * * *

When the work of improvements is completed at the City Industrial Home it will be second to none in the State. The interior improvements are progressing favorably and will provide greater comfort for the inmates. It is the intention of the committe to purchase a cow so that all the milk necessary can be secured. At present the city pays from $6 to $10 every month for milk and it is considered cheaper to own a cow. Chickens will also be purchased and the inmates will be supplied with fresh eggs. Other improvements are now pending and will be realized at an early date.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss Jeanette Kohn, of this city, is visiting relatives in Paterson.

Julius Williams, of Elmwood place, is in Philadelphia for a short time on business.

Miss Marion Henderson, of the Teachers' College, New York, is visiting her friends, the Misses Thompson, of Rockview avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Taylor, of Fairview avenue, will shortly remove to their new residence on Westervelt avenue, across the brook, which their their many borough friends sadly consider a loss, and consequently the city's gain.

The many friends of William M. Patterson, of New York, will be glad to know that his engagement to Miss M. Josephine Lockitt, daughter of Mr and Mrs. William Lockitt, of the Park Slope, Brooklyn, has just been announced.

The many friends of Councilman Murray Burtis will be pleased to learn that his children, Miss Marjorie and Master Willie, are slowly recovering from a severe attack of that most tiresome of children's complaints, the whooping cough.

DOES COFFEE AGREE WITH YOU?

If not, drink Grain-O—made from pure grains. A lady writes: "The first time I made Grain-O I did not like it but after using it for one week nothing would induce me to go back to coffee." It nourishes and feeds the system. The children can drink it freely with great benefit. It is the strengthening substance of pure grains. Get a package today from your grocer, follow the directions in making it and you will have a delicious and healthful table beverage for old and young. 15 and 25c.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders.

—Press want ads pay.

—The East Third Street Sunday-school will elect officers next Sunday afternoon.

—Dropping her head on the table she cried, "Why didn't you buy those goods at Peck's."

—The Loyal Temperance Legion are preparing to give their second entertainmet April 15th.

—Miss Sarah A. Palmer has removed her studio from 123 East Sixth street to 132 Crescent avenue.

—The annual meeting of the Exempt Firemen's Association will be held in their rooms tomorrow evening.

—"Five Things Worth Knowing" is the subject of tomorrow night's meeting in Trinity Reformed church.

—St. Mary's Parochial School will reopen tomorrow for studies, the pupils having then completed the Easter vacation.

—Since Dr. Buchanan has been borough physician he has been kept pretty busy looking after the borough's sick people.

—Their will be a regular meeting of Warren Engine company this evening to transact important business. The company will elect officers next month.

—Next Friday evening at Grace M. E. church the regular monthly business meeting of the Epworth League will be held. A full attendance is desired.

—On Wednesday last a parcel was lost containing a silk waist. It was advertised that day in The Press, and on Thursday it was found by Frank Burke and returned to the owner.

—The annual meeting of the society of the Park Avenue Baptist church will be held Wednesday evening, April 12th, for the election of three trustees and the transaction of other business.

—Schepflin & Schultz, the enterprising clothiers, for which M. J. Castlin is the manager, report large sales for next week. Their stock of seasonable goods cannot be surpassed.

—Those who furnished the instrumental music at the First Baptist church Easter were: Howard Case, organist; C. P. Malli, 'cello; P. Ludwig Conde, violin; Mrs. B. T. Barnes, piano.

—Several photographs of the Easter decorations at the First M. E. church were taken yesterday morning. Mrs L. J. Denton arranged the decorations and they attracted considerable attention.

—The annual meeting of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church will be held in the chapel of that church tomorrow evening at o'clock. There will be election of deacons and an elder and the reports for the year will be made.

—A parlor meeting will be held at the Congregational church parsonage on West Seventh street, Thursday afternoon, when the women of the church will meet a mission worker from China.

—The members of the Women's Relief Corps will attend the funeral services of their sister, Mrs. John Angleman, to be held tomorrow afternoon from the home of I. L. McVoy, 305 East Front street.

—Of the concert given by the Cecelia Bradford Trio, of New York, the Toronto Globe says: "It was one of the most enjoyable musical entertainments which a Toronto audience is likely to listen to during the coming season."

—Economy is wealth, and all housekeepers in order to carry out the plan of saving money, and by so doing get the best and largest articles for the least money, must visit VanEmburgh's new department in their well-lighted basement.

—Friday evening last a pleasant birthday party was given to Wm. Hurst, of Netherwood avenue, by a large number of his friends. The evening was passed in playing games, dancing, etc., and it was early in the morning when the guests departed.

—At that 10 cent wonder department at VanEmburgh's you buy window shades at 10 cents; 1,200 sheets of fine toilet paper 10 cents; extra fine writing paper 10 cents a box; Acme steel frying pans 10 cents; one quart bottle of amonia, fine article, 10 cents. We invite you to inspect.

THE COURTS

JUSTICE MOSHER.

Summons issued—In the case of Coffey against Knight, on contract, returnable April 9th.

The Appetite of a Goat

Is envied by all poor dyspeptics whose Stomach and Liver are out of order. All such should know that Dr. King's New Life Pills, the wonderful Stomach and Liver Remedy, gives a splendid appetite, sound digestion and a regular bodily habit that insures perfect health and great energy. Only 25 cents at any Drug Store.

Moving Time

This is the time that tries men's souls. Many annoying things occur to vex the heart of the good housewife. Things are broken or lost, carpets and shades don't fit, new furniture is needed, old articles must be replaced by something more in keeping with new surroundings, new conditions develop new needs, etc. etc., until distraction almost ensues. But as "every cloud has a silver lining"—just so is there a way out of all your perplexities. Your wants may be so easily, quickly and satisfactorily met by calling on us and making known your needs. If you want Carpets, we have them and they were never so cheap, never so beautiful and entirely new. If shades are needed they are here, mounted on best spring rollers in any desired color. If your windows require odd sizes we can make them for you at once. Does your Kitchen need a new covering? Oil Cloths and Linoleums may be had for the asking. We lay them for you if you wish it. Worn places in carpets may be covered by rugs. A special Wilton Nubia Rug (worth $1.25) at 98c. will answer the purpose. If your Library, Dining Room or Office needs a new art-square, say about 9x12, you may have one of Ingrain, Reversible Jute, Reversible Wool or Wilton Velvet from $6.98 to $33, according to your taste or the condition of your pocketbook. It may be that your table needs replenishing with some new dishes. Several new Open Stock dinner patterns imported for the first time this season may be the means of relieving this difficulty. Kitchen utensils perhaps should be replaced by articles that are brighter, newer and more convenient. We are not sure but that the servent girl question might be solved in great measure by more liberal patronage of our culinary department. Lace Curtains, Chenille Curtains, Tapestry Curtains, Sash Curtainings, Vestibule Lace, Curtain Poles and Fixtures, Upholstery Tapestries, etc. All kinds of Furniture we sell cheaper than any other house in the business.

REMEMBER THIS.

All our goods are new, fresh and reliable. No Auction goods handled, no old goods from other stores.

Wednesday's Specials.

$1.25 English Whip Cord Suitings	98c
50c French Flannel Suitings	35c
12 1-2 Printed Drapery Demins	9c
10c Silkalines (all new patterns)	8c
15c Printed Dimities	12½c
Merrimack Shirting Prints	3½c
10c Pillow Cases (45-in) hemmed	8c
39c Sheets, 81 x 90	34c
Best 5-4 Table Oil Cloth	11c yd
Two Wrapper Specials at	69c and 89c
No. 40 Taffetta Ribbon, all colors, Moire or plain	20c
Best Soft Finish Cambric	3½c
Imperial Crepe Paper	8c roll

DOWN STAIRS.

$3.00 Parlor Rockers	$1.98
10.00 Combination Writing Desk and Book Case	7.50
10.00 Baby Coaches	7.50
1.00 each Dining Chairs	86c
7.00 Dressers	$5.98
5.00 Oak Writing Desks	3.98
3.00 Crib and Spring	2.48
2.50 Cradle Spring	1.98
1.39 Wilton Nubia Rugs, fringed ends	1.25
1.25 " " " bound ends	98c
10c Whisk Brooms	3 for 25c

Above Specials for Wednesday only and the Cash Trading Stamp with all specials.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,

234-236-238 WEST FRONT ST.

PECK'S CORNER.

It is not necessary to buy poor goods to economize when

PECK

is here with goods that have value at about the same price.

Look at his line of DRESS TRIMMINGS & DRESS LININGS. Exceptional values.

Look at 3 PAIR HOSE AT $1.00.

Look at LACES AND EMBROIDERIES. Cannot be equalled.

GEO. W. COLE,

—UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,—

200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.

OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

H. DeMOTT,

UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER.

Residence and office 59 Somerset St.

TELEPHONE 248 B.

DIED.

ANGLMAN—In Bayonne, N. J., Sunday, April 2d, 1899, Sarah B., wife of John H. Anglman, aged 38 years, 5 months.

Funeral services at the residence of her brother-in-law, Isaiah L. McVoy, 305 East Front street, Wednesday, April 5th, at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited. 4 3 2

WANTS AND OFFERS

FOR SALE—7 room house, on Manson place, a great bargain; 10 per cent down, balance monthly payments. Plainfield Real Estate Co. 4 1 3

TWO new, 10 room dwellings, all modern improvements, small mortgages will exchange for larger dwelling. Chas H. Lyman, 215 North avenue, over Mallinson's drug store. 4 1 3

FIVE rooms with bathroom and attic to let. 717 South avenue. 3 31 6

ROOMS to rent. Enquire 27 Somerset place. 3 31 7

BEAUTIFULLY situated farm, of 118 acres, near Plainfield, all under high state of cultivation, running brook through the property, dwelling 16 rooms, in good order, new out building, will be sold at a great bargain, or exchange same for nicely situated dwelling in Plainfield. Chas. H Lyman, 215 North avenue, over Mallinson drug store. 4 1 3

TO LET—Double House, all improvments, recently been placed in complete order. 407 LaGrande Ave. Enquire Agents or B O Bowers. t-s tf

TO LET—Seven room house, 215 Richmond street; newly papered and painted. Inquire 705 Berkman street. 4 4 2

WANTED—Housework help, part of each day. Address W. C., care Press

TO RENT—Half double house, 10 rooms, 351 East Third street; rent $16. Call 353 East Third street 3 20 12

NINE ROOM HOUSE to let all improvements, East Second street. Enquire Wm. Newcorn, 204 West Front street. 2 21 tf

BARN to let, Second street, near Watchung avenue. Apply at Daily Press office. 3 13 tf

WANTED—Girl for general housework, must have reference and be a good cook. Apply this evening, 319 LaGrande avenue.

FIRST-CLASS help and first class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

WANTED—Houses to rent from $15 up. Elston M. French & Co. 2 1 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

NICELY situated dwelling, value $4,000 cash, free and clear, to exchange for larger property; send description of what you have to Chas H. Lyman, 215 North avenue. 4 1 3

6 ROOM house, new, near Netherwood station; to let or for sale. Sherwin's shoe store. 3 22 tf

DESIRABLE rooms with board, eight minutes walk to station 21 Sandford avenue. 3 7 tf

FOR SALE—Stone stepping blocks, hitching posts flagging and curbing. Mrs. L. Kuhn, 32 Watchung avenue, 2nd door from the race. 3 17 14

FOR SALE—10 per cent down, balance monthly payments; two new 6 room dwellings, situated on West Front street, near Grant avenue. Plainfield Real Estate Co., 215 North avenue. 4 1 3

SACRIFICE house, barn and lot, 60 by 160. North Plainfield; price $2,700. Address Owner, care Press. 3 30 6

FOR SALE—Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine, No. 9, in good condition; cheap. Call at 303 Madison avenue 3 28 tf

5 LARGE airy rooms to let, corner Somerset street, and Manning Ave. Apply David D Smalley, 33 Manning avenue. 3 29 6

FOR SALE cheap, nearly new house, 6 rooms, in North Plainfield; good location; terms to suit. Don't pay rent; buy and save money. Inquire 148 or 160 Duer street. 3 21 tf

TO RENT—The new dwelling house, 929 Madison avenue; has all the modern improvements throughout. Street macadamized to curb. Apply to John M. Whiton, 821 Central avenue, 3 17 tf

FARM of 108 acres, near Bernardsville, Somerset county, for sale or exchange for Plainfield property; two dwellings on property; plenty fruit; five barns; land well watered. E. D. Barrett, 148 East Fifth street 4 2 6

LOST—From 125 East Second street, a scotch terrier dog. His return will be appreciated and expense paid.

WANTED—Large pony, suitable for harness and saddle; must be sound and gentle price reasonable. Address W., care Press. 4 3 2

TO LET—Two houses, 719 and 721 East Second street. Apply owner 409 East Sixth street. 4 4 3

WANTED—A girl for general housework. Address Girl, care Press.

BOY wanted to work at plumbing. Call 23 Vine street, North Plainfield, N. J., C. W. Krausse.

TO LET—3 connecting rooms, 765 East Second street, no children. 4 4 3

WANTED—Cook or general housework girl, no colored. 97 Mercer avenue.

BOARDERS wanted, private family. Apply 62 Duer street, North Plainfield.

WANTED—50 or 75 bunches of stalks or clover hay, for cow feed. Address C. J. Ackerman, Clinton avenue City. 4 3 3 c

BOY wanted, 14 to 16 years old, to take care of horse, cow etc. Call J. C. Ackerman, Clinton avenue, near Samptown 4 3 3

6 ROOM house to let. 162 Manning avenue. 4 3 2

WANTED—Young girl (white) to assist with light housework and care for baby. Call 320 West Second street. 4 3 2

WANTED—Second-hand platform scales for weighing feed. C. A. Ives, box 87, Dunellen, N J. 4 3 2

BEAUTIFULLY situated property, in choice location of Brooklyn; cash value $12 000, mortgage $6 000 at 5 per cent, to exchange for Plainfield property of same value. Chas H Lyman, 215 North avenue. 4 1 3

WANTED—3 or 4 cheap rooms, in North Plainfield; state price. Address Y., care Press. 4 1 3

LARGE pleasant rooms, furnished or unfurnished; good table. 434 corner Fifth street and Watchung avenue. 4 1 6

TO LET—6 room house, $12 month; 163 Duer street. Inquire 148 or 160 Duer street. 3 21 tf

TO LET—Half house, city water; 6 rooms; $10 per month. Inquire at 138 Duer street. 3 30 tf

HEADQUARTERS FOR

Plants and Cut Flowers.

Chas. L. Stanley 142 North Avenue.

FLORAL DESIGNS A SPECIALTY.

Greenhouses, South Avenue, Netherwood.

SCIENTIFIC MASSAGE

Facial Massage and Steaming.

THERMO-ELECTRIC BATHS.

MISS HOLMES, 440 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J. 3 1 tf

MANICURING, 25 CENTS.

REMOVING CORNS, 25c.

SHAMPOOING, With Massage, 50c.

M. V. Stickle, 149 E. Fifth St.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
ABSOLUTELY PURE
Makes the food more delicious and wholesome
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, April 4.—Mrs. Josephine Dunham was treated to a genuine surprise Saturday in the shape of a birthday party. About thirty of her friends and neighbors came in near 6 o'clock, and began at once to make themselves at home. Mrs. Dunham went to Westfield the day before and did not return until Saturday afternoon so an opportunity was given the people to make preparations for the party. A bountiful supper was served about 7 o'clock, and a pleasant evening was spent with games and social chat.

The pupils of the Whittier and Lincoln schools are preparing to give an entertainment for the library fund soon. The entertainment will consist of an operetta, "Cinderella in Flower Land," with marches and drills. There will also be instrumental music by the pupils.

The young son of Andrew Johnson, who fell from a hayloft a week ago, breaking his left wrist, is doing well and will soon recover.

Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt C. Smith, of Somerville, spent Sunday with Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Swackhamer.

The Newark Conference of Methodists will meet in Newark Wednesday. Rev. E. S. Jamison will attend.

Lewis Willett and family have moved to Plainfield, where they will reside for the future.

Mrs J. W. Griggs, of New Brunswick, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter C. Staats.

Miss Eva Bodine, of Bayonne, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Bodine.

Irving Martine, of New York, spent Sunday with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. A. I. Martine.

Peter Stephen has rented a house in Somerville and expects to move there next week.

Miss Sarah Wall has returned to Newark after a pleasant visit with friends here.

Alexander Hunt and family, of Westfield, have been visiting relatives in the borough.

Mr. Benwood and family have moved into the Todd house in Dunellen.

Mr. Lyons, of Church street, entertained his father from Plainfield Sunday.

William Craig spent Sunday among friends at High Bridge and Clinton.

The board of education will hold their April meeting tonight.

George W. Churchill is confined to his home by illness.

John Beekman was a visitor in Plainfield Sunday.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, April 4—Wheelmen who are obliged to use Front street complain a great deal about the condition of the road from Leland avenue to Terrell road. It was bad enough when it was mud six inches deep on the hill, but it is worse for wheeling now than then, as a covering of rough stone has been thrown on the bed of the road and left in that condition without covering or rolling. This forces wheelmen to either walk for a mile or ride on the sidewalk and run the risk of being haled before the city court and paying a fine of several dollars. Surely Front street is used by wheelmen and wagons enough for the road to be cared for as it should.

The annual parish meeting of the Scotch Plains Baptist church was held in the parlors of the church last evening. In the absence of A. Beekon, president of the Board of Trustees, Dr. Parks was elected chairman. Norman Dunn acted as secretary. The treasurer's report showed a deficit of $860 65 during the past year. This was met by the board by drawing upon the estate funds of the church. The estimated deficit for the ensuing year has been placed at $900. The trustees elected for the ensuing year were Messrs. Westcott, Dunn, Hall, Beekon, Hoppell, Bornman and Noble.

A party of Scotch Plains people attended the Rutger's College Glee Club entertainment held at the Y. M. C. A. Hall in Plainfield last evening.

John Patterson, who has been visiting relatives and friends in town for several days, has returned to his home at Morris Plains.

Mr. and Mrs. Strong, of Boston, who have been visiting Dr. and Mrs. Westcott, of Fanwood, have returned to their home.

Wm. Jimerson who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Edward Wade has returned to his home at Lyons Farms.

The annual meeting of the Baptist church for business will be held in the parlor of the church tonight.

Miss Lulu Robison has been entertaining her friend, Miss May Browning, of Bridgeton, this State.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Stiliger, of Roselle, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. Stiliger's parents.

WESTFIELD

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Westfield, April 4—The case of Jos. Perry against J. W. Singer came up before Justice Toucey in the town rooms yesterday afternoon and after an hour's deliberation the jury brought in a verdict of $138 07 for the plaintiff. The suit was for an ice bill, Perry, according to the witnesses, having furnished ice to Singer without having been paid. Lawyer Swackhamer, of Plainfield, looked after the interests of Singer and Paul Q. Oliver appeared for the plaintiff.

After serving at the Central Railroad station in this town for the past four years as baggage master, Jas. E. Folsom has resigned to take a position in the office of the United States Express Company at Elizabeth. R. C. George, of First street, who served through the late war as a member of the 71st New York Regiment, has taken Mr. Folsom's place.

The people of Westfield were somewhat surprised yesterday when it was made known that Robert M. Crosby, son of B. J. Crosby, of this town, had been married at Dover Thursday of last week. The bride was Miss Emma Helene Able, of Ironia, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. W. J. Hampton, pastor of the Grace M. E. church at Dover.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. All druggists sell it at 50 cents or it will be mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, N. Y.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY.

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

William M. Smith, of Elmwood place, has returned from a visit with his sister in Orange.

—Aug. Wolf, the Front street cigar dealer, has removed to Somesset street near Front street.

—Justice Moffett and L Spangenberg have moved their office in the Marsh building to room No. 4.

—There will be a meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Monroe Avenue church on Thursday afternoon next.

—The Junior Endeavorers of Trinity Reformed church will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3:45 o'clock instead of Thursday.

—The annual parish meeting of the Crescent Avenue church will be held tomorrow evening in the chapel of the church.

—Tomorrow evening the annual parish meeting of the First Presbyterian church will be held in the chapel of the church.

—The Ladies' Sewing Society of the First Presbyterian church will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Searing, of Westervelt avenue.

—Next week Tuesday evening the annual parish meeting of the First Baptist church will be held to elect trustees and hear the various reports.

—Contractor Meeker began to lay the iron sewer pipes on Richmond street Saturday, and expects to keep on with the work until all the pipe is laid.

He Fooled the Surgeons.

All doctors told Renick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest Pile cure on earth, and the best Salve in the World. 25 cents a box. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

PEOPLE COME AND GO.

PERSONAL MENTION OF INTEREST TO PRESS READERS.

Some Come to Enjoy Pleasures of Plainfield, Others Journey to Either Mountain or Shore for Recreation.

Miss Bonnell, of Fifth street, is entertaining company from out of town.

William Bauer, of Somerville, spent Sunday with East Front street friends.

Charles Dupee, of Rockview avenue, is home from Yale University for the holidays.

Miss Alys M. Chandor, of East Fifth street, is home after a visit in New Brunswick.

Albert Sampson, of Jersey City, spent Easter at his home on East Fifth street.

Mrs. E. P. Williams, of West Seventh street, has returned after a week at Lakewood.

Miss Bertha Giles, of East Second street, has returned from a visit with Somerville friends.

Charles Johnson, of East Fifth street, has returned from a visit with out-of-town friends.

Miss Mattie Merrill, of Sandford avenue, spent Sunday in Newark with her sister, Miss Peterson.

Miss Gertrude Snodgrass, of Central avenue, is home from the Women's College at Baltimore.

Miss Adelaide Flory, of Bangor, Pa., is visiting her sister, Mrs Joseph Martin, of Park place.

Mrs. Charles Whitall, of East Second street, has returned after a sojourn in Philadelphia.

—The Browning Club will meet in the parlors of the Congregational church Friday evening.

George Graves, of Liberty street, has returned from New York, where he has been visiting friends.

Miss Helen A. Hazen, of Watchung avenue, is home from Mt. Holyoke College for the Easter holidays.

Miss Mildred Davies, of New Brunswick, spent yesterday with Miss Alys M. Chandor, of East Fifth street.

Miss Amy Caine, of Raritan, spent Sunday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. Hervey Buchanan, of Duer street.

Miss Katheryn Terry, of Albany, is spending the Easter vacation at the home of B. O. Bowers, of Franklin place.

Miss Ada Woodruff, of New York, has returned home after a visit with Miss Amy G. Burt, of West Seventh street.

Rhey T. Snodgrass, of Dickinson College, has returned to his home on Central avenue to spend the Easter holidays.

Mrs. Henry Angleman, of East Fourth street, has returned from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Apgar, of New York.

Raymond A. McGee, of Orchard avenue, now a student at Yale, is spending his Easter vacation with friends at Springfield, Mass.

Henry Weeks and family, of New York state, have returned home after a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. Henry VanName, of Elmwood place.

C. W. Burton, of Watchung avenue, has rented the McClure residence on Watchung avenue, which has just been entirely refitted and an addition built to it.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.
Sold by Druggists, 75c.
Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that, too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night, and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

AT RANDOLPH'S !

Roots and Herbs are numerous, yet we urge the combination of

Randolph's -:- Sarsaparilla

is one of the best to clean the blood. None better. Only 50 cents per bottle.

L. W. RANDOLPH,
Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.
PLAINFIELD, N. J. TELEPHONE CALL 109.

J. F. MacDonald.

UPTOWN GROCER, 186 E. Front Street.

20 Fresh Eggs, direct from farmers	25c
Best Jersey E. R. Potatoes	43c basket
Best Oil, 5 gal.	45c
Minnesota Flour	55c bag, $4.35 bbl
4 lbs. Carolina Rice	25c
Best Oatmeal	3c lb
Best Pure Lard, no compound	7c lb
Large California Prunes	4 lbs for 25c
O. K. B. Powder	18c
Gold Medal Milk	8c
Kirkman's Borax Soap (6 C. box)	23c
Fine Tomatoes	7c can
Fine Corn	6c can
N. O. Molasses	33c gal
2 bottles Best Maple Syrup	25c
Canned Salmon	8 can
Pea Beans	5c quart
Lima Beans	8c quart
Lemon and Ginger Snaps	5c lb

We won't say anything about our 20c Coffee. Everybody uses it.

When March winds blow,
And our face and hands chap so
USE CHAP CURE.
Manufactured only by
T. S. ARMSTRONG, "The Apothecary"
COR. NORTH AND PARK AVES.

JEWELRY.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.

Bead Chains 25c and 49c. Gold Chains 25c and 50c. Bracelets 25c and 50c
Buckles, Brooches, Waist Sets, Cuff Buttons, Belt Pins, etc.
We are agents for the
CELEBRATED "EIGHMIE" SHIRTS.

GRAND FAIR

under the Auspices of
Miantonomo Tribe, No. 118,
Improved Order of Red Men,
—AND—
Iona Council, No. 14, D. of P.
IN WASHINGTON HALL,
West Second St.,
Tuesday, April 4, to Saturday, April 8,
Inclusive.
DANCING EVERY EVENING
Unique novelties exhibited. Something new each night. 417

"Feast of all Nations"

IN THE LECTURE ROOM OF
TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH
Thursday Evening, April 6,
For Benefit of Young Women's Mission Band of the Church.
SUPPER a la Carte during the evening. If stormy the "Feast" will be continued the following evening.
ADMISSION . . 10c.
3 31 6

RECITAL

By Mrs. FRANK J. SMITH, assisted by
Miss Martha Miner, Soprano,
Mr. G. Morgan Stricklett, Tenor,
Mr. Frank J. Smith, Accompanist.
At the Casino,
TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 4, at 8:15
Tickets can be obtained at Armstrong's, Leggett's and Randolph's Drug Stores, or of the Patronesses.
PRICE ONE DOLLAR.

IF
your grocer says he does not keep our Flavoring Extracts, ask him to get them for you.
A. L. Kaerth & Co.
132 E. Second St.

Monroe B. Long, M. D., President. Eugene M. Laing, Vice-President.
Robert A. Meeker, Secretary. Robert J. Shaw, Treasurer.

THE UNION BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.
OFFICE, 203 PARK AVENUE.

Special Features

A uniform Loaning Rate of $8.67 Per month on each $1,000 borrowed. ANY additional amount may be paid in, no matter how small, with any monthly instalment; thus maturing the stock that much sooner.
It accommodates itself to the financial condition of the borrower instead of compelling him to pay a certain fixed amount each month.

Liberal Withdrawals With Interest

THE MEMBERS MAY WITHDRAW AT ANY TIME AND RECEIVE THE WHOLE AMOUNT PAID IN AND AFTER ONE YEAR SIX PER CENT INTEREST ON THE SAME.
The whole or any part of the loan can be paid off at any time.

A New Series Issued Every Month.

To Investors

PAID-UP OR INCOME STOCK, COSTING $60 PER SHARE AND BEARING 5 PER CENT INTEREST AND HAVING A MATURITY VALUE OF $100 PER SHARE is issued from time to time, as the board of directors may determine, and is especially desirable for those wishing a secure and profitable investment.
For further particulars inquire at the office 203 Park Ave., Room 8, or address the secretary,
R. A. MEEKER,
203 PARK AVE.

A GREAT OFFER

To the Public of Plainfield and vicinity by
CHARLES EISENBERG,
the well-known Painter, Paper Hanger and Decorator, who has opened a branch store
310 West Front Street,
(Stillman Building.)

I will paper any fair sized room, ceiling and walls, with the latest designs of gilt papers, including sizing and repairing from 94 up.
I also carry the finest and largest assortment of imported and domestic wall papers and decorations. I do first-class work in tinting, kalsomining and inside and outside painting at reasonable prices. Call at the store or send a postal card, and I will call on you with sample books, and cheerfully give estimates. I guarantee first-class workmanship.
Yours truly,
Chas. Eisenberg.

Stores—310 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J.; 812 Main street, Orange, N. J.; 61 Springfield avenue, Newark, N. J.; Warehouse 10, 12, 14 and 16 Mercer street, Newark, N. J. Phone, 1073 Plainfield. Open evenings until 9. Sample books to the trade.

A CONCERT

for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. will be given in Association Hall
Saturday Evening April 8th.
By the Cecelia Bradford Trio, of New York.
ADMISSION 25 cents. 436

E. D. BARRETT,

Sanitary Plumbing.
Steam and Hot Water Heating
Telephone 612. 148 East Fifth Street.
4 3 1m

CROSBY & HILL

SUCCESSORS TO EDWARD WHITE.

SPRING SEASON'S SELLING HAS BEGUN.

We've put winter behind us, the different sections are blooming with the freshness of spring. We'll try to tell you about the new merchandise as it arrives, endeavor to interest you in it, emphasize its merits, make an earnest effort to impress you favorably. Our showing is by far the best you have ever seen in this city; our aim is to show how worthy goods can be bought and sold with thoughts for the merchant and thoughts for the customer. We are striving to prove that our interests as store-keepers and your interests as store patrons are mutual. No shadow of extortion is permitted in our prices. The proudest dollar in the land and the poorest dollar of the breadwinner meet here on a footing of commercial equality.

The Millinery Showing.

The Millinery Department blossoms forth with a richness and elegance of wealth and beauty never before equalled in this city, (a fact every day admitted by the most competent judges). We invite you to participate in this showing. We have made elaborate preparations for a large business.

REMARKABLE GLOVE VALUES.

69c, the $1.00 quality.

Sixteen hundred pairs of Ladies' Kid Gloves of a very excellent quality, the colors are black, tan, mode, grey, pearl and white, the quality is equal to any dollar glove you have ever bought and will give splendid satisfaction.

$1.10, the usual $1.25 quality.

We show this morning about 1,000 pairs of Ladies' Kid Gloves of our own importation. Every new spring shade is included in the lot, the quality is equal to any $1.25 glove and is covered by our liberal guarantee.

Tailor-made Suits.

Everything we show in tailor-made suits is the season's newest product, made by manufacturers of the highest standing expressly for ourselves. The fit, the finish and the style will more than meet your expectation; the smallness of price will be the only disappointment.

7.98. Tailor-made suit, splendid quality of all-wool cheviot serge, jacket lined with silk rhadmere, skirt cut full and wide, lined with percaline; a regular $10 suit.

10.00. All-wool serge suits, jackets satin lined, skirts cut with the new flounce, very full and wide, lined with percaline. Colors are black, royal blue, navy blue and tan shades; the value is $12.50.

11.98. Six different styles of tailor-made suits of all the newest spring colorings, most of the jackets are taffeta silk lined and are the newest shapes shown; the values range from 12.50 to 17.50.

Separate Skirts and Spring Jackets.

3.50. Ladies' all-wool covert cloth jacket, made in correct style, tan shades only, fully worth 4.50.

5.00. Women's coats in all-wool venetian cloth, lined with rhadmere.

2.98. Ladies' dress skirts of brilliantine, mohair or serge, new flume cut, percaline lined and velvet bound; worth 3.50.

4.75. Ladies' dress skirts of all-wool cheviot and venetian cloth, percaline lined and velvet bound; worth 6.00.

5.00. Ladies' black taffeta waist, body and sleeves all small tucking, newest cut; worth 6.50.

The newest shapes and styles of cotton gingham and madras waists are all displayed here and are a wonderfully choice collection.

Neckwear for Men and Women.

Our showing of neckwear is very large, the styles are very nobby and new, the prices are disappointingly low.

17c for men's neckwear, usually sold at 25c. 39c for men's neckwear, usually sold at 50c.

The prices of ladies' neckwear range from 25c to 1.75; the variety is very large and includes everything that is new.

Carpet Dep't.

Our Carpet Department is located on the third floor and is easy of access by an elevator, a perfect daylight department. We are prepared to execute all orders promptly on the shortest notice. We quote a few interesting prices:

50c.—Best quality ten-wire tapestry carpets.
69c.—Saxony, Axminster Carpets, all choice new patterns.
59c.—Best quality all-wool Ingrain Carpets.

THE MARCH OF PROGRESS

in wall paper can best be witnessed in our magnificent stock, comprising all of the latest and artistic patterns, on paper of the very best texture.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.

Wall Papers, Paints, Oils, Glass, Etc.
201 Park Ave. Corner Second St.
Telephone Call 635. Estimates Furnished.

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York

FREY & MURPHY,

CUSTOM TAILORS

26 Somerset St.

Spring Samples Now Ready.

Largest Repairing and Cleaning Establishment in Plainfield.

Repairing and Cleaning properly done in a first-class manner.

Prices Low, Styles First-Class.

Everything for the Garden.

SWEET PEAS the choicest, fancy Lawn Grass Seeds and odorless lawn dressing.

'Phone No. 6.

A. M. Griffen, 119 East Front St.

IMPORTED

OLIVE OIL.

75c per Bottle.

Finest Quality Obtainable

POWERS' PHARMACY

Somerset Street and Craig Place.

Safe Deposit Vaults

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Of Plainfield, New Jersey.

Capital $200,000
Surplus and Profits $90,000

J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. BUNYON, Cashier
H. M. ERTL, Vice " D. M. BUNYON, Ass't

DIRECTORS:

Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Cortel.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Ertl.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Bushmore
J. W. Johnson. Wm. R. Goddington.
F. S. Bunyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per annum

VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

BANANAS 12c. and 15c. per doz.
ORANGES 15 and 18 for 25c.
Confectionery and fruit, lowest prices.

C. E. BICKNELL,
"On the Bridge." Somerset St.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,

Painters and Paper Hangers,

Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets

Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto--first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11 t

A. LUSARDI,

120 NORTH AVENUE.

Wholesale and Retail

Dealer in choice fruit of all kinds, of Confectionery, Peanuts' Cigars, etc. Soda Water of all flavors and always ice cold. Branch store corner Front and Somerset streets.

J. W. VAN SICKLE.

122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.

FRESH & SALTED MEATS,

GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.

Orders called for and delivered promptly.

TELEPHONE 148 b.

QUEEN WILHELMINA.

STORIES OF HOLLAND'S YOUNG AND POPULAR SOVEREIGN.

She Says that She Will Choose Her Own Husband, and that No State Matchmakers Need Apply—She is Intensely Loyal to Her Race.

When Queen Victoria inherited the British throne she was scarcely more popular than is the young Queen of Holland at the present moment. The Dutch simply adore their young sovereign, and take the most intense interest in her coming of age (which will take place next August), and in her possible marriage. Queen Wilhelmina is credited by her people with much force of character. It is thought that she will attempt to rule as well as reign, and her choice of a husband is therefore a matter of utmost importance to the Dutch. The "Wochen Zeitung," Amsterdam, says on this subject:

"The many rumors of the Queen's approaching marriage are premature. More than once she has declared that she would prefer to remain single as long as possible. At any rate, it is certain that the Queen will choose for herself. She will not be railroaded into marriage. Only recently she said: 'I love my loyal subjects, and hope to please them in every way. But if they believe that they have a voice in the choice of my husband, they are decidedly mistaken. If extreme measures should be resorted to against me, I shall be more energetic than ever. I will not be married at all if I am not allowed to have a voice in the matter.'"

So far the Dutch people are rather pleased with these expressions of independence. They are, however, anxious to have certain legal formalities settled before the Queen comes of age. The "Courant," Rotterdam, writes as follows:

"It will be necessary to define the position of the Queen before the law, to remove the conflict between the Queen's position as head of the state and his wife, and it is best that this should be done before she has chosen a husband. According to the civil code the wife is bound to obey her husband, and the latter has a right to demand that his children should be called by his name. More. The husband can compel his wife to reside in whatever place he thinks fit to choose as his abode. The Queen is not above the law; she must obey it as well as her subjects. The rights of the Prince Consort would therefore clash with the constitution, for the seat of government may not constitutionally be transferred to a foreign country. The Queen's exceptional position should be defined by special legislation while she is yet free."

Although there are many points of similarity between the position of the Queen of England and that of the Queen of Holland, there has sprung up between the two countries an estrangement since Wilhelmina inherited the throne of Holland. For some unaccountable reason the young Queen has a violent aversion of everything English. The British press returns this dislike with interest. "Her figure is ungainly, her lips are bloodless," etc., are things we read of her in "Life" and other English society papers. These descriptions are reported to her and do not assist her in overcoming her dislike of Englishmen. The "Vaderland" relates the following incident;

"During a recent tour abroad the Queen expressed a wish to the Dutch Ambassador accredited to a foreign court to meet his daughters. 'I do so wish to meet some Dutch girls,' she said. 'I am just dying for some one to speak to in my own language. Do send your daughters to me.' 'But my daughters do not speak Hollandish,' replied the unfortunate nobleman. 'My girls were not born in Holland; they only speak English.' 'Then, for heaven's sake, do not send them to me,' replied Queen Wilhelmina, wrathfully. 'I will have nothing to do with Dutch girls who do not understand their own language!'"

Wanted Spices of Variety in Life.

The expression of his face showed that he was easily irritated, and the contractor into whose office he walked braced himself for trouble.

"I wish," said the irritable man, "that you would do me a favor in connection with the work on my house."

"Anything that we can do will be cheerfully attended to."

"Thank you. I wish you'd send a new man to do the painting."

"But the one we have there is an excellent workman."

"I don't doubt that. But he's been there three days and he hasn't whistled anything but 'Tell Them that You Saw Me.' I'm pretty slow at catching a tune, but I've learned that with all the variations, and if it's just the same to you I'd like to start in on a new one."—Washington Star.

A Wise Precaution.

Mr. Williams: "Wha' yo' doin' dat fo', Mr. Jo'son—puttin' mosquito nets up dis time in de year?"

Mr. Johnson: "Waal, yo' see de doctor tole me de air war full of dese yer micro bees; so I's takin' precotions agin gittin' 'em into de house."

A Soft Language.

The Turkish language is said by scholars to be the softest and most musical language of modern times, being better adapted to the purpose of musical notation and recitation than even the Italian.

By washing the clothes at the undertaker's the second wife of a Bangor, Me., man is paying off the bill for the burial of her predecessor.

NEW MILLINERY.

Hats and Bonnets For the Theater and the Street.

White is much seen in spring hats, especially as trimming. Flowers are as largely used as they were last year, and water lilies, camellias, gardenias and magnolias are among fashion's floral favorites. The violet is not abandoned, however, and small clusters are tucked into the diaphanous trimmings of hats and bonnets and interspersed in fancy boas and muffs made of lace and chiffon. Even the entire fox-skins, with head and tail, which are still worn across the shoulders, are decorated with a bunch of violets fastened near the open mouth of the head.

SUMMER COSTUME.

For the theater little hats entirely of flowers are made. Some are of primroses, others of violets, still others of lilacs. Toques of feathers are seen for street wear and are trimmed with flowers.

Hats of mousseline de soie, puffed and shirred, are adorned with tulle, which composes a full lining for the brim—always of another color than that of the mousseline de soie—and an aigret trimming for the outside, mingled with flowers. For example, a hat of finely shirred black mousseline de sole is trimmed with white tulle and mauve orchids.

Bonnets of jet, gold, steel and colored spangles are still seen and are particularly pleasing for elderly women who consider floral bonnets too juvenile. Real lace, velvet, embroidery and feathers are all appropriate decorations.

All the richest applied embroidery is outlined with fine chenille, which gives a high relief, yet an effect of softness.

The picture illustrates an attractive gown which has two graduated skirts of accordion plaited pink voile. The bodice is of pink liberty satin, closely fitting at the back and forming a flat plait in front, delicately embroidered. The square guimpe is plaited. The tops of the sleeves are embroidered, and the belt and bow are of pink satin. The embroidered collar likewise has a pink satin bow. The little toque of green straw is almost covered with choux of pink taffeta and is additionally trimmed with black feathers.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

NEW MILLINERY.

Developments Seen at the Numerous "Spring Openings."

Wired ribbons and wired mousseline de sole serve a variety of purposes in millinery. Not only do they compose alert looking bows, but they are twisted into the resemblance to large flowers—roses, hollyhocks, dahlias and even gigantic pansies. The resemblance to the floral originals is somewhat conventional, but nevertheless perceptible, and such decorations often given a very smart effect.

NOVEL TOQUE.

A novel bow is made of points, or "ears," as they are called, of taffeta, finished at the edges with a tubular hem, which gives them stiffness. These are grouped together in a full ruche, like overlapping leaves, with longer ones at the ends, where two jeweled buckles appear.

Veils of lace, both white and black, are much employed as a trimming upon summer hats, being often draped over flowers or choux of mousseline de soie. Sometimes short ends of the veil are allowed to droop upon the hair at the back.

A lovely light, clear pink is largely used in models for warm weather millinery, and sometimes entire hats are made of it. It is more effective, however, when combined with white or black or both together.

Skirts with an inlet panel of different material or color are again in vogue, and bands of embroidery thus used are very effective. Guipure over a silk or satin lining is used in the same way.

The picture illustrates a novel toque of russet yellow straw. A cream lace veil, bordered with a ruche, is draped around the crown, the ends being tied at the back, so as to rest upon the hair. In front are a pheasant's head and breast, with the crest, and around them are arranged points of turquoise velvet, with a knot of the same material. The collar is also of turquoise velvet and is trimmed with cream lace.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.

TALE OF A PRODIGAL.

How a Waif of the Metropolis Rose Through the Woodyard.

A letter just received by the Charity Organization Society adds the concluding chapter to the history of one benefaction that must be pleasant for those concerned to look back upon. The record of this benefaction might well bear the inscription: "Saved Through the Woodyard." As set forth on the Society's books, it is a plain tale of what the gospel of honest work, when illuminated by sincere human interest, can do for man. Whenever the subject of this narrative was very hard up, the society gave him a woodyard ticket, and he worked out the price of a bed and a breakfast at the Wayfarers' Lodge.

This man applied for aid early in January of the present year. He was the worse for drink and for a fight, in which one eye had been blackened. He gave three references, and he got a woodyard ticket. His references were investigated, and it was found that he told the truth; that he was a good fellow and a clever workman, whose one weakness was drink. The society wrote to his home, which he had left fifteen years ago. They found that his father and brother were still living there; that they were still interested in him, but had lost track of him. Then the man was urged to write his family himself, and ask if they would receive him. Finally he assented, and a reply came inviting him to come back, and enclosing a ticket. He left the city, and was placed by a brother in a sanitarium for the drink habit. All these incidents occurred in January, and the man passed out of view of the society.

The letter just received here from his brother is the epilogue to this plain tale of a prodigal. It said in part: "My brother is entirely a new man now, and a good citizen in the city of his childhood. He says he would not change places with Grover Cleveland. The change has lifted a load off the hearts of my father and mother, and it will brighten their old age and comfort them as no words of mine can tell you."

THEY MUST BE LARGE.

Men on Jupiter Should be Over Sixty Feet High.

Although we must admit that the true facts in relation to the size and bodily formation of the beings on the planets will, perhaps, ever remain a matter of mere speculation, yet it is interesting to draw imaginary pictures of such creatures, even though their existence cannot certainly be proven. We cannot imagine an intelligent, responsible being that does not present the form and general outlines of a man, even though it be the lord of a planet 100 times larger than our own. This being the case, let us figure on the proportions of the giant planets—providing, of course, that such creatures exist. Man being the only standard we have to work from, we will use our own bodies and the diameters of this and other worlds as a basis for our calculations, and always suppose that the length and size of the planetary man bears the same ratio to the world he lives in that we do to ours. We all know the diameter of the earth and the average height of man, but who would believe that, if figured from the same basis, an inhabitant of Jupiter must be sixty feet in height and thirty-five feet around the chest under the arms? Such a creature would have a skull that would hold a wagon load of brains and each of his teeth would be larger than a tomato can!

The Tower Ravens.

I had long heard of the Tower ravens, says a London correspondent. They were there in 1789, and George Cruikshank, when he made his sketching visit in 1840, made drawings of them. Knowing the longevity of ravens I fondly imagined the present birds must be the original pair. Alas! my fancy was doomed to be shattered. "Jack" and "Sir William" have only been in these historic purlieus a few years, and they succeeded a pair of Essex ravens, whose unclipped wings soon suggested flight.

"They flew to St. Paul's," said General Milman, "and haunted the dome for months. As they were only seen on moonlight nights they occasioned a good deal of superstition. But nothing would induce them to return to the Tower, or their favorite feeding spot, which, by the by, was the site of the scaffold."

Where are the Pennies?

There are 119,000,000 old copper pennies somewhere. Nobody knows what has become of them, except once in a while a single specimen turns up in change. A few years ago 4,500,000 bronze 2-cent pieces were set afloat. Three million of these are still outstanding. Three million 3-cent nickel pieces are scattered over the United States, but it is very rarely that one is seen.—Boston Budget.

A Reasonable Query.

Mrs. Crimsonbeak—It is said that the ear of the cat is very sensitive; that it can hear a sound a long distance.

Mr. Crimsonbeak—Why in thunder, then, do they have to make so much noise at night when talking to one another?—Yonkers Statesman.

Not Needed.

Pat—Phot be yez doin'?

Mike—Buildin' a fince 'round the cimtery.

Pat—An' whot's the use of it Oi don't know, fer ther's no wan inside thot can get out an' no wan outside thot wants to get in!—New York Herald.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Aus der Rheinpfalz.

Speyer. Der Arbeiter Schimpf wurde in einer Fabrik zu Rockgrim vom Walzwerk erfaßt und ihm dabei der Unterleib zerquetscht. Er verstarb bald darauf.

Kaiserslautern. Der Direktor der hiesigen Pfälzischen Nähmaschinen- und Fahrradfabrik John Kayser ist gestorben. Im Jahre 1864 begründete er mit seinem vor mehreren Jahren verstorbenen Bruder Friedrich und zwei Arbeitern die Nähmaschinenfabrik, die 1890 in eine Aktiengesellschaft umgewandelt wurde und heute circa 1000 Arbeiter beschäftigt.

Mutterstadt. Im abgelaufenen Jahre wurden in der Gemarkung Mutterstadt 737¼ Morgen Zuckerrüben für die Fabrik Friedensau gepflanzt und 6,907,380 Kilo erzielt. Da für den Centner 95 Pfennige bezahlt wurden, ergibt sich eine Einnahme von 124,315.30 Mark. Dazu kommen 33 Prozent Gratisschnitzel im Werthe von 6907.50 Mark; somit ein Gesammtertrag von 131,242.80 Mark, eine Summe, die in einem Dorfe gewiß etwas zu bedeuten hat.

Württemberg.

Stuttgart. Hofbaudirektor v. Egle, Ehrenbürger der Städte Stuttgart und Ulm, früher langjähriger Vorstand der hiesigen Baugewerkschule, ist hier im Alter von 80 Jahren gestorben.—Auf eine Anfrage des Stadt-Polizeiamts hat sich die Schlachthaus-Gesellschaft einstimmig gegen die Einführung der obligatorischen Trichinenschau ausgesprochen. Als Grund dafür wird angeführt, daß nachgewiesenermaßen in den letzten 30 Jahren in Württemberg auch nicht ein einziger Fall Trichinosis vorgekommen und daß, abgesehen von erhöhten Kosten, die obligatorische Fleischschau namentlich in den Sommermonaten unangenehme Folgen hätte, weil mehr als ein halber Tag vergehen würde, bis die Schau vollzogen sei.

Achstetten. Niedergebrannt ist die untere Schmiede von Hildebrand. Die Mutter des Besitzers, eine 80 Jahre alte Frau, kam in den Flammen um.

Cannstatt. Zufolge eines Beschlusses des Gemeinderaths wird hier seitens der Stadt demnächst ein Volkskaffeehaus ähnlich demjenigen in Stuttgart eröffnet werden, und zwar in einem städtischen Gebäude, dem sogenannten Lagerhaus.

Ebingen. Durch Feuer wurde ein hinter dem Berge Katzenbuckel gelegener, 15jähriger und über 18 Ar großer Waldbestand vollständig zerstört.

Möttlingen. Forstwart Wiedenmann erlegte im Staatswald Aichelgarten einen Uhu mit 1 Meter 80 Centimeter Flügelspannweite. Dieses Thier dürfte wohl eines der größten bis jetzt erlegten Exemplare seiner Gattung sein.

Niederstetten. Neulich Nachmittags kam hier in dem Anwesen des Bauern Frank ein Feuer aus, dem Haus und Scheune zum Opfer fielen. Dann verbreitete es sich auf die Scheune des Bäckers Dinkel, ergriff dann das Wohnhaus des Georg Bauer und die Scheune des Weinhändlers Emmert. Die angrenzenden Gebäude wurden stark beschädigt. Es waren auch auswärtige Feuerwehren zur Hilfeleistung herbeigeeilt. Der Gebäudeschaden beträgt etwa 40,000 Mark.

Ulm. Der hiesige sozialdemokratische Verein hatte an den Gemeinderath ein Gesuch gerichtet um Ueberlassung der städtischen Mädchenturnhalle zu der Abhaltung einer Volksversammlung. Dieses Gesuch wurde vom Gemeinderathe abschlägig beschieden und zwar mit der Begründung, daß der Gemeinderath von dem bisherigen Brauche, dem sozialdemokratischen Vereine städtische Lokale nur zu Wahlversammlungen einzuräumen, nicht abgehen wolle.

Baden.

Karlsruhe. Die Antisemiten haben für die Landtagswahlen im kommenden Herbst schon zwei Bezirke ausgesucht, in denen sie Erfolg erhoffen: Sinsheim-Neckarbischofsheim und Eppingen, die bisher nationalliberal vertreten sind. In Wiesloch soll der antisemitische Abgeordnete Pfister wieder kandidiren.

Gressern. Im Rhein ertranken in Folge des Kenterns eines Segelbootes Sebastian Friedmann, Franz Kienz und Carl Zimmermann.

Mannheim. Einen eigenthümlichen Scherz leisteten sich auf dem Stengelhof am neuen Rheinauhafen einige betrunkene junge Burschen, indem sie ihrem Kollegen Hacker, der ebenfalls stark angesäuselt war, ein Ohr vollständig abschnitten.

Neulußheim. Rathschreiber Bayer wurde wegen Betrugs und Sachbeschädigung verhaftet und in's Amtsgefängniß nach Schwetzingen eingeliefert. Bei einer Haussuchung wurden bei demselben die neuangelegten Hauptbuchblätter zum Grundbuch, die Bayer bei einem kürzlich im Rathhaus entstandenen unbedeutenden Feuer als verbrannt angegeben hatte, vorgefunden.

Your Valuables

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vaults

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

(B)

AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

A Bold Move In

Parlor Suits

Without an Equal in the History of This House!

Even that great 3rd floor of ours doesn't begin to hold 'em all. The Parlor

Suit Like Cut, $19.75—$30 usually.

Carved mahogany-finish frame—green Roman plush, embroidered backs, elegant and striking. Others at even greater price-drops.

Full overstuff tapestry covering, tops tufted and corded.

At $45.50, was $65.

Again, inlaid, mahogany-finish frame, Roman plush covering.

At $50, was $75.

And—striped Silk Damask Suit, mahogany frame, piano polish—at $75—was $125.

Another—having Turkish backs, full overstuffed—heavy fringe, for $90—was $175.

Bedroom Suits

—A great crash in their prices, too.

For $10.98—a $14 Suit.

Antique oak finish, well constructed, nice looking.

For $14.98—a $20 Suit.

24x30 mirror, all new in shape and make-up.

For $55—a $75 Suit.

Elegant—in curly birch—superbly carved. Fully 300 other suits at lowest prices ever put on record.

Carpets—All in

This season's loveliest colors and patterns—thousands of rolls—prices that NO other store can touch, they're so low.

Go-Carts—$2.49

And up—biggest line in all this city. Baby Carriages, too—$3.45 up.

SWEEPING REDUCTIONS ON SIDEBOARDS AND EXTENSION TABLES.

The Portland Range—and the Domestic Sewing Machine—2 good things.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,

LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,

Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.

Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

CARFARE PAID TO OUT-OF-TOWN BUYERS.

A Private Delivery Wagon Sent on Request.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

— DEALERS IN —

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

SPECIAL SALE.

We will sell skirts and suits of our own make for this week at a price that will require no brass band to sell. An examination of our goods is all that is necessary. Ladies, as a rule know where and when to buy. Our prices are lower than the lowest. For fit and make there are no equal in town. Call and inspect our stock.

Cloos & Richardson. LADIES' TAILORS, 225 W. FRONT ST

SPRING HATS, SPRING NECKTIES, SPRING SHIRTS

AT

JAMES R. BLAIR'S,

126 PARK AVENUE.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER.

ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.

169 NORTH AVENUE.

Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phoenix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672.

COAL is for coal, clean, cheery and cheap.
is the order to lay in a heap.
is the atmosphere warmed by its glow.
is the light that starts it to go, and to get the best coal buy of Stevens & Co.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.

THE DELINEATOR AND GLASS OF FASHION

For April Now Ready. Ask for the April Fashion Sheet.

Subscriptions taken.

A. L. & M. D. GORSLINE.

144 PARK AVE. PLAINFIELD, N. J.

5,000 FEET OF

MOULDINGS IN GILT AND HARD WOOD

Bring Your Pictures and Have Them Framed

At the PLAINFIELD ART GALLERY, Y. M. C. A. Building

Jersey Poultry

is the specialty of

SMALLEY BROS.,

144 North Avenue

Have you tried their

SAUSAGE

It is the best made in

PLAINFIELD

Elston M. French & Co.

Successors to VanBuren Bros.

Real Estate and Insurance.

Largest agency in the city. Loans negotiated.

168 NORTH AVENUE

Opposite Depot

H. Eggerding,

121 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated

C. O. D. CIGAR.

The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall Streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 20th, 1898.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 7 00, 7 26, †20, 7 55, 8 00, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 8 48, 9 35, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a.m.; 12 09, 1 15, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 54, 5 37, 6 24, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 09, 7 39, 8 45, 9 15, 10 17, 11 28 p. m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 5 59, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10, a. m.; 12 m., 12 58, 1 46, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

Leave New York, foot Liberty St. at 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00 a. m.; 12 00 m., 1 00, †1 30, 2 30, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 40, 5 00, 5 15, 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 30, 11 45 p. m.; 12 15, 1 00 night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 00, 9 00, 9 15 a. m.; 12 m.; 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 7 30, 9 00, 10 00 p. m.; 12 15 night; 1 00 a. m.

Leave New York South Ferry from Whitehall St. at 7 10, 7 55, 8 35, 9 05, 9 55, 11 55 a. m., 12 55, 1 25, †3 25, 3 25, 3 35, 3 55, 4 35, 4 55, 5 25, 5 55, 6 10, 6 25, 6 55, 7 25, 7 40, 8 10, 9 10, 9 55, 11 40 p. m., 12 10 night. Sundays—At 6 55, 8 55 a. m., 12 00 m., 12 55, 1 25, 3 55, 6 40, 7 25, 8 55, 9 55 p. m., 12 10 night.

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 37, 6 29, 7 00, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 05, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 1 15, †2 12, 3 25, 3 12, 3 46, 4 54, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 33, 8 45, 10 17, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 32, 10 22 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 30, 8 05, 8 38, 9 03, 10 05 a. m.; 12 10, 1 05, †1 35, 2 40, 3 35, 4 02, 4 40, 5 04, †5 45, 6 19, 7 35, 8 10, 9 35, 10 05, 11 25 p. m. Sunday, 7 15, 9 05, 11 35 a. m.; 1 10, 2 45, 4 05, 5 55, 7 35, 9 15, 10 15 p. m.

†Passengers for Newark please change car Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00 m.; 1 05, 2 11, 2 27, 3 32, 4 35, 5 03 (5 04, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 26, 11 29, p. m.; 12 44 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 06 (8, a. m.; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p. m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7, 7 27, 7 33, †7 45, 8 20, 9 15, 9 35, 10 15, 11 45, a. m.; 12 50, 1 53, 2 05, 3 20, 4 30, 5 28, 6 05, 6 08, 6 45, 8 22, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 45 a. m.; 12 35, 1 20, 5 15, †7 27, 7 53, 8 05, 8 45, 10 00 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m., 1 01 p. m., 5 15, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 9 05 a. m.; 2 03, 6 36 p. m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 01, 8 15, a. m.; 12 36, †6 10, 5 10, 7 17, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 11 22 a. m. †9 00 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield 7 12 a. m.; 5 25 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

8 12 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R., Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c., with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

1 01 p. m., way for Easton, German Valley and Chester, connecting at Junction for station on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 27 p. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaquua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton, with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

5 25 p. m., for Flemington and Easton connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For German Valley and Chester, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

9 05 a. m. Sundays for Easton.

2 05 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley and Flanders, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

6 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 55 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc., and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 8 37, (5 37 for Sea Girt) 8 13, 10:37 a. m.; 3 46, 6 21 p. m. Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 8 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 58, 10:37 a. m.; 1 15, 3 46, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 8 45 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 8 37 a. m.; 1 15 p. m.

For Freehold, 8 37, 8 13, 10:37 a. m.; 1 15, 3 46, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat 8 37, 8 13 9 58 (Lakewood only) a. m., 1 15, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 29, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, 5 34*, 6 38*, 8 21 p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, 5 09*, 6 38*, 9 m.; 1 17 night

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 29, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, 5 34*, 6 38* 8 21, p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, 5 09*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 5 34*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m; 2 16, 5 09*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 6 38 p m. Sundays, 9 55 p. m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked ‡ change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent

LEHIGH VALLEY RAILROAD

Time table in effect Feb. 5, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

WESTWARD.

8 05 a. m. daily, 6 25 a. m., 26 p. m. daily except Sundays. Easton local.

6 25 p. m. Sunday evening local for Mauch Chunk.

9 02 a. m. daily; Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

11 52 a. m., 6 22 and 9 43 p. m. daily except Sunday. Local for Bound Brook.

12 52 p. m. daily except Sunday "Black Diamond Express" for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

2 04 p. m. daily local for Easton and Wilkes Barre.

4 58 p. m. daily except Sunday, express for WilkesBarre, Scranton, Pottsville, Hazleton Shamokin, L. & B. Junction and principal intermediate stations.

7 52 and 9 22 p. m. daily, solid vestibule express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

9 02 p. m. Daily express for Easton, Bethlehem, Mauch Chunk, Sayre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge, carries sleeping car passengers only, and no baggage east of Buffalo.

EASTWARD.

For New York and Brooklyn local 6 40, 7 40 and 9 40 a. m., 3 04 and 5 12 p. m. daily except Sunday. Sundays 10 29 a. m. and 6 04 p. m. Express 7 46, 8 14, 10 09 a. m., 12 15, 2 50, 5 10, 7 07 and 9 06 p. m. daily except Sunday. Sunday 7 06, 8 14 a. m., 2 50 and 7 07 p. m.

PERTH AMBOY BRANCH.

For Perth Amboy and intermediate stations 8 12 10 06 a. m., 5 22 and 7 23 p. m. daily except Sundays. Sunday 10 29 a. m. and 7 06 p. m.

Trains leave Perth Amboy (State street) 7 13, 8 56 a. m., 4 30 and 6 56 p. m., daily except Sunday. Sunday 7:13 a. m. and 5 42 p. m.

For further information call on or address the Ticket Agent, South Plainfield, N. J. Through tickets to all important western points may be purchased at the South Plainfield office.

Col. ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent,
S. Bethlehem, Pa.

CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent
26 Cortlandt St., N. Y. City.

NEW YORK TERMINALS—Foot of Cortlandt Desbrosses and West 23d streets.

A WOUNDED NAME
BY
BRIG. GEN. CHAS. KING, U.S.A.

[Copyright, 1899, by F. Tennyson Neely.]

[CONTINUED.]

CHAPTER XVII.

There was the mischief to pay in and about department headquarters for something like 24 hours. Colonel Strain, as chief of staff, had a sleepless night of it. Mr. Loring, reticent as ever, had gone straight to his rooms, which were far from the office and not very far from the convent of the good gray sisters. He had no thought of insubordination in writing as he did to Washington. He considered it was his paramount duty to make every effort in his power to sail by the first steamer. Letters of instruction that had reached him had informed him that a new post was to be built along the Big Horn range in Wyoming, and that the moment he arrived a board of officers, of which he would serve as junior, would be sent out to select the site. There was urgent need of his services therefore and no time to be lost. He felt that this sudden and summary arrest was a wrong to him personally and professionally, but the lessons of obedience and discipline taught in the four long years at West Point were fresh in his mind, and whatever should be the result of his detention the responsibility now lay with the department commander.

Arrived at his quarters, Loring calmly wrote a dispatch to the assistant in the office of the chief of engineers at Washington, saying in so many words:

"Placed in close arrest because of previous telegrams. Cannot sail tomorrow."

This and a note to the lady superior at the convent, saying he would be unable to come to say goodby to Pancha, and would probably be detained, he sent by his servant, bidding the man go first to the telegraph office, and then to stop at headquarters for certain books, and then to deliver the note at the convent on his homeward way.

Dennis was a retired dragoon who had found such employment with the officers on duty in San Francisco for several years past, and was endowed with the Irishman's almost pathetic sense of fealty to his "commander," as he insisted on speaking of his employer. Master was a word he could not tolerate because of its implication of servitude. But even while rebelling at the term he yielded to the fact a degree of devotion to Loring's interests far exceeding that usually accorded by the body servant of tradition, and this calm, deliberate, methodical, silent young soldier was, in spite of himself and the proverb, "a hero in the eyes of his valet de chambre."

Dennis had packed his boxes with blinking eyes and a saddened heart. He had "wurrked," he said, "for twinty gintlemin, most av thim foine men, but the looten'nt was the best av all." Dennis had his wife and brood in a little shanty near the sand lots and could not follow Loring to the east. He would have howled with delight to hear the order countermanded that was to take the lieutenant away, but when he heard at headquarters, from his fellow countrymen, the janitor and the guard, that such a countermand had been issued in the shape of an arrest he swore with wrath.

A good Catholic was Dennis, and many a job had been given to him and his lusty helpmate at the gray sisters, and a warm friend had they in the lady superior, to whom he presently bore the note and the tale of his hero's unjustifiable treatment. Then went he on his way, and came in upon Loring just in time to hear the closing words of what had been probably a brief and frigid conversation between the engineer and the general's assiduous aid-de-camp, Captain Petty. Frigid as it sounded, the captain looked hot enough as he took his leave and collided with Dennis at the door, cursed him for being there, then whirled about for a parting shot.

"I'll report your exact language to the general, sir," said he, with anger in his tone.

"Try to, at least," said Loring pointedly.

"I didn't come here to be insulted, sir!" said Petty fiercely.

"No, sir. You came here to insult," was the cool reply.

The aid went down the stairs with thundering heels and raging heart. Such contemptuous sang froid on part of an officer four years his junior in service was something unheard of, something not to be tolerated, and as Loring refused to budge from his position of calm superiority the only thing left for Petty was to leave. So far from going to Yuma, he had progressed only to Monterey, and there spent two or three days poking about the resorts around the plaza in search of gossip that was rumored to be in circulation at Loring's expense. He found the gossipers easily enough, but had great difficulty in reaching their authorities. It proved disheartening work, for the farther he went the less he learned, each talebearer having apparently added to the pile of his informant, as Petty should have had sense enough to know would be the case.

But at last he "lit" on something tangible. The hardy giant who led the rush the night of the wreck was now well enough to be hobbling about town and breathing his tale of woe and wrong to all listening ears, and, the officers being gone and no one present to contradict, he had so frequently repeated his version of the wreck of the Idaho as to make a sinner of his memory and "credit his own lie." The burden of his latest song was that Loring had been to see him at hospital and had promised him, on condition of being guaranteed against action or prosecution because of the shooting of a wronged and inoffensive man, that he (Loring) would pay him handsomely—would send him $10 a week, and gave him $25 then and there. But now, for more than a month, said he, not a cent had come, and he heard that Mr. Loring was trying to get away east. The man told his story reluctantly and with some palpable "breaks" when he found he was being questioned by an officer, but Petty posted back to Frisco without delay, convinced that here was something with which to confront and confound that cool, supercilious snob. Then he could take a fresh start for Yuma and get more. One can always get something when the object of the story is away, and, like the seaman's story of his interview with Loring, Petty's version of the seaman's interview with him waxed as he hastened to his general, and had assumed the proportions of a magnificent scandal by the time he told it to that much ruffled brigadier.

But at last he "lit" on something tangible.

Even Strain, had he heard the account, would have riddled it—Captain Moreland's evidence was conclusive on that point—and while Loring, in pity and compassion, might have left money with the man for comfort in his convalescence, it was incredible that he should have tendered payment as a bribe for silence. Strain's exaggerated self esteem was deeply wounded by the engineer's evident lack of appreciation of his greatness, and he would be glad indeed to bring him to heel and convince him he would be wise in future to do homage instead of slight, and what made Loring's indifference so exasperating was that Strain himself was forced to see that Loring was not only no fool, as he admitted, but a man of brains, courage and ability, which he would not concede aloud. Strain, sent for at 8 o'clock by the department commander to listen to the aid's wrathful account of the interview with Loring, fumed and fidgeted and strove to ask some questions to make matters clear, but Petty was already on the defensive and did not mean to be questioned, and the general kept interposing.

"Let him tell his tale his own way, colonel. Let him give you the whole story, Monterey and all." And Strain, who had hoped to spend the evening with his cronies at the club and whist, was compelled to sit till long after 9 and hear the details of Petty's asininity.

Stripped of unnecessary explanation, it seems that the general and Strain had decided that their dignity and prerogative had been invaded by the summary orders from Washington, which were at once a criticism of their action in not relieving Loring, and a demand for an immediate explanation as well as an implied threat that unless that report was entirely satisfactory Loring must be allowed to proceed. They had spent an hour or more in the preparation of the telegram, which finally caught the wires at 6 o'clock; presented their view of the case, represented that if Loring left it would be under a cloud, and that he should not now be allowed to leave because of the fact that his having resorted to forbidden and insubordinate means to procure his release was in itself a virtual admission that he feared to stay and face the constantly recurring accusations.

It was very adroitly and impressively worded, but still the general and chief of staff felt nervous and ill at ease. Down in their hearts both realized that nothing had been proved against Loring, and that the chances were ten to one that nothing ever could or would be. What was more, both were beginning to realize that Loring had been badly and shabbily treated. Yet this conviction only made them the more ready to listen to any story—grasp at any straw—that lent an atom of weight to the case against him. Dinner had brought no comfort to either, and Petty's preposterous story, swallowed whole by the chief while still bristling with the nervous strain of the concoction of that telegram of explanation, had further upset his digestive powers. The aid had been sent forthwith to notify Mr. Loring of the new story at his expense and to demand his version thereof. Petty was at no time a diplomatic man, and at this time did not mean to be. Both in language and manner he contrived to make his mission as offensive as he dared, for Loring had braved him so exasperatingly on every previous occasion that, now that he had him safe in arrest, he meant to taunt and did it, but his sneering slings broke harmless on the polished armor of the engineer's placid disdain. The madder Petty got the cooler was Loring, and when Dennis dropped in just at the close of the interview a worse whipped man was never seen than the aid, who rattled back to his general, thinking of what he ought to have said, his wits, like his brevet to the double bar, coming to him long after the war was over.

"He treated me and the general's orders with perfect contempt," said Petty finally, and the general looked into the face of his senior staff officer, hopeful that Strain would seem properly impressed. But Strain did not. It was one thing for Loring to ignore him, but quite different when that officer failed to stand and deliver at the demand of Petty. Strain treated him with scant respect himself when the general wasn't around and had been heard to say that generals who allowed their wealthy relatives to dictate who should be their aids were foisting heavy loads upon the service. It was nearly 10 o'clock; his evening was spoiled. He was crabbed, therefore, and he spoke accordingly.

"Mr. Petty—I—mean Captain Petty (Strain, who didn't get one, said a March, 1867, brevet was of no earthly account, and he for one proposed to ignore them), may I ask what were your words when you—you have given us Mr. Loring's—were communicating the general's message to him? Were they, for example, carefully chosen? Did you observe courtesy of manner, avoiding all that could irritate, or"—

"Of course I did. You never saw a man so contemptuously, insultingly cool in your life. He just"—

But Strain held up his hand. "I should like to know first what you said. The general has told me the message you were to give. Now-w, how did you give it?"

But that was something Colonel Strain was destined not to know for many a year, if indeed he ever heard. There came a knock at the door. A servant entered with a card. "The lady, sir, begs to see the general at once, if only for five minutes."

The general frowned as he took the card. What lady could be calling at 10 o'clock at night and demanding interviews when he was so much occupied? But his face changed as he read, then glanced up at his chief of staff.

"This is remarkable, Strain. The lady superior of the gray sisters' convent. Alone?" he asked, turning to the servant.

"No, sir. Young lady with her, sir."

"You'll have to excuse me a moment, gentlemen," said he. "I'll rejoin you here."

Strain was about to return to the subject when the butler spoke. "A messenger from headquarters is at the door, sir. Says he has a dispatch to deliver in person. Shall I send him up?"

It was the general's library, and Strain was wondering what was going on in the general's parlor. He knew of the lady superior. He knew the story of little Pancha, her brave, uncomplaining conduct the night of the wreck, and of her being placed in the convent of the gray sisters. He decided to go to the hall door himself, and was astonished to hear the sound of sobbing as he passed the parlor. Mechanically he took and receipted for the dispatch. Slowly, absently he retraced his steps, listening to the strange sounds, a pleading, choking, girlish voice, soothing words in the gentle, loving woman's sweet tones, the occasional gruff monosyllables from the general himself. Strain reached the library again in something like a dream, finding Petty stalking up and down, tugging at his slim mustache and nervously expectant of further questions, but none came. They were startled by the quick, hurried footsteps of the general as he waddled back to join them and burst in, red faced, ruffled, apoplectic.

"It's the order from those dashed fellows at Washington," said Strain.

"Strain, Petty, this thing has got to be settled somehow at once. That young woman—ugh, dash the gout! Here, Strain—don't you go, Petty! You won't do. Hold on—yes, you'll have to, by Jove! There's no time to be lost. Go and say to Mr. Loring, with my compliments, I desire to see him a moment in the morning before he sails, and he's—he's released from arrest—it's all—it's all—well, not all of it, but—damnation! I can't explain now. Go! Petty, go! Tell him he's released—relieved, and, Strain, you issue the order relieving him at once and directing him to proceed without delay to his new station. I want to get the order out before those dashed fellows at Washington can order it themselves. What's that you've got?"

"It's the order from those dashed fellows at Washington," said Strain.

TO BE CONTINUED.

GEMS HAVE DISEASE.

Some Precious Stones Lose Color, Some Gradually Fade and Die.

Gems have diseases just as men and women do. Some gems deteriorate, grow old, in other words, and gradually become lifeless. Pearls are most subject to this fate, and no means have been found to restore them to life.

Among infirmities to which precious stones are liable is one common to all colored stones, that of fading, or losing color when long exposed to the light. The emerald, the sapphire, and the ruby suffer the least, their colors being as nearly permanent as colors can be.

In the case of the garnet and topaz the change is more rapid than in that of the ruby and sapphire, but there is a curious difference in the result in topaz and garnet, for while the latter grows lighter, the former appears to become cloudy and dull in hue, losing much of the brightness characteristic of a newly cut gem.

Microtonists say that the prismatic colors and fire of the opal are due to myriads of minute cracks in the body of the stone, the edges of which reflect the light at different angles and give the hues so much admired. A stone full of cracks is liable to split in two at any time, and disasters of this kind especially in the process of grinding and polishing, have occurred so often that every gem polishing house has its store of hard luck stories in connection with the opal.—New York Herald.

"B'ar" and 'Keow" the Watchwords.

"Many people are unaware," said Representative Curtis, of Kansas yesterday, "that Kansas had a shibboleth in border State times. In 1854, when the first tide of New England settlers began to drift into the Southwest, it is related that the Missourians tied a cow at each crossing of the Missouri River. When an emigrant arrived at the crossing he was certain to make some remark about the animal. If he said 'cow' he was suffered to cross, but if he said 'keow' he was hustled out of the country as a bloody-minded abolitionist. In retaliation for this the Kansans tied a bear on their side of the river, and when an emigrant crossed who called it 'bear' he was welcomed with open arms, but if he pronounced it 'b'ar' he was scooted back into Missouri as an unwelcome slavery advocate."—Washington Post.

His Excuse Insufficient.

The witty remarks of Judge Craig Biddle, if gathered together, would fill a good sized volume. Here is a good one gotten off by him recently while sitting in the Quarter Sessions Court. A German juryman asked to be excused from serving on the jury.

"Why?" asked the Judge.

"Well, your Honor, I don't understand good English."

"Oh, you will do," replied the Judge. "You won't hear much good English here anyhow."—Philadelphia Record.

HIS FOLLY.

Cut One Notch in His Fool-Stick a Little to Deep.

"We all have a tool-streak in our compositions," said the youngish-oldish man with the I-was-sent-for-and-couldn't-go-back look. "Some of us are born fools and others are self-made fools; some are spasmodic or occasional fools; some are regular, everyday fools, and in degrees we vary from plain common, unadorned fools to ornamental, elaborate, gorgeous fools. I think I am not merely one of these various varieties of fools, but all of 'em in one grand conglomerated combination, mixed and mingled like a plate of hash.

"I used to keep tally on my foolishness with a stick on which I cut a notch every time I made an especially noticeable fool of myself. When I sent by the hand of my best friend a poetical declaration of love to the richest and prettiest girl in the village, and then sneaked over and listened under her pa's window and heard my friend propose to her, be accepted and then read aloud my amatory rhyme, whereat they both laughed gleefully, I went home as the crow flies and cut a notch in my fool-stick. Each time, after I had invested my hard-earned money in an estate in Europe, a horoscope, a machine for putting white paper in at one end and grinding out new ten-dollar bills at the other, a batch of directions for converting an ordinary lunkhead into a social lion in three days, a formula for getting the financial world by the tail with a down-hill pull, and so on, I cut another gash in my fool-stick.

"After I had consented to run for office at the earnest solicitation of my many friends and had been unanimously snowed under at the polls, I hacked another nick; when I bet on a sure thing, when I wasn't contented to let well enough alone, when I was let in on the ground floor and pushed off from the roof, when I danced at the time when I ought to have sung and sang when I should have been dancing, when I got through embracing Populism, when I emerged from a lawsuit, and so on again, I made more notches in my fool-stick. It was a pretty long stick, but after awhile it got nicked throughout nearly its entire length, for, beginning soon after the day when the good old family doctor found me in a hollow stump in the cornfield and brought me home in a bag for my parents to guess what I was, I have made a fool of myself with monotonous regularity.

"I haven't my dear old fool-stick now. Not long after I had married an angular widow with six piratically-inclined children, whom I had fondly fancied I could tame with the force of moral suasion and the power of loving kindness, I cut a notch in it so deep and wide that I cut it clear in two. Then I flung it away. I had no further use for it; I could not do my foolishness justice by merely cutting notches in a stick."

A Double Bill
EASTER WEEK

Our Easter panel, "Innocence" given free to purchasers of teas, coffees, baking powder, etc. A Lady's Rocker given to purchasers of one pound baking powder.

GRAND UNION TEA CO.
138 West Front street.

Leggett's
SYRUP WHITE PINE AND TAR

is growing more popular every day. Why? Because it is a simple, palatable, reliable

Cough Remedy.

Try it, is all we ask.

25c. a Bottle.

Leggett's Pharmacy,
Y. M. C. A. Building.

NEUMAN BROS.

The popular Grocers, have a full line of:

Table Delicacies.

Plum pudding and sauces, table raisens, fig Jordan Almonds, paper shell almonds, Ganable walnuts, new hickory nuts, new assorted mixed nuts, nut meats in boxes, fancy Florida grape fruit, seedless oranges, tangerine-Florida oranges, table apples, 25 dozen fancy celery and all table delicacies constantly on hand.

501-503 WATCHUNG AVE., COR. FIFTH ST

H. E. Gayle. 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN

I have a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 5c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. Lathe & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 209 North avenue.

C. ARNOLD, 55 Somerset Street,
has an elegant display of
Genuine Spring Lamb,
JERSEY BROILERS AND POULTRY
of all kinds. It will do your heart good to inspect my stock before purchasing your Sunday dinner. 3 21 tf

William Hale & Son,
CATERERS
For Parties, etc. 518 Park avenue

EDUCATIONAL.

GREGG SHORTHAND SCHOOL
Babcock Building,
The latest and best system. Stenographers filling positions after 3 months.
DAY AND EVENING.
W. E. Van Wert, Principal.
Standard Typwriters in use.

MISS SARAH A. PALMER,
TEACHER OF PIANO (Virgil Method) AND THEORY IN ALL ITS BRANCHES.
The Virgil method and the Practice Clavier give to the pupil not only finger agility, but also mental control and concentration, whereby alone the best results can be obtained.
128 East Sixth street.

Piano Instruction
Virgil Clavier Method a specialty.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
915 MADISON AVE.
Sight Reading Classes, vocal and instrumental.

F. V. L. Goodwin,
TEACHER OF MUSIC.
Lessons given at home on Piano. Special attention to beginners. Residence.
105 MANNING AVENUE,
North Plainfield, N. J.

SHORTHAND! BOOKKEEPING!
No better systems can be found than those taught in : : : :
PLAINFIELD BUSINESS COLLEGE,
City Bank Building.
Both sexes. Day and Night. Come and see us.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Duffy.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE,
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 149 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711,
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

Flynn Bros.,
SHOE DEALERS,
222 WEST FRONT STREET,
Near Music Hall,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.
We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods
Have stood the test for years.

LAIRE'S
SPRING AND SEASONABLE GOODS.

Garden Wheel Barrows.
Garden Tools, all kinds.
Garden Seeds, all varieties.
Lawn Seed.
Lawn Dressing.
Fertilizers, all kinds.
Lawn Rakes.
Ask to see the finest family scale made, for $1.50.

TELEPHONE CALL 682.

THE J. P. LAIRE HARDWARE CO.

EUROPE, starting June 29, 69 days, 48 days or 41 days; English coaching, Holland, Germany, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, Paris Experience, fourteen years. Particulars of HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS, Plainfield, N.J.

COLLIER,
SCIENTIFIC OPTICIAN.
Established 1869.
103 Park Avenue

THE CRESCENT HOTEL,
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

John G. Bantle,
428 WATCHUNG AVENUE.
First-class
TAILOR
SPECIALTY OF
Ladies' Tailor-made Garments
Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

L. MORALLER & SON
Watchmakers and Jewelers
HAVE REMOVED TO 219 PARK AVE.
Next to Armstrong's Drug Store. 3 15 1m

WASHINGTON
VIA
OLD POINT COMFORT
is the most attractive short trip at this season of the year.

STEAMSHIPS
OF THE
OLD DOMINION LINE
PERFORM DAILY SERVICE

Through tickets returning from Washington by rail or water

(For full information apply to)
OLD DOMINION S. S. COMPANY
(Pier 26, North River, NEW YORK
W. L. Guillaudeu Vice-Pres.,
& Traffic Mgr.
10-28 1y

McCullough's STEAM MILL.
14 Steiner place, North Plainfield
R. H. McCullough, Prop
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express.
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hardware 126 Park avenue. 10 1 1y

Women are Believers

In Life Insurance. This is natural, for they trust any force that protects the home, encourages thrift and independence and provides for the future. THE PRUDENTIAL insures men, women and children at lowest cost consistent with safety.

WRITE

The PRUDENTIAL INSURANCE COMPANY OF AMERICA.

HOME OFFICE, NEWARK, N. J.

JOHN F. DRYDEN, President. LESLIE D. WARD, Vice-President.
EDGAR B. WARD, 2nd Vice-Pres. & Counsel. FORREST F. DRYDEN, Secretary.

J. ELSTON WOODLAND, Superintendent..

East Front St. and Park Ave. Box 790, Plainfield, N J.

SPORTING.

AROUND THE BASES.

If the weather this week continues fine, the candidates for the Plainfield High School base ball nine will turn out for outdoor practice. They have been out already under the guidance of Captain Claude Edwards but it has been mostly individual work. The season will open in a few weeks and the High School boys hope to make a good showing against some of their out-of-town rivals.

STRIKES AND SPARES.

A five from Plainfield defeated another team from the borough on the alleys of the Park Club Saturday night in the best two out of three games. It was the first of the series of matches. Plainfield won by a score of 718-655; 900-847; 856-761.

GOLF.

The annual meeting of the Park Golf Club will be held this evening, when much important business will be considered, including the election of trustees and the acceptance of bids for the proposed addition to the club-house.

CYCLING COMMENT.

Peter B. Hodge, of Plainfield avenue, has purchased a new Cleveland wheel.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Harry Thorn, of Newark, is visiting his father, Randolph Thorn, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cox have moved to Liberty street near Front street.

John VanEps, of East Fifth street, has returned from visiting out-of town friends.

Arthur H. Serrell, of Myrtle avenue, has gone to Lake Hopatcong for a month.

Mrs. Dodge and the Misses Dodge, of New York, are visiting relatives in Plainfield.

Mrs. J. A. Blatz, of Somerset streeet, who has been very ill, is much improved.

Miss Nellie Cramer, of Grant avenue, is entertaining two cousins from New York.

Mrs. Norman K. Barnes, of West Fourth street, is visiting relatives on Staten Island.

S. P. T. Wilbur and family have moved from East Front street to Orange street.

Mrs. Francis Clark, of Newark, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. D. Pope, of Somerset street.

F. M. Bacon, of West Fifth street, left last night on the Lehigh Valley Railroad for Council Bluffs, Ia., where he expects to remain for three or four weeks.

TREASURE UNTOLD

is in every wardrobe in the shape of clothing that has been side-tracked because of its soiled or faded appearance.

A little money spent with us will put that clothing in wearable condition.

Cleaning and dyeing.

HILLIER & CO.,

129 West Front Street,

Opposite White's. 'Phone 851.

FOR CITY GOVERNMENT.

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.

the steamer, hired team and driver be stationed in the West Second street house. It is the intention to place the grey team, driven to the chemical engine, in the West End house and the Alerts hose team to the chemical engine. To accomplish this the sum of $18,360 is needed and was asked for last evening. Following the above report, Mr. Coriell presented an ordinance which provides for reorganization and for tenure of office. It also provides rules for the government of the department. This ordinance was adopted on the first and second readings.

Mr. VanHerwerden offered a resolution to the effect that the sum of $1 000 be appropriated for the directors of the Public Library to make proposed improvements and repairs, provided that the Mayor approves of the same. When the vote was taken, all voted in the affirmative except Messrs. Tolles and VanHerwerden.

Mayor Rockfellow approved the additional appropriation of $2,000 for improvements to the Public Library and Art Gallery, and it was incorporated in the budget. The appriation for the year were then submitted by the finance committee as follows:—total amount to be raised $41,000; streets $24 000; lights $12 000; sewer bonds $4 000; interest on obligations $5.000; poor $4,000; Public Library $3,800; improvements for Public Library $2,000; fire department $18,000. The above appropriation were approved by the Council.

Mr. Barrows offered a resolution employing Andrew J. Gavett at a salary at $600 to look after the sewer beds for the coming year.

Another resolution by Mr. Barrows awarded the contract for finishing crushed stone to the lowest bidder A. J. & N. B. Smalley, and the contract for finishing culvert stones to A Kane Still another resolution by the same member extended the thanks of the Council to Assemblyman Roger T. Murray for his able work at Trenton in behalf of Plainfield.

Mr. Mellick offered a resolution which provides that the Board of Assessors confer with a view of presenting a petition to the proper authorities for an equalization of the tax valuation in Plainfield. The Board will meet on Thursday evening with the Committee on Assessment and Collection of taxes.

After the business of the evening was transacted the Council adjourned to meet again Monday evening, April 17th.

Mrs. Mary Disbrough, of Central avenue, has returned after a visit at Franklin Park.

Mrs Clark, of High street, Newark, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. C. Pope, of Fourth street.

Mr. Kitchen and family, of the borough, have moved to Somerville, their former residence.

Irving Clark, of Crescent avenue, is home from Princeton University for the Easter holidays.

Miss Stella Shotwell, of West Front street, has returned after a visit with friends in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Porter Williams, Miss Williams and Philip Williams, of Hartford, Conn., are among the Easter guests at the home of E. B. Clark, of Crescent avenue.

To Cure a Cough in One Day
To Cure a Cold in One Day
To Cure Sore Throat in One Day
To Cure Hoarseness in One Day

Take Cleveland's Lung Healer, 25c. Trial size free. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenue.

TAKING SCHOOL CENSUS

ENUMERATORS APPOINTED BY THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Meeting of the Board Held at the House of a Sick Member—Proposed Alterations in Whittier Building Secretly Discussed

Owing to the ill health of Leander N Lovell, one of the members of the Board of Education, the regular monthly meeting was held at his home on Crescent avenue last night. There was just a quorum present, Dr. J. B. Probasco, Messrs. Lounsbury and Lovell.

The meeting was a short one. From the record of the proceedings of the last meeting it seems that the Board met on that evening to examine plans for changing the class rooms in the second story of the Whittier School building. What action was taken that night was not made public, and at the executive session, which followed last night's meeting, it is likely that the matter was discussed again at length.

The tax collectors's report showed that $1,058.88 had been collected during the past month, for the years '89, '94, '95 '96, '97 '98, This including $94 36 interests.

The necessity of appointing four men to take the annual school census this year was brought to the attention of the board by a communication from P. N. Kline, of East Sixth street, who applied for the position. The board then appointed E. J. Oleson for the first ward; P. N Kline, second; and Abraham Angleman, fourth, leaving the third vacant.

Mr Lounsbury moved that an advertisement be inserted in the newspapers for bids for coal to be delivered at the convenience of the board. The bids are to be presented at the next regular meeting.

The medical inspectors, Doctors Tomlinson and Murray, reported that during March 340 pupils have been vaccinated, and that there were 65 ordinary examinations made. The board then went into executive session.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—E. P. Kellogg, of Mt. Pleasant, has sold his farm there and has now moved to the Stelle farm on Park avenue, just beyond the city line.

Miss Day, of Brookside, near Morristown, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Blazier, of Grove street.

Miss Sue Boss, of Central avenue, has been entertaining company from out of town for a few days.

W. S. Hagan and family, of Prospect avenue, who have been residents of this city for fifteen years, have removed to Brooklyn.

EARLY THIMBLES.

They Were Made in Holland and Worn on the Thumb.

The thimble is a Dutch invention, and the first one was made in 1684 by a silversmith named Nicholas Van Benschoten, originally it was called a "thumbell" because it was worn on the thumb, says the San Francisco "Chronicle."

In making thimbles the gold and silver ingots are rolled out into sheets of the desired thickness and cut by a stamp into circular pieces of any required size. These circular pieces are bent into thimble shape by means of a gold metal bar that is of the same size as the inside of the intended thimble; this bar is moved by machinery up and down in a bottomless mold of the outside of the same thimble, and each time the bar descends it presses one of the circular pieces or disks into thimble shape.

When the thimble is shaped the next work is to brighten, polish and decorate it. First the blank thimble is fitted with a rapidly revolving rod. A slight touch of a sharp chisel cuts a very thin shaving from the end of the thimble, a section chisel does the same on the side, and a third neatly rounds off the rim. A round steel rod, well oiled, is held against the surface of the revolving thimble, and it is thus given a nice polish; the inside is brightened and polished in a similar manner, the thimble being held in a revolving mold.

Then a delicate revolving steel wheel, with a raised, ornamental edge, is pressed against the blank thimble and prints the ornament seen just outside the rim. Another steel wheel covered with sharp points makes tiny indentations all over the remaining blank surface of the thimble.

The last operation is to wash it thoroughly in soapsuds, to brush it carefully and it is ready for my lady's basket.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help, but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion build up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by L. W. Randolph, druggist. Guaranteed.

STORYETTES.

"A few days since," relates a solicitor, "as I was sitting with my friend D—— in his office, a man came in and said: 'Mr. D——, the livery stable keeper tricked me shamefully yesterday, and I want to be even with him.

"'State your case,' said D——.

"'I asked him how much he'd charge me for a horse to go to Richmond. He said half a sovereign. I took the horse, and, when I came back, he said he wanted another half sovereign for coming back, and made me pay it.'

"D—— gave his client some legal advice, which he immediately acted upon, as follows: He went to the livery stable keeper and said: 'How much will you charge for a horse to go to Windsor?'

"The man replied: 'A sovereign.'

"Client accordingly went to Windsor, came back by rail, and went to the livery stable keeper, saying:

"'Here is your money,' paying him a sovereign.

"'Where is my horse?' said W——.

"'He's at Windsor,' answered the client. 'I hired him only to go to Windsor.'"

Brown lived between Gray and Green, says the Boston Transcript. Green was as quiet a neighbor as you could wish to have, and so was gray, for that matter, but he had a barking dog that was the torment of Brown's life. One day in his desperation he told Gray that if he would get rid of the dog he would give him $5. "All right," said Gray; "I'll do it." Meeting Gray downtown that afternoon Brown asked: "Have you done what you agreed to do and got rid of that dog?" "Yes, I've got rid of him." "Thank goodness! Now I shall sleep nights. By the way, what did you do with him?" "I sold him to Green. He gave me three dollars for him. Not so bad, eh?"

"An old fellow came along yesterday," says a Philadelphia restaurant-keeper, "who gave me a pointer I had never dreamed of. He came in and offered to patch up all the bad places in my wall-paper, and so skillfully that I couldn't find a place after it was done. Well, I hadn't any patching to do, but I bet the old chap a quarter and his dinner that he couldn't do what he said. I tore a patch out of the wall-paper, and when he was through eating he went to work. The first thing he did was to cut a piece of blank wall-paper big enough to cover the hole and paste it over. Next he took a brush and painted a ground the same as the other paper. Then, kick me if he didn't take other brushes and colors and paint in the design of the paper. I willingly yielded up a quarter with the dinner, and was satisfied when I saw the alacrity and ease with which the fellow did his work."

A FEW SAYINGS.

There are 113 schools for music in Berlin.

A clean man will not live in a dirty house.

Too many make a God out of the majority.

Adversity tests faith, and prosperity tests love.

Every humbug puts a pious motto over his door.

You may backslide, but you can never up slide.

We are made by our enemies and marred by ourselves.

The arm that is swift to strike may be strong to succor.

It requires abundant grace to withstand abundant prosperity.

Your position in life to-morrow depends on your character to-day.

A high ideal is a standing invitation to reach a more exalted position.

The man who loses his life in love sows the seed of untold noble lives.

The sermon on the mount is higher than some church members care to live.

The man who will not suffer for the truth will have to suffer for neglecting it.

A blunt tool with a man behind it is better than a Damascus blade without one.

Let the world mold your opinions, and it will soon squeeze all religion out.

The miser who is able (but unwilling) to relieve want, is truly a miserable man.

The exasperating trivialities of life are little lead lines let down to fathom our religion.

CURIOUS CONDENSATIONS.

The desert of Sahara is as large as all that portion of the United States lying west of the Mississippi.

The number of people at present who speak English is said to be 116,000,000.

Arabic coins have a sentence from the Koran, and generally the Caliph's name, but never an image.

Nearly all the gold coin in circulation in the Sandwich islands is of United States mintage.

A curious remedy for sleeplessness is used by the inhabitants of the Samoan islands. They confine a snake in a hollow bamboo, and the hissing sound emitted by the reptile is said to quickly induce slumber.

He—To be candid, darling, I feel that before we are married I must pay up my debts.

She—And so you have been only trifling with me!—Detroit Free Press.

An interesting test has just been made by a French woman. With a view to testing the sustaining powers of chocolate she lived on that alone for sixty days and lost but 15 pounds in the interval.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

The stage hands of Music Hall announce a benefit Thursday night of this week and offer "Natural Gas," a comic play that has been immensely successful with theatre goers in the past, and which will be presented in what is called thoroughly revised form and with Eddie Girard in his original role of Whirlen O'Rourke, the nimble footed and eccentric Milesian policeman. The play was written by H. Grattan Donnelly, and was intended as a satire on 'fake" speculations.

Miss Symons, of East Third street, has returned from visiting relatives at Belleville, Essex county.

Invitations have been issued by Miss Helen R Clark, daughter of E. B. Clark, of Crescent avenue, for a tea to be given in honor of Mrs. Howard W. Beebe, Saturday, April 8th, from 5 to 7 o'clock.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL!

MAZE EDWARDS, Lessee and Manager. Telephone 722.

THURSDAY NIGHT, APRIL 6, 1899.

STAGE HANDS BENEFIT.

Donnelly & Girard's Greatest Farce Comedy Success,

"NATURAL GAS."

Introducing Mr. Eddie Girard in his Original Characters, supported by a Cast of Unexcelled Superiority.

Prices 25c. 35c. 50c. and 75c. Reserved seats at Box Office. Open daily from 9 a. m.

"Belshazzar"

CONCERT,

By

GRACE CHURCH CHOIR.

At the

: CASINO :

Thursday Evening, Apr. 6,

8:15 o'clock.

Sardou's Great Play,

"DIPLOMACY."

MUSIC HALL,

Saturday Evening April the 29th,

At 8 o'Clock

The sale of seats will begin at 9 o'clock a. m. on Tuesday, April the 4th, at Amstrong's Drug Store.

The proceeds of this performance will be given to Plainfield Charitable Institutions.

Reserved seats 50c, 75c, $1 and $1.25.

4-4 12 15 19 22 24

NEUMAN BROS.,

GROCERS,

Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

SPRING CLEANING

will soon be here, and while cleaning up your homes do not forget to clean your system.

Hepburn's Blood Purifier

for the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys, will do this in a satisfactory manner. Money refunded if it don't do what is claimed for it. We have made and sold it the same way for the past 14 years.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY, HEPBURN & CO.

Cor. Park Ave. and Second St. Telephone 671.

Mrs. Grover Cleveland, at Princeton, N. J, said:

"Mr. Naylor, the carpet cleaning you did for me is entirely satisfactory."

A. F Naylor,

Bedding Factory & Store,

'Phone 931 23 Somerset-st.

Advertised Letters

Plainfield, N. J., April 3, 1899.

Bellis Miss May	Lewis Mrs Lucy
Brown Mr A G	Moncton Mr George A
Brown Miss Margaret	Ollis Mr Sydney L
Burrell Mr Jacob	Palsen Miss Julee Lina
Carter Mrs Augusta	Reid Miss Emma
Campbell Mr R	Riene Mr John
Cobb Mr J M	Rogers Mr E H
Howard Mr Walter	Scruggs Miss Sallie W
Gayor	Smith Mr W R
Greene Mr William	Sutton Mrs S P
Hunter Mr	Wilson Miss Susie
Hurlburt Mr & Mrs A.	Work Mr Chas L

6.9 south street.

A Chance For the Masses.

The greatest sale of spring clothing for men, boys and children ever held in Plainfield The prices are within the reach of all and defy competition. Right from under the auctioneer's hammer we have purchased at 35c on the dollar $7 000 worth of the best tailor-made Spring clothing, all this season's manufacture, from the well-known stock of Messrs. Rothschild, Levi & Co, of Rochester, N Y., known as the best ready made clothing manufacturers in the United States. This sale will continue for a short time only. Every dollar's worth of their stock must be converted into cash at once. Study this price list and bring it with you, so that you can get your goods just at these prices:

Men's tweed and cheviot spring suits, regular price 7.00, our price 2.75. Men's fine cheviot and cassimere sack suits in newest shades, regular price 9.00-10.00, our price 3.75. Men's sack or cutaway suits in Scotch cheviots, diagonals and worsteds, regular price 13.00, our price 5.50. Men's tailor-made dress suits in sack or cutaway style, made from the very finest goods, including diagonal, French clay worsteds and the John Taylor celebrated cassimere and homespuns, regular price 18.00, 20.00 and 22.00, our price 6.50, 7.50 and 8.50. We have over 3,000 suits to choose from. No matter how particular your tastes are, you are bound to find something suitable. Men's extra durable working pants, regular price 2.00 and 2.50, our price 1.00 and 1.50.

Youths' suits made from best worsteds and cheviots, regular price from 6.00 to 12.00, our price 2.50 to 7.00. Men's covert cloth Spring overcoats in the latest shades and cuts, regular price from 10.00 to 15.00, our price from 3.50 to 6.90. A good all wool child's suit, ages from 5 to 8 years made with sailor collars, middy vestee style or double breasted, regular price from 2.50 to 3.00, our price 1.00 to 1.25 and 1.50. Very fine middy suits with combination collars and vests, regular price 6.00, our price 2.00 to 2.50. Children's suits from 8 to 16 years, all wool, regular price from 3.00 to 4.00, our price 1.50 to 1.90. Boys' knee pants from 15c to 45c. Men's latest spring styles derbies from 85c to 1.25 worth double.

It would be well to come early, so you can get your choice.

New York Clothing Co.

M. Weinberger, Manager. 214 West Front St., next door to Music Hall, Plainfield, N. J.

All cars stop at our door. Carfare paid to all out-of-town buyers.

BOEHM'S.

Brocaded Silk Capes

Trimmed with Jet and Lace, Ruche Collarette and Silk lined at $2.98.

Ladies' Tailor-made Suits.

Made of Venetian and all-wool Cloth Jacket, silk lined throughout, skirt percaline line worth $10.00, at $7.49.

Children's Reefers,

Braid trimmed, double collar, ruffle edge, worth $2.50 at $1.98.

Everything in Millinery represented in our assortment, every shape, style and color that is desirable is here at prices which cannot be approached or duplicated anywhere.

KID GLOVES. Just by chance we managed to get another lot of those 2-clasp Kid Gloves, in white with black stitching, all black and colors, sizes 6 to 7 1-2, as good as any dollar glove, at 59c a pair.

MEN'S COLORED CAMBRIC SHIRTS, soft bosom, 2 collars and a separate pair of cuffs, worth 65c, at 49c.

One lot of FANCY PLAID RIBBONS, all silk, worth 38c, special at 25c yard.

50 dozen of Ladies' Fast Black Seamless Hose, worth 15c, special at 10c pair.

BOEHM'S.

TOMORROW,

Wednesday, April 5, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m. sharp,

Rain or Shine.

The great dispersal sale of Trotting-bred Horses by auction, at Glen-Moore Farm, Glen-Moore, N. J.

E. S. WELLS, Proprietor.

A royal band of brood-mares, grandly bred stallions, stake youngsters, high-class road horses. The opportunity of a lifetime. Following R. R. trains stop at farm:

FROM NEW YORK: Leaving foot Liberty street, Central R. R. of New Jersey 6:00, 7:45 and 9 a. m.

FROM PHILADELPHIA: Leaving Reading Terminal Depot, 8:30 and 9:30 a. m.

Cycle and Camera in Ireland.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE

In the First Presbyterian Church,

Tuesday, April 4, 1899,

By the Pastor, CHARLES E. HERRING. TICKETS 25c. 4 1 4

DEAD HORSES

Removed free. Buckman Brothers, 611 South Second Street. Main office New Brunswick N. J. Telephone Call, 63 F. Fertilizer Works, Livingston Park, N. J. 4 3 3m

THE ANNUAL MEETING of the stockholders of the

PLAINFIELD GAS LIGHT COMPANY

for the election of directors will be held at the office of the Company, 110 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J., on TUESDAY, APRIL 4th, 1899, at 4 p. m.

H. G. RUNKLE, Secretary.

31 4

CHAS. L. FOROE,

Architect and Superintendent.

208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given. 1 21 tf

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR
Sun Rises 5 37 a. m.
Sun Sets 6 28 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 7 28 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Fair Tonight; Thursday Warmer With Increasing Cloudiness. Ther. 60.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 5, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

BRUTAL TREATMENT IN ORIENT DEGREE.

Startling Revelations About Secret Society Practices.

CANDIDATES BADLY HURT.

ONE MAN HAD HIS ARM PULLED OUT OF JOINT.

Left Unconscious on the Floor for Several Minutes—Revolting and Indecent Tricks Played on Unsuspecting Candidates, it is Alleged—Charles Yaeger Believes it is Time to Call a Halt to it.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—If you will kindly permit me space in your columns to publish brutal outrages repeatedly practiced by some of the members of Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., in their sporting degrees, what is commonly termed the Orient—you will not only confer a great favor on me, but also to such members of the order, who, having taken their initiatory degree, contemplate initiation in the mysteries of the Orient.

The writer of this article is not averse to sport and can enjoy a practical joke, providing it is consistent with gentlemanly conduct and without danger of bodily injury, but the brutality and indignities that a large number of members were subjected to on Friday night last, by the persons commonly called team, is beyond description. In fact, if those side degrees are permitted to be practised in the future an ambulance and several doctors would be indispensible on the meeting nights of the order.

One man's arm was wrenched from the socket and the pain must have been intense, indeed, since he was left on the floor in an unconscious condition, and will possibly be incapacitated for business for some. Others fared no better, only that the mode of procedure was changed and so revolting and devoid of common decency that a description could not appear in public print.

In conversation with some of the intelligent members of the order I learned that these side degrees had been abolished in some localities on account of the serious consequences that resulted from the brutal treatment from the hands of the rough element that usually constitutes a team. In conclusion, permit me to state that this letter for publication is not aimed against the order—rather for the good of it—for if you publish it, I shall certainly mail copies to the grand officers who may possibly be instrumental in abolishing that brutal treatment to some extent.

Chas. Yaeger.

AGAINST POLICY DEALERS.

Justice Collins Says Gambling Dens Should Be Broken Up.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Brunswick, April 5.—Justice Collins opened the April term of court yesterday. In his charge to the Grand Jury he referred to the campaign that has been made against local policy dealers. He said that the Grand Jury should spare no pains to break up the policy dens; that a determined crusade against them had been successful everywhere else, and that there was no good reason why it should not be successful in New Brunswick.

It has been expected that he would make some reference to the Grand Jury's duty in regard to investigating the Lehigh Valley Railroad wreck at West Dunellen in January last, but he did not speak of it. Prosecutor John S. Voorhees will lay before the Grand Jury the result of the informal investigation he made at the time of the wreck.

Daily Gospel Meetings.

Daily gospel meetings are to be held at Hope chapel, led by F. E. Taylor, evangelist, beginning on Sunday next. Meetings will be held every evening except Saturday and the afternoon meetings will be announced later. There will be special music and a cordial invitation is extended to every person in the city.

New Banking Firm.

Harvey E. Fisk, formerly of Plainfield, and lately associated with Harvey Fisk's Sons banking house in William street, New York, has formed a partnership with George H. Robinson and opened a banking stock and exchange commission business at 36 Nassau street.

A Dance at Fanwood.

The Watchung Avenue Domino Club enjoyed a reception and dance last night in the Fanwood Club house. There were about twenty-five couples present and a very pleasant time was had by all. Music for the occasion was furnished by Lambert, of Westfield.

PARK CLUB GOLFERS.

S. ST. JOHN M'CUTCHEN AND EDWIN T. DOUGLASS ELECTED TRUSTEES.

Annual Meeting Held Last Night—Links to be Opened the Middle of This Month—The Membership is Rapidly Increasing.

The Park Golf Club is proceeding in the even tenor of its way and so there wasn't anything particularly startling to do at the annual meeting of the club held at the Park clubhouse last evening. The meeting was well attended.

S. St. John McCutchen and Edwin T. Douglass were elected trustees for a year. The greens committee reported through its chairman, C. W. McCutchen, that they had found the greens in good condition this spring, that forty trees had been cut down to open up the course and that the seventh and ninth greens would be entirely re-made. The links will open about April 15th or 20th.

The secretary, Meredith Dryden, reported that the membership of the club was rapidly increasing and was nearing the limit mark. The treasurer was absent and made no report.

There was some talk about making a change for junior and associate members for the use of the links. The matter was put in the shape of a motion and voted down by a large vote.

It was reported that the contract had been made for the addition of a room to the clubhouse, and that thirty new lockers would be added.

A VOLUNTEER LEAGUE.

NEW AUXILIARY TO Y. M. C. A. WORK HAS BEEN INAUGURATED.

The Members to be Interested in Foreign Work for Young Men—Meetings Will be Held Every Month.

Monday evening at the Y. M. C. A. building a new movement in the interest of foreign mission work was inaugurated under the title of Association Volunteer League. Its object is to interest members of the Y. M. C. A. more thoroughly in the foreign work for young men, as carried on by the international committee, so that the local association can be in close touch with the great foreign mission work throughout the world.

Membership in this league is not restricted to members of the Y. M. C. A., but any man can join who is sufficiently interested in this subject to devote some time and thought to its consideration.

Meetings will be held on the first Monday evening of each month, and members of the League are expected to pray in private and at the meetings for special objects, as will be indicated, some particular mission field being selected for each month's study. The Bible will be studied in its relation to missions, and the members will have the privilege of contributing a definite sum each year, to be given to the international committee, although not so much stress is laid on this feature of the organization as on prayer, study and investigation of mission fields and methods.

There were twelve present at the meeting and its inaugurators hope to draw into the organization many of those now interested in the great missionary movements of the age, and also to awaken in others now indifferent, an interest in this greatest work of Christianity, in obeying the final command of the Saviour to "Preach the Gospel to every creature."

JURORS DRAWN.

Sheriff Kirk Prepares for Term of Court in May.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, April 5.—Judge Vail presided in a special session of the Court of General Quarter Sessions yesterday, and Sheriff Kirk drew the panel of Petit Jurors for the May term. There were fifty-four jurors selected, the ordinary panel being forty-eight. County Clerk Howard, Under Sheriff Clark and others assisted in recording the list.

The jurors from Plainfield were: Andrew Love, Jr., Carlos C. Gallop, Frederick Huff, Nelson B. Childs, Hugh MacDonald and Daniel S. Pond.

Fanwood—Robert Walpole and George McCauley.

Westfield—Benjamin W. Mulford, and Cyrus P. Wilcox.

"Demmie" Calling on Old Friends.

J. A. Demarest, U. S. Consul at Brockville, Ont., under President Cleveland's last administration, and for several years city editor and manager of The Daily Press, is in town today calling on old friends and acquaintances.

Begging in the Borough.

Marshal Campbell, of the borough, had occasion to drive three tramps out of Washington Park this morning. The fellows were going from house to house begging.

TROLLEY CAR THAT IS A VERETABLE PALACE

It Is Designed for Brunswick Traction Company's Officers.

FITTED OUT ELEGANTLY.

MAHOGANY FURNITURE, GOLD TRIMMINGS AND ELECTRIC BELLS.

The Car is Thirty five Feet in Length and is Named "Annie R."—Interior of the Car Has Rare and Exquisite Furnishings—Equipped With Refrigerators—Local Dignitaries to Take a Trip On It.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Brunswick, April 5.—One of the finest electric cars ever made in the United States has been shipped from Wilmington, Del., to this city, for the use of the officials of the Brunswick Traction Company. In attractive appearance, in interior finish and in richness and beauty of furnishings this palatial car is the peer of any in existence. The car was built by the Jackson & Sharp Company with a view of far surpassing all their previous efforts. It was the express stipulation of President Gottfried Krueger and Secretary Edward Radel that this car should be the company's masterpiece.

The cars measures 35 feet in length, 26 feet long over the sills, while the body is 7 feet 9 inches wide. The exterior finish is a harmonious combination of maroon and Broadway yellow, with artistic gold ornamentation. The centre panel of the body is of maroon, while the lower panel and the roof are in Broadway yellow. On the maroon background on each side is the inscription "Annie R." in gold letters with a shaded ornamentation of gold. The entire body of the car is stripped with gold.

On each side of the car are eight windows of heavy plate glass, set in mahogany sashes, while the hand railings are of polished brass. The usual vestibule contains but one door, they being situated on opposite sides. The interior of the vestibules is finished in polished oak, of the finest selection, and each contains a refrigerator, also finished in oak. Electric bells are placed nearby for the convenience of the motorman and conductors.

When one enters the car he is struck by the rare finish and equisite furnishings. Richly upholstered chairs, rare mahogany and tapestry are on sides. There are but two stationary seats in the car and they are in the corners, while the corners at the opposite end contain buffets of mahogany, with silver trimmings. The buffets are fitted with heavy plate mirrors. The sides of the interior are of mahogany, the lower portion being attractively paneled, while that above the sashes is artistically carved, the effect being admirable. The trimmings are of silver and oxidized metal and the draperies at the windows are of prettily figured damask, gathered at the side of each sash.

Portiere curtains hang at each entrance, while the carpet is a rich Brussels of exquisite figure. In the corners containing the stationary chairs are heavy plate mirrors. The ceilings are veneered, of a green tint and attractively striped and ornamented in gold. Three three-light electroliers are suspended from the ceiling. Deck sashes of mahogany fitted with gold embossed ground glass, add to the sumptuous effect.

The movable chairs and tables are of beautifully marked mahogany, inlaid with pearl and ivory ornamentation. The upholstering is in green, which harmonizes artistically with the mahogany. The traction company relegated expense in completing these furnishings. Each window support contains an electric push-button for the convenience of the passengers.

Mr. Radel will have the Aldermen and Freeholders for guests and in turn the township committees, etc.

Representing Various Nations.

A novel feature of the "Feast of All Nations," to be given in Trinity Reformed church tomorrow evening for the benefit of the Young Women's Mission Band, will be the appearance of those who are to assist in costumes representing the various nations. It will be well worth the price of admission to see these costumes. Supper will be served a la carte.

Going Over Tax Matters.

There will be an important meeting of the committee on collection and assessment of taxes tomorrow evening, at which time the Board of Assessors will also meet. It is the intention of the committee to present the books of the assessors before the Council at the earliest possible date.

—Press want ads bring results.

THE M. E. CONFERENCE.

PLAINFIELD MINISTERS LEFT THIS MORNING TO ATTEND IT.

Conference Will Continue All of This and Part of Next Week—Rev. Mr. O'Donnell to Preside at Epworth Meeting.

Among those who left Plainfield this morning to attend the M. E. church conference in Newark were Rev. W. C. O'Donnell, Rev. G. W. Gardner, W. C. Nelson, Dr. Snodgrass and Rev. George Angleman. The conference will continue throughout the week.

A business meeting will be held tomorrow at 9 a. m. and the anniversary of the Woman's Home Missionary Society at 3 p. m., with Mrs. Mary L. Woodruff presiding. Bishop Fowler will consecrate the deaconesses, and Miss Iva May Dunham will speak on "Deaconesses' Work in Our Cities." Rev. J. A. Cole will preside at the missionary meeting in the evening, and the speaker will be Rev. Dr. W. F. Smith. The same day Rev. Dr. Marcus Buell, of Boston University, will lecture in Franklin Street church at 3 p. m. on "The Epistle to Philipians." In the evening Rev. Dr. C. H. Mead will address the Total Abstinence and Prohibition Society in Central church.

Friday morning another business session will be held in Halsey Street church. At 3 p. m. the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will hold its anniversary, with Mrs. J. H. Knowles presiding, and Rev. Dr. J. F. Goucher, president of the Woman's College, of Baltimore, as speaker. In the evening the anniversaries of the Church Extension and Freedman's Aid and Southern Education Societies will be held. The speakers will be Rev. Dr. M. S. Hard, of Philadelphia, and Rev. Dr. J. M. Hamilton, of Cincinnati. At the same hour the Conference Epworth League will hold its annual meeting in St. Paul's church, with Rev. W. C. O'Donnell, of Plainfield, presiding. Rev. Dr. C. L. Goodell, of Hanson Place M. E. church, Brooklyn, will speak on "The Greatest Story in the World."

Saturday evening evangelistic services will be conducted in Halsey Street Church by Rev. Dr. L. W. Munhall, of Germantown, Philadelphia.

Rev. Dr. R. Vanhorn will lead the Conference love feast at 9 a. m. Sunday, and Bishop Fowler will preach the sermon at 10:30. At 3 p. m. the Bishop will ordain the deacons and elders, and at 7:30 p. m. Rev. Dr. W. S. Robison will preach a missionary sermon. The anniversary of the Sunday school Union and Tract Societies will be held Sunday evening in St. Paul's Church, with Rev. W. C. Snodgrass presiding and Rev. Drs. G. O. Wilding and T. J. Coultas as speakers.

Bishop Fowler will lecture on "Abraham Lincoln" on Monday, under the auspices of the Newark City Church Extension Society. Monday afternoon in Franklin Street Church Rev. William N. Rice, of Wesleyan University, will lecture on "The Alternative; Christianity or Agnosticism."

RESIDENTIAL CHANGES.

Many Plainfielders May be Found at New Addresses.

The following residential changes have been made by Conover's furniture moving vans: Mr. Moffett from Carleton avenue to Arlington avenue, Charles Force from Duer street to East Sixth street, B. M. Richards from Jackson avenue to East Sixth street, Mr. Denithown from Thorn building to Somerset street, Miss Pessenger from Almont street to Jackson avenue, B. Luckey from Orange street to Lafayette place, J. H. Adams from Watchung avenue to East Third street, Mr. Merritt from Park avenue to Stillman building, Mr. Seal from Watchung avenue to Chatham street, Mr. GaNun from Jackson to Steiner place, A. W. Renworthy from Westervelt avenue to Willow avenue, Mrs. Wright from Duer street to Linden avenue, Mr. Pugh from Somerset street to Clinton avenue, Mr. Green from Steiner place to Stone street, Mr. Dunn from Watchung avenue to Norwood avenue, Mr. Polk from Almont street to Duer street, Mr. Wren from East Second street to Harlingen, Somerset county, Mr. Buell from one residence on Craig place to another one on the same street.

Building the Storm Sewer.

Patsy Christmas, who secured the contract for building the Park avenue storm sewer, expects to start the work in the course of a week, or just as soon as the pipe arrives. The pipe to be used is 24 inches and will be run from the Park avenue railroad bridge through the avenue to Somerset street and the brook.

—Seats are now on sale for "Diplomacy" to be given in Music Hall, April 29th, by home talent.

WEDDED QUIETLY AT BRIDE'S HOME.

Marriage of Miss Maude French and H. E. Snodgrass.

TOOK PLACE LAST NIGHT.

RELATIVES AND INTIMATE FRIENDS PRESENT AT CEREMONY.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. French, of Craig place, Wedded to Son of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Snodgrass—Couple Will Reside In Summit — Names of The Members of Bridal Party.

A quiet home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. French, of 18 Craig place, last evening at six o'clock, when their youngest daughter, Miss Maude Adeline French, was married to Harlan Eskey Snodgrass, son of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Snodgrass, of Central avenue. It was a pretty ceremony and was witnessed by the members of two families and a few intimate friends.

The ceremony was performed in the parlor under a bower of asparagus fern by Rev. Dr. W. C. Snodgrass, of this city, father of the groom, assisted by Rev. Orrin W. Snodgrass, a brother. The bride was given away by her father.

The bride was gowned in white satin, trimmed with chiffon and lace and carried a bouquet of white roses. She was attended by a flower girl, Miss Susan Wharton, who was gowned in pink and carried pink and white tulips, and by two bridemaids, Miss Edna L. French, her sister, and Miss Persis Snodgrass, a sister of the groom. Their gowns were of mousseline de soie over pink silk. They carried pink roses.

The best man was D. P. Mitchell, of Newark. The ushers were Frank W. French, a brother of the bride, Rhey T. Snodgrass, a brother of the groom, Warren L. Church and Henry L. McGee, all of this city.

The house decorations were elaborate and very pretty. Roses and smylax were used in profusion. L. A. Noe, of Madison, had charge of them.

After the ceremony, the wedding supper was served, after which the bridal couple departed on their honeymoon amid the usual shower. They will be absent several weeks, after which they will reside at Summit.

The young couple were the recipients of many handsome and valuable gifts from relatives and friends.

MRS. SMITH'S RECITAL.

Appreciative Audience Gathered in the Casino to Hear the Programme.

An appreciative audience attended the recital given in the Casino, last evening, by Mrs. Frank Smith, and found much to enjoy in the programme rendered by Mrs. Smith, Miss Martha Miner, soprano, and Nicholas Sebastian, tenor. G. Morgan Stricklett was to have assisted but he was unavoidably detained elsewhere and Mr. Sebastian filled his place very satisfactorily.

Of course, Mrs. Smith was the chief attraction of the evening and the reception accorded her was very flattering. Her selections were well chosen and delightfully rendered. In the first, "In the Garden with the Persian Poet Sa-di," a musical accompaniment, written by Frank J. Smith, was played by him. She was compelled to give several encores each time.

Miss Miner was a talented vocalist with a sweet voice which she used to advantage. Mr. Sebastian also made an excellent impression and his selections were received with favor.

ENDEAVORER'S PROSPEROUS

Annual Meeting of East Third Street Mission Society Held.

The Christian Endeavor society of the East Third Street Mission have enjoyed a good year as told by the reports read at the annual meeting last night. There is a balance of $31 left in the treasury, and a healthy growth has been noticed in the society.

The officers who have served during the past year were re-elected. They are, president, U. B. Crane; vice-president, Clifford A. Braider; secretary, Miss Emma J. Thorn; treasurer, R. W. Barnes. Messrs. Braider and Barnes were appointed a committee to see about having cards printed inviting strangers to the services.

Hotel License Transferred.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Market, April 5—Mulford Casterline, the new proprietor of the Nelson House, was in New Brunswick with Lawyer Robert M. Clark, of Plainfield, yesterday to have the hotel license of Lloyd B. Nelson transferred to him. This was accomplished, and last night Mr. Casterline gave a public opening to which people from all around came.

ANOTHER STANDPIPE.

IMPORTANT MOVE MADE BY WATER SUPPLY COMPANY.

Piece of Land Back of Johnston Property Bought by the Company—To Relieve the Pressure on Present Standpipe.

A very important move has just been made by the Plainfield Water Supply Company in the purchase of a piece of property on the mountain back of the Johnston property on West Front street. The land was purchased by the company for the purpose of erecting a standpipe thereon which will be used in conjunction with the present standpipe near the water works. Pipes will be laid from the works to the new standpipe and already the pipe has arrived. At a very early date the work of erecting the standpipe will be started.

The object is to relieve somewhat the pressure now brought to bear on the stand pipe in use, and the new stand will be made large enough to adequately assist the other one in the performance of the work required. This change will also allow for a greater supply of water if needed in case of emergency, and the service can be divided as desired by the company to supply certain parts of the city or the various towns along the Central Railroad where the water is sent.

RED MEN RULE THE FAIR

THE MIANTONOMO'S TRIBE EVENT OPENED AUSPICIOUSLY.

The Affair is Held in Washington Hall—Committees in Charge of the Booths—Real Red Men to be Present.

The fair to be held this week in Washington Hall, under the auspices of Miantonomo Tribe, No. 118, I. O. R. M., and Iona Council, No. 14, D. of P., opened last night under auspices circumstances, and judging from the large attendance and the interest displayed in the event, and everything about it, bids well to be most successful. For an opening night the hall was well filled.

Under direction of the committee having the fair in charge the hall has been made to look as much like a rainbow bower as possible with the national colors, and soft hangings of red. Everything, too, has been used in decorating the stage upon which the musicians sit and furnish music for dancing.

There was no particular event last night to awaken interest, but tonight will be the big night. Visiting Red Men from all over the State will be present and also the board of great chiefs. There will be a cake walk in which the contestants will appear dressed in full Indian costume.

In addition to this twelve of Buffalo Bill's Indian Band are expected out from New York, and Utawan, the Indian fortune teller, will be there to read your future. Terry and Hawkins, a team of local acrobats, will amuse the spectators with some difficult work on the trapeze and bars, and altogether it will be the banner night of the fair.

David C. Allen is chairman of the committee having the fair in charge; Mrs. Charles L. Holstein is secretary, and Mrs. Andrew J. Stiglitz is treasurer.

At the fancy table, which is supplied with a great variety of useful as well as ornamental articles in that line, is Mrs. William Westphal, assisted by Mrs. Edward Bowman, Miss Ella Sebring and Mrs. Charles L. Holstein.

Mrs. Fred Westphal has charge of the refreshment table, assisted by Mrs. Charles Dodwell, Mrs. Emma Weigman, Mrs. Julie Stephany and Mrs. Charles Denckiau.

BLIND SEWER TO BE BUILT.

Determined Effort to be Made to Drain Upper Part of Borough.

The contract for constructing a blind sewer for surface drainage in the upper part of the borough so that the present difficulty of having water in the various cellars will be removed, has been awarded to Patsy Christmas, who will start the work very soon. There is to be laid 1,600 feet of 11-inch pipe including 45 branches 12x4 inches. The pipes from the house to the main pipe is to be 4 inches. The water will be run into small brook in the rear of A. I. Smalley's property on Somerset street. The permission to cross Somerset street and locate the drain will probably be secured from the Borough Council Friday evening next.

Deputy Grand Master A. Y. Tomlinson, of Elizabeth, will pay a fraternal visit to Columbia Lodge, A. O. U. W., Friday night.

V. W. Nash, grand guide and deputy grand master of Columbia Lodge, A. O. U. W., visited Success Lodge, of Newark, last night.

—A meeting of special interest will be held at the Reform Club tomorrow night.

MUCH EXCITEMENT IN A VERY SMALL SPACE

Four Frightened Teams Became Mixed Up Near Station.

ONLLY ONE MAN WAS HURT.

THROWN INTO THE STREET AND BECAME UNCONSCIOUS.

A Truck, a Watering Cart, a Hack and a Bakery Delivery Wagon Were the Vehicles in the Accident—One Team Got Fractious and Then All the Other Horses Became Mixed Up.

A truck, a watering cart, a hack and a bakery wagon combined to make an exciting little happening at the corner of North and Watchung avenues this morning while the 8:13 train stood at the station. William McConnell, a driver for Blair's Metropolitan Stable, managed to land on his head and was the only serious sufferer by the accident.

The four trolley cars were bunched on the switch at North avenue and P. M. French's water cart had stopped by the hydrant at the corner to be refilled with water. Charles Francisco was the driver. Just then one of William Hand & Son's big trucks, loaded with ice, was coming north on Watchung avenue and started to turn into North avenue. Frank Hand was driving. The team attached to the truck became frightened at the trolley cars and shied into the team attached to the water cart. Then all four horses began kicking and plunging.

Behind the truck was one of Blair's hacks, driven by William McConnell, and with Frank E. Marsh, of Madison avenue, inside. McConnell started to pass between the truck and the trolley car when his horse became frightened as well and bolted. Right in front of the hack was W. W. Warnock's bakery wagon, driven by Mr. Warnock. He had been waiting for the truck to pass.

The hack and the bakery wagon came together with a crash. The horse to the hack broke away while the driver was shot over the dashboard, landing on his head in the roadway. He was unconscious when picked up and carried into Mallinson's pharmacy where he speedily recovered.

Meantime the horses of the truck and water-cart had been separated and quieted down without damage. The horse to the bakery wagon stood the shock bravely and was brought under control immediately. The horse to the hack was caught on North avenue, near Park avenue, and brought back.

The only damage to Warnock's rig was a broken cross bar. One of the shafts and part of the frame work of the hack was wrecked and the harness broken. McConnell was able to return to work with a swollen and badly aching head.

BEAUTIES OF THE EMERALD ISLE.

Rev. C. E. Herring Lectured on an Entertaining Subject.

An entertaining lecture was given last evening in the First Presbyterian church by the pastor, Rev. C. E. Herring, under the auspices of the King's Daughters, for the benefit of the church. The subject was "A Trip Through Ireland," and the views shown were taken by Mr. Herring a few years ago when he traveled through that country by wheel. Mr. Herring recited some very amusing incidents in connection with his lecture and told of some laughable experiences. He depicted life in the cities as well as the country, and gave those present a good idea of the way that the poor and rich live in Ireland. The views were all excellent and very clear. One thing noticeable was the good roads to be found in Ireland for wheeling, and in this respect Mr. Herring found his trip a delightful one.

Drake & Mundy Branching Out.

William Kilfoil, the Somerset street butcher, has made a change in his business, whereby Harry Drake and Clark Mundy, as the firm of Drake & Mundy, are to take charge of his market on Somerset street and run it in connection with their Front street market. Mr. Kilfoil has a market at Princeton and another one in New York, and he will divide his interests between the three markets, being away from Plainfield most of the time. He will still maintain an interest in the Somerset street market, but it will be conducted by Drake & Mundy.

Increasing Store Space.

Harry Drier, of West Front street, is making a number of improvements to his store. He is having his place enlarged by the removal of a partition that divided his store from the one formerly occupied by Aug. Wolf, the cigar dealer, and is having the place arranged for a larger space.

THE PALACES AND TEMPLES OF ANCIENT EGYPT

had their walls shining with gold and sparkling with precious stones, but modern art has contrived to design decorations of a less costly character in the beautiful designs and refined colors and shades of Wall papers, friezes, etc., such as Woolston & Buckle keep in their varied and elegant stock at such tempting prices.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

ROGERS.
232 West 2d St.
Seafood for Health
Always
Desirable
when direct from the nets.

M. E. STEPHENSON,
146 NORTH AVE.
Weddings, Dinners and Receptions supplied with every requisite. China, Glass, Linen and Silver to loan.
ESTIMATES
cheerfully furnished. Telephone orders will receive prompt attentention.
TELEPHONE 624.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections
210 PARK AVE.

PHILLIP SWAIN,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.
317 West Front street.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street. 8 12

E. B. Maynard,
NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

SPRING LAMB FOR EASTER.
This is Spring Lamb and not mutton, we carry mutton also, but there is a difference. When you ask for Spring Lamb you get it, and nothing else. It is tender and delicious. We also have a full line of Poultry of the highest grade, just try our Philo Capon, Farm Hill Turkey, Boston Ducks, Chickens of all kinds and broilers. Our Roast Beef is always up to the mark.
If you want a very choice Easter Dinner get your Meat and Poultry from us.
FRED ENDRESS,
131-135 West Front Street ONLY

ALEX. LUSARDI.
211 West Front Street,
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery. Nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores 1 year

L. L. Manning & Son.
STEAM
GRANITE WORKS,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low

DOBBINS.
CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

INTENSE SUFFERING

FROM DYSPEPSIA AND STOMACH TROUBLE

Instantly Relieved and Permanantly Cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

A New Discovery, But Not a Patent Medicine.

Dr. Redwell relates an interesting account of what he considers a remarkable cure of acute stomach trouble and chronic dyspepsia by the use of the new discovery, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

He says: "The patient was a man who had suffered to my knowledge, for years with dyspepsia. Everything he ate seemed to sour and create gases in the stomach; he had pains like rheumatism in the back, shoulder blades and limbs, fullness and distress after eating, poor appetite and loss of flesh; the heart became affected, causing palpitation and sleeplessness at night.

I give him powerful nerve tonics and blood remedies, but to no purpose. As an experiment I finally bought a fifty cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at a drug store and gave them to him. Almost immediate relief was given and after he had used four boxes he was to all appearances, fully cured.

There was no more acidity or sour watery risings, no bloating after meals, the appetite was vigorous and he has gained between 10 and 12 pounds in weight of solid, healthy flesh.

Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are advertised and sold in drug stores, yet I consider them a most valuable addition to any physician's line of remedies, as they are perfectly harmless and can be given to children or invalids or in any condition of the stomach with perfect safety, being harmless and containing nothing but fruit and vegetable essences, pure pepsin and Golden Seal.

Without any question they are the safest, most effective cure for indigestion, biliousness, constipation and all derangements of the stomach, however slight or severe."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are made by the F. A. Stuart Co., of Marshall, Mich., and are sold by druggists everywhere at fifty cents per package.

Little book on stomach diseases mailed free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall Mich.

New York Announcement.
SPRING—1899.
Horner's Furniture.

The BEST IN THE MARKET, because representing the productions of the best makers only. Other advantages are the unequalled assortments in all lines, whether wanted for city or country houses, and the very moderate prices at which the goods are marked.

The completeness of our assortments can best be understood from the fact that we carry in stock, and exhibit, more than two hundred and fifty distinctly different Bedroom Sets in every variety of material, as well as endless lines of Parlor, Drawing Room, Library and Dining Room Furniture, ranging from the modest and inexpensive to the most elaborately carved and inlaid.

In a word, every article required for use, comfort and adornment in the household can be had with its plainly marked moderate price at the Great Furniture Emporium of

R. J. Horner & Co.,
Furniture Makers and Importers,
61-65 W. 23d St., New York
(Adjoining Eden Musee.)
Horner & Co.'s establishment is one of the sights of New York.—Newspaper Comment.

This question of

EYES

is a most serious one. Too lengthy to discuss here. If your eyes are causing you discomfort, or if you suffer with headache, neuralgia or pain in the eyes, consult our specialist at

107 E. Front Street Every Thursday

Hours 10 to 5. Free Examination. Work guaranteed.

LEECH, STYLES & CO.

REVERE HOUSE
PARK AVENUE, 7th and 8th sts. | PLAINFIELD, New Jersey
Families accomodated for the Spring and Summer months at greatly reduced prices.
The house contains all modern improvements lighted by Gas and Electricity. Sanitary arrangements perfect. Cuisene unsurpassed
GEO. B. DE REVERE.

PROPOSALS FOR PEACE

A Proclamation Issued by the American Commission.

HOME RULE IS PROMISED

Natives Informed of the Objects of the United States Government in Assuming Sovereignty—No Real Conflict With Filipino Rights and Liberties—Desire to Ascertain Native Opinion.

Manila, April 5.—A proclamation was issued yesterday by the United States Philippine Islands by the peace treaty of the Philippine Islands to the United States, refers to the appointment of the Commission, assures the people of the cordial good-will and fraternal feeling of the President of the United States and the American people, and asserts that the object of the United States Government, apart from the fulfilment of its solemn obligations assumed toward the family of nations by the acceptance of the sovereignty over the islands, is the well-being, prosperity, and happiness of the Filipino people, and their elevation and advancement to a position among the most civilized peoples of the world. The document is as follows:

The commission desires to assure the people of the Philippine Islands of the cordial good will and fraternal feeling which is entertained for them by the President of the United States and by the American people.

The aim and object of the American Government, apart from the fulfilment of the solemn obligations it has assumed toward the family of nations by its acceptance of sovereignty over the Philippine Islands, is the well being, prosperity and happiness of the Philippine people and their elevation and advancement to a position among the most civilized peoples of the world.

The President believes that this felicity and perfection of the Philippine people is to be brought about by the assurance of peace and order, by the guarantee of civil and religious liberty, by the establishment of justice, by the cultivation of letters, science and the liberal and practical arts, by the enlargement of intercourse with foreign nations, by expansion of industrial pursuits, by trade and commerce, by multiplication and improvement of the means of internal communication, by development, with the aid of modern mechanical inventions, of the great natural resources of the archipelago, and, in a word, by the uninterrupted devotion of the people to the pursuit of useful objects and the realization of those noble ideas which constitute the higher civilization of mankind.

Unfortunately these pure aims and purposes of the American Government and people have been misinterpreted to some of the inhabitants of certain islands, and as a consequence the friendly American forces have, without provocation or cause, been openly attacked. And why these hostilities? What do the best Filipinos desire? Can it be more than the United States is ready to give? They are patriots and want liberty.

In the meantime the attention of the people of the Philippines is invited to certain regulative principles by which the United States will be guided in its relations with them.

These are deemed to be the points of cardinal importance:

1—The supremacy of the United States must and will be enforced throughout every part of the archipelago, and those who resist it can accomplish no end other than their own ruin.

Ample Liberty and a Just Government.

2—To the Philippine people will be granted the most ample liberty and self government of reconcilable with the maintenance of a wise, just, stable, effective and economical administration of public affairs and compatible with the sovereign and international rights and the obligations of the United States.

3—The civil rights of the Philippine people will be guaranteed and protected to the fullest extent; religious freedom will be assured, and all persons shall be equal and have equal standing in the eyes of the law.

4—Honor, justice and friendship forbid the use of the Philippine people or the islands they inhabit as an object of means of exploitation. The purpose of the American Government is the welfare and the advancement of the Philippine people.

5—There shall be guaranteed to the Philippine people an honest and effective civil service in which, to the fullest extent to which it is practical, natives shall be employed.

6—The collection and application of all taxes and other revenues will be placed upon a sound, economical basis, and the public funds, raised justly and collected honestly, will be applied only to defray the regular and proper expenses incurred by and for the establishment and maintenance of the Philippine Government and such general improvements as the public interests may demand. Local funds collected will be used for local purposes and not to be devoted to other ends.

With such prudent and honest fiscal administration it is believed that the needs of the government will, in a short time, become compatible with a considerable reduction in taxation.

7—A pure, speedy and effective administration of justice will be established whereby may be eradicated the evils arising from delay, corruption and exploitation.

Reforms of Every Description.

8—The construction of roads, railroads and similar means of communication and transportation and of other public works, manifestly to the advantage of the Philippine people, will be promoted.

9—Domestic and foreign trade and commerce, agriculture and other industrial pursuits tending toward the general development of the country, in the interests of the inhabitants, shall be objects of constant solicitude and fostering care.

10—Effective provision will be made for the establishment of elementary schools in which the children of the people may be educated, and appropriate facilities will be provided for a higher education.

11—Reforms in all departments of the government, all branches of the public service and all corporations closely touching the common life of the people will be undertaken without delay and effected comfortably with right and justice in a way to satisfy the well-founded demands and the highest sentiments and aspirations of the people.

Such is the spirit in which the United States comes to the people of the islands, and the President has instructed the Commission to make this publicly known.

In obeying his behest, the Commissioners desire to join the President in expressing their good will toward the Philippine people and to extend to the leading representative men an invitation to meet them for the purpose of personal acquaintance and the exchange of views and opinions.

JACOB GOULD SCHURMAN,
United States Commissioner.
GEORGE DEWEY,
Admiral, United States Navy.
ELWELL S. OTIS,
Major-Gen., United States Army.
CHARLES DENBY,
United States Commissioner.
DEAN C. WORCESTER,
United States Commissioner.

CERVERA'S SUNK'N FLEET.

Works of Raising the Vessels Given Up by the Neptune Company.

Washington, April 5.—Acting Secretary Allen to-day received a letter from the manager of the Neptune Company, the great Swedish wrecking corporation, announcing that it is not possible to raise and repair the vessels of Cervera's fleet sunk near Santiago. The conclusion is that in the case of the Colon the company cannot undertake to raise her unless the United States Government will guarantee expenses in the event of failure. The wreck is lying in the surf-line, and save on exceptionally calm days it cannot even be approached by small boats. As to the Vizcaya, the company finds that while it is entirely feasible to float her, she would probably not be worth enough to the United States Government to warrant the heavy expenditure.

The Swedish company having thus withdrawn, the Navy Department is free to entertain any other solid project that may be advanced for raising one or more of the Spanish ships. There is already pending a tentative proposition from a native corporation which has volunteered to deposit a bond to the amount of $40,000,000 to guarantee the successful prosecution of the work, and other more or less formal propositions have been advanced. If any responsible concern with practical experience behind it cares to venture upon the work, looking to Congress for reward in the event of success, the department will interpose no objection. Up to this moment it has maintained its claim to the wrecks, but unless some arrangement is speedily entered into for raising them, it is probable that it will allow individuals to break up the bulks and recover such of the property as may be saved.

Dread the Rainy Season in Cuba.

New York, April 5.—Many of the excursionists who returned here on the American liner Paris, from a month's cruise among the islands of the West Indies, said that the soldiers in Cuba and Porto Rico are anxious to be ordered back to the United States. They dread the rainy season which is approaching, and expect many deaths among the unacclimated from yellow fever and malarious diseases. Civilians also are anxious to leave the tropics during the rainy season. A recent arrival from Havana says that clerkships in government departments in Cuba are very easy to get just now. Many of the young men, who after the war rushed to the island from the United States and got good positions in the Quartermasters and Engineer Departments, are now resigning their positions, and making for home as fast as the ships can carry them. Even the talk of an increase of 25 per cent. during the rainy months has no effect in staying the departure of the men. In a few weeks, save for the regulars, Cuba will be in possession of the Cubans."

W. F. Leland Can Live but a Few Hours.

New York, April 5.—Dr. Pitkin stated this afternoon that Warren F. Leland, proprietor of the Windsor Hotel when it burned, was dying and the end was a question of only a few hours. Mr. Leland's great vitality has served to postpone the end. Dr. Pitkin stated that he had had a consultation with Dr. Bull. They agreed that there was nothing in Mr. Leland's condition to warrant any hope of his recovery. He has been sinking ever since the operation for appendicitis.

Mr. Leland might live until 6 o'clock, he said, or he might die during the afternoon. With the dying man are Charles W. Leland and Warren Leland, Jr.

There were many callers at the Grenoble Hotel during the day to inquire after Mr. Leland. Among them were ex-Governor Flower and Julius French.

Canal Investigation Fails.

Albany, April 5.—The special counsel appointed by Gov. Roosevelt and Attorney-General Davies to examine the testimony before the commission which investigated the conduct of the improvement work on the canal system under the provisions of the $9,000,000 appropriation act have completed more than half of their labors. It is learned from a trustworthy source that two-thirds of the testimony taken has been examined, and the counsel have found nothing with which to justify the institution of criminal proceedings against former State Superintendent of Public Works George W. Aldridge or former State Engineer and Surveyor Campbell W. Adams.

It will probably be near June 1 before their report will be submitted.

Tried to Steal a Bill.

Denver, Col., April 5.—E. H. Dickason, chief clerk of the House, disappeared near the end of the session yesterday, and it was openly charged that he had stolen the public-utilities bill, giving the Councils power to buy or build water-works or lighting plants, in order to prevent its being signed before adjournment. When found, Dickason was knocked down by a member of the House and dragged to the Senate chamber, where he was forced to deliver the missing bill to the clerk. Each House passed an anti-Trust bill, but they failed to agree upon a measure.

QUAY NOT TO WITHDRAW

His Followers Will Stick Until After the Trial.

MAGEE COUNSELS PEACE

Conferences of Democrats and Anti-Quay Republicans—Quay's Followers Say He Will Not Withdraw and That Magee's Defection Would Not Hurt Him.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 5.—Harrisburg is crowded with politicians. There were but two men of prominence who were not on the ground yesterday—ex-Senator Quay and John Wanamaker.

Yesterday there was a general round-up of the anti-Quay Senators and Representatives, called to decide for whom to vote if they switched off from Dalzell. This conference had an almost complete attendance. John Dalzell himself was in the hotel, but did not attend the conference.

George A. Jenks being a candidate like Dalzell, did not participate.

Col. Guffey presided at the meeting, which was mainly for the purpose of deciding whether there should be any departure from the present policy of voting for Jenks. The conference was continued almost to the time of the session of the Legislature.

All this energy did not appear to have any depressing effect upon the Quay forces, which were apparently as full of fight as at any time. Insurance Commissioner Durham said:

"No one should take any stock in the stories that Quay is inclined to retire from the Senatorial fight. He is as full of determination and enthusiasm as any of his friends, and he will stick to his guns until the last shot is fired."

"What about Magee?" Mr. Durham was asked.

"I only know that Magee and Quay have not seen each other yet. If you mean what would be the effect of Senator Magee withdrawing his support from Quay, I can only answer that by saying that it would not have any material effect upon the situation. However, Senator Magee has not yet withdrawn his support."

On the joint ballot the anti-Quay Republicans shifted from Congressman John Dalzell to Judge John Stewart of Franklin county, who was the independent candidate for Governor in 1882. Both the Franklin county members have been voting for Quay, and they continued to support him. Prior to the joint gathering of the House and Senate it was known that the insurgents would vote for Judge Stewart; that the Democrats had temporarily abandoned their scheme to change candidates, and that Senator Magee's change of front was still an event of the future. Interest centres particularly in the doings of Magee, as the insurgents admit frankly that he alone can win their fight for them. In a brief interview Mr. Magee said:

"There will be no change. But I am of the same mind as ever. It will be wrong to inject a factional fight into our party politics for two years more. I would like to see Quay re-elected Senator, but if he cannot be the Legislature should choose somebody else."

"Did you send an ultimatum to Quay?"

"No, that is a mistake. Like others, I believe ex-Senator Quay is not fully informed as to the situation here, or rather that he has only one source of information and it is biased."

After making this statement, Mr. Magee confided to a friend that it was unlikely he would change his vote this week. As to ex-Senator Quay, his lieutenants aver he will not withdraw.

Quay, his backers say, is to devote his time between now and Monday next to preparing for the trial of the conspiracy suits against him, and will insist on a trial of the cause. He has taken a shrewd position. He has refused to discuss withdrawal or compromise until after the time fixed for his trial and by this means has at least postponed the break. It is an appeal for fair play which will embarrass the opposition.

With the Magee break postponed and Quay demanding a trial before he is asked to withdraw, the chances for a solution of the puzzle are not improved.

Mayor McKisson's Defeat.

Cleveland, O., April 5.—Mayor McKisson has made the following signed statement concerning his defeat for re-election:

The Hanna bolters and corporation influences, through lavish use of money, elected Farley and defeated the head of the Republican ticket yesterday. That is all I care to say at present. ROBERT E. M'KISSON.

Mayor-elect Farley in an interview said to-day: "My election means simply that the people of Cleveland want honest government; that they are tired of McKissonism and are opposed to pillage and blackmail."

Representative Burton, who supported McKisson, said: "The defeat of Mr. McKisson can be attributed to a factional fight in our party. Of course, the charges of corruption had much to do with it, but after all factionalism did the work."

"What is the cause of the factionalism?" was asked.

"Oh, there can be but one answer, and that is, the Columbus episode of a year ago. Mr. McKisson made the mistake of his life in trying to thwart the will of his party."

Ministers to Pay Board.

Newark, N. J., April 5.—The Newark Methodist Conference, which meets in the Halsey Street Methodist Episcopal Church to-day, Bishop C. H. Fowler presiding, will inaugurate a new method of caring for the members during their stay in town. It has been the custom from time immemorial for the Methodist ministers while in attendance upon the Conference to be entertained without charge at the residences of the local Methodist families. This year the entertainment committee informed each member of the Conference that he would have to pay his way, and gave him a list of hotels and boarding-houses, with the rates charged.

A large number of the ministers report that the year has been a hard one. There were twenty-seven stormy Sundays out of forty-nine. This greatly affected the collections, and the benevolent contributions and the pastors' salaries have suffered in consequence.

Mullins
218-220 MARKET STREET, NEWARK.

Homes Furnished For $1 a Week.

$9.95 will buy one of these Solid Oak Chamber Suits, neatly carved, with beveled plate mirror, only $9.95

We have the largest stock of Chamber Suits ever offered in the city (in all woods,) from $9.75 to $50.

Handsome new Parlor Suits in Silk Damask, Tapestry, Plush or Velour, this week $24.50

We are now showing over 30 new Parlor Suits—all the very latest designs, without any doubt the largest and handsomest stock of Parlor Suits in the city. Prices from $22.50 to $350.

THIS IS CARPET HEADQUARTERS.

MULLINS SPRING CARPETS

And one visit to our store will convince you. Be sure and see our stock and get our prices before you buy.

Tapestry Brussels 45c to 75c yd
Velvets, 75c to $1 yd.
Moquettes 90c yd.

This is the Week to Buy Your Baby Carriage.

All New Designs, at Reduced Prices, from $3.25 to $25.
Go Carts this week at $1.50.
THE CARRIAGE ONLY $5.75
Open an Account with Us and You Will Save Money.

MULLINS & SONS.
218-220 Market St., Newark.
Branch Houses 78-84 Myrtle Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y. 121-125 Newark Ave., Jersey City, N. J., 136-138 Main St., Paterson, N. J.

The VAN'S They

sell the same as they buy, cheap. A bargain got should be a bargain given. Every item stands on its own merits as an individual bargain. We might fill this paper with talk, but what we want you to do is to visit our store, especially our always daylit basement, where we have the most complete ten cent department in the city. Here you buy the biggest on earth for the money.

10 CENTS

VanEmburgh & Son.

Van Arsdale's Shoes.
Men's, Women's and Children's Footwear
For Easter, Spring and Summer.

We believe the goods we are now showing contain the best selection of stylish and reliable footwear we have ever offered, and at our well-known popular prices.

VAN ARSDALE,
Repairing Properly Done. 127 East Front St.

The Shoe Store
AROUND THE CORNER.

Men folks all know what the W. L. Douglas Shoe is. They are better this year than ever. More style and wear than any $3 shoe in the market. If you want $3.00 worth of good shoe leather, try our W. L. Douglas shoe.

A. WILLETT & SON,
NO. 107 PARK AVE.

$3.50 "ELITE" $3.50

The swell new shoe for men, sells for $3.50. We believe it is better than any $3.50 made. Goodyear welt, hand sewed process; made of fine calf skin, Russia and patent leather; slick, up-to-date styles, fit for a king to wear. Come and see them.

J. & M. FINE SHOES FOR MEN, claimed to be the best $5.00 shoe made.

We sell Men's Shoes, $1.25 up. We sell Women's Shoes, 98c up. "Sorosis" the new shoe for women, $3.50. "Superior," the newer shoe for women, $3.00.

NEW DRESS SUIT CASES, TRUNKS, BAGS.

DOANE & EDSALL.

Direct from the Manufacturer to the Consumer.

ONE BIG WEEK.

Last Week Was One Continuous Rush from Monday Morning Until Saturday Night.

The old adage "Prices Tell," has been well illustrated with us by the patronage we have received since we opened the retail store.

The comment of all our customers are summed up in one sentence, viz; The cheapest line of stylish well-made clothing we ever saw. Here is a list of some of our most ready sellers.

Lot 4734, 5086, 5081, 5094 — 3.50 These are men's sack suits in fancy mixtures and we recommend them to anybody who wants solid wear for little money. $5.00 is cheap for them.

Lot 4567, 4561, 5067, 5059 — 3.75 These have been general favorites and are going fast. We were compelled to fill in on some of them. They are all right.

Lot 4600, 4605, 4589, 4592 — 4.75 Strictly all wool. We invite you to compare this line with the average $8.00 suit.

Lot 5232, 4630, 5011, 5027 — 5.00 Cheviots and fancy worsteds fit for anybody to wear any place. We have 19 styles at $5.00.

Ask to see Lot 5319, 5322, and 5380, 5383. These are $10.00 and they are beauties.

Lot 4896—Blue Serge, wire woven, $6.75, worth $10.00.
Lot 5406—Blue Serge, wide wale, very popular, $7.00. Compare them with the ordinary $12.00 suit.

Come and see our silk-lined overcoat, silk-lined to the edge. Those Fancy Vests the $4.00 kind, we have them for $2.00. You will be surprised to know that we sell a child's suit with extra pants for 98 cents.

SCHEPFLIN & SCHULTZ,

M. J. CASHIN, Manager Retail Store.

322 West Front Street. Schepflin Block

An old gentleman, who had employment as a school janitor, found his work terribly interfered with by continuous headaches, which would follow headaches, and of so severe a nature that he could scarcely stand, sit or walk. He was subjected to a great deal of dust and dirt and changes of temperature, and suffered with a torpid liver and, of course, was a victim to all the ailments that a foul stomach can produce. He had taken but a few Ripans Tabules, when he became convinced that he had found in them a permanent cure. His headaches are less violent and further apart, his digestive organs perform their functions, and his liver throws out foul matter like a trip-hammer—so he says.

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR FIVE CENTS. This is the cheapest and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (120 tabules) [illegible] eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York. [illegible] will be sent for five cents. RIPANS TABULES may also be had of grocers, general dealers, druggists, agents and at liquor stores and barber shops.

YOU Should See

The Great Showing OF SHIRT . . . . . WAISTS

AT LEDERER'S.

THE DOLLAR DINNER ROW.

Boulton and Brewster Have a War of Words.

New York, April 5.—The gulf between the Chicago platform Democrats and the labor men over the dispute regarding the giving of a dinner at which Mr. Bryan is expected to be chief guest widened greater yesterday. The latest development is the threat of A. J. Boulton, of the committee's committee, to appeal to the Supreme Court for an injunction to restrain Brewster and his supporters from using the Grand Central Palace for its dollar dinner on April 19.

Brewster and Boulton had a very lively time of it at the former's office, in Brooklyn.

"Mr. Brewster," said Boulton upon being seated, "I have called to notify you that our committee have taken the advice of two lawyers, and you are liable to arrest for having drawn out of bank the money deposited in behalf of our committee. Now, Mr. Brewster, we don't want to resort to harsh measures."

Brewster here broke in with: "Go ahead! Why don't you? I wish you would."

"Well," Boulton continued, "our committee yesterday saw Mr. Maze, manager of the Grand Central Palace, and he said he would recognize the committee of three, and as two of our men are members of that committee we could go right ahead with our arrangements. I have been instructed to procure an injunction, but think a compromise can be effected."

"No compromise," said Brewster, "get out your injunction."

ROOSEVELT AND THE MACHINE.

Not Courting Its Favor, but Willing to Have Its Help.

Albany, April 5.—Gov. Roosevelt has been criticised because he invited Senator Platt to visit Albany and permitted him to make the executive chamber his headquarters when he went to the Capitol to see his followers in the Senate and Assembly. Some persons have assumed, too, that the Governor has "gone over to the machine" on account of his apparently cordial relations with Platt and his lieutenants and because his list of appointments, and the explanation has been offered that he is looking forward to 1900 and shaping his policy to secure the support of the machine in the next Republican national convention. A friend of the Governor, who has exact information concerning his attitude towards the Republican organization, says that both the criticism and the assumption were unjustified.

"The fact is," he added, "that the Governor is not closer to the machine than he was before the Saratoga convention, and he has done nothing to court the favor of those who will, presumably, control the New York delegation to the national convention. He has not, however, sought any quarrel with the Republican organization. He recognizes the fact that, in order to accomplish anything during the first year of his administration, he must have the aid of the Republicans in the Legislature, and he has done all that he could do, without sacrificing principle, to secure that aid. The Governor does not believe in setting up impossible ideals, insisting on their acceptance by everybody and posing as a martyr when they are not accepted. He believes in trying to accomplish a great deal of good; but if that is impossible, he wants to accomplish something, anyhow. In other words, if he cannot get all that he wants, he takes what he can get.

The Buffalo Building and Loan Affair.

Buffalo, April 5.—The lawyers for the Globe Savings and Loan Association have hopes of being able to recover a part or all of the $10,500 of the association's funds which were drawn by Eastwood and his associates, they may bring actions against the Marine Bank and the Erie County Savings Bank to recover the amount which they paid over, on the ground that the election of Eastwood and White as officers of the association was illegal, and that the banks, therefore, had no legal right to transfer the accounts on their books from the former treasurer, Miller, to Eastwood. The City Bank, however, is safe from such suit. With rare precaution, Cashier Boag of that bank insisted that Mr. Miller should make out his check to Eastwood for the whole amount of the association's funds on deposit in the bank.

Some lawyers expressed the opinion that there is no good ground for criminal action against any of the men concerned, and that they were acting within their legal rights. Other lawyers, who are, perhaps, better informed on the subject, say that the single action of investing the association's funds in lands outside of Erie County, presuming that the alleged transaction by which the money was taken from the City Bank was bona-fide, is a criminal act and renders all concerned liable, as the charter of the Globe Savings and Loan Association absolutely forbids its officers to loan or invest any funds outside of this county.

Boston City Employees.

Boston, April 5.—The Board of Aldermen yesterday, by a majority vote, united with the Common Council in passing over the Mayor's veto an amendment to the ordinances which stipulates that every male subordinate in the employ of the city shall be a legal voter in Boston. This is a very important amendment, and a test of its constitutionality may not be long deferred. It is claimed that the employes of the Department of Education are not affected by its workings, but there are scores of other employes who do not claim a residence in this city.

A Whiskey Deal.

Louisville, Ky., April 5.—The money for the old W. H. McBrayer distillery in Bourbon county was paid yesterday by the Kentucky Distilleries and Warehouse Company. The consideration was not stated.

Prices of whiskey are advancing rapidly. It appears that the trade is beginning to buy, concluding that the list of prices recently issued by the combination will be the standard of all prices.

Government of Cuba.

Havana, April 5.—Governor-General Brooke is engaging in the United States four expert accountants to act as traveling auditors, thus simplifying and making uniform municipal and provincial book-keeping by occasional and unexpected examinations.

'BALMED BEEF AT LAST

Dr. W. E. Daly Substantiates Gen. Miles' Charges.

HE USES PLAIN LANGUAGE

On the Transport Panama—The Whole Ship Pervaded With the Stench of Bad Meat—It Smelled Like a Bouquet of Cesspoos—Analysis Proved That Meat Was Chemically Treated.

Washington, April 5.—Dr. William H. Daly was the star witness before the military court of inquiry yesterday. He was a medical member of Gen. Miles's staff in Porto Rico, and had previously testified before the court, and was recalled to complete his testimony then begun. After relating the extent of his service with Gen. Miles, Dr. Daly stated, in response to questions from Major Lee, that he had been made President of various national medical societies of the United States and a number of foreign societies in recognition of scientific investigations by himself, and without any asking on his part.

His testimony dealt on this occasion, as on his first appearance, especially with the beef supplied to the army. He had, he said, made sufficient observations to warrant him in submitting an official report, and after that time he had made an analysis which had confirmed his suspicions as to the meat. His first observations had been made on a transport at Tampa, before the sailing of the expedition to Santiago, when Col. Weston invited his attention to a quarter of beef hanging on the deck. Col. Weston's only remark was, "Here's a quarter of beef which has been hanging here for sixty hours in the sun; we are going to see what it will do." No reference was made to preservatives. His (Dr. Daly's) attention had immediately been aroused. "I was rather pleased," he said. "I felt that if the beef could be preserved so long it was a good thing." He then cut off a piece of the beef and cooked and ate it next day. After that he became sick at the stomach, but he had not felt convinced that the meat had caused the sickness.

Aftr some reference to his stay in Porto Rico, Dr. Daly detailed the particulars of the trip North on the transport Panama last September, which was in his charge. The vessel had been provided on setting out with the best obtainable refrigerator beef, but the vessel had not gone far before it became evident that it was not good. He did all that he could to quiet the complaints, but they increased, and the stench soon grew so strong that it pervaded the whole ship. The odor was indescribable. He at last suggested a board of survey; and one being ordered, it had condemned the meat left, about 1,500 pounds, and he had it thrown overboard.

Here Dr. Daly took occasion to pay his respects to the War Inkuiry Commission, before which he appeared. He said the Commission had given out the impression that the deterioration of the beef on the Panama was due to want of ice. This was contrary to his testimony, and the truth could easily have been ascertained. As a matter of fact, the Panama had an excellent refrigerator, and it carried ten tons of ice to one of beef. He also referred to the criticism by the War Commission of his use of the expression in his report that the smell about the beef was like the odor of boric acid. "It is," he said, "as difficult to say what a smell is like as it is for an artist to paint a dying groan. If the phrase was offensive," he added, "I might have adopted the language of the soldiers, some of them said it 'smelt like the devil,' and others compared it to a 'bouquet of cesspools.'" Dr. Daily said he had since made experiments upon beef subjected to treatment by boric acid, and had found it to give forth about as foul a smell as could well be imagined.

Major Lee then read various reports made by Dr. Daly concerning official inspections of the beef at the camps of Jacksonville, Lexington, and Chickamauga. All these stated that the meat used generally looked well but that there was a universal complaint of its smelling badly. He had found the fresh beef to be apparently preserved by the injection of some chemical which destroyed its natural flavor, and which must of necessity have been injurious to the health of those eating it. It was to his mind impossible to preserve the meat without the use of acids, and apparently the meat had been preserved "by the injection of chemicals to aid the work of defective cold storage." In one case he had found the odor similar to that of a dead human body, and in another, speaking of the odor, he said: "It was unnatural, mawkish, sickly, like that of a human cadaver after an undertaker had injected his embalming preservative."

He was satisfied that the beef had been chemically prepared; that it had been embalmed, in fact. After his reports had gone in, he had, in order to satisfy his own mind, made a chemical analysis of a residuum from the beef used on the Panama, and had found distinct evidence of the presence of boric and salicylic acids.

He then referred again to the report of the War Commission, in which reference had been made to the use of these drugs, the intimation being that a trace of them would not be injurious. Replying, Dr. Daly asserted that the chemicals were detrimental to health, and they could only be used at the peril of those taking them. "No matter what authority says these chemicals are safe, they are not safe," said Dr. Daly emphatically.

Here Dr. Daly introduced a joint report made by Dr. Clark, chemist, and Dr. Hildebrandt, chemist of the Geological Survey, on an analysis made by them of residuum from the beef used on the Panama. In this report they said they had examined the powder furnished by Mr. Daly. "Both the flame test and the turmeric-paper test gave distinct evidence of the presence of boric acid," they said. "We also obtained good reactions with ferric-chloride, showing the presence of salicylic acid.

In response to a general question, Dr. Daly said that he had come into much information confirmatory of what he had testified to, but which had come to him in a confidential way, rendering it improper for him to give the names of those s[illegible] the facts. In truth, a l[illegible] had [illegible] the information. I [illegible] that some forty or fifty perso[illegible] to him in confidence [illegible] had said. These were the p[illegible] of slaughtering-houses and the manufacturers of chemicals. One man[illegible] had told him that he would have been compelled to go out of business but for the patronage of the beef men. He said, after some questioning, that he would ascertain whether he could give the names of these people to the court.

SAMOA COMMISSION ASSURED.

Acceptance by Great Britain of the General Proposition.

Washington, April 5.—Lord Salisbury has accepted the plan proposed by Germany for the settlement of the Samoan trouble by the appointment of a tripartite commission. The acceptance is of the broad principle only, and the details of the arrangement are yet to be agreed upon. As the United States has already accepted the general proposition, there is no longer doubt as to the organization of the commission.

German Statement of the Situation.

Berlin, April 5.—Dr. von Hamann, Under-Secretary of the German Foreign Office, was asked to-day for a statement regarding Admiral Kautz's charge made against Herr Rose, the German Consul at Apia. He said: "That is Admiral Kautz's view. The other view is that the whole trouble came by others interfering in the royal election. We have no official news about Herr Rose having issued a proclamation. We cannot tell what its contents are. Impartial as we have been in Dr. Raffel's case, I can say that if Herr Rose issued a provocative proclamation we shall disavow it. That Herr Rose protested at the Consuls' meeting we know, but that is a different thing from a proclamation."

When he was questioned as to the status of the negotiations on the subject of Samoa, Dr. von Hamann remarked: "Dr. von Bülow (the Minister of Foreign Affairs) has shortened his leave and returned to Berlin because he desires to carry on the negotiations himself. He had a long conference yesterday with the British Ambassador, and to-day he conferred with the United States Ambassador." He said that England had been holding back against Germany's proposal to send a joint commission to Samoa.

HARRISON ELECTED IN CHICAGO.

It Was a Three Cornered Fight and Party Lines Were Broken.

Chicago, April 5.—Present Mayor Carter D. Harrison was re-elected for a second term yesterday.

Spring-like weather brought the voters to the polls with a rush, and a third of the total ballots were cast in several wards before 8 o'clock. Party lines were cut to pieces, for thousands of Republicans voted for the re-election of Harrison. On the other hand, many Democrats passed by the regular Democratic nominee and supported ex-Gov. Altgeld, who was running on an independent ticket, which indorsed the Chicago platform of 1896 and municipal ownership of street railways.

Altgeld's strength was an unknown quantity and baffled the political calculators. Another complication was the fact that a large number of disgruntled Democrats were voting for Z. R. Carter, the Republican candidate. From early indications the race seemed to be between Harrison and Carter.

The early balloting was heavier than at any recent election, not excepting the Presidential contest of 1896. Altgeld showed unexpected strength in the stock yards district, where the packing house employes and railroad men recollected the Governor's stand against sending Federal troops to Chicago during the strike of 1894.

The threatened trouble in the First Ward over imported voters did not materialize. The police force in every precinct in this ward had been doubled, and no electioneering was allowed within 100 feet of the polling booths.

In several of the wards over two-thirds of the vote had been recorded by 10 o'clock. The registration approximated 361,000.

Metropolitan Roads Combine.

New York, April 5.—The agreement of the Manhattan Elevated Railroad Company with the Third Avenue Railroad Company by which a complete system of transfers is established between the lines controlled by the two companies has given rise to all sorts of rumors in rapid transit circles.

It was stated in many quarters that there would certainly be an extension of the combination in the near future to include the Brooklyn Rapid Transit systems, which were recently consolidated under the leadership of Roswell P. Flower. There was reason to believe that Mr. Flower was aware of the negotiations between the Manhattan and the Third Avenue interests long before the result of the negotiations, as announced late yesterday afternoon, became public.

Mr. Flower, however, disclaimed all knowledge of the matter, and said that he had never considered for a moment the feasibility or desirability of such an extension of the arrangement which holds such large promise for the companies already combined.

When asked if he thought the consolidation of the Brooklyn system with the Manhattan and Third Avenue combination was probable, he replied jocosely: "Give it up.

"I know nothing about the arrangement between the Manhattan and Third Avenue companies," he continued.

Mr. Flower expressed himself last night as opposed to the subway scheme of the Rapid Transit Commission.

"I do not believe in the tunnel scheme," he said. "I do not think it necessary or profitable. If the Metropolitan and Manhattan were to combine they could furnish all the rapid transit that is needed in Manhattan."

For the Conscience Fund.

Washington, April 5.—The Secretary of the Treasury to-day received in an envelope postmarked New York three one thousand dollar bills, which came as an inclosure in the following letter:

"The inclosed belongs to the United States Treasury. Conscience demands its return. God knows the name and the sin."

The Secretary also received from New York the sum of $5, with a note which said:

"Conscience fund. Five dollars due the United States."

Until April 1st, 1899.

Great Cut in Prices.

Full set of Teeth . $7 50
Filling at reduced Prices.
Extracting, one or two 25c
Painless Extracting . . 50c
Gas Extracting . . . $1 00

TERMS CASH.

DR. C. H. CLARK
Office at residence, 209 E. FRONT ST.

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

BICYCLES BICYCLES
George Gould,
AGENT FOR
VICTOR, PATEE, WAVERLY, IVANHOE and NASSAU SPECIAL
Rents, Repairs, Sundries and Storage.
326 PARK AVENUE.
CLIFTON BUILDING.

NEW YORK CITY AND COUNTRY WORK : : OUR SPECIALTY : : | Satisfaction guaranteed. Stages to hire.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

F. A. LONG, No. 106 SOMERSET ST Near Manning Avenue.
Up-to-Date Cash Grocery Store
Orders called for and delivered in any part City or Dunellen.

ARLINGTON HOTEL.
(Splendid Mountain View.)
SOMERSET ST. AND GREENBROOK ROAD.
Charles Jensen, Prop'r.
First class bar. Large parlor with piano for parties, receptions etc. Stable and shed accommodations.

M. POWERS,
DEALER IN
LEHIGH COAL.
FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.
Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A.
Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

E. S. F. RANDOLPH,
DRUGGIST,
Cor. Liberty and Fourth Sts. Telephone 781
PRESCRIPTIONS FILLED DAY OR NIGHT.

TRY THE
QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,
No. 337 Park Avenue
(Miller Building.)
Goods called for and delivered free of charge.
Domestic or gloss finish.

H. HAND,
Licensed Auctioneer.
OFFICE— Corner South Ave. and Berckman St.
REAL ESTATE and FIRE INSURANCE.
11 16 1m

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107, 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to.

SOMERSET HOTEL
Somerset St. and Lincoln Place.
North Plainfield, N. J
W. F. DREYER, Proprietor.
AMPLE ACCOMODATIONS FOR MAN AND BEAST.

F. A. DUNHAM,
—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—
109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87 F.

J. C Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

WHY DO YOU SUFFER
so long with an aching tooth? We think there is nothing worse. So easy to prevent it if you would have them examined more often. Stop the pain and save the tooth when you can. We always need all we have, and of course never miss them till they're gone. Free advice for the asking.
OFFICE HOURS 8 TO 6.

Full Set guaranteed	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown (22 k.)	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c to 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. C. W. LEONARD,
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE
Over City National Bank
Entrance on Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

Arrival and Departure of Mails

NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m., 3:00, 5, 5:20 p. m
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m., 12:30, 2:00, 5:00, 7:20 p.m.

SOMERVILLE and EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m., 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA Direct.
Arrive—8:40 and 11:30 a. m., 1:00 and 3:00 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a. m., 3:00 p. m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M

STAGE ROUTE.
Plainfield and Scotch Plains.
STAGE LEAVES PLAINFIELD (E. FRONT ST., OPP. PARK AVE.) 9:30 a. m., 12:45, 4:00 and 6:00 P. M.
STAGE LEAVES SCOTCH PLAINS, (FRONT POST OFFICE) 10:30 a. m., 2:00, 5:00 and 7:00 p. m.
Upon notice a special stage will be held for parties of six or more attending the theatre or other attraction.
THOS. NEWMAN, Prop.

FRENCH
Plate glass mirror, oak mantel, complete with summer front, for $13.00. You can't equal it elsewhere.
CURTIS M. THORPE,
310-312 PARK AVE.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills
25c.
A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.
MALLINSON'S
North and Watchung avenues.

EASTER
Cards and Novelties.
Paas Egg Dyes at
HARPER'S,
411 Park Ave Plainfield, N. J

RUSHMORE & CO.
WATCHUNG AVE.
and FOURTH ST
Dealers in
Lumber, Coal and Wood
Moulding & Planing Mill
Turning and Scroll Sawing.

L. A. HUMMER,
Variety Market.
Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.
163 SOMERSET STREET.
Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun. John P. Emmons
Telephone 601.

REMOVAL.
I have moved my stock of
BOOTS AND SHOES
TO 120 W. FRONT ST., with Crane, the hatter,
B. R. FORCE.

THE DAILY PRESS

A. L. FORCH, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:30 p. m.

246 North avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week $5 a year—in advance

No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada

Delivered by carrier or by mail.

The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district

Any subscriber failing o receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N.J., APRIL 5 1899.

FEATURES OF TODAY'S PRESS.

PAGE 1.—Important local news.
PAGE 2.—Telegraphic news.
PAGE 3.—Telegraphic news.
PAGE 4.—Editorial and gossip.
PAGE 5.—Vicinity news.
PAGE 6.—Woman's department.
PAGE 6.—German news.
PAGE 7.—Miscellaneous.
PAGE 8.—Sporting and local news.

COMING EVENTS.

April 4—Recital by Mrs. Frank J Smith at the Casino.
April 5—Annual meeting of First Presbyterian church and Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church.
April 6—Entertainment at Park Club.
April 6—"Feast of All Nations," lecture room Trinity Reformed church.
April 6—Belshazzar at the Casino.
April 6—Meeting of Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A.
April 6—"Natural Gas" at Music Hall. Benefit of stage hands.
April 8—Concert by the Cecelia Bradford Trio at Y. M. C. A. Hall.
April 9—Evangelist Tom Graham and Cecelia Bradford Trio, of New York, at the men's rally at Y. M. C. A., 4:15 p. m.
April 10—Union Bible class taught by Rev. D. M. Stearns.
April 10—Literary Society of the Y. M. C. A.
April 17—Star Course entertainment in Y. M. C. A. Hall
April 20—Gymnastic exhibition at Y. M. C. A.

The Law and Gambling.

As possibly might be expected, Judge Runyon's interpretation of the city ordinances in reference to gambling has caused curious views to be taken outside of Plainfield in that connection, and here is one of them taken from the Paterson Press:

Plainfield's police will make no more raids on private poker parties. The city authorities have decided that the law applies only to regular gambling dens, deriving a revenue either directly or indirectly from the game. Poker games in private parties, even with money for stakes, will not be subject to interruption by the city's guardians. If this is the right interpretation of the law the way of the men who run poker joints should be easy if they have a modicum of shrewdness. All that is necessary for them to escape punishment is to conduct their business in a place sufficiently equipped with a bed and other furniture to give it a reasonable air of domesticity and to swear that it is a "private" house. The concealment of the dangerous revenue feature should not be difficult. Under the common law gambling is unlawful anywhere at any time, and this fine distinction must remain one of those mysteries that baffle even the men who are learned in the great social science.

The apprehension that The Press exhibits for the welfare and good morals of Plainfield in respect to gambling is scarcely warranted by a knowledge of the situation. While it is a fact that indiscriminate raids of alleged gambling houses by the police and subsequent sentences to the county jail or payment of heavy fines on flimsy evidence is a thing of the past under Judge Runyon's ruling, it is not so that "the way of the men who run poker joints should be easy if they have a modicum of shrewdness."

Both the common law and the city ordinances are ample in power to cope with illegal practices, and it is not to be expected that Plainfield is degenerating because Judge Runyon has fitted his work in with the law.

The Fire Department.

Like many other municipal safeguards of life and property the fire department is peculiar. There are times when there is apparently no use for it; and again there are times when it is needed in the very worst way. When the flames threaten the lives of his dear ones and the welfare of his property, the interested citizen begins to realize that funds invested in a good fire department are not thrown away.

While the appropriation in this city for the fire department is larger than heretofore, the increase seems justified by circumstances. It provides for the formation of a partially paid department instead of the old volunteer system, a change that is greatly needed. The ordinance, providing for the change, is now before the Common Council and there seems no doubt but that it will be passed.

The introduction of the "call" system is recommended by the fire committee of the Council. It is a wise measure. The committee makes several other recommendations that are not quite so wise. It proposes to reduce the force in the central part of the city and equip the new house in the West End. Past experience has not shown that there is a bit too much apparatus centrally located.

The city is advised to sell the West Second street engine house and devote the money therefrom to a fund for a new house when necessary. Even if the house is not absolutely needed at present, it is only a question of a comparatively short time before the city will have to another house. The engine house could be disposed of for very little while a new site would be decidedly expensive.

A Washington correspondent of the Newark News, who has made a study of the Vice-Presidential situation in the Republican party as affecting Mr. Hobart, declares that the New Jersey man is really desirous of a second term. If Mr. Hobart should not be the tail to the National Republican kite, it is calculated that he would become an active candidate for election as successor to United States Senator Sewell. The news correspondent says that Mr. Hobart does not want to be instrumental in preventing General Sewell from being honored again. The high office of Vice-President, the social surroundings, the business opportunities, and the certainty of being President should Mr McKinley be so unfortunate as to die in office are greater temptations to a man of ambition, such as the Vice-President, than to be simply a member of a body that he has presided over.

"Valuable franchises should not be given away gratis, and they should not be allowed to pass out of the hands of the people." Such are the words of Russell Sage—good, sound sense, but surprising from such a man as he. The man who would have prophesied that Russell Sage would have given voice to such an utterance a decade ago would have been considered a fit candidate for inquiry into his mental condition; and yet those who now predict that certain things may transpire in another ten years along the same line as Mr Sage's expressed sentiment, are called the veriest socialists and anarchists.

The Raleigh News and Observer says that "the rising tide of indignation against trusts is not based upon antagonism to wealth legally acquired and honestly employed It is not shared in alone by the poor, but by all those of moderate fortunes and many of the rich who have no desire to use their wealth to oppress their fellows, to destroy avenues of success to young men or to see the laws against monopoly set at defiance by men who are the outlaws of commerce."

The more that Alger hears about himself and the army scandals the more determined he seems to face it out. At the proper time he may be kicked out.

The legislative committee appointed to investigate the affairs of New York city will be Moss backed, but up-to-date at the same time.

The Los Angles Heard suggests that "the Philippine Islands may yet prove a Philippi to Wm. McKinley."

There are too many men who are only friends of good government when they are part of the consideration.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

The city of Trenton is making a unique experiment, which has for its purpose reform in the methods of municipal government. The services of Rev. Josiah Strong and Wm. H. Tolman, of New York, president and secretary of the League for Social Service, have been engaged, and a series of eight mass meetings began Sunday night The movement will savor some of the old fashioned revival, but it will not be of a religious character. Such topics as the problem of the city children, improved housing, public baths, municipal housekeeping and Twentieth Century problems are to be discussed.

* * * * *

George J. Litterst, Sheriff of Middlesex county, has had the gallows, which for so long has been one of the adjuncts to the County jail at New Brunswick, was broken into kindling wood by members of the chain gang. This was done on Saturday, and in the event of there being need of a gallows in the future the county will have to furnish a new one. The old gallows which has been identified with the history of the jail for a long period was used for three murderers. Those who suffered the death penalty upon it were John Fox, who killed James Henry; Bridget Durgan, who poisoned Mrs. Coriell, and Michael Sullivan, who killed Thomas Talmadge.

* * * * *

C. Maynard Evans, of East Front street, a widely known travelling man, left Plainfield yesterday on a business trip of some extent and with a view of showing that a great amount of territory can be covered within a short space of time. Mr. Evans expects to return to Plainfield about Saturday, April 29th, and while away he will visit Trenton, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Pittsburg, Wheeling, W. V., Columbus, O, Springfield, O., Cincinnati, O, Indianapolis, St. Louis, Chicago, Grand Rapids, Detroit, Toledo, Cleveland, Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse, Cortland, Albany and New York. In making this trip Mr. Evans has arranged every detail including time for arriving and leaving each place The trip, if made according to schedule, will be a remarkable one, covering so much ground in such a short time.

GIVE THE CHILDREN A DRINK

called Grain-O. It is a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it because when properly prepared it tastes like the finest coffee but is free from all its injurious properties. Grain-O aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder, and children, as well as adults, can drink it with great benefit. Costs about ¼ as much as coffee 15 and 25c.

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD

CURRENT ATTRACTIONS THAT PLAINFIELDERS MAY WITNESS.

Local and Metropolitan Performances That Will Please Those Who Delight in the Art of Thespis and Mimic World.

Music Hall will take on an unusual degree of interest tomorrow, for it will be transformed into an immense reservoir of "Natural Gas," for the stage hands benefit. It was struck several years ago by H. Gratton Donnelly, the author. The comedy is a satire on the "fake speculations" The plot is exceedingly funny. The story is told by unusually brisk, interesting conversation, and the various amusing situations are reached without tiresome explanations, the surprise of their advent adding much to their enjoyableness. "Natural Gas," with Eddie Girard at the head of a very strong cast of funmakers, is sure to prove one of the most enjoyable engagements of the season. Eddie Girard has long been a favorite comedian, and in the deliciously funny role of Policeman Whirlem O Rourke introduces this season new specialties and many clever bits of character work that have so far created a furore of merriment.

* * * * *

"In Gay Paree" has opened the spring season at the Casino, in New York, where it seems likely to remain for several weeks, or perhaps until it is time to seek recreation on the roof. For spectacular purposes the anti nuptial adventures of the betrothed young couple are excellent. The oddly advised preliminary honeymoon trip around the suburbs of Paris brings the family party upon scenes of revelry at one place and of rural festivity at another, in the illustration of which the management have gone to an expensive extreme with results that are delightful and surprising The romp and revel at the Cafe Robinson, Act 1. and the Wine-Growers festival at Argenteuil, Act 2., are resplendent achievements and long to be remembered. The magnificence of the pageantry is simply overwhelming.

* * * * *

The next attraction which will occupy the attention of the patrons of Music Hall Saturday matinee and evening comprises a superb production of Mrs Frances Hodgson Burnett's masterpiece, "Little Lord Fauntleroy" (by special arrangement with Samuel French), with America's greatest little actors, the Smedley children, Masters Ellis and Edwin alternating in the title role. These are the children who, during the past two years have jointly starred in this paragon domestic drama. Each member of the supporting company of players has been chosen, because of his or her special aptness for the part assigned. The management desires particularly to call the attention of the public to the signal distinction of the Smedley children. They so divide their work, that while one brother is taking his rest, the other is entertaining the audience as the "Little Lord Fauntleroy" and it frequently happens that the brothers alternate in playing the acts of the piece during the performance. The effect of this careful alternating in the title role is to continue the stars in the best of rosey health and spirits all the time.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Miss May Sheppard, of Central avenue, has accepted a position as milliner with a Newton, N. J., firm.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis H. Flannery, of New York, have returned after a short visit with Plainfield relatives.

Mr. Comstock and family, of Fifth street, have moved to Sheepheads Bay, where they will reside permanently.

Mrs. Elizabeth Parse, of Grove street, has returned from Knoxville, Tenn., where she has been visiting relatives.

William Bradley, of Fifth street, is having his voice trained by William Holmes, of West Front street, with a view of doing solo work in church music.

The Appetite of a Goat

Is envied by all poor dyspeptics whose Stomach and Liver are out of order. All such should know that Dr. King's New Life Pills, the wonderful Stomach and Liver Remedy, gives a splendid appetite, sound digestion and a regular bodily habit that insures perfect health and great energy. Only 25 cents at any Drug Store.

Moving Time

This is the time that tries men's souls. Many annoying things occur to vex the heart of the good housewife. Things are broken or lost, carpets and shades don't fit, new furniture is needed, old articles must be replaced by something more in keeping with new surroundings, new conditions develop new needs, etc. etc., until distraction almost ensues. But as "every cloud has a silver lining"—just so is there a way out of all your perplexities. Your wants may be so easily, quickly and satisfactorily met by calling on us and making known your needs. If you want Carpets, we have them and they were never so cheap, never so beautiful and entirely new. If shades are needed they are here, mounted on best spring rollers in any desired color. If your windows require odd sizes we can make them for you at once. Does your Kitchen need a new covering? Oil Cloths and Linoleums may be had for the asking. We lay them for you if you wish it. Worn places in carpets may be covered by rugs. A special Wilton Nubia Rug (worth $1.25) at 98c. will answer the purpose. If your Library, Dining Room or Office needs a new art-square, say about 9x12, you may have one of Ingrain, Reversible Jute, Reversible Wool or Wilton Velvet from $6.98 to $33, according to your taste or the condition of your pocketbook. It may be that your table needs replenishing with some new dishes. Several new Open Stock dinner patterns imported for the first time this season may be the means of relieving this difficulty. Kitchen utensils perhaps should be replaced by articles that are brighter, newer and more convenient. We are not sure but that the servent girl question might be solved in great measure by more liberal patronage of our culinary department. Lace Curtains, Chenille Curtains, Tapestry Curtains, Sash Curtainings, Vestibule Lace, Curtain Poles and Fixtures, Upholstery Tapestries, etc. All kinds of Furniture we sell cheaper than any other house in the business.

REMEMBER THIS.

All our goods are new, fresh and reliable. No Auction goods handled, no old goods from other stores.

Thursday's Specials.

All our 98c Shirt Waists	75c ea
All our 50c Shirt Waists	39c ea
Two Special Percale Wrappers at	69 and 89c
All our 10c Dress Ginghams	8c yd
All our Amoskeag Apron Ginghams	4¾c yd
All our 25c Dress Goods	20c yd
36-in Fast Black Moire Percaline	9c yd
All our 1.25 Muslin Night Gowns	98c ea
Special Muslin Drawers, Cluster of Tucks and Hems	25c
Special Muslin Drawers, Cluster of Hamburg Ruffles	39c
25c Ribbed Vests	19c
25c Stock Collars	19c
All our 50c Corset	39c
No. 1 All Silk, Satin Ribbon	1c yd
Brown's French Shoe Dressing	8c bottle
All Linen Hemstitched Handkerchiefs	10c
Best Germantown Yarn	10c skein
Best Saxony Yarn	8c skein
5 pairs 25c Hose (Fast Black)	1.00
33c Fringed Damask Towels	25c
75c Bleached Table Linen 70-in	50c
69c ½ Bleached Table Linen 70-in	49c

DOWN STAIRS.

Special For Milkmen.

½ Pint Bottles	55c doz
1 Pint Bottles	65c doz
1 Quart Bottles	75c doz
Waxed Caps	5c hundred
Waxed Caps	40c thousand
Wire Bottle Carriers, 4 Bottle 75c	6 Bottle 95c
8 qt Heavy Milk Cans	40c
12 " " " "	60c
16 " " " "	75c
20 " " " "	90c
40 " " " "	2.75

Price for Thursday only. Trading Stamp with all specials.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,
234-236-238 WEST FRONT ST.

PECK'S CORNER.

It is not necessary to buy poor goods to economize when

PECK

is here with goods that have value at about the same price.

Look at his line of DRESS TRIMMINGS & DRESS LININGS. Exceptional values.

Look at 3 PAIR HOSE AT $1.00.

Look at LACES AND EMBROIDERIES. Cannot be equalled.

GEO. W. COLE,
UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,
200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

H. DeMOTT,
UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER.
Residence and office 59 Somerset St.
TELEPHONE 248 B.

DIED.

MUNDY—In this city, Wednesday, April 5th, 1899, Mrs. Martha A. Mundy, widow of Enos Mundy, aged 77 years.
Funeral services at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. P. Humble, corner Somerset street and Lincoln place, Friday, April 7th, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited. 4 5 2

WANTS AND OFFERS

FIVE rooms with bathroom and attic to let. 717 South avenue. 3 31 6

ROOMS to rent. Enquire 27 Somerset place. 3 31 7

TO LET—Seven room house. 215 Richmond street; newly papered and painted. Inquire 705 Berkman street. 4 4 2

NINE ROOM HOUSE to let all improvements, East Second street. Enquire Wm. Newcorn, 204 West Front street. 2 21 tf

BARN to let, Second street, near Watchung avenue. Apply at Daily Press office. 3 13 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

WANTED—Houses to rent from $15 up. Elston M. French & Co. 2 1 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

6 ROOM house, new, near Netherwood station; to let or for sale Sherwin's shoe store. 3 22 tf

DESIRABLE rooms with board, eight minutes walk to station 21 Sandford avenue. 3 7 tf

FOR SALE—Stone stepping blocks hitching posts flagging and curbing. Mrs L Kuhn. 32 Watchung avenue, 2nd door from the race 3 17 14

TO LET—Two four room flats, with improvements; very convenient. T. Callahan, Richmond and Third Sts. 3 31 eod tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Chas. L. Moffett, Attorney cor. Park and North Aves. 12 11 eod tf

TWO seated wagon wanted, station or depot preferred, must be in good order and price low. Address with particulars, "Carriage," care Press. 4 3 3 eod

SEPARATE storage rooms, plastered walls, in Stillman Block. 3 1 w s tf

FARM of 103 acres, near Bernardsville, Somerset county, for sale or exchange for Plainfield property; two dwellings on property; plenty fruit; five barns; land well watered. E. D. Barrett, 148 East Fifth street 4 3 6

TO LET—Two houses, 719 and 721 East Second street. Apply owner 409 East Sixth street. 4 4 3

TO LET—3 connecting rooms. 765 East Second street, no children. 4 4 3

TWO men wanted for general farm work. Apply 1230 East Front St

LOST—Diamond ring, in neighborhood of Liberty and Sixth streets. Suitable reward at this office. 4 5 2

TO RENT—A bargain, 5 rooms and bath, on Watchung avenue, near depot, $12 00. Enquire 56 Somerset street. 4 5 2

FOR SALE—New sectional brooder, 400 eggs capacity; $10 G. Steengraph, South Plainfield.

TO LET—Choice corner flats, steam heat; all improvements in Clifton Building, Fourth street and Park avenue C B Clifton, Seventh street and Spooner avenue. 4 5 5

SACRIFICE house, barn and lot, 60 by 160. North Plainfield; price $2,700 Address Owner, care Press. 3 30 6

FOR SALE—Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine, No. 9, in good condition; cheap. Call at 303 Madison avenue 3 28 tf

FOR SALE cheap, nearly new house, 6 rooms in North Plainfield; good location; terms to suit. Don't pay rent; buy and save money. Inquire 148 or 160 Duer street. 3 21 tf

TO RENT—The new dwelling house, 929 Madison avenue; has all the modern improvements throughout. Street macadamized to curb. Apply to John M. Whiton, 821 Central avenue. 3 17 tf

WANTED—Cook or general housework girl, no colored. 97 Mercer avenue.

WANTED—First-class girl for general housework. 423 Park avenue 4 5 2

WANTED—Strong boy, 18 or over, to learn bedding business; must understand use of horse. Apply Friday or Saturday at 23 Somerset street. Bring reference.

WANTED—Girl for general housework, must be well recommended. Apply 817 Third place. 4 5 2

A GOOD square Weber piano, must be sold at once for 50 dollars. Inquire 319 Grande avenue.

HANDSOMELY furnished rooms, with board; new apartment house 122 Watchung avenue 4 5 4

WANTED—50 or 75 bunches of stalks or clover hay, for cow feed. Address C. J. Ackerman, Clinton avenue City. 4 3 3 c

BOY wanted, 14 to 16 years old, to take care of horse, cow etc. Call J. C. Ackerman, Clinton avenue, near Samptown. 4 3 3

WANTED—Young girl for general housework, to come at 10 a. m., and go home nights. Call tonight 61 Fairview avenue.

BEAUTIFULLY situated property, in choice location of Brooklyn; cash value $12 000 mortgage $6 000 at 5 per cent, to exchange for Plainfield property of same value. Chas H Lyman, 215 North avenue. 4 1 3

WANTED—3 or 4 cheap rooms, in North Plainfield; state price. Address Y, care Press. 4 1 3

LARGE pleasant rooms, furnished or unfurnished; good table. 434 corner Fifth street and Watchung avenue. 4 1 6

TO LET—6 room house $12 month; 163 Duer street. Inquire 148 or 160 Duer street. 3 21 tf

TO LET—Half house, city water; 6 rooms; $10 per month. Inquire at 139 Duer street. 3 30 tf

SCIENTIFIC MASSAGE
Facial Massage and Steaming.
THERMO-ELECTRIC BATHS.
MISS HOLMES, 440 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J. 3 1 tf

MANICURING, 25 CENTS.
REMOVING CORNS, 25c.
SHAMPOOING, With Massage, 50c.
M. V. Stickle, 149 E. Fifth St.

GRAND FAIR

under the Auspices of

Miantonomo Tribe, No. 118,

Improved Order of Red Men,

—AND—

Iona Council, No. 14, D. of P.

IN

WASHINGTON HALL,

West Second St,

Tuesday, April 4, to Saturday, April 8, inclusive.

DANCING EVERY EVENING.

Unique novelties exhibited. Something new each night. 4 1 7

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
ABSOLUTELY PURE
Makes the food more delicious and wholesome
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, April 5—Rev. and Mrs. E. S. Jamison went to Newark yesterday. Mr. Jamison goes to attend the Methodist conference which opened today, and Mrs. Jamison will divide her time between the conference and visiting among friends.

At the Council meeting Monday night Mayor Swackhamer made the following two appointments with the advice and consent of the Council: Borough Recorder, A. W. Warden, and Borough Engineer, A. S. Coriell Jr. The session was a short one, and only routine business was transacted.

Because of the unpleasant riding on the trolley cars on account of the dust, as well as because of the long walk necessary to reach the Plainfield cars, there is more travel back and forth over the railroad now.

The Washington Avenue Card Club met Monday evening at the home of the Misses Barrett and passed a pleasant evening with cards and social chat.

Isaac J. Stites and Isaac Giddes will attend the laymen's conference at Newark Saturday as delegates from the Methodist church.

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Jamison, the prayer meeting tonight in the Methodist church will be led by J. E. Henry.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. A. Lake.

The borough school board held its April meeting last night, and transacted the usual routine busines.

Miss Clark, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Gaskill, has returned to her home in Phillipsburg.

Mrs. Hannah Marks, of New Rochelle, is spending a few days with friends in the borough.

Sandford Stapele's eldest daughter, who also had an attack of scarlet fever, is better.

Mrs. A. N. Randolph spent yesterday visiting friends in Bound Brook and Somerville.

Charles and Lewis Smith have returned to Somerville after a visit with relatives here.

The Misses VanNest have returned from a visit among Newark relatives.

Mrs. William E. Terry is entertaining her cousins from out of town.

John Wilbur, of Neshanic, visited friends in the borough yesterday.

The Misses Jamison are entertaining out-of town friends.

NEW MARKET.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press)

New Market, April 5.—W. L Larrabee has moved from here to one of the flats over his store in the postoffice building, Dunellen, so as to be near his place of business.

Walter Newman has been spending the last few days in Pennsylvania, where he has visited an uncle whom he had not seen in thirty years.

Judging from the looks of the ice in J. Y. Wilson's ice house, there will be no scarcity of that article next summer.

Mrs. Danz has returned from a visit at Washingtonville.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, April 5—Someone perpetrated a rather mean joke on Frank Allen, the liveryman, Saturday evening about 11:30. When business was over for the night he left his horse and carriage standing along Park avenue while he attended to a little business in one of the stores. He returned in about ten minutes, but he found his rig had disappeared. Inquiry failed to get any information, so he was obliged to start upon a midnight hunt, which continued until 3 o'clock Sunday morning, when the missing rig was found standing along the road near the station. Frank thinks there is no joke in it as he is out a blanket and whip.

The Board of Education held their regular monthly meeting in the school parlor last evening. A truant officer was recently appointed by the board, but as yet his office has been a sinecure and will probably remain so, as Scotch Plains school children very seldom play truant.

The stereopticon entertainment in the Baptist church this evening promises to be a very interesting entertainment. As all cannot go west, Mr Hall decided to bring the west to Scotch Plains.

The many friends of George L Dunn, who has been taking a course of treatment at Dr. Cooley's sanitarium, has entirely recovered and is once again with his family.

Union avenue, under the direction of the Township Committee, is receiving a very much-needed dressing of crushed stone.

Charles Kyte, one of the borough's oldest residents, is quite ill at his home on Park avenue.

Bon Ami
The New Cleaner
DOES THE SAME WORK AS SCOURING SOAPS BUT DOESN'T WEAR OUT SURFACES SO MUCH.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—Attractive wagons have been purchased by Crosby & Hill for their delivery business.

—Don't forget the Cecelia Bradsford Trio at the Y M. C. A. on Saturday evening next. Admisesson 25 cents.

—At the meeting of Martha Washington Council, D of A., last evening, five candidates were elected to membership.

—On Friday evening several important matters will be considered by the Borough Council at its regular meeting.

—Miss Maggie Sheppard, of the borough, has opened a stationery store in the Thorn building on Somerset street.

—Next week Wednesday evening Lucetta Council, No. 28, D. of L, will celebrate its fourth anniversary in Washington Hall.

—This evening the annual parish meeting will be held at the first at the First Presbyterian church to elect trustees and hear reports.

—Last Monday evening the members of West End Hose Company made nominations for officers. The election will take place next month.

—The streets of the borough will soon be under the treatment of Superintendent of Highways Thomas Doud, and all necessary repairs will be made.

—Rev. Dr. A. E. Main will teach the Sunday-school next week Monday afternoon before the Primary Teachers' Union. The topic is "Memories of Bethany."

He Fooled the Surgeons.

All doctors told Renick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest Pile cure on earth, and the best Salve in the World. 25 cents a box. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—Expressman Joseph Farley has secured a new wagon for his business which is painted an attractive color.

—An important meeting of Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., will be held tomorrow evening and every member is urged to attend.

—An entertainment will be given in the Borough Public School Hall on Thursday evening, April 13th, for the purpose of securing money to purchase new music for the High School. The admission will be twenty cents.

Working for Roselle.

H. C. VanEmburgh, of East Second street, has been engaged by the borough of Roselle to take charge of the improvements to be made on Chestnut street there. The work was started today.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be distroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.
Sold by Druggists, 75c.
Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that, too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night, and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at L W. Randolph's drug store.

Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

WESTFIELD

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Westfield, April 5.—At a regular meeting of the Board of Education held last evening President Green stated that he had appointed Mrs. Salter Clark as chairman of the Ladies' Advisory Committee. The other members, there are five, had not as yet accepted the appointment. J W. Cory, S. W. Welch and R. S. Rusell, who were appointed at the annual school meeting, to assist the board in trying to find a way in which to assure Westfield more school facalities during the coming school year, were present at a meeting which the board held after the regular meeting. The question was discussed in all its parts but no action was taken.

The annual parish meeting of the Presbyterian church was held Monday evening when Charles G. Edicott and John S. Irving were re-elected trustees to serve for three years. The reports of the secretaries of the various organizations of the churches showed them to be in a flourishing condition.

The Westfield Fire Department has purchased three hundred feet of rubber hose At a fire on Dudley avenue recently Henry Piker's residence was burned out because the department had no hose to reach from the hydrant to the house.

PEOPLE COME AND GO.

PERSONAL MENTION OF INTEREST TO PRESS READERS.

Some Come to Enjoy Pleasures of Plainfield, Others Journey to Either Mountain or Shore for Recreation.

Miss Chambers, of Flemington, has been visiting Plainfield friends.

Mrs. Glen, of Craig place, is visiting out of town friends for a few days.

Miss Madeline Day, of Orange, is visiting relatives on Mercer avenue.

Mrs. Elmore D. Moffett, of Orchard place, is visiting relatives out of town.

Charles Stites, of New York, was the guest of friends in the borough Sunday.

Miss Bessie Randolph, of Belleview avenue, is visiting friends in New York.

George F. Coard, of East Ninth street, is spending a few days in New York.

Former Sheriff Wm. Wyckoff of Somerville, has been visiting borough friends.

Lawyer Powers, of Elizabeth, has been visiting Plainfield relatives for a short time.

Joseph Miller, of this city, has accepted a position with a local druggist at Cranford.

Miss Sadie Randolph, of West Eighth street, is visiting friends from out of town.

Charles H. Herring, of New York, has returned after a pleasant visit with relatives in town.

Miss Ethel Sherwood, of Wellesley College, is the guest of Miss Grace Day, of Central avenue.

A baby daughter has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Sherwin, of East Second street.

Charles Hummer, of the borough, has become a member of the choir of the First Presbyterian church.

Mrs. J J. Coard, of East Ninth street, has returned from Florida and is stopping at Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Blanchard Foegate and son, of Park avenue, are visiting at the old Moore homestead in Elizabeth.

Master Henry Pound, of East Second street, has gone south to join his mother, who is stopping there for a time.

Miss Elizabeth Deur, of Montana, is visiting her school friend, Miss Leila Moore Cruikshank, of "Sacmore," Belvidere avenue.

Miss Isabel Scarborough and her niece, Miss Ruth Wean, of the West End, leave today for a short stay in North Adams, Mass., visiting relative.

AT RANDOLPH'S !

Roots and Herbs are numerous, yet we urge the combination of

Randolph's -:- Sarsaparilla

is one of the best to clean the blood. None better. Only 50 cents per bottle.

L. W. RANDOLPH,
Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.
PLAINFIELD, N. J. TELEPHONE CALL 109.

J. F. MacDonald. UPTOWN GROCER, 186 E. Front Street.

20 Fresh Eggs, direct from farmers	25c
Best Jersey E R. Potatoes	43c basket
Best Oil. 5 gal.	45c
Minnesota Flour	55c bag, $4.35 bbl
4 lbs. Carolina Rice	25c
Best Oatmeal	3c lb
Best Pure Lard, no compound	7c lb
Large California Prunes	4 lbs for 25c
O. K. B. Powder	18c
Gold Medal Milk	8c
Kirkman's Borax Soap (6 C. box)	23c
Fine Tomatoes	7c can
Fine Corn	6c can
N. O. Molasses	33c gal
2 bottles Best Maple Syrup	25c
Canned Salmon	8 can
Pea Beans	5c quart
Lima Beans	8c quart
Lemon and Ginger Snaps	5c lb

We won't say anything about our 20c Coffee. Everybody uses it.

BOEHM'S.

Brocaded Silk Capes
Trimmed with Jet and Lace, Ruche Collarette and Silk lined at $2.98.

Ladies' Tailor-made Suits.
Made of Venetian and all-wool Cloth Jacket, silk lined throughout, skirt percaline line worth $10.00, at $7.49.

Children's Reefers,
Braid trimmed, double collar, ruffle edge, worth $2.50 at $1.98.

Everything in Millinery represented in our assortment, every shape, style and color that is desirable is here at prices which cannot be approached or duplicated anywhere.

KID GLOVES. Just by chance we managed to get another lot of those 2-clasp Kid Gloves, in white with black stitching, all black and colors, sizes 6 to 7 1-2, as good as any dollar glove, at 59c a pair.

MEN'S COLORED CAMBRIC SHIRTS, soft bosom, 2 collars and a separate pair of cuffs, worth 65c, at 49c.

One lot of FANCY PLAID RIBBONS, all silk, worth 38c, special at 25c yard.

50 dozen of Ladies' Fast Black Seamless Hose, worth 15c, special at 10c pair.

BOEHM'S.

When March winds blow,
And our face and hands chap so
USE CHAP CURE
Manufactured only by
T. S. ARMSTRONG, "The Apothecary"
COR. NORTH AND PARK AVES.

RECITAL

By Mrs. FRANK J. SMITH, assisted by Miss Martha Miner, Soprano, Mr. G. Morgan Stricklett, Tenor, Mr. Frank J. Smith, Accompanist.

At the Casino,
TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 4, at 8:15

Tickets can be obtained at Armstrong's, Leggett's and Randolph's Drug Stores, or of the Patronesses.

PRICE ONE DOLLAR.

A CONCERT
for the benefit of the Y M. C. A. will be given in Association Hall
Saturday Evening April 8th.
By the Cecelia Bradford Trio, of New York.
ADMISSION 25 cents. 436

HEADQUARTERS FOR
Plants and Cut Flowers.
Chas. L. Stanley 142 North Avenue.
FLORAL DESIGNS A SPECIALTY.
Greenhouses, South Avenue, Netherwood.

IF
your grocer says he does not keep our Flavoring Extracts, ask him to get them for you.
A. L. Kaerth & Co.
132 E. Second St.

Monroe B. Long, M D., President. Eugene M. Laing, Vice-President.
Robert A. Meeker, Secretary. Robert J Shaw, Treasurer.

THE UNION BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.
OFFICE, 203 PARK AVENUE.

Special Features

A uniform Loaning Rate of $8.67 Per month on each $1 000 borrowed. ANY additional amount may be paid in, no matter how small, with any monthly installment; thus maturing the stock that much sooner.

It accommodates itself to the financial condition of the borrower instead of compelling him to pay a certain fixed amount each month.

Liberal Withdrawals With Interest

THE MEMBERS MAY WITHDRAW AT ANY TIME AND RECEIVE THE WHOLE AMOUNT PAID IN AND AFTER ONE YEAR SIX PER CENT INTEREST ON THE SAME.

The whole or any part of the loan can be paid off at any time.

A New Series Issued Every Month.

To Investors

PAID-UP OR INCOME STOCK, COSTING $60 PER SHARE AND BEARING 5 PER CENT INTEREST AND HAVING A MATURITY VALUE OF $100 PER SHARE is issued from time to time, as the board of directors may determine, and is especially desirable for those wishing a secure and profitable investment.

For further particulars inquire at the office 203 Park Ave., Room 8, or address the secretary,

R. A. MEEKER,
203 PARK AVE.

DEAD HORSES

Removed free. Rickman Brothers, 611 South Second Street. Main office New Brunswick N. J. Telephone Call, 10 F.
Fertilizer Works, Livingston Park, N. J. 4 3 3m

CROSBY & HILL
SUCCESSORS TO EDWARD WHITE.

SPRING SEASON'S SELLING HAS BEGUN.

We've put winter behind us, the different sections are blooming with the freshness of spring. We'll try to tell you about the new merchandise as it arrives, endeavor to interest you in it, emphasize its merits, make an earnest effort to impress you favorably. Our showing is by far the best you have ever seen in this city; our aim is to show how worthy goods can be bought and sold with thoughts for the merchant and thoughts for the customer. We are striving to prove that our interests as store-keepers and your interests as store patrons are mutual. No shadow of extortion is permitted in our prices. The proudest dollar in the land and the poorest dollar of the breadwinner meet here on a footing of commercial equality.

The Millinery Showing.

The Millinery Department blossoms forth with a richness and elegance of wealth and beauty never before equalled in this city, (a fact every day admitted by the most competent judges). We invite you to participate in this showing We have made elaborate preparations for a large business.

REMARKABLE GLOVE VALUES.

69c, the $1.00 quality.

Sixteen hundred pairs of Ladies' Kid Gloves of a very excellent quality, the colors are black, tan, mode, grey, pearl and white, the quality is equal to any dollar glove you have ever bought and will give splendid satisfaction.

$1.10, the usual $1.25 quality.

We show this morning about 1,000 pairs of Ladies' Kid Gloves of our own importation. Every new spring shade is included in the lot, the quality is equal to any $1.25 glove and is covered by our liberal guarantee.

Tailor-made Suits.

Everything we show in tailor-made suits is the season's newest product, made by manufacturers of the highest standing expressly for ourselves. The fit, the finish and the style will more than meet your expectation; the smallness of price will be the only disappointment.

7.98. Tailor-made suit, splendid quality of all-wool cheviot serge, jacket lined with silk rhadmere, skirt cut full and wide, lined with percaline; a regular $10 suit.

10.00. All-wool serge suits, jackets satin lined, skirts cut with the new flounce, very full and wide, lined with percaline. Colors are black, royal blue, navy blue and tan shades; the value is $12.50.

11.98. Six different styles of tailor-made suits of all the newest spring colorings, most of the jackets are taffeta silk lined and are the newest shapes shown; the values range from 12.50 to 17.50.

Separate Skirts and Spring Jackets.

3.50. Ladies' all-wool covert cloth jacket, made in correct style, tan shades only, fully worth 4.50.

5.00. Women's coats in all-wool venetian cloth, lined with rhadmere.

2.98. Ladies' dress skirts of brilliantine, mohair or serge, new flume cut, percaline lined and velvet bound; worth 3.50.

4.75. Ladies' dress skirts of all-wool cheviot and venetian cloth, percaline lined and velvet bound; worth 6.00.

5.00. Ladies' black taffeta waist, body and sleeves all small tucking, newest cut; worth 6.50.

The newest shapes and styles of cotton gingham and madras waists are all displayed here and are a wonderfully choice collection.

Neckwear for Men and Women.

Our showing of neckwear is very large, the styles are very nobby and new, the prices are disappointingly low.

17c for men's neckwear, usually sold at 25c. 39c for men's neckwear, usually sold at 50c.

The prices of ladies' neckwear range from 25c to 1.75; the variety is very large and includes everything that is new.

Carpet Dep't.

Our Carpet Department is located on the third floor and is easy of access by an elevator, a perfect daylight department. We are prepared to execute all orders promptly on the shortest notice. We quote a few interesting prices:

50c.—Best quality ten-wire tapestry carpets.
69c.—Saxony, Axminster Carpets, all choice new patterns.
59c.—Best quality all-wool Ingrain Carpets.

THE MARCH OF PROGRESS

in wall paper can best be witnessed in our magnificent stock, comprising all of the latest and artistic patterns, on paper of the very best texture.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.

Wall Papers, Paints, Oils, Glass, Etc.
201 Park Ave. Corner Second St.
Telephone Call 635. Estimates Furnished.

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York

FREY & MURPHY,

CUSTOM TAILORS

26 Somerset St.

Spring Samples Now Ready.

Largest Repairing and Cleaning Establishment in Plainfield.

Repairing and Cleaning properly done in a first-class manner.

Prices Low, Styles First-Class.

Everything for the Garden.

SWEET PEAS the choicest, fancy Lawn Grass Seeds and odorless lawn dressing.

'Phone No. 6.

A. M. Griffen, 119 East Front St.

IMPORTED

OLIVE OIL.

75c per Bottle.

Finest Quality Obtainable

POWERS' PHARMACY

Somerset Street and Craig Place.

Safe Deposit Vaults

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK.

Of Plainfield, New Jersey.

Capital $200,000
Surplus and Profits ..... $ 90,000

J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. BUNYON, Cashier
H. M. ESTILL, Vice " D. M. BUNYON, Ass't

DIRECTORS:

Charles Potter, Wm. McD. Corlell,
P. M. French, H. Mulford Estill,
Wm. M. Stillman, Isaac W. Bushmore,
J. W. Johnson, Wm. R. Coddington,
F. S. Bunyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per annum.

VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

BANANAS 12c. and 15c. per doz.
ORANGES 15 and 18 for 25c.

Confectionery and fruit, lowest prices.

C. E. BICKNELL,
"On the Bridge." Somerset St.

BUSHTON & HANSEN,

Painters and Paper Hangers,

Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets

Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto--first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11 y

A. LUSARDI,

120 NORTH AVENUE.

Wholesale and Retail

Dealer in choice fruit of all kinds, of Confectionery, Peanuts Cigars, etc. Soda Water of all flavors and always ice cold. Branch store corner Front and Somerset streets.

J. W. VANSICKLE.

122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.

FRESH & SALTED MEATS,

GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.

Orders called for and delivered promptly.

TELEPHONE 148 b.

HERE AND THERE.

One-third of the people who go mad are said to recover their senses.

In some parts of Berlin there are special public houses for women.

Elephants are fond of gin, but, it is said, will not touch champagne.

A large paper house, with sixteen rooms, has been erected by a Russian gentleman at his country seat.

Ulm's cathedral spire, which is 531 feet high and the loftiest structure in the world, is to be used for a meteorological station.

It is calculated that 10,000,000 photographs of the Queen and the Princess of Wales are produced annually, and find a ready sale all over the world.

An army officer at Washington has made the very "pat" remark that "General Otis' jurisdiction in the Philippines extends 1,900 yards beyond the outposts, with sights up."

The late Dr. Campbell Black, of Glasgow, eminent as a physician and clinical lecturer, was fond of saying that "medicine is no more an exact science than millinery."

A modification of the church fair idea is a plan of a Methodist Episcopal church in Chester county, Pa., to have an auction of farm stock and implements, the animals and goods to be solicited.

In Sullivan county, last fall, more than a hundred men were engaged in digging ginseng root for exportation to China. They traveled from fifteen to twenty miles daily, and earned from $1 to $4 a day. The root is becoming scarcer every year.

An artificial volcano is to be one of the attractions at the Paris exposition. It will be 100 meters high and 150 in diameter, its outside surface will be sodded and planted with trees, and the summit will be crowned with bona fide flames and molten lava.

"Classical music," said the ecstatic young woman, "leaves me in a transport." "Well," said the young man, "that's the reason I naturally avoid it. I was in the army, and I don't feel like taking chances in transports of any kind."—Washington Star.

A Chicago syndicate owns a ranch in Texas which contains 5,000 square miles. Its herds of cattle aggregate 120,000 head, besides 1,500 horses, and the calf crop branded in 1897 exceeded 31,000. Surprising as it may seem, all the work of the ranch is done by 125 men, one man to every 24,000 acres.

The city building of Philadelphia is the largest building in America, not excepting the capitol at Washington, being 486½ feet in length north and south, and 470 in width east and west, covering an area of 4½ acres exclusive of a courtyard in the centre of 400 feet square. Around the whole is a grand avenue 205 feet wide on the northern front and 135 feet on the others. It contains 520 rooms besides the offices of the city government. Surmounting the structure is a central tower, which rises to an altitude of 537 1-3 feet, and terminates in a colossal statue of William Penn, which is 36 feet in height.

NOTE OF NO TABLES.

Joel Chandler Harris is said to be the richest newspaper writer in the United States. His charities are in proportion to his means.

Both President and Mrs. McKinley are extremely fond of young people and more has been done at the White House for the pleasure of the younger mmbers of society than since General Grant was President.

Jacob Gould Schurman, president of Cornell, who has just been made chairman of the Philippine commission, began life as a country grocery clerk received $30 a year and board. He saved money and worked his way through college.

The British are indeed a grateful people. On recommendation of A. J. Balfour, Dr. Joseph Wright has been granted a pension on the civil list of $1,000 per anum. Dr. Wright has been editor of the English dialect dictionary, and it is possible, says Literature, hat this honorarium of $1,000 a year is the tribute of a grateful nation to one who has enabled it to understand the subtleties of recent English fiction, in which the authors have, as far as possible, avoided the use of the English language.

President Jordan of Stanford University has returned from a five weeks' tour in Mexico. He was the head of a party of fourteen college professors and their wives, and had unusual opportunities for studying the social and economic problems of the country. He spoke highly of President Diaz, and characterized him as "without question the greatest ruler of any nation, who has given to his country during his twenty years at the head of its government, nearly everything it possesses of real stability."

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Time heals all wounds. Money is also a great heeler.

Mercy to the guilty is often cruelty to the innocent.

Woman may be the weak vessel, but man is often broke.

There can be no course of true love if true love never dies.

You can't prevent the sun from setting by stopping your clock.

Man is the only animal with a chronic longing for the unattainable.

It's well to begin at the top of the ladder and go down—in case of fire.

The theorist is all right until it is time to make a practical demonstration.

Every husband hears a good deal about the saintlike actions of other husbands.

THE WOMAN'S WORLD

"GLAMING" IS THE LATEST FAD.

Milk, Sun-bathed Air and Happy Thoughts Used in Combination.

Glaming is the latest occupation of women who devote themselves to the pursuit of health and beauty, says the New York Sunday Journal. Glame is a raw word, which represents the chief object of these disciples of physical culture. Those who seek it are said to be glaming, and are denominated glamers.

Some of the essential rules of glaming may be briefly stated for the benefit of inquirers. They are:

To drink milk fresh from the cow at a temperature of ninety-eight degrees. To inflate the lungs at regular intervals, close the eyes and let the mind dwell on one of the pleasantest prospects in life. To repose at regular periods during the day in air which has recently been in motion and on which the sun has shone. To have the skin kneaded daily with sweet oil. Glaming, it is claimed, retards indefinitely wrinkles, gray hair and all the other signs of old age; beautifies the complexion, gives the eye wonderful powers of fascination, keeps the figure youthful and elastic, and preserves the powers of the mind.

The aim of the glamer's diet is to prevent the ossification produced by the deposit of calcareous or mineral matter in the heart, brain and arteries. This deposit is the cause of old age. Physiologically one may become old at thirty as well as at sixty.

To guard against this ossification, it is necessary to prevent or dissolve the osseous deposits. One or two pints of distilled water daily are of great benefit. The diet should include apples, pears, grapes, orange juice, cherries, plums, peaches and berries.

As animal food, fish, poultry and young mutton are recommended, because they contain less earthly salts than other meats. Phosphorous is necessary for the nourishment of the brain, and this is to be found in lean meats, fish, cheese, whole wheat, oatmeal, almond nuts, white cornmeal, beans, peas, figs and prunes.

As glame in the system becomes more abundant the pulse will become firmer, the skin take on a healthier hue, the eye grow brighter, the step more elastic and day by day life will be better worth living.

Glame enters the body with the oxygen we breathe and passes out with very exhalation. The following rule of glaming is intended for the benefit of the lungs:

Sit or stand perfectly still in some place where the air is in motion, or has been recently, and upon which the sun has shone. It it not necessary to sit in the sun. Fill the lungs to their utmost capacity and hold the breath long enough to count three or more. The time should be about three seconds. Let the breath escape very slowly. Repeat by drawing in the breath very gradually and hold for five seconds. Always inhale through the nose if possible.

This is the first of four rules. The next directs the glamer to take a gentle breath very calmly. When the lungs are easily full, but not crowded, she closes the hand so tightly that the most delicate pressure is felt. Then she is to think of the happiest prospect possible. A flutter of ectasy will be so plainly felt that its presence will teem with vitality.

Watches are Small.

Watches are worn smaller than ever, and although an effort was made last season to revive the watch chain, the effort met with no response, for watches are still fastened to the bodice with a jewelled brooch, and the chatelaine proudly holds its own. In Paris and New York the latest fad is to have a watch in the form of a ball, thickly encrusted with emeralds or enamelled with glistening green. Another watch, in fashion of a beetle, has a body of dull gold shining with gems. You touch a spring and the wings open as if to fly, disclosing a peep of the time o'day. Among other items of new jewelry are the Russian girdles and belts of white or colored enamels, tricked out with gems either false or real, according to the price one can afford.

About Wedding Rings.

The associations called up by a wedding-ring are very touching, and it is the last thing that even the poorest wife will part with. If it ever was considered a badge of servitude, it now is much more suggestive of queenship and sovereignty. An old Latin writer thus describes the ring: It is circular, because the mutual love and hearty affection of matrimony should be for ever, their continuity remaining as unbroken as the circlet itself. It is an old—and, exploded—notion that the ring is placed upon the fourth finger because a small artery connects with the heart. The real reason probably is that the left hand is not used as much as the right, and the fourh finger less than the other fingers.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

Some girls can't talk to you an hour without asking you if you don't think it's so silly to be romantic.

If a woman knew when she would fall out of a window and catch by her heels, I wonder what kind of clothes she would put on.

A girl will tell you you may call her by her first name with the same tone she would use if she were giving you a set of diamond shirt buttons.—New York Press.

TRIMMING AND ACCESSORIES.

Elaborate Embroidery Still the Favorite Decoration.

Open embroidery is more worn than ever. It appears in cotton as well as other fabrics, and there are extremely attractive decorations in blue, pink, yellow and linen colored wash materials in this style, with borderings to match. There are also checked silks and cottons in which the large squares are formed by open bands of valenciennes lace, which cross the fabric at right angles.

The new bolero, which comes down to the waist and is tight, is often adorned with open embroidery, being usually lined with white, which shows through the spaces. Sometimes only the upper part is embroidered. Detached flowers and leaves of cloth are a novel trimming They are applied where desired and embroidered down in the goods.

Where belts are worn at all—and they are less seen now that the pointed bodice is coming in—they are very narrow, often of the same stuff as the gown.

Narrow folds of satin are still employed on costumes of the tailor style, the entire bodice being sometimes striped with such folds.

GIRL'S COAT.

The coat illustrated is for a girl 8 years old and is of mastic cloth. It is loose at the back and front, but slightly curved to the figure under the arms. A circular flounce finishes the foot, and the coat is trimmed with stitched cloth straps. The pelerine is bordered with two circular ruffles and revers of French blue velvet. The straight collar is of cloth, with tabs of blue velvet. There are also blue velvet cuffs. The hat of mastic straw is trimmed with blue velvet. JUDIC CHOLLET.

FRESH FASHIONS.

Some of the Paris Novelties For the Coming Season.

Another 1840 fashion has been revived—the fashion of scarfs. They are of mousseline de soie, taffeta or crepe de chine, bordered with a silk fringe.

Petticoats are long, since gowns are long. They follow the shape of the gown skirt and are profusely trimmed below the knee, while being perfectly flat and plain above it. Broche silk, taffeta with tiny lines, striped silks and especially prettily harmonized plaids are chiefly used and are trimmed with circular flounces, plaited ruffles, accordion plaitings, vandykes or tabs of silk and plaitings, flounces and ruchings of mousseline de soie. For example, a petticoat of gray broche silk, with a thistle design in blue, gray and pink, is adorned with seven circular ruffles, four of plain gray silk and three of plain pink, placed alternately. These are veiled with a flounce of pale gray mousseline de soie. The flounces are headed by ruches of silk or mousseline de soie or by a ribbon of satin or velvet, which may be of the same shade as the petticoat or may form a sharp contrast. Black is often thus introduced among light colors. The most fairylike of petticoats is, however, to be found among the models for warm weather. It is of mousseline de soie, with broche pompadour designs, and is lined with the thinnest and lightest of silk.

BENGALINE GOWN.

The picture shows a costume of mauve bengaline. The skirt has a slight train, and a pointed tablier is outlined by a circular flounce, headed by a band of applications of violet velvet and gold. The close bodice is also decorated with applications and is cut in corselet form in front, showing a lace plastron which opens at the top over a point of plaited mauve bengaline. The sleeves have a plaited V at the top and circular ruffles of violet velvet at the wrists and are trimmed with applications. JUDIC CHOLLET.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Elsaß-Lothringen.

Straßburg. Der Gemeinderath beschloß aus Stiftungsmitteln Arbeiterwohnungen zu errichten. Die Kosten für die Wohnungen sind auf rund 400,000 Mark veranschlagt. Im laufenden Jahre sollen 96 Wohnungen erbaut werden. Für das Baukapital verbürgt die Stadt eine Verzinsung von 3½ Prozent und eine Amortisation von ½ Prozent.

Mülhausen. Es sind erst wenige Jahre her, seit das große Spinnereigebäude der Fabrik S. Wallach u. Co. in Flammen aufging. Kürzlich hat abermals eine Feuersbrunst diese Firma heimgesucht. Diesmal entstand der Brand in der Appretur. Dieses Gebäude ist vollständig und die angebaute Färberei theilweise zerstört worden. Der Schaden beträgt annähernd 500,000 Mark, die Entstehungsursache ist noch nicht mit Sicherheit festgestellt. Für die Arbeiter tritt ein Lohnverlust nicht ein, da sie anderweitig beschäftigt werden können.

Oesterreich.

Wien. Im hiesigen Hotel „Central" hat der Reichsraths-Abgeordnete Joseph Wittor, Mitglied des Polen-Klubs, Selbstmord begangen. Spiel und Verschwendung hatten seinen Ruin herbeigeführt.—Baronin Hirsch-Gereuth in Paris hat der Präsidentin des Vereins „Ferienheim" in Wien, Frau Sophie Grünfeld, 40,000 Gulden in einer Anweisung auf die Kreditanstalt übermittelt. Bekanntlich überläßt die Baronin Hirsch diesem humanitaren Verein alljährlich ihr Schloß Rossitz bei Brünn, woselbst der Verein während der Sommermonate 200 arme Wiener Schulkinder unterbringt. Durch diese große Spende ist der Verein in der Lage, heuer einer größeren Anzahl armer Kinder die Wohlthat einer Sommerfrische zu verschaffen.—Der in Chicago in tschechischer Sprache erscheinenden Zeitung „Chicagske Novine" ist das Postdebit in Oesterreich entzogen worden.

Brüx. Hier wurde eine deutsch-nationale Versammlung wegen einer Brandrede des bekannten Schönerianers Hermann Wolf aufgelöst und letzterer soll wegen Hochverraths in Anklagezustand versetzt werden. Die Theilnehmer an der Versammlung drangen dann in eine Sozialisten-Versammlung ein und inszenirten eine Schlägerei, was zur Folge hatte, daß auch diese aufgelöst wurde. Die Tumultuanten rotteten sich dann auf dem Marktplatze zusammen, so daß dieser schließlich durch Gendarmen gesäubert werden mußte.

Budapest. Hier wurde ein Arbeiter der Stearinkerzenfabrik „Flora," Namens Sully, auf offener Straße von dem Taglöhner Juhasz durch einen Revolverschuß getödtet, worauf Juhasz sich selbst durch einen Schuß in den Kopf tödtlich verletzte. Juhasz wohnte bei Sully, zahlte aber keine Miethe. Als sie neulich Morgens hierüber in Streit geriethen, wollte Sully einen Wachmann holen, um Juhasz aus der Wohnung zu entfernen. Juhasz drohte, ihn mit dem Revolver niederzuschießen. Als Sully auf die Straße floh, verfolgte ihn Juhasz und erschoß ihn. Er wurde sterbend in's Spital gebracht.

Jungbunzlau. Von dem hiesigen Schwurgerichte wurde der gewesene Kassier der Sparkasse Lambert Wild wegen des Verbrechens der Veruntreuung und des Betruges zu vier Jahren schweren Kerkers, verschärft mit Fasten und Zahlung eines Schadenersatzes von 19,526 Gulden an die Sparkasse verurtheilt.

Mährisch-Weißkirchen. Im Spitalsgebäude der Militär-Oberrealschule brach neulich spät Abends ein großer Brand aus, der den ganzen Dachstuhl einäscherte. Die Rettung der kranken Zöglinge gelang nur unter den größten Anstrengungen. Der Schade übersteigt 10,000 Gulden. Das Spital wurde erst vor zwei Jahren erbaut.

Prag. Professor Dr. Leopold, Leiter der königlichen Frauenklinik in Dresden, hat die an ihn ergangene Berufung als ordentlichen Professor für Gynäkologie an die deutsche Universität dahier abgelehnt.

Schweiz.

Bern. Ein Mann aus Dürrenroth im Emmenthal hat das Wagniß vollführt, die Grimsel (2207 Meter) zur Jetztzeit zu überschreiten. Er hat es glücklich bestanden, wird aber seiner Lebtage an das Abenteuer denken. Als Beweis, mit welchen Schwierigkeiten er in Folge der gewaltigen Schneemassen zu kämpfen hatte, mag die Thatsache dienen, daß er für den Weg vom Hotel Rhonegletscher in Gletsch (Wallis) bis zum Grimselhospiz, den im Sommer ein Spaziergänger in anderthalb bis zwei Stunden zurücklegt, einen ganzen Tag brauchte. In Innerkirchen angekommen, war der Fußwanderer so erschöpft, daß er erst nach zwei Tagen seine Reise über Interlaken und Thun fortsetzen konnte.

Your Valuables

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 per year.

HENRY J. WIERENGA,

Furniture and Freight Express.

Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store 126 Park avenue. 10 1 1y

(B)

AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

A Bold Move In

Parlor Suits

Without an Equal in the History of This House!

Even that great 3rd floor of ours doesn't begin to hold 'em all. The Parlor

Suit Like Cut, $19.75— $30 usually.

Carved mahogany-finish frame—green Roman plush, embroidered backs, elegant and striking. Others at even greater price-drops.

Full overstuff tapestry covering, tops tufted and corded.

At $45.50, was $65.

Again, inlaid, mahogany-finish frame, Roman plush covering.

At $50, was $75.

And—striped Silk Damask Suit, mahogany frame, piano polish—at $75—was $125.

Another—having Turkish backs, full overstuffed—heavy fringe, for $90—was $175.

Bedroom Suits

—A great crash in their prices, too.

For $10.98—a $14 Suit.

Antique oak finish, well constructed, nice looking.

For $14.98—a $20 Suit.

24x30 mirror, all new in shape and make-up.

For $55—a $75 Suit.

Elegant—in curly birch—superbly carved.

Fully 300 other suits at lowest prices ever put on record.

Carpets—All in

This season's loveliest colors and patterns—thousands of rolls—prices that NO other store can touch, they're so low.

Go-Carts—$2.49

And up—biggest line in all this city. Baby Carriages, too—$3.45 up.

SWEEPING REDUCTIONS ON SIDEBOARDS AND EXTENSION TABLES.

The Portland Range—and the Domestic Sewing Machine—2 good things.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,

LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,

Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.

Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.

CARFARE PAID TO OUT-OF-TOWN BUYERS.

A Private Delivery Wagon Sent on Request.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,

— DEALERS IN —

Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c

Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO

SPECIAL SALE.

We will sell skirts and suits of our own make for this week at a price that will require no brass band to sell. An examination of our goods is all that is necessary. Ladies, as a rule know where and when to buy. Our prices are lower than the lowest. For fit and make there are no equal in town. Call and inspect our stock.

Cloos & Richardson. LADIES' TAILORS, 325 W. FRONT ST

SPRING HATS,
SPRING NECKTIES,
SPRING SHIRTS

AT

JAMES R. BLAIR'S,

126 PARK AVENUE.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER.

ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.

169 NORTH AVENUE.

Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phoenix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672.

COAL is for coal, clean, cheery and cheap.
COAL is the order to lay in a heap.
COAL is the atmosphere warmed by its glow.
COAL is the light that starts it to go, and to get the best coal buy of Stevens & Co.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.

THE DELINEATOR AND GLASS OF FASHION

For April Now Ready. Ask for the April Fashion Sheet.

Subscriptions taken.

A. L. & M. D. GORSLINE.

144 PARK AVE. PLAINFIELD, N. J.

5,000 FEET OF MOULDINGS IN GILT AND HARD WOOD

Bring Your Pictures and Have Them Framed

At the PLAINFIELD ART GALLERY, Y. M. C. A. Building

Jersey Poultry

is the specialty of

SMALLEY BROS.,

144 North Avenue

Have you tried their

SAUSAGE

It is the best made in

PLAINFIELD

Elston M. French & Co.

Successors to VanBuren Bros.

Real Estate and Insurance.

Largest agency in the city. Loans negotiated.

163 NORTH AVENUE.

Opposite Depot

H. Eggerding,

121 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated

C. O. D. CIGAR.

The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall Streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 20th, 1898.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 7 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 7 00, 7 26, †8 00, 7 54, 8 00, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 8 48, 9 35, 9 55, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 00, 1 15, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 54, 5 37, 6 04, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 08, 7 29, 8 45, 9 15, 10 17, 11 28 p. m. Sunday, 3 14, 3 37, 6 59, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10, a. m.; 12 m., 12 58, 1 45, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 12, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

Leave New York, foot Liberty St, at 4 00, 4 30, 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00 a. m.; 12 00 m., 1 00, 1 30, 2 00, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 40, 5 00, 5 15, 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 30, 11 45 p. m.; 12 15, 1 00 night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 00, 9 00, 9 15 a. m.; 12 m.; 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 7 30, 9 00, 10 00 p. m.; 12 15 night; 1 00 a. m.

Leave New York South Ferry from Whitehall St. at † 10, 7 55, 8 35, 9 05, 9 55, 11 55 a. m., 12 55, 1 25, 2 25, 3 25, 3 35, 3 55, 4 35, 4 55, 5 25, 5 55, 6 10, 6 25, 6 55, 7 25, 7 40, 8 10, 9 10, 9 55, 11 40 p. m., 12 10 night. Sundays—At 6 55, 8 55 a. m., 12 00 m., 12 55, 1 25, 3 55, 6 40, 7 25, 8 55, 9 55 p. m., 12 10 night.

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 37, 6 29, 7 00, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 35, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 1 15, 2 12, 3 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 54, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 8 45, 10 17, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 32, 10 22 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 30, 8 05, 8 38, 9 03, 10 08 a. m.; 12 10, 1 05, 1 35, 2 40, 3 35, 4 02, 4 40, 5 04, 5 45, 6 19, 7 35, 8 10, 9 35, 10 05, 11 25 p. m. Sunday, 7 15, 9 05, 11 35 a. m.; 1 10, 2 45, 4 05, 5 55, 7 35, 9 15, 10 15 p. m.

Passengers for Newark please change car Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00 m., 1 01, 2 11, 2 27, 3 32, 4 33, 5 03, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 26, 11 29 p. m; 12 44 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 06, 8 56, a. m; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 18, 11 14 p. m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7, 7 27, 7 38, 7 45, 8 20, 9 15, 9 35, 10 15, 11 45, a. m; 12 50, 1 53, 2 07, 3 20, 4 30, 5 28, 6 08, 6 08, 6 48, 8 22, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 35, 9 45, 10 45 a. m.; 12 35, 1 20, 5 18, 6 27, 7 52, 8 05, 8 45, 10 00 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m., 1 01, 2 11, 5 25, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 8 26 a. m.; 2 03, 6 38 p. m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 01, 8 15, a. m; 12 36, 4 19, 5 10, 7 17, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 11 22 a. m, 4 30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield 7 12 a. m; 5 25 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c., with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

1 01 p. m. way for Easton, German Valley and Chester, connecting at Junction for station on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 27 p. m. For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamauqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton, with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

5 25 p. m., for Flemington and Easton connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For German Valley and Chester, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

9 06 a. m. Sundays for Easton.

2 06 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley and Flanders, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

6 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 36 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc., and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, (5 37 for Sea Girt) 8 13, 10:37 a. m.; 3 46, 6 21 p. m. Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 58, 10:37 a. m; 1 15, 3 46, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 8 45 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 15 p m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10:37 a. m.; 1 15, 3 46, 6 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat 3 37, 8 13 9 58 (Lakewood only) a.m., 1 15, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 29, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, 5 34*, 6 38*, 8 21, p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 56, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, 5 09*, 6 35* p m.; 1 17 night

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 29, 9 44 a. m., 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, 5 34*, 6 38*, 8 21, p. m.; 1 17 night Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, 5 09*, 6 35* p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 5 34*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m; 2 16, 5 09*, 6 35* p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 6 38 p m. Sundays, 6 35 p m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked) change cars at Bound Brook

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H OLHAUSEN, General Superintendent.

H. P. BALDWIN, General Passenger Agent

LEHIGH VALLEY RAILROAD

Time table in effect Feb. 5, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

WESTWARD.

8 05 a. m. daily, 6 25 p. m. daily except Sundays. Easton local.

6 25 p. m. Sunday evening local for Mauch Chunk.

9 02 a. m. daily; Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

11 52 a. m., 5 22 and 9 43 p. m. daily except Sunday. Local for Bound Brook.

12 52 p. m. daily except Sunday "Black Diamond Express" for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

2 04 p. m. daily local for Easton and Wilkes Barre.

4 58 p. m. daily except Sunday, express for Wilkes Barre, Scranton, Pottsville, Hazleton Shamokin, L. & B. Junction and principal intermediate stations.

7 03 and 9 32 p. m. daily, solid vestibule express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

9 02 p. m. Daily express for Easton, Bethlehem, Mauch Chunk, Sayre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge, carries sleeping car passengers only, and no baggage east of Buffalo.

EASTWARD.

For New York and Brooklyn local 6 49, 7 40 and 9 40 a. m., 5 04 and 5 18 p. m. daily except Sunday. Sunday 10 29 a. m., and 6 04 p. m. Express 7 16, 8 14, 10 09 a. m., 12 18, 2 50, 5 10, 7 07 and 9 06 p. m. daily except Sunday. Sunday 7 06, 8 14 a. m., 2 50 and 7 07 p. m.

PERTH AMBOY BRANCH.

For Perth Amboy and intermediate stations 8 12 10 08 a. m., 5 22 and 7 23 p. m. daily except Sundays. Sunday 10 29 a. m. and 7 06 p. m.

Trains leave Perth Amboy (State street) 7 18, 8 35 a. m., 4 30 and 6 35 p. m., daily except Sunday. Sunday 7:13 a. m. and 5 42 p. m.

For further information call on or address the Ticket Agent, South Plainfield, N. J. Through tickets to all important western points may be purchased at the South Plainfield office.

Col. BOLLIN H. WILBUR, General Superintendent, S. Bethlehem, Pa.

CHAS. S. LEE, General Passenger Agent 26 Cortlandt St., N. Y City.

NEW YORK TERMINALS—Foot of Cortlandt Desbrosses and West 23d streets.

A WOUNDED NAME

BY BRIG. GEN. CHAS. KING, U.S.A.

[Copyright, 1899, by F. Tennyson Neely.]

[CONTINUED.]

CHAPTER XVIII.

Once upon a time a very level headed old soldier was commandant of cadets at West Point, and one day one of his assistants, an energetic young officer, came hastily in to say that he had just happened upon a cadet duel at Fort Clinton, had captured one of the participants and placed him under arrest, but the principals, seconds and most of those present had managed to escape. The veteran listened grimly a moment and then said:

"Were they actually fighting when you got wind of it?"

"Yes, sir," was the earnest reply. "Anybody could have heard them."

"Um!" said the colonel reflectively. "Then I think you erred in interfering. Couldn't you have got there just a little later?"

"But the regulations prohibit fighting, sir!" said the junior, aggrieved.

"Certainly, and your course promotes it. You see, they were already at it. Five minutes more would have settled the thing one way or another, and that would have been the end of it. They would have shaken hands and been good friends. Now neither of them has had enough. Each believes he can whip the other, and those youngsters will neither be able to sleep nor study till they've fought it out. Always prevent a quarrel when you can, but once they get going never stop a square fight, never see or hear it—until you know it's over."

In like manner a wiser head than that which dictated the telegraphic instructions to the department commander that night would have seen that it was far better for all parties in the mix at San Francisco if Mr. Loring had been detained there long enough to have the matter investigated from start to finish, and so to "fix the responsibility." It was not of vital importance that he should sail by first steamer, but there had been friction between this particular general and the engineers, between him and the adjutant general, between him and the secretary of war, between him and the division commander, then temporarily absent, and a general who differs with so many eminent and astute authorities as these enumerated must occasionally err in judgment.

Had Loring staid and been accorded a complete investigation the chances are that he and the general would have shaken hands and parted friends, for both had sterling qualities. But orders given in compliance with orders from superiors are sometimes given only grudgingly. The general had heard in that brief interview with his late at night callers enough to convince him that the harshest charges laid at Loring's door belonged elsewhere. But there were things Loring had been too proud to explain—there was his insubordinate—so the general regarded it—appeal over his commander's head to the bureau in Washington; there was his defiance of his envoy and representative, Captain Petty; there were lots of little things that ruffled the dignity of the veteran autocrat, especially the somewhat peremptory tone of the dispatch from the war department, and the general felt himself wronged by his superiors.

Strain, too, suffered in his own estimate, and Petty was fuming with pent up wrath and hate against that cool, supercilious, contemptuous upstart of an engineer. Who in blazes was he, anyhow? What was his family? What his social status? demanded Petty to himself, even though he knew that these were matters whereof our democratic military system took no thought whatever. It is the proud boast of the American army that neither wealth nor name nor ancestry can count in the long race for the stars. In these glad days of peace and national prosperity the officer is speedily taught that promotion is the result of only one of two things—patient waiting or political influence.

And so it resulted that when Walter Loring steamed away southward on the long run for the States he left behind an unsettled fight, three or four aggrieved officials—aggrieved because of him or his affairs and their mismanagement of both—and one inveterate enemy. He had plenty of time to think it all over after he was fairly at sea, but none before. He and Dennis needed every moment to get his belongings aboard and his business closed. He called upon the general as directed and stood in respectful silence while the choleric warrior paced up and down the room and explained his position. He wished Mr. Loring to understand that while he felt that the young officer had behaved with disrespect, at least with disregard of his commanding general, the latter was too magnanimous to stand in his way, and had therefore determined the evening previous to release him from arrest and from further duty that he might lose no time in "joining" his new station, even went so far as to say he had found much, very much, to commend in the young gentleman and his performance of duty in Arizona, and, but for the unfortunate entanglements that had resulted, would have taken pleasure in making public announcement of the fact.

He could not but deprecate the conduct of Mr. Loring's friends in Washington, and might find it necessary to appeal to the president for justice. Meantime, however, he desired Mr. Loring to know that no personal consideration had actuated his conduct. He had done what he believed to be his duty, and then, like the orator, the general paused for reply.

Mr. Loring stood in civilian dress and soldier attitude, hat in hand, an attentive listener, never interposing a word or hazarding a remark. When the general stopped, the lieutenant remained silent and standing. The general looked perturbed, halted and glared, as much as to say, "Why the devil don't you speak?" a thing Loring never did when he had nothing to say. The chief found it necessary to begin anew, but broke off presently. "You understand, do you not?"

"Yes, sir," said Loring.

"Then I suppose—you're very busy—have many things to do?"

"Only one, sir."

"Well, I won't detain you. I—I wish you well, Mr. Loring, and—and—bon voyage!" And the general strove to smile.

"Thank you, general. Anything else, sir?"

The general stood and could think of nothing. "I believe not," he replied, "unless—however, never mind; I won't detain you."

"Good day, sir," said Loring, and marched quickly away to the room of the aid-de-camp. Petty was not there. An embarrassed lieutenant arose and smiled vaguely.

"Petty isn't about anywhere this morning. He was out late last night. I expect him every moment."

"You needn't. He won't come. Tell him I waited until 11:30."

Then Loring shut the door and left. He had many an hour later in which to think over his final interview with the aid. A most unwelcome duty was that second call to Petty. He would rather be kicked than go to Loring and say he was released from arrest and free to go. Perhaps he thought the kick forthcoming if he went. But Loring treated him with the same contemptuous coolness as he had earlier in the night. Nor did Loring seem either elated or surprised.

"Dash the man!" said Petty. "I'd give a month's pay to tell him something that would stir him!"

Petty could easily have done that had he seen fit to mention that the general had received a visit from the lady superior with a young girl from the convent of the good gray sisters. But that was a mysterious affair that even the general had seen fit to say nothing further about, even to Loring, who was most concerned. It was a matter that gentle and gracious woman herself never referred to when the engineer at 10 the next morning presented his card and was ushered into her presence. She was most courteous. There were peace and loving kindness ineffable in her placid face. There was infinite sympathy in her manner when she presently met and led in to him a pallid little maid, who put a long, slim hand in Loring's as he smiled upon her downcast, red rimmed eyes.

Struggle as she might for composure and strength, Pancha had evidently been sorely disturbed over something through the long watches of the night. Loring's heart reproached him as he realized how selfishly he had been engrossed for weeks, how little he had thought for her, of her who must be so lonely and homesick in her new sphere. He was almost shocked now at the pallor of her face, the droop and languor of the slender figure that was so buoyant and elastic those bright days aboard ship just preceding the catastrophe. What friends and chums they had become! How famously he was getting on with his Spanish! What a charming teacher she was with her lovely shining eyes, her laughing lips, her glistening white teeth! She seemed happy as a queen then, and now what had come over the child?

"They are going to let me write to you, Pancha," he had told her, "and I shall write every month, but you will write to me long letters, won't you?"

"Si." And the dusky little head bowed lower and Pancha was withdrawing her hand.

"You know I have no little sister," he went on.

She did. She had learned all this and much more aboard ship and remembered every word he had told her, very much more than he remembered. She knew far more about him than he did about her, but he looked far more interested now. The good gray sister was more than good. She was very busy at something away across the room, and Loring had drawn his little friend to the window.

"How I wish I had known you there at—at the Gila, Pancha!" he managed to say in slow, stumbling Spanish. "Do you know we made a great mistake, Mr. Blake and I?"

She did not wish to know. Two little hands went up imploringly, the dark head drooped lower still, the slender, girlish form was surely trembling. What ailed the child? It was time to go, yet he lingered. He felt a longing to take her hands again, clasped in each other now and hanging listless as she leaned against the window casing. He meant to bend and kiss her goodby, just as he would have kissed a younger sister, he said to himself, not as he had kissed Geraldine Allyn. But somehow he faltered, and that was something unusual to Walter Loring. Even at risk of being abrupt he felt it time to go, but after the manner of weaker men took out his watch.

"Yes, I must go, Pancha. We won't say goodby, will we? It is until tomorrow—hasta la manana. You know we always come again to California. You'll be quite a woman then, though." He who was so brief and reticent with men found himself prattling with this child, unable to break off. At last, with sudden effort, he seized both her hands in his, where they lay limp and passive.

"Adios, little one! Dear little friend!" he said, bent swiftly, and his curling brown mustache was crushed one instant against the top of her dusky head. Then he hurried to the lady superior and took his leave, Pancha standing silent at the window until the door had closed behind him.

Another day and he was looking back along the sparkling wake of the crowded steamer, thinking how beautiful the ocean seemed to him only a few weeks earlier. Another week and he was at the isthmus, homeward bound, yet clinging with strange interest to the scenes of so much trial. Another month and he was spinning along old, familiar shores, en route for the distant field of new and stirring duty. Without a day's delay he was hurried on the trail of a party of officials, designated to select the site for the new post far up in the heart of the Sioux hunting grounds. For associates he found a veteran quartermaster, with a keen eye for business, and an aid-de-camp of his new general commanding, and recent experiences with such combined to render him more reticent than ever. Major Burleigh confided to Captain Stone that if that was a specimen of West Point brains and brilliancy it only confirmed his previous notions.

The site for the new post was decided upon after brief but pointed argument, and a vote of two to one, the engineer being accorded the privilege of a minority report if he saw fit to make it. Commanding their escort was a young officer, whom Loring had known when as cadets they had together worn the gray, and though there had been no intimacy there was respect, and the two subalterns, engineer and dragoon, agreed that the board might better have staid at home and left the selection to the Indians, but Lieutenant Dean had no vote, and Loring no further responsibility. He could make his remonstrance when he got to Omaha, which would probably be too late. On that homeward way he saw enough of Burleigh to convince him he was a coward, for the major collapsed under the seat of the ambulance at the first sign of the Sioux.

With sudden effort, he seized both her hands in his.

Then there came an episode that filled Loring with sudden interest in this new yet undesirable acquaintance. Men get to know each other better in a week in the Indian country than in a decade in town. They had reached the little cantonment and supply station on the dry fork of the Powder, stiff and weary with their long journey by ambulance, and glad of a chance to stretch their legs and rest. The camp commander was doing his best to be hospitable. Burleigh had been shown into the major's hut, where a lot of mail was awaiting him. A bronzed subaltern had taken charge of Mr. Aid-de-camp Stone and another of Loring. The latter had just emerged from a tub, dripping and refreshed, and was rubbing himself dry when across the canvas screen he heard the voice of the commander hailing his host.

"Mr. Post Quartermaster," said he, "I wish every other kind of quartermaster but you was in ——. That old rip Burleigh is utterly upset by some letter he's got. He's limp as a wet rag, shaking like a man with a fit. Took four fingers of my best rye to bring him around. Says he must have your best team and ambulance at once. Got to push on for Frayne."

And indeed Burleigh's face when he came forth to start for the Platte was a grewsome sight. He looked, said the unfeeling linesman, after he'd gone, as though he'd seen more Indians. An hour later a soldier servant handed the major an envelope. "Picked it up under the table, sir. There's still something in it."

The major glanced curiously at the superscription.

"That's the envelope at least," said he, handing it to Loring, "of the letter that stampeded the old man."

And Loring looked at it first with but scant interest; then took and held and studied the writing with eyes that kindled wonderfully.

"Why, do you think you know that hand?" asked the major curiously.

Loring handed it back, hesitated a moment, nodded, but said no word.

TO BE CONTINUED.

Leggett's

SYRUP WHITE PINE AND TAR

is growing more popular every day. Why? Because it is a simple, palatable, reliable

Cough Remedy.

Try it, is all we ask.

25c. a Bottle.

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

H. E. Gayle 18 VINE S R B.

(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)

Carpenter and Builder

ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN

I a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 3c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 309 North avenue.

C. ARNOLD, 35 Somerset Street.

has an elegant display of

Genuine Spring Lamb,

JERSEY BROILERS AND POULTRY

of all kinds. It will do your heart good to inspect my stock before purchasing your Sunday dinner. 3 21 tf

Advertised Letter

Plainfield, N. J., April 3, 1899

Bell Miss May
Brown Mr A G
Brown Miss Margaret
Burrel Mr Jacob
Carter Mrs Augusta
Campbell Mr R
Cobb Mr J M
Howard Mr Walter
Gair
Greene Mr William
Hunter Mr
Hulburt Mr & Mrs A. Work Mr Chas L
Lewis Mrs Lucy
Moncton Mr George A
Ollis Mr Sydney L
Palson Miss Julia Lina
Reid Miss Emma
Rhone Mr John
Rogers Mr E H
Scruggs Miss Sallie W
Smith Mr W R
Sutton Mrs S P
Wilson Miss Susie

6.9 South street.

GREAT CLOTHING SALE

Special for 10 days. We will sell the balance of our heavy weight goods, consisting of

OVERCOATS AND SUITS

at 1 2 the former prices in order to make room for our handsome line of spring goods, which is arriving daily.

THIS SALE FOR 10 DAYS ONLY

So call and get rigged up for a little money.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,

206 West Front Street.

Hats and Gents' Furnishings.

STANDARD FOR THE WORLD.

Stop and See the

1899 Chainless

and others.

We have a few bargains in

SECOND HAND WHEELS

COLUMBIA BICYCLE AGENCY,

405 PARK AVENUE. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED IN REPAIR WORK by C. L. Thorn, of the Columbia Agency.

SPECIAL SALE

Over 13 hundred pairs of shoes. Nothing to say about the price, only that the lowness of it will surprise everybody.

SHERWIN'S, 149 West Front St.

Flynn Bros.,

SHOE DEALERS,

222 WEST FRONT STREET,

Near Music Hall,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods

Have stood the test for years.

LAIRE'S

SPRING AND SEASONABLE GOODS.

Garden Wheel Barrows.
Garden Tools, all kinds.
Garden Seeds, all varieties.
Lawn Seed.
Lawn Dressing.
Fertilizers, all kinds.
Lawn Rakes.

Ask to see the finest family scale made, for $1.50.

TELEPHONE CALL 682.

THE J. P. LAIRE HARDWARE CO

WASHINGTON

VIA

OLD POINT COMFORT

is the most attractive short trip at this season of the year.

STEAMSHIPS OF THE

OLD DOMINION LINE

PERFORM DAILY SERVICE.

Through tickets returning from Washington by rail or water.

(For full information apply to)

OLD DOMINION S. S. COMPANY.

(Pier 26, North River, NEW YORK.

W. L. Guillaudeu Vice-Pres., & Traffic Mgr.

10-28 1 1y

Ladies Desiring

KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING

done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 6 [illegible] avenue, and it will receive prompt attention.

MISS JENKINS,

PARLOR MILLINERY

303 East Sixth Street

HURRAH! HURRAH! HURRAH!!

Here we are, the largest and best equipped laundry in your town. [illegible] only a title, but it is a positive fact. Our numerous laundries and branches are located all over the principal cities of the states of

NEW YORK, NEW JERSEY AND PENNSYLVANIA.

And can frankly say that the work turned out by each is appreciated by our numerous patrons. The introduction of has gained great fame. And still another great advantage is gained by your articles coming to us and that is, at your per front hours are not by hand. Your collar and cuffs are turned and finished in the proper way, the making of buttonholes, etc. Telephone or a postal postal. Will call and deliver free of charge.

Our Celebrated Domestic Finish

City Steam and Hand Laundry

19 SOMERSET ST.

TELEPHONE.

Morey & LaRue, Proprietors

PLAINFIELD N. J.

A Double Bill

EASTER WEEK

Our Easter panel, "Innocence" given free to purchasers of teas, coffees, baking powder, etc. A Lady's Rocker given to purchasers of one pound baking powder.

GRAND UNION TEA CO

138 West Front street.

Wilson Hand & Son,

PAGES

For Parties, etc. 518 Park avenue

McCullough's STEAM MILL

Steiner place, North Plainfield

R. R. McCullough, Prop'r

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished

EUROPE, starting June 29, 69 days, 48 days or 41 days; English coaching, Holland, Germany, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, Paris. Experience, fourteen years. Particulars of HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS, Plainfield, N. J.

A GREAT OFFER

To the Public of Plainfield and vicinity by

CHARLES EISENBERG,

the well-known Painter, Paper Hanger and Decorator, who has opened a branch store

310 West Front Street,

(Stillman Building.)

I will paper any fair size room, ceiling and walls, with the best designs of wall papers, including sizing and repairing from $4 up. I also carry the finest and largest assortment in portland and domestic wall papers and decorations. I do first-class work in painting, kalsomining and in the best interior painting at reasonable prices. Call at the store or send a postal card, and I will call on you with sample books, and cheerfully give estimates. I guarantee first-class workmanship. Yours truly,

Chas. Eisenberg.

Stores—310 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J.; 312 Main street, Orange, N. J.; 65 Springfield avenue, Newark, N. J.; Warehouse 10, 12, 14 and 16 Mercer street, Newark, N. J. Phone, 1073. Plainfield open evenings until 9. Sample books to the trade.

E. D. BARRETT,

Sanitary Plumbing.

Steam and Hot Water Heating.

Telephone 612. 148 East Fifth Street. 4 3 1m

COLLIER,

SCIENTIFIC OPTICIAN

Established 1869.

103 Park Avenue

EDUCATIONAL.

GREGG SHORTHAND SCHOOL

Babcock Building,

The latest and best system. Stenographers filling positions after 3 months.

DAY AND EVENING.

W. E. Van Wert, Principal.

Standard Typwriters in use.

MISS SARAH A. PALMER,

TEACHER OF PIANO (Virgil Method) AND THEORY IN ALL ITS BRANCHES.

The Virgil method and the Practice Clavier give to the pupil not only finger agility, but also mental control and concentration, whereby alone the best results can be obtained.

172 Crescent Avenue.

Piano Instruction

Virgil Clavier Method a specialty.

MISS ANNA O. MARSH and MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.

2915 MADISON AVE.

Sight Reading Classes, vocal and instrumental.

F. V. L. Goodwin,

TEACHER OF MUSIC.

Lessons given at home on Piano. Special attention to beginners. Residence.

105 MANNING AVENUE,

North Plainfield, N. J.

SHORTHAND! BOOKKEEPING!

No better systems can be found than those taught in : : : :

PLAINFIELD BUSINESS COLLEGE,

City Bank Building.

Both sexes. Day and Night. Come and see us.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.

William Holmes

(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Duff.)

Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.

Studio at Residence,

440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE, I. O. H.

Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's hall, No. 1-9 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711, ROYAL ARCANUM.

The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.

A. I. LITTELL, Regent.

Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

John G. Bantle,

428 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

First-class

TAILOR

SPECIALTY OF

Ladies' Tailor-made Garments

Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL.,

corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.

RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

L. MORALLER & SON

Watchmakers and Jewelers

HAVE REMOVED TO 219 PARK AVE.

Next to Armstrong's Drug Store. 3 15 1m

Before starting on a "run" a refreshing wash with Ivory Soap gives new energy. It lathers quickly in any kind of water and does not cost more than common soap. The luxury of being clean is not realized without using Ivory Soap. You need not fear alkali, or other injurious ingredients found in many soaps. Ivory Soap is nothing but pure materials, combined to make a soap that will clean and rinse quickly, thoroughly, satisfactorily.

IT FLOATS.

COPYRIGHT 1898 BY THE PROCTER & GAMBLE CO. CINCINNATI

SPORTING.

CYCLING COMMENT.

Miss Keely, of LaGrande avenue, is the owner of a handsome new wheel.

Society will probably wheel next Saturday evening at the Crescent Rink.

ROADS IN SIX COUNTIES UNITE.

North Jersey Company Takes in Two New Trolley Systems.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Newark, April 5—The North Jersey Street Railway Company is about to lease the North Hudson County Railway Company and the Orange and Passaic Valley system. Thus every street railway line to Essex, Hudson, Union, Somerset, Passaic and Bergen counties will be operated by one management.

The company will control and operate about 160 miles of street railroads, with an aggregate capitalization of about $70,000 000, of which almost one-third is represented in guaranteed interest-bearing bonds and the balance in common stock, issued in various proportions by the several companies.

The men controlling the street railways concerned are: P. A. B. Widener, William B. Elkins, Randolph Morgan and Thomas F. Dolan, of Philadelphia; William C. Whitney, J. D. Crimmins and Patrick H. Flynn, of New York City; ex Senator James Smith, B. M. Shanley, Leslie D. Ward, Elisha B Gaddis, Gottfriend Krueger, John F. Dryden, L. D. Howard, Gilmore and David Young, of Newark; E. F. C. Young, of Jersey City; Garret A. Hobart and Augustus Barber, of Paterson, and United States Senator John Kean, of Elizabeth.

Death of Mrs. Mundy.

The death of Mrs. Martha A. Mundy, aged 77 years, mother of Mrs. Joseph P. Humble, of Somerset street, corner Lincoln place, occurred last evening after a long illness. Mrs. Mundy was the widow of the late Enos Mundy a well-known resident in this vicinity. Mrs. Mundy was a woman of Christian character and when able was a faithful attendant at divine worship. The funeral services will be held from the home of Mrs. Humble on Friday afternoon next at 2 o'clock. Relatives and friends are invited to attend.

—The annual meeting of the Altar society of St. Stephen's church will be held Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

HABIT

is a tyrant! The habit of throwing aside soiled or faded suits or dresses is an extravagant one, when, for so little money, we can by cleaning or dyeing, making them almost, if not, quite as good as new.

HILLIER & CO.,

129 West Front Street,

Opposite White's. 'Phone 851.

MT. OLIVE'S BAZAAR.

Colored Baptists Endeavoring to Raise Money for Church Work.

Last evening at the Mt. Olive Baptist church there was held an entertainment and bazaar which is to continue tonight and tomorrow evening. The entertainment consisted of piano solos by Fred White. Recitations, vocal and instrumental music by the young people of the church and Sunday-school helped to furnish an evening of pleasure to all.

A feature was a half-hour address by W. J. Pride on the subject of "Solution of the Negro Problem." The main point made by Mr. Pride was that there must be unity among the colored people and particularly in the church.

After the entertainment all present adjourned to the room below, where the bazaar was held. There was on sale ice cream, cake, groceries, useful and fancy articles. This was in charge of Mrs. Dempsey, assisted by the young women of the church.

Important To Mothers.

The manufacturers of Castoria have been compelled to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars to familiarize the public with the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. This has been necessitated by reason of pirates counterfeiting the Castoria trade-mark. This counterfeiting is a crime not only against the proprietors of Castoria, but against the growing generation. All persons should be careful to see that Castoria bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, if they would guard the health of their children. Parents and mothers, in particular, ought to carefully examine the Castoria advertisements which have been appearing in this paper, and to remember that the wrapper of every bottle of genuine Castoria bears the fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher, under whose supervision it has been manufactured continuously for over thirty years.—Phila. Bulletin. c

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help, but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion build up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by L. W. Randolph, druggist. Guaranteed.

—The Queen City Laundry has moved into one of the Miller stores on Park avenue, where the Eldridge Bicycle Co. used to be.

—Chas. E. Bicknell, the Somerset street fruit dealer, is making a special price on oranges, bananas and apples. He has the largest navel oranges ever sold in this city and at a very low price.

To Cure Constipation in One Week
To Purify the Blood in One Week
To Strengthen Nerves in One Week
To Cure Sick Headache in One Day

Take Cleveland's Celery Compound Tea, 25c. Trial size free. It it fails to cure your money will be refunded. T S Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenues.

SECTION BOSS RUN OVER.

Third Man Killed by Trains Near Aldene Within a Week.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Roselle, April 5—John Mullin, aged 55 years, a section boss, was run over and had both legs cut off by a Baltimore and Ohio Railroad train south of Cranford Junction Monday afternoon. He was picked up unconscious and died during the night at the Elizabeth General Hospital. He lived on Fifth avenue, Roselle. He leaves a wife and two children. He is the third man killed at Aldene during the last week.

New Workers in the Library.

A regular meeting of the board of directors of the Public Library was held last evening. After the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting, the president reported that the resolutions respecting the appropriation for the coming year had been presented to the Common Council. He also reported that Miss Louise Patten had been engaged on trial to fill the position left vacant by Miss Bowman's advancement, Miss Jobs having resigned.

It was decided that the special committee be authorized to proceed to make such alterations in the old building and in the arrangement of the present reading room, and for electric light and replace the heating apparatus and such incidential work as may be necessary, and make such contracts as shall seem best.

Arthur Hollenberg, of Philadelphia, who has been visiting friends in town, has returned home.

—E. P. Kellogg, of Mt. Pleasant, has sold his farm there and has now moved to the Stelle farm on Park avenue, just beyond the city line.

THE GENERALS' TRAIN.

An Interesting Feature of the Last Election Campaign.

No feature of the late campaign was hailed with more interest than the trip of the Union Generals. They are all called Generals, although in reality the party was made up of five Generals, a Captain, and a Corporal. The Generals are O. O. Howard, Daniel E. Sickles, T. J. Stewart of Pennsylvania, O. A. Marden of Massachusetts, and Russell A. Alger of Michigan. The Captain is John R. Tanner, the Republican candidate for Governor of Illinois, and the corporal is Corporal Tanner of New York.

The Union Generals traveled in a special train, consisting of a baggage, dining, and combination sleeping and observation car, and at the tail end of the train was a flat car, on which, securely mounted, were a brass rapid-firing gun and a mortar. This flat car was in charge of experienced gunners.

By no means the least interesting person on the Union Generals' train was the bugler, a very important man. At the stopping places the Generals left their car for seats on the flat car. On each side of their seats were the rapid-fire gun and a mortar. When Gen. Sickles arose on his crutches to address the audience the bugler was immediately beside him.

"Bugler," commands Gen. Sickles, in the sharp tones of an army officer giving orders, "call my comrades in this vast audience before me."

The bugler gave the regulation call. The old comrades in the audience step to the front and salute.

"Bugler," roars Gen. Sickles, "call us back to the old days of '61."

The bugler then run the gamut of infantry, artillery, and cavalry calls, and between them he played the reville and the call to arms. The old comrades roared with delight. The rapid-fire gun blazed away and the mortar belched skyward a bomb, which when it broke was a ball of red, white, and blue fire. There was a band at every point and the national songs were replayed. All joined in singing "The Star Spangled Banner." These scenes were repeated all along the route and excited wildest enthusiasm.

Henry Irving's Ring.

It was long known among the friends of Henry Ward Beecher that he had a passion for collecting curious and beautiful precious stones, which he was accustomed to carry in his pockets, occasionally making a present of one to somebody he admired. It seems now that one of the finest of these gems graces the hand of Henry Irving in a ring that Mr. Beecher wore for many years.

It contains a beautiful aquamarine gem. When Miss Ellen Terry was on her first visit to America she lunched with Mr. and Mrs. Beecher, and being shown the gem, expressed so much admiration that Mr. Beecher urged her to accept it.

She was very proud of it and wore it constantly, but, as she tells the story, "On the day that Queen Victoria knighted Irving, I took the ring from my finger and gave it to him in honor of the occasion. Sir Henry now wears Mr. Beecher's ring and will wear it as long as he lives."

Coffee Blindness.

The Moors are inveterate coffee-drinkers, especially the merchants, who sit in thir bazaars and drink coffee continually during the day. It has been recently noticed that almost invariably when these coffee-drinkers reach the age of forty or forty five their eyesight begins to fail, and by the time they get to be fifty they become blind.

Strangers are impressed by the number of blind men that are seen about the streets of the city of Fez, the capital of Morocco. It is invariably attributed to the excessive use of coffee. This opinion has been confirmed by that of European physicians living

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders.

—Some of the United States Express Company's trucks have been treated to a coat of paint.

—Union Gospel services will be held in the W. C. T. U. rooms tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

—A representative of Leech, Stiles & Co., eye specialists, will be at 107 East Front street tomorrow.

—The Woman's Christian Temperance Union desires to inform the public that all authorized communications to the city papers will be accompanied by an official endorsement.

Buffalo Bill's Wild West.

Colonel William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill) is always kept busy during the winter months arranging some new illustration of an historical event which would give both old and new an object lesson that would be of more value, educationally, than all the books and writers combined. This year Colonel Cody gives an illustration of the heroic charge on San Juan hill that is startling in its realism.

The entire Wild West company participates, and 1,200 horses and men will be seen in the battle. The real fight lasted for twelve hours, but for the illustration the management has selected only the most desperate movements. Enough is shown, however, to give the auditor a splendid idea of the eventful affair. Real Rough Riders, who served with Col. Roosevelt, take part in the exhibition, as well as Cuban warriors and scouts.

Indians, cowboys, American soldiers, German Cuirassiers, the Queen's own lancers, Cossacks and others are seen in feats of horsemanship and exhibition drills. The season opened in Madison Square Garden, and will continue for two weeks and four days.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL!

MAZE EDWARDS, Lessee and Manager. Telephone 722.

THURSDAY NIGHT, APRIL 6, 1899.

STAGE HANDS BENEFIT.

Donnelly & Girard's Greatest Farce Comedy success,

"NATURAL GAS."

Introducing Mr. Eddie Girard in his Original Characters, supported by a Cast of Unexcelled Superiority.

Prices—25c. 35c. 50c. and 75c. Reserved seats at Box Office. Open daily from 9 a. m.

Two Performances—Matinee and Night.

SATURDAY, APRIL 8, 1899.

A Magnificent Production of MRS. FRANCES HODGSON BURNETT'S Charming Drama

"Little Lord Fauntleroy."

By the Famous

SMEDLEY CHILDREN

ELLIS, Aged 10. EDWIN, Aged 9.

And a Company of Carefully-Selected Players.

PRICES—At Night, 25, 35, 50 and 75c. Box Seats $1.

All Seats at the Matinee Reserved, 25 and 50c. Reserved seat tickets now on sale.

"Feast of all Nations"

IN THE LECTURE ROOM OF

TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH

Thursday Evening, April 6,

For Benefit of Young Women's Mission Band of the Church.

SUPPER a la Carte during the evening. If stormy the "Feast" will be continued the following evening.

ADMISSION . . 10c.

3 31 6

CHAS. L. FORCE.

Architect and Superintendent.

208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given. 1 31 tf

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages there should be cleanliness.

Ely's Cream Balm

cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail.

ELY BROTHERS, 55 Warren Street, New York.

FURNITURE.

Not the bargain sale kind that is made to sell at low prices but is never cheap—every article of our large stock has been bought on the merit of quality from reliable manufacturers only. To close balance of stock quickly every article is offered at less than usually quoted on cheaply-made goods. Can name only few prices:

$35 Parlor Cabinets	-	$17.00
5 50 Parlor Tables	-	3.25
9 00 Chiffonieres	-	5.75
30.00 Sideboards	-	21.00

CALL NOW AND GET BARGAINS.

-- PACKER --

West Front St. and Madison Ave.

SPRING CLEANING

will soon be here, and while cleaning up your homes do not forget to clean your system.

Hepburn's Blood Purifier

for the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys, will do this in a satisfactory manner. Money refunded if it don't do what is claimed for it. We have made and sold it the same way for the past 14 years.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY, HEPBURN & CO.

Cor. Park Ave. and Second St. Telephone 671.

Mrs. Grover Cleveland, at Princeton, N. J, said:

"Mr. Naylor, the carpet cleaning you did for me is entirely satisfactory."

A. F Naylor,

Bedding Factory & Store,

'Phone 931 23 Somerset-st

PROPOSALS FOR COAL.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Plainfield, N. J., April 5th, 1899.

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Board of Education of the city of Plainfield, N. J., at a meeting held April 3rd, 1899, notice is hereby given that the Board of Education will meet on May 1st, next, at the Board room in the Stillman school, corner of West Fifth Street and Arlington Avenue, in the city of Plainfield, at 7:45 p. m. at which time and place said Board of Education will receive proposals for furnishing five hundred (500) tons, more or less, of the best coal suitable for steam and hot air heating, in pea, No. 1 chestnut, stove and egg sizes, all coal to be thoroughly screened, trimmed, and placed in the bins within the public school buildings, without any extra expense to the Board for such handling and to be delivered during the month of July next, or at such time as the Board may direct. Bids to specify the quality of coal, and whether long or short tons.

Payment for all coal contracted for to be made after September 1st next. All proposals to be endorsed "proposals for coal." The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Upon receipt of the bids or proposals, the Board will immediately proceed to unseal the same and publicly announce the contents in the presence of the parties bidding, or their agents, provided such parties or agents choose to be then and there present and also to make proper record of the prices and terms upon the minutes of the Board.

By order of the Board of Education

F. B. CLARK, Clerk of the Board.

4 5 11 18 25 30

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

The Board of Education at a regular meeting held April 3d, 1899, adopted the following resolutions, viz:

Resolved, That a requisition be made upon the Assessors, and the Collector of Taxes of this city and school district to assess and collect this current year, the sum of 50-100 (fifty-one-hundredths) per cent. on the taxable valuation of the real and personal property in the city and district for school purposes, for the school year 1899-1900, commencing September 1st, 1899, and also such sum as may be required for the annual payment on indebtedness and interest.

Resolved, That a requisition be made upon the Assessors, and the Collector of Taxes of this city and school district to assess and collect this current year, the sum of 4-100 (four-one-hundredths) per cent. on the taxable valuation of the real and personal property in the city and district for the school year 1899-1900, commencing September 1st 1899, as a special school tax now required by law for the purchase of text books and school supplies, these requisitions to be signed by the President and Secretary of the Board and a copy to be served on the Assessors and the Collector of Taxes, and advertised in compliance with the law governing the same

Signed, J. B. PROBASCO, President.

FRED C. LOUNSBURY, Secretary.

Attest, F. B CLARK,

Clerk of the Board.

Plainfield, N. J., April 5th, 1899. 4-5 12 19 26

A Chance For the Masses.

The greatest sale of spring clothing for men, boys and children ever held in Plainfield The prices are within the reach of all and defy competition. Right from under the auctioneer's hammer we have purchased at 35c on the dollar $7 000 worth of the best tailor-made Spring clothing, all this season's manufacture, from the well-known stock of Messrs. Rothschild, Levi & Co, of Rochester, N Y, known as the best ready made clothing manufacturers in the United States. This sale will continue for a short time only. Every dollar's worth of their stock must be converted into cash at once. Study this price list and bring it with you, so that you can get your goods just at these prices:

Men's tweed and cheviot spring suits, regular price 7.00, our price 2.75. Men's fine cheviot and cassimere sack suits in newest shades, regular price 9.00-10.00, our price 3.75. Men's sack or cutaway suits in Scotch cheviots, diagonals and worsteds, regular price 13.00, our price 5.50. Men's tailor-made dress suits in sack or cutaway style, made from the very finest goods, including diagonal, French clay worsteds and the John Taylor celebrated cassimere and homespuns, regular price 18.00, 20.00 and 22.00, our price 6.50, 7.50 and 8.50. We have over 3,000 suits to choose from. No matter how particular your tastes are, you are bound to find something suitable. Men's extra durable working pants, regular price 2.00 and 2.50, our price 1.00 and 1.50.

Youths' suits made from best worsteds and cheviots, regular price from 6.00 to 12.00, our price 2.50 to 7.00. Men's covert cloth Spring overcoats in the latest shades and cuts, regular price from 10.00 to 15.00, our price from 3.50 to 6.90. A good all wool child's suit, ages from 5 to 8 years made with sailor collars, middy vestee style or double breasted, regular price from 2.50 to 3.00, our price 1.00 to 1.25 and 1.50. Very fine middy suits with combination collars and vests, regular price 6.00, our price 2.00 to 2.50. Children's suits from 8 to 16 years, all wool, regular price from 3.00 to 4.00, our price 1.50 to 1.90. Boys' knee pants from 15c to 45c. Men's latest spring styles derbies from 85c to 1.25 worth double.

It would be well to come early, so you can get your choice.

New York Clothing Co.

M. Weinberger, Manager. 214 West Front St., next door to Music Hall, Plainfield, N. J.

All cars stop at our door. Carfare paid to all out-of-town buyers.

JEWELRY.

PUTNAM & DEGRAW.

Bead Chains 25c and 49c. Gold Chains 25c and 50c. Bracelets 25c and 50c Buckles, Brooches, Waist Sets, Cuff Buttons, Belt Pins, etc.

We are agents for the CELEBRATED "EIGHMIE" SHIRTS.

"Belshazzar" CONCERT,

By GRACE CHURCH CHOIR.

At the : CASINO :

Thursday Evening, Apr. 6,

8:15 o'clock.

NEUMAN BROS.,

GROCERS,

Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

THE F. L. C. MARTIN CYCLE CO.

Will offer a proposition to you

CRESCENT BICYCLES

FRIDAY, APRIL 7th.

WATCH FOR IT. IT WILL INTEREST YOU.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR
Sun Rises 5 36 a. m.
Sun Sets 6 29 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 7 29 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Rain Late Tonight and Friday. Warmer Tonight. Ther. 60.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., THURSDAY, APRIL 6 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

HOW THE CALL SYSTEM IS GOING TO WORK

Provisions of the New Fire Department Ordinance.

NOW BEFORE THE COUNCIL.

FIVE COMPANIES TO BE ORGANIZED ON ITS PASSAGE.

But There Are Only Enough Men Provided by Budget for Four Companies—Department Will Be Free From Politics—Pay for the Different Officers and Men—Fines for Call Men.

The opening of the new enginehouse in the West End, the probable adoption of the "call" system and the various recommendations of the fire committee of the Common Council promises to make a considerable change in the Plainfield Fire Department. The change will be in the arrangement rather than in the personel.

Much interest has been shown in the details of the new "call" system provided for by the new ordinance that was introduced into the Council last Monday evening. The fire committee prepared the ordinance and presented it as their solution for the present state of affairs in the department. Most of the other Councilmen have expressed themselves as being in favor of the "call" system, so there is little doubt but that the ordinance will be passed.

According to the new ordinance the officers of the department will be the same as ever—one chief engineer and two assistants and a veterinary surgeon. Then there will be the permanent drivers and tillermen. The remainder of the force will be composed of "call" men, six to a company. By the ordinance the following companies are to be organized immediately after the passage of the ordinance—Hose Company No. No. 1, Hose Company No. 2, Hose Company No. 3, Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, and Engine Company No. 1.

It is generally understood, however, that the Engine Company, which is expected to look after the chemical engine, will not be organized at present, but that the engine will be looked after entirely by the paid men at the house. Provision has only been made for four companies, that is, twenty-four men.

The department is to be out of politics entirely. There will be a simple examination for new candidates for positions. The members of the department will remain in their positions then during good behavior and efficiency.

The pay of the firemen is fixed as follows: Chief, $700 per annum; first assistant, $100 per annum; second assistant, $600 per annum when devoting his entire time to the department, otherwise, $100; veterinary surgeon, $150 per annum; engineer of steamer, $75 per annum; hosemen and laddermen, on call, $25 per annum.

The drivers and tillermen are divided into four classes with a sliding scale of wages. The first class is composed of those who have served in the department continuously for a period greater than five years. The second class is made up of those who have served more than three years and less than five years. The third class is composed of those who have served more than six months and less than three years. And the fourth class includes those who have served less than six months. The pay for the various classes is as follows: First class, $60 a month; second class, $55 a month; third class, $50 a month; fourth class, $10 a month.

The call men are all expected to respond to every alarm of fire in their district. Failure to do so will result in a fine of $1 for each absence, except in case of illness or death in family or absence from the city with permission. If, however, the firemen fined performs seventy five per cent of duty, his fines are remitted at the end of the year.

The ordinance also dwells on various matters relating to the fire department which do not pertain to the "call" system. It is declared an offence, liable of a fine from $5 to $20, to injury or destroy any property of the fire department. There is a fine of $10 against anyone outside of the department driving any of the apparatus Another fine of $10 is announced for wilfully hindering a fireman in the performance of his duty. Any one sending in a false alarm intentionally is liable to a fine of $10.

One of the last sections of the ordinance provides for the turning over of the property of the old companies of the volunteer department to the new companies that are to be organized. Hose Company No. 1, is to fall heir to

CONTINUED ON PAGE 8

THIRTY-THREE YEARS IN FIRE DEPARTMENT.

GAZELLE COMPANY'S OLDEST MEMBER

A. H Martin Has Been a Volunteer Many Years—Engine Company Nominate Officers.

Gazelle Engine Company, of the Plainfield volunteer fire department, held a regular meeting last evening and nominated the following officers: Foreman, L. M. Dunavan; first assistant foreman, William Addis; second assistant foreman, D. S. Dunavan; secretary, J. E. Huntington; treasurer, L. J. Spicer; representatives to the Relief Association, W. T. Neuman and J. A. Hubbard.

The election will be held on the first Monday in May. At that meeting action will be taken to dispose of the property of the company, preparatory to going out of active service.

The meeting last evening marked the thirty-third anniversary of A. H. Martin's connection with the Gazelle Company. The only fireman who has been in the service longer is Chief Doane, who outranks Mr. Martin in the department by six months.

PLAYING IN THE STREET.

LITTLE TOT RAN DIRECTLY INTO AN ONCOMING HORSE.

Knocked Down and Struck on the Hand With the Horse's Hoof, But Was Not Seriously Injured After All.

About 6 o'clock last evening quite an excitement was furnished the residents in the vicinity of Watchung avenue and East Front street, when a three-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coon, who live on Watchung avenue, was struck by a horse and knocked to the ground. The horse and wagon belonged to Councilman Geo. P. Mellick, and was in charge of the coachman, who was driving toward North Plainfield. The little girl was on one side of the avenue, but suddenly took a notion to cross and go home. She did not start immediately, but hesitated once or twice before attempting to cross. She finally made a dash, without seeing her danger, and ran directly in front of the horse and was knocked down and under his feet, miraculously escaping being tramped on.

The coachman checked his horse with all possible haste, but not quick enough to prevent one of the horse's hoofs from striking the girl on the hand. It was at first thought that the little girl was fatally injured and the neighbors gathered in great numbers and excitement was high. All the physicians in the vicinity were sought, but none were home. Finally, the coachman hastened to Leggett's pharmacy where he secured some liniment to bathe the injured parts. Those who saw the accident say that the coachman was entirely blameless, and that he did all that was possible to avert the accident. The girl was not seriously injured, but suffered greatly from fright.

A SUBSCRIPTION DANCE.

Past Lenten Season Brings Social Festivity to the Park Club.

The young people held sway over the Park Club house, last evening, when a subscription dance was held there. It was an entirely successful affair in every particular. There were some seventy-five guests present, including the younger society set of Plainfield and North Plainfield.

The little ball room in the club house was prepared for the occasion and arranged as a drawing room, with rugs, tapestries and other decorations. The patronesses were Mrs. H. E. Bowen and Mrs. B A. Hegeman, Jr. The young women who arranged the dance were the Misses Bowen, Miss Virginia Hegeman, Miss Josephine Lapsley, Margaret Goddard and Miss Helen Martin. Rogers furnished the music.

Suit Against Trolley Company Laid Over.
(Special to The Daily Press)

Dunellen, April 6—The case of the borough of Fanwood against the New Brunswick and Philadelphia Traction Co. was to have been tried yesterday afternoon before Justice Warden. Upon motion of the defendants, however, the case was laid over for one week. The borough is suing the railroad company for expense they were put to when the company applied for a franchise through the borough several months ago.

Marriage Announced.

The marriage is announced of Miss Jessie Adams Kennard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edward Kennard, of 251 Jefferson avenue, Brooklyn, to Alexander Milne, of Mercer avenue, to take place Wednesday evening, April 19th at 8 o'clock. The marriage will be held at the home of the bride. Mr. Milne is a popular young man of Washington Park and is employed in the office of a prominent New York architect.

WEDDED WHERE ORANGE TREES WERE IN BLOOM

Washington Park Home the Scene of a Pretty Marriage.

MISS FABER WAS THE BRIDE.

THE DECORATIONS OF THE HOUSE WERE BEAUTIFUL.

Edmund Rushmore Was the Groom—Ceremony Performed by Rev. William Montgomery Downey in the Presence of Admiring and Congratulating Guests—A Reception Followed.

The home of Alexander Edward Faber, 38 Rockview avenue, was the scene yesterday afternoon and evening of a brilliant event, when his daughter, Miss Cornelia Faber, was united in marriage to Edmund Rushmore, also a resident of Washington Park. It was one of the prettiest home weddings yet seen, and it was marked by many unique features.

The ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock by Rev. William Montgomery Downey, pastor of the Church of the Redeemer, in the presence of a large assemblage of society folks both from this city and borough, as well as from distant points. The house was beautifully decorated with the rarest of flowers. The feature of the decorations was the presence of two handsome orange trees in full bloom and these were so arranged that the bridal party stood close by. The effect of this decoration was charming. The trees were from Mr. Faber's private conservatory. The prevailing colors in decoration were pink and white.

The bride entered the room, where the marriage was performed, leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her away in marriage. She was preceded by the bridemaids, Miss Marion Henderson, formerly of Washington Park, but now of New York, and Miss Marguerite Henschel, also of New York. They met at the floral altar the groom and his best man, David Rushmore, a brother.

The beautiful marriage ceremony of the Episcopal church was used, and the responses were exceedingly clear and distinct.

The bride was gowned in white organdie over white taffeta, and carried a beautiful bouquet of bridal roses. Her attendants, the bridemaids, were gowned in white silk and also carried bouquets of roses.

Following the ceremony congratulations were cordially extended to the happy and popular couple. They held a reception from 4:30 until 6 o'clock, during which time a wedding supper was served to the guests. After the reception the bride and groom left for a honeymoon, after which they will for the present take up their residence at the home of the bride's father.

Those who acted as ushers at the wedding were Charles E Faber and William R. Faber, brothers of the bride.

The many costly and handsome gifts received by Mr. and Mrs. Rushmore give expression to the popularity and esteem in which they are held by their many friends.

WILLING TO STOP LITIGATION.

Objection to Watchung Avenue Assessments Ready to Cry Quits.

At the meeting of the Borough Council tomorrow evening it is quite likely that a petition will be received from the complaining property owners along Watchung avenue who object to the heavy assessment made on them for the opening of the avenue. There seems to be a disposition on the part of both officials and property owners to compromise the matter to some degree so that all further litigation may cease. There does not seem to be any good reason why more of the expense of opening the avenue should not be borne by the borough at large. This would reduce somewhat the individual assessment and make it more just in the eyes of those affected.

Y. M. C. A Literary Meeting.

The Literary Society of the Plainfield Y. M. C. A. will hold it next meeting Monday evening. The programme for that time is announced to be as follows: Debate, "Resolved that the United States is justified in its present policy of holding the Phillippine Islands;" affirmative speakers, T. A. Cuming, Walter Dreier and W. D. Pike; negative speakers, Charles M. Dolliver, C. W. Sprague and C. M. Rogers; solo by T. A Cuming; readings by R. W. Davis and C. E. Drange; cornet solo by R. W. Davis; oration by T. H. Stafford.

To Test Fire Alarm Boxes.

Fire alarm boxes 21, 14 and 25 will be tested at at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning by Chief Doane.

—Press want ads pay

QUIET HOME WEDDING

AND AFTER THE MARRIAGE A BAPTISM WAS PERFORMED.

Miss Maude Myra Lowrie Becomes the Bride of a Springfield Man—Youthful Lowrie Was Afterwards Baptised

A very quiet home wedding was celebrated last evening at the home of Dr and Mrs. Henry H. Lowrie, of Park avenue, when their daughter, Miss Maud Myra Lowrie, was united in marriage to Julian S. Deane, secretary of the Hampden Corundum Wheel Company, of Springfield, Mass. The ceremony took place at 6 o'clock in the presence of the immediate family and relatives, and was performed by Rev. Cornelius G. Bristol, of Hartford, Conn., who is a brother-in-law of the bride. Laura Bristol and Gardner Bristol, children of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Bristol, attended the bride and groom and were dressed as pages.

The bride wore a gown of white silk, trimmed with lace and ribbons, and carried a bouquet of white roses. Following the ceremony congratulations were offered to the happy couple, after which a wedding supper was partaken of.

Mr. and Mrs. Deane will travel west on their honeymoon, after which they will probably reside at Springfield. They were the recipients of a large collection of elegant and costly presents from their friends and relatives.

In connection with the wedding there was another event of equal interest, that of the baptism of Helen Myra Lowrie, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lowrie, of Camden. This ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Bristol, and was very pretty.

Rev. J. P. Taylor and Rev. Floyd Appleton, of this city, were present to witness the ceremony, and among the others present were Dr. and Mrs. Henry H Lowrie, parents of the bride, Dr. Frank R. Searles and wife, of Catskill, N. Y.; Rev. Cornelius G. Bristol and family, of Hartford, Conn.; Harry Lowrie and family, of Camden.

BIG INJUN MEN THERE.

A CONTINGENT OF BUFFALO BILL'S RED MEN IN TOWN.

The Indians in Attendance at Miantonomo Tribe's Fair—Board of Great Chiefs Present in All Their Glory.

The second night of the Red Men's fair was more successful than the first. The hall was filled with people from the time the doors were opened until midnight, and the floor was so crowded that it was almost impossible to dance.

The board of great chiefs was present in full force. Among them were Great Prophet Wm. J. Smythe, of Long Branch; Great Sachem Arthur Stites, of Atlantic City; Great Senior Sagamore Wm. Newcorn; Great Junior Sagamore Nowry, of Camden; Great Chief Recorder Daniel M. Stevens, of Camden; Great Prophetess Mrs. VanHouten, of Manasquan; Great Pocohontas Mrs. Mary Stites, of Atlantic City.

Buffalo Bill's Indian band was out, and, seated upon the platform, which was arranged to represent a camp scene, made a fierce appearance The Indian fortune teller was there, too, and was consulted by more than one.

EULOGIZED AS A CHRISTIAN WOMAN.

Funeral Services of the Late Mrs. John Angleman Held.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. John Angleman were held yesterday afternoon from the residence of I. L McVoy, East Front street, and were largely attended by relatives and friends. The members of Winfield Scott Relief Corps, No 10, auxiliary to Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A.R., of which the departed was a member and officer, attended the services in a body and offered a beautiful floral gift in the shape of a pillow of roses, bearing an appropriate inscription. There were many other floral tributes of equal beauty.

During the service Miss Etta Raybert sang two favorite hyms of the deceased.

The services were conducted by Charles E. Herring, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. He spoke tender words of comfort to the bereaved husband and the two children left early in life. He also spoke of the Christian character of Mrs. Angleman and what a good woman she was.

The interment took place in the Methodist cemetery, where appropriate services were held.

The Boulevard Improvement.

The commissioners appointed to take testimony as to the value of the lands along the route of the county trolley which are to be condemned, will meet again Monday and take further testimony. Notices have been sent to all those whose land is affected, to meet the commissioners on that date.

1350 PERSONS UNDER CARE OF ONE CHURCH

Interesting Reports About Crescent Avenue Presbyterians.

EVERYTHING FLOURISHING.

TIME OF HOLDING THE ANNUAL MEETING IS CHANGED.

H. C. Squires, L. M. Lovell and Dr E. W. Hedges Were Chosen Elders and Dr. W. H Murray Deacon—Hope Chapel Reports—Prospects of a New Edifice for Their Society—Finances are Good.

The annual meeting of the Crescent Avenue Church was held last night. The session was a long one owing to the number of reports presented, and a unique way of nominating officers, which required to be done by ballot. The election resulted in the choice of H. C. Squires, L M. Lovell, and Dr. E. W. Hedges for elders, and Dr. W H. Murray for deacon.

A vast amount of figuring was necessary to bring the affairs of the church and its chapels to a basis easily understood by all, but the statements showed that the Crescent Avenue church and its chapels had raised during the past year over $33,000 for benevolent and general purposes.

To begin with the chapels: Bethel chapel reported a membership of 215, with an average attendance of 128. The sum of $184.46 has been raised during the year, of which all has been expended.

Hope Chapel Sunday school now has a membership of 612. The following is a statement of the financial condition of the several societies connected with it. The missionary fund has $55 95 to its credit, having raised $141 56 and disposed of the balance. The sum $502 02 was raised for the general fund, and all but $45 18 expended.

The church has a membership of 270. All the committees and societies connected with the chapel are in a flourishing condition. Land has been broken for the new building which is to be built with $5,000 bequest of Mrs. VanDeventer, and it will soon be completed. This new edifice will be used for church services only. The sum of $572 29 is the amount raised for the general fund, all of which has been expended.

Warren chapel has a membership of 136. There is a balance of $49.10 in the treasury and the expenses have been paid, and a balance in the poor fund of $63 91. Other societies are in a flourishing condition.

The Sunday-school has a membership of 441, including teachers and officers. The receipts for the year were $899 31; expenditures $874.69, leaving a balance of $42 92. The Y. P. S. C. E and the Junior Endeavorers are also increasing in membership and interest.

The membership of the Crescent Avenue church numbers 909, an increase of 19 over last year. Adding to that the membership of the chapels, 1 350 persons are under the care of that one church.

The board of deacons reported that they had relieved 30 individuals during the past year. They have also received $507.88 and expended $867.09 of that, leaving a balance of $10 79.

The last item of business was that the time of the annual meeting be changed from the first Wednesday in April to the second Wednesday. This is so as to give the officers more time in which to prepare their reports, and was carried.

Rev. G. Kennedy Newell acted as chairman of the meeting, and Dr. E. W. Hedges secretary.

Married by Father Smyth.

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the parsonage of St. Mary's church there took place the marriage of Miss Lizzie Kavanaugh and John Hoag, both of this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Smyth, the rector of the church. The only attendant was a sister of the bride, who was a witness. The groom was fomerly in the employ of Mr. Rushmore as coachman. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for California, where they will take up their residence.

Methodist Trustees Chosen.

The annual meeting of Grace M. E. church was held last evening and the only business transacted was the election of five trustees. John Valiant, H. K. Carroll and E. E. Winckler were elected for three years, while John Steiner and Edward Vermeule were elected for two years.

Tom Graham to Speak.

Evangelist Tom Graham, of Sing Sing, will address the men's rally at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday at 4:15 p. m. The Cecelia Bradford Trio, of New York, will furnish instrumental music. All men are invited.

DOCTORS BANQUETED AT THE HOTEL KENSINGTON.

COVERS WERE LAID FOR EIGHTEEN.

Cuisine and Table Decorations Were Very Fine—Dr. VanHorn Read a Paper on "Influenza"

The members of the Plainfield Medical Association held their quarterly meeting and banquet last evening at the Hotel Kensington. Proprietor Staats gave the association one of the best of dinners every detail being complete and first class The arrangement of the table was unique. Covers were laid for eighteen. In the centre of the table there was a display of roses, and lilies, while encircling it was a handsome green vine. At each plate there was placed a handsome bouquet to be worn by the guests.

After the members had thoroughly enjoyed the sumptuous dinner a highly interesting paper was presented by Dr VanHorn on the subject of "Influenza." It was considered to be one of the best papers yet presented. After it was read an informal disussion followed, which proved interesting.

Those present at the meeting included Drs. Probasco, Tomlinson, Fritts, Long, Boone, Davis, Jenkins, Ard, B. VanD. Hedges, Clawson, Buchanan, Pittis, Carman, Browning, Currie, Allen, VanHorn, of this city, and Dr. Green, of Elizabeth.

GOOD YEAR FOR EXEMPTS

ANNUAL MEETING OF EXEMPT FIREMEN'S ASSOCIATION HELD.

Reports Showed Association in Flourishing Condition—The Assets Amount to $10,000—Officers Who Were Elected.

The Exempt Firemen's Association is prospering. That fact was made evident at the yearly meeting of the association held last evening. The members turned out in goodly array and elected their officers for the year, and learned that the association was on a firm financial basis.

The reports for the year showed the association to be in excellent condition. The report of the secretary put the membership at 155. The report of the treasurer was particularly pleasing. It showed assets amounting to nearly $11 000, of which over $600 was in the the treasury. The other property included the famous silver hose carriage that once belonged to the Alert Hose Company, the old Gazelle hand engine, a valuable collection of pictures and curios and the furniture in the rooms.

D. W Littell, chairman of the building committee, reported progress for that committee.

The annual election of officers was then held and resulted as follows: President, Augustus Salizman; vice president, J. C. Blimm; secretary, G. Thorn; financial secretary, George Clark; treasurer, E. M Laing; trustees, D. W. Littell, chairman; E. M. Laing, Edward Vermeule, Wm. A. Woodruff and Jos. A. Hubbard; delegates to Relief Association, Edward Mosher and G Thorn; delegates to the State convention, E M. Laing, W. A. Woodruff, J. E. Flannery, J. C. Blimm and Edward Vermeule.

There was a lively contest over the vice-presidency, for which both J. C Blimm and R. B. Rogers were nominated. The visiting committee was appointed as follows: Alex. Titsworth, Louis Barkalew and George Clark. W. A. Woodruff was appointed a committee of one to confer with the Plainfield Relief Association on matters of interest to both associations.

Feast of All Nations Tonight.

If you fail to attend the "Feast of All Nations" this evening at Trinity Reformed church, you will regret it. Those who take part will be attired in costumes representing the various nations, and some of them are very attractive. The affair is given for the benefit of the Young Women's Mission Band of the church and it deserves liberal patronage. Supper will be served a la carte and there will be many attractive features introduced.

At the Reform Club.

There will be several attractions presented at the Reform Club meeting this evening. There will be several recitations and singing by a male quartette, and a feature will be the appearance of Miss Bertha Clum who will give several posings with the aid of a calcium light. All are invited to attend.

Accidentally Hurt by a Hatchet.

Lottie Coriell, aged six years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coriell, of South Second street, was playing in a yard with some children last Monday afternoon, and while fooling with a hatchet sustained a severe scalp wound. Dr. VanHorn was called and treated the child. A considerable quantity of blood was lost, but the child is out of danger.

—Use Press want ads.

THE MAN FROM OHIO CALLED "MR. BROWN."

What an Innocent Young Man Heard in New York Town.

HOLLAND HIS RIGHT NAME.

BUT JIMINY CRACK HE WAS DONE JUST THE SAME.

He Had Been to Cuba to Seek His Fortune, But Found Not What He Was Looking For—Lent His Money to a Stranger and Received a Gold Bond That Was No Good—Off to Ohio.

Emerson Holland is his name and his place of residence is Oxford, Mich. He left home several months ago and went to Cuba prospecting with the view of purchasing a plantation and settling there. After surveying the landscape he became dissatisfied and decided to return home while he had a sufficient amount of money to take him through. He arrived in New York a few days ago. Somewhat dazzled at the sights he wandered down the Bowery leisurely into the jaws of the sharks, who spotted him and thought him "fruit."

He was soon accosted by a man of pleasant manner who addressed him as "Mr. Brown." This grave mistake was quickly resented by the farmer-looking person, and he informed Mr. Stranger that his name was Emerson Holland and went on to tell all about himself. The shark left Mr. Holland, begging a thousand pardons for making such a mistake.

While smarting under the indignity he had been subjected to and wondering how such a mistake could be made, he was approached by another stranger who, it seemed, appeared to know all about the man from Oxford. He asked him how he had made out in Cuba, etc., and told him that he was looking for a man to go to Cuba to manage a plantation there.

The idea struck Holland favorably and he agreed to go back to Cuba. The arrangements for the trip were fixed on the spot, and the two started off to take a boat that was supposed to leave New York at 9 o'clock in the morning. On the way to the boat the stranger asked Holland if he had any money. He was told that he had $200. The stranger then secured the money and in return he gave Holland a gold bond for $1,000 In the meantime Holland went aboard the boat with his belongings and he waited for the return of his employer. He waited until the boat was ready to start, and he was then obliged to leave. By this time Holland realized that he had been swindled. He had a few dollars left, and learning that Akron, O., where his sister lives, is on the line of the B. & O. Railroad, he purchased a ticket to Plainfield. When he reached here he telegraphed to his sister and she sent him $10. Last evening he left the city on the 6:38 train and he will arrive home this afternoon at 4:45 o'clock, a sad, but wiser man.

Fine Road Horse Had to be Killed.

A valuable horse owned by John Benner, of Fanwood, and a great pet of his son, Henry Benner, had to be killed yesterday. The animal was allowed to run about the yard and while in a frolic, struck his foreleg with the hind one, fracturing it in such a manner that upon examination it was found that it would be better to relieve the animal's suffering by death. The horse was one of the best long distance roadsters in this vicinity. A short time ago he trotted twenty times around the track of the Driving Park Club in thirty minutes and fifteen seconds.

Making Friends of Cyclists.

The local trolley company is now making many friends among the cyclists by the way they are patching up the streets along their route. A certain size crushed stone is used and at night the sensation is anything but pleasant when one strikes a pile of the stone.

Young Women's Club in New Quarters.

The Young Women's Club is now well established in their new quarters on West Front street, opposite Washington avenue and the attendance at the club is on the increase daily.

Boxes Bought for Diplomacy.

Mayor George W. Rockfellow and former Mayor Alex. Gilbert have taken a box for the performance of "Diplomacy" by local talent at Music Hall, April 29th.

—Doane & Edsall are doing a brisk trade on their "specialty" shoes for men and women such as are advertised in the leading magazines and are so popular, and guaranted to be the most stylish and best wearing shoes made for the money. See new advertisement today.

THE PALACES AND TEMPLES OF ANCIENT EGYPT

had their walls shining with gold and sparkling with precious stones but modern art has contrived to design decorations of a less costly character in the beautiful designs and refined colors and shades of Wall papers, friezes, etc., such as Woolston & Buckle keep in their varied and elegant stock at such tempting prices.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

ROGERS.
232 West 2d St.
Seafood for Health
Always
Desirable
when direct from the nets.

M. E. STEPHENSON.
146 NORTH AVE.
Weddings, Dinners and Receptions supplied with every requisite. China, Glass, Linen and Silver to loan.
ESTIMATES
cheerfully furnished. Telephone orders will receive prompt attention.
TELEPHONE 624.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections
210 PARK AVE.

PHILLIP SWAIN,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.
317 West Front street.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street. 6 11

HOTEL KENSINGTON . . .
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107, 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

SOMERSET HOTEL
Somerset St. and Lincoln Place,
North Plainfield, N. J.
W. F. DREYER, Proprietor.
AMPLE ACCOMODATIONS FOR MAN AND BEAST.

E. B. Maynard,
NEW SHOP NEW FURNITURE BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

NEUMAN BROS.,
GROCERS,
Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

ALEX. LUSARDI.
211 West Front Street,
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery Nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores

L. L. Manning & Son,
STEAM
GRANITE WORKS,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low

DOBBINS.
CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

Of Local Interest

Some people we Know and We Will Profit by Hearing About Them.

This is a purely local event.
It took place in Plainfield, N. J.
Not in Buffalo, N. Y.
You are asked to investigate it;
Asked to believe a citizen's word,
To confirm a citizen's statement.
Any article that is endorsed,
That obtains resident advocates,
Is more worthy of confidence
Than a far off foreign article
Testified to by foreign people.

Mrs. Wm H Ludlow of 88 Jackson avenue says:—"I was troubled with kidney complaint, backache and a sort of dull pain across my loins for several years. If I sat for any length of time and tried to rise I had a sharp pain in the kidneys. Walking any distance or much standing aggravated the difficulty. I could not rest well at night from the fact that I had to be constantly changing about from one position to another trying to free myself from pain. I used quite a number of remedies but got no permanent relief. I was prevailed upon to get Doan's Kidney Pills from L. W. Randolph's drug store. In justice to them I must say they did me a great deal of good. It is seldom that I feel any pain in my back, and when I do, a few doses of this remedy never fails to relieve me. I know others who have used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results. From my experience I can honestly recommend to all who suffer from Kidney troubles."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

EDUCATIONAL.

GREGG SHORTHAND SCHOOL
Babcock Building.
The latest and best system. Stenographers filling positions after 3 months.
DAY AND EVENING.
W. E. Van Wert, Principal.
Standard Typewriters in use.

MISS SARAH A. PALMER,
TEACHER OF PIANO (Virgil Method) AND THEORY IN ALL ITS BRANCHES.
The Virgil method and the Practice Clavier give to the pupil not only finger agility, but also mental control and concentration, whereby alone the best results can be obtained.
112 Crescent Avenue.

Piano Instruction
Virgil Clavier Method a specialty.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
215 MADISON AVE.
Sight Reading Classes, vocal and instrumental.

F. V. L. Goodwin,
TEACHER OF MUSIC.
Lessons given at home on Piano. Special attention to beginners. Residence.
105 MANNING AVENUE,
North Plainfield, N. J.

SHORTHAND! BOOKKEEPING!
No better systems can be found than those taught in : : : :
PLAINFIELD BUSINESS COLLEGE,
City Bank Building.
Both sexes. Day and Night. Come and see us.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Duff.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE.
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's hall, No. 149 Park avenue, at 8:15 p. m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711,
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

John G. Bantle,
428 WATCHUNG AVENUE.
First-class
TAILOR
SPECIALTY OF
Ladies' Tailor-made Garments
Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

REVERE HOUSE
PARK AVENUE, 7th and 8th sts. | PLAINFIELD, New Jersey.
Families accomodated for the Spring and Summer months at greatly reduced prices.
The house contains all modern improvements lighted by Gas and Electricity. Sanitary arrangements perfect. Cuisene unsurpassed.
GEO. B. DE REVERE

THE FILIPINOS RALLY

Rumored That Aguinaldo Has Been Superceded by Luna.

TO PUSH THE FIGHTING

Army Tugs to be Sent Against Calumpit—American Proclamation Well Received at Manila and Malolos—Fears That It May Not Reach Natives in the Interior.

Manila, April 5.—The proclamation issued by the United States Philippine Commission yesterday has been widely distributed both in the Spanish and Tagalo languages, and in Manila and Malolos it is attracting great attention. Representative Filipinos approve the proclamation, but express their fears that to the masses it will be inaccessible, owing to its interception by the native leaders.

Many, however, while realizing the opportuneness of the moment for issuing the proclamation, recall the native aversion and suspicion with which the former proclamation was received.

The pacific inhabitants are still returning to their homes, but the insurrectionists are sending word into all of the provinces announcing the infliction of terrific losses upon the Americans, who, they represent, have been driven into the walled city by the Filipino troops and are suing for peace.

The nucleus of the insurgent army is still at Calumpit. Dredges are at work clearing the channel of the Rio Grande preparatory to sending the army tugs to attack Calumpit.

Representatives of Gen. Rios, the Spanish commander, have visited Batangas in behalf of the Spanish prisoners. Their request for an audience was refused by Aguinaldo and his advisers, and they had to return. They report having experienced severe hardships.

There are persistent rumors that Aguinaldo, the insurgent leader, has been supplanted in the control of Filipino affairs by Gen. Antonio Luna, commander-in-chief of the Filipino forces. Luna is described as being a typical belligerent.

English bankers here are optimistic upon the situation, asserting that the decisive policy of the Americans will undoubtedly be successful.

A Spanish banker who was interviewed expressed fear that the proclamation would not reach the masses controlling the rebellion, because, he explained, the Filipinos at Manila are mostly domestics and clerks who have no definite opinions, and the wire-pullers outside of the city have undoubtedly intercepted it.

Continuing, the Spanish banker said that if the proclamation had been issued on May 2, or even on August 14 of last year, the result would have been different, as, in his opinion, based on twenty years' experience, the only argument which appeals to the masses here is the gun.

The editor of "Oceania" thinks the proclamation is the most politic document ever published in the Philippine Islands, and that it is bound to convince the wavering of the folly of further hostilities.

An English merchant says the first clause, with reference to the establishment and maintenance of American sovereignty and warning the rebels, should settle the question in the mind of every thinking Filipino.

A Scotch shipowner thinks it does not leave any further doubt as to the policy of the United States, and that, consequently, Aguinaldo must submit to the inevitable, as the continuance of hostilities is opposed to the best interests of the Filipinos.

A Cable from Mr. Schurman.

Washington, April 6.—Mr. Schurman, chairman of the Philippine Commission now at Manila, has sent a cablegram to the department.

The message indicated that Aguinaldo's power over his followers was largely based upon coercion and fear of violence in case they opposed him. This, taken with recent information from Gen. Otis, has led to the belief that the end of the trouble with the Filipinos is near at hand.

Dr. Schurman in his message also said he found that the insurrection had its origin and strength in the Tagalo provinces around Manila. The remaining provinces of North and South Luzon are peopled by different races and the rest of the archipelago are not natural allies of the Tagalogs, but unfriendly rivals.

While the treaty of peace was being negotiated at Paris the Tagalos sent detachments of from fifty to 200 men to all the other provinces to seize governments as robbers hold up trains. The liberty of the populations was constrained, supremacy was enforced as there were no American forces present to expel the Tagalos. He says the recent victories have had a good effect everywhere.

With the growth of a general feeling of security the populations will doubtless declare for the United States.

"The Philippine people," says Dr. Schurmann, "seem discouraged by the valorous, swift and irresistible movements of the American troops, against which their elaborate defensive works were useless."

HOPE FOR A BATTLE NOW.

War Department Officers Credit the Report That the Rebels Are Massing.

Washington, April 6.—The War Department has yet received no official confirmation of the news that the Philippine insurgents have strongly intrenched themselves at Calumpit, in the region north of Malolos. The report is by no means discredited, however, and it has given rise to speculation as to its effect on the Philippine campaign. Yesterday the War Department was inclined to believe that the insurgents were pretty effectually dispersed and that there would be no more organized fighting at present. While admitting the uncertainty of a situation where a half-savage foe was concerned, the probabilities seemed to be strongly on the side of a cessation in the campaign. The latest information, although not official, has given a different aspect to the situation.

The Administration is rather glad to hear that the rebels are apparently forming for a decisive encounter with the American troops. It has been a matter of regret in the whole campaign heretofore that the forces of Aguinaldo have not generally presented themselves in formation bent on fighting a battle to a finish. It has been a flying campaign, with the enemy almost constantly on the retreat.

If the insurgents are really bent on making a decided stand, however desperate, at Calumpit, or any other point in that vicinity, the American military commanders in the Philippines will probably not be sorry to learn that such is to be the case. It may afford the opportunity so greatly desired of bringing the campaign to a decisive conclusion rather than to an unsatisfactory and uncertain end, as has seemed to be probable for the last few days, or since Aguinaldo took his capital in his pocket and retreated beyond Malolos.

Our Losses in the Philippines.

Washington, April 6.—A table prepared at the War Department shows that the total number of casualties among the United States troops in the Philippines since hostilities began is 1,160. The first conflict with the Filipinos began on Feb. 4, and the figures are complete to April 4, when hostilities practically ceased. The list of casualties includes 184 officers and men killed and 976 wounded.

TRUST AND THE FEDERAL LAW.

An Important Case Now Pending to Test the Sherman Bill.

Washington, April 6.—The case of the Addystone Pipe and Steel Company, now before the Supreme Court on appeal from the United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit, involves questions of production and distribution of articles controlled by a great industrial Trust, and hence will give the highest of our tribunals a fresh chance to construe the Sherman anti-Trust law. The Addystone Company is a combination of a half-dozen or more concerns in Tennessee, Ohio and Pennsylvania, practically monopolizing the American market for certain kinds of cast-metal piping. The Department of Justice asserts that this company is the ideal Trust, in being an open combination of several companies for the avowed purpose of controlling production and prices, instead of being merely, like so many other Trusts, a distinct organization that purchases or absorbs a group of lesser concerns and thereby relieves them of the perils of competition with each other.

Ex-Secretary Sherman said a short time ago, in conversation, that the Supreme Court had sustained his anti-Trust law at every point where it had been attacked squarely on an issue of constitutionality. The failures, where attempts have been made to break up Trusts by appeals to the courts, have been traceable to the injection of some other issue into the suit. The Addystone Company case seems to be free of such distracting factors, and Solicitor-General Richards, who has charge of the government side, feels confident that the Supreme Court will take this occasion to review the whole subject of Trusts and their relation to the Federal law.

THE DEVIL STILL UNCHAINED.

Ex-President Cleveland and Harrison for Universal Peace.

Boston, April 6.—Among the communications received by the United Society of Christian Endeavor recently in connection with its proposition for a "war against war and peace by arbitration," are two from former United States Presidents, Grover Cleveland and Benjamin Harrison.

Ex-President Cleveland wrote: "The members and the friends of the Society of Christian Endeavor have never entered upon an undertaking so practical and so noble as the effort they are now making to secure an abandonment of war as a means for the settlement of international differences, and if there is any substance to the claim that our institutions and the traits that characterize us as a people tend to national elevation and Christianization, it is eminently proper that our country should be in the lead in any movement in the interests of peace."

Ex-President Harrison's letter says: "For myself, and much more for the great body of its citizenship, I express the desire of America for peace with the whole world. It would have been vain to suggest the pulling down of block-houses or family disarmament to the settlers on a hostile Indian frontier. They would have told you rightly that the conditions were not ripe. And so it may be, and is, probably, true that a full application of the principle is not presently possible, the devil still being unchained. It is by a spirit of love and forbearance mastering the civil institutions and governments of the world that we shall approach universal peace and adopt arbitration methods of settling disputes."

MR. HOBART'S ILLNESS.

His Failure to Improve Causes Some Anxiety to His Friends.

Washington, April 6.—The lack of improvement in the condition of Vice-President Hobart is the cause of much anxiety to his friends and physicians, who regard him as being seriously, though not dangerously ill. He passed a bad night last night, his physicians remaining at the bedside nearly all night. They were with him again this morning, and his condition was such that they hesitated to leave him. Mr. Hobart is suffering from the effects of a severe attack of the grip, which he had some time ago. This trouble was complicated by an attack of acute indigestion, and about a week ago he practically took to his bed, although he had been up at various times since then.

His physicians, Dr. W. W. Johnson and Dr. Rixey, United States Navy, have insisted that he remain in bed and rest, which is one of the reasons he is so closely watched. When he is asleep to be up he has so many callers that the physicians fear the effect of receiving them and are doing everything possible to procure for him the rest which they believe necessary.

Yale Bi-Centennial Fund.

New Haven, April 6.—The officers of the Yale bi-centennial committee on funds have issued an appeal to all Yale graduates asking for at least $2,000,000, of which so much as may be necessary shall be devoted to the erection of a commemorative hall, and the rest be added to the endowment of the university. For the hall the sum of $225,000 has already been pledged by subscriptions. The committee say that, if the building is to be completed before October, 1901, the sum required for it should be assured before next commencement, and work should be begun during the coming summer.

TO CHASE THE TIGER

Investigation Will Probably Begin on Friday.

PARKHURST WILL NOT JOIN

Many Letters Offering Evidence Are Being Received—McCullagh Will Help Frank Moss Resigns from Executive Committee of Society for the Prevention of Crime.

Albany, April 6.—The Mazet Investigating Committee will commence on Friday, if the present plans carry, the inquiry into Tammany's administration of affairs of New York city. In the meantime Counsel Frank Moss will continue the personal investigation he is now conducting and will formulate the evidence which is on hand for presentation to the committee. It is understood that he will be assisted in this work by Superintendent of Elections John McCullagh, who has valuable and damaging evidence against Tammany Hall which came under his observation in his campaign against Election law violators last fall.

Proffers of evidence of Tammany's methods in raising the enormous corruption fund which was sent to Albany to defeat the police legislators, and, as one member of the committee said this morning, "revelations of the most startling character" will follow the public sessions of the committee in New York.

The determination of the committee to have the subpoenas to be served placed in the hands of those in no way subject to political influence is looked upon as significant. It shows the determination of the committee to secure the attendance of every witness sent for without the substitution therefor of the excuse of hasty flight or failure to find the desired witness. The plan of investigation for the first few sessions of the committee and the character of the evidence sought to be deduced will be decided upon at this afternoon's session of the commitee.

MULBERRY STREET FEARS MOSS.

Police Force Has Cold Shivers Because He Is Counsel to Mazet Committee.

New York, April 6.—The news that Frank Moss had been made counsel to the Investigating Committee was no surprise to Mulberry street. It had feared as much since the first day when his name was mentioned, and if the truth be told, even before. There is no man in the whole city whom it would rather not have probing into the dark recesses of police secrets than Mr. Moss. This is for a cause.

Not only was it Moss who supplied the energy for the Lexow inquiry and kept it going from first to last; not only was it he who "saw" the badgered police officers in the privacy of their offices and showed them things in black and white that took all the spunk out of them and made Schmittberger and Creeden confess; not only was it he who marshalled the unending procession of disreputable men and women from the slums of Bayard street and the Tenderloin, that sickened the community until it rose in revolt against the unspeakable infamy, and overturned government and all—anything to stop it. Not only did he do all this, but much more recently he has himself sat in Roosevelt's seat in Mulberry street and peered under the surface of things there.

This is what Mulberry street fears. Frank Moss was President of the Police Board long enough to find out some things which it is given only to Presidents of the Police Board to know, and he was not idle. He knew that his chance was not going to last and he used it while he had it. Mr. Moss has none of the strong faith in his fellow man who wears the brass buttons and carries the nightstick that made Roosevelt the rescuer of the force while he was at the head of it. Mr. Moss starts out with the assumption that police nature is no better than it ought to be and not as good as that, and it must be admitted that his experience justifies his faith. What a man looks for in his fellow men he is very apt to find, be it good or bad. Mr. Moss was ever a famous explorer of police iniquity. There is no reason to believe that his hand has lost it cunning now, but every reason to assume the contrary.

This assumption gives Mulberry street the cold shivers because of the ammunition Mr. Moss is known to have stored up against the kind of an emergency that is now upon us. Up to the time when he was made President of the Police Board his attacks on police corruption had been made from the outside, with what telling effect Tammany remembers. He is on the inside now, although long out of the Police Board. In the months during which Mr. Moss sat in the Mulberry street he did other things than lay by the heels of Roosevelt's old enemies. He raked the official records of the Department over with a very fine-toothed rake. Every week he had placed before him the reports of the precinct captains as to disreputable or suspected places, and he kept a duplicate copy. It is this duplicate that rises now, like Banquo's ghost, at the feast of Tammany revellers and w... not down. What did he do with it? Where is it now?

Mr. Moss did more than this. Toward the end of his reign Mulberry street was crowded every day by poolroom keepers past and present, who came in response to his summons and were admitted to his presence one by one. If they did not come they were brought. What he wanted of them never came out. The witnesses—for it turned out that they were that—were mum. For weeks it was expected that something would happen every day; but nothing ever did. Mr. Moss went out of office with his enormous stock of testimony—just such testimony as an investigation committee would revel in—unrevealed, filed away where only he knows and where he can put his hand upon it at any moment.

That is what gives Mulberry street the cold shivers. What has he done with it? And who is safe, with this thing, with all it may mean, held in reserve by the counsel of the Investigating Committee? To be sure, it all refers to things that were. But things that were are again, and worse than ever, and the man who once pumped an unwilling witness has an advantage in going at it again that raises goosefleshon Mulberry street with good cause.

DRAKE & MUNDY,
207 West Front St. Telephone Call 141.
Dealers in All Kinds of
FRESH, SALT AND COOKED MEATS.
FINE POULTRY.
Special Saturday Sale. Usual Line of Bargains.
th-f

The VAN'S They sell the same as they buy, cheap. A bargain got should be a bargain given. Every item stands on its own merits as an individual bargain. We might fill this paper with talk, but what we want you to do is to visit our store, especially our always daylit basement, where we have the most complete ten cent department in the city. Here you buy the biggest on earth for the money.
10 CENTS

VanEmburgh & Son.

Van Arsdale's Shoes.
Men's, Women's and Children's Footwear
For Easter, Spring and Summer.
We believe the goods we are now showing contain the best selection of stylish and reliable footwear we have ever offered, and at our well-known popular prices.
VAN ARSDALE,
Repairing Properly Done. 127 East Front St.

J. F. MacDonald, UPTOWN GROCER, 186 E. Front Street.

20 Fresh Eggs, direct from farmers	25c
Best Jersey E. R. Potatoes	43c basket
Best Oil, 5 gal.	45c
Minnesota Flour	55c bag, $1.35 bbl
4 lbs. Carolina Rice	25c
Best Oatmeal	3c lb
Best Pure Lard, no compound	7c lb
Large California Prunes	4 lbs for 25c
O. K. B. Powder	18c
Gold Medal Milk	8c
Kirkman's Borax Soap (6 C. box)	23c
Fine Tomatoes	7c can
Fine Corn	6c can
N. O. Molasses	33c gal
2 bottles Best Maple Syrup	25c
Canned Salmon	8 can
Pea Beans	5c quart
Lima Beans	8c quart
Lemon and Ginger Snaps	5c lb

We won't say anything about our 20c Coffee. Everybody uses it.

GREAT CLOTHING SALE
Special for 10 days. We will sell the balance of our heavy weight goods, consisting of
OVERCOATS AND SUITS
at 1-2 the former prices in order to make room for our handsome line of spring goods, which is arriving daily.
THIS SALE FOR 10 DAYS ONLY
So call and get rigged up for a little money.
WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,
206 West Front Street.
Hats and Gents' Furnishings.

STANDARD FOR THE WORLD.
Stop and See the
1899 Chainless
and others.
We have a few bargains in
SECOND HAND WHEELS
COLUMBIA BICYCLE AGENCY.
405 PARK AVENUE. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED IN
REPAIR WORK by C. L. Thorn, of the Columbia Agency.

SPECIAL SALE
Over 13 hundred pairs of shoes. Nothing to say about the price, only that the lowness of it will surprise everybody.
SHERWIN'S, 149 West Front St.

JEWELRY.
PUTNAM & DEGRAW.
Bead Chains 25c and 49c. Gold Chains 25c and 50c. Bracelets 25c and 50c
Buckles, Brooches, Waist Sets, Cuff Buttons, Belt Pins, etc.
We are agents for the
CELEBRATED "EIGHMIE" SHIRTS.

Direct from the Manufacturer to the Consumer.

ONE BIG WEEK.

Last Week Was One Continuous Rush from Monday Morning Until Saturday Night.

The old adage "Prices Tell," has been well illustrated with us by the patronage we have received since we opened the retail store.

The comment of all our customers are summed up in one sentence, viz; The cheapest line of stylish well-made clothing we ever saw. Here is a list of some of our most ready sellers.

Lot 4734, 5086, 5081, 5094 — 3.50 These are men's sack suits in fancy mixtures and we recommend them to anybody who wants solid wear for little money. $5.00 is cheap for them.

Lot 4567, 4561, 5067, 5059 — 3.75 These have been general favorites and are going fast. We were compelled to fill in on some of them. They are all right.

Lot 4600, 4605, 4589, 4592 — 4.75 Strictly all wool. We invite you to compare this line with the average $8.00 suit.

Lot 5232, 4630, 5011, 5027 — 5.00 Cheviots and fancy worsteds fit for anybody to wear any place. We have 19 styles at $5.00.

Ask to see Lot 5319, 5322, and 5380, 5383. These are $10.00 and they are beauties.

Lot 4896—Blue Serge, wire woven, $6.75, worth $10.00.
Lot 5406—Blue Serge, wide wale, very popular, $7.00. Compare them with the ordinary $12.00 suit.

Come and see our silk-lined overcoat, silk-lined to the edge. Those Fancy Vests the $4.00 kind, we have them for $2.00. You will be surprised to know that we sell a child's suit with extra pants for 98 cents.

SCHEPFLIN & SCHULTZ,

M. J. CASHIN, Manager Retail Store.

322 West Front Street. Schepflin Block

A motherly young woman living in Rockville, Conn., has found life a pretty desperate problem. "I didn't think life worth living," she says, "until the last three years, but now, thank God, everything is different. I am 35 years old, the mother of six children, and I feel better and stronger to-day than I did ten years ago, all owing to Ripans Tabules. About three years ago I sent for a dollar bottle and have been using them both for myself and my family. They have cured me both of dyspepsia and headache, from which I was a sufferer for seven years. I tried everything under the sun, but nothing gave me relief until I got the Tabules, which gave me relief from the very first. I have recommended the Tabules to all my friends and neighbors. They are a blessing in any home."

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores FOR FIVE CENTS. The low price, and the convenient form, put the RIPANS TABULES within the reach of all. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (six glasses) will be sent to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York, on receipt of sixty cents (one glass containing TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

YOU Should See The Great Showing OF SHIRT . . . . . WAISTS AT LEDERER'S.

MOSS AND PARKHURST DISAGREE.

"No Use Putting on Brakes and Opening the Throttle," Says Lawyer.

New York, April 6.—Former Police Commissioner Frank Moss, who has been selected as counsel for the Mazet Assembly Investigating Committee, has resigned from the Executive Committee of the Society for the Prevention of Crime. He said that he did not care to go into the details of the cause for his resignation, but it was evident from his manner that he had resigned because the society decided not to support the Mazet Committee in its investigations.

Mr. Moss said immediately before the Executive Committee of the society went into session that the work of the Mazet Committee would be arduous, and that the help of all good citizens was needed. Then the Executive Committee of the Dr. Parkhurst society adopted a series of resolutions in which it decided not to aid the work of the Mazet Committee. Mr. Moss was asked how he reconciled his statement with the action of the Executive Committee of the society.

"I don't attempt to reconcile the action of the society with my statement," said Mr. Moss. "I feel now, as I felt yesterday afternoon before going into that committee meeting, that the work of the Mazet Committee needs the assistance of all good citizens. My fellow-members on the Executive Committee see fit not to assist in the work. That is their prerogative. But as I do not see any use in putting on the brakes while I am opening the throttle, there was nothing left for me to do but to resign from the Executive Committee of the society."

"Will you still continue to act as counsel the society?"

"As counsel for the society. I have already several matters in litigation. I have no objection to carrying on the work already begun by me."

"Do you think you are likely to get any help from the society later on, should Dr. Parkhurst come to the conclusion that the Mazet Committee is in earnest in its investigation?" was asked.

"I do not know what to expect from the society in the future, but I can say that the work of the Mazet Committee will go on just the same, whether the society helps or not."

Mr. Moss, continuing, said that he hoped to see the committee begin work in this city the latter part of this week or the early part of next week. He said that he had already received many letters which would be valuable in the course of the inquiry.

Dr. Parkhurst was asked why the Executive Committee had decided to stand aloof from the Mazet investigation. He said "I don't feel that any explanation is necessary. The resolutions themselves were sufficiently explicit. They gave four reasons why we were not ready to support the work of the Mazet Committee; that the proposed investigation was not in response to the demands of the people; that the people are not now properly prepared for such an investigation; that we think the investigation was started by the very persons who ought to be investigated, and that it might do the people good to suffer a little while longer for the consequences of their indifference over the last city election."

"Do you think those reasons will be sufficient to overcome the surprise of the public at the determination of the society not to give to the Mazet Committee the same help which it gave to the Lenox Committee?"

"We are not responsible for the public's surprise. If later on we find that the Mazet Committee is really in earnest in the proposed investigation, then there may be a disposition on the part of the society to help the committee. We still believe that the police and some other departments of the city are as corrupt as ever, and in the proper circumstances we would be glad to aid an investigating committee. But we must be satisfied that the information and ability of the society would be used and not abused."

Another Vanderbilt Wedded.

New York, April 6.—The marriage of Miss Emily Vanderbilt Sloane to Mr. John Henry Hammond took place yesterday in St. Bartholomew's Church, at Madison avenue and Forty-fourth street. A wedding breakfast for 300 guests was served immediately afterward in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Douglas Sloane, at Fifth avenue and Fifty-second street. The bride and bridegroom, it is understood, will spend their honeymoon at the Sloane country place at Lenox, Mass.

As the second of this year's conspicuous Easter weddings, and the second in which a member of the Vanderbilt family was concerned, yesterday's event had excited that general interest which always attends a brilliant church function. The number of persons invited to be present at the ceremony was, of course, much larger than the company which yesterday witnessed the home wedding of W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., a cousin of yesterday's bride, to Miss Virginia Fair. In spite of Mrs. Sloane's expressed desire for a quiet wedding, the approaches to the church were blocked by an eager crowd of spectators. So large did the throng become as the hour for the wedding approached that a considerable force of police had difficulty in keeping Madison avenue clear for the carriages of the guests.

Funeral of Mr. Leland.

New York, April 6.—The Church of the Heavenly Rest, at Forty-fifth street Fifth avenue, was crowded during the short and simple funeral service for Warren F. Leland, the late proprietor of the Windsor Hotel. The black velvet-covered casket containing the remains was brought into the church from the Grenoble Hotel, and after the short service was taken to the Grand Central Station in time to be put aboard the 1 o'clock express for Chicago.

Rev. Dr. D. Parker Morgan, rector of the church, read the funeral office. He did not speak any eulogy. There were no pall bearers. The immediate members of Mr. Leland's family present were Charles W. Leland, his eldest son; Miss Fannie Leland, his daughter, who came on from Chicago yesterday, and youngest son, Ralph W. Leland. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Leland, Jr., of the Grenoble; Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Leland, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Thompson, and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Leland, of the Grand Hotel, were the other near relatives present.

Many hotel men of the city testified to the regard in which they held the man by placing the flags on their hotels at half mast this morning and by attending the funeral.

SENATORIAL BRIBERY

A Lively Session of the Investigating Committee.

JOHN R. BYRNE NAMED

Williams D. Wilson of Westmoreland Reluctantly Accuses His Republican Opponent of Offering Him $5,000 to Vote for Senator Quay—Byrne is a Republican and a Labor Leader.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 6.—The Senatorial Bribery Investigating Committee met yesterday, with Fow in the chair. William D. Wilson of Westmoreland, who neglected to attend a previous session, and whom the Sergeant-at-Arms had been ordered to produce, was present, and was the first witness called. At a previous meeting Wilson had stated that $5,000 had been offered him to change his Senatorial vote, but he had declined to give the name of the person who attempted to bribe him.

As soon as Wilson took the stand he asked that his attorney be permitted to make a statement. This at once precipitated a row among the members of the committee. The Chairman announced that there was no precedent for such a request, and it could not be granted. It was moved that Wilson be excused until 2 o'clock, so that he could have time for a further consultation with his attorney. Some of the Democrats objected vigorously to this, declaring that no such courtesy had been extended to any other witness. Chairman Fow read the law and construed it to the effect that he could order the Sergeant-at-Arms to take Wilson into custody, to appear before the bar of the House, where he would be committed to the Dauphin County Jail for an indefinite period. At this point Wilson, after a whispered consultation with his attorney, made the point that Kendall of Somerset had been excused from giving the name of his tempter.

Chairman Fow broke in by asking Wilson directly:

"Was not the man who made you the offer John Byrne, who ran for State Senator in your district?"

"I decline to answer," was Wilson's only reply.

Then the discussion among the committee men started over again. The argument was that Kendall should first be compelled to make reply. This motion was finally adopted, and Wilson left, although he would give the committee no assurance that he would testify.

The Sergeant-at-Arms was then ordered to produce Kendall, but after reading over the stenographic notes of his former evidence the committee found that there was no question to be asked, and again excused him.

Timlin and Mackey, both of Lackawanna, did not answer to their names. Timlin had refused to testify until after Mackey had been heard more fully.

While the Sergeant-at-Arms was hunting for Mackey the committee transacted some business. It was decided to mail the "drag-net" questions, with an affidavit attached, to Edminston and Stranahan, who are ill at home. A subpoena was issued for Harry Boyard of Westmoreland, whose name was mentioned in the evidence yesterday. There was some talk about the time when the committee would report, but nothing was decided.

At the afternoon's session Representative William D. Wilson of Westmoreland repeated his assertion that $5,000 had been offered him to give his vote to Quay, and then declared that the man who made the offer was John R. Byrne, defeated Republican candidate for Senator in Wilson's district and a well-known labor leader. Wilson had repeatedly declined to divulge the name, and he did so only with great reluctance.

P. E. Timlin, a Democratic member of the House from Lackawanna county, denied that he had been approached in any way. Chairman Fow precipitated a sensational scene in the committee by reading an anonymous letter charging that two witnesses could be produced who would swear that money was paid Timlin by ex-Senator Coyle. Several members of the committee protested that the chairman had no right to smirch the character of any witness on the basis of an anonymous letter. The two men in question, one of them postmaster of Timlin's home town, have been subpoenaed.

It is generally understood that Senator C. L. Magee of Pittsburg will quit the Quay forces unless an agreement is reached as to a break of the deadlock. For the last twenty-four hours negotiations have been under way which are expected to result in an adjustment of differences between the Republican factions.

J. O. Brown of Pittsburg, Director of Public Safety, has been acting as the go-between in the negotiations between Quay and Magee. The politicians are wondering what answer he brought to Magee; but the Pittsburg leader had nothing to say when approached on the subject. He said when asked about his break from Quay: "One day is as good as another. It's easy to put off till tomorrow what you don't want to do today."

Senators Flinn and Martin, the insurgent leaders, are in touch with the Magee negotiators, and it is evident that things are rapidly approaching a crisis. Many of the Quay men in the Senate and House insist that some effort must be made to break the deadlock. Col. George F. Huff of Westmoreland received the anti-Quay vote.

President's Summer Tour.

Washington, April 6.—President McKinley is said to have decided upon the general route of his summer tour to the Pacific coast, which he has desired to make ever since his election to the Presidency. According to the information given he will leave Washington in July and go to the northern peninsula of Michigan, to inspect the recent marvelous development of copper deposits; thence to the Yellowstone Park; also stopping in the mining districts of Montana; thence to the Pacific to San Francisco and home by the southern route through lower California, Texas and New Orleans.

Col. Buffington Promoted.

Washington, April 6.—The President has appointed Col. Adelbert R. Buffington to be Brigadier-General and Chief of the Bureau of Ordnance, to succeed the late Gen. Flagler.

NO ACID IN CANNED BEEF.

Chemist Chittenden Makes an Analysis of Samples for the Army Court.

Washington, April 6.—Col. W. R. Hunting, who commanded the detachment of 650 marines at Guantanamo, Cuba, in the war with Spain, testified before the Court of Inquiry as to the components of the ration of the command. Refrigerated beef was largely used, but there was no canned roast beef. Col. Huntington said the food supply of his men was good and ample. The sickness among his command ran from 2 to 4 per cent.

"There was no complaint—no cause for complaint," said the witness. "The full navy ration was issued, and this was slightly increased by order of the Secretary of the Navy."

Major Lee inquired to what Col. Huntington attributed the escape of his command from a large amount of sickness.

"To adequate food and distilled water," he replied.

Prof. Russell H. Chittenden of Yale University was introduced by Recorder Davis, who announced that Prof. Chittenden had made an examination of certain cans of roast beef submitted to him by the Court for analysis.

Col. Davis read the instructions of the Court to Prof. Chittenden. They asked for an examination to determine the nutritive quality of the contents of each can and to discover any chemicals that might have been used in its preparation. Before Prof. Chittenden was examined Col. Davis read his report of his analysis.

The conclusion of the report was that all the canned samples were within the range of good beef. The samples of the Prairie State Packing Company showed the meat particles larger in size than any other samples, while in the samples of the Armour Canning Company the meat tissues were very small. The analysis of each can failed to disclose any trace of salicylic or boric acid. The samples of the Wilson Packing Company appeared different from any other samples examined. There was a larger proportion of minerals. The meat was of a reddish color, and a further examination presented the suggestion that the meat may have been subjected to saltpetre before cooking. All of the canned beef contained proteids in good proportion, one sample showing enough proteids to last a man two days.

Lieut.-Col. L. M. Maus of the medical department of the army was called as a witness in behalf of Gen. Miles, and was examined by Major Lee. He testified that as chief medical officer of the Seventh Army Corps he made frequent examinations of the food supplies and their method of preparation by the cooks. As a rule there was very little complaint in the Seventh Army Corps about the meat.

At one time some men of the Second Illinois complained of some refrigerated beef they had eaten. A number of these men became ill with fever, and their sickness was ascribed to their having eaten this beef.

MAY FIGHT PROF. MARSH'S WILL.

Yale May Have to Go to Law to Get $150,000 Bequeathed by the Scientist.

New Haven, April 6.—Some concern is felt at Yale over the possibility of litigation relative to the will of the late Prof. Othniel C. Marsh, who gave $10,000 to the National Academy of Sciences and the rest of his estate, amounting to about $150,000, to Yale. The appearance of a relative of Prof. Marsh here requesting a continuance of the hearing on probating the will has created uneasiness. Yale has been obliged to spend fortunes to secure almost every large bequest ever given the university, the Fayweather and the Lampson donations being the most conspicuous examples. Prof. Marsh did his utmost to prevent a contest over his will when he transferred to Yale his collections of scientific specimens, amounting in value to thousands of dollars, about a year ago. He retained simply his personal property, his library and his home until his death.

R. H. Waters of Newburyport, Mass., is the relative who has obtained a postponement in probating the will. At his request the hearing on the will has been postponed until April 18. Neither Mr. Waters nor any other relative was mentioned in the will. Mr. Waters represents all the legal heirs in his request for time to examine the will. He is a son of Prof. Marsh's sister, Mary Peabody Marsh Waters. Other relatives are: James M. Marsh, half-brother, Chicago, Ill.; Martha M. Walker, half-sister, Batavia, N. Y.; the Misses Peabody Williamson and Ethel Marsh Williamson, nieces, Cleveland, and two nieces, daughters of his sister, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Shoulters of Crown Point, Ind.

Dry Tortugas Improvements.

Washington, April 6.—Rear-Admiral Bradford, Chief of the Bureau of Equipment, Navy Department, has just returned to Washington from a flying visit to Key West and the Dry Tortugas. He went to inspect the important naval works now in progress there under the direction of his bureau. Great steel coal-sheds are going up on the Tortugas, equipped with the very latest machinery for handling rapidly great quantities of coal, and it is intended to keep on hand no less than 40,000 tons at this point. A distilling plant is almost complete, with a capacity of 60,000 gallons of fresh water per diem, and Admiral Bradford says that Tortugas will soon be a well-equipped naval station capable of taking in and caring for any number of battle ships. It will be the only harbor between Chesapeake Bay on the north, and the mouth of the Rio Grande on the south and west, where such craft can find shelter in case of need.

Alleged Illness of the Philippine Troops.

Forth Worth, Tex., April 6.—Dr. Charles V. Harris passed through here bound for business with the War Department. He comes from the Philippine Islands, and says that many soldiers there, when he left, were disheartened over their physical condition. It is the opinion of Dr. Harris that if the American troops remain in the Philippines any great length of time, sickness and death will follow.

The Pope Sees Visitors.

Rome, April 6.—The Pope yesterday received in audience the Bishop of Duluth, the Right Rev. James McGoldrick, and the Bishop of Winona, the Right Rev. David B. Cotter.

His holiness also received Archbishop Ireland in farewell audience.

$3.50 "ELITE" $3.50

The swell new shoe for men, sells for $3.50. We believe it is better than any $3.50 made. Goodyear welt, hand sewed process; made of fine calf skin, Russia and patent leather; slick, up-to-date styles, fit for a king to wear. Come and see them.

J. & M. FINE SHOES FOR MEN, claimed to be the best $5.00 shoe made.

We sell Men's Shoes, $1.25 up. We sell Women's Shoes, 98c up. "Sorosis" the new shoe for women, $3.50. "Superior," the newer shoe for women, $3.00.

NEW DRESS SUIT CASES, TRUNKS, BAGS.

DOANE & EDSALL.

BOEHM'S.

Brocaded Silk Capes
Trimmed with Jet and Lace, Ruche Collarette and Silk lined at $2.98.

Ladies' Tailor-made Suits.
Made of Venetian and all-wool Cloth Jacket, silk lined throughout, skirt percaline line worth $10.00, at $7.49.

Children's Reefers,
Braid trimmed, double collar, ruffle edge, worth $2.50 at $1.98.

Everything in Millinery represented in our assortment, every shape, style and color that is desirable is here at prices which cannot be approached or duplicated anywhere.

KID GLOVES. Just by chance we managed to get another lot of those 2-clasp Kid Gloves, in white with black stitching, all black and colors, sizes 6 to 7 1-2, as good as any dollar glove, at 59c a pair.

MEN'S COLORED CAMBRIC SHIRTS, soft bosom, 2 collars and a separate pair of cuffs, worth 65c, at 49c.

One lot of FANCY PLAID RIBBONS, all silk, worth 38c, special at 25c yard.

50 dozen of Ladies' Fast Black Seamless Hose, worth 15c, special at 10c pair.

BOEHM'S.

When March winds blow,
And our face and hands chap so

USE CHAP CURE.

Manufactured only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG, "The Apothecary"

COR. NORTH AND PARK AVES

WHY DO YOU SUFFER so long with an aching tooth? We think there is nothing worse. So easy to prevent it if you would have them examined more often. Stop the pain and save the tooth when you can. We always need all we have, and of course never miss them till they're gone. Free advice for the asking.

OFFICE HOURS 8 TO 6.

Full Set guaranteed	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown (22 k.)	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c to 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. C. W. LEONARD.
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE
over City National Bank
Entrance on Front St. Plainfield, N. J

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills

25c.

A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.

MALLINSON'S
North and Watchung avenues.

EASTER

Cards and Novelties.
Paas Egg Dyes at

HARPER'S,

411 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J

Arrival and Departure of Mails

NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:20 a. m., 3:00, 5, 6:20 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m., 12:30 2:00, 5:00, 7:20 p. m.

SOMERVILLE and EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m., 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—8:40 and 11:20 a. m., 1:00 and 3:00 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a. m., 5:00 p. m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:20 p. m.

WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:40 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M

STAGE ROUTE.

Plainfield and Scotch Plains.

STAGE LEAVES PLAINFIELD
(E. FRONT ST., OPP. PARK AVE.)
9:30 a. m., 12:45, 4:00 and 6:00 P. M.

STAGE LEAVES SCOTCH PLAINS
(FRONT POST OFFICE)
10:30 a. m., 2:00, 5:00 and 7:00 p. m.

Upon notice a special stage will be held for parties of six or more attending the theatre or other attraction.

THOS. S. NEWMAN, Prop.

FRENCH

Plate glass mirror oak mantel, complete with summer front, for $13.00. You can't equal it elsewhere.

CURTIS M. THORPE,

310-312 PARK AVE.

M. POWERS,

DEALER IN

LEHIGH COAL.

FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.
Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A.
Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

RUSHMORE & CO.

WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST

Dealers in

Lumber, Coal and Wood

Moulding & Planing Mill.

Turning and Scroll Sawing.

L. A. HUMMER,

Variety Market.

Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.

163 SOMERSET STREET.

Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun. John P. Emmons
Telephone 601.

REMOVAL.

I have moved my stock of

BOOTS AND SHOES

TO 120 W. FRONT ST., with Crane, the hatter,

B. R. FORCE.

THE DAILY PRESS

A. S. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:30 p. m.

38 North avenue. Telephone Call 81.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week $5 a year—in advance

No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada

Delivered by carrier or by mail.

The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N.J., APRIL 6 1899.

FEATURES OF TODAY'S PRESS.

PAGE 1.—Important local news.
PAGE 2.—Telegraphic news.
PAGE 3.—Telegraphic news.
PAGE 4.—Editorial and gossip.
PAGE 5.—Vicinity news.
PAGE 6.—Catholic news.
PAGE 6.—Woman's department.
PAGE 6.—German news.
PAGE 7.—Miscellaneous.
PAGE 8.—Sporting and local news.

There Must Be a Reason

For the large amount of the best class of advertising that is found in the columns of The Daily Press. And there is—

It Is Because

Buyers of advertising appreciate the fact that The Daily Press is bought by the purchasing public for the excellence of its news service, and the merchant who would reach those people with his trade bargains must do it in the paper that will put his announcement before the greatest number. That is why

The Daily Press Leads.

COMING EVENTS.

April 6—Entertainment at Park Club.
April 6—"Feast of All Nations," lecture room Trinity Reformed church.
April 6—Belshazzar at the Casino.
April 6—Meeting of Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A.
April 6—"Natural Gas" at Music Hall. Benefit of stage hands.
April 8—Concert by the Cecelia Bradford Trio at Y. M. C. A. Hall.
April 9—Evangelist Tom Graham and Cecelia Bradford Trio, of New York, at the men's rally at Y. M. C. A., 4:15 p. m.
April 10—Union Bible class taught by Rev. D. M. Stearns.
April 10—Literary Society of the Y. M. C. A.
April 17—Star Course entertainment in Y. M. C. A. Hall
April 20—Gymnastic exhibition at Y. M. C. A.

The Ways of New Jersey.

So far as State aid and comfort to corporate monopolies is concered in the United States, New Jersey still leads the van of subservient communities, says the Philadelphia Record. The Legislature which adjourned at Trenton passed only three bills affecting corporations; but these were highly important, since they were manifestly designed to counteract as far as possible the restrictive effects of anti-monopoly legislation in other States. The limitation of declatory purpose has been abolished, and corporations may be organized hereafter in New Jersey for "any lawful purpose or purposes whatever"—exceptions being made of banks, trust companies, railroad, canal and telephone corporations. Moreover, corporations in that State may lease their franchises to other corporations on a two-thirds vote of the stockholders, or, on the other hand, may take by lease the franchises of any corporation organized under the laws of any other State, thus practically endowing foreign corporations leased by a New Jersey concern with all the rights and privileges of the latter. Such legislation is manifestly a direct challenge to those communities which are seeking to destroy the Trust monsters, and it can only be effective where monopoly controls the springs of legislation and the agencies of judicial interpretation.

The injuries that some of the candidates received in "riding the goat" while undergoing initiation into the mysteries of the Orient degree of Franklin Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., and the consequent publicity and scandal attached to the results, will do inestimably more damage to the society than all the "fun" that possibly could be extracted from the proceedings by those who participated in them. There are many good points to the Junior Order, and it is to be regretted that such a scandal should have been the outcome of what can be considered nothing more nor less than a lot of boyish pranks.

Young Mr. Vanderbilt gave a $200 tip to the crew that ran the special train carrying his bride from Long Island City to his country house a few miles up in Long Island. Such munificence can only be accounted for on the suspicion that the brakeman pronounced the name of the staton so that it could be understood

A public franchise should not extend over a period longer than the average number of years a man is in business. Every new generation sees changes, and enterprises that exist by will of the people should be compelled to adjust their terms with the people to the new conditions that are bound to follow one another.

New Brunswick is undergoing some queer political deals in its municipal election. One of them is the Republican support that is being given to a Silver Democrat, whose supporters bolted the regular party primary after their faction had been defeated.

The Cuban Assembly has dissolved itself. The members have had a hard time to arrive at the conclusion that they did not amount to much, but that is much more than some of the Legislative bodies of this country have been able to realize as yet.

Dr Parkhurst seems to think that he is the only man in New York upon whom should devolve the work of calling for an investigation of Legislative affairs. We suppose the Mazet committee will try to get along without the doctor, however.

One of the crew who served under Hobson in sinking the Merrimac visited Plainfield last night. And not the smack of a kiss was heard. Has Plainfield forgotten Hobson and his ways?

Aguinaldo is following Scriptural injunctions with slight variations, as for instance instead of taking up his bed and walking he is taking up his capital and running.

Many a naval man has flooded the magazines since the war without orders and has never been disciplined for it. We refer to the literary, not to the ammunition.

Spanish gunboats at Bound Brook! Oh, the glory and the attractions that the raging canawl brings to our modest little neighbor up in old Somerset

From Mayor of Chicago to President of the United States is a long jump, but Carter Harrison seems to be a good enough political acrobat to make it.

"Philadelphia," observes The Washington Star, "has discovered that it is a hard matter to purify drinking water by running it through politics."

Former Governor Altgeld is unable to rule Chicago as Mayor, but his talkative powers are still very great.

Plainfield is becoming more metropolitan in its municipal institutions every day

Billingsgate and vicious charges do not seem to influence many voters in Chicago.

Good streets is an asset that every city ought to possess.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

For six days and nights a locomotive has been slowly moving back and forth on the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Yardville, on the Amboy division. It has been doing guard duty to prevent the Trenton Traction Company from laying tracks across the railroad.

* * * * *

There is a hitch over the sword that is to be presented to Admiral Sampson by the State. The legislative committee has decided on the design and on the maker, who is a Philadelphian, but the Governor and a member of the committee object, because a New York firm offers a finer sword for the same money. The majority of the committee think the Governor should stand by the majority and take the position that the New York firm did not enter into competition at the proper time and is now underbidding for advertising purposes. The committee may be called together the latter part of this week to settle the matter.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

Dr. Carroll reports that the people of Porto Rico want a territorial civil government as soon as possible. They ought to have it, and doubtless will have it, as soon as it seems practicable to give it to them. But that is a task for Congress. The administration has nothing to do but to continue the military system until Congress acts.—Tribune.

—Twenty-five cents will be paid for a Press of either June 14 or 21, 1898.

GRAIN-O BRINGS RELIEF

to the coffee drinker. Coffee drinking is a habit that is universally indulged in and almost as universally injurious. Have you tried Grain-O? It is almost like coffee but the effects are just the opposite. Coffee upsets the stomach, ruins the digestion, effects the heart and disturbs the whole nervous system. Grain-O tones up the stomach, aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. There is nothing but nourishment in Grain-O. It can't be otherwise. 15 and 25c. per package.

Moving Time

This is the time that tries men's souls. Many annoying things occur to vex the heart of the good housewife. Things are broken or lost, carpets and shades don't fit, new furniture is needed, old articles must be replaced by something more in keeping with new surroundings, new conditions develop new needs, etc. etc., until distraction almost ensues. But as "every cloud has a silver lining"—just so is there a way out of all your perplexities. Your wants may be so easily, quickly and satisfactorily met by calling on us and making known your needs. If you want Carpets, we have them and they were never so cheap, never so beautiful and entirely new. If shades are needed they are here, mounted on best spring rollers in any desired color. If your windows require odd sizes we can make them for you at once. Does your Kitchen need a new covering? Oil Cloths and Linoleums may be had for the asking. We lay them for you if you wish it. Worn places in carpets may be covered by rugs. A special Wilton Nubia Rug (worth $1.25) at 98c. will answer the purpose. If your Library, Dining Room or Office needs a new art-square, say about 9x12, you may have one of Ingrain, Reversible Jute, Reversible Wool or Wilton Velvet from $6.98 to $33, according to your taste or the condition of your pocketbook. It may be that your table needs replenishing with some new dishes. Several new Open Stock dinner patterns imported for the first time this season may be the means of relieving this difficulty. Kitchen utensils perhaps should be replaced by articles that are brighter, newer and more convenient. We are not sure but that the servent girl question might be solved in great measure by more liberal patronage of our culinary department. Lace Curtains, Chenille Curtains, Tapestry Curtains, Sash Curtainings, Vestibule Lace, Curtain Poles and Fixtures, Upholstery Tapestries, etc. All kinds of Furniture we sell cheaper than any other house in the business.

REMEMBER THIS.

All our goods are new, fresh and reliable. No Auction goods handled, no old goods from other stores.

Friday's Specials.

All our 15c Turkish Towels (bleached)	10c ea
36-in Fruit-of-the-Loom muslin	6c yd
Best Shelf Oilcloth (new patterns)	3c yd
"Bonny Doon" Flannels	6¾c yd
All our 12c Percales (36 in)	10c yd
15c Fast Black Socks	10c pr
Cloth Bound 12 mos	10c ea
Lyons Tooth Powder	15c box
Royal " "	5c box
13 Large Packages good Toilet Paper	1.00
12c Box Writing Paper (excellent quality)	10c box
25c Corded Novelty Ginghams	19c yd
18c Velvet Binding	12c pc
$1.25 Plush Carriage Robes	98c
Special Fine White Dimity	15c
45in Hemmed Pillow Cases	8c
81x90 " Sheets	34c
Best Eiderdown Flannels	22 1-2c yd
25c Windsor Ties, for boys	19c
Lot of Soiled Muslin Underwear	1-3 former price
All our 1.25 Shirt Waists	98c ea

DOWN STAIRS.

$15.00 Couches	$12.98
12.00 "	9.98
5.00 Refrigerators	3.98
6.00 Morris Chairs	4.98
10.00 Baby Carriages	7.50
6.00 White Iron Beds	4.98
50c Jardinieres	25c
1.00 "	75c
1.50 "	98c

Every Item Mentioned a Bargain.

Prices for Friday Only and the Cash. Trading Stamps with all Specials.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,
234-236-238 WEST FRONT ST.

GEO. W. COLE,
UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,
200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

H. DeMOTT,
UNDERTAKER
AND EMBALMER.
Residence and office 89 Somerset St.
TELEPHONE 248 B.

DIED.

MUNDY—In North Plainfield, Wednesday, April 5th, 1899, Mrs. Martha A. Mundy, widow of Enos Mundy, aged 77 years. Funeral services at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. P. Humble, corner Somerset street and Lincoln place, Friday, April 7th, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited. 4 5 2

WANTS AND OFFERS

FIVE rooms with bathroom and attic to let. 717 South avenue. 3 31 6

ROOMS to rent. Enquire 27 Somerset place. 3 31 7

NINE ROOM HOUSE to let all improvements, East Second street. Enquire Wm. Newcorn, 204 West Front street. 2 21 tf

BARN to let, Second street, near Watchung avenue. Apply at Daily Press office. 3 13 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first class places at the Swedish Intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

WANTED—Houses to rent from $15 up. Elston M. French & Co. 2 1 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

6 ROOM house, new, near Netherwood station; to let or for sale. Sherwin's shoe store. 3 22 tf

DESIRABLE rooms with board, eight minutes walk to station 21 Sandford avenue. 3 7 tf

FARM of 108 acres, near Bernardsville, Somerset county, for sale or exchange for Plainfield property; two dwellings on property; plenty fruit; five barns; land well watered. E. D. Barrett, 148 East Fifth street. 4 3 6

TO LET—Two houses, 719 and 721 East Second street. Apply owner 409 East Sixth street. 4 4 3

TO LET—3 connecting rooms. 765 East Second street, no children. 4 4 3

LOST—Diamond ring, in neighborhood of Liberty and Sixth streets. Suitable reward at this office. 4 5 2

TO RENT—A bargain, 5 rooms and bath, on Watchung avenue, near depot. $12 00. Enquire 56 Somerset street. 4 5 2

TO LET—Choice corner flats, steam heat; all improvements, in Clifton Building, Fourth street and Park avenue C B. Clifton, Seventh street and Spooner avenue. 4 5 5

FOR SALE cheap, nearly new house, 6 rooms, in North Plainfield; good location; terms to suit. Don't pay rent; buy and save money. Inquire 148 or 160 Duer street. 3 21 tf

TO RENT—The new dwelling house, 929 Madison avenue; has all the modern improvements throughout Street macadamized to curb. Apply to John M. Whiton, 821 Central avenue. 3 17 tf

WANTED—First-class girl for general housework. 423 Park avenue. 4 5 2

WANTED—Girl for general house work, must be well recommended. Apply 817 Third place. 4 5 2

HANDSOMELY furnished rooms, with board; new apartment house. 122 Watchung avenue 4 5 4

LARGE pleasant rooms, furnished or unfurnished; good table. 434 corner Fifth street and Watchung avenue. 4 1 6

TO LET—6 room house. $12 month; 163 Duer street. Inquire 148 or 160 Duer street. 3 21 tf

TO LET—Half house, city water; 6 rooms; $10 per month. Inquire at 138 Duer street. 3 30 tf

TO LET—Four nice rooms. 611 Liberty street. 4 6 3

WANTED—Strong boy, 18 or over, to learn bedding business; must understand use of horse. Apply Friday or Saturday at 23 Somerset street. Bring reference.

WANTED—Girl for general housework, must be good cook and laundress, good wages to right girl. Address "P." care Press.

FOR SALE—Milk, from 2 cans to 100 quarts per day; to suit buyer. Address G. H. Albertson, Kellogg farm, Mt. Pleasant. 4 6 4

HOUSEKEEPER, middle aged lady, desires position as housekeeper for widower's family; trustworthy in every respect. Address "A," care Press. 4 6 2

HOUSE and barn to let 682 West Third street, water and sewer connected; rent $13 00 Inquire 1220 West Front street. 4 6 tf

ON account of leaving, Plainfield will sell well bred chestnut horse, Wilkes & McGregor stock; roads 10 miles per hour 15½ hands; free driver, sound and kind; 7 years old; not afraid of trolley. Also surrey and light trap, reversible seats, both in first-class condition, having been recently painted, etc., and light single and double harness. 331 Belvidere corner Putnam avenues. 4 6 2 eod

PECK'S CORNER.

Nothing to wait for! Everything to come for!

AT PECK'S

LADIES' NECKWEAR.
No such an assortment can you find as here.

DRESS LININGS.
Everything you need.

FRENCH AND SCOTCH FLANNELS.
Fine goods and beautiful patterns.

SHIRT WAISTS.
have arrived; have just been made from the newest and latest styles and are NEW.

AT PECK'S.

CARLOAD FRESH

This afternoon and tomorrow morning, at the "Fish Car," located at the Grant Avenue Freight Station of the C. & R., Plainfield avenue and South Second St.

Big Shad, weight 5 to 6 lbs.	25c
Live Cod	5c per lb
Large Fresh Herring	5c lb
Live Haddock	5c lb
Fancy Eels,	10c lb. 3 lbs for 25c
Flounders,	7c lb. 4 lbs for 25c
Salmon, Columbia River	14c lb
Croker Porgies	5c lb
Blue Point Oysters,	20c qt

Long Branch Fish Co.

FOR SALE—At a great sacrifice. 100 shares of Class E Stock, of the Mercantile Co. Operative Bank, maturity value $100 each share, on which shares has been paid $225 00. Apply Pope & Runyon, Attorneys. 4 6 tf

WANTED—At once, a pony cart or light phaeton. Address B, care Press. 4 6 3

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework. 806 Third place. 4 6 2

WANTED—Good cook and laundress, immediately, references required. Apply on Friday to Mrs. T. S Burr, 19 Sycamore avenue.

Monroe B. Long, M D., President. Eugene M. Laing, Vice-President.
Robert A. Meeker, Secretary. Robert J Shaw, Treasurer.

THE UNION BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.

OFFICE, 203 PARK AVENUE.

Special Features

A uniform Loaning Rate of $8.67 Per month on each $1 000 borrowed. ANY additional amount may be paid in, no matter how small, with any monthly installment; thus maturing the stock that much sooner.

It accommodates itself to the financial condition of the borrower instead of compelling him to pay a certain fixed amount each month.

Liberal Withdrawals With Interest

THE MEMBERS MAY WITHDRAW AT ANY TIME AND RECEIVE THE WHOLE AMOUNT PAID IN AND AFTER ONE YEAR SIX PER CENT INTEREST ON THE SAME.

The whole or any part of the loan can be paid off at any time.

A New Series Issued Every Month.

To Investors

PAID-UP OR INCOME STOCK, COSTING $60 PER SHARE AND BEARING 5 PER CENT INTEREST AND HAVING A MATURITY VALUE OF $100 PER SHARE is issued from time to time, as the board of directors may determine, and is especially desirable for those wishing a secure and profitable investment.

For further particulars inquire at the office 203 Park Ave., Room 8, or address the secretary,

R. A. MEEKER,
203 PARK AVE.

SCIENTIFIC MASSAGE
Facial Massage and Steaming.
THERMO-ELECTRIC BATHS.
MISS HOLMES. 440 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J. 3 1 tf

MISS M. E. RUCKMAN
has reopened her
FASHIONABLE MILLINERY PARLOR
at 611 S. 2d St. Hats trimmed for 25c.
Cor. Plainfield Ave. 4 6 eod 1m

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL!
MAZE EDWARDS, Lessee and Manager. Telephone 722.

THURSDAY NIGHT, APRIL 6, 1899.

STAGE HANDS BENEFIT.

Donnelly & Girard's Greatest Farce Comedy success,

"NATURAL GAS."

Introducing Mr. Eddie Girard in his Original Characters, supported by a Cast of Unexcelled Superiority.

Prices—25c. 35c. 50c. and 75c. Reserved seats at Box Office. Open daily from 9 a. m.

Two Performances—Matinee and Night.
SATURDAY, APRIL 8, 1899.
A Magnificent Production of MRS. FRANCES HODGSON BURNETT'S Charming Drama

"Little Lord Fauntleroy."

By the Famous
SMEDLEY CHILDREN
ELLIS, Aged 10. EDWIN, Aged 9.
And a Company of Carefully-Selected Players.

PRICES—At Night, 25, 35, 50 and 75c. Box Seats $1.
All Seats at the Matinee Reserved, 25 and 50c. Reserved seat tickets now on sale.

"Feast of all Nations"
IN THE LECTURE ROOM OF
TRINITY REFORMED CHURCH
Thursday Evening, April 6,
For Benefit of Young Women's Mission Band of the Church.
SUPPER a la Carte during the evening. If stormy the "Feast" will be continued the following evening.
ADMISSION . . 10c.
3 31 6

"Belshazzar"
CONCERT,
By
GRACE CHURCH CHOIR.
At the : CASINO :
Thursday Evening, Apr. 6,
8:15 o'clock.

MANICURING, 25 CENTS.
REMOVING CORNS, 25c.
SHAMPOOING, With Massage, 50c.
M. V. Stickle, 149 E. Fifth St.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
ABSOLUTELY PURE
Makes the food more delicious and wholesome
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, April 6.—Mrs. Margaret Tenney, of New Brighton, is visiting in the borough.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Oakley, of New Brunswick, are visiting Mayor and Mrs. R. J. Swackhamer.

There are now four cases of scarlet fever in the borough, but it is not expected to spread any further.

Mrs. Clarence Dodwell is one of the committee in charge of the Red Men's fair at Plainfield this week.

J. B. Coriell, Jr., moved yesterday from North avenue to the Taylor house on Walnut street.

Work on the water pipes is being pushed rapidly during these warm days.

Mrs. J. G. Taylor, of Church street, is visiting her mother in Plainfield today.

Miss May Apgar is visiting her sister, Mrs. Sherman Cooley, of Flemington.

Percy Abbott is spending a few days with his grandparents in Somerville.

Mrs. Annie Abbott spent yesterday visiting relatives in Somerville.

William H. Terry spent yesterday visiting relatives in Metuchen.

Postmaster Coriell was in New York yesterday on business.

Mrs. William E. Terry spent yesterday in New Brunswick.

John Fenner spent yesterday with friends in Somerville.

SCOTCH PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Fanwood, April 6.—The closing reception of the Willow Grove Domino Club was held Tuesday night in the firehouse. Dancing was the order of the evening, music for which was furnished by Rogers. Guests were present from Newark, Westfield, Elizabeth and Plainfield.

The recent law passed by the Legislature increasing the Town Committeemen for townships from three to five members, promises to make a warm election in the township next spring, as by the law all members' terms run out and it will be necessary to elect the whole number at the election. This, together with a fight for the offices of freeholder, assessor and constable, promises to give the town an old-time election. The law does not meet with the approval of many of the residents.

Albert Hollingsworth, who has bsen spedding his Easter vacation with his father, has returned to his studies at Lehigh University.

Several Scotch Plains people attended a party at the home of Miss Sowden in Plainfield, Tuesday evening.

Mrs Arlington Drake, is entertaining her brother Walter Bliss, of Cortlandt, N. Y. state.

WESTFIELD

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Westfield, April 6.—The annual meeting of the parish of St. Paul's church took place Tuesday evening at which time the following officers were elected for the ensuing year; Senior warden, George Delatour; Junior warden, Edwin Shields; Vestrymen, Lawrence Bastable, H. H Downes, George H. Embree, Edward Walworth and G. V. Steebe; delegates to the annual convention, J. B. Green, Charles Forster, H. H. Downes; delegates to the convocation, Lawrence Bastable, G.H. Embree and H. H. Downes. The church is in a very prosperious condition under the present rector, the Rev. Charles Fiske.

The township committee will hold a meeting tomorrow evening at which time the sewer assessment matter between Mr. Affleck and heirs of the Mapes estate will come up for a hearing.

—Press want ads bring results.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. All druggists sell it at 50 cents or it will be mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, N. Y.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY.

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—William Marchant, of Hackensack, has purchased B. Myers' dairy on Watchung avenue.

—P. Ludwig Conde, of East Second street, is making arrangements for his annual spring concert.

—A telephone has been placed in Marshal Campbell's house on Somerset place. The number is 219 B.

—The Browning Circle will hold a meeting in the parlors of the Congregational church Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

—Trustees will be elected at the annual parish meeting of the First Baptist church next week Tuesday evening.

—A large number of candidates will be initiated by Washington Camp, No. 38, P. O. S. of A., next Monday evening.

—Employes of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Company are busily engaged in the city rushing the work of improvements.

—The crosswalk at the corner of Front street and Central avenue has been repaired so that in wet weather it can be crossed with comfort.

—The Ladies' Aid Society of Hope chapel held their regular meeting yesterday afternoon and transacted routine business. A social time followed.

—The Women's Society for Christian Work of the Seventh-Day Baptist church hs arranged an Easter supper to be held in the church parlors next Wednesday evening.

—Rev. Charles L. Goodrich, pastor of the Congregational church, will preach a special sermon in that church Sunday evening on the topic, "Browning's Witness to the Future Life."

He Fooled the Surgeons.

All doctors told Renick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest Pile cure on earth, and the best Salve in the World. 25 cents a box. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Mrs. Thornton, of New York, is visiting relatives in this city for a time.

T. S. Burr and family, of Sandford avenue, have removed to 19 Sycamore avenue.

William Kilfoil, of the borough, is in Princeton for a few days visiting his family.

Arthur W. Lederer, of West Front street, has returned to his studies at Princeton University.

Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis, editor of The Sabbath Recorder, is ill at his home on West Seventh street.

Dr. L. E. Livermore, formerly of Plainfield, but now of Connecticut, has been visiting friends in town.

Harry Bush, of the fire department, had a day off yesterday and spent it in an enjoyable manner out of town.

The condition of Miss Catherine Webster, of East Second street, does not improve as fast as her friends hope for.

Mr. Hoyt, of this city, who is associated with the Missouri Pacific Railroad Company, left yesterday for Washington on business.

Elston Hoagland, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hoagland, of West Front street, is recovering from a severe attack of whooping cough.

Miss Marion Henderson and Miss Marguerite Henschel, of New York, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Faber, of 38 Rockview avenue.

Thomas Muir, the night operator at the telephone office, has about recovered from the affection to his eyes, and is now able to work nights once more.

James K. Arnold, Jr., of Manning avenue, has accepted a position as bookkeeper in the West Second street office of the Plainfield Gas and Electric Light Company.

C.E. Hepburn, of East Second street, of the firm of Hepburn & Co., druggists, returned yesterday from Prescott, Ont., where he went to bury his mother, who died recently, and to settle an estate.

Miss Wilson, of Lebanon, Hunterdon county, who has been visiting Miss Susie Boss, of Central avenue, returned home this morning. She was accompanied by Miss Boss, who will visit her for a time.

PEOPLE COME AND GO.

PERSONAL MENTION OF INTEREST TO PRESS READERS.

Some Come to Enjoy Pleasures of Plainfield, Others Journey to Either Mountain or Shore for Recreation.

Miss Lillie Mirex, of the borough, is entertaining company from out of town.

Miss J. Louise Jenkins, of West Seventh street, has gone to Patchogue, L. I.

Alvah Carey, of New York, has been visiting friends and relatives in Plainfield.

N. H. Saxton, of East Fourth street, has returned from an out of town business trip.

Mrs. Florence Potter Ross, of this city, left yesterday for a sojourn at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Fitch, of Westfield, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Darling, of Prospect avenue.

Joseph Keller, of New York, returned home yesterday after a pleasant visit with relatives in town.

Mrs. Darby, of Alton, accompanied by her daughter, Marguerite Darby, is visiting relatives in the borough.

Rev. G. W. Gardner, of Grace M. E church, left yesterday for Newark, to attend the M. E. church conference.

Mrs. J. T. Armstrong and son, Howard, of Brooklyn, have returned home after a visit with Plainfield relatives.

Mrs. Benjamin Moore, of East Second street, returned yesterday from Brooklyn, where she has been visiting friends.

Miss Mowinkle, of LaGrande avenue, and Louis Kelly, of this city, will be married Tuesday, May 16th, at the home of the bride.

William E. MacClyment and family, of New York, are visiting at the home of Mr. MacClymont's parents on Washington avenue.

Former Councilman Ernest R. Ackerman and wife, of West Eighth street, have returned from an extended pleasure trip.

Col. Charles K. Moore, formerly a resident of Fanwood and now of Elizabeth, was in Plainfield yesterday calling on his old acquaintances.

The Misses Halsey, of Jersey City, returned home yesterday afternoon, after a visit at the home of Rev. Dr. W. C. Snodgrass, of Central avenue.

Frank Frost, who has been boarding on Crescent avenue, sailed yesterday for England to join his father former Councilman George H Frost.

Prof. and Mrs. Wardner Williams, of Chicago, who have been visiting at the home of D E. Titsworth, of West Seventh street, sailed for England yesterday.

Rev. L E Livermore, of Lebanon, Conn., formerly of this city, is spending a few days in town, preparatory to an extended trip in the interests of Alfred University.

Miss Luella Clawson, of West Sixth street, entertained the members of the Tuesday Night Whist Club, of which she is a member, at her home Tuesday evening.

Miss Henderson, of High Bridge, has returned home after a visit with her brother, Wilbur P. Henderson, of West Second street. Mr. Henderson will soon give up housekeeping and board.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be distroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.
Sold by Druggists, 75c.
Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that, too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night, and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at L W. Randolph's drug store.

Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

AT RANDOLPH'S !

Roots and Herbs are numerous, yet we urge the combination of

Randolph's -:- Sarsaparilla

is one of the best to clean the blood. None better. Only 50 cents per bottle.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. TELEPHONE CALL 109.

3000 Pairs of Knee Pants

To be sold in two days. Sale to start Friday at 10 a. m.

Jos. Klein & Co.
Manufacturers of
BOYS' KNEE PANTS

All Goods Made On the Premises

NEW YORK, MARCH 1, '99.

MR. M. WEINBERGER,
M'g'r New York Clothing Co.,
Plainfield, N. J.

DEAR SIR:—

We are ready to see you; have settled with insurance company and will keep goods until we see you. Make as early call as possible.

Yours truly,
JOS. KLEIN & CO.,
Manufacturers of knee pants exclusively.

"Our Own" Perfect Fitting.

Lot 1552.
Age 15.
Price

These Pants are sewed with the best Standard thread having the IMPERIAL WAIST BANDS,
TAPED SEAMS
AND WARRANTED NOT TO RIP.

A Great Chance for Mothers to buy the finest knee pants, at almost your own prices.

Jos. Klein & Co., are positively the largest manufacturers of knee pants in the United States. They occupy the building numbers 616 and 618 Broadway, New York City.

A fire started recently in the floor above their establishment, and their stock of knee pants was slightly damaged by water only, there is not a spot or a speck on the goods, and having bought this fine stock of over 3,000 pairs of strictly all wool materials of the standard Ashland Mills cassimeres, blue and black serges, fancy cheviots, blue and black clay diagonals, black cheviots and fancy worsteds knee pants. Every pair of them are perfect fitters, made with the patent waist bands and every seam is taped. The sizes are from 3 to 16 years.

These knee pants were manufactured to sell from 50c to 2.00 Our prices on these knee pants. A 50c knee pants at 17c, 65c pants at 25c, 75c pants at 29c and 1.00 pants at 38c, 1.25 pants at 50c. There are over 100 styles of knee pants to choose from.

Come early and get your grand selection. This is positively the largest assortment of knee pants ever shown in Plainfield. And having purchased them about 25c on the dollar, we can afford to sell them to you at almost your own price. Four large tables are reserved for this stock.

New York Clothing Co.

M. Weinberger, Manager. 214 West Front St., next door to Music Hall, Plainfield, N. J.

DEAD HORSES

Removed free. Rickman Bros., 411 South Second Street, Main office New Brunswick N. J. Telephone Call, 45 F. Fertilizer Works, Livingston Park, N. J. 4 23m

A CONCERT

for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. will be given in Association Hall

Saturday Evening April 8th.

By the Cecelia Bradford Trio, of New York. ADMISSION 25 cents. 4 3 6

F. A. DUNHAM,
—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—
109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87 F.

IF your grocer says he does not keep our Flavoring Extracts, ask him to get them for you.

A. L. Kaerth & Co.
132 E. Second St.

GRAND FAIR

under the Auspices of

Miantonomo Tribe, No. 118,
Improved Order of Red Men,
—AND—
Iona Council, No. 14, D. of P.
IN WASHINGTON HALL,
West Second St,
Tuesday, April 4, to Saturday, April 8,
inclusive.

DANCING EVERY EVENING

Unique novelties exhibited. Something new each night. 4 1 7

CROSBY & HILL

SUCCESSORS TO EDWARD WHITE.

SPRING SEASON'S SELLING HAS BEGUN.

We've put winter behind us, the different sections are blooming with the freshness of spring. We'll try to tell you about the new merchandise as it arrives, endeavor to interest you in it, emphasize its merits, make an earnest effort to impress you favorably. Our showing is by far the best you have ever seen in this city; our aim is to show how worthy goods can be bought and sold with thoughts for the merchant and thoughts for the customer. We are striving to prove that our interests as store-keepers and your interests as store patrons are mutual. No shadow of extortion is permitted in our prices. The proudest dollar in the land and the poorest dollar of the breadwinner meet here on a footing of commercial equality.

The Millinery Showing.

The Millinery Department blossoms forth with a richness and elegance of wealth and beauty never before equalled in this city, (a fact every day admitted by the most competent judges). We invite you to participate in this showing We have made elaborate preparations for a large business.

REMARKABLE GLOVE VALUES.

69c, the $1.00 quality.

Sixteen hundred pairs of Ladies' Kid Gloves of a very excellent quality, the colors are black, tan, mode, grey, pearl and white, the quality is equal to any dollar glove you have ever bought and will give splendid satisfaction.

$1.10, the usual $1.25 quality.

We show this morning about 1,000 pairs of Ladies' Kid Gloves of our own importation. Every new spring shade is included in the lot, the quality is equal to any $1.25 glove and is covered by our liberal guarantee.

Tailor-made Suits.

Everything we show in tailor-made suits is the season's newest product, made by manufacturers of the highest standing expressly for ourselves. The fit, the finish and the style will more than meet your expectation; the smallness of price will be the only disappointment.

7.98. Tailor-made suit, splendid quality of all-wool cheviot serge, jacket lined with silk rhadmere, skirt cut full and wide, lined with percaline; a regular $10 suit.

10.00. All-wool serge suits, jackets satin lined, skirts cut with the new flounce, very full and wide, lined with percaline. Colors are black, royal blue, navy blue and tan shades; the value is $12.50.

11.98. Six different styles of tailor-made suits of all the newest spring colorings, most of the jackets are taffeta silk lined and are the newest shapes shown; the values range from 12.50 to 17.50.

Separate Skirts and Spring Jackets.

3.50. Ladies' all-wool covert cloth jacket, made in correct style, tan shades only, fully worth 4.50.

5.00. Women's coats in all-wool venetian cloth, lined with rhadmere.

2.98. Ladies' dress skirts of brilliantine, mohair or serge, new flume cut, percaline lined and velvet bound; worth 3.50.

4.75. Ladies' dress skirts of all-wool cheviot and venetian cloth, percaline lined and velvet bound; worth 6.00.

5.00. Ladies' black taffeta waist, body and sleeves all small tucking, newest cut; worth 6.50.

The newest shapes and styles of cotton gingham and madras waists are all displayed here and are a wonderfully choice collection.

Neckwear for Men and Women.

Our showing of neckwear is very large, the styles are very nobby and new, the prices are disappointingly low.

17c for men's neckwear, usually sold at 25c. 39c for men's neckwear, usually sold at 50c.

The prices of ladies' neckwear range from 25c to 1.75; the variety is very large and includes everything that is new.

Carpet Dep't.

Our Carpet Department is located on the third floor and is easy of access by an elevator, a perfect daylight department. We are prepared to execute all orders promptly on the shortest notice. We quote a few interesting prices:

50c.—Best quality ten-wire tapestry carpets.
69c.—Saxony, Axminster Carpets, all choice new patterns.
59c.—Best quality all-wool Ingrain Carpets.

THE MARCH OF PROGRESS

in wall paper can best be witnessed in our magnificent stock, comprising all of the latest and artistic patterns, on paper of the very best texture.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.
Wall Papers, Paints, Oils, Glass, Etc.
291 Park Ave. Corner Second St.
Telephone Call 635. Estimates Furnished.

PATENTS
TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &c.
Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.
Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.
A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.
MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York

FREY & MURPHY,
CUSTOM TAILORS
26 Somerset St.
Spring Samples Now Ready.
Largest Repairing and Cleaning Establishment in Plainfield.
Repairing and Cleaning properly done in a first-class manner.
Prices Low, Styles First-Class.

Everything for the Garden.
SWEET PEAS the choicest, fancy Lawn Grass Seeds and odorless lawn dressing.
'Phone No. 6.
A. M. Griffen, 119 East Front St.

IMPORTED
OLIVE OIL.
75c per Bottle.
Finest Quality Obtainable
POWERS' PHARMACY
Somerset Street and Craig Place.

Safe Deposit Vaults
THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK
Of Plainfield, New Jersey.
Capital $200,000
Surplus and Profits ..... $ 90,000
J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. BUNYON, Cashier
H. M. ESTIL, Vice " D. M. BUNYON, Ass't
DIRECTORS:
Charles Potter, Wm. McD. Cornell,
E. M. French, H. Mulford Estil,
Wm. M. Stillman, Isaac W. Bushmore,
J. W. Johnson, Wm. R. Goddington,
F. S. Bunyon.
SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS
Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per annum.
VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

BANANAS 12c. and 15c. per doz.
ORANGES 15 and 18 for 25c.
Confectionery and fruit, lowest prices.
C. E. BICKNELL,
"On the Bridge." Somerset St.

BUSHTON & HANSEN,
Painters and Paper Hangers,
Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets
Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11

A. LUSARDI,
120 NORTH AVENUE.
Wholesale and Retail
Dealer in choice fruit of all kinds, of Confectionery, Peanuts' Cigars, etc. Soda Water of all flavors and always ice cold. Branch store corner Front and Somerset streets.

J. W. VAN SICKLE.
122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly.
TELEPHONE 146 b.

A GRAND ALTAR RAIL

THE GEM OF ART THAT GRACES A BROOKLYN CHURCH.

It Is a Wondrous Creation of Rich Marbles and Mosaics and Is the Most Beautiful Piece of Architecture of Its Kind In America.

The most magnificent and costly altar rail in America has been put in place in the Church of St. Mary Star of the Sea, Court and Luquer streets, Brooklyn, of which the Rev. Mgr. O'Connell is rector. It arrived recently from Genoa. It was designed by Colombani and executed in his ateliers at Carrara, Italy.

The rail is three feet high and 60 feet long. Two steps leading to it are of marble taken from the historic quarry at Venice which supplied the marble for the Cathedral of St. Mark and the palace of the doges It is of cream color and very rare. The base of the rail is of Breccia marble, quarried near Carrara. The columns are of marble of a rich gray color. Under each pillar is a vase of red Verona marble. The caps of the columns are of the finest statuary marble from Mount Altissimo. The cap running on top of the rail along its entire length, where the communicants rest their hands, is of yellow Siena marble.

The unique feature of the rail is that between the columns there are panels of Venetian mosaic—the finest in the world—each panel symbolic. The Venetian mosaic differs materially from the Roman mosaic. In the latter the crevices between the pieces of mosaic are filled in with paste, which makes it look almost like a painting, while the Venetian mosaic is left rough and is in every way more artistic.

The background of the panels is of burnished gold, and the figures are colored. There are 12 panels in all, four of them being doors.

The first panel represents St. Anne, mother of the Blessed Virgin, standing and holding the Virgin as a little girl by the hand. The background is a pastoral scene. This is to typify the relation that St. Anne bears to the Christian religion, being the mother of the mother of Christ.

The second panel typifies the Assumption. It represents the Blessed Virgin as she is described in the Apocalypse, chapter 12, "clothed with the sun and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown with 12 stars."

The third panel typifies the relation of St. Joseph to the Catholic religion. It represents the death of St. Joseph, with Mary kneeling and holding his hand and Christ supporting his head.

The fourth panel is the queen of the Holy Rosary. It shows the figure of the Blessed Virgin standing in the clouds, that are laden with roses, and an angel kneeling at her side, gathering them up and weaving a crown for the queen. She holds a scepter in one hand. The roses typify the "Hail Marys" which the faithful recite in the devotion to the rosary.

The fifth panel typifies the sacrament of penance. It shows a woman kneeling in confession. The penitent's hands are folded and are bound with chains. Directly above it is the Sacred Heart of Jesus, from which blood is dropping on the chains, typifying the washing away of sins by the blood of Christ.

The sixth panel represents the apparition of the Saviour to blessed Margaret Mary in the chapel of the visitation at Paray-le-Monial, France, on June 16, 1675, when he told her to institute the devotion of the Sacred Heart. Lights are shining from the wounds in his heart and hands.

The seventh panel shows Blessed Margaret Mary holding in her hands a painting made by herself of the vision.

The eighth panel represents the seal of Divine love.

The four gates are made of bronze. The figures are statuettes of silver, with rays of gold radiating from each.

The gate in front of St. Joseph's altar has a statue of St. Joseph, protector of the universal church. The one before the altar of the Blessed Virgin has a statuette of the Sacred Heart of Mary, pierced with a sword in fulfillment of the prophecy of Simeon.

There is a double gate in front of the high altar. One has a figure typifying the Holy Eucharist and the Sacred Heart. Under the feet of Christ water is flowing and two deer and two doves are drinking. On the other gate is a figure of Christ as the Sacred Heart King. He holds a scepter in one hand and a sword in the other. Rays of light radiate from his heart.

Mgr. O'Connell is authority for the statement that there is nothing in this country like the rail. It is said to have cost $10,000. The gate was admitted by the customs officials as a work of art.

The Church of St. Mary of the Sea enjoys the extraordinary privilege of being affiliated with the Holy House of Loretto. The same spiritual privileges and indulgences which reward the pious pilgrim to Loretto may be gained by a visit to the Star of the Sea. The main altar is a privileged altar. The crucifix over the main altar was made in Rome and contains a relic of the true cross. The indulgence of the Portiuncula is also one of the many privileges conferred on the Star of the Sea.—New York Letter.

The Eucharistic League.

According to the third annual report of the People's Eucharistic league, there are 32 centers or branches in the United States. The total membership is over 10,000. Many centers have a membership of 1,000. The associates are divided into bands of 12, and the head of each band is called a zelatrice. The object of the league is the adoration of the Holy Eucharist. Bands of adorers take turns in adoring the Eucharist, each spending half an hour before the Blessed Sacrament.

HOLY MARY, MOTHER OF GOD

She Is the Mediatrix Between Sinful Men and Their Saviour.

The incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ is the fundamental doctrine of Christianity, for upon it is based the whole structure of Christian faith. This great mystery was accomplished by the power of God, through the co-operation of his handmaid, the virgin of Nazareth.

Being predestined to the glorious dignity of mother of God, Mary was endowed with the highest graces in the gift of God, as was befitting the mother of his Son. All her excellence and her glory and her power are due solely to her Son and her Saviour. As his creature Mary is infinitely less than God, but incomparably greater than any other creature. God alone is the object of our adoration, and Christ is the only mediator between man and his Creator.

The power ascribed by Catholics to the Blessed Virgin Mary is that of intercession only and is based upon the warrant of Scripture, the teaching of the fathers of the church and the practice of Christians from the earliest times. Devotion to Mary is as old and as universal as the church itself.

At the crib of Bethlehem the mother revealed the light of the world to the Hebrew shepherds and the gentile magi. At Mary's intercession Christ performed his first miracle at Cana, and at the foot of the cross Mary was bequeathed to all men in the person of John.

The decree of the council of Ephesus which affirmed the true doctrine of the incarnation and proclaimed the highest dignity of Mary was received by the people with public demonstrations of the greatest joy. The earliest Christian art also bears witness to the faith and devotion of the people. Filial love for and devotion to Mary are inseparable from a true faith in Jesus Christ.

Mary is the mediatrix between sinful men and their Saviour. She pleads with their brother, in whom they see also their judge. It is lawful and profitable to ask the prayers of our fellow men.

No creature is holier or nearer to Christ than Mary, his mother. As he was obedient to her on earth, so now he listens to her pleadings for us, his brethren. Through Mary we received Christ. Through Mary we hope to attain to his glory.—Catholic Study Club.

THE DIVINE CURE.

Matthew Arnold's Glowing Tribute to the Glories of Catholicism.

Matthew Arnold has this to say of our holy church and its noble influence:

Catholicism is that form of Christianity which is the oldest, the largest and most popular. It has been the great popular religion of Christendom. Who has seen the poor in other churches as they are seen in Catholic churches? Catholicism envelops human life, and Catholics in general feel themselves to have drawn not only their religion from the church; they feel themselves to have drawn from her, too, their art and poetry and culture. Her hierarchy, originally stamped with the character of a beneficent and orderly authority springing up amid anarchy, appeared as offering a career where birth was disregarded and merit regarded, and the things of the mind and soul were honored in the midst of the iron feudal age, which worshiped solely birth and force. And if there is a thing especially alien to religion it is divisions. If there is a thing especially native to religion, it is peace and union; hence the original attraction toward unity in Rome, and hence the great charm and power for men's minds of that unity when once attained. All these spells for the heart and imagination has Catholicism for Catholics, in addition to the consciousness of a divine cure for vice and misery.

Miss Livingston a Catholic.

Miss Elizabeth K. Livingston has just been received into the Catholic church in New York city. Miss Livingston is a lineal descendant of Peter Van Brugh Livingston, whose wife was Mary Alexander, sister of the Earl of Sterling. Peter was the son of Philip, second son of the lord of the manor of Livingston, who was president of the first provincial congress in New York. An elder brother of Peter was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, and another brother was a governor of New Jersey.

Miss Livingston was born in Baltimore. Her parents and only sister died a year ago, and she has since lived with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Van Brugh Livingston, who are also her guardians, in New York city. During her early life Miss Livingston was a Baptist, but later she joined the Episcopal church. Her aunt and uncle are Catholics.

She is well known in New York society, is a member of the Colonial Dames and is interested in charitable work. She is heiress to a large estate.

The Church In Denmark.

Slowly but surely the Catholic church is making her way in the once Catholic Norse kingdoms. In Denmark two religious orders, the Redemptorists and the Clerks Regular of St. Camillus of Lellis, have lately obtained a permanent footing. The Nordish Ugeblad announces that Fathers Gaudentius Schmiderer and Peter Damian Steindl, C. SS. R., of the Redemptorist house at Mantern in Styria, have settled at Odense, where they have taken charge of the church and parish of St. Mary, while the Camillian fathers have purchased a fine villa belonging to the bank director Jacobsen, with a large plot of land at Aalborg, where they will erect a church and hospital.

The Jubilee For 1900.

It is announced that the holy father, following the example of his predecessors, will announce the jubilee or holy year for 1900. The last celebration of this kind was held in 1875 under Pope Pius IX.

ALL ABOUT WOMEN.

A Singer's Lost Voice and How She Has Recovered It.

Every one who has read Du Maurier's delightful story of "Trilby" will remember how that young lady suddenly lost her ability to sing, to the consternation of the audience which had gathered to hear her. The case is a strange one, but it has actually occurred under different circumstances in real life.

A little over a year ago M. du Vivier, the Parisian maestro who now teaches singing in Chicago, counted among his favorite and most promising pupils Miss Frances Perce, the beautiful daughter of Colonel Le Grand Perce, well known in political and financial circles in Chicago. Miss Perce was possessed of a pure and powerful soprano voice, and Du Vivier proudly watched her successful debut into the musical world, prophesying a remarkable career for his favorite pupil.

But in the very midst of her first conquests Miss Perce suddenly lost her voice, absolutely and completely. Engagements were canceled, a contemplated course of study on the continent was given up, and Du Vivier was even more heartbroken than the singer herself.

MISS FRANCES CORD PERCE.

The case puzzled all of Miss Perce's friends, and it was not until after several specialists were consulted that it was found that she was suffering from paralysis of the chords of the throat. Further examination revealed the fact that this had been brought about by the administration of a too powerful drug by a physician to relieve some temporary bronchial congestion. This gave hope for the return of the singer's voice, so the young lady passed from the hands of her singing master into those of a throat specialist.

It has taken a year of complete rest and careful medical treatment to bring the lost voice back, but Miss Perce is again studying with Du Vivier, and several times has made public appearances in Chicago. Her voice has returned with all its old time purity and strength, and next season this promising young soprano will make her appearance in New York. But she will always be remembered as the singer who lost her voice for one complete year.

Miss Josephine Walton, a reader who has attracted much attention, is a typical southern woman and comes of colonial stock, being a descendant of one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

A New York woman is the proprietor and manager of the second largest brewery in the east, owns more saloons than any other woman in the world and resides in a palatial residence on Fifth avenue.

The happy ending of a pretty literary romance was the recent marriage of Donna Magda Stuart Sindici, the Italian authoress, and her London publisher, William Heinmann.

Four smart German girls have made four snug little fortunes in Dawson City by washing, not gold from the placer diggings, but miners' shirts.

Miss Bessie Potter, a woman sculptor who is quite the rage in Chicago, has lately produced a statuette of Susan B. Anthony, which is pronounced by critics the best portrait of the great suffragist extant.

At a recent meeting of women in New York to protest against the encroachments of a railroad company upon the public highway one of the most effective and eloquent speakers was Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch, a daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton.

So often do publishers reject the manuscripts of books of real merit from unknown authors that an exception is notable. Such an exception was the case of Miss Mary Johnston of Alabama, who, heretofore unknown, submitted her "Prisoners of Hope" to the publishers, by whom it was accepted purely on its merits, and the subsequent popularity of the book showed the accuracy of their judgment.

Boston is to have a handsome new hotel, to be known as Homestead Court, for the exclusive use of women wage earners.

Mrs. William McKinley, who delights in dainty and beautiful laces, of which she has a large and rare collection, has lately received from Mme. Aceval, wife of the president of Paraguay, as "a little token of esteem and admiration," several pieces of exquisite lace wrought by Paraguayan women.

Miss Christine Bradley, daughter of Kentucky's governor, is studying law with the purpose of assisting her father in his law practice when he retires from the governorship.

Ranavalona III, the deposed queen of Madagascar, is well nigh heartbroken because the French authorities have sent her into exile in Algiers without giving her an opportunity to see the glories of Paris.

The next royal marriage is likely to be that of Princess Victoria, second daughter of the Prince of Wales, and Prince George, the second son of King George of Greece.

Local-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Preußen.

Provinz Brandenburg.

Berlin. Demnächst wird eine neue Schnellzugverbindung zwischen hier und Konstantinopel über Breslau, Krakau, Czernowitz, Buzen (Rumänien), Constanza und von dort zu Schiff nach Konstantinopel geschaffen. Die Fahrzeit wird 44 bis 45 Stunden betragen.—Der bekannte Schauspieler Hermann Müller, auch Müller-Hanno genannt, vom hiesigen Deutschen Theater, hat sich erschossen aus Verzweiflung über ein nervöses Leiden, an dem er seit Jahren litt und das ihn auch schon mit der Polizei in Konflikt gebracht hatte. Er war für die nächste Saison vom Deutschen Theater weg an's Burgtheater engagirt.—Die Korporation der hiesigen Kaufmannschaft beabsichtigt, die jetzt unter Leitung des Handelsministeriums stehenden kaufmännischen Fortbildungsschulen selbst und auf eigene Kosten zu übernehmen.—Auf dem Auswandererbahnhof Ruhleben ist eine russische Familie, die sich auf dem Wege nach Südamerika befand, isolirt worden, weil ein Kind an den Blattern erkrankte.

Charlottenburg. Hier ist Rabbiner Dr. Kroner, der seit 1897 am hiesigen Reformgymnasium als Lehrer wirkt, zur Ertheilung des jüdischen Religionsunterrichts an sämmtlichen höheren Lehranstalten der Stadt vom Magistrat berufen worden.

Forst. Dieser Tage brach in der Morgenfrühe in dem Fabrikatablissement von Julius Franz Feuer aus, das in wenigen Minuten das vierstöckige, vor zehn Jahren neu erbaute massive Gebäude in einen Trümmerhaufen verwandelte. Es konnte nichts gerettet werden. Die Fabrikarbeiter flüchteten auf der außen am Gebäude angebrachten eisernen Leiter, da der Treppenthurm sofort von den Flammen ergriffen war.

Spandau. In Folge der zahlreichen Explosionen in französischen Pulvermagazinen sind die Wachtposten an den Pulvermagazinen in Nieder-Neuendorf und hier selbst verstärkt worden.

Provinz Hannover.

Hannover. Kunsthandwerker Rischmüller, als Anarchist bekannt, welcher die städtische Kunstgewerbeschule besuchte, wurde auf Magistratsbeschluß vom Besuch des Instituts ausgeschlossen. Das Anerbieten Rischmüllers, Lehrgeld zahlen zu wollen, wurde zurückgewiesen.

Göttingen. Die städtischen Kollegien haben die Verpflichtung übernommen, daß auf ewige Zeiten am Abend dessl. April durch Beleuchtung des Thurmes und durch Kanonenschüsse vom Hainberge an den Geburtstag des Fürsten Bismarck erinnert werden soll. Unzählige Zuschauer hatten sich zu der diesjährigen Illumination eingefunden.

Provinz Hessen-Nassau.

Frankfurt. Im hiesigen Siechenhause starb der bekannte Bandwurmdoktor Richard Mohrmann. Mohrmann, der unzählige Male wegen Kurpfuscherei bestraft worden war, hielt es vor einigen Jahren für angebracht, sich auf einige Zeit nach Amerika zurückzuziehen. In New York fanden seine Bandwurmkuren jedoch keinen Anklang und so kehrte er nach Europa zurück. Bald darauf stand er wieder, der Kurpfuscherei beschuldigt, vor der Strafkammer dahier und wurde während der Sitzung von einem Schlaganfall betroffen, von dem er sich nie wieder recht erholte.

Schmalkalden. Zur Nachtzeit brannte das dem Agenten Reinhardt gehörige dreistöckige Haus hier auf dem Lutherplatz, in welchem sich das Waarenhaus von Otto Margraf befand, vollständig nieder. In Folge dringenden Verdachtes der Brandstiftung wurde der Kaufmann O. Margraf sofort zur Wache gebracht. Die Frau des Verhafteten konnte nur mit Mühe aus dem zweiten Stock des brennenden Gebäudes über Leitern gerettet werden.

Provinz Pommern.

Cöslin. In dem Dorfe Schmolhin, dessen Bewohner zum großen Theil vom Lachsfang leben, sind der Fischmeister Gronisch und zwei seiner Gehilfen ertrunken.

Stralsund. Verhaftet wurde auf Rügen Graf Friedrich Hohenthal, der 1897 wegen Mißhandlung eines Bahnwärters im Grunewald zwei Monate Gefängniß erhalten, vor Strafantritt aber geflohen war und steckbrieflich verfolgt wurde. Er hatte sich auf Rügen verborgen gehalten. Jetzt verbüßt er hier seine Strafe.

Provinz Posen.

Posen. Das Schwurgericht verurtheilte den Knecht Krufzona aus Zabno bei Moschin, der am 5. Januar den Vogt Szoßtak erschlagen hat, wegen Todtschlag zu 7 Jahre Zuchthaus; der Knecht Sikorski erhielt 2 Jahre Gefängniß, der Knecht Kolafinski 3½ Jahre Zuchthaus. Die Beiden hatten Beihilfe geleistet.

Bromberg. Die sechste posen'sche Geflügelausstellung, mit 2400 Thieren beschickt, hat dieser Tage hier stattgefunden und verzeichnete einen außerordentlich starken Besuch.

H. E. Gayle. 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO

(B)
AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED
Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

A Bold Move In
Parlor Suits
Without an Equal in the History of This House!
Even that great 3rd floor of ours doesn't begin to hold 'em all. The Parlor
Suit Like Cut, $19.75— $30 usually.

Carved mahogany-finish frame—green Roman plush, embroidered backs, elegant and striking. Others at even greater price-drops.
Full overstuff tapestry covering, tops tufted and corded.
At $45.50, was $65.
Again, inlaid, mahogany-finish frame, Roman plush covering.
At $50, was $75.
And—striped Silk Damask Suit, mahogany frame, piano polish—at $75—was $125.
Another—having Turkish backs, full overstuffed—heavy fringe, for $90—was $175.

Bedroom Suits
—A great crash in their prices, too.
For $10.98—a $14 Suit.
Antique oak finish, well constructed, nice looking.
For $14.98—a $20 Suit.
24x30 mirror, all new in shape and make-up.
For $55—a $75 Suit.
Elegant—in curly birch—superbly carved. Fully 300 other suits at lowest prices ever put on record.
Carpets—All in
This season's loveliest colors and patterns—thousands of rolls—prices that NO other store can touch, they're so low.
Go-Carts—$2.49
And up—biggest line in all this city. Baby Carriages, too—$3.48 up.
SWEEPING REDUCTIONS ON SIDEBOARDS AND EXTENSION TABLES.
The Portland Range—and the Domestic Sewing Machine—2 good things.
Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St., Near Plane St., Newark, N. J.
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS.
Note first name "Amos."
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.
CARFARE PAID TO OUT-OF-TOWN BUYERS.
A Private Delivery Wagon Sent on Request.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
—DEALERS IN—
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

SPECIAL SALE.
We will sell skirts and suits of our own make for this week at a price that will require no brass band to sell. An examination of our goods is all that is necessary. Ladies, as a rule know where and when to buy. Our prices are lower than the lowest. For fit and make there are no equal in town. Call and inspect our stock.
Cloos & Richardson. LADIES' TAILORS, 326 W. FRONT ST

SPRING HATS,
SPRING NECKTIES.
SPRING SHIRTS
AT
JAMES R. BLAIR'S,
126 PARK AVENUE.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER.
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phoenix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life
Telephone No. 672.

COAL
C is for coal, clean, cheery and cheap.
O is the order to lay in a heap.
A is the atmosphere warmed by its glow.
L is the light that starts it to go, and to get the best coal buy of Stevens & Co.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.
THE DELINEATOR AND GLASS OF FASHION
For April Now Ready. Ask for the April Fashion Sheet.
Subscriptions taken.
A. L. & M. D. GORSLINE.
144 PARK AVE. PLAINFIELD, N. J.

5,000 FEET OF
MOULDINGS IN GILT AND HARD WOOD
Bring Your Pictures and Have Them Framed
At the PLAINFIELD ART GALLERY, Y. M. C. A. Building

Jersey Poultry
is the specialty of
SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue
Have you tried their
SAUSAGE
It is the best made in
PLAINFIELD

Elston M. French & Co.
Successors to VanBuren Bros.
Real Estate and Insurance.
Largest agency in the city. Loans negotiated.
163 NORTH AVENUE.
Opposite Depot

H. Eggerding,
121 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall Streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 20th, 1898.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 8 28, 7 00, 7 26, 7 50, 7 56, 8 00, 8 12, 8 30, 8 37, 8 48, 9 35, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 00, 1 15, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 54, 5 37, 6 04, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 00, 7 20, 8 45, 9 15, 10 17, 11 28 p. m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 59, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10, a. m.; 12 m., 12 58, 1 45, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 12, 8 52, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

Leave New York, foot Liberty St. at 4 00, 4 30, 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00 a. m.; 12 00 m., 1 00, 1 30, 2 00, 3 00, 3 45, 4 00, 4 40, 5 00, 5 15, 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 30, 11 45 p. m. 12 15, 1 00 night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 00, 9 00, 9 15 a. m.; 12 m.; 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 7 30, 9 00, 10 00 p. m.; 12 15 night; 1 00 a. m.

Leave New York South Ferry from Whitehall St. at 7 10, 7 55, 8 35, 9 05, 9 55, 11 55 a. m., 12 55, 1 25, 1 28, 3 25, 3 35, 3 55, 4 35, 4 55, 5 25, 5 55, 6 10, 6 25, 6 55, 7 25, 7 40, 8 10, 9 10, 9 55, 11 40 p. m., 12 10 night. Sundays—At 6 55, 8 55 a. m., 12 00 m., 12 55, 1 25, 3 55, 6 40, 7 25, 8 55, 9 55 p. m., 12 10 night.

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 37, 6 29, 7 00, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 35, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 1 15, 2 12, 3 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 54, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 8 45, 10 17, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 32, 10 22 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 30, 8 05, 8 38, 9 03, 10 05 a. m.; 12 10, 1 05, 1 35, 2 40, 3 35, 4 02, 4 40, 5 04, 5 45, 6 19, 7 35, 8 10, 9 35, 10 05, 11 26 p. m. Sunday, 7 15, 9 05, 11 35 a. m.; 1 10, 2 45, 4 05, 5 55, 7 35, 9 15, 10 15 p. m.

Passengers for Newark please change car Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00 m., 1 01, 2 11, 2 27, 3 32, 4 35, 5 09, 5 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 9 26, 11 29 p. m: 12 44 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 06, 8 55, a.m: 2 08, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 16, 11 14 p.m

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7, 7 27, 7 38, 7 45, 8 20, 9 15, 9 35, 10 15, 11 45, a. m: 12 30, 1 53, 2 07, 3 20, 4 30, 5 28, 6 05, 6 08, 6 45, 8 22, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 45 a. m: 12 35, 1 20, 5 18, 6 27, 7 53, 8 05, 8 45, 10 00 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m., 1 01, 2 11, 5 25, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 6 06 a. m; 2 08, 6 35 p. m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 01, 8 15, a. m: 12 36, 4 10, 5 10, 7 17, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 11 22 a. m, 4 39 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield 7 12 a. m: 5 25 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R R., Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c., with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

1 01 p. m. way for Easton, German Valley and Chester, connecting at Junction for station on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 27 p. m. For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamanqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton, with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

5 25 p. m., for Flemington and Easton connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For German Valley and Chester, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Easton.

2 09 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley and Flanders, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc., and at Junction for D. L. & W R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 5 37, (5 37 for Sea Girt) 8 13, 10:37 a. m.; 3 46, 6 21 p. m. Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 5 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 35, 10:37 a. m.; 1 15, 3 46, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 9 37 a. m.; 1 15 p m.

For Freehold, 5 37, 8 13, 10:37 a. m.; 1 15, 3 46, 6 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat 5 37, 8 13 9 58 (Lakewood only) a.m., 1 15, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 29, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, 5 34*, 6 38*, 8 21 p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a.m.; 2 16, 4 55, 5 09*, 6 35* p m.; 1 17 night

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 29, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, 5 34*, 6 38* 8 21, p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, 5 09*, 6 35* p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 5 34*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a.m; 2 16, 5 09*, 6 35* p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m; 6 38 p m. Sundays 6 38 p m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.
H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent

LEHIGH VALLEY RAILROAD

Time table in effect Feb. 5, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

WESTWARD.

8 05 a. m. daily, 6 25 a 26 p. m. daily except Sundays. Easton local.

6 25 p. m. Sunday evening local for Mauch Chunk.

9 03 a. m. daily; Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

11 52 a. m., 5 22 and 9 43 p. m. daily except Sunday. Local for Bound Brook.

12 52 p. m. daily except Sunday "Black Diamond Express" for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

2 04 p. m. daily local for Easton and Wilkes Barre.

4 58 p. m. daily except Sunday, express for Wilkes Barre, Scranton, Pottsville, Hazleton Shamokin, L. & B. Junction and principal intermediate stations.

7 03 and 9 22 p. m. daily, solid vestibule express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

9 02 p. m. Daily express for Easton, Bethlehem, Mauch Chunk, Sayre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge, carries sleeping car passengers only, and no baggage east of Buffalo.

EASTWARD.

For New York and Brooklyn local 6 49, 7 40 and 9 40 a. m., 3 04 and 5 18 p. m. daily except Sunday. Sunday 10 29 a.m., and 6 04 p.m. Express 7 46, 9 14, 10 09 a.m., 12 15, 2 50, 5 10, 7 07 and 9 06 p. m. daily except Sunday. Sunday 7 06, 8 14 a.m., 2 50 and 7 07 p. m.

PERTH AMBOY BRANCH.

For Perth Amboy and intermediate stations 8 12 10 08 a. m., 5 22 and 7 23 p. m. daily except Sundays. Sunday 10 29 a. m. and 7 06 p. m.

Trains leave Perth Amboy (State street) 7 18, 8 35 a. m., 4 30 and 6 35 p. m., daily except Sunday. Sunday 7:13 a. m. and 5 42 p. m.

For further information call on or address the Ticket Agent, South Plainfield, N. J. Through tickets to all important western points may be purchased at the South Plainfield office.

Col. BOLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
S. Bethlehem, Pa.

CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent
26 Cortlandt St., N. Y City.

NEW YORK TERMINALS—Foot of Cortlandt Deshrosses and West 23d streets.

[Copyright, 1899, by F. Tennyson Neely.]

[CONTINUED.]

CHAPTER XIX.

A pleasant welcome awaited Mr. Walter Loring of the engineers when he opened his office and got settled down to work at his new station. Here was a commanding general who knew something of his past, whose nephew was with him at the Point, and one at least of whose aids had found reason to respect him highly, even though they had differed as to the site for the new post, and the engineer had seemed to take far more kindly to the companionship of an unheard of sub in the cavalry than he did to the society of two men so distinguished in the department as Major Burleigh, depot quartermaster at Gate City, and Brevet Captain Omaha Stone, the aid in question.

Burleigh had surprised the aid by a display of great interest in and an impatience to meet the newcomer, who had hurried out from Omaha with not a day's delay, and who overtook them at Fort Frayne after riding by night through the mountainous region of the Medicine Bow, with only a single trooper as attendant and escort. Burleigh had been oddly inquisitive, thought Stone, and had plied the taciturn engineer with question after question about officers whom he knew and matters he seemed to know along the Pacific slope. Mr. Loring was evidently a bit surprised, yet replied courteously, though very briefly. Burleigh did all the talking the first day's drive in the big ambulance over the rolling open prairies north of the Platte, giving Stone no chance at all.

He enlivened the occasion and relieved the tedium of the journey with anecdotes of the general whose command Loring had recently left, and Strain, his chief of staff, and Petty—"that dashed fool Petty," he called him—and Burleigh had nothing good to tell of any of them, and much that was derisive, if not detrimental, of all. Loring listened with neither assent nor dissent, as a rule, though when appealed to he said he had no opportunity to study the characteristics, as described by Burleigh, as he had spent most of his short service there surveying in Arizona, and saw little and knew less of the officials in San Francisco. One man of whom Burleigh spoke with regard and regret was stanch old Turnbull, whose sad death by drowning in the surf off Pinos the quartermaster referred to several times. He seemed familiar, too, with the story of Loring's conduct the night of the collision at sea and the sinking of the Idaho and referred to that more than once in terms of commendation. They stopped for luncheon and to bait the mules and to give the cavalry escort a brief respite, and it was after this that Burleigh, as though suddenly reminded of something, began:

"I don't know what made me think of it unless it was Stone's speaking of New Orleans a moment ago, but did you meet a long legged fellow named Blake in Arizona? I knew the girl that drove him out there. One winter she was in New Orleans while her father was commanding the monitors moored at Algiers—Miss Torrence. Saw her afterward in New York. She married old Granger, you know." Granger was about Burleigh's age, but Burleigh was a widower and desirous of being considered young. And Stone wondered why Loring should look disquieted if not embarrassed.

"I met Blake, yes," was, however, his prompt reply.

"How's he standing it? He was a good deal cut up at first. They were to have been married last summer. He was regularly engaged to her and never knew she'd thrown him over until he met Granger in St. Louis."

Then Loring did a thing they both noted was unlike him. Ordinarily he listened courteously until the question was finished. This time he broke in:

"Blake is in his element doing cavalry duty. We had a lively chase together after an officer who was deserting to Mexico."

"So you did," said Burleigh, with interest. "I remember hearing of it. You were on his escort, weren't you? Why, what was the fellow's name? I remember having met him in New Orleans, too, when I read the order to the court. Let's see. You were judge advocate, weren't you?"

"Yes. And his name was Nevins."

"Ah, yes! Dismissed, I believe. What ever became of him? There was a rumor that he had died."

"So the consul at Guaymas reported," was Loring's brief reply.

"Well, was it never settled? Wasn't it proved in some way? I heard a story that his wife had followed him out there. She was a dashed sight better lot than he was. I met her more than once in New Orleans. She came of good family, but she was stranded down there by the war. They say she had a younger sister who bled her to death—a girl she was educating. I remember Nevins told me something about her. That fellow had some good points, do you know, Loring? He behaved first rate during the fever epidemic—nursed more'n one fellow through. He said that that sister was a beauty and selfish to the core, and he wished to God she'd marry some rich man and let them alone. Didn't you—didn't I hear that they were out there and that he made some dramatic scene before the court and sent his wife his valuables or something of that kind?"

Loring was slowly reddening. He more than half believed that Burleigh had heard the story set afloat by the gossips in San Francisco and was trying to draw him out. His tone, therefore, was cold and his answer brief.

"They were there, but I never saw them. Pardon me, major, your rifle is slipping." And, leaning forward, the engineer straightened up the endangered weapon and braced it with his foot. "A dreary landscape this," he added,

Yet it was of this very matter the engineer was thinking.

glancing out at the barren stretches of rolling prairie extending to the horizon.

"Very. All like this till you get over toward the mountains. Then it's fine. But, isn't it really believed out there that Nevins is dead? What became of his wife?"

"She went back to New Orleans, I was told. If Nevins isn't dead, he at least hadn't been heard of up to the time I left."

And several times again that long afternoon did Burleigh return to the charge and speak of Nevins, and more than once during the busy days that followed, but by the time they started on their return he had probably concluded that Loring really knew no more about him, and once or twice, when Blake and his love affairs were mentioned, Loring seemed unwilling to hear. Stone pondered over it not a little before they got to Reno, on the back track, and there it was that Burleigh had demanded to be sent right on to Frayne, despite fatigue, for something had come to him in this mail that filled him with dismay, as the major commanding told them a dozen times over. Moreover, Mr. Omaha Stone became gradually convinced that Loring was in partial possession of the secret of Burleigh's stampede. Unless Stone was utterly in error Loring had seen somewhere before the handwriting of the superscription of the envelope Burleigh had dropped in his nerveless collapse. But Stone might as well have cross questioned the sphinx. Loring would admit nothing.

Yet it was of this very matter the engineer was thinking one soft, still evening soon after his return to department headquarters. His boxes had just arrived. He had found a fairly comfortable room away from the turbulent section of the new and bustling town, and equally distant from the domicile of Stone and his particular set. Loring never gambled and took little interest in cards. He was still "taking his rations" at the hotel, but much disliked it, and was seriously thinking of seeking board in some private family. The barracks were too far out and the roads deep in mud, or he would have lived and "messed" out there. The few boarding houses were crowded, and with an uncongenial lot as a rule. Private families that took two or three table boarders were very few, but some one suggested his going to see the rector of the new parish, himself a recent arrival.

The sun had gone down behind the high bluffs at the back of the straggling frontier town. The plank sidewalks were thronged in the neighborhood of the hotel with picturesque loungers as the young officer made his way westward and soon reached the outlying, unpaved, deep rutted cross streets. He readily found the rector, a kindly, gentle mannered widower, whose sister had come to keep house for him, and never before had either of them lived in a community so utterly primitive, if not uncouth. It was plain to be seen that he was a southerner, and in the joy of a few minutes' conversation with a young man, whose language and manners bespoke the gentleman, Mr. Lambert speedily made known to him that his health had suffered in New Orleans and his physicians had insisted on total change of climate, and the great northwest was a new, untrodden field for the sons of the cross, of his sect at least.

He had read with admiration of the missionary work accomplished among the savage Indians by the church of Rome, but there were heathen rather more intractable than they, said he, with a sigh. Mr. Loring was sympathetic, but already informed on that point. What he wished to learn was—did the rector know of any family among his parishioners at whose table he could find his daily bread for a reasonable consideration? Loring, as has been seen, was a man to whom the converse of his fellow men, as found upon our frontier, was neither edifying nor improving. He preferred the society of his own thoughts. The rector, the general (Colonel Newcome, it will be remembered, always accorded the head of column to the church), the adjutant general of the new department and one solitary subaltern of cavalry were the only men he had met since reporting at Omaha whom he found really congenial. But, then, it must be remembered that it was the early summer and the troops were all afield.

The rector brought the tips of his fingers together and bowed his gray head, his characteristic attitude in reflection and repose. Yes, he knew of one, a woman widowed but a year ago, who was striving to keep her home by taking boarders and who perhaps could find room for him at her table. Already she had given shelter to a most estimable woman, a widow like herself, a woman of many sorrows whom he had well known during the troublous days in New Orleans, a gentlewoman, he might say, whose birth and breeding were apparent to the most casual observer, a Mrs. Fletcher, who had come to him for advice, and who, through his recommendation gladly given, had recently gone to a good position—a lucrative position—and a home at Gate City.

Loring was politely interested. But could the rector direct him to the house? He would call at once and make inquiries. The rector could of course, but he was aging, and he loved a listener. He hated to let a hearer go. Might he ask if Mr. Loring was any connection of the general of that name so conspicuous in the service of the south in the defense of their beloved old creole city before the hapless days of Butler, though he must concede to General Butler that his vigorous administration of municipal affairs had cleansed and quarantined the city as they had never seen it done before? The similarity of name had suggested the—

"None whatever that I know of," said Loring, finding it necessary to interpose. "And where is Mrs. Fletcher's?"

"Ah, to be sure! Mrs. Fletcher is the name of the lady who boarded there awhile, but she has gone to Gate City. Mrs. Burton it is—a worthy soul. Perhaps indeed I think a breath of air will do me good. I might walk around there with you."

So despite the remonstrance in his sister's eyes and Loring's respectful protest the rector got his hat and linked his arm in that of the young athlete on his left and led forth into the gloaming, prattling all the way. Soon they reached the cross street that led northward, parallel with the bluff line at the west, and against the twilight of the northern sky, the scattered houses, the few straggling saplings hopefully planted along the gutter, even the silhouetted figure of a long legged dog trotting across the road, were outlined sharp and clear, black against a lemon sky that shaded away imperceptibly into a faint violet. Long years after Loring could see the picture, and how, right in the midst of it, there rose slowly into view two black dots, the heads evidently of two pedestrians like themselves ascending from the north, with the whole wide Missouri valley at their backs, the pathway he and his genially chatting conductor were threading from the south, with only this gentle rise between, then perhaps 50 yards away.

It was interesting to the engineer to watch the gradual development of the shadows against the sky, coming slowly into view as the fairies rise to sweet, thrilling melody from underneath the stage in the transformation scene of the last act of the pantomime and spectacular drama beloved of our youth. Courteously inclining his ear to the monologue at his right, he kept his keen eyes fixed upon those coming figures. Slowly they rose, one that of a slender, dapper young man, the other that of a slender, graceful girl, and the long arms of the former as they swung in sight were in energetic motion, in emphatic gesture. Little by little the murmur at Loring's right dulled over his senses. Little by little the slowly approaching figures sharpened and fixed themselves upon his sight, until when the pair could not have been more than 50 feet away the rector looked suddenly up in alarm as Loring halted short.

"My dear young friend, how thoughtless I am! Are you not well? What is wrong?"

A big wooden house in whose windows the lights were feebly shining stood just a few paces back of the fence, back of the gate where now the pair was standing, in low whispered talk, eager and impetuous on part of the man, doubtful and reluctant on part of the girl. Then the former became suddenly aware that two men were standing only a short distance away, observing.

The pair was standing, in low whispered talk.

"Then good night," he said. "You think it over." And without raising his hat he turned sharply and went striding back the way they came. Only one glance did Loring give that receding figure, but his eyes followed that of the girl, who skimmed lightly up the steps into the house, banging the door behind her.

The rector was clinging to his arm and looking into his face with much concern when Loring pulled himself together.

"This is Mrs. Burton's," said he. "Let us enter. Surely you need a glass of wine, or—water," he added vaguely.

"Thank you, Mr. Lambert, not—there. Let us turn about."

TO BE CONTINUED.

C. ARNOLD, 35 Somerset Street.

has an elegant display of

Genuine Spring Lamb,

JERSEY BROILERS AND POULTRY

of all kinds. It will do your heart good to inspect my stock before purchasing your Sunday dinner. 3 21 tf

Advertised Letters

Plainfield, N. J., April 3, 1899

Bellis Miss May	Lewis Mrs Lucy
Brown Mr A G	Moneton Mr George A
Brown Miss Margaret	Ellis Mr Sydney L
Barrel Mr Jacob	Falson Miss Julee Lina
Carter Miss Augusta	Reid Miss Emma
Campbell Mr R	Rieue Mr John
Cobb Mr J M	Rogers Mr E H
Howard Mr Walter	Scruggs Miss Sallie W
Green Mr William	Smith Mr W R
Hunter Mr	Sutton Mrs S P
Hurlburt Mr & Mrs A, 609 South street.	Wilson Miss Susie
	Work Mr Chas L

MISS JENKINS,

PARLOR MILLINERY

303 East Sixth Street

HURRAH! HURRAH! HURRAH!

Here we are, the largest and best equipped laundry in your state. We not only say this, but it is a positive fact. Our numerous laundries and branches are located in all the principal cities of the states of

NEW YORK, NEW JERSEY AND PENNSYLVANIA.

And can frankly say that the work turned out by each is appreciated by our numerous patrons. The introduction of

Our Celebrated Domestic Finish

has gained great fame. And still another great advantage is gained by your laundry coming to us, and that is, all your dress fronts bosoms are ironed by hand. Your collars and cuffs are turned and ironed in the proper way the manner intends them to be. Telephone or drop us a postal. Will call and deliver free of charge.

City Steam and Hand Laundry

19 SOMERSET ST.

TELEPHONE.

Morey & LaRue, Proprietors.

PLAINFIELD N. J.

A Double Bill

EASTER WEEK

Our Easter panel, "Innocence" given free to purchasers of teas, coffees, baking powder, etc A Lady's Rocker given to purchasers of one pound baking powder.

GRAND UNION TEA CO.

138 West Front street.

William Hand & Son,

STAGES

For Parties, etc. 518 Park avenue

McCullough's STEAM MILL.

Steiner place, North Plainfie

R. H. McCullough, Prop'r

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnishe

EUROPE, starting June 29, 69 days, 48 days or 41 days; English coaching, Holland, Germany, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, Paris. Experience, fourteen years. Particulars of HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS, Plainfield, N.J.

Leggett's

SYRUP WHITE PINE AND TAR

is growing more popular every day. Why? Because it is a simple, palatable, reliable

Cough Remedy.

Try it, is all we ask.

25c. a Bottle.

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

A GREAT OFFER

To the Public of Plainfield and vicinity by

CHARLES EISENBERG,

the well-known Painter, Paper Hanger and Decorator, who has opened a branch store

310 West Front Street,

(Stillman Building.)

I will paper any fair size room, ceiling and walls, with the latest designs of gilt papers, including sizing and repairing from $4 up.

I also carry the finest and largest assortment of imported and domestic wall papers and decorations. I do first-class work in tinting, kalsomining and inside and outside painting at reasonable prices. Call at the store or send a postal card, and I will call on you with sample books, and cheerfully give estimates. I guarantee first-class workmanship.

Yours truly,
Chas. Eisenberg.

Stores—310 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J.; 312 Main street, Orange, N. J.; 61 Springfield avenue, Newark, N. J.; Warehouse 10, 12, 14 and 16 Mercer street, Newark, N. J. Phone 1073 Plainfield. Open evenings until 9. Sample books to the trade.

E. D. BARRETT,

Sanitary Plumbing.

Steam and Hot Water Heating

Telephone 612. 148 East Fifth Street. 4 3 1m

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN

For a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 2c stamp for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. Leline & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance 209 North avenue.

Popperly Turns Nurse.

Popperly's wife was called away suddenly the other day at 9 in the morning, owing to the illness of her mother, and she was forced to leave Popperly, Jr., aged six months, in care of his father, who happened to be at home nursing a cold. The Popperly exchequer does not allow for the maintenance of a servant.

Mrs. Popperly went in such a hurry that she left no instructions as to the care of the infant, but she relied upon the horse sense of his papa.

At 7 o'clock in the evening she returned and found Popperly, haggard and pallid, holding a rather shop-worn baby in his lap. It's little chest was heaving and it had evidently just sobbed itself to sleep.

"Tired out, dearie?" asked Mrs. Popperly. "What sort of day have you had, love, and how is my little tunnin' one?"

"Well, I can't answer for 'tunnin' one,' but papa has had the merriest kind of a time ever since you left.

"Along about 11 baby seemed hungry, and so I foraged around for food and fed him; but he didn't let up yelling all the afternoon, and he's just cried himself to sleep."

"Poor little thing! Probably you didn't heat the milk warm enough."

"Milk! I never thought of milk. I found some cold corned beef and bread and butter; and, as I say, I tried to feed him at noon, but he hasn't hungry, and so I thought I'd wait till you came home before doing it again, but I couldn't seem to quiet him a bit. Milk would have done it, wouldn't it?"

"George Popperly, the child ought to have had milk every two hours, and it's lacked it for ten——"

But George had fainted.

Her Big Brothers.

"Yes," said the principal of the young ladies' seminary to the proud parent, "you ought to be very happy, my dear sir, to be the father of so large a family, all the members of which appear to be so devoted to one another."

"Devoted! Large family!" gasped the old gentleman in amazement. "What on earth do you mean, ma'am?"

"Why, yes, indeed," said the principal, beaming through her glasses. "No fewer than eleven of Gussie's brothers have been here this term to take her out, and she tells me she expects the tall one with the blue eyes again to-morrow.—London Tit-Bits."

It Wasn't Like Her.

Husband—What's that you are reading?

Wife—It's a letter from mother.

Husband—And what does she say?

Wife—Oh, not much of anything.

Husband—You are trying to deceive me. It's a cold day when your mother hasn't much to say.—Chicago News.

Science Knows No Limit.

Some one has made a pair of scales which will give you the exact weight of an eyelash. If you place in the one balance a piece of plain paper and in the other a similar piece, but with an autograph on it in lead pencil or ink, the scales will instantly show the difference in weight.—Tid-Bits.

Too Obliging.

Reporter—That fellow who wanted his name kept out of the paper called in to-day. Oh, he was mad!

Editor—What about?

Reporter—It seems we kept it out.—Roxbury Gazette.

NEW YORK CITY AND COUNTRY WORK A SPECIALTY. | Satisfaction guaranteed. Stages to hire.

OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

F. A. LONG,

No. 108 SOMERSET ST.
Near Manning Avenue.

Up-to-Date Cash Grocery Store

Orders called for and delivered in any part City or Dunellen.

ARLINGTON HOTEL.

(Splendid Mountain View.)

SOMERSET ST. AND GREENBROOK ROAD.

Charles Jensen, Prop'r.

First class bar. Large parlor with piano for parties, receptions etc. Stable and shed accommodations.

Mrs. John Brown

Successor to

JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned

FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.

Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.

FRANK BURKE, Manager.

BICYCLES BICYCLES

George Gould,

AGENT FOR

VICTOR, PATEE, WAVERLY, IVANHOE and NASSAU SPECIAL

Rents, Repairs, Sundries and Storage.

326 PARK AVENUE.

CLIFTON BUILDING.

Flynn Bros.,

SHOE DEALERS,

222 WEST FRONT STREET,

Near Music Hall,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods

Have stood the test for years.

LAIRE'S

SPRING AND SEASONABLE GOODS.

Garden Wheel Barrows.
Garden Tools, all kinds.
Garden Seeds, all varieties.
Lawn Seed.
Lawn Dressing.
Fertilizers, all kinds.
Lawn Rakes.
Ask to see the finest family scale made, for $1.50.

TELEPHONE CALL 682.

THE J. P. LAIRE HARDWARE CO.

WASHINGTON

VIA

OLD POINT COMFORT

is the most attractive short trip at this season of the year.

STEAMSHIPS OF THE OLD DOMINION LINE

PERFORM DAILY SERVICE.

Through tickets returning from Washington by rail or water.

[For full information apply to]
OLD DOMINION S. S. COMPANY,
[Pier 26, North River, NEW YORK.
W. L. Guillaudeu Vice-Pres.,
[& Traffic Mgr.

10-26 1Yw

Ladies Desiring . . .
KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING
done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 6 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL,
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

L. MORALLER & SON

Watchmakers and Jewelers

HAVE REMOVED TO 219 PARK AVE.

Next to Armstrong's Drug Store. 3 16 1m

COLLIER,

SCIENTIFIC OPTICIAN.

Established 1869.

103 Park Avenue

Your Valuables,

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

HENRY J. WIERENGA,

Furniture and Freight Express.

Prompt attention given to all orders left at Clark's Drug Store 128 Park avenue. 10 1 1y

E. S. F. RANDOLPH,

DRUGGIST,

Cor. Liberty and Fourth Sts. Telephone 711.

PRESCRIPTIONS FILLED DAY OR NIGHT.

H. HAND,

Licensed Auctioneer.

OFFICE—Corner South Ave. and Berckman St.

REAL ESTATE and FIRE INSURANCE.

11 16 1m

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD

CURRENT ATTRACTIONS THAT PLAINFIELDERS MAY WITNESS.

Local and Metropolitan Performances That Will Please Those Who Delight in the Art of Thespis and Mimic World.

The stage hands of Music Hall benefit tonight, by a performance of the greatest of all farce comedy success, "Natural Gas," in which Eddie Girard of the famous Donnelly & Girard firm, appears in his original character of O'Rourke, the policeman, supported by an unequalled cast of players. Those who have not witnessed it have a rare treat in store. "Natural Gas" deals with the topic of speculation, funny in the extreme—the efforts of one Christopher Bluff to conduct a bogus natural gas exchange in New York City, and the numberous complications that are brought about by Whirlon O'Rourke, the copper; Nois E. Howell, the actor; Kitty Maloni, Jimpsey and others, forms a series of characters to whom happen laughable incidents not found in other farce comedies. There are no long explanations leading up to situations, which are so painful in many farces. New and brilliant specialties are introduced and particular attention has been paid to the costuming and staging. Everything in Mr. Girard's production is new and up-to date. Several new bits of business and dialogue have been written into the piece this season, and everything, while being extremely funny, is clean and refined.

* * * * *

The company now playing Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett's beautiful play, "Little Lord Fauntleroy," and which will be seen at Music Hall Saturday matinee and evening, is an excellent one in all respects. There are two astonishingly clever actors among them, they being the two Smedley children, Edwin and Ellis. They are only seven and eight years of age, still they take the leading role in the play, and when it is stated that the part is one of the longest ever written, it is remarkable. The part is so long and so very difficult that the boys have to alternate in it. The strain is such that it is impossible to have one of them play twice in succession. It is utterly impossible to tell one from the other, so near are they alike. There have been many children appear as "Little Lord Fauntleroy," but it was never thought possible that children so young could succeed in studying and playing the part. Those that have seen them say that they are remarkable, and it should be a treat to witness their performance.

Value of Unremitting Advertising.

A well-known member of a New York publishing house, in an interesting talk on advertising matters recently, told the following incidents, which shows how familiar the general reading public may become with an advertising trade-mark, when it is used with unremitting vigor:

"I went to the Riviera last winter, and on the homeward passage, coming out of the Mediterranean, I suddenly thought of passing the Rock of Gibraltar. It was a beautiful moonlight night, and quite a party of Americans gathered on the deck to see if the fortress really did look like the Prudential advertisement. We got a splendid view, and the illustration in the advertisement is very like the real thing. We were all a little disappointed however, that we didn't see 'The Prudential has the Strength of Gibraltar' on the side of the rock, but I presume Her Majesty's Government objected."

Doubtless The Prudential Insurance Company has never requested such permission but it is evident that the rock and its world-famed fortress has been of vast benefit to that Company in its extensive advertising operations.

Constable Moffett's Sister Dead.

Constable Amos Moffett and former Councilman E. D. Moffett attended the funeral of Constable Moffett's sister, Mrs. Eliza Tilton, yesterday, who died at her home in Trenton early this week. Mrs. Tilton was 81 years of age, and was buried from her late home, 501 New street, that city.

—Perseverance Lodge, No. 102, K. of P., will hold an important meeting tomorrow night.

HABIT

is a tyrant! The habit of throwing aside soiled or faded suits or dresses is an extravagant one, when, for so little money, we can by cleaning or dyeing, making them almost, if not, quite as good as new.

HILLIER & CO.,

129 West Front Street,
Opposite White's. 'Phone 851.

SPANISH PRIZES PASS

TWO CAPTURED GUNBOATS AT BOUND BROOK LAST NIGHT.

Were Enroute to New York by Way of Delaware and Raritan Canal—Two of the Crew Came to Plainfield

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Bound Brook, April 6—Bound Brook had the unique experience for an inland town last evening of entertaining two Spanish gunboats. The Stars and Stripes floated over both of them, however. They were the Sandoval, commanded by Lieutenant E. A. Anderson, and the Alvarado, under the command of Lieutenant Stick.

The gunboats were captured in Cuban waters at the surrender of Santiago and sent to this country They left Washington Monday morning and reached Philadelphia Tuesday night. Yesterday they steamed up the Delaware to Bordentown and then took the Delaware and Raritan canal They reached Bound Brook last night at 6 o'clock and put up at a wharf for the night. This morning they left for New York.

The Alvarado has a rapid-fire one-pounder in the bow and a rapid fire six pounder in the stern. The Sandoval is unarmed. Each gunboat is manned by twenty-three jackies of the U. S. navy. The boats attracted much attention from the townsfolk as soon as their arrival was known Lieutenant Anderson's executive officer is Naval Cadet Evans, son of "Fighting Bob" Evans.

Chief Boatswain's Mate Clausen, who was with Hobson on the Merrimac, and Seaman Joseph Culiton, of Newark, both of the crew of the gunboat Sandoval, came to Plainfield last evening and took in the Red Men's fair. They were lionized by the guests the property of the old Gazelle Company. Hose Company No. 2 gets what once was under the care of the old No. 2 Engine Company. Hose Company No 3 is the successor of the Alert Hose Company. The Hook and Ladder Company No. 1 follows in the foot steps of the old Zephyr Company. The Engine Company No 1 hasn't any predecesser but looks after the chemical engine. This last company, by the way, does not seem likely to exisit at the start for there isn't any appropriation to pay the salary for its "call" men. It will probably be under the charge of the regular paid men in headquarters.

THE NEW CALL SYSTEM

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help, but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion build up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by L. W. Randolph, druggist. Guaranteed.

Librarian's Report for March, 1899.

Vols. on Accession-Book, Feb. 28, 1899	16,079
" added by Purchase	17
" added by Gift	3
" now in Library	16,099
" in Babcock Collection, Feb. 28, 1899	1,173
" now in Babcock Collection	1,174
Total number in Library	17,273
Number of card holders, Feb. 28, 1899	5,411
" " " registered during the month	82
Total number of reg. borrowers	5,447

HOME CIRCULATION.

F	Fiction	1,996
J	Juvenile	787
B	Biography	221
100	Philosophy	11
200	Religion, etc	50
300	Sociology	80
400	Philology	4
500	Natural Science	136
600	Useful Arts	63
700	Fine Arts	82
800	Literature	266
910-919	Description, Travel	244
900	History	248
000	General Works, Periodicals, etc	35
	Total circulation	4,174

Of the above number there were circulated through the special libraries:

Pond Machine Tool Works	10
Potter Press Works	80
Scott Press Works	29
	119
Delivery Stations.
Hope Chapel	19
Y. M. C. A.	35
	59
Special Collections, Circulation, Babcock	174
Number of Circulating Days	26
Largest Circulation in One Day	277
Smallest " " "	55
Daily Average Circulation	154x
Number of Visitors to the Building	4,754
" " Sunday Visitors, included in above	111

EMMA L. ADAMS, Librarian.

—The very life are the linings of dress—poor linings and poor fit go together. Peck is a lining specialist. He knows what is right and has it in stock for you.

To Cure a Cough in One Day
To Cure a Cold in One Day
To Cure Sore Throat in One Day
To Cure Hoarseness in One Day

Take Cleveland's Lung Healer, 25c. Trial size free. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenue.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders.

—Putnam & DeGraw specials are worth looking for in the advertising columns.

—Driver George Fiering, of the chemical engine, lost a pair of gloves while going to the fire Tuesday afternoon. He would be much obliged if the finder would return them to fire headquarters.

—Last Tuesday evening Horace J. Martin, Jr., of Jackson avenue, gave a "barn dance" to a number of his friends. There were many pleasing features about the affair that helped to pass an enjoyable evening.

—Fred Emerson Brooks says: "When I first heard Miss Cecelia Bradford I marveled at the sweet tones she produced from her violin, and I asked myself, 'Is it the violin or the violinist that has so much soul?' Wonderful instruments both and either a credit to its maker." The Cecelia Trio will appear in the concert at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday night.

M'CORMICK ESTATE INSOLVENT.

Creditors of the Late Judge to Receive About Half Their Claims.

(Special to The Daily Press)

Elizabeth, April 6—Lawyer T. M. Kelly yesterday filed papers with Judge Vail, in the Union County Court, showing that the estate of the late Judge Thomas F. McCormick is insolvent. Mr. McCormick committed suicide in September last by shooting himself on a grave in St. Mary's cemetery.

Mr. Kelly, in the papers, informed the Court that the estate was worth $20 000, and that the creditors would receive about fifty per cent. of their claims when the real estate is sold. It is to be advertised for sale next month.

When the former Judge ended his life it was said that worry over his financial affairs caused him to kill himself.

He Deserved No Clemency.

City Judge William N. Runyon was not inclined to look leniently on Howard Doty this morning when the latter appeared before the Judge as a prisoner, arrested on the charge of being drunk and disorderly. Doty had figured too prominently of late to suit the Judge, Last night it was alleged that he tried to start a disturbance at Washington Hall but was promptly prevented from doing anything desperate. He pleaded guilty and the Judge gave him until this afternoon to raise a fine of $5 or go to jail for ten days.

Burning Brush Becomes Dangerous.

Burning brush threatened the barn and stables of William H. Callahan, of 457 Woodland avenue, this morning. After the family and neighbors had fought the fire without success, an alarm was sent in from box 29, corner of Watchung and Woodland avenues, shortly after 1 o'clock by William Callahan. The fire department responded promptly but the danger was over and the fire had slackened.

Better Roads for Middlesex.

At a meeting of the Board of Freeholders of Middlesex county held yesterday morning the contract for laying the macadam road from Cranbury to Cranbury Station was awarded to R. A. Montgomery, of Lambertville, whose bid was the lowest, $7,650. This was the second letting of the contract. Montgomery's first bid was $1 204 more than the present contract price.

Parish Meeting Not Held.

Owing to the illness of J. M. Bettman, clerk of the Session, and E. M. Cave, an elder of the First Presbyterian church, the annual parish meeting was not held last evening. It will be held next week Wednesday evening.

Realty Changes.

The following real estate transfers have been recorded in the Somerset county Clerk's office during the past week: John Ross et ux to Charles P. Rider, North Plainfield, $1; John Ross et ux to Charles P. Rider, North Plainfield, $1.

Signed the Contract.

Patsy Christmas, the contractor, today signed the contract for installing a storm sewer in Park avenue. The work will be started in a few days.

James Day, of Liberty street, is ill.

John Nelson, of West Fourth street, has accepted a position at Pond's.

Mrs. A. M. Ross, Master Alexander and maid have gone to Atlantic City for two weeks.

John Barry, of West Second street, has left his position at the Pond Machine Tool Works.

Rev. Mr. Scudder, of Newark, has been visiting his father in-law, Justice Crossley, of the borough.

V. W. Nash, of Columbia Lodge, A. O. U. W., goes to Earnest Lodge, Elizabethport tonight to make a fraternal visit.

ROD AND GUN.

Marshal Frank Winn, of the borough, went duck hunting along the Passaic river last Monday and succeeded in capturing one large duck.

The Appetite of a Goat

Is envied by all poor dyspeptics whose Stomach and Liver are out of order. All such should know that Dr. King's New Life Pills, the wonderful Stomach and Liver Remedy, gives a splendid appetite, sound digestion and a regular bodily habit that insures perfect health and great energy. Only 25 cents at any Drug Store.

—Mrs. M. Blake, clairvoyant and card reader Your patronage solicited. 210 West Fourth street.

A. WILLETT & SON,

107 PARK AVENUE.

MEN'S TAN SHOES $3.00.

We pride ourselves on our $3.00 Tan Shoes this year.

Made in latest style and newest shades of Tan.

They are a fine wearing shoe upon which we can depend for future favors, and they will please the most fastidious.

Call and see them.
A pleasure to show.

Mrs. Grover Cleveland, at Princeton, N. J, said:

"Mr. Naylor, the carpet cleaning you did for me is entirely satisfactory."

A. F. Naylor,

Bedding Factory & Store,
'Phone 931 23 Somerset-st

SPRING CLEANING

will soon be here, and while cleaning up your homes do not forget to clean your system.

Hepburn's Blood Purifier

for the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys, will do this in a satisfactory manner. Money refunded if it don't do what is claimed for it We have made and sold it the same way for the past 14 years.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,
HEPBURN & CO.
Cor. Park Ave. and Second St. Telephone 671.

Putnam & De Graw.

SPECIALS FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

Ladies' 25c fast black Hose, for 19c
Children's fast black Hose, 10c—3 for 25c.
Childr n's fast black Hose, 15c—2 for 25c.
Gent's colored Shirts, detached cuff, regular $1 00 quality for 75c.
Gents' white Laundered Shirts, regular 75c quality for 62c.

Notice of Order to Limit Creditors.

SOMERSET COUNTY SURROGATES' OFFICE.

ESTATE OF ROBERT S. MILLER, DECEASED

Notice is hereby given that on the 18th day of March, A. D., 1899, on the application of J Amelia Miller as executrix of Robert S. Miller, deceased; an order was made by H. N. Spencer, Surrogate, requiring the creditors of Robert S Miller, deceased, to bring in their debts, demands and claims against the said decedent, under oath or affirmation, and present the same to the subscriber within NINE months from the date of said order; and in default thereof any such creditor should be forever barred of his or her action therefor against the subscriber.

4 6 10 th J. AMELIA MILLER, Executrix.

HEADQUARTERS FOR
Plants and Cut Flowers.
Chas. L. Stanley 142 North Avenue.
FLORAL DESIGNS A SPECIALTY.
Greenhouses, South Avenue, Netherwood.

CHAS. L. FORCE,
Architect and Superintendent.
208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given. 1 31 tf

FURNITURE.

Not the bargain sale kind that is made to sell at low prices but is never cheap—every article of our large stock has been bought on the merit of quality from reliable manufacturers only. To close balance of stock quickly every article is offered at less than usually quoted on cheaply-made goods. Can name only few prices:

$35 Parlor Cabinets	-	$17.00
5 50 Parlor Tables	-	3.25
9 00 Chiffonieres	-	5.75
30.00 Sideboards	-	21.00

CALL NOW AND GET BARGAINS.

-- PACKER --

West Front St and Madison Ave.

Corporation Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the following Ordinance has been introduced before the Common Council read the second time and ordered engrossed preparatory to its third reading, and that it is the intention of the Council to adopt the same.

J. T. MACMURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., April 4, 1899.

AN ORDINANCE

FOR THE ASSESSMENT OF TAXES FOR THE YEAR 1899.

The Inhabitants of the city of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1.—That pursuant to the statutes and ordinances and resolutions in such cases made and provided, there shall be assessed and raised by tax for the year eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, for the general purposes of said city, exclusive of poor, library, school, fire, state and county taxes, the sum of Forty-one Thousand ($41,000) dollars. This sum includes the sum of Twenty-four Thousand dollars ($24,000) to be raised by general tax for street improvements; for the expense for said year of lighting the public streets and places in said city, pursuant to Chapter ccexviii of the Pamphlet Laws of 1894, (page 477), as ascertained and determined by resolution of the Common Council and certified to the Assessors of said city the sum of Twelve Thousand dollars ($12,000); for the principal of such bonds, except obligations payable out of assessments and temporary obligations as may mature during the ensuing fiscal year, under and by virtue of the Act of the Legislature entitled "An Act to provide for drainage and sewerage in cities of this State," approved April 7, 1880, and the several amendments thereof and supplements thereto, and proceedings had and taken thereunder in said city, the sum of Four Thousand dollars (4,000); for interest on the obligations of the city issued under said last mentioned acts, the sum of Five Thousand dollars ($5,000); for the support of the city poor, the sum of Four Thousand dollars ($4,000); for the maintenance of the public library and reading room, the sum of Three Thousand Eight Hundred dollars ($3,800); for the purpose of making alterations in the buildings already erected for the purposes of the Plainfield Public Library, Art Gallery and Museum, and to provide new apparatus for heating and lighting and making other improvements therein, as specified in the resolution and certificate of the Board of Directors of the Plainfield Public Library and Reading Room, under the provisions of the act of the Legislature entitled, "An act to authorize cities to establish and maintain free public libraries and reading room," approved March 14, 1879, and the act amendatory thereof, and supplemented thereto, in pursuance of resolution adopted by the Common Council and approved by the Mayor, under Chapter 15 of the laws of 1896, (P. L., p. 36), the sum of Two Thousand dollars ($2,000); for the maintenance of a Fire Department to be under control and government of said city, the sum of Eighteen Thousand dollars ($18,000); and in addition to the foregoing, a license fee of Two dollars to be paid by the owner of every dog within the city of Plainfield.

THIS IS THE POINT.

There are a great many stores that are anxious to get your trade, and that will make almost any kind of a promise to get it.

But there is always one thoroughly dependable store—a store that is sure to give you the best and most reliable meats that money can buy. Proper selection and correct butchering explains the satisfaction they give.

FRED ENDRESS,
131-135 West Front Street Only.

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to.

Special Bargains for Friday and Saturday.

AT S. Scheuer & Co.,

239 and 241 West Front Street.

Best Family Flour, per bbl.		$3.98.
Best Family "	24 1 2 lb. Bag	49c.
Best xxxx Minn. Patent Flour	per bbl	$4.39.
Best " " " "	per bag	55c
Fancy N. Y. State Butter,		20c lb.
Sugar Cured Cal. Hams		6c lb.

Cape Cod Cranberries, per qt.	5c	Hindquarters Genuine Lamb	14c lb.
New White Beans, per qt.	5c	Jersey Pork Roast	9c lb.
3 lb Pkg'ge Prepared Buckwheat	8c	Fresh Shoulder Pork	7c lb.
3 lb. can Boston Baked Beans	5c	Boneless Bacon by the strip	9c lb.
3 lb. can Bartlett Pears	9c	Best Salt Pork	7c lb.
Washing Soda, 6 lbs. for	5c	Jersey Fowl	14c lb.
Best Elgin Creamery Butter,	23c lb.	Long Island Spring Ducks	14c lb.
Fancy N. Y. State Butter	20c lb.	Fancy Roasting Chickens	16c lb.

FREE SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY.

A BOX OF UNEEDA BISCUITS

Given away free to all purchasers of 1 lb. Scheuer's Premium Java Coffee 27 Cents Pound.

FREE SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY.

GOOD SHOE TRADE!

We are doing a good shoe trade on our "Specialty" shoes for Men and Women, such as are advertised in the leading magazines. The best made for the least money.

For Women, "S & S," $5 and $4. "Sorosis" $3 50, "Superior" $3, "H & S" $3, and down to $2 50 $2, $1 50, $1.25, 98c.

For Men, "J & M." Best made at any price, $5 00, "Elite" $3 50, and on down to $3, $2 50, $2, $1 50, $1 25 All guaranteed best wearing shoes sold for the price, and latest styles. No need at all to go to New York. Peddie's Trunks, Dress Suit Cases and Bags.

SEE ELEGANT DISPLAY IN OUR SHOW WINDOWS.

DOANE & EDSALL.

J. C Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS.
110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

TRY THE QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,
No. 337 Park Avenue
(Miller Building.)
Goods called for and delivered free of charge.
Domestic or gloss finish.

THE F. L. C. MARTIN CYCLE CO.

Will offer a proposition to you

CRESCENT BICYCLES

FRIDAY, APRIL 7th.

WATCH FOR IT. IT WILL INTEREST YOU.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR
Sun Rises 5 34 a. m.
Sun Sets 6 30 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 7:30 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Rain This Afternoon and Tonight, Followed by Clearing. Saturday Fair. Stationary Temperature. Ther. 48.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., FRIDAY, APRIL 7, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

IN ONE OFFICE FOR THIRTY-THREE YEARS.

Proud Record That Executive Clerk Fox Holds.

UNDISTURBED BY POLITICS.

THE FAVORITE OF EVERY GOVERNOR SINCE MARCUS L. WARD.

It is One of the Most Responsible and Important Offices Under the State Government — Ward's Attention was First Called to Fox as a Drummer Boy on Battlefields in the Civil War.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, April 7—To hold an important political office for thirty-three years is nothing uncommon, but to occupy such a place for that period under constantly changing governments is a record rarely met with. Col. Edward D Fox, Executive Clerk of New Jersey, although a Democrat in politics, has consecutively served fourteen Governors belonging to both of the two great political parties. But politics made but little difference to Col. Fox, who has held one of the most responsible and important offices under the State government without interruption since 1865. Col. Fox's long service in his office, which is an appointive one, has been mainly due to his efficiency and thorough knowledge of the business of the executive department. In fact, so familiar has he become with the affairs of the Governor's office that he is practically deputy private secretary to the Governor, discharging the duties of the private secretary whenever that officer is absent.

Col. Fox is said to be the oldest Executive clerk in the United States in point of service. When Marcus L. Ward was Governor of New Jersey the civil war was in progress, and the Governor spent much of his time on the battle fields. He often acted as a messenger between the boys in the blue and their friends at home. On several occasions the Governor noticed Fox, who was a drummer in the 5th New Jersey Regiment. He was only fifteen years old, but was remarkably clever in handling the sticks.

Gov. Ward spoke to him, and learned that he was a Trenton boy. When the Governor left the drummer handed him a $20 gold piece to take home to his parents. After that the Governor frequently saw the boy, and made occasional trips to the Fox home in this city.

In 1865 Gov. Ward tendered a place in his office to Fox, who was then 18 years old. The young man accepted it. Gov. Ward's successor found him such a valuable acquisition to the Executive Department that he decided to continue him in the capacity of executive clerk, notwithstanding a strong pressure brought to bear upon them to have some one else appointed. Since then each succeeding Governor has refused to remove him.

Col. Fox's duties require his presence at the State House the year round. All documents and letters addressed to the Governor pass through his hands.

Col. Fox carries a watch presented to him by Governors Ward, Randolph, Bedle, Parker, McClellen and Ludlow.

PLEASURE AT THE PARK CLUB.

Informal Entertainment of Which Music Formed a Feature.

An informal entertainment took the place of the usual weekly card party at the Park Club last night, those taking part being Miss Addie Parker Jackson, John and Fred VanEps, Professor William E. MacClymont. Miss Jackson recited, John VanEps rendered zither music, Fred VanEps performed on the banjo, and Professor MacClymont accompanied the two last named on the piano.

The entertainment was given under the direction of the house committee, of which Elston M. French, Henry D. Hibbard and Edward T. Wilson are the members. The Messrs. VanEps rendered zither and banjo solos, and also played together several times. The music was unique, and their selections were well received. Miss Jackson recited some of her brightest pieces and all four artists received several encores. After the programme was finished an informal dance was held.

Caught His Hand on Car Door.

John Sherman Hobbs, of Pearl street, is suffering from a badly lacerated hand, the result of an accident he had while getting off a railroad train in Newark yesterday morning. His hand caught in the door at one end of the car and before he could take it out the door went shut smashing three fingers.

—If you are looking for a good $1 50 or $2 00 shoe. VanArsdale has them.

SILK MILL TO START.

POOR MACHINERY WILL BE PUT IN ORDER AT ONCE.

After Getting the Worst of the Bargain in Buying the Machinery, the Watchung Silk Co. Will Try Again.

The stockholders of the Watchung Silk Company, of this city, have decided that it is time to get to work. They also sorrowfully admit that they didn't come out ahead in the deal for the looms and other machinery for their silk mill. There was a sudden stop in the company's operations when the stockholders and the two promoters, Messrs. Bullock and Young, fell out. The discovery that the looms were in very poor condition still further delayed movements.

The two obstacles to the practical working of a local mill were not pleasing to some of the stockholders and they hesitated. Their more sanguine fellow investors explained, however, that the only thing to be done now was to go forward and meet the emergency. They were finally sufficiently impressed and work has now been started in putting the looms in condition.

Now when the Watchung Company purchased its machinery from a firm in Paterson, it so happened that there were two other companies that purchased at the same time. They were the first to come and consequently had their pick of the looms and machinery. What parts were lacking in theirs, they took from the looms that were to go to Plainfield. So when the remaining looms reached Plainfield, there were none of them fit to use without repairing or replacing certain parts.

It was first thought that an entire new lot of machinery would have to be purchased. Since then, however, an expert loom repairer has examined them and says that it will be possible to put the lot in order in four weeks. The stockholders have told him to go ahead and put the looms in order.

Now that the dissatisfied stockholders have been converted to an active policy, the company hopes to have the mill in operation inside of two months unless there is something else now unforseen to block operations.

SUDDEN JOLT THREW A BRAKEMAN FROM CAR TOP.

DID NOT NOTICE SIGNAL GIVEN.

Hiram Bruch Badly Bruised by the Fall and Will be Laid Up for Several Days.

Hiram Bruch, a member of the crew on Central drill engine, No. 29, met with a bad accident while working around the freight yard yesterday morning.

Bruch was on top of the cars when the signal was given to back down, and was busy trying to replace a clinch-pin which was becoming loose. The sudden starting threw him from the car to the ground. He was badly bruised and cut about the body and it was feared he was hurt internally. He was taken upon the engine to his home in Dunellen. It will probably be several days before he will be able to resume work again.

ENGINE COMPANY NO. 2 NOMINATE.

Members in Arrears Must Pay Up or be Expelled.

The nomination of officers was the only important business done at the meeting of No. 2 Engine Company last evening. The following were nominated: Foreman, Frank Hand; first assistant foreman, William Chamberlain; second assistant foreman, R. D. Eick and Harry Connett; secretary, Adolph Kahrman; financial secretary, James Dawe; treasurer, Frank Schuck; engineer, Frank Schuck; first assistant engineer, A. Kahrman; second assistant engineer, C. W. Smith; representatives to the Relief Association, C. J. Newman and William Townley.

A resolution was passed declaring that all members in arrears who did not pay up by April 27th would be expelled from membership under the by-laws. The meeting then adjourned to the 27th when the property of the company will probably be disposed of.

Children Wanted to See a Fire.

Some small children wanted to see the fire department turn out yesterday afternoon. So they poured a little kerosine on a heap of barrels and lumber, near Seaman Williams barn, between North avenue and East Second street, near Watchung avenue. Then they lit a match and the fire soon threatened the barn. George J. Tobin, the plumber, saw the fire and notified the fire department. The No. 2 hose wagon responded. Then one of the clerks in Mallison's Pharmacy sent in an alarm from box 21. The blaze was soon extinguished.

—Press want ads bring results.

TRINITY GOOD FOLK FEASTED BY NATIONS.

Many Countries Represented By Booths.

HELD IN AID OF MISSIONS.

SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR CONDUCTED BY YOUNG WOMEN'S MISSION BAND.

Lecture Room of Trinity Reformed Church Was Transformed for the Occasion—Everything From White Rats in the Chinese Pagoda to Baked Beans in a New England Kitchen.

It was an international incident. All the nationalities that are reached by the Reformed denomination were represented at the "Feast of All Nations," held in the lecture room of Trinity Reformed church last evening by the Young Women's Mission Band of the church. The fact that some of the representatives of the different countries had strangely familiar faces, only added to the interest in the "feast."

The lecture room was practically transformed. The ceiling and pillars were hung with bunting while strange appearing booths characteristic of the various nations, were scattered about the sides. At the end was the platform, fairly buried beneath a profusion of the national colors in various forms, principally flags and bunting.

The affair was given by the mission band to add to their donations to missions. Each country where the Reformed church is working, was supposed to be represented. The doors were opened at six o'clock and from that time on until a late hour, the room was thronged with guests. Tables were arranged in the centre of the room where the guests were served with the good things from the different booths. An informal musical programme was rendered during the evening.

The parlor on the right of the entrance was converted into a Holland room where a valuable collection of Dutch curios was displayed. There was an old volume, "The Vindication of Christianity Against Paganism," printed in 1682, and now the property of George L. VanEmburgh, and also an old Bible, dated 1744, the property of A. V. D. Honeyman. An old Dutch dresser, some rare china, an ancient clock and spinning wheel were also included.

The room was in charge of Mrs. Frank Woodruff, chairman; Miss Mabel Woodruff, Miss Minnie Wyman, Miss Cora Huff, Miss Lillian A. Force, and Miss Haiman. They were all attired in quaint Dutch costumes, with blue skirts, black bodices and white guimps, and wore white Dutch handkerchiefs and caps. From this room were served frankfurters, Swiss cheese sandwiches and cold ham.

The Arabian booth was in one of the alcoves on the right. It was hung with Bagdad curtains while a luxuricus divan occupied a prominent place. Miss Emma Gillem was chairman with Miss Minnie Williams, Miss Buelah Waters and Miss Bessie Martin as assistants. They wore Arabian costumes of brown with red girdle and head dress. Miss Grace Nevius, in a red flowing gown of the fashion worn in India, also occupied a place in the booth. Here were sold curry and rice, preserved ginger, bananas, figs and dates.

The American booth was the most conspicuous and elaborate of all. It occupied the platform. Flags and tri-colored bunting were lavishly used in the decoration. The aides were gowned in white with aprons and caps of the national colors. The committee was Mrs. Will F. Williams, Miss Mary VanFleet, Miss Jeanette Simpson, Miss Josie Kissam, Miss Sadie Holmes, Miss Bogert, Miss Josephine Fritts and Miss Cora Laire.

Miss Maude VanDyke and little Miss Margaret Leggett represented the aborigines of the land and wore Indian custume. Tables were arranged in the booth and ice cream, cake, candy and lemonade were served there.

A pink and light blue Chinese pagoda, surmounted by a huge Chinese umbrella, loomed up to the left of the national headquarters. A cage of white rats, pets of Dr. Browning, served to keep meddlers away. There was a lively trade, however, in peanut dolls, dry rice, tea, incense and lichi-nuts. The committee, all costumed like the young women of the Celestial Empire, was composed of Miss Etta Krymer, chairman; Miss Ada Chandler, Miss Emma Line and Miss Adelaide Baxter.

A Japanese booth on the left was decorated with Japanese hangings, fans and paper screens. A rattan chair and several other articles from Japan were shown. The young women in Japanese costume were Mrs. William Startup, chairman; Mrs. A. J. Moore, Miss Grace Emmons and Miss Emma Line. They sold tea, Japanese boxes, cups and saucers and various other bric-a-brac.

A real New England kitchen was established on the left of the entrance. It contained dried apples and an assortment of the products of the field such as would usually be found in such a place. The primly dressed young women, with lace caps and kerchiefs, were Miss Grace Smith, chairman; Miss Mabel Wilson, Miss Anna Searing, Miss Gertrude Tier, Miss Abbie VanCleef, Miss Lillian Remsen and the Misses Bertha and Louise Fischer. Baked beans and sundry other preparations were in demand there.

The whole affair was under the superintendence of a committee composed of Mrs. H. W. Marshall, Mrs. Wm. Startup, Miss Lillian A. Force Miss Cora Laire and Mrs. Frank Wikoff. The decorating was done by by the various committees, who were greatly assisted by Mr. Seader.

The event proved so successful that the young ladies in charge were prevailed upon to continue it a second night, inasmuch as there was such a lot of work in arranging it. This evening the only refreshments that will be served will be ice cream and cake.

The fireplace in the New England kitchen and the chimney in the Holland room were designed by William Olmstead.

Mr. and Mrs. William Townsend gave selections on mandolin and piano during the evening.

INDIANS IN CAKE WALK.

CURIOUS PERFORMANCE FOR RED MEN TO GO THROUGH.

Fair in Washington Hall Attracted an Attendance of 500 Last Night—Another Fine Programme for This Evening.

Fully 500 people were present at the Red Men's fair last night, and enjoyed as varied a programme as has ever been presented at a similar entertainment.

Frederick Frey, blackened to represent a colored man, rendered a selection on the mandolin, and as an encore gave an exhibition of buck and wing dancing. John H Carney, as a German comedian, amused them awhile, and the team of acrobats, Terry and Hawkins, did some difficult tumbling acts.

As a change two colored men from New York, who bear the title of "Professors" Bowsel and Dunham, gave an exhibition cake walk that was only equaled by the prize competition cake walk which took place at 11 o'clock.

Two couples took part in this, Johnston Young and Miss Kliner, and John Goff, Jr, and Miss Mamie Higgins. The contestants wore brilliant Indian costumes.

The judges awarded the prize, a lemonade set inlaid with gold, to Goff and Miss Higgins. William Newcorn made the presentation.

Tonight Springer and Lusardi will appear in their musical sketch, and Prof. Parsons will play upon the harmonica and other musical instruments.

BROKE HIS LEG WRESTLING.

Unfortunate Outcome of a Friendly Contest in Dunellen.

A. E. Nelson, owner of Nelson's Hotel in New Market, and well-known throughout this section, was brought to the Muhlenberg Hospital at midnight last night suffering with a fracture of one of his legs. The injury was sustained while he was wrestling in a friendly way with another man in a hotel in Dunellen. He will be confined to the hospital for six weeks.

Uplifting the Colored People.

The main room of the Mt Olive Baptist church was filled last evening with the women of that parish and many who are not members. Rev. E. E. Jackson addressed those present on the advisability of forming a society to assist more generally in church work and to uplift the race in general. The idea is to have the women join with the men. A meeting for men will be called for Tuesday evening of next week when the subject will be presented to them by the pastor and plans for perfecting them will be introduced.

A Chimney Fire.

A chimney fire on the premises, 357 Cottage place, called out the fire department shortly after 12 o'clock today noon. The alarm was sent in from box 15. A stream from the chemical engine extinguished the fire without damage. The fire started near the second floor in the room occupied by a Hebrew tailor named Gualski.

Andrew Cox, of Liberty street, has recovered from his recent illness and is again able to attend to business.

"BELSHAZZAR" SUNG BY A CHURCH CHOIR.

A Musicale of More Than Passing Note at the Casino.

MANY PRETTY SOLO PARTS.

GIVEN UNDER THE DIRECTION OF MRS. WILLIAM A. FREEMAN.

J. A. Butterfield's Beautiful Cantata Was Rendered Before an Appreciative Audience—Reading by Rev. Floyd Appleton Was Entertaining—Elmer E. Runyon Heard—Names of Those in the Cast.

A musical event of more than passing note was that of last evening when the cantata of "Belshazzar," by J. A Butterfield, was given in the casino by Grace P. E. Church choir. The work is one of the best of the kind and the music is very inspiring. The solo parts give wide range for the voice, and the trio, duet and quartette parts were very pretty. All of the parts were given last evening in a highly commendable manner under the direction of Mrs. William A. Freeman, organist, whose untiring efforts have been devoted to the production. It would be unfair to attempt to criticise any individual work, but suffice it to say that all did well. With D. Stuart Pope, at the piano, assisted by an orchestra, the cantata was given in a satisfactory manner. Rev. Floyd Appleton, curate of Grace church, assisted by reading the various parts assigned to him. During the rendition of the cantata he provoked much laughter. Miss Mabel Smith, soprano, rendered a beautiful solo, and it was so well received that an encore was given, although not responded to. The next part being taken by Mr. Appleton, he read in true style the words; "No more! My royal words brooks no reproof! It suits my will, and that is law when'er Belshazzar speaks!" The words seemed to fit the occasion and all joined in a hearty laugh.

The part of Zerubbabel was assigned to Herbert Schutt, but owing to a throat affection and acting under the advice of a physician, he was unable to appear and sing. The part was taken by Elmer E. Runyon, whose voice was heard with a great deal of pleasure. The audience was very generous in its applause.

Below will be found the complete caste and the names of those who furnished the music:

Belshazzar, King of Babylon. Arthur F. Freeman
Zerubbabel, Governor of the Jews. Elmer E. Runyon
Daniel, Prophet of Israel... Frederick J. Pope
Cyrus, King of Persia. Festus, Lord Chamberlain. } Laurens H. VanBuren
Nitocris, Queen Regent. Miss Mabelle B. Smith
Shelomith, wife of Zerubbabel. Miss Mary Evans Collier
Angel. Zerina, Lady of Court. } Miss Charlotte Messersmith
Jewish Princess. Atalia, Lady of Court. } ....Miss Pearl Kinsey
Ladies of Court.. { Miss Clara Woodward. Miss Eleanor VanDeventer
Magi, Wise Men of Babylon. { William B. Cock. Fred H. Freeman. Henry B. Drake.
Antonia, Queen of Belshazzar. Master Harry Messerschmidt
Child of Zerubbabel.....Master Vincent Miner
Rev. Floyd Appleton.....Reader
Gentlemen of the orchestra—Martin A. Korff, Maurice A. Audsley, Arthur S. Mosher, Ernest Higham, Garrett T. Dunham, Claus Wallender, Frank Young, Frank Manchester; D. Stuart Pope, piano.

Keeping Track of Borough Property.

Robert Clark, Jr, chairman of Borough Council street committee, is to be commended for the great interest he is taking in the department. He has had all the tools of the borough collected, properly branded and placed in charge of William Emmons, who will keep track of them under the direction of Superintendent of Highways Thomas Doud.

Alerts to Quit This Month.

A short meeting of Alert Hose Company of the Plainfield Fire Department was held last night. The company decided to give the Council a few weeks more to take action on the purchase of the carriage. A resolution was passed that the company close its affairs before April 30th.

In the Methodist Pulpit.

Next Sunday morning Rev. Dr. Buchtel, of East Orange, in exchange with Rev. Dr. W. C. Snodgrass, of the First M. E. church, will preach in this city. He is one of the most intimate ministers in the denomination and there should be a large attendance of people.

Malicious Bicycle Thief.

A ladies' bicycle, belonging to Miss Leila Howard, was stolen from the piazza of her home of LaGrande avenue, early last evening. The wreck of the wheel, minus saddle, tires, chain and handle bars, was found this morning on Putnam avenue, near Carleton avenue.

BURNS MAY MEAN DEATH

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT THAT BEFELL A STONY HILL GIRL.

Miss Louisa Gotlick Fighting Fire When Her Skirt Became Ingited and Burned Her so That Recovery is Doubtful.

Miss Louisa Gotlick, the eighteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wenzel Gotlick, of Stony Hill, met with what will probably be a fatal burning accident on her father's farm yesterday. As is customary at this time of the year the brush and undergrowth was being burned to clear the land for the spring work. Miss Gotlick was about the yard when she noticed that the fire had caught to the fence and was already burning quite fiercely. Without any thought of danger or calling for help, she started to battle the flames single handed and was making good headway when all at once she found her skirts had caught fire from the flames which had sprung up again in the rear. She gave a frantic scream and started for the house.

Her twin brother, who was working about the place, was the first to hear her cry of alarm. Jumping from his wagon and snatching a horse blanket from the seat he started to wrap the struggling sister in its folds. But it was probably too late for the flames had done their work and the lower part of the poor girl's body was burned so badly that the skin peeled from the body at the slightest touch. After conveying the sufferer to the house the brother mounted a horse and started for Dr. Westcott in Fanwood, a distance of about 4 miles. The Doctor answered the call at once. Little hopes were given by the physician for the girl's recovery.

NONE SEEM TO FEAR THE ORIENT DEGREE.

MORE READY TO RIDE THE GOAT.

Important Meeting of Franklin Council Last Night—Over 200 Members Present.

An important meeting of Franklin Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., was held last evening. There were fully 200 members present. Every seat was occupied, camp chairs were brought into requisition and some were compelled to find seats on the steps of the platform. There were 29 new members initiated, the greatest number at one time in the history of the Council.

Everybody seems to be in unusual good humor. Before and after the meeting the members discussed the recent notoriety given to the Oriental degree. Some took it as an immense joke while others spoke in strong terms against the article furnished The Press by a parent of one of the candidates of last Friday evening. The majority of the members of the Oriental degree were of the opinion that he "allowed his imagination full rein and it ran away with him," as one member put it It was said that there were but two members injured in the slightest degree.

After the regular meeting of the lodge the Oriental Court convened and received nine applications for the degree.

HEAVY VAN WENT OVER HIS LEG.

Chris. Rasmussen Tried to Climb to Driver's Seat and Fell.

Christian Rasmusen, of East Second street, a Dane employed by Captain William Hand and son, met with an accident yesterday that will lay him up for some time. He was driving one of Hand's big vans near Elizabeth, when he dismounted from his seat on Hand's van, and walked back to one of T. J. Carey's vans, following, and attempted to climb up on the seat with the driver.

Carey's vans are not built just like Hand's, and as Chris was climbing up he put out his hand to seize hold of a hand guide just as he always did when mounting one of his employer's vans. But on this van there was no hand guide, so he lost his balance and fell directly under the wheels of the heavily loaded wagon. One wheel passed over his leg before the horses could be stopped. He was brought home and an examination of his injuries made. Strange to say, the leg was not broken, but the bone was so bruised that it will be a week before the man can use it again.

Married in the Church.

The marriage of Miss Lizzie Kavanaugh and Thomas Hoag, of this city, as published yesterday, was held in St. Mary's church and not the parsonage as stated. Those who stood up with the bride and groom were Miss Alice Kavanaugh and John Burns, both of this city. A reception was held afterward at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Kyle, of Watchung avenue, from 3 until 7 o'clock.

—Press want ads pay

YOUNG WOMAN SHOT DOWN IN THE ROAD.

Phœbe Shoemaker Slain by Her Brother-in-law.

THOUGHT TO BE INSANE.

CRIME WAS COMMITTED IN THE VICINITY OF OAK TREE.

Albert Shoemaker, the Murderer, Had Been Acting Queerly for Several Days Past—Apparently Upset by Prospect of Not Having a Permanent Home—Admitted Killing the Woman—Sent to Jail.

Phœbe Elizabeth Shoemaker, aged 23 years, wife of Charles Shoemaker, was shot dead by her brother-in-law, Albert Shoemaker, shortly before 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon upon the road between Oak Tree and Iselin. Charles Cooper of Iselin discovered the body of Mrs. Shoemaker lying in a ditch while driving to his home about 1 o'clock. He found Shoemaker working in a field, and returned with him and others and carried the body home.

Suspicion was at once turned to Albert Shoemaker, 26 years old, brother of Charles, who had often quarrelled with Mrs. Shoemaker He is eccentric. He had attacked three persons during the morning for no cause that could be ascertained. Word was sent to Metuchen, two miles distance, and Constables Gedney and Keenan found Albert Shoemaker wandering about near the railway station. He was handcuffed and taken to the office of Justice of the Peace Moss in Metuchen, where he was held while Prosecutor John S. Voorhees was notified.

Coroner Charles Moke, of New Brunswick, viewed the body of the woman. He found that she had been shot in the back and that the bullet had penetrated her left lung. Shoemaker admitted that he had killed his sister in law, and said that he did it because she and her husband were trying to do him out of some property which belonged to him. He said he went to his sister in-law in order to renew the subject of his living with them again. He had failed more than once to secure this privilege, and he became very angry when Mrs. Shoemaker firmly declined to permit him to live in her house. He then smashed an old family chest, and followed this up by flourishing a revolver and threatening Mrs. Shoemaker. She ran out of the house and he followed her. Four hundred yards away at the top of a hill he overtook her and shot her in the back. After the shooting, he told the Coroner, he returned to his brother's house, went up stairs and left his revolver on the floor near the chest which he had smashed. The Coroner found that three chambers of the revolver had been emptied. Justice Moss committed Shoemaker to the County Jail in New Brunswick on a charge of murder. People in Metuchen and Menlo Park have always called him queer. A close relative, Kate Shoemaker, is at present in the Middlesex County Jail pending an examination into her sanity. The dead woman was the daughter of Charles Fisher, of Springfield, this State. She had been married five years. Prosecutor Voorhees believes that Shoemaker is mentally unbalanced.

The murderer lived with the late Ellis Noe for about fifteen years, where he was considered as one of the family. After Mr. Noe died, and it was decided to sell the old homestead and the other farm property, Shoemaker does not seem to have been himself. An auction sale of the Noe effects was held Tuesday, and several of those who attended noticed that the young man was acting strangely, but nothing was thought of it at the time.

Aged Plainfielder Dead

Peter Langarbam, aged 75 years, died yesterday at his home on Cottage place. He came to Plainfield forty years ago and worked for Rudoph Titsworth. He also worked for Schwed Bros. He was a member of the First Presbyterian church, where he attended regularly all the stated meetings. A number of children, grandchildren and other relatives survive him.

Can't Stand Change of Climate.

Dr. H. K. Carroll, of Westervelt avenue, commissioner to Porto Rico, is severely ill at his home and for a number of days has been unable to leave his room. C. E. Buell, secretary to the commission, is also on the sick list, and in fact he has not felt like himself since his return from Porto Rico. The change in climate is responsible for the illness.

Lawyer S. S. Swackhamer and the law firm of Pope & Runyon, of this city, will appear in a mock trial at Whitehouse tomorrow evening.

THE PALACES AND TEMPLES OF ANCIENT EGYPT

had their walls shining with gold and sparkling with precious stones, but modern art has contrived to design decorations of a less costly character in the beautiful designs and refined colors and shades of Wall papers, friezes, etc., such as Woolston & Buckle keep in their varied and elegant stock at such tempting prices.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

ROGERS.
232 West 2d St.

Seafood for Health
Always
Desirable
when direct from the nets.

M. E. STEPHENSON,
146 NORTH AVE.

Weddings, Dinners and Receptions supplied with every requisite. China, Glass, Linen and Silver to loan.

ESTIMATES
cheerfully furnished. Telephone orders will receive prompt attention.
TELEPHONE 624.

A. H. ENANDER
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections
210 PARK AVE.

PHILLIP SWAIN,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.
317 West Front street.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

HOTEL KENSINGTON
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107, 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

SOMERSET HOTEL
Somerset St. and Lincoln Place.
North Plainfield, N. J.
W. F. DREYER, Proprietor.
AMPLE ACCOMODATIONS FOR MAN AND BEAST.

E. B. Maynard,
NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J

NEUMAN BROS.,
GROCERS,
Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

ALEX. LUSARDI.
211 West Front Street,
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores.

L. L. Manning & Son,
STEAM
GRANITE WORKS,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

DOBBINS.
CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

EDUCATIONAL.

GREGG SHORTHAND SCHOOL
Babcock Building,
The latest and best system. Stenographers filling positions after 3 months.
DAY AND EVENING.
W. E. Van Wert, Principal.
Standard Typwriters in use.

MISS SARAH A. PALMER,
TEACHER OF PIANO (Virgil Method) AND THEORY IN ALL ITS BRANCHES.
The Virgil method and the Practice Clavier give to the pupil not only finger agility, but also mental control and concentration, whereby alone the best results can be obtained.
132 Crescent Avenue

Piano Instruction
Virgil Clavier Method a specialty.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and
MISS MINNIE S. MARSH
2915 MADISON AVE.
Sight Reading Classes, vocal and instrumental.

F. V. L. Goodwin,
TEACHER OF MUSIC
Lessons given at home on Piano. Special attention to beginners. Residence.
105 MANNING AVENUE,
North Plainfield, N. J.

SHORTHAND! BOOKKEEPING!
No better systems can be found than those taught in : : : :
PLAINFIELD BUSINESS COLLEGE.
City Bank Building.
Both sexes. Day and Night. Come and see us

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Duff.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE,
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's Hall, No. 1 9 Park avenue, at 8:15 p m

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO 711,
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Fireme's Hall, Cowald Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

INTENSE SUFFERING

FROM DYSPEPSIA AND STOMACH TROUBLE

Instantly Relieved and Permanantly Cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

A New Discovery, But Not a Patent Medicine.

Dr. Redwell relates an interesting account of what he considers a remarkable cure of acute stomach trouble and chronic dyspepsia by the use of the new discovery, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

He says: "The patient was a man who had suffered to my knowledge, for years with dyspepsia. Everything he ate seemed to sour and create gases in the stomach; he had pains like rheumatism in the back, shoulder blades and limbs, fullness and distress after eating, poor appetite and loss of flesh; the heart became affected, causing palpitation and sleeplessness at night.

I give him powerful nerve tonics and blood remedies, but to no purpose. As an experiment I finally bought a fifty cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at a drug store and gave them to him. Almost immediate relief was given and after he had used four boxes he was to all appearances, fully cured.

There was no more acidity or sour watery risings, no bloating after meals, the appetite was vigorous and he has gained between 10 and 12 pounds in weight of solid, healthy flesh.

Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are advertised and sold in drug stores, yet I consider them a most valuable addition to any physician's line of remedies, as they are perfectly harmless and can be given to children or invalids or in any condition of the stomach with perfect safety, being harmless and containing nothing but fruit and vegetable essences, pure pepsin and Golden Seal.

Without any question they are the safest, most effective cure for indigestion, biliousness, constipation and all derangements of the stomach, however slight or severe."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are made by the F. A. Stuart Co., of Marshall, Mich., and are sold by druggists everywhere at fifty cents per package.

Little book on stomach diseases mailed free Address F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall Mich.

J. F. MacDonald, UPTOWN GROCER, 186 E. Front Street.

20 Fresh Eggs, direct from farm	25c
Best Jersey E R. Potatoes	43c basket
Best Oil, 5 gal.	45c
Minnesota Flour	55c bag, $4.35 bbl
4 lbs. Carolina Rice	25c
Best Oatmeal	3c lb
Best Pure Lard, no compound	7c lb
Large California Prunes	4 lbs for 25c
O. K. B. Powder	18c
Gold Medal Milk	8c
Kirkman's Borax Soap (6 C. box)	23c
Fine Tomatoes	7c can
Fine Corn	6c can
N. O. Molasses	33c Gal
2 bottles Best Maple Syrup	25c
Canned Salmon	8 can
Pea Beans	5c quart
Lima Beans	8c quart
Lemon and Ginger Snaps	5c lb

We won't say anything about our 20c Coffee. Everybody uses it.

GREAT CLOTHING SALE

Special for 10 days. We will sell the balance of our heavy weight goods, consisting of

OVERCOATS AND SUITS

at 1-2 the former prices in order to make room for our handsome line of spring goods, which is arriving daily.

THIS SALE FOR 10 DAYS ONLY

So call and get rigged up for a little money.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.
206 West Front Street.

Hats and Gents' Furnishings.

SPECIAL SALE

Over 13 hundred pairs of shoes. Nothing to say about the price, only that the lowness of it will surprise everybody.

SHERWIN'S, 149 West Front St.

MANICURING, 25 CENTS.
REMOVING CORNS, 25c.
SHAMPOOING, With Massage, 50c.
M. V. Stickle, 149 E. Fifth St.

SCIENTIFIC MASSAGE
Facial Massage and Steaming.
THERMO-ELECTRIC BATHS.
MISS HOLMES, 440 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J.
3 1 tf

PARKHURST WILL YIELD

His Society's Police Information Will be Had if Needed.

MOSS HAS THE UPPER HAND

The Chairman of the Investigating Committee Objects to the Assistant Counsel but is Powerless—Gov. Roosevelt Says While He Has Nothing to Do With the Investigation He Has Every Confidence in It.

New York, April 7.—The Society for the Prevention of Crime, popularly known as the Parkhurst Society, will or shall give up its secrets to the Mazet Committee. The choice of doing it voluntarily and gracefully, or under a compulsion that would put the Society in a very awkward position, rests with Rev. Dr. Parkhurst.

That was made known by one who is in a position to know what will be done. For certain good reasons the request was made that the name of this informant should not be used. But the statement may be taken as authoritative.

It developed to-day that Frank Moss is going to conduct the investigation to suit his own views, even if they should conflict in any particular with those of the committee. The committee has practically placed itself in his hands by making him its counsel with full powers, and he has made it plain by the apointment of Mr. Laimbeer as his associate that he is going to use the authority thus conferred to further his purpose of making the inquiry a thorough one. Chairman Mazet has found fault with that appointment, but he is powerless to change it or to change anything else that Mr. Moss intends to do. Said the informant above referred to:

"What can Mazet do? What can the whole committee do. Picture them removing Moss now, when he has made it plain that he means to conduct an impartial investigation! In this appointment of Laimbeer he has done a clever piece of work which makes him absolutely the dictator of the investigation. Laimbeer is known to be an anti-Platt man. If he is removed now the committee had better stay in Albany."

May Force Parkhurst.

Dr. Parkhurst has stated that Mr. Moss is ethically bound to refrain from making use of the knowledge which has come to him as a member of the Executive Board of the Society for the Prevention of Crime. Said the person who spoke of the case with authority and with inside knowledge:

"Mr. Moss will not use in any way his recolection of what came to his knowledge as a member of that executive board. But it is quite possible that the committee will direct him to summon before it the agents of the society, in which case he must obey as a matter of course, and must do his best endeavor to find out from each and all of them all possible information. In so doing he would be guilty of no breach of ethics, not even if he summoned and examined Dr. Parkhurst himself.

"It is certain that the committee will take care to avail itself of the testimony which this society can give. Time will be given to its Executive Committee to reconsider its action of last Tuesday, and it is quite probable that a change of front will be made."

Mr. Moss was asked to-day whether he thought that the Society will change its attitude. "I'm not worrying about that," he replied with a smile.

He declined to say any more about it, nor what department of the local government would be investigated first. He also declined to say whether any subpoenas had yet been sent out, and when it was pointed out to him that it would be hard to make a subpoena without knowing the place where the investigation would be held, he answered. "There are lots of ways of getting around a thing like that."

Spies Are Active.

"Mr. Mazet has said that as you appointed Mr. Laimbeer you will have to pay him," Mr. Moss was told.

"Well, that doesn't worry me, either," was the reply.

A great many letters are coming to his office containing valuable information pertinent to the inquiry. Of these matters Mr. Moss said, "I invite all good people to assist me in this work, and nobody's name will be divulged as an informant without his stated permission."

He had a large number of callers this morning, many of whom represented themselves as reporters, but who were not known as such to the men present who were known to be newspaper workers. Those men are supposed to be spies in the service of Tammany. They were probably attracted to the place chiefly by the publication of the fact that a room has been taken in the Bennett Building, the same in which Mr. Moss has his office, for the preparation of the testimony.

It is understood that the committee will hold a session here on Monday as well as on Saturday, and will then return to Albany.

GOV. ROOSEVELT'S OPINION.

Any Who Thinks Investigation Is Not Honest Lacks Common Sense.

Albany, April 7.—Apropos of the investigation of Tammany corruption in New York city, the correspondent said to-day to the Governor:

To which the Governor replied with vigor "Anybody who knows Frank Moss, and thinks that he would go into the investigation without a determination to get everything out of it that there is in it, lacks common sense." The Governor said that Mr. Moss would not have consented to associate himself with anything but agenuine investigation. This job, he said, was just to Mr. Moss's liking. Mr. Moss was the very man to undertake the work.

The Governor called him ideal, and said that he was abundantly equipped for the work by his experience as Police Commissioner and in the Lexow investigation. "Whatever corruption there is," said the Governor, "Mr. Moss will bring out, and no wrongdoers will get mercy from him, and no power of any sort can avail to shield any guilty persons."

The Governor concluded by saying that while he had nothing to do with the investigation, yet he had every confidence in it.

KEPT BEEF BY PROCESS

Important Testimony by General Eagan's Chief Clerk.

LETTER FROM ARMOUR & CO.

Letters and Documents Missing from the Commissary General's Office Which Have an Important Bearing in the Investigation Miles' Side Has an Inning.

Washington, April 7.—At yesterday's session of the army beef court inquiry.

Mr. William A. DeCaindry, who has been chief clerk in the office of the Commissary-General of the War Department for twenty years, related his connection with the work of letting the beef contracts. At the instance of Gen. Eagan he had first sent out forty or fifty telegrams to dealers in beef asking for bids to supply refrigerated beef or for beef on the block. Mr. DeCaindry had been instructed by Gen. Eagan to prepare the original draft of the contract for the beef supply, and after some rearranging submitted a draft, feeling confident that it was complete.

It was then that men whom he understood to be representatives of Swift & Co. brought up the question as to the length of time the beef should keep after issue. Memoranda for changes containing the twenty-four-hour clause were brought to him by Capt. Davis, Assistant-Commissary-General. Details were lacking, and the suggestions as time seemed to be conflicting. He had tried to get details from Capt. Davis in regard to the twenty-four-hour clause, and was told by him that the understanding was that refrigerators were to be built on shore and in the rear of the moving troops, the intention being to have the beef exposed for the minimum time only.

He had at the time pointed out the apparent conflict between the twenty-four and seventy-two-hour clause. In one of the revisions Gen. Eagan had interlined in his own handwriting a clause referring to the time reading as follows:

Which shall not be more than twenty-four hours from the time of storing the same in such refrigerators.

This clause, Mr. DeCaindry said, he had not at the time understood, but he had no authority to strike it out. When the twenty-four-hour clause was inserted, Gen. Eagan appeared to be dubious about it, but said nothing more. Mr. DeCaindry said that he had been so worried by the apparent inconsistencies in the contract that he had kept all the memoranda relating to the matter.

"Are they on file now?" asked Major Lee.

"They are not in the file-boxes."

The witness then stated in reply to questions that Capt. Davis was in charge of these boxes, and that Capt. Davis was the especial confidant of Gen. Eagan. Asked if he had any reason at the time the contract was drawn to suspect that any of the data had been withheld by Eagan or Davis, Mr. DeCaindry replied that he had so such suspicion then, and that he had none now. His impression was that they were undertaking to do something which they had not digested sufficiently to know just how they wanted to do it.

Mr. DeCaindry gave some of the particulars concerning the trial of the Powell preservative process in Florida. He spoke of a letter of Armour & Co., in which they argued that they should be awarded the contract because of this Powell process, although their bid was somewhat higher than that of Swift & Co.

"What became of that letter? asked Major Lee.

"A portion of it is in the files," said Mr. DeCaindry, "but the bulk of it was returned to the writer at his request. The portion retained was the last page containing the endorsement of the Secretary of War and the Commissary-General. An office copy was, however, retained."

The witness was then requested to, and did, read the letter from Armour & Co., dated July 13, bearing on this subject, but he said he had no remembrance of ever having seen the letter before. This letter was then put in as evidence, and read as follows:

As supplementary and explanatory of our bid to supply dresed beef in Cuba we wish to say that we have the exclusive control of the Powell process for preserving fresh meats, and that this process has been tested at Tampa, Fla., the test having been completed with most satisfactory results. This test was made under the supervision of Col. John Weston of your department, who has advised you of the results. We are advised, however, that he received four carcasses of beef which we sent him from Chicago, duly refrigerated and treated according to the Powell processes.

Part of these carcasses were enveloped in sacks or canvas, and part were not. These carcasses were distributed to the Third Cavalry, the Sixth Cavalry, batteries of artillery, and the Medical Department, and were hung in the air on the upper deck of the transport troopships, lying at the wharf in the hot sun, without any benefit of the fresh air or movement of the ships. The pieces that were not wrapped fermented in less than seventy-two hours, while the pieces that were covered or wrapped kept about one hundred hours.

These practical tests, made under the supervision of your own officer, show that by means of this process, wrapped pieces, or carcasses can be kept longer than the seventy-two hours required by your specifications.

We believe we may safely say that such results have never before been accomplished in the history of the fresh meat business. In view of the tests which we have made in the past, and of the result of the tests made under the supervision of your own officer, we believe that we are absolutely safe in the assertion that this is the only process or method which will secure the results required by your specifications. Very truly yours,

ARMOUR & CO.

Per T. J. Connor, Superintendent.

Dr. Richard A. Pyles, chief surgeon of the District of Columbia Volunteers, testified that the refrigerator beef supplied the troops in Cuba had given them dysentery.

DRAKE & MUNDY,

207 West Front St. Telephone Call 141.

Dealers in All Kinds of

FRESH, SALT AND COOKED MEATS.
FINE POULTRY.
Special Saturday Sale. Usual Line of Bargains.
th-f

The VAN'S They

sell the same as they buy, cheap. A bargain got should be a bargain given. Every item stands on its own merits as an individual bargain. We might fill this paper with talk, but what we want you to do is to visit our store, especially our always daylit basement, where we have the most complete ten cent department in the city. Here you buy the biggest on earth for the money.

10 CENTS

VanEmburgh & Son.

SHOES FOR EVERYBODY.

For Spring we have picked from the best makers as just right at our just right prices just such shoes as will suit the big majority.

We call your attention this week to the VanArsdale $3 00 shoe—for men and women—These shoes are doing us lots of good, but we have better ones, and we have them for less money, and every grade is as good as shoemaking can make them.

VAN ARSDALE,
Repairing Properly Done. 127 East Front St.

Mullins
218-220 MARKET STREET, NEWARK.

Homes Furnished For $1 a Week.

$9 95 will buy one of these Solid Oak Chamber Suits, neatly carved, with beveled plate mirror, only..... $9.95

WE have the largest stock of Chamber Suits ever offered in the city (in all woods,) from $9 75 to $ 50.

Handsome new Parlor Suit in Silk Damask, Tapestry Plush or Velour, this week $24 50

We are now showing over 300 new Parlor Suits—all the very latest designs, without any doubt the biggest and best assortment of Parlor suits in the city. Prices from $22.50 to $350.

THIS IS CARPET HEADQUARTERS.

MULLINS SPRING CARPETS

And one visit to our store will convince you. Be sure and see our stock and get our prices before you buy.

Tapestry Brussels 45c to 75c yd
Velvets, 75c to $1 yd.
Moquettes 90c yd.

This is the Week to Buy Your Baby Carriage.

All New Designs, at Reduced Prices, from $3 25 to $25.
Go Carts this week at $1.50.

THIS CARRIAGE ONLY $3.75

Open an Account with Us and You Will Save Money.

MULLINS & SONS,
218-220 Market St., Newark.
Branch Houses 78-84 Myrtle Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y. 121-125 Newark Ave., Jersey City, N. J., 136-138 Main St., Paterson, N. J.

STANDARD FOR THE WORLD.

Stop and See the

1899 Chainless

and others.

We have a few bargains in

SECOND HAND WHEELS

COLUMBIA BICYCLE AGENCY.
408 PARK AVENUE.
SATISFACTION GUARANTEED IN REPAIR WORK by C. L. Thorn, of the Columbia Agency.

Direct from the Manufacturer to the Consumer.

ONE BIG WEEK.

Last Week Was One Continuous Rush from Monday Morning Until Saturday Night.

The old adage "Prices Tell," has been well illustrated with us by the patronage we have received since we opened the retail store.

The comment of all our customers are summed up in one sentence, viz; The cheapest line of stylish well-made clothing we ever saw. Here is a list of some of our most ready sellers.

Lot 4734, 5086, 5081, 5094 — 3.50 These are men's sack suits in fancy mixtures and we recommend them to anybody who wants solid wear for little money. $5.00 is cheap for them.

Lot 4567, 4561, 5067, 5059 — 3.75 These have been general favorites and are going fast. We were compelled to fill in on some of them. They are all right.

Lot 4600, 4605, 4589, 4592 — 4.75 Strictly all wool. We invite you to compare this line with the average $8.00 suit.

Lot 5232, 4630, 5011, 5027 — 5.00 Cheviots and fancy worsteds fit for anybody to wear any place. We have 19 styles at $5.00.

Ask to see Lot 5319, 5322, and 5380, 5383. These are $10.00 and they are beauties.

Lot 4896—Blue Serge, wire woven, $6.75, worth $10.00.

Lot 5406—Blue Serge, wide wale, very popular, $7.00. Compare them with the ordinary $12.00 suit.

Come and see our silk-lined overcoat, silk-lined to the edge. Those Fancy Vests the $4.00 kind, we have them for $2.00. You will be surprised to know that we sell a child's suit with extra pants for 98 cents.

SCHEPFLIN & SCHULTZ,

M. J. CASHIN, Manager Retail Store.

322 West Front Street. Schepflin Block

A joiner and builder of Karoma, Oklahoma, who was employed in building a schoolhouse at that place, related the following narrative to his fellow workmen one day during noon hour, while they were eating dinner: "Before I came to Oklahoma, I used to live in Chicago. I worked at the bricklayer trade and was troubled with dyspepsia a great deal. My head ached terribly at times, and I durst not eat raw vegetables of any kind. I tried all kinds of medicine with no effect. My case grew rapidly worse. I had to quit work. One day an old friend of mine visited me and asked me what kind of medicine I was taking. I named a whole list of medicines that had been prescribed for me, all having little or no effect. 'John,' said he, 'try Ripans Tabules. You can get them at the corner drug store.' I sent my little boy to the store and told him to get me some. He soon came back with them and I commenced to use them. Before I had used half of the box I began to get better and when I had used it all, I was well and went to work again. Since then I have always kept them in the house. And if you will come to my house," he said, turning to a man who had complained of his ailments, "I will give you a medicine that you will have faith in."

A new style packet containing ten tablets without glass is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR FIVE CENTS. [illegible] and the economical, the dozen of the five-cents cartons (12 tablets) [illegible] cents to the Ripans CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York. [illegible] will be sent for five cents.

YOU Should See

The Great Showing OF SHIRT . . . . . WAISTS

AT LEDERER'S.

QUAY SEES HIS LAWYER

Has Too Much to Think About to Talk Politics.

MAGEE'S BOLT FAILS AGAIN

The Senator Will Subpoena John Wanamaker, Ex-Judge Gordon, Col. J. M. Guffey, Former District Attorney Graham, George Knox McCain of the Philadelphia Press to Testify in His Defense.

Philadelphia, April 7.—Lawyers and defendants in the Quay conspiracy case held two long conferences yesterday in the office of Rufus E. Shapley, one of Senator Quay's lawyers.

The conferences were marked by unusual business and running in and out, few of those attending it remaining long before rushing away and returning soon. Some went in and out several times. It was surmised that all this activity meant that final preparations were making for Senator Quay's defence. After the morning conference, which lasted two hours, Senator Quay seemed to be in unusually good spirits. He greeted an interviewer laughingly and said that he was not ready to talk.

"When do you leave the city, Senator?" was asked.

"I do not know."

"Is there any likelihood of you talking politics during your stay here?"

"No; I have enough to think of just now without that."

There were present at the consultation Rufus E. Shapley, A. S. L. Shields, David T. Watson, Ellis Ames Ballard, Joseph M. Swearingen, State Insurance Commissioner Durham and Select Councilman Seger, besides the former Senator and his son Richard. The cheerful attitude of Mr. Quay and his son was interpreted to mean that the prospects of the defence have brightened.

The Commonwealth is ready to go on with its case. It is expected that the jury panel of fifty will be exhausted by challenges for cause and the eight peremptory challenges, and that the Sheriff will be asked to draw a new panel. Mr. Shapley declined to talk of the conference or of the case. It was said, however, that Mr. Quay would not be away from Philadelphia for more than a day until his case was disposed of.

The defence said that John Wanamaker, ex-Judge Gordon, Col. J. M. Guffey, former District Attorney Graham, Meishon, a Pittsburg reporter, and George Knox McCain of the Philadelphia Press had been subpoenaed by the defence.

"And," it was remarked, "Guffey will tell the whole story."

It was further said:

"We will go to the bottom of this regardless of who is hit."

No Break from Quay Yet.

Harrisburg, April 7.—Two weeks from yesterday the present session of the Legislature will come to an end, unless the time be extended, and a suggestion of this course meets with pronounced opposition from the majority of the members. The week, therefore, has been one of nervous expectancy, but the indications are that it would close without anw material change in the Senatorial situation.

Senator Magee is the man around whom speculation, gossip, prediction and distrust revolve. On Tuesday he was expected to make his grand spectacular break from Quay. He fooled the prophets. Yesterday was then set as the time, and again there was disappointment. On both days swarms of visitors thronged the floor and the galleries.

The wife of a conspicuous anti-Quay Senator was so convinced about the situation that she passed the word around among her friends that they must without fail be in Harrisburg and witness a sight which a generation could hardly duplicate. This was to be the changing of the votes of Senator Magee and his friends and their flop to some other candidate.

But as the morning advanced and the hour for the joint Assembly approached, it became evident that there was another disappointment in store. Recorder Vonbonhorst of Pittsburg, Magee's confidential friend, went to Philadelphia with a message from Magee to Quay. The result of this mission, judging from what one heard was that Magee would continue to vote for Quay for the present at any rate, and that the predicted defection had been postponed.

Col. Guffey has gone home and so has John Wanamaker.

Shortly before 11 o'clock to-day a confidential friend of Senator Magee said: "There will be no change for a few days, but I am now convinced that Quay's successor will be elected at this session."

CZAR'S PEACE CONFERENCE.

Andrew D. White Heads the United States Delegation.

Washington, April 7.—The Secretary of State has announced the United States delegation to the Czar's disarmament congress, which will meet at The Hague the latter part of May, as follows:

Andrew D. White, United States Ambassador to Germany.

Stanford Newel, United States Minister to the Netherlands.

Seth Low, President of Columbia University.

Capt. William Crozier, Ordnance Department, U. S. A.

Capt. A. T. Mahan, U. S. N., retired.

Frederick W. Holls, of New York, secretary to the delegation.

The Muster-Out of Troops.

Washington, April 7.—All the troops which are to return to the United States for muster-out are expected to return before May 1. About 13,000 returned in March, and it is expected that 25,000 more will arrive during the present month. Every precaution is being taken by the War Department and the Marine Hospital service to prevent the introduction of infection from these troops.

Samoan Commission.

London, April 7.—Special dispatches from Berlin say Great Britain has agreed to the German proposal for unanimity in the decisions of the Samoan Commission.

FILIPINO BANDITS ROUTED.

Four Companies of American Troops Engaged in Negros.

Manila, April 7.—Papaissio, the chief of the Negros Island mountain bandits, on March 27 killed the Judge of Jimalalan, wounded a military chief and killed or captured ten natives. The Government authorities at Paradas then issued a proclamation calling for an uprising against the Americans.

Col. Smith, upon learning this sent two companies of troops under Major Simewater and two companies under Col. Duboce. On April 2 Major Simewater's force routed the bandits, burned Paradise and captured twenty-five prisoners. Papaissio retreated toward the position of Col. Duboce.

On Gen. MacArthur's front the main body of the insurgents remains in the vicinity of Calumpit, while the other branch, which has apparently been augumented, is massing in the Mates Valley near the position of Gen. Hall's brigade.

Malolos proves to be an unsatisfactory base of action, owing to the unhealthful condition of the water, and it is probable that a change will be made to the northward.

The tender of the cruiser Baltimore, while scouting near Dagupan, was fired upon by natives, and two men on board were wounded. The cruiser bombarded the natives and drove them off.

A Respite in Luzon.

Manila, April 7.—There has been a week's respite in the hostilities, chiefly to allow the Filipinos to digest the Proclamation of the United States Commission.

The rebels remain remarkably quiet. The sharpshooters of Gen. Lawton's line have borrowed the Filipino tactics and are harrassing the insurgents at night, picking some of them off nightly.

Malolos is resuming its natural aspect, business is going on, preparations are being made to establish a permanent camp for the troops there, and the soldiers are cleaning the city. A third of the American force is sent nightly to form an advanced line a mile north of the city, with patrols and sentries ahead of the line.

Gen. MacArthur's volunteers are receiving Jorgensen rifles, the Filipinos having discovered that they could effectively empty their Mauser rifles and retreat before the Americans approached near enough to use their Springfield rifles with effect.

Advices from Samar say the revolutionists there are weary of their leader, Gen. Lukban, of Chinese ancestry, who has deserted with the funds, and the inhabitants are desirous of American rule.

BRYAN STICKS TO THE PLATFORM.

Says All Speakers at Jefferson Dinner should be its supporters.

New York, April 7.—Another telegram from William J. Bryan was received by Eugene V. Brewster, which read as follows:

"Will attend Chicago platform dinner at Grand Central Palace April 15. All speakers should be supporters of Chicago platform principles.

"W. J. BRYAN."

Mr. Brewster stated that inasmuch as the workingmen's committee had turned over to the Bryan Silver Committee a check for $515 to make good what the latter had expended to secure Grand Central Palace for the night of April 19, that date had been abandoned in favor of the former, and April 15 chosen instead.

The plans for the 15th, as outlined at present, provided for a brass and string band, 3,000 seats for dollar diners and 500 balcony and box seats at 50 cents apiece for women spectators accompanied by escorts.

Mr. Brewster says there will be no favoritism in the apportionment of tickets, except in relation to specially invited guests. "First come, first served," will be the plan.

A. J. Boulton, of the Workingmen's Committee, has requested Brewster to return $135 held by him from various labor organizations who originally intended to swell the crowd at the Bryan Chicago platform spread. It is sought to have the decorations at the Palace on the 15th simple but effective.

John C. Sheehan said that the action of the Committee of Fifteen on the Chicago Platform Democracy in striking his name from the list of invited guests at the dollar feast of April 15 was not disturbing him in the least.

"Two weeks ago, before I returned to the city," added Mr. Sheehan, "I announced that I would attend neither dinner, because my business engagements were such that I could not be in New York at the time of the dinner celebrations. I expect to be in Pittsbug next week.

Connecticut Insurance Commissioner.

New Haven, April 7.—Governor Loundsbury has sent in again for a second time the nomination of E. L. Scofield of Stamford to be Insurance Commissioner to succeed F. A. Betts. The Governor said that under the law such a renomination was necessary, as the committee had not reported within the statutory time. There was a warm discussion in executive session of the Senate as to whether the appointment had not lapsed to the General Assembly under the law, but the nomination was again sent to the committee on executive nominations. The general situation indicates a more or less concerted effort on the part of the friends of Mr. Betts to secure his reappointment, and a possible defeat of the Governor, though that result is hardly regarded as likely.

Bridge Works to Resume.

Pottstown, April 7.—A change in the ownership of the bridge-works plant at this place is announced. C. R. Baird & Co. of Philadelphia have sold the entire plant, including real estate of twelve acres and buildings, to a firm of Baltimore manufacturing capitalists, whose names at present do not appear with the deal. It is learned on good authority that the works will be put in operation at once, and considerable additions will be made to the capacity of the plant. Until seven years ago the works ran double-turn and employed about 800 men.

Riches for Mrs. McKinley.

Canton, O., April 7.—Attorney Austin Lynch says that mineral and oil rights belonging to the heirs of the late James A. Saxton, father of Mrs. McKinley, Mrs. M. C. Barber and George D. Saxton, have been found in Carroll county about twelve miles from Sico.

The property is said to be of immense value.

THIS IS THE POINT.

There are a great many stores that are anxious to get your trade, and that will make almost any kind of a promise to get it.

But there is always one thoroughly dependable store—a store that is sure to give you the best and most reliable meats that money can buy. Proper selection and correct butchering explains the satisfaction they give.

FRED ENDRESS,

131-135 West Front Street Only.

Wm. J. Pearson,

(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)

Carpenter and Builder

15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to.

Putnam & De Graw.

SPECIALS FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

Ladies' 25c fast black Hose, for 19c
Children's fast black Hose, 10c—3 for 25c.
Childr n's fast black Hose, 15c—2 for 25c.
Gent's colored Shirts, detached cuffs regular $1 00 quality for 75c.
Gents' white Laundered Shirts, regular 75c quality for 62c.

HEADQUARTERS FOR

Plants and Cut Flowers.

Chas. L. Stanley 142 North Avenue.

FLORAL DESIGNS A SPECIALTY.

Greenhouses, South Avenue, Netherwood.

CHAS. L. FORCE,

Architect and Superintendent.

208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given. 1 31 tf

John G. Bantle,

428 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

First-class

TAILOR

SPECIALTY OF

Ladies' Tailor-made Garments

Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

J. C Pope & Co.,

INSURANCE AGENTS.

110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

TRY THE

QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,

No. 337 Park Avenue

(Miller Building.)

Goods called for and delivered free of charge.

Domestic or gloss finish.

Monroe B. Long, M D., President. Eugene M. Laing, Vice-President.
Robert A. Meeker, Secretary. Robert J Shaw, Treasurer.

THE UNION BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.

OFFICE, 203 PARK AVENUE.

Special Features

A uniform Loaning Rate of $8.67 Per month on each $1,000 borrowed. ANY additional amount may be paid in, no matter how small, with any monthly installment; thus maturing the stock that much sooner.

It accommodates itself to the financial condition of the borrower instead of compelling him to pay a certain fixed amount each month.

Liberal Withdrawals With Interest

THE MEMBERS MAY WITHDRAW AT ANY TIME AND RECEIVE THE WHOLE AMOUNT PAID IN AND AFTER ONE YEAR SIX PER CENT INTEREST ON THE SAME.

The whole or any part of the loan can be paid off at any time.

A New Series Issued Every Month.

To Investors

PAID-UP OR INCOME STOCK, COSTING $60 PER SHARE AND BEARING 5 PER CENT INTEREST AND HAVING A MATURITY VALUE OF $100 PER SHARE is issued from time to time, as the board of directors may determine, and is especially desirable for those wishing a secure and profitable investment.

For further particulars inquire at the office 203 Park Ave., Room 8, or address the secretary.

R. A. MEEKER,
203 PARK AVE.

F. A. DUNHAM

—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—

108 Park Ave., Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Public [illegible] city map and atlas [illegible]

DEAD HORSES

Removed free. Brickman Brothers, 611 South Second Street. Main office New Brunswick N. J. Telephone Call, 65 F.

Fertilizer Works, Livingston Park, N. J. 4 3 3m

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN

Is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 50 stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 209 North avenue.

3000 Pairs of Knee Pants

To be sold in two days. Sale to start Friday at 10 a. m.

Jos. Klein & Co.
Manufacturers of
BOYS' KNEE PANTS.

All Goods Made On the Premises

NEW YORK, MARCH 1, '99.

MR. M. WEINBERGER,
M'g'r New York Clothing Co.,
Plainfield, N. J.

DEAR SIR:—

We are ready to see you; have settled with insurance company and will keep goods until we see you. Make as early call as possible.

Yours truly,
JOS. KLEIN & CO.,
Manufacturers of knee pants exclusively.

"Our Own" Perfect Fitting.

Lot 1552.
Age 15.
Price

These Pants are sewed with the best Standard thread having the

IMPERIAL WAIST BANDS,

TAPED SEAMS

AND WARRANTED NOT TO RIP.

A Great Chance for Mothers to buy the finest knee pants, at almost your own prices.

Jos. Klein & Co., are positively the largest manufacturers of knee pants in the United States. They occupy the building numbers 616 and 618 Broadway, New York City.

A fire started recently in the floor above their establishment, and their stock of knee pants was slightly damaged by water only, there is not a spot or a speck on the goods, and having bought this fine stock of over 3,000 pairs of strictly all wool materials of the standard Ashland Mills cassimeres, blue and black serges, fancy cheviots, blue and black clay diagonals, black cheviots and fancy worsteds knee pants. Every pair of them are perfect fitters, made with the patent waist bands and every seam is taped. The sizes are from 3 to 16 years.

These knee pants were manufactured to sell from 50c to 2.00 Our prices on these knee pants. A 50c knee pants at 17c, 65c pants at 25c, 75c pants at 29c and 1.00 pants at 38c, 1.25 pants at 50c. There are over 100 styles of knee pants to choose from.

Come early and get your grand selection. This is positively the largest assortment of knee pants ever shown in Plainfield. And having purchased them about 25c on the dollar, we can afford to sell them to you at almost your own price. Four large tables are reserved for this stock.

New York Clothing Co.

M. Weinberger, Manager. 214 West Front St., next door to Music Hall, Plainfield, N. J.

BOEHM'S.

Brocaded Silk Capes

Trimmed with Jet and Lace, Ruche Collarette and Silk lined at $2.98.

Ladies' Tailor-made Suits.

Made of Venetian and all-wool Cloth Jacket, silk lined throughout, skirt percaline line worth $10.00, at $7.49.

Children's Reefers,

Braid trimmed, double collar, ruffle edge, worth $2.50 at $1 98.

Everything in Millinery represented in our assortment, every shape, style and color that is desirable is here at prices which cannot be approached or duplicated anywhere.

KID GLOVES. Just by chance we managed to get another lot of those 2-clasp Kid Gloves, in white with black stitching, all black and colors, sizes 6 to 7 1-2, as good as any dollar glove, at 59c a pair.

MEN'S COLORED CAMBRIC SHIRTS, soft bosom, 2 collars and a separate pair of cuffs, worth 65c, at 49c.

One lot of FANCY PLAID RIBBONS, all silk, worth 38c, special at 25c yard.

50 dozen of Ladies' Fast Black Seamless Hose, worth 15c, special at 10c pair.

BOEHM'S.

When March winds blow,
And our face and hands chap so

USE CHAP CURE.

Manufactured only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG, "The Apothecary"

COR. NORTH AND PARK AVES.

THE DAILY PRESS

A. L. FORCH, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 8:30 p. m.
168 West Front avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week
$5 a year—in advance
No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada
Delivered by carrier or by mail.
The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district
Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.
Advertising rates mailed on request.
Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N.J., APRIL 7 1899.

FEATURES OF TODAY'S PRESS.

PAGE 1.—Important local news.
PAGE 2.—Telegraphic news.
PAGE 3.—Telegraphic news.
PAGE 4.—Editorial and gossip.
PAGE 5.—Vicinity news.
PAGE 6.—Religious news.
PAGE 6.—German news.
PAGE 7.—Miscellaneous.
PAGE 8.—Sporting and local news.

FACTT ABOUT PLAINFIELD.

(The accompanying facts about Plainfield are for the information of the non-resident public and do not recognize the dividing line line between the city of Plainfield and the borough of North Plainfield, except when such a distinction is necessary in describing a municipal institution)

CLUBS—Ten.
BANKS—Three.
HOTELS—Seven.
SEWERS—24 miles.
GAS—20 miles of mains.
CHURCHES—Thirty-five.
BONDED DEBT—$120,000.
PUBLIC SCHOOLS—Eleven.
SOCIETIES AND LODGES—Ninety.
POLICE—Nineteen paid members.
POSTOFFICE—Free delivery of mail.
BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS—Ten.
NEWSPAPERS—Five; two daily; three weekly.
STREETS—Seventy miles graded; thirty-seven macadamized.
WATER SUPPLY—Artesian wells; forty-five miles of mains.
TAXABLE VALUATION—City, $8,000,000; borough, $2,250,000.
COUNTY—Plainfield in Union; North Plainfield in Somerset.
POPULATION—City and borough, 20,000; immediate suburbs, 5,000.
FIRE DEPARTMENT—Eight companies; paid drivers; four departments.
ELECTRIC LIGHT—Incandescent and arc in every part of city and borough.
STREET RAILWAY—Nine miles of track; cars run every 12 minutes from 5:30 a. m. to 12 p. m.
RAILROAD—Central Railroad of New Jersey; 24 miles from New York; 65 miles from Philadelphia; 45 minutes from New York; four depots; commutation ticket to New York $60 a year.

There Must Be a Reason

For the large amount of the best class of advertising that is found in the columns of The Daily Press. And there is.

It Is Because

Buyers of advertising appreciate the fact that The Daily Press is bought by the purchasing public for the excellence of its news service, and the merchant who would reach those people with his trade bargains must do it in the paper that will put his announcement before the greatest number. That is why

The Daily Press Leads.

COMING EVENTS.

April 7—Continuation of the "Feast of All Nations" in Trinity Reformed church lecture room.
April 8—Concert by the Cecelia Bradford Trio at Y. M. C. A. Hall.
April 9—Evangelist Tom Graham and Cecelia Bradford Trio, of New York, at the men's rally at Y. M. C. A., 4:15 p. m.
April 10—Union Bible class taught by Rev. D. M. Stearns.
April 10—Literary Society of the Y. M. C. A.
April 11—Star Course entertainment in Y. M. C. A. Hall
April 20—Gymnastic exhibition at Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Place Views the Situation.

In a letter written to the editor of the Somerville Unionist-Gazette, Former Mayor Charles Place, of North Plainfield, says that he can see no good reason why Vice President Hobart should not receive a renomination on the National ticket next year.

After discussing G. O. P. changes Mr. Place indulges in a little prognostication for the Democrats, and says that Bryan is likely to be the next nominee for President because "he is even more popular with the silver element than he was three years ago." But the North Plainfield gentleman ends his pleasant reference to Bryan by saying that he cannot win, and thereby takes all the sweet out of it for the Democrats, or those who like the great silver champion.

Considering the chances that Governor Roosevelt or any other eastern Republican might have for getting into the White House, Mr. Place significantly says "if any rising young statesman in the east gets the Presidential bee in his hat the only thing for him to do is to take Horace Greeley's advise, and go as far west beyond the Ohio river as his judgment dictates."

The Paterson Press thinks it curious that Newark cannot support a Republican newspaper. The trouble with too many partisan papers is that they are run in a partisan way to appeal to politicians. Such a paper even in so big a city as Newark, is bound to be a failure. If a Republican paper was started in Newark that would put its news columns ahead of its editorial columns in importance to the public that it must reach for support, it doubtless could be made to pay. There is every chance for the success of a paper if it furnishes the news to its readers; editorial prestige and power follows as a natural consequence.

In the endeavor to collect unpaid taxes the Board of Aldermen of New Brunswick has reduced the rate of interest on delinquent taxes from twelve to eight per cent. providing the arreages are paid up by July 1st. In running a private business it is considered a good rule to make concessions to debtors if there is any hope of collecting bills, and conducting a public business the same ideas work will for the befinet of the government interested. But it is a fact that there are too many municipalities who are penny wise and pound foolish in this respect.

The article printed in yesterday's Daily Press describing the working of the proposed city ordinance establishing a system of paid call men in the fire department, proved very interesting reading. The constant improvement of the fire department of this city ought to make some impression on the fire insurance companies in reducing the rates for local risks.

"Let the trusts come if they will give us street lights on any other than the almanac plan now in vogue," is the wretched cry of the New Brunswick people. And Plainfielders who visit New Brunswick awheel after the wee hours of the eveningtide exclaim "And let it be so."

Arbor Day is forcing itself with more significance upon the people every year. Plant trees.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

All this talk about President Reed refusing to entertain motions to relieve Senate committees of the further consideration of bills is done with the apparent purpose of injuring the man from Somerset. Suppose he did err in this respect? What possible difference could it make in the result? With gavel in hand and a party majority of seven in sight, what need he care? President Reed evidently refused to hear or put such motions because he was proudly conscious of their finish, and wanted to save valuable time by choking them off at their birth. To have entertained such motions under a viva voce vote would have been regular, but that never could have developed the Reed independence, which began to bud at the close rather than at the opening of the session.—New York Press.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

The reserved seat sale for the two performances of "Little Lord Fauntleroy," which will be given tomorrow afternoon and evening at the Music Hall is already large. The indications are, that Manager Edwards will be remunerated for his enterprise in bringing the famous Smedley children to Plainfield. As soon as the announment was made in the papers that Mrs. Burnett's charming play would be presented here, the ladies commenced buying tickets. Mr. Edwards departing from his usual custom, has placed on sale reserved seat coupon tickets for the matinee performance, so that ladies and children may avoid the crush at the box office window, by securing seats in advance.

Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett's fine literary workmanship and excellent taste have been brought to bear upon her drama, "Little Lord Fauntleroy," with conspicuous judgment. Both the pathos and the humor are exquisitely refined, and the charm and brilliancy of the book are repeated with a renewal of their original fascinating effect in the play. The characters are forcibly sketched and the hero loses nothing of his primal sweetness and delicacy by stepping from the narrative to the stage. The play deserves popularity and teaches a lesson that cannot be too widely learned. After the matinee performance the little "lords" will hold a reception on the stage for the ladies and children.

DRINK GRAIN-O

after you have concluded that you ought not to drink coffee. It is not a medicine but doctors order it, because it is health building and appetizing. It is made from pure grains and has that rich seal brown color and tastes like the finest grades of coffee and costs about ¼ as much. Children like it and thrive on it because it is a genuine food drink containing nothing but nourishment. Ask your grocer for Grain-O, the new food drink. 15 and 25c.

ALL DAY LONG ON Saturday.

All day on Saturday double the usual number of Trading Stamps will be given with each cash purchase. A rare opportunity to fill your books quickly. Not only so, but you will get stamps with all of the following

Specials:

All our $10.00 Tailor-made Suits	$8.48
" 2.98 Shirt Waists	2.35
" 1.25 Black Satine Underskirts	98c
" 76c 52-in all-wool Venitian Suitings	69c yd
" 25c Midnight Black Moire Percaline	19c yd
" Amoskeag Apron Ginghams	4¾c yd
" 25c India Linen	16c yd
" No. 2000 English Long Cloth	1.25 pc
" 20-in Cotton Birds Eye	40c pc
" 12½ Drapery Denims	9c yd
" 5-4 Table Oilcloth	11c yd
" 50c Corsets	39c ea
" Ladies' 15c Fast Black Hose	10c pr
" Child's " " " " (ribbed)	10c pr
" Men's " " " Socks	10c pr
" " 25c Band Bows	19c ea
" " 10c Heavy Mixed Socks	3 pr for 25c
" Brown's French Shoe Dressing	8c bot
" Lyons' Tooth Powder	15c box
" Royal Tooth Powder	5c box
" Cuticura Soap	20c cake
" Cosmo Buttermilk Soap	6c cake
" Packer's Tar Soap	19c cake
" Pears' Unscented Soap	11c cake

DOWN STAIRS.

$1.39 Wilton Nubia Rugs, fringed ends,	$1.25
$1.25 " " " bound ends,	98c

1 Solid Oak Side Board, French Plate Mirror. 6 Cane Seat Dining Chairs. 1 six-foot Solid Oak Extension Table — For 19.98. (Value 24.00.)

1 Solid Oak 3 piece Bedroom Suit. 1 Woven Wire Spring. 1 Soft Top Mattress. 1 Bolster. 2 Pillows — For 19.98. (Value 24.00.)

ABOVE SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY ONLY. ALL GOODS MENTIONED ARE FIRST-CLASS, NEW AND IN GOOD CONDITION. NO AUCTION GOODS. NO SHODDY HANDLED.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,
234-236-238 WEST FRONT ST.

GEO. W. COLE,
UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER.
200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

H. DeMOTT,
UNDERTAKER
AND EMBALMER.
Residence and office 89 Somerset St.
TELEPHONE 248 B.

WANTS AND OFFERS.

ROOMS to rent. Enquire 27 Somerset place. 3 31 7

NINE ROOM HOUSE to let all improvements, East Second street. Enquire Wm. Newcorn, 204 West Front street. 2 21 tf

BARN to let, Second street, near Watchung avenue. Apply at Daily Press office. 3 13 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

WANTED—Houses to rent from $15 up. Elston M. French & Co. 2 1 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

6 ROOM house, new, near Netherwood station; to let or for sale. Sherwin's shoe store. 3 22 tf

DESIRABLE rooms with board, eight minutes walk to station. 21 Sandford avenue. 3 7 tf

FARM of 108 acres, near Bernardsville, Somerset county, for sale or exchange for Plainfield property; two dwellings on property; plenty fruit; five barns; land well watered. E. D. Barrett, 148 East Fifth street. 4 3 6

TO LET—Choice corner flats, steam heat; all improvements, in Clifton Building, Fourth street and Park avenue C B. Clifton, Seventh street and Spooner avenue. 4 5 5

TO RENT—The new dwelling house, 929 Madison avenue; has all the modern improvements throughout Street macadamized to curb. Apply to John M. Whiton, 821 Central avenue. 3 17 tf

HANDSOMELY furnished rooms, with board; new apartment house 122 Watchung avenue 4 5 4

LARGE pleasant rooms, furnished or unfurnished; good table. 434 corner Fifth street and Watchung avenue. 4 1 6

TO LET—Half house, city water; 6 rooms; $10 per month. Inquire at 138 Duer street. 3 30 tf

TO LET—Four nice rooms. 611 Liberty street. 4 6 3

HOUSE and lot for sale, cheap, first-class stables. Hand & Allen, Scotch Plains, N. J. 4 7 3

GIRLS wishes a situation as child's nurse or waitress. Call 513 West Sixth street.

MAHOGANY upright piano, will rent for $3 00 per month to good parties Address M, care Press. 4 7 2

FOR SALE—Two seated surrey, good condition; price $50, closed carriage, (good hack) $30 Call Stable, B O. Bowers, 400 Franklin place. 4 7 3

FOR SALE—Milk, from 2 cans to 100 quarts per day; to suit buyer. Address G. H. Albertson, Kellogg farm, Mt. Pleasant. 4 6 4

HOUSEKEEPER, middle aged lady, desires position as housekeeper for widower's family; trustworthy in every respect. Address "A," care Press. 4 6 2

HOUSE and barn to let. 682 West Third street, water and sewer connected; rent $13 00. Inquire 1220 West Front street. 4 6 tf

FOR SALE—At a great sacrifice, 100 shares of Class E Stock, of the Mercantile Co., Operative Bank, maturity value $100 each share, on which shares has been paid $225 00. Apply Pope & Runyon, Attorneys. 4 6 tf

WANTED—At once, a pony cart or light phaeton. Address B., care Press. 4 6 3

WANTED—A competent girl for general housework. 806 Third place. 4 6 2

TO LET—Two four room flats, with improvements; very convenient. T. Callahan, Richmond and Third Sts. 3 31 eod tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Chas. L. Moffett, Attorney. cor. Park and North Aves. 12 11 eod tf

TWO seated wagon wanted, station or depot preferred, must be in good order and price low. Address with particulars, "Carriage," care Press. 4 3 3 eod

IF your grocer says he does not keep our Flavoring Extracts, ask him to get them for you.

A. L. Kaerth & Co.,
132 E. Second St.

PECK'S CORNER.

Nothing to wait for! Everything to come for!

AT PECK'S

LADIES' NECKWEAR.
No such an assortment can you find as here.

DRESS LININGS.
Everything you need.

FRENCH AND SCOTCH FLANNELS.
Fine goods and beautiful patterns.

SHIRT WAISTS.
have arrived; have just been made from the newest and latest styles and are NEW.

AT PECK'S.

"PAY CASH AND SAVE MONEY" AT
V. L. FRAZEE'S,
THE PEOPLE'S CASH GROCER
151 West Front Street.
SPECIAL PRICES FOR ALL THIS WEEK.

Good New York State Creamery Butter	19c lb
Fresh Jersey Eggs, every Egg guaranteed	15c doz
Best Elgin Creamery Butter	22c lb
Granulated Sugar	5c lb
Best Sugar Cured Hams	8½c lb
Best Early Rose Potatoes	43c basket
Carolina Rice	4 lbs 23c
Paris Sugar Corn	9c can, 3 cans for 25c
Good Sweet Sugar Corn	6c can
Best Tomatoes, NO BETTER, solid packed	7c can
Best New York State Sugar Corn	7c can
Marrowfat Peas	6c can
Good Early June Peas	8c can
Best Small Early June Peas, NO BETTER	10c can
Best Lard	5c lb
Best Full Cream Cheese	12c lb
Best Minnesota Patent Flour per bbl	$4.40
" " " " 24 1-2 lb bag	55c
If one baking is used and not satisfactory money returned for whole bag or barrel.
Best California Prunes	5c, 7c, 8c and 9c lb
" " Dried Peaches	12c lb
New Dried Lima Beans	8c quart
" " White Beans	5c quart
Aunt Jemima Pancake Flour	9c pkg
3 lb package Best Prepared Buckwheat	10c
3 lb Package Best Prepared Flour	10c
Best Rolled Oats	3c lb, 6 lbs for 15c
Pure Vermont Maple Syrup	25c quart bottle
Magnolia Condensed Milk	8c can
Fern " "	7c can
Pickles	7c doz
Best New Orleans Molasses	33c gal
" Vanilla Drip Syrup	33c "
" Old Cider Vinegar	15c "
" 150 Test Oil	5 gals for 45c
Washing Soda	1c lb
Babbitt's Soap	2 cakes for 7c
Higgin's German Laundry Soap	3c cake
Fairbank's Soap	10 cakes for 25c
Duryea's Best Starch	4c lb, 7 lbs for 25c
Duryea's Best Corn Starch	6c package
Fine Fat Mackerel	9c each, 3 for 25c
Shredded Codfish	5c package
New Columbia River Salmon	10c can
1 lb box Davis O. K. Baking Powder	18c
25 Best Lemons for	25c
Best Mocha and Java Coffee	25c lb
Lion Coffee	9c lb
3 lb Can Best Bartlett Pears for	10c
3 lb Cans California Peaches	13c can, 2 for 25c
Best Ginger Snaps, Lemon Cakes, Nic Nacs, Soda and Oyster Crackers	5c lb
Best Clothes Pins	1c doz
Mince Meat	7c pkg
Kirkman's Borax Soap, 6 cakes in a box for	23c

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL!
MAZE EDWARDS, Lessee and Manager.
Telephone 722.

Two Performances—Matinee and Night.
SATURDAY, APRIL 8, 1899.
A Magnificent Production of MRS. FRANCES HODGSON BURNETT'S Charming Drama
"Little Lord Fauntleroy."
By the Famous
SMEDLEY CHILDREN
ELLA, Aged 10. EDWIN, Aged 9.
And a Company of Carefully-Selected Players.
PRICES—At Night, 25, 35, 50 and 75c. Box Seats $1.
All Seats at the Matinee Reserved, 25 and 50c
Reserved seat tickets now on sale.

STATIONERY
LESS THAN COST.

The entire stock of R. C. Rand has been removed from West Front St. to
37 SOMERSET STREET,
Thorn's Block, where it is being closed out at less than cost in order to settle with his creditors. There are many bargains left. Come and get them. A. B. THORN, Assignee
4 7 6

A. WILLETT & SON,
107 PARK AVENUE.

MEN'S TAN SHOES
$3.00.

We pride ourselves on our $3.00 Tan Shoes this year.

Made in latest style and newest shades of Tan.

They are a fine wearing shoe upon which we can depend for future favors, and they will please the most fastidious.

Call and see them,
A pleasure to show.

SARDOU'S GREAT PLAY
"DIPLOMACY."
For Charity, Music Hall, Saturday evening, April 29th, at 8. Reserved Seats 50c, 75c, $1, $1.25. Armstrong's Drug Store. Every seat in hall gives good view of stage. Acoustic properties all light with full house which is now arranged. 4 7 td

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
ABSOLUTELY PURE
Makes the food more delicious and wholesome
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, April 7.—The Brunswick Company is giving excellent service to the people of this borough as evidenced every day. Yesterday afternoon a representative of The Daily Press was present at the Jefferson avenue terminal and saw one of their cars start for Bound Brook with the Plainfield car in sight and carrying passengers bound for Bound Brook. As a result the passengers were obliged to wait forty-five minutes for another car. It was plainly evident that the men in charge of the Brunswick cars have no desire to help trade along, but would rather try and run on time. The trolley service at present is simply outrageous and the public are made to suffer for it. The trolley companies seem to be acting more like boys than business men, and it would not be surprising if the public should rise up in indignation. It is understood that the Central Railroad Company is at an early date going to institute a half-hour train service between Somerville and Elizabeth for local travel, and if this is done the trolley companies will be turned down to a large degree. At all events it is about time that something was done to give the people what they are entitled to.

The work of laying water pipes in the borough has been started on Prospect street, and a large gang of Italians are employed. The work will now be pushed rapidly toward completion. The fire hydrants have arrived and have been placed along the line of the mains.

Rev. Mr. Jamison, pastor of the M. E. church, is in Newark attending the annual conference of the M. E. church.

Master Harold Tomlinson, of North Plainfield, is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Anne Dunham, of Church street.

Miss Maude VanPelt, of East Orange, has returned from a visit with friends in town.

O. E. Douglass, reporter for The Call, has returned from a visit with out-of-town friends.

Mrs. Griggs, of New Brunswick, has returned home after a pleasant visit with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wise, of North Plainfield, have been visiting friends in the borough.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hamilton, of Westfield, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Bodine.

The Misses Lizzie and Mary Martine are visiting their grandparents at Flemington.

Walter Runyon has just purchased a handsome rubber tire road wagon.

Peter Sutphen moved yesterday from North avenue to Somerville.

Arthur Giddis, of Long Island, spent yesterday with Plainfield freinds.

J. B. Corlell moved yesterday from North avenue to Grove street.

W. L Larrabee has returned from a business trip out of town.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, April 7.—Those who attended the stereopticon entertainment in the Baptist church Wednesday evening, certainly enjoyed a realistic trip to the far west. Mr. Hall, who is no stranger to Scotch Plains audiences, gave a very entertaining descriptive talk of the views and all present thoroughly enjoyed the trip with him. The treasury of the Sunday-school will be enriched by a neat little sum.

Mrs. Winfield S. Jimerson and children, of Westfield, were the guests Wednesday of Mrs. Jimerson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Frentz.

Mr. Shott and family, who have been occupying "The Evergreens" on Mountain avenue for the past year, have moved to New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Emery have removed to Bayonne, where Mr Emery has accepted a position.

William McNair and John Thys have the contract for painting Mrs. Hosingers' house on Park avenue.

George McCauley has accepted a position as carpenter with the Central Railroad.

Mrs. Thomas M. Paff, Sr., is recovering from her recent illness very nicely.

William E. Collins, of Fanwood, visited friends in Cranford last evening.

Mrs. William Corey is visiting relatives in New York State for a few days.

John Robison spent Wednesday visiting his sister in New York city.

Goodwill Lodge, K. of P., met in their rooms last evening.

Miss Voehl and Miss Steiner, of the borough, have been visiting out of town friends.

Harry Lowrie and family, who attended the marriage of Mr. Lowrie's sister in this city Wednesday evening, returned to their home at Camden yesterday. Mr. Lowrie is superintendent of the Prudential Insurance Company at Camden and is doing good work for the company.

Bon Ami
An Improved Cleaner.
THAT DOES AWAY WITH WEAR AND TEAR. IT REMOVES DIRT AND STAINS--NOTHING MORE.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY.

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—Last Sunday five persons joined Warren chapel on confession of faith.

—Charles Conover, of Elmwood place, has erected a substantial new fence alongside of his property.

—A very important meeting of Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., will be held Tuesday evening of next week.

—The regular prayer meeting will be held at Warren chapel this evening and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

—The Ladies' Sewing Society of the First Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. Searing, of Westervelt avenue.

—Ephriam Compton and family, of 132 East Second street, have moved to the corner of Brook and Sandford avenues.

—A number of improvements are being made to the Radford property, corner of West Front street and Elmwood place.

—Among the large number of patients at Muhlenburg Hospital there are a number of critical cases in the private wards.

—A number of the streets in the centre of the city are being opened up to permit the placing of telephone wires underground.

—Business of special importance will be considered by the members of Washington Camp, No. 38, P. O. S. of A., next Monday evening.

—The new building on West Front street erected by John Naylor as a paint works is about completed and work will be started in a short time.

—Next week Thursday evening the Ladies' Aid Society of Warren chapel will give a supper to the members of the Berean Bible class and other adults of the chapel.

—A meeting of the Loyal Temperance Legion was held last Tuesday at which time it was decided to hold an entertainment Saturday, April 15th, in the W. C. T. U. rooms.

—A special meeting of the Publishers' Association of the Eighth Congressional District will be held at the office of the Elizabeth Journal, Elizabeth, Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

—F. W. Butler, of East Ninth street, has purchased the property 117 East Ninth street, formerly owned by Mrs. R. K. Case and has had it entirely renovated. He removed from his former residence 202 East Ninth street yesterday.

—Camilla Urso said: "I am much pleased to say that Miss Cecelia Bradford has been under my tuition for the past two years, and has been playing in concerts with great and deserving success." Miss Bradford will appear with the Cecelia Bradford Trio in the concert to be given under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow evening.

He Fooled the Surgeons.

All doctors told Benick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest Pile cure on earth, and the best Salve in the World. 25 cents a box. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that, too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night, and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." This writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

PEOPLE COME AND GO

PERSONAL MENTION OF INTEREST TO PRESS READERS.

Some Come to Enjoy Pleasures of Plainfield, Others Journey to Either Mountain or Shore for Recreation.

Mrs. Isaac Laing, of Dunellen, has been visiting relatives in this city.

Mr. Mattis, of Madison avenue, has been visiting friends at Somerville.

E. M. Cave, of Sandford avenue, has about recovered from a recent illness.

Miss Louise Kuenlen, of West End Park, is visiting friends in Brooklyn.

Edward Hooley, of Washington Park, has gone south on a business trip.

Miss Schenck, of the borough, is entertaining company from Somerville.

Mrs. Harold Tomlinson, of the borough, is spending a few days in New York.

Mrs. Clark, of Newark, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. C. Pope, of Fourth street.

Lawyer John Frecht, of Somerville, was in the borough yesterday on business.

N. H. Saxton, of East Fourth street, has returned from an out-of-town business trip.

Julius Williams, of Elmwood place has returned from a business trip to Philadelphia.

Elmer Garretson, of East Millstone, who has been visiting in town, has returned home.

J. M. Bettman, of the borough, is able to attend to business again after a brief illness.

Elmer E. Winckler, of Westervelt avenue, has returned from a business trip to Boston.

Harry Page, of Elmwood place, leaves for Harrisburg Monday to be gone all summer.

City Clerk MacMurray, of Westervelt avenue, was in Trenton yesterday on business.

Miss Henderson, of New York, has been the guest at the home of A. E. Faber, of Rockview avenue.

Miss Henschel, of New York, who has been visiting friends in Washington Park, has returned home.

Rev. Cornelius G. Bristol and family, of Hartford, Conn., are guests of Mrs. Bristol's parents in this city.

The play for the trophy of the New Jersey Whist Association will begin shortly. The trophy was won at the whist congress by the team from the Elizabeth Chess and Whist Club and that team now holds it. The Park Club, of this city, is announced as the first of the challengers to play for it. The date for the match has not yet been set.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.
Sold by Druggists, 75c.
Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Corporation Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the following Ordinance has been introduced before the Common Council, read the second time and ordered engrossed preparatory to its third reading, and that it is the intention of the Council to adopt the same.

JAMES T. MacMURRAY,
City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., April 6th, 1899.

AN ORDINANCE

TO ESTABLISH, REGULATE AND CONTROL A FIRE DEPARTMENT IN THE CITY OF PLAINFIELD.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That the Fire Department of the city of Plainfield shall consist of one Chief Engineer, a First and Second Assistant Engineers, Veterinary Surgeon, and as many permanent men as the Common Council may from time to time designate to act as Drivers, Tillermen and Firemen; also one Engineer of Steamer, and (6) Call Men for each hose or hook and ladder company that may be organized under this ordinance to act as hose men and ladder men and to perform such other duties as shall be required of them at a fire by their superior officers.

The following companies shall be organized immediately upon this ordinance taking effect as aw:

Hose Company, No 1.
Hose Company, No. 2.
Hose Company, No. 3.
Hook and Ladder Company, No. 1.
Engine Company, No. 1.

and other similar companies may thereafter be organized as the Common Council may from time to time deem necessary, and order, either by resolution or by ordinance.

Section 2. All members now employed in the Fire Department at stated salaries shall be retained and form a part of and be included in the employees enumerated above and continue in service as such, and shall be subject to all rules and regulations adopted by the Board of Engineers and to the provisions of this ordinance to the same extent as new appointees.

Section 3. The Chief Engineer shall be the Fire Marshal and Fire Inspector of the City of Plainfield, and shall perform such duties as shall devolve upon him as such by the laws of the State and the ordinances of the city of Plainfield. He shall keep an accurate record of the names of the officers and members of the Department and all appointments and transfers, resignations and removals of firemen as the same shall take place from time to time, and such other particulars as may be necessary and proper. He shall have sole and entire command of fires and alarms of fire over all members of the Department, apparatus and appurtenances belonging to the same, and all other persons aiding and assisting the Department at fires. In addition to performing his duties as Building Inspector he shall devote his whole time to the service of the Department, and shall report the condition of the Department to the Committee on Fire and Buildings as often as they shall request. He shall order the different fire companies out for work, wash, drill or for inspection, at such time and places as he may designate, and whenever he may deem it necessary for the efficiency of the Department.

In the absence or inability of the Chief Engineer the First Assistant, and in the absence of both the Chief and First Assistant, the Second Assistant shall assume command and perform the duties of the Chief.

Section 4. The Chief and Assistant Engineer shall constitute and be called the "Board of Engineers." They shall make such rules and regulations for conducting the Department not inconsistent with the laws of the State or ordinances of the city, as they may deem advisable subject to approval by the Common Council.

Section 5. The Chief Engineer and the Assistant Engineers shall be nominated by the Mayor and confirmed by the Common Council in the same manner as other city officers, and they and drivers, laddermen and hosemen, after confirmation, shall hold their offices and continue in service as such during good behavior, efficiency and residence in the city, and shall not be removed from office or employment for political reasons or any other cause than incapacity, misconduct, non-residence, or disobedience of just rules and regulations which are or may be established for the government of the Department.

Section 6. The Chief Engineer or Acting Chief shall be responsible for the property of the Department. He shall see that the steam and chemical engines, hose wagons, trucks, hose and horses, and all other property belonging to the Department are kept constantly in order for immediate and efficient service, and shall report immediately any repairs that may be necessary to the property in his charge to the Committee on Fire and Buildings.

Section 7. Persons to be eligible to membership in the Department must be citizens of the United States, of good moral character, and able to read and write the English language. They shall be in good health, sound in body and mind, and capable of performing the duties required of them. (In case of permanent employees, they must be certified to by the City Physician that they are physically capable of performing the duties required of them). They must be nominated by the Mayor recommended by the Board of Engineers and confirmed by the Common Council, and before entering upon their duties as members of the Department they shall sign an agreement, to be deposited with the Chief Engineer, that they shall abide by and conform to the ordinance and such rules governing the same which may be approved by the Common Council.

All applications for membership shall be made in the handwriting of the applicant, who shall present the same in person to the Mayor, the Committee on Fire and Buildings or the Board of Engineers.

Section 9. The pay of the force is hereby fixed as follows, unless it shall be increased by resolution of the Common Council:

Chief Engineer	$700	per annum
First Assistant Engineer	150	" "
Second Assistant Engineer when devoting his entire time of the service to the Department, $600, otherwise	$100	" "
Veterinary Surgeon	150	" "
Engine of Steamer	75	" "
Hosemen and Laddermen, on call	25	" "

Drivers and Tillermen shall be divided into four classes, according to their respective terms of service, as follows:

First Class.—Those who have served continuously in the Department for a period greater than five years.

Second Class.—Those who have served continuously in the Department more than three years and less than five years.

Third Class.—Those who have served continuously in the Department more than six months and less than three years.

Fourth Class.—Those who have served continuously in the Department for a period less than six month.

The salaries of Drivers and Tillermen shall be as follows according to class:

First Class, Sixty Dollars per month.
Second Class, Fifty-five Dollars per month.
Third Class, Fifty Dollars per month.
Fourth Class, Forty Dollars per month.

Section 9. The Veterinary Surgeon shall have, under the direction of the Chief Engineer, general charge and direction as to the care and management of the horses belonging to the Department, giving such surgical and medical care as may be required. When horses are purchased he shall make such examination as required.

Section 10. Foremen of Companies shall be appointed from members thereof by the Chief Engineer, subject to the approval of the Committee on Fire and Buildings and confirmed by the Common Council; they shall have command and control of their companies and all members shall obey their orders implicitly. They shall see that the apparatus in their care, and the building in which the same is deposited, and all articles in or belonging to the same are kept clean and in order for immediate use. They shall preserve order and discipline at all times in their respective companies, and enforce a strict compliance of the rules and regulations of the Department and the orders of the Chief Engineer.

Section 11. The Call Men of the several companies shall, upon an alarm of fire from the section of the City to which they are assigned to duty, proceed promptly to the place of the fire, and perform an duty that may be required of them. They shall remain on duty until relieved by order, which shall be given only by the officer in command. They shall, when on duty at fires, wear the regulation fire hat or badge.

Section 12. Upon going to or returning from an alarm of fire, in no case shall persons not members of the Department be allowed to ride on any apparatus of the Department.

Section 13. All Call Men will be regarded as part of the working force, and may be used by the officer in command at fires as he may deem proper. And they will be required to perform at least seventy-five per cent. of duty per annum.

Any driver of an engine, hose wagon, hook and ladder truck or supply wagon, driving over a line of hose, unless it cannot be avoided, shall be subject to dismissal.

If any permanent member refuses or neglects to pay any just debt contracted for the necessaries of life during his connection with the Department, or assigns his pay, it shall be deemed sufficient cause for his suspension or dismissal.

Any officer or member making a false report of a member of the Department, either concerning personal character or conduct, to the discredit or detriment of any member, or any officer making a false record in the journal, shall be liable to dismissal.

No permanent officer or permant member of the Department shall attend a caucus or political convention as a delegate, distribute tickets at an election or take any part whatever in political matters others than to exercise the right of suffrage.

All members of the Department must address officers by their respective titles.

Any officer or member having business with the Committee on Fire & Buildings shall transact the same through the Chief Engineer.

No subscriptions, paper or books shall be circulated under the auspices of any company for the purpose of collecting money from citizens without the consent of the Committee on Fire & Buildings.

Should any member become disabled or sick while in the faithful performance of duty, he shall be entitled to such pay as the Committee on Fire & Building shall deem proper.

Section 14. Any member of the Fire Department who shall upon trial be found guilty of violating any of the ordinances or rules and regulations governing the Fire Department, shall in the discretion of the Common Council be subject to censure, reprimand, forfeiture of pay, or discharge from the service.

Section 15. Firemen at call shall be required to attend every fire or alarm of fire in their district. Any officer or member absent, except in case of sickness or death in the family, or out of the city with permission, will be fined the sum of one dollar ($1.00). Call men who shall have performed seventy-five per cent. of fire duty in the company of which he is a member shall have all fine fines refunded him that may have been charged against him during the year.

No member of the force shall loan the Department Badge under the penalty of dismissal, and any member losing his badge shall purchase one at his own expense.

Section 16. All complaints by the Chief Engineer or Assistant Engineers against any fireman or firemen for misconduct or neglect in the performance of his or their duties, shall be forthwith reported to the Committee on Fire and Buildings.

Section 17. All complaints made by citizens or persons of good repute to the Mayor or any member of the Common Council against any fireman for misconduct or neglect in the performance of his or their duties, shall be forthwith reported to the Committee on Fire and Buildings.

Section 18. No intoxicating beverage of any description whatsoever shall be allowed on the premises of the Fire Department. Any member of the Fire Department intoxicated while on duty shall be deprived of his badge and suspended for six months or dismissed, at the option of the Common Council.

Section 19. No person or persons except officers and members of the Department shall at any time enter the houses of the Department, except the Mayor of the city, members of the Common Council, and visitors accompanied by members, or any police officer in the proper discharge of his duty, and no boys shall be permitted in any house of the Department, or to have any access whatever to the apparatus in going to or returning from fires or alarms. The foremen are hereby enjoined to enforce the provisions of this section.

Section 20. No person shall enter any engine, hook and ladder or hose house in the city with intent to injure the same or the fire engine or other apparatus contained therein, or injure or mutilate at any time or place any fire engine or other apparatus, or any public cisterns, fire wells, hydrants, or fire plugs, or draw water therefrom for any purpose, except when properly engaged in examining their condition, or for the use of the fire engines belonging to or controlled by the city and any person violating any of the provisions of this section, shall on conviction be punished by a fine of not less than Five or more than Twenty Dollars for each offense, and shall furthermore be liable for all damages or injury done.

Section 21. No person shall during a fire drive a wagon, cart or other vehicle over any hose or other fire apparatus, under penalty of Ten Dollars for each offense.

Section 22. No person shall wilfully hinder or molest or attempt to do any violence to any officer or member of the Fire Department or other city officer while in the performance of his duty at a fire, or in going to or returning from a fire or alarm of fire, in charge of any fire engine or other apparatus, under penalty of Ten Dollars for each offense.

Section 23. No person or persons shall raise, create or continue a false alarm of fire under penalty of Ten Dollars for each offense.

Section 24. No person or persons shall for any purpose take or cause to be taken beyond the corporate limits of the city any of the apparatus of the Fire Department, except by consent of the Mayor or Common Council, or in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Board of Engineers.

Section 25. It shall be the duty of the Common Council to provide for fuel, lights and other necessary expenses for the maintenance of the Fire Department and to keep the houses and fire apparatus in proper condition and repair. No supplies shall be ordered or expenses incurred under this section without the written order of the Chief Engineer or one of the Assistant Engineers, in the absence or inability of the Chief Engineer, and no bill shall be presented to the Common Council until the same shall be certified by one of the Engineers to be correct.

Section 26.—Any member of the Fire Department who shall violate any of the foregoing sections of this ordinance, to which no penalty is attached, or shall be guilty of any riotous or disorderly conduct when on duty, shall be liable to be removed as a fireman.

Section 27. That upon the organization of the several companies hereinafter mentioned, and until the further order of the Common Council, the said companies shall, severally take possession of the Fire Department apparatus and other property of the city used in connection therewith, as follows:

Hose Company No. 1 shall forthwith take possession of that now in possession of Gazelle Engine Company No. 1.

Hose Company No. 2 shall forthwith take possession of that now in possession of Plainfield Engine Company No. 2.

Hose Company No. 3 shall forthwith take possession of that now in possession of Alert Hose Company.

Hook and Ladder Company No. 1 shall forthwith take possession of that now in possession of Zephyr Hook and Ladder Company and Engine Company No. 1 shall forthwith take possession of the Chemical Engine and appurtenances, but the Common Council may from time to time, by resolution, make such changes or other regulations respecting the possession and management of the apparatus and other property of the city used for the Fire Department purposes as said Common Council may deem expedient.

Section 28. That the ordinance entitled "An ordinance to establish, regulate and control a fire department in the City of Plainfield" approved April 3d, 1888, and amended by ordinance approved June 5th, 1888, and all other ordinances and parts of ordinances inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.

Plainfield, N. J. Morristown, N. J. FOUR LARGE STORES. Wilmington, Del. Perth Amboy, N. J.

CROSBY & HILL

SUCCESSORS TO EDWARD WHITE.

This Store contains today more merchandise of the Newest, Brightest and Best kinds than has ever been seen collected together by any single house in this city and its value in dollars and cents is more than the value of all combined Dry Goods stocks in Plainfield, the advantages to the customers must be apparent to all, larger stocks of every kind to select from. Goods all bought for cash and priced on an instant cash basis. Our Unmatched Shopping Conveniences, our perfect store service. The daily giving of the best values in merchandise, our liberal guarantee with every dollar's worth of merchandise we sell. Your Money Back if you are dissatisfied with your purchase, no matter if it is the smallest piece of the most expensive merchandise.

We commence today A Ten Days' Sale that will command widespread attention, it concerns some of the best values that have ever been given in this city; every department will offer merchandise of the newest and best sorts at prices lower than you are accustomed to pay for inferior kinds.

Some new Arrivals in Silks that we include in this sale.

50c Printed India Silks, 30 inches wide, about 1,000 yards, Navy blue and Black Grounds, printed in choice neat figures, worth 75c.

75c Striped all silk Taffeta, light and Medium Ground-work, al new designs and fully worth $1 00.

95c Corded Silk Taffetas, handsome new designs and very choice colorings and effects, the very newest patterns for shirt waists, actual value $1 25.

39c 2,000 yards of Plaid Satin all the newest Spring shades and designs, very suitable for Coat and Cape linings or shirt waists, worth 65c.

Wool Dress Goods.

69c All-wool French Broad cloths, very light in weight and fine in finish, 54 inches wide. The shades are Tans, Browns, Navy Blue, Green and Garnet, they are the $1 00 quality.

25c Satin Striped Wool Challies, light colored grounds, handsome floral designs, 30 inches wide, worth 39c.

79c All wool French Whipcord Suitings, 42 inches wide, new Spring colorings, value $1 00.

89c All wool Venetian suitings, 54 inches wide, all the new Spring colorings, value $1 00.

New Wash Goods.

Several cases of New Wash Goods have just arrived and are priced for quick sellers, they are the correct things for the coming season.

8c Scotch dimities, beautiful new striped effects, value 10c.

10c New corded ginghams, new patterns, value 12½c.

12 1-2c French Organdies, exclusive styles too, put up in neat boxes of one dress pattern each, with no two alike, they are the regular 25c quality.

12 1-2c Swiss Mulls, choice new patterns and new weave, worth 17c.

12½c Grenadine Dress Goods, 30 inches wide, the newest weave shown (plain colors only), but all the newest tints, value 25c.

Suit Department. 2d. floor.

Some notable values in women's suits, Jackets and Dress Skirts.

$6.98 Women's tailor made suits, worth $10 00.

$10.00 " " " " " $15.00.

$11.98 " " " " " $17.50.

$3.50 Women's Covert Cloth Jackets, worth $4.50.

$5.00 Women's Venetian Cloth Jackets, satin lined, worth $6.50.

$2.98 Women's Mohair Skirts, newest cut, worth $4.00.

$4.98 Women's Venetian Cloth Dress Skirts, worth $6.50.

$5.00 Silk Shirt Waists, newest shape and newest patterns of material, remarkable value.

33c Percale shirt waists, worth 50c.

$1.00 Madras and percale shirt waists, about twenty different sorts.

$1.00 and $1.39, white pique shirt waists, embroidery and braid trimmed.

Ribbons.

10c the very best ribbon value, Plainfield people have ever seen 2 000 yards fancy French ribbons, 3 to 7 inches wide, value from 15c to 40c.

Men's Furnishing Department.

We offer some Trade Makers in this department that are sure to be appreciated.

12½c Men's Fast Black half-hose worth 18c.

49c Men's Laundried Cambric Shirts with one pair separate cuffs, worth 75c.

39c Men's Outing Shirts, worth 50c.

17c Men's Silk Scarfs, tecks and four-in-hands, the regular 25c kind.

39c Men's Scarfs, tecks, puffs and four-in-hands, very choice patterns, light and dark colors and made in the newest shapes, regular 50c quality.

Special Price Small Wares and Toilet Articles.

A La Rose Soap, 3 cakes for 5c.
Buttermilk Soap, 3 cakes for 15c.
Packers' Tar Soap, 17c cake
Junipers Tar Soap, 10c. 3 cakes for 25c.
Dr. Lyon's Tooth Powder, 13c.
S. H. & M. Bias brush binding, 10c.
Fulled edge silk elastic, 17c. worth 25c.
Perforated Dress Shields, 15c, worth 20c.

Free.

One box of Royal Tooth Powder with every 50c purchase at Notion Counter.

Carpet Department.

Our Carpet Department is on the third floor and is a perfect daylight show room, easy of access by elevator, interesting prices prevail at present.

50c Best quality of 10 wire tapestry brussels carpets, usual 75c quality.

69c Best quality Saxony Axminster carpets, value 95c.

$2.98 20 yard rolls Linen Warp Matting, value $4.00.

Axminster Rugs.

18x39, 79c, value $1 00.
30x64, $1 85, value $2 50.
36x72 $2 89, value $4 00.

19c Hand-made opaque window shades complete, regular price 25c.

AT RANDOLPH'S !

Roots and Herbs are numerous, yet we urge the combination of

Randolph's -:- Sarsaparilla

is one of the best to clean the blood. None better. Only 50 cents per bottle.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. TELEPHONE CALL 109

THE MARCH OF PROGRESS

in wall paper can best be witnessed in our magnificent stock, comprising all of the latest and artistic patterns, on paper of the very best texture.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.

Wall Papers. Paints, Oils, Glass, Etc.
201 Park Ave. Corner Second St.
Telephone Call 635. Estimates Furnished.

EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.
Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York

FREY & MURPHY,

CUSTOM TAILORS

26 Somerset St.

Spring Samples Now Ready.

Largest Repairing and Cleaning Establishment in Plainfield.

Repairing and Cleaning properly done in a first-class manner.

Prices Low, Styles First-Class.

Everything for the Garden.

SWEET PEAS the choicest, fancy Lawn Grass Seeds and odorless lawn dressing.

'Phone No. 6.

A. M. Griffen, 119 East Front St.

IMPORTED

OLIVE OIL.

75c per Bottle.

Finest Quality Obtainable

POWERS' PHARMACY

Somerset Street and Craig Place.

Safe Deposit Vaults

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK.

Of Plainfield, New Jersey.

Capital.....$200,000
Surplus and Profits.....$ 90,000

J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. RUNYON, Cashier
E. M. ESTIL, Vice " D. M. RUNYON, Ass't

DIRECTORS:

Charles Potter, Wm. McD. Cortelyou,
E. M. French, H. Mulford Estil,
Wm. M. Stillman, Isaac W. Bushmore,
J. W. Johnson, Wm. R. Goddington,
F. S. Runyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per annum.

VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

BANANAS 12c. and 15c. per doz.
ORANGES 15 and 18 for 25c.
Confectionery and fruit, lowest prices.

C. E. BICKNELL,
"On the Bridge." Somerset St.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,
Painters and Paper Hangers,
Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets
Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto--first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11 r

A. LUSARDI,
120 NORTH AVENUE.
Wholesale and Retail
Dealer in choice fruit of all kinds, of Confectionery, Peanuts' Cigars, etc. Soda Water of all flavors and always ice cold. Branch store corner Front and Somerset streets.

J. W. VANSICKLE.
122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly.
TELEPHONE 148 b.

WHY DO YOU SUFFER

so long with an aching tooth? We think there is nothing worse. So easy to prevent it if you would have them examined more often. Stop the pain and save the tooth when you can. We always need all we have, and of course never miss them till they're gone. Free advice for the asking.

OFFICE HOURS 8 TO 6.

Full Set guaranteed	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown (22 k.)	$5
Gold Filling.....from	$1 up
Silver Filling.....50c to	75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. O. W. LEONARD,
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.
Over City National Bank.
Entrance on Front St. Plainfield, N. J

Arrival and Departure of Mails

NEW YORK MAILS.

Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:30 a. m., 3:00, 5, 6:20 p. m
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m., 12:30, 2:00, 5:00, 7:30 p.m

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON.

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m., 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 and 11:30 a. m., 1:00 and 8:00 p. m
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a. m., 5:00 p. m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 8:00 and 7:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE.

Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M

STAGE ROUTE.

Plainfield and Scotch Plains.

STAGE LEAVES PLAINFIELD
(E. FRONT ST., OPP. PARK AVE.)
9:30 a. m., 12:45, 4:00 and 6:00 P. M.

STAGE LEAVES SCOTCH PLAINS
(FRONT POST OFFICE)
10:30 a. m., 2:00, 5:00 and 7:00 p. m.

Upon notice a special stage will be held for parties of six or more attending the theatre or other attraction.

THOS. NEWMAN, Prop.

FRENCH

Plate glass mirror oak mantel, complete with summer front, for $13.00. You can't equal it elsewhere.

CURTIS M. THORPE,
310-312 PARK AVE.

M. POWERS,
DEALER IN
LEHIGH COAL.
FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.
Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A.
Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills

25c.

A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.

MALLINSON'S
North and Watchung avenues.

EASTER

Cards and Novelties.
Paas Egg Dyes at

HARPER'S,
411 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J

RUSHMORE & CO.
WATCHUNG AVE.
and FOURTH ST.
Dealers in
Lumber, Coal and Wood
Moulding & Planing Mill.
Turning and Scroll Sawing.

L. A. HUMMER,
Variety Market.
Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.
163 SOMERSET STREET.
Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

REMOVAL.
I have moved my stock of
BOOTS AND SHOES
TO 120 W. FRONT ST., with Crane, the hatter,
B. R. FORCE.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning April 9—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

TOPIC.—The holy garments.—Eph. iv, 20-24; Rom. vi, 4.

The change that takes place in the life of one who becomes a Christian is described by Paul in the first topical reference as the putting off of the old man, the old life, as one puts off a garment, and the putting on of the new man, the new life, as one puts on a new garment. The garments of the new life are the holy garments. The change of life is therefore described as if it were the taking off of old garments which are ragged, shabby and dirty, and the putting on of new garments which are clean and tidy. The rags of the old man are given up for the robes of the new. Filthy garments are exchanged for holy garments.

Before the holy garments can be put on two important changes must take place. 1. The inward man must be renewed. We must be renewed in the spirit of our mind. This is the work of the Holy Spirit, and our part in it is to earnestly desire and fervently pray for the Holy Spirit to renew our minds. 2. The filthy garments of the old life must be put off. Before the new can be put on the old must be taken off. "Put off," says Paul, "the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts, * * * and put on the new man, which, after God, is created in righteousness and holiness."

These holy garments are the characteristics of life which partake of righteousness and holiness. They are the actions of life which are right toward our fellow men and right toward God. They are patterned after the moral character of God Himself. They are the outward proofs of an inward change of life. The rags of the old man are further particularized as falsehood, anger, dishonesty, idleness, corrupt speech, bitterness, evil speaking and malice. The holy garments are the robes of truthfulness, self control, honesty, industry, purity in speech, good will, kindness and forgiveness.

The desirability of the holy garments should be evident to all. Rags are disgusting to most men. To literally wear rags for clothing is very unpleasant. How much more disgusting and unpleasant it should be to wear moral rags! Better to have on the robes of righteousness and be clothed in plainness and coarseness than to wear filthy moral rags and be dressed in purple and fine linen. Rags or robes, which will we wear? It should not take us long to decide this question, if we are wise both for time and eternity.

Bible Readings.—Job xxix, 14; Ps. cxxxii, 9-18; Eccl. ix, 8; Isa. lii, 1; lix, 17; lxi, 10; lxiv, 6-8; Math. v, 1-16; Rom. xii, 1, 2, 9-21; Gal. v, 19-26; Eph. v, 1-21; Phil. iii, 7-9; Jas. v, 1-12.

Christian Education.

"Knowledge is power" in every sense of the term, and the man or the race that has knowledge stands for power, and every man and every race knows it. And this association, working through education, is working at the very center and heart of the whole business. It is Christian education. Why? Because all pioneer education must be Christian education. Our great foundations on which we have built, lying back in the eighteenth century, were Christian foundations. We are able now to build in diversified ways. There is a separation to a certain extent going on between church and school like that which went on between church and state. Our great universites stand for learning primarily, as our state stands for freedom and justice, and back of it all in those early days stands the foundation of Christian education. It is Christian education that is the pioneer, and no race can get under headway by any other motive whatever. You can't cram knowledge enough into the negro race to give it headway unless you touch its conscience and inform its heart. You can't inspire any race to go on its large, helpful mission until you have filled that race, not only with an ardor of knowledge, but with the passion of a great consecration.—President Tucker of Dartmouth College.

The Ease of Prayer.

Look at the incredible ease of prayer. Every time, place, posture, is fitting. Talent is not needed. Eloquence is out of place. Our want is our eloquence, our misery is our recommendation. Thought is quick as lightning, and quick as lightning can it multiply effectual prayer. Actions can pray, sufferings can pray. The whole function is expressed in a word. It is simply this: The child at his father's knee, his words stumbling over each other from very earnestness, and his wistful face pleading better than his hardly intelligible prayer.—F. W. Faber.

To Fight Is to Conquer.

Blessed is he that cometh to the help of the Lord, to the help of the Lord against the mighty. No wounds, no blows, that he can receive while he is fighting on that side can harm him. To fight there is itself to conquer, even though the victory comes through pain and death, as it came to Him under whom we fight, the Captain of Our Salvation, Jesus Christ.—Bishop Brooks.

Those Who Help Themselves.

Spiritual progress is not entirely spontaneous and self asserting. It depends very largely upon human effort and culture. There are very many difficulties thrown in the way, a goodly number of which we ourselves must remove. He who labors most and labors wisest will progress most rapidly. The Holy Spirit helps those most who help themselves.—Christian Instructor.

The Day of Atonement.

Self denial and self abnegation are, it is true, but incidentals in the proper observance of the great day of atonement, yet these incidentals are important enough to weaken its effect upon us by their absence.—Jewish Voice.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Topic For the Week Beginning April 9, "Holy Garments"—Text, Eph. iv, 20-24; Rom. vi, 4.

"Put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfill the lusts thereof."

The epistle to the Romans gives a graphic picture of the vileness into which all heathen society had sunk in the times of the apostles. The chief thought was to gratify the bodily appetites and passions. All sense of shame seemed lost. The very gods worshiped were personifications of lust. Banquets and revelries and night orgies were the common indulgence. That Paul does not exaggerate the prevalent iniquity of the times is shown from the Latin poets and historians of the time. They paint the scene in darker colors, if that be possible, than those of the apostle. "Quo Vadis" has recently placed clearly before the multitude the abominations heretofore covered under a foreign language.

Against all this moral abandonment and shameful practice the gospel of Christ lifts a clear voiced protest and trumpet call to cleanness of life and soul.

The reference is made to actors who clothe themselves in garments like those of the persons they represent. Tones, walk, actions, are all in imitation of the character assumed. These Christians, all followers of Jesus Christ, have been called from the revelings and excesses of the world lying in the darkness of moral night and roused to the coming of the pure light of God's day of holiness. They are to lay aside all former practices and robe themselves in the character of Christ, the pure one. They are to think as He does, talk as He talks, act as He commands. They are to assume His character, not as mere stage players, but, in actual fact, putting on His garments, are to become like Him. The old life has passed; all is new. Each one is to put on the armor and garments of the Lord of the day.

This exhortation is particularly needed at the present time. Wealth has increased fabulously during the past few years. Luxuries possible only to the rich a short time since are within reach of the common people now. Old ideas have given place to new. Former customs are replaced by new practices. The danger is that in the bettering of the material conditions and in the increase of intelligence all the old notions of purity and frugality and substantial morality shall suffer. Lust is as deadly now as ever. The temptation to gratify bodily appetites and starve the religious cravings of the soul is strong upon our young people. The choice must still be made—Christ or the world. Put on the holy garments and let the Holy Spirit cleanse the heart from all lust for evil things.

The Hero of Africa.

Events in many parts of the world crowd thick and fast. The attention of all the civilized world is called to Africa by the progress of events in several parts of that vast continent. Kitchener is opening the valley of the Nile to commerce and Christianity. A railway under British control is pushing from the coast opposite Zanzibar to the great lakes. From the far south English enterprise is reaching out with railways to the Zambezi and then beyond to the great lake Tanganyika and the Nile. Africa is to be opened from north to south.

The one man who did more than all others to make possible this civilizing movement in the dark continent was David Livingstone, the great missionary. At the present time, when our own church is taking such interest in Africa and while Bishop Hartzell is meeting such encouragement in his plans for our missions there, the League should devote special attention to a study of the situation and the past history of the land. Material is abundant, and several evenings can be spent with most fascinating interest in the discussion of the opening of this old land, where King Solomon's sailors came in ages past for gold.

DAVID LIVINGSTONE.

Easter Music.

Carols for Christmas, but anthems for Easter—both equally joyous and sacred, but the latter deeper, more solemn and infinitely full of glory, possible only when the Babe of Bethlehem has become the Jesus of Nazareth, the Man of Sorrows, Son of Man and Son of God, Saviour of Men!

Rest.

O Christ, who givest rest, we come to Thee!
Thy voice calls sweetly o'er life's fretful sea.
And we are weary
With our journey dreary,
And Thou art waiting our sweet rest to be.

It is the rest of meekness and content.
Duty and discipline are heaven sent.
So sad souls, weary
With life's duties dreary,
Take from God's hand what He in love hath lent.

It is the rest that maketh burdens light,
Which takes the irk from care, from frost the blight,
And to souls weary,
With their weeping dreary,
It giveth joy songs in the darkest night.

O Christ, give Thou to us Thine own sweet rest!
Of all Thy precious gifts it is the best.
Then souls aweary,
With their failures dreary,
Shall take heart and renew their heavenly quest.

—David Farquharson.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Provinz Ostpreußen.

Königsberg. Der Steuermann Bohndorf gerieth auf dem Lübecker Dampfer „Luba," als die „Luba" geschleppt werden sollte, mit dem linken Fuß in eine Schleife, welche sich in dem zum Zwecke des Schleppens ausgebrachten Drahttau gebildet hatte, wobei ihm der linke Unterschenkel abgerissen wurde. Im städtischen Krankenhause ist er an den Folgen jener Verletzung gestorben.

Gumbinnen. Der Stadtkassenrendant Smolenski aus Neidenburg ist mit 11,000 Mark Kassengeldern nach Rußland entflohen.

Provinz Westpreußen.

Briesen. Auf einem Ackergrundstück des Herrn Joelsohn wurde eine Urne gefunden, die einen gut erhaltenen Menschenschädel barg. Ein zweites gefundenes Stück wurde leider von den Arbeitern zertrümmert, während ein drittes unversehrt in die Hände des Landraths gelangte. Merkwürdiger Weise befindet sich die Fundstelle dicht unter der Ackerkrume und obwohl fleißig bepflügt, ist sie nicht früher zu Tage getreten.

Konitz. Das hiesige Schwurgericht verurtheilte den Aktuar Buchholz wegen Urkundenfälschung und Beiseiteschaffung von Urkunden zu 1½ Jahren Gefängniß.

Rheinprovinz.

Bonn. Die älteste Einwohnerin der Stadt Bonn, Wittwe Schemuth, ist dieser Tage an Altersschwäche im 99. Lebensjahre gestorben.—Am städtischen Gymnasium haben zwei auswärtige Damen, Fräulein Dahm und Fräulein Freitag, die Reifeprüfung bestanden.

Krefeld. Der Handelsminister hat dem hiesigen Vereine zur Förderung der Textilindustrie einen Jahresbeitrag von 3000 Mark zur Erweiterung und Ausgestaltung seiner Mustersammlungen gewährt. Einen gleich bemessenen Zuschuß gewährte der Minister auch dem bergischen Verein.

Lüttel-Coblenz. Ein alter Zigeuner wurde hier unter dem Andrang nach Tausenden zählender Neugieriger beerdigt. Auffällig war die dem im prächtig geschmückten Sarge geborgenen Todten mitgegebene Ausstattung: neben der Trinkflasche fehlten nicht Cigarren, Kautabak, Streichhölzer, Bürste und andere Bedarfsgegenstände für die Reise. Die Beerdigung nahm der katholische Geistliche aus Neuendorf vor.

Provinz Sachsen.

Erfurt. In einer öffentlichen Versammlung ist hier eine Genossenschaft zur Errichtung eines Volkshauses für die Arbeiterschaft Erfurts gebildet worden.

Kalbe. Zu Groß-Salze beging die Rendanten-Wittwe Fischer ihren 100. Geburtstag.

Stendal. Die Agitation für eine normalspurige Kleinbahn von Stendal nach Arendsee (Altmark), die vom Eisenbahnminister als normalspurige Bahn abgelehnt war, ist wieder aufgenommen worden. In Folge einer erneuten Eingabe hat der Minister eine Prüfung aller einschlägigen Verhältnisse bei den maßgebenden Stellen abermals verfügt. Es sind berechtigte Hoffnungen vorhanden, daß die Kleinbahn, wenn auch nicht als normalspurige, so doch aber als schmalspurige Bahn bestimmt zu Stande kommt.

Provinz Schlesien.

Breslau. Bei einer Hochzeitsfeier in einem hiesigen Gasthofe stürzte der Oberstlieutenant Kalkhoff vom 62. Regiment zu Cosel über ein Treppengeländer zwei Stockwerke hinab und starb sofort.

Görlitz. In Waldau wurde die Schule geschlossen, nachdem bei sämmtlichen Schulkindern eine ärztliche Untersuchung der Augen stattgefunden und diese ergeben hatte, daß 230 Kinder augenkrank seien.

Hirschberg. Der durch seine Kalkbrüche bekannte Ort Kauffung ist von einer großen Feuersbrunst heimgesucht worden. Es wurden 29 Gebäude durch das Feuer vernichtet.

Provinz Schleswig-Holstein.

Eckernförde. Kürzlich versuchten drei Männer Nachts die Kasse im Stationsgebäude der Eckernförde-Kappelner Bahn zu erbrechen. Der Betriebsinspektor Hinckfoth kehrte um 2 Uhr heim und fand die Spitzbuben im Kassenzimmer, dessen Thür erbrochen war. Die Verbrecher stürzten sich auf den Beamten. Einer versetzte ihm mit einer gefüllten Champagnerflasche einen furchtbaren Schlag auf den Kopf. Hinckfoth brach zusammen und liegt schwer verletzt darnieder. Die Einbrecher, die nur 15 Pfennige erbeutet haben, sind entkommen.

Flensburg. Ein Großfeuer äscherte 14 Gebäude des Dorfes Rülschau ein; 25 Rinder verbrannten.

H. E. Gayle. 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN.
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun. John P. Emmot.
Telephone 601.

(B)

AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

A Bold Move In

Parlor Suits

Without an Equal in the History of This House!

Even that great 3rd floor of ours doesn't begin to hold 'em all. The Parlor

Suit Like Cut, $19.75— $30 usually.

Carved mahogany-finish frame—green Roman plush, embroidered backs, elegant and striking. Others at even greater price-drops.

Full overstuff tapestry covering, tops tufted and corded.
At $45.50, was $65.

Again, inlaid, mahogany-finish frame, Roman plush covering.
At $50, was $75.

And—striped Silk Damask Suit, mahogany frame, piano polish—at $75—was $125.

Another—having Turkish backs, full overstuffed—heavy fringe, for $90—was $175.

Bedroom Suits

—A great crash in their prices, too.

For $10.98—a $14 Suit.
Antique oak finish, well constructed, nice looking.

For $14.98—a $20 Suit.
24x30 mirror, all new in shape and make-up.

For $55—a $75 Suit.
Elegant—in curly birch—superbly carved.
Fully 300 other suits at lowest prices ever put on record.

Carpets—All in
This season's loveliest colors and patterns—thousands of rolls—prices that NO other store can touch, they're so low.

Go-Carts—$2.49
And up—biggest line in all this city. Baby Carriages, too—$3.48 up.

SWEEPING REDUCTIONS ON SIDEBOARDS AND EXTENSION TABLES.

The Portland Range—and the Domestic Sewing Machine—2 good things.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,
Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.
CARFARE PAID TO OUT-OF-TOWN BUYERS.
A Private Delivery Wagon Sent on Request.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO

SPECIAL SALE.

We will sell skirts and suits of our own make for this week at a price that will require no brass band to sell. An examination of our goods is all that is necessary. Ladies, as a rule know where and when to buy. Our prices are lower than the lowest. For fit and make there are no equal in town. Call and inspect our stock.

Cloos & Richardson. LADIES' TAILORS, 325 W. FRONT ST

SPRING HATS, SPRING NECKTIES. SPRING SHIRTS
AT
JAMES R. BLAIR'S,
126 PARK AVENUE.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER.
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phoenix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America of New York. INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672.

COAL
C is for coal, clean, cheery and cheap.
O is the order to lay in a heap.
A is the atmosphere warmed by its glow.
L is the light that starts it to go, and to get the best coal buy of Stevens & Co.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.
THE DELINEATOR AND GLASS OF FASHION
For April Now Ready. Ask for the April Fashion Sheet.
Subscriptions taken.
A. L. & M. D. GORSLINE,
144 PARK AVE. PLAINFIELD, N. J.

5,000 FEET OF MOULDINGS IN GILT AND HARD WOOD
Bring Your Pictures and Have Them Framed
At the PLAINFIELD ART GALLERY, Y. M. C. A. Building

Jersey Poultry
is the specialty of
SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue
Have you tried their
SAUSAGE
It is the best made in
PLAINFIELD

Elston M. French & Co.
Successors to VanBuren Bros.
Real Estate and Insurance.
Largest agency in the city. Loans negotiated.
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Opposite Depot

H. Eggerding,
131 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall Streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 20th, 1898.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 7 00, 7 26, 7 50, 7 55, 8 00, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 8 48, 9 35, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 1 15, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 54, 5 37, 6 54, 8 21, 8 30, 8 45, 9 09, 9 30, 9 45, 10 15, 10 17, 11 28 p. m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 5 09, 6 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10, a. m.; 12 m., 12 58, 1 45, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 13, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22, p. m.

Leave New York, foot Liberty St. at 4 00, 4 30, 6 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10, 10 00 a. m.; 12 00 m., 1 00, 1 30, 2 00, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 40, 5 00, 5 15, 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 30, 11 45 p. m. 12 15, 1 00 night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 00, 9 00, 9 15 a. m.; 12 m.; 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 7 30, 9 00, 10 00 p. m.; 12 15 night; 1 00 a. m.

Leave New York South Ferry from Whitehall St. at 7 10, 7 55, 8 35, 9 05, 9 55, 11 55 a. m., 12 55, 1 25, 2 25, 3 25, 3 55, 4 35, 4 55, 5 25, 5 55, 6 10, 6 20, 6 55, 7 25, 7 40, 8 10, 9 10, 9 55, 11 40 p. m., 12 10 night. Sundays—At 6 55, 8 55 a. m., 12 00 m., 12 55, 1 25, 3 55, 6 40, 7 25, 8 55, 9 55 p. m., 12 10 night.

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 37, 6 29, 7 00, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 35, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 1 15, 2 12, 3 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 54, 5 37, 6 21, 6 48, 7 39, 8 45, 10 17, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 32, 10 22 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 30, 8 05, 8 38, 9 03, 10 05 a. m.; 12 10, 1 05, 1 35, 2 40, 3 35, 4 02, 4 40, 5 04, 11 5 45, 6 19, 7 35, 8 10, 9 35, 10 05, 11 25 p. m. Sunday, 7 15, 9 05, 11 35 a. m.; 1 10, 2 45, 4 05, 55, 7 35, 9 15, 10 15 p. m.

Passengers for Newark please change car Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 0 m., 1 01, 2 11, 2 27, 3 32, 4 35, 5 03 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 26, 11 29, p. m; 12 44 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 06 55, a.m; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 16, 11 14 p.m

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7, 7 27, 7, 35, 7 45, 8 20, 9 15, 9 38, 10 15, 11 45, a. m; 12 50, 1 53, 2 05 3 20, 4 30, 5 26, 6 05, 6 08, 6 45, 8 22, 8 45, 11 05 p. m Sunday at 8 35, 9 45, 10 45 a. m.; 12 35, 1 20, 6 18, 6 27, 7 53, 8 05, 8 45, 10 00 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m., 1 01 2 7, 5 13, 6 28, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45 10 a. m; 2 03 6 35 p. m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 01, 8 15, a. m; 12 36 1 16, 5 16, 7 17, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 11 22 a. m 4 00 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield 7 12 a. m; 5 25 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

6 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R., Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c., with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

1 01 p. m. way for Easton, German Valley and Chester, connecting at Junction for station on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 27 p. m. For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton, with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

5 25 p. m., for Flemington and Easton connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For German Valley and Chester, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

8 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

3 06 a. m. Sundays for Easton.

2 03 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley and Flanders, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

6 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc., and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, (5 37 for Sea Girt 6 13, 10:37 a. m.; 3 46, 6 21 p. m. Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 55, 10:37 a. m; 1 15, 3 46, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 8 45 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a.m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 15 p m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10:37 a. m.; 1 15, 3 46, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat 3 37, 8 13 9 55 (Lakewood only) a.m., 1 15, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 29, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, 5 34*, 6 38*, 8 21 p. m., 1 17 night, Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a.m.; 2 16, 4 55, 5 09*, 6 38* p m.; 1 17 night

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 29, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01 2 16, 4 14, 5 34*, 6 38*, 8 21, p. m.; 1 17 night Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, 5 09*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 5 34*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m; 2 16, 5 09*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m; 6 38 p m. Sundays, 6 38 p m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.

H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent

LEHIGH VALLEY RAILROAD

Time table in effect Feb. 5, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

WESTWARD.

8 05 a. m. daily, 6 25 a 26 p. m. daily except Sundays. Easton local.

6 25 p. m. Sunday evening local for Mauch Chunk.

9 02 a. m. daily; Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

11 52 a. m., 5 22 and 9 43 p. m. daily except Sunday. Local for Bound Brook.

12 52 p. m. daily except Sunday "Black Diamond Express" for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

2 04 p. m. daily local for Easton and Wilkes Barre.

4 58 p. m. daily except Sunday, express for Wilkes Barre, Scranton, Pottsville, Hazleton Shamokin, L. & B. Junction and principal intermediate stations.

7 03 and 9 22 p. m. daily, solid vestibule express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

9 02 p. m. Daily express for Easton, Bethlehem, Mauch Chunk, Sayre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge, carries sleeping car passengers only, and no baggage east of Buffalo.

EASTWARD.

For New York and Brooklyn local 6 49, 7 40 and 9 40 a. m., 3 04 and 5 18 p. m. daily except Sunday. Sunday 10 29 a.m., and 6 04 p.m. Express 7 06, 8 14, 10 09 a.m., 12 15, 2 50, 5 10, 7 07 and 9 06 p. m. daily except Sunday. Sunday 7 06 8 14 a.m., 2 50 and 7 07 p. m.

PERTH AMBOY BRANCH.

For Perth Amboy and intermediate stations 8 12 10 08 a. m., 5 22 and 7 23 p. m. daily except sundays. Sunday 10 29 a. m. and 7 04 p. m.

Trains leave Perth Amboy (State street) 7 13 8 35 a. m., 4 30 and 6 35 p. m., daily except Sunday. Sunday 7:13 a. m. and 5 42 p. m.

For further information call on or address the Ticket Agent, South Plainfield, N. J. Through tickets to all important western points may be purchased at the South Plainfield office.

Col. BOLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
S. Bethlehem, Pa.

CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent
26 Cortlandt St., N. Y. City.

NEW YORK TERMINALS—Foot of Cortlandt Desbrosses and West 23d streets.

A WOUNDED NAME

BY BRIG. GEN. CHAS. KING, U.S.A.

[Copyright, 1899, by F. Tennyson Neely.]

[CONTINUED.]

CHAPTER XX.

Within the fortnight that followed came a climax in the life of Loring, and astrologers who could have heard would have made much of such a combination of strange influences. Having told the general that it was his desire to find a quiet place in the northwestern section of the new city, Loring had moved back to the hotel. Having told the rector he desired to obtain table board at Mrs. Burton's, it of course resulted that the worthy ecclesiastic should speak to her at first opportunity, and that she should speedily come in search of Mr. Loring to inquire why he had failed to carry out his plan and further to intimate that on the strength of the rector's representations she had ordered a much nicer set of china and laid in a stock of provisions that just then were to be had at lower rates, which, except that she expected him, she could not have thought of doing. Indeed Mrs. Burton not only called once at his office, but followed it up by a visit to his lodging, where she shed tears in the presence of the person from whom he rented his rooms, and, this still proving ineffectual, she came again to department headquarters with the manifest object of taking the general and his staff into her confidence, to the equally manifest dismay of the chief and the disgust of his adjutant general, neither of whom could check the volume of the good lady's words of woe.

Loring found his soldierly commander grinning whimsically when he dropped in to say good morning. The general was that rare combination—a devout churchman and a stalwart fighter. Time and money had he devoted to the building up of this little church in the wilderness, and the communion service was his gift. More than once had he knelt to receive the sacred elements from the trembling hands of the worthy rector and listen to Mrs. Burton's effusive "Amen!" on his left ere she parted with the cup that was then passed to his bearded lips. At the chancel rail all good Christians knelt in common and meekly bowed their heads, but when Mrs. Burton came up to headquarters with a rail of her own the general couldn't stand it, and said so to worthy Lambert, who remonstrated with the widow.

"Then the least he can do as a gentleman after deceiving me so is to help pay for them things I bought on the strength of his promise to board with me," was that pragmatical person's reply, and this view of the case the energetic lady ventilated to her six boarders, and they to the flock. There was one boarder, a temporary sojourner only, who listened and said naught. But that was only another of her aristocratic, stuck up ways, said they. She was "a lovely young lady," as all admitted on her first timid appearance, and the three women who sat at table with her were eager to take her into close fellowship and confidence, and the two young men, clerking in the new stores no doubt, were as eager.

But it became apparent within 24 hours that she held herself above and desired to hold herself aloof from them, which led to a dissection of her personal charms on the part of the women and of her mental gifts on the part of the men. Mr. Lambert had commended her to the care of Mrs. Burton. Her board was paid in advance and no questions asked. She went to church and sang softly, but in a voice so exquisitely sweet and penetrating that it tempered the strident melodies of the devout Omahannas and caused many a head to turn. She spent the first few days at the rector's or in her room. Then came a roomer with the rumor that she had a follower, and for two evenings she was seen with a strange young man pacing slowly up and down the walk, but never going into town.

Within ten days after Loring settled in Omaha Mrs. Burton's boarders were engrossed in just two topics—the young lady in the second story front and the story of the young officer who first would and then wouldn't be one of her number. No exception to this statement as to Mrs. Burton's boarders is made in the case of the damsel herself.

Loring frankly told his story as to Mrs. Burton to the general. He had merely asked Mr. Lambert if he could tell him of a place to board. Lambert had led him to Mrs. Burton's. He found it too far out and otherwise unsuitable and had abandoned the idea. He had never seen Mrs. Burton or authorized any one to speak to her for him. The general laughed and said he understood it all, was perfectly satisfied and never thought of questioning him and satisfied he was for several days. Then suddenly it was announced that Loring had decided not only to return to the hotel for table board, but was actually occupying there, and the landlord of whom he had rented his rooms turned up with a grievance, at least his wife did, and when a woman has a grievance nine times out of ten the world gets the benefit of it. Mrs. Landlord came round to the chief quartermaster with her complaint.

It was a lovely summer morning. Lieutenant Loring had walked down to the office and raised his hat to the general as that genial officer was driven by behind his sturdy old team, and waving his hand cordially to the grave young gentleman who walked so erect, with such measured stride and with never a glance into the windows of the shops or bars. Loungers had no use for Loring. He never stopped to pass the time of day or suggest a toddy, and Loring had less use for them. Ten minutes later the lieutenant found the office in commotion, clerks and orderlies hastening about with grave faces, Stone and Stanton with the general in his room, the general himself pallid, and mopping his wet forehead.

"This is horribly sudden," he said, as he thrust an open dispatch into Loring's hand. It was the brief announcement that the general commanding the department of California, the chief Loring had so recently left, had dropped dead at his desk the night before. Little as he had liked him, the engineer was shocked and grieved.

"It may make grave changes," said the adjutant general a little later. "It may send our kind and thoughtful chief to the Pacific coast and give us—who?"

"It will make one at least," said Stone impetuously. "It'll send that galoot Petty back to his regiment right here in Nebraska and give him a taste of service he will little like."

"Why do you say back, Stone? Where did Petty ever serve with it except when it was in the garrison of Washington?" asked the adjutant general. "You know him, I believe, Loring?"

"I know him—yes."

"Think he'd pan out well in an Indian fight?"

"He might."

"You're an optimist, Loring," said Stone, who was ever seeking yet never succeeding in the effort to penetrate the armor of Loring's reserve. "I believe you think even Burleigh would fight at a pinch."

"I'm sure he would," said Loring as he walked thoughtfully away.

"That's the dash, dashest man I ever met," said Stone in terms he never knowingly used in the hearing of his commander. "What he'd say to a man I can only guess from a letter Skinny wrote from Alcatraz after that row they had at Frisco. Of a man you can't get him to speak."

"We may have to," said the adjutant general to himself as he turned back to his desk and to a packet of papers and dispatches from Gate City.

It was a day of perturbation. Not ten minutes later the engineer was called to conference with the department commander and found him closeted with his chief of staff. "You were not favorably impressed with Major Burleigh," said he after a moment of silent study of the young officer's face. "Will you tell me why?"

Loring stood and colored. He had spoken no word of Burleigh, except in answer to direct question. Stone must have seen his aversion and had possibly told of it.

"You dislike to, I see," said the general kindly. "Let me remove your scruples. Major Burleigh has been absent from his post without leave at a time when his services were urgently needed. His affairs are in a good deal of a tangle. It is believed that he has been making use of government funds. I tell you this in strict confidence. Do you know what caused his panic there at Reno and made him insist on being taken right on to Fort Frayne?"

Loring thought a moment, then said, "No, sir."

"Mr. Loring," said the general, "Major Burleigh has been an object of distrust for over a month. While he was away on this trip to Warrior Gap matters were brought to my attention that were of a grave nature. Investigations have been made. Major Bruce, at Reno, says you seemed struck by the superscription on the envelope of the letter he received there that threw him into such a panic. Would you know the handwriting, do you think?"

"Yes, general."

Silently the chief of staff held forth a note which Loring took and closely examined. It read: "Captain Newhall begs to assure the adjutant general, department of the Platte, that he meant no discourtesy in failing to register. He was unaware of the rule existing at department headquarters, had come here on personal business connected with certain real estate in which he has an interest, is on two months' leave from his station, New Orleans, and will register the moment the office opens in the morning, unless he should be compelled to leave for St. Joe tonight."

Loring looked up, puzzled. The handwriting was familiar, so was a form that he had seen vanishing in the distance one evening a week before, and something in the voice had had a familiar ring, but this name was new.

"To explain all this," said the adjutant general, "there was a dashing looking young fellow here for two or three days, drinking a good deal, down about the depot, on the flats and around the quartermaster's corrals. He said he was Captain Newhall of the Thirty-ninth infantry, and the general finally told me to send an aid to look him up and remind him it was his duty to call at headquarters and account for his presence. Between that night and the next morning he disappeared and at last accounts was hobnobbing with Burleigh at Gate City. You know of him, I see?"

"Possibly."

"Then, general," said the chief of staff, with prompt decision, "the quickest way to get at the root of the matter would be to send Loring at once to Gate

The general thought for a moment.

"How soon could you go?"

"First train, sir."

It was then too late for the single passenger express that daily went clanking over the prairies toward Cheyenne, but that afternoon was held a long conference at department headquarters which caused some wonderment among the officers not included, Stone especially, and there were many eyes on Loring's grave face as he finally came forth from the general's room and without a word of explanation went straight to his own.

"Wonder what he's been doing," said a man from the garrison who had happened in in search of news.

Stone shrugged his shoulders, offered no explanation, but looked volumes. An aid-de-camp should never reveal what he knows of other officers' affairs, much less that he knows nothing.

The night came on warm and stifling almost as the day. The window of Loring's room opened on the crude wooden gallery that ran the length of the hotel, and he kept it open from the bottom for such air as could be obtained. A note lay on the mantelshelf when he returned from the office late in the afternoon. This he had taken down stairs, inclosed it, unopened, in one of the coarse hotel envelopes, addressed and sent it by a messenger to Mrs. Burton's. At 10 o'clock at night, in his shirt sleeves, he was packing a valise, when at the open window on the gallery without there appeared suddenly a slender, graceful, girlish form; a fair face gazed appealingly, imploringly, in, and a soft voice pronounced his name.

Starting up, he stepped quickly toward the apparition. One instant the lovely face lighted with hope, joy, triumph, then changed to sudden wrath before the shade, pulled vehemently down, shut it from sight.

There appeared suddenly a slender, graceful, girlish form.

Even as she stood there, baffled, "a woman scorned" in the presence and hearing of another, who nevertheless stepped quickly forward to express her opinion of such heartless, soulless conduct despite the interposing shade, there came sharp, imperative raps on Loring's door and the summons "Wanted at headquarters at once, sir."

And, weeping as though bereaved and forsaken, the younger woman threw herself upon the broad and sympathizing bosom of the elder. "There, there, poor darling, don't cry! Wait till Mr. Lambert and the general hear how he has treated you," said Mrs. Burton, "and we'll see what'll happen."

TO BE CONTINUED.

William Hand & Son,
STAGES
For Parties, etc. 518 Park avenue

McCullough's STEAM MILL.
Steiner place, North Plainfie
R. H. McCullough, Prop'
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing &c. Estimates cheerfully furnishe

HURRAH! HURRAH! HURRAH!
Here we are, the largest and best equipped laundry in your town. We don't only say this, but it is a positive fact. Our number us laundries and branches are located in all the principal cities in the states of
NEW YORK, NEW JERSEY AND PENNSYLVANIA.
And can frankly say that the work turned out by each is appreciated by our numerous patrons. The introduction of
Our Celebrated Domestic Finish
has gained great fame. And still another great advantage is gained by your laundry coming to us, and that is, all your pet front shirts are ironed by hand. Your collars and cuffs are turned and ironed in the proper way them makers intends them to be. Telephone or a postal. Will call and deliver free of charge.
City Steam and Hand Laundry
19 SOMERSET ST.
TELEPHONE.
Morey & LaRue, Proprietors.
PLAINFIELD N. J.

A Double Bill
EASTER WEEK
Our Easter panel, "Innocence" given free to purchasers of teas, coffees, baking powder, etc. A Lady's Rocker given to purchasers of one pound baking powder.

GRAND UNION TEA CO.
138 West Front street.

C. ARNOLD, 35 Some set Street.
has an elegant display of
Genuine Spring Lamb,
JERSEY BROILERS AND POULTRY
of all kinds. It will do your heart good to inspect my stock before purchasing your Sunday dinner. 3 21 tf

Advertised Letters

Plainfield, N. J., April 3 1899

Bellis Miss May	Lewis Mrs Lina
Brown Mr A G	Manetto Mr Gregor e A
Brown Mrs Margaret	Ollis Mr Stelson L
Burrell Mr Jeco	Palmer Miss Julia Lina
Curtis Miss Augusta	Reid Miss Emma
Campbell Mr R	Rhene Mr John
Cobb Mr J M	Rogers Mr E H
Howard Mr Walter	Scruggs Miss Sallie W
Green Mr William	Smith Mr W R
Hunter Mr	Sutton Mrs S P
Hurlburt Mr & Mrs A.	White Miss Susie

Work Mr Chas L
6 9 South street.

Special Bargains for Friday : : : : and : : : : Saturday.
AT S. Scheuer & Co.,
239 and 241 West Front Street.

Best Family Flour, per bbl.		$3.98.
Best Family "	24 1 2 lb. Bag	49c.
Best xxxx Minn. Patent Flour	per bbl	$4.39.
Best " " " "	per bag	55c
Fancy N. Y. State Butter,		20c lb.
Sugar Cured Cal. Hams		6c lb.

Cape Cod Cranberries per qt.	5c	Hindquarter Genuine Lamb	14c lb.
New White Beans, per qt	5c	Jersey Pork Roast	9c lb.
3 lb Pkge Prepared Buckwheat	8c	Fresh Shoulder Pork	7c lb.
3 lb. can Boston Baked Beans	5c	Boneless Bacon by the strip	9c lb.
3 lb can Bartlett Pears	9c	Best Salt Pork	7c lb
Washing Soda 6 lbs. for	5c	Jersey Fowl	14c lb.
Best Elgin Creamery Butter,	23c lb	Long Island Spring Ducks	14c lb
Fancy N. Y State Butter	20c lb	Fancy Roasting Chickens	16c lb.

FREE SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY.
A BOX OF UNEEDA BISCUITS Given away free to all purchasers of 1 lb. Scheuer's Premium Java Coffee 27 Cents Pound.
FREE SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY.

GOOD SHOE TRADE!
We are doing a good shoe trade on our "Specialty" shoes for Men and Women such as are advertised in the leading magazines. The best made for the least money.
For Women, "S & S," $5 and $4. "Sorosis" $3 50, "Superior" $3, "H & S" $3, and down to $2 50, $2, $1 50, $1 25, 98c
For Men "J & M." Best made at any price. $5 00, "Elite" $3 50, and on down to $3 $2 50, $2, $1 50, $1 25. All guaranteed best wearing shoes sold for the price, and latest styles. No need at all to go to New York. Peddie's Trunks Dress Suit Cases and Bags
SEE ELEGANT DISPLAY IN OUR SHOW WINDOWS.
DOANE & EDSALL.

MISS JENKINS,
PARLOR MILLINERY
303 East Sixth Street

EUROPE, starting June 29, 69 days, 48 days or 41 days; English coaching, Holland, Germany, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, Paris. Experience, fourteen years. Particulars of HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS, Plainfield, N J.

Leggett's
SYRUP WHITE PINE AND TAR
is growing more popular every day. Why? Because it is a simple, palatable, reliable
Cough Remedy.
Try it, is all we ask.
25c. a Bottle.
Leggett's Pharmacy,
Y. M. C. A. Building.

A GREAT OFFER
To the Public of Plainfield and vicinity by
CHARLES EISENBERG,
the well-known Painter, Paper Hanger and Decorator, who has opened a branch store
310 West Front Street,
(Stillman Building.)
I will paper any fair size room, ceiling and walls, with the latest designs of gilt papers, including sizing and repairing from $4 up.
I also carry the finest and largest assortment of imported and domestic wall papers and decorations. I do first-class work in tinting, kalsomining and inside and outside painting at reasonable prices. Call at the store or send a postal card, and I will call on you with sample books, and cheerfully give estimates. I guarantee first-class workmanship.
Yours truly,
Chas. Eisenberg.
Stores—310 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J.; 312 Main street, Orange, N. J.; 61 Springfield avenue, Newark, N. J.; Warehouse 10, 12, 14 and 16 Mercer street, Newark, N. J. Phone, 1073. Plainfield open evenings until 9. Sample books to the trade.

E. D. BARRETT,
Sanitary Plumbing.
Steam and Hot Water Heating
Telephone 612. 148 East Fifth Street. 4 3 1m

REVERE HOUSE
PARK AVENUE. 7th and 8th sts. PLAINFIELD, New Jersey.
Families accomodated for the Spring and Summer months at greatly reduced prices.
The house contains all modern improvements lighted by Gas and Electricity. Sanitary arrangements perfect. Cuisene unsurpassed
GEO. R. DE REVERE

NEW YORK CITY AND COUNTRY WORK : : OUR SPECIALTY. : : | Satisfaction guaranteed. Stages to hire.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

F. A. LONG, No. 108 SOMERSET ST. Near Manning Avenue.
Up-to-Date Cash Grocery Store
Orders called for and delivered in any part City or Dunellen.

ARLINGTON HOTEL.
(Splendid Mountain View.)
SOMERSET ST. AND GREENBROOK ROAD.
Charles Jensen, Prop'r.
First class bar. Large parlor with piano for parties, receptions etc. Stable and shed accommodations.

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

BICYCLES BICYCLES
George Gould,
AGENT FOR
VICTOR, PATEE, WAVERLY, IVANHOE and NASSAU SPECIAL
Rents, Repairs, Sundries and Storage.
326 PARK AVENUE.
CLIFTON BUILDING.

Flynn Bros.,
SHOE DEALERS,
222 WEST FRONT STREET,
Near Music Hall,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.
We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods
Have stood the test for years.

LAIRE'S
SPRING AND SEASONABLE GOODS.
Garden Wheel Barrows.
Garden Tools, all kinds.
Garden Seeds, all varieties.
Lawn Seed.
Lawn Dressing.
Fertilizers, all kinds.
Lawn Rakes.
Ask to see the finest family scale made, for $1.50.
TELEPHONE CALL 682.
THE J. P. LAIRE HARDWARE CO.

WASHINGTON
VIA
OLD POINT COMFORT
is the most attractive short trip at this season of the year.
STEAMSHIPS OF THE OLD DOMINION LINE
PERFORM DAILY SERVICE.
Through tickets returning from Washington by rail or water.
For full information apply to
OLD DOMINION S. S. COMPANY,
Pier 26, North River, NEW YORK.
W. L. Guillaudeu Vice-Pres.,
& Traffic Mgr.
10-28 1 1w

Ladies Desiring . . .
KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING
done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 0 Washing avenue, and it will receive prompt attention.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL,
corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.
RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

L. MORALLER & SON
Watchmakers and Jewelers
HAVE REMOVED TO 219 PARK AVE.
Next to Armstrong's Drug Store. 3 18 1m

COLLIER,
SCIENTIFIC OPTICIAN,
Established 1869.
103 Park Avenue

Your Valuables,
will be safe in
Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.
Lock boxes from $3 50 to $10 a year

HENRY J. WIERENGA,
Furniture and Freight Express.
Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Pa Store 128 Park avenue. 10 1 1y

E. S. F. RANDOLPH,
DRUGGIST,
Cor. Liberty and Fourth Sts. Telephone 181.
PRESCRIPTIONS FILLED DAY OR NIGHT.

H. HAND,
Licensed : : Auctioneer.
OFFICE—Corner South Ave. and Berckman St.
REAL ESTATE and FIRE INSURANCE.
11 16 1m

She washes her delicate laces
With Ivory Soap suds, soft and warm;
The frailest in bottles she places
And shakes them—it cannot do harm.
If thoroughly rinsed with clear water,
They're wholly uninjured when dry
Because, as experience has taught her,
Ivory Soap has no free alkali.

The vegetable oils of which Ivory Soap is made fit it for many special uses for which other soaps are unsafe or unsatisfactory.

Copyright, 1898, by The Procter & Gamble Co., Cincinnati.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders.

—VanAredale says shoes for everybody—that means that the majority can generally find what they want at his store in medium and fine grade shoes, at his just prices.

—A great suit sale of about 200 extra fine men's suits are to be sacrificed tomorrow at prices never dreamt of before. If you are a wise man you will be there on time, as they certainly will go fast at the prices we intend to sell them. Also a few silk lined overcoats are included in this lot of fine clothing. New York Clothing Company, 214 West Front street.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Dr. Frank B. Searles and wife, of Catskills, N. Y., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Searles' parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Lowrie, of Park avenue.

Friday evening, April 14th, Rev. Garret Conover, of West Nyack, N. Y., will give a free lecture at Warren chapel entitled "The Life of Jesus in Picture and Song" This lecture is intensely interesting and should attract a large number of people.

To Cure Constipation in One Week
To Purify the Blood in One Week
To Strengthen Nerves in One Week
To Cure Sick Headache in One Day

Take Cleveland's Celery Compound Tea, 25c. Trial size free. It it fails to cure your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenues.

ELEVEN BURNED TO DEATH.

Horrible Results of a Fire in a New York Millionaire's House.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New York, April 7.—The residence of Wallage C. Andrews, President of the New York Steam Heating Company, caught fire a few minutes before 2 o'clock this morning, and was burned out.

It was at No. 2 East Sixty-seventh street, on the south side of the street; a strong south wind was blowing and sent cinders and sparks in showers over the buildings in the neighborhood.

The residence of Alfred J. Adams, at No. 3 East Sixty-ninth street, a block distant, was ignited and destroyed. In all, eleven persons lost their lives and eight were more or less seriously injured. The bodies taken from the Andrews house and one from the Adams house are at the station house.

This Time He Was Not "On."

W. E. Boice, of Washington avenue, an employe in Woodhull & Martin's dry goods store, was given a surprise last night by the people of the store and a few outsiders. Mr. Boice was to have been given this surprise several weeks ago, but as he got a pointer from some one, the project was given up.

Death of Mrs. Campbell.

The death of Mrs. Firman Campbell, of Rockview avenue, occurred at her home this afternoon at 2 o'clock. She was about eighty years of age, and leaves three children.

—A. B. Thorn, assignee of R. C. Rand, has removed the stock to 37 Somerset street, and is selling stationery, books, paper, etc., at less than cost in order to close up the business.

—Nelson B. Giles, of East Second street, has been chosen as one of the petit jurors of the next term of the Union County Court instead of Nelson B. Childs, as was previously reported.

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Bertha A. Giles, of East Second street, to Charles Edward Johnson, of LaGrande avenue. The wedding will take in the fall.

Harry Page, of Elmwood place, has purchased a new 1899 wheel.

David Wood, of Washington Park, purchased a Columbia wheel yesterday.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help, but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion build up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by L. W. Randolph, druggist. Guaranteed.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages there should be cleanliness.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

SPRING CLEANING

will soon be here, and while cleaning up your homes do not forget to clean your system.

Hepburn's Blood Purifier

for the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys, will do this in a satisfactory manner. Money refunded if it don't do what is claimed for it. We have made and sold it the same way for the past 14 years.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY, HEPBURN & CO.

Cor. Park Ave. and Second St. Telephone 671.

A Sponge

a whisk broom and a hot iron may make grease spots disappear temporarily, but proper treatment is necessary to get them out by the roots, so to speak. A suit of clothes properly cleaned and pressed, $1.50.

HILLIER & CO.,

129 West Front Street, Opposite White's. 'Phone 851.

FURNITURE.

Not the bargain sale kind that is made to sell at low prices but is never cheap—every article of our large stock has been bought on the merit of quality from reliable manufacturers only. To close balance of stock quickly every article is offered at less than usually quoted on cheaply made goods. Can name only few prices:

$35 Parlor Cabinets	-	$17.00
5 50 Parlor Tables	-	3.25
9 00 Chiffonieres	-	5.75
30.00 Sideboards	-	21.00

CALL NOW AND GET BARGAINS.

-- PACKER --

West Front St and Madison Ave.

Mrs. Grover Cleveland, at Princeton, N. J, said:

"Mr. Naylor, the carpet cleaning you did for me is entirely satisfactory."

A. F. Naylor,

Bedding Factory & Store,

'Phone 931 23 Somerset-st.

A CONCERT

for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. will be given in Association Hall

Saturday Evening April 8th.

By the Cecelia Bradford Trio, of New York. ADMISSION 25 cents. 436

Corporation Notice.

Frank Bergen, Albert B. Carlton and Joseph A. Hubbard, the "Commissioners of Adjustment" appointed for the City of Plainfield, Union County, New Jersey, by the Circuit Court of the County of Union, by order made on the twenty-ninth day of May, 1897, under the provisions of Chapter CXII of the laws of 1896, entitled "An act concerning the settlement and collection of arrearages of unpaid taxes, assessments and water rates or water rents in cities in this State, and imposing and levying a tax, assessment and lien in lieu and instead of such arrearages, and to enforce the payment there ore, and to provide for the sale of lands subjected to future taxation and assessment," passed March 30, 1896, and the several amendments thereof and supplements thereto, having made and filed in the office of the Clerk of said Circuit Court a report of their proceedings, assessments, charges and liens fixed and certified by them, together with the assessment maps therein referred to, and such proceedings, as required by the statute in such case made and provided, having been taken in the premises that the said court by order made on the nineteenth day of October last, did refer the said report to the same commissioners to reconsider the subject-matter thereof, and return the same corrected and revised, or a new report to be made by them in the premises without unnecessary delay, pursuant to the statute in such cases made and provided, as by reference to said orders and the minutes of said court will more fully and at large appear; and said Commissioners of Adjustment for the City of Plainfield having thereafter decided to make a new report in the premises:

Notice is hereby given that said Commissioners of Adjustment, appointed as aforesaid for the City of Plainfield, have made, certified and filed in the office of the Clerk of the said Union County Circuit Court a new report of their proceedings, assessments, charges and liens fixed and certified by them, together with the assessment maps referred to therein, and the said Court has fixed Monday, the twenty-fourth day of April, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as the court can attend to the same, at the Court House in the City of Elizabeth, as the time and place for hearing any objections that may be made to the assessments, charges and liens fixed and certified by the "Commissioners of Adjustment" in said report, when and where all parties interested therein may be heard.

Dated March 30th, 1899.

William Howard,
Clerk of the Circuit Court of the County of Union.

4-7-8-14-15-21-22

GRAND FAIR

under the Auspices of

Miantonomo Tribe, No. 118, Improved Order of Red Men,

—AND—

Iona Council, No. 14, D. of P.

IN

WASHINGTON HALL,

West Second St.,

Tuesday, April 4, to Saturday, April 8, inclusive.

DANCING EVERY EVENING.

Unique novelties exhibited. Something new each night. 417

—Use Press want ads.

FRANK L. C. MARTIN CYCLE CO.,

PIONEER BICYCLE HOUSE OF NEW JERSEY. ESTABLISHED 1889.

-:- CRESCENT BICYCLES. -:-

NOBODY wants a poor wheel at any price, but thousands are looking for a high grade wheel at a low figure. There has never been anything fancy about CRESCENT prices, but the wheel itself has proven more than fancy painted it. The record, the quality and the price keep

CRESCENTS SPINNING.

The money you pay for a new wheel is sometimes only part of the price. The bicycle-repairer gets the rest. But if you buy a to begin with, you need have only a bowing acquaintance with him.

CRESCENT

THE buying of a bicycle is a matter of serious importance. All your pleasure in cycling depends on your wise choice. In choosing the you run no risk. The unanimous testimony of Crescent purchasers should convince you that Crescent quality has no superior.

CRESCENT

Chain Model	-	$25 and $35
Bevel Gear Chainless Model	-	$60

REPAIRING. RENTING. STORING.

-:- OUR NEW PROPOSITION -:-

CRESCENT BICYCLES

Enables everyone to own and ride a C.R.E.S.C.E.N.T.

T-E-R-M-S: $1.00 DOWN AND $1.00 WEEKLY.

NEW STORES 108 and 110 EAST FOURTH ST. (Near Park Ave.) Unequalled Facilities.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR
Sun Rises 5:33 a. m.
Sun Sets 6:31 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 7:31 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Fair Till Monday. Cooler To-night. Ther. 65.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., SATURDAY, APRIL 8, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

BISHOP'S PLAIN TALK TO YOUNG MINISTERS

Important Proceedings of the Methodist Conference.

REV. O'DONNELL A LEADER.

A PLAINFIELD DIVINE CONDUCTED EPWORTH LEAGUE RALLY.

Bishop Fowler Describes the Hard Things of a Minister's Life and Gave the Ministerial Candidates Some Sound Advice—Rev. Mr. O'Donnell Made a Popular Leader—Other Matters.

(Special to The Daily Press)

Newark, April 8.—One of the most important and interesting features of the Methodist Conference yesterday was the Epworth League rally over which Rev. W. C. O'Donnell, pastor of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church in Plainfield, presided. There was a large attendance and the enthusiastic, fervent ways of Rev. Mr. O'Donnell in conducting the services made him very popular.

The four district presidents were introduced one after another and all made short addresses. Another feature of the meeting was the singing of an impromptu choir, made up of clergymen. Rev. C. L. Goodsell, of the Hanson Place M. E. church, Brooklyn, was the principal speaker.

The most impressive ceremony at the session of the Conference, was a presentation of the ministers who applied for admission on trial to the Conference. Bishop Fowler made the address. There were five candidates, Rev. Messrs. Andrew J. Turner, Wallace B. Fleming, George Whitehead, George W. Gardner and C. J. Hoyt.

Bishop Fowler said he did not wish any minister to cast a careless vote. If a candidate not fitted for the work should be selected the Conference would have sent him out to undo work of five good men, and put him in a position to do incalculable harm that five good men could not undo. It would put upon the cabinet the responsibility of sending him out to tomahawk the church. The Bishop added that the candidates had the right to stop and say they don't like the doctrine or the machine, and then withdraw from the Conference. The Conference was here to make Methodist preachers and no other kind. The Bishop continued with words of admonition to the candidates, describing their future duties and responsibilities.

A vote was taken and the five candidates were elected to membership in the Conference.

Presiding Elder Q. R. Wright, of the Jersey City District, read his annual report, which showed generally prosperous conditions. There had been a large cancellation of mortgages. The number of 899 persons had been received on probation, there was $39,917 of mortgages cancelled, and there was $15,500 of special gifts and legacies. The total amount raised was $56,867.

Rev. Dr. M. S. Hard, assistant secretary of the Church Extension Society, gave some figures to show the work done. There were 48,424 members of the Conference, and $72,003 was devoted to church expansion. The Conference was asked to give $8,000 to the society, and the whole church is asked to give $15,000.

A committee appointed to investigate charges against Rev. J. D. Boswell, who it was alleged, had been intoxicated in a French restaurant in New York and was arrested by the police, reported to the Conference that Mr. Boswell's frank explanations had been heard by the committee and that the committee had decided that no action was necessary.

Specials at VanEmburgh's.

Ladies fine hose, 13 cents; bleached damask, 29 cents; childrens' ribbed hose, 10, 15, 18 cents; ladies satin stock collars, 10 cents; gentlemen's suspenders, 10 cents; bicycle suitings, 12 cents; fancy underskirts, 49, 85, $1; handsome new dress ginghams at 7 cents. Remember we have the wonder 10 cent department in our basement.

Mrs. Kenney's Mother Dead.

The death of Mrs. Frank Gleason, occured Thursday morning at her home in New Brunswick after a long illness. The funeral will be held Monday morning at 9:30 in St. Peter's church, New Brunswick. Mrs. Gleason was the mother of Mrs. D. T. Kenney, of Grove street, this city.

Resigned as Treasurer.

Dr. L. S. Pocock has resigned his position as local treasurer of the Plainfield branch of the State Mutual Building and Loan Association, and William A. Woodruff, corner of Park avenue and Front street, has been elected as the successor.

PARALYZED HER TONGUE

STRANGE STORY TOLD IN CITY COURT THIS MORNING.

Miss Drake's Reason Why it Was Simply Impossible For Her to Use Bad Language on That Occasion.

When the fire alarm blew yesterday morning there were all sorts of lively times at 230 West Second street. Mrs. Mary O'Reilly, an elderly woman, occupies a room there. So does Mrs. Stella Meffner, her husband and her sister, Miss Jessie Drake.

There has not been peace and quietude during the past few weeks. Yesterday, there was a still greater absence of it for a time. The testimony, as given in the City Court this morning, was so contradictory that no body could tell exactly what had happened.

Mr. O'Reilly thinks that her life was in danger and then Miss Drake was appearing at the window in an unseemly manner and she feared that somebody might think that it was she, which didn't strike the audience at the court as likely.

Each side swore that the other swore at them and called a great variety of naughty names. Miss Drake swore that Mrs. O'Reilly frightened her so that she couldn't say a word for ten minutes.

At the suggestion of Francis J. Blatz, of the law firm of Murphy & Blatz, who appeared as counsel for Mrs. O'Reilly, Mrs. Heffner and her sister were held under $100 bonds to keep the peace by City Judge Runyon.

CHANGES IN RESIDENCES.

The Addresses of Plainfielders Who Have Chosen New Homes.

The following residential changes have been made within a few days by Conover's furniture moving vans: Mrs. Hallstrom from Grove street to Madison avenue; Mrs. Winklemann from Grove street to Madison avenue; W. H. Pope from Grandview avenue to Newark; Mrs. Lunger from Manning avenue to Watchung avenue and Second street; Mrs. Demarest from Race street to Craig place; Mr. Kense from Linden avenue to LaGrande avenue; Mrs. Miller from Watchung avenue to Stillman building; Mrs. Trilby from Stone street to Summit avenue; Rev. J. G. Dyer from Brooklyn to Carleton avenue; Mrs. Smith from Metuchen to 83d street, New York; Mr. Johnson from DeKalb avenue, Brooklyn, to Race street; N. A. Miller from New York to Washington and Mercer avenues.

BIG CROWD AT THE FAIR.

Red Men's Event Went on Successfully Despite the Rain.

The rain last night did not interfere much with the Red Men's fair, and the attendance was nearly as large as usual. There was no programme, only dancing, which was kept up until a late hour. The programme tonight will include a musical sketch by Lusardi and Springer, music by Prof. Parsons, slack wire walking by Prof. Burke, an exhibition cake walk by Bowsel and Dunham, buck and wing dancing by Frey and Watson, and a grand prize cake walk at 11 o'clock sharp, open to all competitors.

It has been decided to continue the fair Monday night, when forty Indians, of both sexes, will close the fair with an exhibition of Indian camp life. This is expected to be a grand feature. The Pocohontas gold pin was won last night by Mrs. Henry W. Angleman.

The Latest and Best

The Union Building and Loan Association opens a new series Monday next, April 10th. This is the most wide-awake and progressive building loan in Plainfield, and it is heartily recommended to all. Anyone looking for a safe and profitable investment for their savings are not obliged to look any further. Any further information about this association will be cheerfully given to anyone who will call at the office of the association in the Marsh building, 203 Park avenue, corner of Second street.

Print Exhibit is Free.

The committee in charge of the coming photographic print exhibition of the Plainfield Camera Club, which begins in the club gallery in the Babcock building, Monday evening, has decided to admit the public to the exhibition free. All interested in photography and pictures are invited to attend the exhibition which will last all next week. The Camera Club gallery is located on the top floor of the Babcock building and can be reached by elevator.

Deputy Grand Master Present.

Deputy Grand Master Workman Tomlinson, of Elizabeth, visited Columbia Lodge last night and made an address. A banquet, furnished by Warnock, was provided, but owing to the storm only a few were out, and there was more than enough to go around.

MAYOR SMALLEY WON BY HIS OWN VOTE.

A Good Natured Tiff Between Him and Mr. Rogers.

THE VOTE WAS A TIE ONE.

IT WAS OVER COUNCILMAN SWACKHAMER'S HONORS.

Mr. Rogers Urged That the Lone Democrat Had Not Been Accorded Enough Recognition on the Committees—Poll and Personal Tax Must be Paid or Delinquents Must Go to Jail

The second and regular April meeting of the Borough Council held last evening was one of the longest sessions held in many a day, and there was a considerable amount of friction evidenced before the close of it. Mayor Smalley and all the members were present and everyone took a lively interest in the business introduced. Clerk Frank Rowley presided for the first time and took charge of the business in his department. On the Mayor's desk was the handsome gavel stone and ivory gavel presented to His Honor by Assessor Elston M. French. In opening the session Mayor Smalley, with emphasis, called the meeting with a vigorous rap of the gavel.

The first evidence of friction was shown when Mr. Rogers took exception to the fact that Mr. Swackhamer was a member of only two committees while Mr. Coddington held membership in four. He desired an equalization of the appointments by having the Democratic member placed on another committee.

The Mayor thought the committees all right and he appointed them with a view to obtaining the best results. Mr. Swackhamer said that he was left off of another committee at his own request. Mr. Burtis thought the same as Mr. Rogers, after much discussion the matter was laid on the table. Later in the evening Mr. Rogers attempted to take the motion from the table, but Mr. Valiant objected on the ground that he had been opposed to tabling the motion.

Finally, to expidite matters, Mr. Valiant called for the motion and on the vote Messrs. Clark, Swackhamer and Valiant voted to leave the motion on the table, while Messrs. Coddington, Burtis and Rogers voted the other way. This made a tie vote and the Mayor voted no, thus leaving the motion on the table. In the discussion considerable was talked about the right of taking the motion from the table. When Mr. Valiant objected, and the Mayor decided in favor of this member, Mr. Rogers appealed from the decision of the chair. Finally the advice of Counsel Reed was asked for, and he related the custom of the Senate and Congress. In the general discussion considerable amusement was afforded the spectators.

The reception of a petition from objectors to the present assessment on the Watchung avenue improvement, objecting and offering to compromise matters by being willing to pay one-half of the amount of the total assessment, called forth a long and exhaustive debate, in which Counsel Reed rehearsed the whole proceedings for the benefit of the new members.

Mayor Smalley was the only one who openly declared himself in favor of compromising, while every other member was in favor of collecting the several assessments. Mr. Valiant strongly defended the position of the borough and urged that the matter be decided once for all and that the amounts be collected as soon as possible. He introduced a resolution that notices be served on those owing assessments by the Clerk, and that those who settled before June 1st next could do so by paying six per cent. interest, which is four per cent. below that which the borough can charge. This resolution was adopted unanimously and thus the matter rests. One concession made was that the interest would be charged from January 13th, ninety days after the confirmation of the report.

C. T. Pond and others petitioned the Council to macadamize Willow avenue. They agreed to pay 15 per cent. for the work. A. I. Smalley petitioned for the privilege of laying a drain for surface water through the upper part of the borough. E. M. French, for Mrs. E. E. Marshall, asked the Council to return to her the amount of tax paid by her late husband on property in the borough which had been paid on the property owned by Mary Leland. The members of West End Hose Company petitioned for the confirmation of Louis Bimble as a member, and Warren Engine Company asked the Council to confirm the election of L. B. Bodine and Wm. Rickets as members, and the resignation of John Emmons. They also asked that Louis Feiring and H. G. Adams be granted exemption papers to which they are entitled. All of these petitions took the usual course and were referred to the proper committees.

Mr. Clark, for the street committee, presented a short report in which he stated that the committee had decided not to macadamize any more streets until the frost is out of the ground.

The collector's report showed that during the month of March the sum of $618.78 had been collected, and that there is now a balance of $930.43 on hand. The sum of $10 was also reported as having been received from Recorder Long for fines.

Mayor Smalley referred to the fact that he noticed the names of several persons on the pay rolls of the borough who owed tax, and he stated that hereafter he would not sign a single warrant for anyone who is indebted to the borough for tax. This action was commended by the members.

Mr Valiant offered a resolution providing for the borrowing of $1,600 to meet a note of $1,964. He offered another resolution which provides that the collector must furnish a bond in the sum of $15,000, $10,000 of which must be security bond, and $5,000 that of a freeholder.

Mr. Clark secured for the street committee authority to secure bids for furnishing crushed stone and crosswalks for the coming year and awarded the contract to the lowest bidder, and by a resolution Frank J. Hubbard and H. C. VanEmburgh were appointed borough engineers. The former will look after the west side and the latter after the east side.

A very important move made by the council was through a resolution offered by Mr Rogers. It provides that Collector Brown shall proceed immediately to collect all personal and poll tax and where the money is not forthcoming the delinquent shall be put in jail. To assist Mr. Brown in this performance Justice Crossley was designated as the one to issue the warrants. If they fail to carry out the law they will have to suffer the consequences, but there is no doubt but what the law will be enforced to the letter.

A resolution offered by Mr. Swackhamer provides that the collector issue tax warrants for the collection of 1897 taxes on delinquent lands, and another resolution by the same member provided for the erasure of certain names from the delinquent list, the same not being collectable.

Mayor Smalley appointed George Gunther, Richard McDonald and Fred Coverly as special marshals.

What seems to be an unjust law in the borough was brought up at the meeting by Mr Clark with a view of having it amended. It is that which refers to the payment of the men who work on the streets. Mr. Clark, on behalf of the laborer, desired to have the law changed so that the men could receive their pay every week, but Mr. Valiant took exception on the ground that the borough would not have warrants for receipts. He thought that the present rule worked well and saw no reason for a change. He advised, however, that the Mayor could advance the money if necessary, but His Honor said that he had been doing so and was tired of it. He wanted to see the men get their money every week. After much discussion on the subject the law was left in its present form.

After deciding that the next meeting would allow for proper time to fix the tax budget, the meeting adjourned.

Made Much Money.

The entertainment given in Y. M. C. A. Hall last Saturday evening for the benefit of the Plainfield High School Athletic Association and the Girls' Athletic Association of the Plainfield High School, proved a great success financially as well as musically. The committee in charge has about completed its labors and finds that, after paying all the bills, the two associations will have nearly $100 to divide between them. While the committe was confident of success, this pleasing result was not quite anticipated.

Print Exhibit Opens Today.

The annual photographic print exhibit of the Plainfield Camara Club rooms in the Babcock building, Monday evening. The committee report that the exhibition, this year, will be well worth witnessing as a large number of the local ameteur photographers have entered some of their work in the various contests. The exhibit this year will show the great improvement that has been made during the year in that line of work.

Reunion of Second Brigade.

Next Monday at Trenton the members of the Second New Jersey Brigade will hold their annual reunion. A large number of the members reside in this city and they will attend.

Joseph Wadsworth, of West Eighth street, returns Monday to Yale.

SPADES TO STRIKE IN THE TROLLEY'S PATH

Riker Syndicate to Show That They Are in Earnest.

WORK ON PRIVATE GROUND.

TO START DIGGING MONDAY ON PRIVATE RIGHT OF WAY.

Civil Engineer VanEmburgh to Stake Out the Route and Contractor Serrell to Put a Gang of Laborers at Work—Clear Right of Way From Westfield to Roselle—To Push Along the Work.

Lemuel Serrell, Jr., the contractor who has been awarded the job of building the trolley road of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway Company, owned by the same stockholders as control the Plainfield Street Railway Company, will commence work Monday morning building the proposed line between this city and Elizabeth, which is aimed to be a competitor of the county trolley, which John Kean has paid the Freeholders $250,000 for the right to build.

The first section of the cross county road to be built will be on private property between Westfield and Cranford, which runs through Garwood. H. C. VanEmburgh, of this city, who has been employed as supervising civil engineer of the project, will start staking out the line, commencing at the intersection of Grove street and Central avenue in Westfield. This point is 1,000 feet distant from the Central Railroad tracks, but as the line draws nearer to Garwood it runs closer to the Central tracks.

Mr. Serrell will only put a small gang of laborers at work Monday morning but as the work progresses additions will be made to the gang till a large number are employed. The first work will be that of grading and cutting so that the rails can be laid. As the line of the road at this particular point is wholly on private ground there will be no fear of injuctions or other legal difficulties to stop the work. The company have the right from the eastern limits of Westfield clear through to the limits of Roselle borough, and they expect to push the work till that portion of their route is ready for operation.

By doing this they expect to show the people along the line that they are thoroughly in earnest, and in this way aid them in getting the remaining franchises that they need. After the work is started it is said that the Riker syndicate and John Kean will come to an understanding in reference to crossing Union county with a trolley road.

HOSPITAL DONATIONS

Gifts That Aid to Make Life Better and Happier for the Sick

Donations for month of March: Mrs. W. M. McGee, flowers; Benevolent Band King's Daughters, night dress; W. C. Hubbard, slippers; Needlework Guild, 24 pieces clothing; Mrs. Louis Borsum, 2 doz cans tomatoes, 2 doz. cans corn, 1 bil. potatoes, 10 qts. lima beans; Miss Herman, lb. absorbent cotton; Union County Country Club, literature, 3 times; a friend, 5 handkerchiefs, 5 pair socks, 3 dressing gowns, 3 pajamas, 2 pair slippers, 3 night shirts; Neuman Bros., 2 jars pickles, 4 jars rhubarb, 15 glasses jelly; a friend, crackers and ginger snaps; Mrs. Geo. Bowman, literature; Mrs. H. E. Titus, literature; Mrs. Charles Lee, childrens' clothing; Mrs. W. H. Sampson, literature; Mrs. Hibbard, literature; Mrs. James Sutton, old linen; A. S. Patterson, magazines; Mrs. H. M. Johns, literature; Mrs. H. B. Newhall, cut sugar; Mrs. Pincoff, magazines; Dr. Anderson, literature; Mrs. Mair, cake; Mrs. D. Hibbits, magazines; Mrs. J. Coard, literature; Mrs. Garretson, magazines and crutches; Miss Mary Bixton, 2 doz. eggs; a friend, literature, jelly; Erna Arnold, literature; Mrs. J. F. Loeser, 3 doz. eggs, 14 glasses jelly.

A Regular Church Delegate.

Rev. B. W. Hand, a member of the Christian church, has received notification from Rev. S. T. Willis, of 169th street, Brooklyn, N. Y., to attend the Philadelphia Conference of the church to held in the Quaker City from May 9th to 11th inclusive. The conference will meet in the First Church, corner of Berks and Mervine streets. This makes Mr. Hand a regular delegate and he will be appointed as such from the company of Christians that meet on East Third street.

Awarded a Bridge Contract.

The Somerset County Board of Freeholders have awarded the contract for building the VanZandt bridge near Blawenburg to the Berlin Bridge and Iron Company, at a price of $440.

—Press want ads pay

DANCED THE NIGHT AWAY

EVEN THE ELDER PARKITES FELT THE ENTHUSIASM.

Great Success of Formal Dance at the Park Club Last Night—Ninety Present—House Committee is All Right.

There was a wealth of beauty and grace at the Park Club house last night. It was the formal dance of the club and one of the most successful on record. Even the staid old war horses of the club forgot the weight of advancing age and thought they were young again. They assembled, as usual, to bowl and play pool and billiards but the fascination of the whirl of gaiety up in the ball room was too much for them.

The dance was largely attended, some ninety members and guests being present. It marked one of the closing events of the activity of Easter week at the Park Club and was enjoyed to the utmost. The music by Isler, of Newark, was particularly good.

The patronesses were Mrs. James T. Scott, Mrs. B. Arrowsmith Hegeman, Jr., Mrs. Wm. J. Roome, Mrs. Wm. L. Saunders, Mrs. Samuel Townsend and Mrs. S. St. John McCutchen.

The dance was arranged by the house committee which, by the way, has endeared itself to all the members by the successful management of the club this winter. The members of the committee were seen everywhere last night, aiding and abetting in the good time.

NEARLY A CENTURY OLD.

Mrs. Rachel Randolph Passed Away in Her 94th Year.

Mrs. Rachel Randolph, an aged Plainfielder, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jane L. Dunham, of West Fifth street, this morning. Mrs. Randolph was born on the William Corlell farm on West Front street, and was ninety-four years of age when she died.

She has always lived in this vicinity and for the past thirty years has made her home with Mrs. Dunham. Mrs. Randolph leaves five children; Mrs. J. Frank Hubbard, Mrs. Jane L. Dunham, Mrs. Harry Lewis, of New York state, David Randolph and William Randolph, the latter living at Asbury Park. She has been a widow fifty nine years.

Arrangements for the funeral have been completed, and the services will be held Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the house. Mrs. Randolph has always been an energetic church worker, and early identified herself with the Seventh-Day Baptist church. For the past year or two she has not been able to go out, but was comparatively free from suffering until a few weeks ago when old age, bronchitis and several diseases made themselves manifest, and she passed quietly away.

PAYING FOR AN ELECTION JOKE.

Bill for Hauling Fire Engine to Fires Started in Honor of Mayor's Election.

At last night's Borough Council meeting a bill was presented for hauling the fire apparatus to fires on last election day. Mr. Rogers spoke on the matter and desired an explanation. One fire was caused by some mischievously-inclined people who set fire to the small building on Somerset street, corner of Park place, in honor of the election of Mayor Smalley, and another fire was reported on Vine street. Mr. Rogers took exception to paying to have the apparatus taken out for such a fire, and mentioned a similar incident where the perpetrators were brought before the officials and properly "spanked" for the offence. The matter was explained, however, and the bill went through.

Open Cars Not Popular.

A number of Plainfield women in a local store on Front street this morning expressed themselves strongly over the fact that the Plainfield Street Railroad Company had introduced summer cars on the road today. The women were from out of town and were compelled to use the cars. They said the weather is not fit to ride in an open car.

—Judge Wm. N. Runyon is organizing a chorous choir to take part in the evangelistic services to be held in Hope chapel next week and continuing for ten days.

—The dance that was to be given for the benefit of Mrs. Henry Bender, has been postponed till later in the month on account of the bad weather last night. All tickets are good for that date.

—J. C. Storm, formerly with Fred Endress at his Liberty street store, has started business for himself and has opened at 318 Liberty street, a first-class meat market, where he will keep all the choicest kinds of meats, poultry and pork. Game in season.

DROVE HIS WIFE OUT INTO STORM.

With Brutal Fury He Tore Her Clothing to Pieces.

THEN ADMITTED IT ALL.

DRUNKEN JOHN GILES MADE MUCH TROUBLE AT HIS HOME.

His Daughter Told the Story in Court This Morning—Many Complaints Against Giles From the Neighbors—Giles Seemed Affected—Said He Did Get Ugly When "Riled"—Sentenced to Forty Days in Jail.

The household of John Giles has been divided against itself. Yesterday the husband tore the clothing from his wife's back, drove her out into the rain and locked the door on her. It was not an unusual performance there 'tis said. This morning the daughter appeared in city court and, between her sobs, told a story that resulted in the conviction of her father and his subsequent sentence to the county jail for forty days.

John Giles lives at 1220 Highland avenue, a little street running parallel to Watchung avenue and between that avenue and Prospect avenue. He has been employed by S. A. Cruikshank and others in cutting wood and about the stables. He is a gaunt looking man with a great shock of iron grey hair that nearly covers his bleared eyes. Of late he has been drinking steadily and growing more and more morose. Neighbors complained that he was dangerous when intoxicated and treated his family like a brute. The family had borne the trouble in silence.

Yesterday afternoon it was reported to the police that Giles was at it again. Roundsman Flynn went to the Giles home on Highland avenue to investigate. He learned that Giles had become violent, torn his wife's garments and then turned her out of the house. He was also alleged to have smashed part of the furniture. Giles was arrested and the members of his family subpœnaed as witnesses.

This morning Giles was arraigned before City Judge Runyon. The only witness was his daughter, Miss Grace Giles. She told a straightforward story quietly. She related how her father had been making trouble at home and had abused her mother. Giles had nothing to say but trembled as he leaned against the rail and hung his head. It was evidently a hard ordeal for the young woman but she gave her testimony and then hurried to the corridor where she burst into tears.

Giles hadn't much to say. He admitted that he did get ugly when they "riled" him. What was the use of behaving anyway he wondered? Nobody would get up and get his breakfast, his shirts were never washed or mended except when he did it himself. Nobody would mind him, he said, when his back was turned.

The Judge reviewed the case and told Giles that there had been a number of complaints against him and that he was going to give him a lesson. The Judge sentenced Giles to forty days in the county jail and warned him, on his return, to live in a quiet and orderly manner.

A sister of the prisoner was in court and pleaded with the Judge to make it a fine but the Judge was firm in his decision. Then she gave Giles some bills and promised him more to pay for what he wanted in jail.

Then Giles was led away to his cell and a weeping group gathered about the barred door to say good-bye.

Trouble Between Employe and Employer.

A little trouble between Patrick Kane and his employer, D. J. Galbraith, was aired in Justice Mosher's court yesterday. Kane worked for Galbraith digging sewer trenches, and claimed that Galbraith kept two shovels and a pick belonging to him. A search warrant was issued Wednesday and Constable Mattox claims to have found one shovel in Galbraith's cellar, which Kane says is his. After hearing the evidence yesterday Justice Mosher reserved his decision until Monday.

They Netted About $65.

Yes, it did rain last night, and as a consequence the "Feast of all Nations" of the Young Women's Mission Band, which was continued in the lecture room of Trinity Reformed church was very slimly attended. Still, the young women thank their friends for the very liberal patronage of the previous evening from which they expect to realize about $65 net profit.

—Press want ads bring results.

—Evangelist Tom Graham will speak at Warren chapel tomorrow evening.

THE PALACES AND TEMPLES OF ANCIENT EGYPT

had their walls shining with gold and sparkling with precious stones, but modern art has contrived to design decorations of a less costly character in the beautiful designs and refined colors and shades of Wall papers, friezes, etc., such as Woolston & Buckle keep in their varied and elegant stock at such tempting prices.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

ROGERS.
232 West 2d St.

Seafood for Health
Always
Desirable
when direct from the nets.

M. E. STEPHENSON,
146 NORTH AVE.

Weddings, Dinners and Receptions supplied with every requisite. China, Glass, Linen and Silver to loan.

ESTIMATES
cheerfully furnished. Telephone orders will receive prompt attention.
TELEPHONE 624.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections
210 PARK AVE.

PHILLIP SWAIN,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.
317 West Front street.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset treet. 619

HOTEL KENSINGTON
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107, 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

SOMERSET HOTEL
Somerset St. and Lincoln Place,
North Plainfield, N. J.
W. F. DREYER, Proprietor.
AMPLE ACCOMODATIONS FOR MAN AND BEAST.

E. B. Claynard,
NEW SHOP NEW FURNITURE BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

NEUMAN BROS.,
GROCERS,
Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

John G. Bantle,
428 WATCHUNG AVENUE.
First-class
TAILOR
SPECIALTY OF
Ladies' Tailor-made Garments
Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

DOBBINS. CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

New York Announcement.

HORNER'S FURNITURE

is the subject of this announcement. The term stands for everything that is reliable and fashionable in Furniture, in both the simple and ornate lines, whether wanted for town or country homes. Two other important features are the moderate prices at which the goods are marked, and their unequalled assortments.

Dining-Room Furniture in all finishes of Antique, Belgian, Flemish and English, with Tables, Dining Chairs, China Closets and Side Tables to match.

Bedroom Furniture in all the various woods and finishes, including special lines for country homes. Brass Bedsteads in over 70 patterns from $15.00 upward. Enameled Iron Bedsteads from $4.50 up.

Latest designs in Parlor Furniture, Library Furniture, Hall Furniture, Venetian Carved Furniture.

Couches, Settees, Easy Chairs, Rockers, Morris Chairs, Dressing Tables, Cheval Glasses, Writing Desks, etc., etc., all in unequalled assortments, and all prices.

Your inspection cordially invited.

R. J. HORNER & CO.
Furniture Makers and Importers,
61, 63, 65 W. 23d St., New York.
(Adjoining Eden Musee.)

EDUCATIONAL.

GREGG SHORTHAND SCHOOL
Babcock Building.
The latest and best system. Stenographers filling positions after 3 months.
DAY AND EVENING.
W. E. Van Wert, Principal.
Standard Typwriters in use.

MISS SARAH A. PALMER,
TEACHER OF PIANO (Virgil Method) AND THEORY IN ALL ITS BRANCHES.
The Virgil method and the Practice Clavier give to the pupil not only finger agility, but also mental control and concentration, whereby alone the best results can be obtained.
152 Crescent Avenue.

Piano Instruction
Virgil Clavier Method a specialty.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
215 MADISON AVE.
Sight Reading Classes, vocal and instrumental.

F. V. L. Goodwin,
TEACHER OF MUSIC
Lessons given at home on Piano. Special attention to beginners. Residence.
105 MANNING AVENUE,
North Plainfield, N. J.

SHORTHAND! BOOKKEEPING!
No better systems can be found than those taught in : : : :
PLAINFIELD BUSINESS COLLEGE,
City Bank Building.
Both sexes. Day and Night. Come and see us.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Duff.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE.
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's hall, No. 149 Park avenue, at 8:15 p m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711.
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

This question of
EYES
is a most serious one. Too lengthy to discuss here. If your eyes are causing you discomfort, or if you suffer with headache, neuralgia or pain in the eyes, consult our specialist at
107 E. Front Street Every Thursday
Hours 10 to 5. Free Examination. Work guaranteed.
LEECH, STYLES & CO.

ESTATE OF JOSEPH P. MASON, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, administratrix of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the twenty-first day of March, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.
ANNIE WRIGHT MASON,
3 25 9 s Administratrix.

persons in the house No. 2 East Sixty-seventh street. These have all been accounted for though not identified.

Adams's House Ignited.

Through the open window in the house of Alfred J. Adams (a sporting man, known as "Al" Adams), some sparks from the fire in the Andrews home were carried by a guest of wind. A servant had opened it, and was not able to put out the fire that was at once started in the curtains and carpets. The fire spread with unaccountable rapidity; and the inmates had a desperate struggle to escape. Nellie Quinn and Mamie Vogel, servants, were cut off by a burning stairway; they climbed out on the window-ledges, and were about to jump when the spectators saw them and warned them back. They were in a panic, and paid no attention; both jumped to the roof of a bay window, a floor below. Here they crouched close together, in mortal terror, waiting for somebody to come to their help.

A story, was told this afternoon that the servants quarrelled among themselves at the Andrews summer home at Tarrytown last summer; and that one of the female servants had been discharged. The discharged servant laid her downfall to Mary Flanagan, to whom she wrote threatening letters. These were turned over to the police. The police brought the matter to the attention of Mr. Andrews, who said it was of no consequence—that the house was well guarded, and there was nothing to fear. Because of all this, incendiarism was suggested; but the police do not entertain the rumor. It was suggested, also, that the fire started from a defective flue; but steam heat was used, and this explanation is not credited.

The theory which the firemen have all but accepted is that the fire started from a lamp in a bay window; it is supposed the lamp exploded or set fire to the curtains.

WALL STREET UPSET.

A Fluctuation of 15 Points Was a Feature of Yesterday's Marked.

New York, April 8.—The stock market was precipitated into a very demoralized condition during the early hours of yesterday, and there was a short period when an approach to panic prevailed in the industrial and street railway securities. This situation was brought about through the money question, which has reached an acute stage within the past few days by continued corporate financing and the action of a number of banks in refusing to lend on most of the newer industrials. The stand taken by the banks on the industrial stocks induced many brokers to refuse to purchase them except for cash, a course that naturally militated in a severe degree against a class of properties figuring violently in the upward movement for some time past. The day's sharp break, however, was directly traceable to a somewhat general calling in of loans by the banks to prepare for pending financial transactions, and also to strengthen their position.

As might naturally be expected, the dealings were on an enormous scale, while the excitement ran high during the greatest period of depression. Some idea of the havoc made in values can be gleaned from the following declines: Brooklyn Rapid Transit, 15¾; Metropolitan, 15; Manhattan, 9; Sugar, 12¾. American Tobacco, 10; Continental Tobacco, 8; the Federal Steel stocks, 7½@8¾; Steel and Wire preferred and common, 3@6; People's Gas, 12½; National Steel, 13¼; Tin Plate, 5¼; Consolidated Gas, 6; Union Bay common and preferred, 4½@8; New York Central, 5¾; Burlington and Quincy, 5⅝; St. Paul, 3⅞; Jersey Central, 4½; Pennsylvania, 3¼; P., C., C. & St. L., 12¼, and many other properties from 1 to 5.

The recovery was led by the street railways, which regained 6 to 12 points. The industrials rallied anywhere from 2 to 8¾, with Sugar and People's Gas in the van. The leading railroads were specially strong in the late trading and made almost a full recovery in some cases. The day closed with a decidedly better feeling as to the future.

Call money opened at 6 per cent. and rose to 15 per cent., but eased off late in the day, when there was a drop to 5 per cent.

Flower & Co. loaned over $3,000,000 at 6 per cent.

TO COMMAND THE ALABAMA.

Capt, Willard H. Brownson Selected—His Naval Career.

Washington, April 8.—Capt. Willard H. Brownson of the navy has been selected by Secretary Long to command the new battleship Alabama. She will not go into commission before next fall. At the Washington navy-yard shops they have turned out her big guns, but are still working at the carriages.

Capt. Brownson will be recalled as the commander who had the cruiser Detroit at Rio Janeiro during the rebellion of 1893, when the insurgent Admiral, Da Gama, set up a paper blockade and notified American trading vessels, among others in the harbor, not to discharge their cargoes. Rear-Admiral Benham was commanding the small American fleet which was kept there to protect the interests of our countrymen, and he turned over to Brownson the duty of compelling respects for the rights of our merchantmen. The first insurgent shot in the direction of an American vessel brought out from Brownson a report in the shape of a six-pounder under the bows of the offending rebel ship. The rebels fired one more shot, when Brownson sent a musket volley into them which tore out the stern post of one of their vessels and brought the skirmish to a close. Brownson then announced that if the American merchantmen were further interfered with he would sink the ship that fired the shot. No more was heard from the paper blockade, as far as our commerce was concerned.

During the war with Spain Brownson commanded the Yankee. He had been sent abroad on a confidential purchasing mission, and got back too late to receive a better command.

New Messenger Boy Coming

London, April 8.—The district messenger boy, Elsey, who left London on the afternoon of April 1, for California to rival the recent trip of Jaggers, was sent by Mr. Henry McCalmont, Member of Parliament, sportsman.

Elsey is on the steamer Etruria, which left Liverpool for New York April 1.

NEW YORK'S FATAL FIRE

Brown Stone Fronts in a Fashionable Section Prove Death Traps.

TWELVE PEOPLE PERISH

Two Houses Near Fifth Avenue Burned—First Fire Spread Rapidly—Inmates Could Not Be Aroused—Mother and Three Children Burned—Danger to Surrounding Buildings.

New York, April 8.—The home of Wallace C. Andrews, president of the New York Steam Heating Company, caught fire a few minutes before 2 o'clock yesterday morning, and was burned out. It was at No. 2 East Sixty-seventh street, on the south side of the street; a strong south wind was blowing, and sent cinders and sparks in showers over the buildings in the neighborhood. The residence of Alfred J. Adams, at No. 3 East Sixty-ninth street, two blocks distant, was ignited and almost destroyed. In all, twelve persons lost their lives and eight were more or less seriously injured. Eleven bodies were taken from the Andrews house and one from the Adams house. All others are accounted for. The dead and injured are:

Wallace C. Adams, 50 years old, president of the New York Steam Heating Company.

Margaret Andrews, his wife.

Georgina B. St. John, Mrs. Andrew's sister-in-law, and wife of G. C. St. John, treasurer of the New York Steam Heating Company.

Frederick St. John, 13 months old.

Mary Boland, kitchen maid at the Andrews house. Not identified.

Mary Flanagan, parlor maid in the Andrews house. Not identified.

Ann Neary, servant in Andrews house. Not identified.

Eva Peterson, a servant in Andrews house.

Maria Roth, a servant in Andrews house.

Mary Loughlin, 60 years old, a servant in the Adams house.

Missing.

Kate Downing, servant in Andrews house.

Injured.

Alice White, cook in the Andrews house, contusions and slight burns.

Jennie Burns, a servant in the Andrews house, fractured skull. Hospital surgeons say she cannot recover.

Mrs. Elizabeth Adams, 45 years old, shock.

Evelyn Adams, 22 years old.

Mamie Boggue, 20 years old, servant in the Adams house, shock.

Nellie Quinn, 20 years old, servant in the Adams house, internal injuries, serious.

The Andrews house was a four-story and basement brown-stone dwelling; next to it, on the corner, is the residence of H. O. Armour; adjoining this building, on Fifth avenue, is the home of Perry Belmont; George Gould lives across the way from the home of V. H. Rothschilds. The fire threatened the buildings adjoining, and, what with the strong south wind and the flying cinders, it appeared that there might be a serious conflagration. McKnight, the patrolman, went from house to house, giving the alarm, and made other vain attempts to get the persons of the Andrews household from their beds.

Mr. Andrews and his wife occupied an interior room on the second floor. Mrs. St. John, her three children, and two servants, Kate Downing and Maria Roth, were occupying the third floor; Mr. St. John was in Philadelphia on a business trip, and was notified, after having been located by the police with difficulty. The other servants, six in all, had their rooms on the fourth floor. When the first fire-engine arrived (followed quickly by a hook-and-ladder company) the servants were aware of their danger; but, it appears, the others knew nothing of it then. Alice White, the cook, leaped from a fourth-floor window to an extension in the rear, which rose to the third floor, and was found unconscious there when the firemen made their way there soon after. Jennie Burns, a servant, made the same jump, and fractured her skull, a mortal injury; when the firemen found her she was alive, but it is said at the hospital that she cannot recover.

Refused to Leave Her Child.

John H. Coor of Hook-and-Ladder 16 ascended by a ladder to the third floor of the burning building, and found Mrs. St. John leaning over a crib, in which was one of her three children. She refused to leave the child, and he was compelled to carry her to a window, where another fireman took her down to the street. She died soon afterwards. Coor also took the child out, but the little fellow died in his arms.

Wallace C. Andrews was born and spent his early life in Ohio. His first business ventures were in mining coal and railroads. He came to New York about eighteen years ago, and was connected, as president or director, or both, with the New York Steam Company, the New York Ice Company, the Hudson River Stone Supply Company, the New York Launch and Engine Company, the Safety Car, Heat, and and Light Company, the Standard Coupler Company, and the United States Mineral Company. He had no children. His wife was a sister of G. C. St. John, treasurer of the Steam Company. He was an uncle of Mrs. Edith Andrews Logan, wife of Major John A. Logan, and Mrs. Julia Bruce, wife of Leslie C. Bruce, of the Turf, Field and Farm publication. G. C. St. John is also from Ohio, and is connected with the same companies that Mr. Andrews was interested in.

Howard D. Throckmorton of No. 34 Grammercy Park spent the evening at the Andrews house. He said that Mr. Andrews reached home at 6 o'clock, and that after dinned the family were busy packing up in anticipation of a trip to Hot Springs, Va. Mr. Throckmorton left at 9.45 o'clock, at which time Mr. and Mrs. Andrews retired. Then, he added, only one servant was awake. She was waiting on the door, and is supposed to be Annie Neary.

Andrew Foley, the butler, returned home last night about 11 o'clock, when Mr. Andrews, he found, was awake. Foley went to bed at 12.30, in the Fifth avenue building, which is connected with the Andrews residence. He and Emma Banks, therefore, escaped. According to Foley, there were fourteen

TIGER HUNT BEGINS

The Assembly Investigation Committee Hot After Tammany.

POLICE DEPARTMENT FIRST

Captain Price of the Tenderloin Precinct Will Appear To-day—Voluntary Witnesses Giving Points to Mr. Moss—The Ex-Police Commissioner "Learning Things He Never Knew Before.

New York, April 8.—The investigating of the State Assembly, began probing into the conduct of this city's affairs this morning. Police Captain Price of the Tenderloin district, was the first official to answer a subpoena.

During the session of the Legislature, Mr. Moss said, the hearings would be confined to Saturdays and Mondays, in order to suit the convenience of the members of the Assembly. After the adjournment of the Legislature, the meetings will be held continuously until the committee has completed its work.

Just how long this would take Mr. Moss could not say, but it was probable that the hearings would last far into the summer.

Mr. Moss was in a very optimistic mood this morning. "We are getting along splendidly," he said. "The letters containing evidence against the present administration continue to come in, and the voluntary witnesses are still giving me much valuable information. I can say also," Mr. Moss added, "that I am learning things about the Police Department that I never knew before. I could only learn them in this way—that is, by the evidence of trustworthy volunteers.

Mayor Van Wyck refused to permit the Mazet investigating committee to hold its sessions in the city hall. James J. Flannagan, Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms of the Assembly, called on the Mayor yesterday, and asked if the committee could not have the use of one of the chambers of the city hall in which to hold the sessions. The Mayor said: "I cannot grant the request, for the reason that since I have been Mayor I have never allowed the use of any chamber in the city hall to any but patriotic organizations outside the regular city departments."

The use of the Governor's room was allowed last winter to the State Commerce Commission, which was then investigating the causes of the decline of commerce at the port of New York.

Chief Devery said to-day about the New York Society for the Enforcement of the Criminal Law, which, according to report, has had men collecting evidence against gambling-houses, but had made no use of the alleged evidence, that he had heard of the society through Mr. Gates, a member. He said that complaints have been received from the society from time to time of alleged gambling-houses. In every instance, Chief Devery said, the complaints had been investigated as far as possible. Many of the houses, he said, were under surveillance, before Mr. Gates brought complaints. As to its list of places alleged to be gambling-houses, Chief Devery said he had ordered inspectors and commanding officers of station-houses to investigate them

OUR PROCLAMATION TO FILIPINOS.

Schurman Satisfied With the Way It Has Been Received by the Natives.

Manila, April 8.—Three hundred and seventy natives have returned to Marequina from their various refuges and declared their friendship for the Americans.

The United States Philippine Commissioners are holding daily meetings and are receiving all persons who call. Chairman Schurman says that the reception of the Commission's proclamation by the natives is highly satisfactory, and that many Filipinos, Spaniards and foreigners realize the fairness and straightforwardness of its statement.

Reconnoitring parties from Malolos are feeling of the enemy, but there is no fighting.

Situation at Manila.

Washington, April 8.—At the cabinet to-day a telegram from Manila was read to the effect that Aguinaldo was reorganizing his army north of his late capital. Confidence was expressed in the ability of Gen. Otis to successfully meet the situation.

Dewey Asks for Supplies.

Washington, April 8.—Admiral Dewey has cabled the Navy Department asking that six months' engineering supplies be sent to him at Manila. The Department probably will use the Buffalo, now on her way to New York, for the carriage of these stores.

The Admiral's request is taken as an indication that it will not be possible to materially diminish the American fleet in the Philippines in the near future.

Another Regiment for Manila.

Washington, April 8.—In accordance with orders from the War Department, the Twenty-first Regiment of Infantry will leave its present station at Plattsburgh, N. Y., early next week for San Francisco, where it will embark on the transport Hancock for transportation to Manila.

Figaro's Editor Prosecuted.

Paris, April 8.—The Government's prosecution of the Figaro for its publication of the testimony in the Dreyfus case taken before the Court at Cassation includes M. de Rodays, the editor of that paper.

The Rappel says that the second officer who sat on the Dreyfus court-martial has written to the Minister of War for permission to testify before the Court of Cassation as to the manner in which the prisoner's conviction was secured.

Secretary Alger's Trip.

Ponce, Porto Rico, April 8.—Secretary Alger, who arrived here on the transport Ingalls, has met with an enthusiastic reception. He visited the schools yesterday, discussed island affairs with merchants and agriculturists at the principal club during the afternoon and attended a banquet in the evening. The town is decorated in his honor, and last night it was illuminated.

The VAN'S They sell the same as they buy, cheap. A bargain got should be a bargain given. Every item stands on its own merits as an individual bargain. We might fill this paper with talk, but what we want you to do is to visit our store, especially our always daylit basement, where we have the most complete ten cent department in the city. Here you buy the biggest on earth for the money.

10 CENTS

VanEmburgh & Son.

SHOES FOR EVERYBODY.

For Spring we have picked from the best makers as just right at our just right prices just such shoes as will suit the big majority.

We call your attention this week to the VanArsdale $3 00 shoe—for men and women—These shoes are doing us lots of good, but we have better ones, and we have them for less money, and every grade is as good as shoemaking can make them.

VAN ARSDALE,
Repairing Properly Done. 127 East Front St.

J. F. MacDonald. UPTOWN GROCER. 186 E. Front Street.

20 Fresh Eggs, direct from farmers	25c
Best Jersey E R. Potatoes	43c basket
Best Oil, 5 gal.	45c
Minnesota Flour	55c bag, $4.35 bbl
4 lbs. Carolina Rice	25c
Best Oatmeal	3c lb
Best Pure Lard, no compound	7c lb
Large California Prunes	4 lbs for 25c
O. K. B. Powder	18c
Gold Medal Milk	8c
Kirkman's Borax Soap (6 C. box)	23c
Fine Tomatoes	7c can
Fine Corn	6c can
N. O. Molasses	33c gal
2 bottles Best Maple Syrup	25c
Canned Salmon	8 can
Pea Beans	5c quart
Lin a Beans	8c quart
Lemon and Ginger Snaps	5c lb

We won't say anything about our 20c Coffee. Everybody uses it.

SPECIAL SALE

Over 13 hundred pairs of shoes. Nothing to say about the price, only that the lowness of it will surprise everybody.

SHERWIN'S, 149 West Front St.

R. FRUCHT NO. 218 to 224 PARK AVENUE.
Wholesale and Retail Dealer in
BICYCLES,
Saddles, Handlebars, Oils, Carbon for Bicycle Gas Lamps, Pedals, Cement, Rims, Hubs, Spokes.
and all other articles pertaining to Bicycles. Also dealer in Edison Graphophone and photograph materials, and also sole agent for Plainfield of the Tribune Bicycle, the best in the world. I have taken permanent possession of the premises I recently purchased, 218, 222 and 224 Park avenue, nearly opposite North avenue, and there opened a bicycle store and repair shop, and will sell bicycles and bicycle goods at great bargains. Every man and woman who deals with me will save money. I buy for spot cash and sell for same, thus saving a percentage which I share with my customers. I guarantee to sell goods of this kind as low as can be purchased in New York City or elsewhere. My policy is to give my customers the full benefit of the lowest cash prices for best goods. Call at my store and procure my prices and be covinced. t-s

Up-to-Date Clothing.

We have been so busy for the past ten days that we have neglected to make our announcement in the Press of our New Spring Styles of Clothing pertaining to men and boys. We have them on our tables. The Goods are O. K. and the prices the same.

If you are in need just drop in and see us and you will find one of the nicest lines ever shown in Plainfield.

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.
206 West Front Street.
Hats and Gents' Furnishings.

STANDARD FOR THE WORLD.
Stop and See the
1899 Chainless
and others.
We have a few bargains in
SECOND HAND WHEELS
COLUMBIA BICYCLE AGENCY.
405 PARK AVENUE. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED IN
REPAIR WORK by C. L. Thorn, of the Columbia Agency.

Direct from the Manufacturer to the Consumer.

ONE BIG WEEK.

Last Week Was One Continuous Rush from Monday Morning Until Saturday Night.

The old adage "Prices Tell," has been well illustrated with us by the patronage we have received since we opened the retail store.

The comment of all our customers are summed up in one sentence, viz; The cheapest line of stylish well-made clothing we ever saw. Here is a list of some of our most ready sellers.

Lot 4734, 5086, 5081, 5094 — 3.50 These are men's sack suits in fancy mixtures and we recommend them to anybody who wants solid wear for little money. $5.00 is cheap for them.

Lot 4567, 4561, 5067, 5059 — 3.75 These have been general favorites and are going fast. We were compelled to fill in on some of them. They are all right.

Lot 4600, 4605, 4589, 4592 — 4.75 Strictly all wool. We invite you to compare this line with the average $8.00 suit.

Lot 5232, 4630, 5011, 5027 — 5.00 Cheviots and fancy worsteds fit for anybody to wear any place. We have 19 styles at $5.00.

Ask to see Lot 5319, 5322, and 5380, 5383. These are $10.00 and they are beauties.

Lot 4896—Blue Serge, wire woven, $6.75, worth $10.00.
Lot 5406—Blue Serge, wide wale, very popular, $7.00. Compare them with the ordinary $12.00 suit.

Come and see our silk-lined overcoat, silk-lined to the edge. Those Fancy Vests the $4.00 kind, we have them for $2.00. You will be surprised to know that we sell a child's suit with extra pants for 98 cents.

SCHEPFLIN & SCHULTZ,

M. J. CASHIN, Manager Retail Store.

322 West Front Street. Schepflin Block

"The Standard of Highest Merit."

FISCHER PIANOS

Artistically and Musically Perfect.

Nearly sixty years of honest and intelligent effort along the most progressive lines of piano construction, have made for these instruments a reputation permanent and unsurpassed. "The Standard of Highest Merit" as applied to the Fischer Piano means the perfection of Tone, Action, Artistic Workmanship and Durability, making it pre-eminently the model home piano of America. World-renowned for Purity and Power of Tone, Durability and Tone-Sustaining Quality. All the latest and most artistic designs in cases, in beautifully figured and rare woods, to conform to any surroundings.

OVER 107,000 SOLD.

We have also a large stock of almost new and good second-hand pianos of our own and other celebrated makes, which we have taken in exchange on purchase of new Fischer Pianos. Every one of these instruments has been thoroughly overhauled and put in good order at our factory, and will be sold at very low prices.

Sold at Moderate Prices—Cash or Easy Payments.

33 UNION SQUARE—WEST, NEW YORK.

Between 16th and 17th Streets.

Catalogue, Terms, etc., mailed free on application.

GOOD SHOE TRADE!

We are doing a good shoe trade on our "Specialty" shoes for Men and Women, such as are advertised in the leading magazines. The best made for the least money.

For Women, "S & S," $5 and $4. "Sorosis" $3.50, "Superior" $3, "H & S" $3, and down to $2.50 $2, $1.50, $1.25, 98c.

For Men, "J. & M." Best made at any price, $5.00, "Elite" $3.50, and on down to $3, $2.50, $2, $1.50, $1.25 All guaranteed best wearing shoes sold for the price, and latest styles. No need at all to go to New York. Peddie's Trunks, Dress Suit Cases and Bags.

SEE ELEGANT DISPLAY IN OUR SHOW WINDOWS.

DOANE & EDSALL.

YOU Should See

The Great Showing OF SHIRT .... WAISTS AT LEDERER'S.

THE FIGHT IN SAMOA.

Caused by the German Consul's Manifesto to Natives.

Apia, March 24, via. SanFrancisco, April 8.—There have been lively times in Samoa during the past few days. The United States and British warships have shelled Mataafa's forces repeatedly, and sailors have been landed in Apia to protect property. Numerous casualties have resulted on both sides.

Admiral Kautz and the commanders of the British ships are anxiously awaiting advices from their governments, and in the meantime the shelling proceeds daily. When Admiral Kautz arrived on the Philadelphia he spent two days in making inquiries, and then called a meeting of all the consuls and the senior officers of all the warships in the harbor.

As a result of the meeting a proclamation was issued by the American Admiral declaring that the so-called Provisional Government, under Mataafa, can have no legal status under the Berlin Treaty and therefore cannot be recognized by the consular and naval representatives and ordering Mataafa and his supporters quietly to go to their homes and respect the laws of the Berlin Treaty. It was further ordered that the people ejected from their homes be returned and the power of the naval force, it was stated, would be used against all who disregarded the right of peaceably disposed people. The authority of the chief justice was upheld by the proclamation and the Admiral closed by saying that he trusted that there would be no occasion to use military powers.

The proclamation was signed by Admiral Kautz.

This proclamation was taken to Mataafa and read to him by Flag Lieut. Miller. It was received in silence and no answer was made. Mataafa and his chiefs quietly left and went to the western portion of the municipality and it seemed as if they were about to obey the commands to return to their homes.

The German Consul, however, issued a counter proclamation in the Samoan language, which was distributed among the Mataafans. The proclamation reads as follows:

"Notice to All Samoans—By the proclamation of the Admiral of the United States, dated March 11, it was made known that the three Consuls of the signatory powers of the Berlin treaty, as well as the three commanders of men-of-war, had been unanimous to no more recognize the provisional government, composed of Mataafa and the thirteen chiefs.

"I therefore make known to you that this proclamation is quite false. I, the German Consul-General, continue to recognize the provisional government of Samoa until I have received contrary instructions from my government.

ROSE,
"German Consul-General.

"Apia, March 13, 1899."

The immediate result of this act was that the rebels turned back and prepared for war, declaring that they would not obey the Admiral's order.

They said they would prevent any food supplies being brought into Samoa for the Malietoa natives. The next day Apia was surrounded by Mataafa's warriors. Forces from the Philadelphia and Porpoise under Lieuts. Brown and Cave were landed to protect the loyal natives.

On Tuesday, Mataafa having failed to appear, Flag Lieut. Miller was sent to deliver an ultimatum. He was not allowed to see the chief, but delivered his message and retired. Everything looked ugly, and British and American bluejackets were landed in Apia to protect the consulates. Quick-firing machines and small field pieces were also landed.

Hostilities commenced on Tuesday afternoon when half a dozen Malietoa men were taken by the Mataafans. They were taken to headquarters and bound. On Wednesday morning notice was spread that if no answer was received from Mataafa by 1 o'clock the Philadelphia would fire one of her large guns, followed by three one-minute guns. Mataafa sent no answer.

He and his chiefs were buoyed up by the German Consul's proclamation and vague talk that Germany would support them and was the greatest nation on earth, invincible in war, and that Great Britain and America would never dare to engage Germany in conflict.

NEW JERSEY TROOPS GET HOME.

The Scenes That Marked Their Return Trip Through the South.

Jersey City, April 8.—The Fourth New Jersey Regiment arrived here in the early hours of the morning and today are being given a rousing reception by the citizens. The soldiers deny the story from Greenville, S. C., to the effect that many of them were drunk. They did have considerable fun coming home, but paid for everything they got.

Report from the South.

Greenville, S. C., April 8.—The Fourth New Jersey, which was mustered out here, terrorized the communities through which they passed, firing volleys from the cars with their revolvers, and made a bad name for themselves at various points by stealing all they could lay their hands to. They started out from Greenville by firing volleys from the train, and repeated this at almost every station they passed. A vender of army-badges and camp-souvenirs had ten watches and sixty badges stolen from him on the way to Laurens.

At Chester the Jersey soldiers stood off the crowd of spectators with a volley of revolver-shots, and then raided the waiting and lunch-rooms, carrying off all they could find, including the horn of a phonograph at the station. They are reported to have also stolen a bicycle at Chester. Many of the men were drunk when they left here, and the reports indicate that they became more intoxicated as they proceeded. The officers of the regiment were with the men.

Piano Men to Meet.

Washington, April 8.—The annual meeting of the National Piano Manufacturers' Association, of America, will be held at the Arlington, in Washington, on next Wednesday. Business of general importance to the piano interests of the country will be transacted.

Following the business meeting a banquet wil be served and Secretary Long, Hon. Stewart L. Woodford and Hon. Carroll D. Wright and other prominent persons will be present and deliver addresses.

SLAIN BY AN ANGRY MOB

Connecticut Citizens Kill an Insane Italian at East Haddam.

BULLETS RIDDLED HIS BODY

The Victim Had Shot at a Constable and in Consequence Was Being Pursued by an Armed Crowd When He Turned and Shot One of His Pursuers in the Head.

Middletown, Conn., April 8.—In East Haddam yesterday an Italian barber ran amuck with a shot gun, and after seriously wounding John B. Gelston, a farmer, was captured and shot to death by an angry posse of citizens. The man evidently was insane. John M. Gelston went to his barn to feed his livestock and was met by the Italian who flourished a gun and refused to let him enter. After some talk he left, went to a neighbor's house and asked for food. Constable A. S. Bugbee found the crazy man at the residence of Dr. M. W. Plumstead. The Italian attempted to shoot the officer, but missed fire and then tried to escape.

A dozen or more armed farmers, headed by Constable Bugbee, started in pursuit. John B. Gelston, aged 60 years, father of John M. Gelston, suddenly came upon the Italian and was shot in the head. The posse of citizens fired a volley into the maniac's body, killing him instantly. In his pockets were a quantity of powder and shot, three razors and an ugly looking knife.

MR. HOBART BETTER.

Talk About His Withdrawing from the Presidential Contest is Idle Gossip.

Washington, April 8.—Vice-President Hobart had a comfortable night and is considered somewhat better. It is acknowledged that he has been a very sick man, and that his trip South was more detrimental than beneficial. He had not fully recovered from a severe attack of grip from which he suffered during February, and going to the warm climate he did not recover his strength. It is hoped that he will be well enough in a day or two to go North or to some seaside resort, where he can build up his strength. His physician does not fear any serious result, but prescribes absolute rest.

The talk that Mr. Hobart is so ill that he contemplates withdrawing from the coming Presidential campaign is idle gossip. Mr. Hobart's sickness has prevented him from thinking of politics or troubling himself about events a year distant.

The attention of a close friend of Vice-President Hobart was called to a dispatch which said that Mr. Hobart's illness was due to the fact that the climate of the National capital was uncongenial to him, and that, recognizing this, he had not taken an active interest in the alleged Thomasville conferences looking to the next Presidential campaign.

"All I can say," said this gentleman, "is that Mr. Hobart has not concerned himself and would not, under any circumstances, about the next Presidential ticket. That is the business of a National convention. It is not true, however, that the climate of Washington has injuriously affected his health, or that it does not agree with him. He is simply overworked and a little run down, that is all."

Sampson Not to Go to England.

Washington, April 8.—It is denied at the Navy Department that there is any intention of sending Admiral Sampson and the North Atlantic fleet to Southampton to represent the American navy at the reception to be given the Duke of York in May. The report started from the fact that the Mayor of Southampton had formally invited the American navy to be represented, and that the Secretary of the Navy acknowledged the receipt of the invitation.

Some one in the department suggested that Admiral Sampson be sent with the North Atlantic Squadron on the trip, and the friends of the Admiral immediately spread the report that the matter had been settled. To-day Secretary Long said that nothing whatever had been done in the matter.

DOLLAR DINNER SPEAKERS.

Mr. Brewster Gives Out the List of Orators for April 15.

New York, April 8.—Eugene V. Brewster has announced the list of speakers for the silver dollar dinner, to be held at the Grand Central Palace on April 15.—It includes, in addition to Col. William Jennings Bryan, Supreme Court Justice William J. Gaynor, of Brooklyn; Jerome O'Neill, the labor advocate; George Fred Williams, of Massachusetts; Charles A. Towne and John S. Crosby.

The specially invited guests are Senators Jones of Arkansas, Teller of Colorado, Daniel of Virginia, Allen of Nebraska, Stewart and Jones of Nevada, and Tillman of South Carolina; ex-Gov. Stone, of Missouri; Congressman Bland, Henry George, Rev. Dr. Edward McGlynn, Ernest Crosby, "Coin" Harvey, William H. Russell, William Sulzer, Elliot Danforth, Joseph N. Bailey, of Texas, and Thomas L. Johnson.

The dollars are flowing into Mr. Brewster's office for seats at the dinner. He was surprised this morning to receive a letter with a dollar bill inclosed from Perry Belmont for a ticket for Mayor Gustav A. Hoff, of Tucson, Arizona. Another letter stated that, as District Assembly No. 1563, Knights of Labor, Manhattan, would not be able to attend on the 15th in a body, because of the purely political aspect of the function, Col. A. C. Fisk would be assigned to represent the organization.

Vessel Struck by Lightning.

New York, April 8.—The three-masted schooner Carrie A. Buckman which arrived from Azua, Haiti, reports that on March 20, off Cape Lookout, she was struck by a furious hurricane, ranging from the southwest to northwest, and accompanied by severe thunder and lightning. During the tempest a huge sea swept the decks and burst the foresail, and lightning splintered the mizzentopmast. After the storm had passed the seaman who was on the lookout forward was found lying on the deck unconscious from the effects of the lightning shock. He recovered three days later.

DUN'S WEEKLY REPORT.

Failures for the First Quarter This Year Were 17.6 Per Cent Less Than in 1898.

New York, April 8.—Failures in the first quarter of 1899 were in number 2,772 against 3,687 last year, and the liabilities $25,152,032 against $32,946,565, a decrease of 17.6 per cent. Geographical aspects make the return peculiar; with a slight increase of defaults in New England, an increase of 13 per cent. in the Southeast and 20 per cent. in the Pacific and Southwestern States, 41 per cent. in Western States, and 48 per cent. in Middle States. No other year of the twenty-four covered by Dun's quarterly reports has shown as small failures during its first quarter excepting 1880 and 1881, and no other except 1880 and 1886 as small liabilities per failure. The average of defaulted liabilities per firm in business, only $22.19, is smaller than in the first quarter of any year except 1880, and the ratio of defaulted liabilities to solvent payments through clearing houses, only $1.12 per $1,000, is also the lowest for the quarter except in 1880. The volume and prosperity of business render small failures natural.

The stock market this week has seen much reaction in prices of such stocks, due mainly to a growing indisposition to accept them as collateral in loans at the usual rates for money. While nothing definite is known of the trusts, the railroads are reporting most satisfactory earnings, for March 6.5 per cent. larger than last year, and 12.9 per cent. larger than 1892. In spite of storms the quarter also shows a gain of 3.6 per cent. larger than last year, and 8.1 per cent. over 1892, all classes of roads showing good gains except the Trunk lines which were most affected by February storms. The eastbound tonnage fro mChicago in spite of decrease in grain exceeds that of March, 1892, by 13 per cent.

The famine in iron, caused by urgent demand, far exceeding present supply, not only continues but has caused haste to start 48 additional furnaces, with an output estimated at 39,972 tons weekly.

In another industry progress seems to have been caused by firmness of manufacturers who notified customers that options for boots and shoes not accepted before April would be withdrawn.

The woolen manufacture does not yet appear to have gained by recent consolidations or proposals, but goods of the finer grades are steady in price with moderate orders, while medium and low grade goods tend in buyers' favor. The demand for a few kinds has covered the season, but makers of the large majority are yet in need of orders. Sales of wool have but slightly increased, though more inquiry is reported, with a better demand for some grades of goods. The cotton mills have enjoyed a fine demand of late, and have held prices well, but strikes have now closed several large mills about Provindence and Norwich, growing out of the recent advance of wages which the hands claim does not effect the full restoration promised. Meanwhile, cotton has been weaker, with better receipts in March, and poorer foreign demand.

Wheat has been fluctuating without much visible reason, rumors being wildly contradictory as usual at this season, and commanding not much more confidence than usual. Failures for the week have been 141 in the United States against 232 last year, and 17 in Canada against 22 last year.

RUSSELL'S CHURCH METHODS.

Mr. Sage Would Depose His Pastor for Purely Financial Reasons.

New York, April 8.—Russell Sage was asked what he thought of the congregational meeting of the West Presbyterian Church, at which his wish to have the resignation of Rev. Dr. Anthony H. Evans as pastor accepted was disregarded by a vote of 132 to 25.

"But a very small percentage of those who voted with the majority," he declared, "are the substantial members of the church who are paying the pew rents. The vote does not indicate by any means the opinions of those on whom it devolves to meet the financial obligations of the church. As I have said before, the business interests of the church demand that something be done."

Mr. Sage was asked if he was personally opposed to Dr. Evans as pastor.

"Oh no, not at all," he said. "I 'm not opposed to Mr. Evans personally. I merely think the financial interests of the church demand his resignation. The church has to pay $22,000 a year taxes and those who hold the more expensive pews quite agree with me."

Mr. Sage declared that the report that he intended to foreclose a mortgage on certain church property was unqualifiedly false.

"What means do you contemplate to get Dr. Evans to leave the church?" he was asked.

"The trustees," he said, "have asked that the committee of the Presbytery who have the church's affairs under consideration, defer their report until May 1. By that time the deficit of the church will probably have reached $51,000, and we believe that this argument will be very effective."

The Cabinet and the Philippines.

Washington, April 8.—The cabinet was in session only an hour yesterday. The method of making the payment of $20,000,000 to Spain was talked over, and, although no conclusion was reached, it is expected that the transfer wil be made by a draft on the Treasury, to be delivered to any representatives whom the Spanish government may designate. The situation in the Philippines was also discussed, and a telegram was read to the effect that Aguinaldo was reorganizing his army north of his late capital. The confidence of the government, however, in the ability of Gen. Otis's forces to successfully meet the situation is not in the least disturbed.

Gerry Inquiry by Mr. Gerry.

New York, April 8.—Andrew H. Green, one of the committee of three appointed by Mr. Gerry to look into the affairs of the (Gerry) Childrens' Society, said this morning: "Our work is to include a thorough investigation of all the charges made against the society methods, and we propose to ascertain whether Mr. Garry or his accusers are in the wrong. Moreover, we shall get at the root of the trouble, and whomever we find in the wrong we shall not hesitate to designate them."

The other two members of the committee are Frederick D. Tappen and J. H. Hampden Robb.

O'Neill's.

HIGH-GRADE GROCERIES.

We sell only the best grade of groceries here. If you find your purchase to be other than is represented by us we will cheerfully refund you the purchase price.

We do not sell Wines, Liquors or Cigars neither wholesale nor retail.

Teas.

We import and blend our Teas The best results will be obtained by observing:
1st—Always use Good Teas.
2d—Use two hot, dry earthenware teapots.
3d—Use water which has just reached the boiling point.
4th—Infuse about four minutes.
5th—Pour off into the second hot, dry teapot.
6th—Avoid second brews with used tea leaves.

OUR PRICES:

Finest English Breakfast, Japan, Oolong or Mixed, ½ lb, 38c; 1 lb., 75c.; 5 lbs., $3.50.
Choice English Breakfast, Japan, Oolong or Mixed, ½ lb., 33c.; 1 lb., 65c.; 5 lbs., $3.00.
English Breakfast, Japan, Oolong or Mixed, ½ lb., 23c.; 1 lb., 45c.; 5 lbs $2.15.
English Breakfast, Japan, Oolong or Mixed, 1 lb., 35c.; 3 lbs, for $1.00.
SAMPLE TEAS, 30c. lb.

High-Grade Soups.

Manufactured for us by the highest-salaried "Chef" in the United States.
Oxtail, Bullion, Beef, Vegetable, Consomme, Tomato, Pea, Jullienne, Mutton Broth and Mock Turtle, full quart cans, 20c can; $2.25 doz
Chicken, Mulligatawny and Chicken Gumbo, 25c can; $2.50 doz.
Richardson & Robbin's Chicken, 20c can.
Tea—American, all kinds, at lowest prices.

Olive Oil.

Pure virgin, our own importation.
Quart bottles, 60c; doz $7.00
Pint bottles, 33c; doz $3.75
Half-pint bottles, 22c.; doz $2.50

Sardines.

Packed in pure olive oil. Our own importation.
Boneless, ¼s, 18c tin; $2.05 doz
Boneless, ½s, 25c tin; $2.90 doz
Extra fine, 10 to 12 fish, ½s, 15c tin; $1.70 doz.

Macaroni.

Our own importation. Made from Hard Russian Wheat. Mezzani, Spaghetti, Vermicelli or letters and figures, 1 lb cartons, 10c; 12 lbs for $1.10.

French Herrings.

Imported.
12c per glass jar; $1.35 per doz.
These cost the importers 28c per jar to land.

Peas.

Tender and Sweet.
Early June, sifted, 9c can; $1.05 doz
Early June, medium small, 13c can; $1.50 doz
Extra small Early June, 17c can; $1.95 doz.
Asparagus Points, 21c can; $2.40 doz

Home-Made Preserves.

In one-pound glass jars.
Strawberry, Raspberry, Quince, Peach, Apricot, Damson, Green Gage and Pine-apple, 15c jar; $1.75 doz.

Fine Sugar Cured Hams and Boneless Bacon, 9c. lb.

SUGAR AT REFINERS PRICES.

All paid purchases of Groceries delivered free to any railroad station within 100 miles of New York City.

BOEHM'S.

Brocaded Silk Capes
Trimmed with Jet and Lace, Ruche Collarette and Silk lined at $2.98.

Ladies' Tailor-made Suits.
Made of Venetian and all-wool Cloth Jacket, silk lined throughout, skirt percaline line worth $10.00, at $7.49.

Children's Reefers,
Braid trimmed, double collar, ruffle edge, worth $2.50 at $1.98.

Everything in Millinery represented in our assortment, every shape, style and color that is desirable is here at prices which cannot be approached or duplicated anywhere.

KID GLOVES. Just by chance we managed to get another lot of those 2-clasp Kid Gloves, in white with black stitching, all black and colors, sizes 6 to 7 1-2, as good as any dollar glove, at 59c a pair.

MEN'S COLORED CAMBRIC SHIRTS, soft bosom, 2 collars and a separate pair of cuffs worth 65c, at 49c.

One lot of FANCY PLAID RIBBONS, all silk, worth 38c, special at 25c yard.

50 dozen of Ladies' Fast Black Seamless Hose, worth 15c, special at 10c pair.

BOEHM'S.

When March winds blow,
And our face and hands chap so

USE CHAP CURE.

Manufactured only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG, "The Apothecary"

COR. NORTH AND PARK AVES.

THIS IS THE POINT.

There are a great many stores that are anxious to get your trade, and that will make almost any kind of a promise to get it.

But there is always one thoroughly dependable store—a store that is sure to give you the best and most reliable meats that money can buy. Proper selection and correct butchering explains the satisfaction they give.

FRED ENDRESS,
131-135 West Front Street Only.

L. L. Manning & Son.

STEAM GRANITE WORKS.

Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

A GREAT OFFER

To the Public of Plainfield and vicinity by

CHARLES EISENBERG,

the well-known Painter, Paper Hanger and Decorater, who has opened a branch store

310 West Front Street,

(Stillman Building.)

I will paper any fair sized room, ceiling and walls, with the latest designs of gilt papers, including sizing and repairing, from 50c up.

I also carry the finest and largest assortment of imported and domestic wall papers and decorations. I do first-class work in tinting, kalsomining and inside and outside painting at reasonable prices. Call at the store or send a postal card, and I will call on you with sample books, and cheerfully give estimates. I guarantee first-class workmanship.

Yours truly,
Chas. Eisenberg.

Stores—310 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J.; 312 Main street, Orange, N. J.; 67 Springfield avenue, Newark, N. J.; Warehouse 10, 12, 14 and 16 Mercer street, Newark, N. J. Phone, 1073 Plainfield. Open evenings until 9. Sample books to the trade.

Putnam & De Graw.

SPECIALS FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

Ladies' 25c fast black Hose, for 19c
Children's fast black Hose, 10c—3 for 25c.
Children's fast black Hose, 15c—2 for 25c.
Gent's colored Shirts, detached cuffs regular $1.00 quality for 75c.
Gents' white Laundered Shirts, regular 75c quality for 62c.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:30 p. m.

136 North avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week

$5 a year—in advance

No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada

Delivered by carrier or by mail.

The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N.J., APRIL 8 1899.

FEATURES OF TODAY'S PRESS.

PAGE 1.—Important local news.
PAGE 2.—Telegraphic news.
PAGE 3.—Telegraphic news.
PAGE 4.—Editorial and gossip.
PAGE 5.—Vicinity news.
PAGE 6.—Religious news.
PAGE 6.—German news.
PAGE 7.—Miscellaneous.
PAGE 8.—Sporting and local news.

FACTS ABOUT PLAINFIELD.

(The accompanying facts about Plainfield are for the information of the non-resident public and do not recognize the dividing line line between the city of Plainfield and the borough of North Plainfield, except when such a distinction is necessary in describing a municipal institution)

CLUBS—Ten.
BANKS—Three.
HOTELS—Seven.
SEWERS—24 miles.
GAS—20 miles of mains.
CHURCHES—Thirty-five.
BONDED DEBT—$120,000.
PUBLIC SCHOOLS—Eleven.
SOCIETIES AND LODGES—Ninety.
POLICE—Nineteen paid members.
POSTOFFICE—Free delivery of mail.
BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS—Ten.
NEWSPAPERS—Five; two daily; three weekly.
TELEGRAPH—Postal Telegraph and Western Union.
TELEPHONE—Local and long distance; 500 local subscribers.
HOSPITAL—Muhlenberg; ward capacity, 20; emergency, 30.
STREETS—Seventy miles graded; thirty-seven macadamized.
WATER SUPPLY—Artesian wells; forty-five miles of mains.
TAXABLE VALUATION—City, $8,000,000; borough, $2,250,000.
COUNTY—Plainfield in Union; North Plainfield in Somerset.
POPULATION—City and borough, 20,000; immediate suburbs, 5,000.
FIRE DEPARTMENT—Eight companies; paid drivers; four departments.
ELECTRIC LIGHT—Incandescent and arc in every part of city and borough.
STREET RAILWAY—Nine miles of track; cars run every 12 minutes from 5:30 a. m. to 12 p. m.
RAILROAD—Central Railroad of New Jersey; 24 miles from New York; 65 miles from Philadelphia; 45 minutes from New York; four depots; commutation ticket to New York $80 a year.

There Must Be a Reason

For the large amount of the best class of advertising that is found in the columns of The Daily Press. And there is.

It Is Because

Buyers of advertising appreciate the fact that The Daily Press is bought by the purchasing public for the excellence of its news service, and the merchant who would reach those people with his trade bargains must do it in the paper that will put his announcement before the greatest number. That is why

The Daily Press Leads.

COMING EVENTS.

April 8—Concert by the Cecelia Bradford Trio at Y. M. C. A. Hall.
April 9—Evangelist Tom Graham and Cecelia Bradford Trio, of New York, at the men's rally at Y. M. C. A., 4:15 p. m.
April 10—Union Bible class taught by Rev. D. M. Stearns.
April 10—Literary Society of the Y. M. C. A.
April 17—Star Course entertainment in Y. M. C. A. Hall
April 20—Gymnastic exhibition at Y. M. C. A.

Railroad Competition.

The exclusive announcement made in The Daily Press yesterday afternoon that the Central Railroad of New Jersey contemplated instituting a half-hour service between Elizabeth and Somerville, to compete with trolley lines in existence and prospect, was important news to the thousands of persons living along the Central who have occasion to take short trips away from their immediate neighborhood.

Rumors of various sorts have been current for the last two years that the Central intended meeting the competition of the trolley roads. Though no definite steps in that direction have yet been taken there is no doubt but that eventually the Central will make a strong effort to retain their present local traffic, which is gradually drifting away from them because of the difference in the rates of fares between their service and that of the trolley and the more convenient schedule of time made by the cars propelled by electricity.

Of course, there is a vast amount of traffic that cannot be diverted from the trolley by any manner of means, but, notwithstanding, there are many that would prefer the steam cars to the trolley if the passenger rates and the conveniences were about equal. That is the class of people who have occasion to make trips between the various towns along the Central, and to whom the Central's service, as outlined in yesterday's Press, would hold out inducements to patronize if the cost was the same as the trolley.

The inroads that the present incomplete trolley facilities in this section have made on the business done by the Central is already noticeable, and how it may increase when all the proposed electric railways are put into operation, as there is every likelihood that they will be, is only a matter of conjecture. It is plain that the Central cannot afford to stand idly by and let this valuable business leave them without some effort to retain it.

It is agreeable to realize, however, that competition of this kind will be a benefit and an advantage to the people.

Major C. W. Watkins and Horatio C. Rubens, who are members of a commission appointed to investigate the civil affairs of Porto Rico, have just returned to this country. They express the same sentiment about Porto Ricans that Commissioner Carroll, of Plainfield, does. They were cordially welcomed everywhere they went and collected a vast amount of material which will be of value to the President and his advisors in establishing a government in the island. Like Dr. Carroll they believe that the Porto Ricans are capable of self-government at the proper time.

Mayor Smalley and part of the members of the Borough Council had a good natured disagreement last night over certain municipal matters of the local Canada. The striking thing about it is that both the Mayor and the Councilmen concerned are Republicans and the matter at issue was the apportionment of honors to the lone Democrat in the Council. Such incidents display healthy nonpartisanship.

Of course, there will be those who will see some sort of relation between the act of destroying the old gallows in the Middlesex county jail the other day and the murder committed near Oak Tree Thursday afternoon. But as the murderer of the innocent young woman is undoubtedly insane it is scarcely to be expected that the gallows would be called into requisition in his case.

The "Facts About Plainfield," which are published at the head of the editorial column of The Daily Press, will form a permanent feature of these columns. The information conveyed in this arrangement of local data will serve as a ready reference boomer for those who want to show non-residents the advantages that Plainfield possesses.

Freedom's proud banner floats once more from the house tops of Plainfield, N. J., inasmuch as the authorities have decided that card playing in private houses of that city is a permissible sin.—Brooklyn Eagle.

City Judge Runyon's decision in reference to poker playing seems to have outdistanced all efforts of the Board of Trade in advertising Plainfield to the world.

A Pennsylvania Legislator claims to have been offered $5 000 to vote for the re-election of Quay to the highest legislative body in the county. Such attempted transactions as this are the strongest kind of argument for popular election of United States Senators.

A Brooklyn man was chastised the other evening in public by a woman who wielded an umbrella with more force than grace. Perhaps the irate damsel had not yet heard of the versatile uses of a hat pin under proper provocation.

William S. Potter, of Somerville, has compiled a list of the laws passed by the recent Legislature in compact and convenient form, which he is distributing to his friends. It is a handy little reference sheet.

Josephus Shann, who is a candidate for Mayor in Rahway on the Democratic ticket, is seventy-seven years old. If Mr. Shann doesn't get old too fast he may yet aspire to be President.

It seems that the perquisites of a member of the Legislature of Pennsylvania are determined by the length of the deadlock.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

The opinion is gaining strength every day that trolley connection between Elizabeth and Plainfield will be made by a combination of the Riker and Kean plans. That is to say the south side route will be followed from Plainfield to Roselle and thence over the county road to Elizabeth.—Cranford Chronicle.

* * * * * *

While Elizabeth is making a stir for new pavements it isn't at all probable that she will repeat the error of thirty years ago, when suburban lanes were graded and paved with wood and the city treasury was filled with little slips of paper which read, "The city of Elizabeth promises to pay." Long vistas of grass grown pavements still exist as monuments to the folly of those other days—New York Press.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Miss Nettie Backer, of Raritan, has been visiting Plainfield relatives for a week.

Miss VanNest, of East Millstone, has returned after a short visit with Plainfield friends.

Wilbur Henderson has given up housekeeping and is now boarding at McVey's Hotel.

Joseph Owen, of this city, has moved to Harlingen, where he will spend the coming summer

Joseph Clark, of West Third street, has accepted a position in the Pond Machine Tool Works.

Mr. and Mrs Charles Vanderbeek, of the borough, have been visiting relatives at South Branch.

Mrs. D C Voorhees, of this city, has returned from a visit with the Misses Hamill, of Blawenburg.

Mr and Mrs. W B Wadsworth and daughter, of West Eighth street, leave Monday on a trip to Boston.

Tomorrow the Honeyman party of tourists will spend a quiet day at Naz reth, in the Holy Land

Mr. Gilmore, of Connecticut, has returned home after spending a short time with Plainfield friends.

Miss Martha Codington, of this city, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. John Codington, of North Branch.

Isaac Stryker, of this city, has moved to Centreville, Hunterdon county, where he has purchased a farm.

Miss Fisher, of New York, who has been visiting Miss Dora Waring, of Willow avenue, returned home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Smalley, of Watchung avenue, are receiving the congratulations of their many friends. It is a boy and the little fellow arrived yesterday afternoon.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

It is said that the former administration of the borough left for the present administration a legacy which is in itself humorous. Within the past few days a certain clothing merchant presented his bill to the borough and the several items showed charges of 75 cents for reseating the borough marshal's trousers. Inasmuch as the marshals, with one exception, do night duty, it is surmised that they have been doing something besides covering their territory, and it is especially strange that all of the trousers should need reseating. At this rate it would be cheaper for the borough to purchase the marshal's shoes as they evidently do not wear them out so fast. Of course, it is supposed that the marshals do their duty.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

Tonight the Smedley children will present for the last time here "Little Lord Fauntleroy." The reception held this afternoon on the Music Hall stage by those clever little fellows was a huge success, all the ladies and children present taking advantage of the opportunity of shaking hands with the juvenile actors. The story of "Little Lord Fauntleroy" has its strength in its pathos. There is very little sadness in it, the pathetic not being attained by playing upon the chords of emotion by pictures of affliction or sorrow; on the contrary, happiness and good cheer shine forth at every turn, giving comfort to those who live in the hour being with the characters and yet at the same time so touching their hearts that unconsciously the lump rises in their throat and the tear comes to the eye. It is the sweetness of character of the little boy-hero, his tenderness and love, that so rouses the sympathy and gives pathos to the story that begins, continues, and ends in almost constant sunshine.

The Appetite of a Goat

Is envied by all poor dyspeptics whose Stomach and Liver are out of order. All such should know that Dr. King's New Life Pills, the wonderful Stomach and Liver Remedy, gives a splendid appetite, sound digestion and a regular bodily habit that insures perfect health and great energy. Only 25 cents at any Drug Store.

DOES COFFEE AGREE WITH YOU?

If not, drink Grain-O—made from pure grains. A lady writes: "The first time I made Grain-O I did not like it but after using it for one week nothing would induce me to go back to coffee." It nourishes and feeds the system. The children can drink it freely with great benefit. It is the strengthening substance of pure grains. Get a package today from your grocer, follow the directions in making it and you will have a delicious and healthful table beverage for old and young. 15 and 25c.

ALL DAY LONG ON Saturday.

All day on Saturday double the usual number of Trading Stamps will be given with each cash purchase. A rare opportunity to fill your books quickly. Not only so, but you will get stamps with all of the following

Specials:

All our	$10.00 Tailor-made Suits	$8.48
"	2.98 Shirt Waists	2.35
"	1.25 Black Satine Underskirts	98c
"	76c 52-in all-wool Venitian Suitings	69c yd
"	25c Midnight Black Moire Percaline	19c yd
"	Amoskeag Apron Ginghams	4¾c yd
"	25c India Linen	16c yd
"	No. 2000 English Long Cloth	1.25 pc
"	20-in Cotton Birds Eye	40c pc
"	12½ Drapery Denims	9c yd
"	5-4 Table Oilcloth	11c yd
"	50c Corsets	39c ea
"	Ladies' 15c Fast Black Hose	10c pr
"	Child's " " " " (ribbed)	10c pr
"	Men's " " " Socks	10c pr
"	" 25c Band Bows	19c ea
"	" 10c Heavy Mixed Socks	3 pr for 25c
"	Brown's French Shoe Dressing	8c bot
"	Lyons' Tooth Powder	15c box
"	Royal Tooth Powder	5c box
"	Cuticura Soap	20c cake
"	Cosmo Buttermilk Soap	6c cake
"	Packer's Tar Soap	19c cake
"	Pears' Unscented Soap	11c cake

DOWN STAIRS.

$1.39 Wilton Nubia Rugs, fringed ends,	$1.25
$1.25 " " " bound ends,	98c

1 Solid Oak Side Board, French Plate Mirror. 6 Cane Seat Dining Chairs. 1 six-foot Solid Oak Extension Table

For 19.98. (Value 24.00.)

1 Solid Oak 3 piece Bedroom Suit. 1 Woven Wire Spring. 1 Soft Top Mattress. 1 Bolster. 2 Pillows

For 19.98. (Value 24.00.)

ABOVE SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY ONLY. ALL GOODS MENTIONED ARE FIRST-CLASS, NEW AND IN GOOD CONDITION. NO AUCTION GOODS. NO SHODDY HANDLED.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,
234-236-238 WEST FRONT ST.

PECK'S CORNER.

Nothing to wait for! Everything to come for!

AT PECK'S

LADIES' NECKWEAR.
No such an assortment can you find as here.

DRESS LININGS.
Everything you need.

FRENCH AND SCOTCH FLANNELS.
Fine goods and beautiful patterns.

SHIRT WAISTS.
have arrived; have just been made from the newest and latest styles and are NEW.

AT PECK'S.

GEO. W. COLE,
UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER,
200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

H. DeMOTT,
UNDERTAKER
AND EMBALMER.
Residence and office 89 Somerset St.
TELEPHONE 248 B.

DIED.

CAMPBELL—In North Plainfield, Friday, April 7, 1899, Ann, wife of the late Firman Campbell, in her 85th year.
Funeral services at her late residence, 66 Rockview avenue, Monday, April 10th, at 2 p m. Interment in Hillside

RANDOLPH—In this city, Saturday, April 8, 1899, Rachel F. Randolph, aged 94 years.
Funeral services at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Jane L. Dunham, 121 West Fifth street, Monday, April 10th, at 3 p. m. Interment at the convenience of the family.

WANTS AND OFFERS

NINE ROOM HOUSE to let all improvements, East Second street. Enquire Wm. Newcorn, 204 West Front street. 2 21 tf

BARN to let, Second street, near Watchung avenue. Apply at Daily Press office. 3 13 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish Intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

WANTED—Houses to rent from $15 up. Elston M. French & Co. 2 1 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

6 ROOM house, new, near Netherwood station; to let or for sale. Sherwin's shoe store. 3 22 tf

FARM of 108 acres, near Bernardsville, Somerset county, for sale or exchange for Plainfield property; two dwellings on property; plenty fruit; five barns; land well watered. E. D. Barrett, 148 East Fifth street 4 3 6

TO LET—Choice corner flats, steam heat; all improvements, in Clifton Building, Fourth street and Park avenue C B. Clifton, Seventh street and Spooner avenue. 4 5 5

TO RENT—The new dwelling house, 929 Madison avenue; has all the modern improvements throughout. Street macadamized to curb. Apply to John M. Whiton, 821 Central avenue. 3 17 tf

HANDSOMELY furnished rooms, with board; new apartment house. 122 Watchung avenue 4 5 4

TO LET—Half house, city water; 6 rooms; $10 per month. Inquire at 132 Duer street. 3 30 tf

TO LET—Four nice rooms. 611 Liberty street. 4 6 3

HOUSE and lot for sale, cheap, first-class stables. Hand & Allen, Scotch Plains, N. J. 4 7 3

MAHOGANY upright piano, will rent for $3 00 per month to good parties. Address M, care Press. 4 7 2

FOR SALE—Two seated surrey, good condition; price $50, closed carriage, (good hack) $30. Call Stable, B O. Bowers, 400 Franklin place. 4 7 3

FOR SALE—Milk, from 2 cans to 100 quarts per day; to suit buyer. Address G. H. Albertson, Kellogg farm, Mt. Pleasant. 4 6 4

HOUSE and barn to let, 682 West Third street, water and sewer connected; rent $13 00. Inquire 1220 West Front street. 4 6 tf

FOR SALE—At a great sacrifice. 100 shares of Class E Stock, of the Mercantile Co., Operative Bank, maturity value $100 each share, on which shares has been paid $225 00. Apply Pope & Runyon, Attorneys. 4 6 tf

WANTED—At once, a pony cart or light phaeton. Address B., care Press. 4 6 3

TO LET—Double House, all improvements, recently been placed in complete order. 407 LaGrande Ave. Enquire Agents or B. O Bowers. t-s tf

SEPARATE storage rooms, plastered walls, in Stillman Block. 3 1 w s tf

MAN AND WIFE want work of any description. 35 Cottage place.

FOR SALE—Lot 70 x 242, 738 West Front street. B. W. Hand, 152 North avenue.

BELMAR, N. J., one block from ocean, to let, new cottage furnished; just completed; eleven bed rooms; all improvements; high ground; good view; desirable location; reasonable rent. Wm. D. Thickstun, 197 North avenue.

WANTED—Woman experienced in washing and ironing, for day's work. Apply to Mrs. M. I Cooley, 2 Rockview Terrace, North Plainfield.

COW manure for sale. Michael Herlian, 535 East Third street 4 8 2

WANTED—Cook and waitress, references required. Call Monday, 930 Central avenue.

FOR SALE—Park Phaeton, in good condition. 912 West Seventh St.

GENTLEMAN can have furnished room, with first class board in small adult family, centrally located; price moderate. Address Home, care Press. 4 8 2

VALUABLE commission offered, free small samples; protected ground; several salesmen earn $25 00 weekly; season approaching; following orders credited. Rubber Co., 243 Pearl street, New York.

WANTED—A good strong boy, must come well recommended. Apply 146 Central avenue.

WANTED—To buy good horse, cheap, for lady to drive. Address Horse, box 87, Dunellen, N. J. 4 8 2

SARDOU'S GREAT PLAY
"DIPLOMACY,"
For Charity, Music Hall, Saturday evening, April 29th, at 8. Reserved Seats 50c, 75c, $1, $1.25., Armstrong's Drug Store. Every seat in hall gives good view of stage. Acoustic properties all light with full house which is now arranged. 4 1 td

GOSPEL MEETINGS
in HOPE CHAPEL,
Sunday At 10:30 A. M. and 7:45 P. M.
Conducted by
F. E. TAYLOR,
Student Evangelist of Colgate University.
Splendid Singing by a Chorus Choir.

CHAS. L. FORCE,
Architect and Superintendent.
208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given. 1 31 tf

MANICURING, 25 CENTS.
REMOVING CORNS, 25c.
SHAMPOOING, With Massage, 50c.
M. V. Stickle, 149 E. Fifth St.

SCIENTIFIC MASSAGE
Facial Massage and Steaming.
THERMO-ELECTRIC BATHS.
MRS. S HOLMES, 440 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J. 3 1 tf

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL!
MAZE EDWARDS, Lessee and Manager. Telephone 722.
Two Performances—Matinee and Night.
SATURDAY, APRIL 8, 1899.
A Magnificent Production of MRS. FRANCES HODGSON BURNETT'S charming Drama
"Little Lord Fauntleroy."
By the Famous
SMEDLEY CHILDREN
ELLIS, Aged 10. EDWIN, Aged 9.
And a Company of Carefully-Selected Players.
PRICES—At Night, 25, 35, 50 and 75c. Box Seats $1.
All Seats at the Matinee Reserved, 25 and 50c. Reserved seat tickets now on sale.

MISS M. E. RUCKMAN
has reopened her
— FASHIONABLE MILLINERY PARLOR —
at 611 S. 2d St. Hats trimmed for 25c.
Cor. Plainfield Ave. 4 6 eod 1m

ALEX. LUSARDI,
211 West Front Street,
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery. Nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores 9 3 1 year

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
ABSOLUTELY PURE
Makes the food more delicious and wholesome
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, April 8.—Louis and Joseph Thomas, who have been spending their Easter vacation with their mother, Mrs. Nancy Thomas, will return to their studies at Princeton early this week.

The telegraph office at the station has been fitted out with new instruments and a new switch board. Another wire has also been run into the office, making the telegraph facilities better.

Mrs. Clarence Oakley, of New Brunswick, who has been visiting her parents, Mayor and Mrs. R. J. Swackhamer, has returned home.

Isaac J. Stites and Isaac Giddes are in Newark today attending the laymen's convention at the Methodist conference.

The Misses Martine have returned from Flemington where they have been spending their Easter vacation.

The Young Ladies' Crokinole Club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. William E. Terry.

The trustees of the Methodist church will hold their regular monthly meeting Monday night.

F. H. Gise has begun work on the stone foundation for Rev. A. I. Martine's new house.

Alvah Gray, who has been confined to his home by illness, is able to be in his office again.

Mayor Silas D. Drake, of Lincoln, is doing a little real estate booming here.

Mrs. Bussel is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. S. Jamison.

Albert Snowden and family have taken up their residence in Plainfield.

NEW MARKET.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press)

New Market, April 8.—James Bays, an aged farmer living just back of New Market, died suddenly of heart disease Thursday. He was going about his usual occupations when he suddenly fell, and before medical aid could be summoned expired. The funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, and interment will be in Greenville, where Mr. Bays came from originally. The deceased was 70 years old, and leaves two sons and one daughter.

The case of Clark T. Rogers against the New Brunswick Traction Co. for $2,000 damages, is set down for Monday morning.

Arthur Leonard returns to Princeton Monday after spending his Easter vacation with friends and relatives here.

The business meeting of the C. E. Society of the Baptist church will be held tonight in the lecture room.

Rev. L. E. Livermore, of Lebanon, Ct., has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. William Satterlee.

Miss Mamie Warren, of Brooklyn, is visiting her aunt, Miss Angie Warren.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, April 8.—Some miscreant set fire to the wood in Washington Valley, Wednesday, causing quite a loss to the farmers' fence. It was only by the timely arrival of help that the home of Ernest Clark was saved from destruction, and at one time it seemed to the workers as thought it would be impossible to save it. After a hard fight the fire was mastered, and now the question is, who started the blaze? If the party was known it would probably be made interesting for them.

A report was circulated about town Wednesday evening that Richard Duyckinck, an old and respected resi- of Washington Valley, had died at his home during the day. Mr. Duyckinck has been very ill, but we are happy to inform his many friends that he is recovering very nicely, and Thursday was able to set up in bed for a short time.

The Lords supper will be observed at the close of the morning service in the Baptist church Sunday morning. This is Mr. Shotts' first communion service with his new charge.

Rev. Mr. Woodruff of the Methodist church preaches Sunday morning from the text "The Minister and His Message" and in the evening upon "The Lunacy of Sin."

Charles Layton is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism again.

Miss Emma Adams is visiting her parents at Middletown, N. Y.

Miss Sadie Reger is visiting her sister in Westfield.

WESTFIELD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Westfield, April 8.—At the meeting of the Township Committee held last evening the matter of a division of the sewer assessment between the property owned by Stephen Affleck and the Mapes Estate came up and the Committee decided that they would take no action on it. The Township Attorney was instructed to notify the Board of Freeholders that the township would at an early date notify the Suburban Electric Company to discontinue furnishing lights on the county roads in the limits of the township.

The new Board of Health met and organized last evening by electing J. Austin Dennis, chairman; John M. C. Marsh, secretary, Dr. J. B. Harison, township physician, and Edward Edgar, inspector. The latter is to be supplied with a badge so that he will have no trouble in inspecting houses and grounds.

The seventh annual reception and dance of the I. O. S. took place at the Westfield Club Hall last evening, and although the rain came down in torrents, there was a large attendance. Dancing was indulged in until the wee small hours of the morning.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. All druggists sell it at 50 cents or it will be mailed by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, N. Y.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY.

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—Special sale of all kinds of seafood at Rogers'.

—The Bard Company has taken the agency for the "Manhattan," a new typewriter.

—Next week Thursday evening an entertainment will be given in the Borough Public High School to raise money to purchase new music.

—There will be a special evening service in the Congregational church tomorrow at 7:30 o'clock, at which the pastor will give an address on Browning's "Witness to the Future Life."

—Flynn Brothers, 222 West Front street, near Music Hall, keep their stock fresh and up-to-date, and have all styles and sizes of footwear, and by honest dealing are doing a good trade.

—At the meeting of the Primary Sunday school Teachers' Union Monday afternoon the lesson will be taught by Mrs. F. R. Baker, and Dr. A. E. Main will give a short talk on "Memories of Bethany."

—Ives & Son, the milkmen, have leased the Alexander Dunn farm near Dunellen, their former place at Oak Tree being too small to accommodate the number of cows required to supply the trade in Plainfield.

—Justice Nash, of Columbia Lodge, A. O. U. W., has just received a check for $2,000 from headquarters which is to be paid over to Mrs. Lewis H. McKensie, whose husband, a member of Columbia Lodge, died recently.

EMINENT MINISTER IN TOWN.

Rev. A. H. Buchtel, Who is to Occupy First M. E. Pulpit, is a Noted Pastor.

Rev. Henry A. Buchtel, D. D., who is to preach in the First M. E. church tomorrow morning and speak in the Sunday school in the afternoon has a great reputation as a preacher and pastor.

In early life he was a missionary in Bulgaria. For a number of years he has been pastor of large churches in this country. Few men are so well versed in church architecture.

He Fooled the Surgeons.

All doctors told Renick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the surest Pile cure on earth, and the best Salve in the World. 25 cents a box. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

The Lords supper will be observed at the close of the morning service in the Baptist church Sunday morning. This is Mr. Shotts' first communion service with his new charge.

Rev. Mr. Woodruff of the Methodist church preaches Sunday morning from the text "The Minister and His Message" and in the evening upon "The Lunacy of Sin."

Charles Layton is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism again.

Miss Emma Adams is visiting her parents at Middletown, N. Y.

Miss Sadie Reger is visiting her sister in Westfield.

PEOPLE COME AND GO.

PERSONAL MENTION OF INTEREST TO PRESS READERS.

Some Come to Enjoy Pleasures of Plainfield, Others Journey to Either Mountain or Shore for Recreation.

Miss Kittie MaCann, of West Third street, is visiting friends in Elizabeth.

Miss Eleanor Williams, of West Street, is visiting out-of-town friends.

Miss Davenport, of Somerville, has been visiting friends in Washihgton Park.

Mrs. Newell, of Roselle, is the guest of Miss Eda Beekman, of West Eighth street.

Mrs. John K. Large, of East Front street, is visiting relatives at Whitehouse.

Mrs. Sutton, of Liberty street, is a sufferer with a severe attack of erysipelas.

Miss Mamie McCann, of West Third street, has recovered from an attack of illness.

Miss Henrietta Bonnell, of Manning avenue, has been visiting relatives in New York.

Miss Susie Boss, of Central avenue, has returned from a visit in Hunterdon county.

Hrs. W. E. Honeyman, of Lincoln place, is very much improved from a severe illness.

Miss Edna Schooley, of Elizabeth, is visiting Mrs. Harry Marshall, of East Fifth street.

Mrs. Henry VanName, of Elmwood place, has returned from a visit with Westfield friends.

Mrs. Ransom and daughter have removed from East Fifth street to West Fifth street.

The Misses Dodge, of Bayonne, have returned after a short visit with Plainfield relatives.

Miss Kittie Ransom, of West Fifth street, has returned from a visit with out-of-town friends.

Senator Charles Reed, of Washington Park, has about recovered from a recent distressing illness.

Miss MacCracken, of University Heights, has been visiting her friend, Miss Shreve, of Grove street.

Miss Bessie Juvenile, of Woodbridge, is a guest of Miss Sadie Sweeney, of West Fourth street.

Rufus Larew has resigned his position as clerk in the law offices of Nelson and William N. Runyon.

D. K. Hoyt, of Somerville, has taken up his residence in this city and his furniture was moved this week.

George A. Horne, of Willow avenue, left yesterday to return to his studies at Lehigh University after the Easter vacation.

Justice Nash and Clarence Leland, of Columbia Lodge, A. O. U. W., visited Earnest Lodge, Elizabethport, Thursday night.

Miss Fannie Cox, of West Seventh street, is spending her vacation from boarding school at Dobb's Ferry, at her home in Plainfield.

George Wharton Epwards, of Franklin place, has been confined to his room all this week with iritis, but is now somewhat improved.

Howard T. Lewis, of Alfred University, is spending a few days as the guest of his aunt, Mrs. George H. Babcock, of West Eighth street.

Wm. Richards and family, of Somerville, have moved to this city, where Mr. Richards has secured a position as salesman at Werner's clothing store.

Miss Ethel A. Sherwood, of Wellesley College, returned to her home at White Plains, N. Y., yesterday, after visiting Miss Grace Day, of Central avenue.

For the present Detective Wm. A. Wilson, of the Central Railroad Company, is stationed at Communipaw. He is under the direction of Detective Blackford, also of this city.

Among the guests at the marriage of Miss Emily Vanderbilt Sloane to John H Hammond were Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Shepard, of the "Gables," Fanwood. The wedding occurred Wednesday noon at St. Bartholomew church, New York, and was one of the leading social events of the season.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be distroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.
Sold by Druggists, 75c.
Hall's Family Pills are the best.

AT RANDOLPH'S !

Roots and Herbs are numerous, yet we urge the combination of

Randolph's -:- Sarsaparilla

is one of the best to clean the blood. None better. Only 50 cents per bottle.

L. W. RANDOLPH,
Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.
PLAINFIELD, N. J. TELEPHONE CALL 109

PARTICULAR MENTION.

Rev. F. Appleton will preach at the morning and evening service at Grace church tomorrow.

Miss Edna Schooley, of Elizabeth, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Marshall, of East Fifth street.

Everett J. Peck, of Myrtle avenue, has returned to Lehigh Uuiversity after spending the holiday time at home.

Miss Atkinson has accepted the position as cashier at A. M. Griffin's hardware store, vacated by James Stafford.

Miss Foxcroft, of Cambridge, Mass., who has been a guest at the home of J. B. Peck, of Myrtle avenue, has returned home.

Howard H. Wilson leaves Tuesday for Geneva, O., to join the advance forces of the Walter L. Main Show This is his third season with this show.

The Misses Katherine and Louise Startup, of Middletown, N. Y., who have been visiting relatives and friends in Plainfield, left for their home this accompanied by their sister-in-law, Mrs. W. C. Startup, of Westervelt avenue.

THE COURTS

JUSTICE NASH

Summons issued—In the cases of VanBuren et al against Keeley, on contract, returnable April 11th; Withrow against Jacobson, demand for premises, returnable April 10th; Coyne against Doyle, demand for premises, returnable April 10th; Thickstun against Jones, demand for premises, returnable April 10th.

JUSTICE MOFFETT.

Judgment rendered—In the case of Simmons & Co. against Crane, for full amount of claim.

BURNS PROVED FATAL.

Louisa Gotlick Unable to Survive Severe Injuries Received.

Miss Louisa Gotlick, who was so badly burned near her home at Stony Hill, Thursday, died yesterday afternoon from the effects of her injuries. She was in great agony to the last. The funeral will be held the Stony Hill R. C. church Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Worth Remembering.

It is no more unwise and dangerous to take medicines promiscuously without the recommendation of a physician, than it is to use glasses that have not been scientifically adjusted to the requirements of the eye. If your eyes are weak you will be aiding nature to restore them to their wanted usefulness by a free consultation at Colliers.

Attended the Classis.

The following Plainfield women attended the Classis of the Reformed church held at East Orange Thursday: Mrs. O W. Dunham, Mrs. Robert Clark, Jr., Mrs. G. L. VanEmburgh, Mrs. Meader, Mrs. Kershaw and Mrs. Brandegee

—Superintendent of Highways Thomas Doud, of the borough, is removing about four inches of mud from the roadbed on Somerset street

—A. B. Thorn, assignee of R. C. Rand, has removed the stock to 37 Somerset street, and is selling stationery, books, paper, etc, at less than cost in order to close up the business.

—Doane & Edsall are doing a brisk trade on their "specialty" shoes for men and women such as are advertised in the leading magazines and are so popular, and guaranted to be the most stylish and best wearing shoes made for the money. See new advertisement today.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that, too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night, and with two bottles has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamnick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

A. WILLETT & SON,
107 PARK AVENUE.

MEN'S TAN SHOES
$3.00.

We pride ourselves on our $3.00 Tan Shoes this year.

Made in latest style and newest shades of Tan.

They are a fine wearing shoe upon which we can depend for future favors, and they will please the most fastidious.

Call and see them.
A pleasure to show.

STATIONERY
LESS THAN COST.

The entire stock of R. C. Rand has been removed from West Front St. to

37 SOMERSET STREET,

Thorn's Block, where it is being closed out at less than cost in order to settle with his creditors. There are many bargains left. Come and get them. A. B. THORN, Assignee 476

GRAND FAIR

under the Auspices of

Miantonomo Tribe, No. 118,
Improved Order of Red Men,
—AND—
Iona Council, No. 14, D. of P.
IN WASHINGTON HALL,
West Second St,
Tuesday, April 4, to Saturday, April 8,
inclusive.

Will continue Monday Night, April 10th.

DANCING EVERY EVENING

Unique novelties exhibited. Something new each night. 417

Mrs. Grover Cleveland, at Princeton, N. J., said:

"Mr. Naylor, the carpet cleaning you did for me is entirely satisfactory."

A. F. Naylor,
Bedding Factory & Store,
'Phone 931 23 Somerset-st.

A CONCERT

for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. will be given in Association Hall

Saturday Evening April 8th.

By the Cecelia Bradford Trio, of New York.
ADMISSION 25 cents. 436

SPRING CLEANING

will soon be here, and while cleaning up your homes do not forget to clean your system.

Hepburn's Blood Purifier

for the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys, will do this in a satisfactory manner. Money refunded if it don't do what is claimed for it. We have made and sold it the same way for the past 14 years.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY,
HEPBURN & CO.
Cor. Park Ave. and Second St. Telephone 671.

IF

your grocer says he does not keep our Flavoring Extracts, ask him to get them for you.

A. L. Kaerth & Co.
132 E. Second St.

Plainfield, N. J. Morristown, N. J. FOUR LARGE STORES. Wilmington, Del. Perth Amboy, N. J.

CROSBY & HILL

SUCCESSORS TO EDWARD WHITE.

This Store contains today more merchandise of the Newest, Brightest and Best kinds than has ever been seen collected together by any single house in this city and its value in dollars and cents is more than the value of all combined Dry Goods stocks in Plainfield, the advantages to the customers must be apparent to all, larger stocks of every kind to select from Goods all bought for cash and priced on an instant cash basis. Our Unmatched Shopping Conveniences, our perfect store service. The daily giving of the best values in merchandise, our liberal guarantee with every dollar's worth of merchandise we sell. Your Money Back if you are dissatisfied with your purchase, no matter if it is the smallest piece of the most expensive merchandise.

We commence today A Ten Days' Sale that will command widespread attention, it concerns some of the best values that have ever been given in this city; every department will offer merchandise of the newest and best sorts at prices lower than you are accustomed to pay for inferior kinds.

Some new Arrivals in Silks that we include in this sale.

50c Printed India Silks, 30 inches wide, about 1,000 yards, Navy blue and Black Grounds, printed in choice neat figures, worth 75c.

75c Striped all silk Taffeta, light and Medium Ground-work, al new designs and fully worth $1 00.

95c Corded Silk Taffetas, handsome new designs and very choice colorings and effects, the very newest patterns for shirt waists, actual value $1 25.

39c 2,000 yards of Plaid Satin all the newest Spring shades and designs, very suitable for Coat and Cape linings or shirt waists, worth 65c.

Wool Dress Goods.

69c All-wool French Broad cloths, very light in weight and fine in finish, 54 inches wide. The shades are Tans, Browns, Navy Blue, Green and Garnet, they are the $1.00 quality.

25c Satin Striped Wool Challies, light colored grounds, handsome floral designs, 30 inches wide, worth 39c.

79c All-wool French Whipcord Suitings, 42 inches wide, new Spring colorings, value $1 00.

89c All-wool Venetian suitings, 54 inches wide, all the new Spring colorings, value $1 00.

New Wash Goods.

Several cases of New Wash Goods have just arrived and are priced for quick sellers, they are the correct things for the coming season.

8c Scotch dimities, beautiful new striped effects, value 10c.

10c New corded ginghams, new patterns, value 12½c.

12 1-2c French Organdies, exclusive styles too, put up in neat boxes of one dress pattern each, with no two alike, they are the regular 25c quality.

12 1-2c Swiss Mulls, choice new patterns and new weave, worth 17c.

12½c Grenadine Dress Goods, 30 inches wide, the newest weave shown (plain colors only), but all the newest tints, value 25c.

Suit Department. 2d. floor.

Some notable values in women's suits, Jackets and Dress Skirts.

$6.98 Women's tailor made suits, worth $10 00.

$10.00 " " " " " $15.00.

$11.98 " " " " " $17.50.

$3.50 Women's Covert Cloth Jackets, worth $4.50.

$5.00 Women's Venetian Cloth Jackets, satin lined, worth $6.50.

$2.98 Women's Mohair Skirts, newest cut, worth $4.00.

$4.98 Women's Venetian Cloth Dress Skirts, worth $6.50.

$5.00 Silk Shirt Waists, newest shape and newest patterns of material, remarkable value.

33c Percale shirt waists, worth 50c.

$1.00 Madras and percale shirt waists, about twenty different sorts.

$1.00 and $1.39; white pique shirt waists, embroidery and braid trimmed.

Ribbons.

10c the very best ribbon value, Plainfield people have ever seen 2,000 yards fancy French ribbons, 3 to 7 inches wide, value from 15c to 40c.

Men's Furnishing Department.

We offer some Trade Makers in this department that are sure to be appreciated.

12½c Men's Fast Black half-hose worth 18c.

49c Men's Laundried Cambric Shirts with one pair separate cuffs, worth 75c.

39c Men's Outing Shirts, worth 50c.

17c Men's Silk Scarfs, tecks and four-in-hands, the regular 25c kind.

39c Men's Scarfs, tecks, puffs and four-in-hands, very choice patterns, light and dark colors and made in the newest shapes, regular 50c quality.

Special Price Small Wares and Toilet Articles.

A La Rose Soap, 3 cakes for 5c.
Buttermilk Soap, 3 cakes for 15c.
Packers' Tar Soap, 17c cake
Junipers Tar Soap, 10c. 3 cakes for 25c.
Dr. Lyon's Tooth Powder, 13c.
S. H. & M. Bias brush binding, 10c.
Fulled edge silk elastic, 17c. worth 25c.
Perforated Dress Shields, 15c, worth 20c.

Free.

One box of Royal Tooth Powder with every 50c purchase at Notion Counter.

Carpet Department.

Our Carpet Department is on the third floor and is a perfect daylight show room, easy of access by elevator, interesting prices prevail at present.

50c Best quality of 10 wire tapestry brussels carpets, usual 75c quality.

69c Best quality Saxony Axminster carpets, value 95c.

$2.98 20 yard rolls Linen Warp Matting, value $4.00.

Axminster Rugs.

18x39, 79c, value $1 00
30x64 $1 85, value $2 50.
36x72, $2.89, value $4.00.

19c Hand-made opaque window shades complete, rugular price 25c.

THE MARCH OF PROGRESS

in wall paper can best be witnessed in our magnificent stock, comprising all of the latest and artistic patterns, on paper of the very best texture.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.

Wall Papers. Paints, Oils, Glass, Etc.
201 Park Ave. Corner Second St.
Telephone Call 635. Estimates Furnished.

EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York

NEW YORK CITY AND COUNTRY WORK OUR SPECIALTY. | Satisfaction guaranteed. Stages to hire.

OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

Mrs. John Brown

Successor to

JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned

FROM $3.00 UPWARDS.

Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.

FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Everything for the Garden.

SWEET PEAS the choicest, fancy Lawn Grass Seeds and odorless lawn dressing.

'Phone No. 6.

A. M. Griffen, 119 East Front St.

Safe Deposit Vaults

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK.

Of Plainfield, New Jersey.

Capital.....$200,000.
Surplus and Profits.....$ 90,000

J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. DUNYON, Cashier
H. M. BOWIE, Vice " D. M. DUNYON, Ass't

DIRECTORS:

Charles Potter, Wm. McD. Cornell
E. M. French, H. Mulford Estill.
Wm. M. Stillman, Isaac W. Bushmore
J. W. Johnson, Wm. B. Coddington,
F. S. Dunyon.

SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.

Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per annum.

VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE

BANANAS 12c. and 15c. per doz.
ORANGES 15 and 18 for 25c.
Confectionery and fruit, lowest prices.

C. E. BICKNELL,
"On the Bridge." Somerset St.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,

Painters and Paper Hangers,

Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets

Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto--first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11 t

A. LUSARDI,
120 NORTH AVENUE.
Wholesale and Retail
Dealer in choice fruit of all kinds, of Confectionery, Peanuts' Cigars, etc. Soda Water of all flavors and always ice cold. Branch store corner Front and Somerset streets.

J. W. VANSICKLE.
122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly.
TELEPHONE 148 b.

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anæsthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. C. W. LEONARD.
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

Arrival and Departure of Mails

NEW YORK MAILS.

Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:20 a. m., 3:00, 5, 5:20 p. m
Close—7:00, 9:15 a. m., 12:30, 2:00, 3:00, 7:20 p.m

SOMERVILLE and EASTON.

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 2:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m., 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 and 11:20 a. m., 1:00 and 3:00 p. m
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a. m., 3:00 p. m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 3:00 and 7:20 p. m.

WARRENVILLE.

Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M

STAGE ROUTE.

Plainfield and Scotch Plains.

STAGE LEAVES PLAINFIELD
(E. FRONT ST., OPP. PARK AVE.)
9:30 a. m., 12:45, 4:00 and 6:00 P. M.

STAGE LEAVES SCOTCH PLAINS
(FRONT POST OFFICE)
10:30 a. m., 2:00, 5:00 and 7:00 p. m.

Upon notice a special stage will be held for parties of six or more attending the theatre or other attraction.

THOS. NEWMAN, Prop.

FRENCH

Plate glass mirror oak mantel, complete with summer front, for $13.00. You can't equal it elsewhere.

CURTIS M. THORPE,
310-312 Park Ave.

M. POWERS,
DEALER IN
LEHIGH COAL.
FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.
Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 57 A.
Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

Mallinson's
La Grippe Pills
—25c.—
A guaranteed cure for the grip. Belief after a few doses.
MALLINSON'S
North and Watchung avenues.

EASTER

Cards and Novelties.
Paas Egg Dyes at

HARPER'S,
411 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J

RUSHMORE & CO.
WATCHUNG AVE.
and FOURTH ST.
Dealers in
Lumber, Coal and Wood
Moulding & Planing Mill.
Turning and Scroll Sawing.

L. A. HUMMER,
Variety Market.
Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.
163 SOMERSET STREET.
Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

REMOVAL.
I have moved my stock of
BOOTS AND SHOES
TO 120 W. FRONT ST., with Crane, the hatter,
B. R. FORCE.

REVERE HOUSE
PARK AVENUE, 7th and 8th sts. | PLAINFIELD New Jersey.
Families accomodated for the Spring and Summer months at greatly reduced prices.
The house contains all modern improvements lighted by Gas and Electricity. Sanitary arrangements perfect. Cuisine unsurpassed
GEO. B. DE REVERE.

F. A. LONG,
No. 106 SOMERSET ST.
Near Manning Avenue.
Up-to-Date Cash Grocery Store.
Orders called for and delivered in any part City or Dunellen.

ARLINGTON HOTEL.
(Splendid Mountain View.)
SOMERSET ST. AND GREENBROOK ROAD.
Charles Jensen, Prop'r.
First class bar. Large parlor with piano for parties, receptions etc. Stable and shed accommodations.

BICYCLES BICYCLES
George Gould,
AGENT FOR
VICTOR, PATEE, WAVERLY, IVANHOE and NASSAU SPECIAL
Rents, Repairs, Sundries and Storage.
326 PARK AVENUE.
CLIFTON BUILDING.

MISS JENKINS,
PARLOR MILLINERY
303 East Sixth Street.

EUROPE, starting June 29, 69 days, 48 days or 41 days; English coaching, Holland, Germany, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, Paris. Experience, fourteen years. Particulars of HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS, Plainfield, N.J.

Leggett's
SYRUP WHITE PINE AND TAR
is growing more popular every day. Why? Because it is a simple, palatable, reliable
Cough Remedy.
Try it, is all we ask.
25c. a Bottle.
Leggett's Pharmacy,
Y. M. C. A. Building.

Monroe B. Long, M D., President. Eugene M. Laing, Vice-President.
Robert A. Meeker, Secretary. Robert J. Shaw, Treasurer.

THE UNION BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.
OFFICE, 203 PARK AVENUE.

Special Features

A uniform Loaning Rate of $8.67 Per month on each $1,000 borrowed. ANY additional amount may be paid in, no matter how small, with any monthly installment; thus maturing the stock that much sooner.
It accommodates itself to the financial condition of the borrower instead of compelling him to pay a certain fixed amount each month.

Liberal Withdrawals With Interest

THE MEMBERS MAY WITHDRAW AT ANY TIME AND RECEIVE THE WHOLE AMOUNT PAID IN AND AFTER ONE YEAR SIX PER CENT INTEREST ON THE SAME.
The whole or any part of the loan can be paid off at any time.

A New Series Issued Every Month.

To Investors

PAID-UP OR INCOME STOCK, COSTING $90 PER SHARE AND BEARING 5 PER CENT INTEREST AND HAVING A MATURITY VALUE OF $100 PER SHARE is issued from time to time, as the board of directors may determine, and is especially desirable for those wishing a secure and profitable investment.
For further particulars inquire at the office, 203 Park Ave., Room 8, or address the secretary.

R. A. MEEKER,
203 PARK AVE.

E. D. BARRETT,
Sanitary Plumbing.
Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Telephone 612. 148 East Fifth Street.
4 3 1m

ESTATE OF OLIVER B. TWEEDY, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, executors of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscribers under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the eighteenth day of March, 1899, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same from the subscribers.

DEXTER O. TIFFANY,
FLORENCE TWEEDY,
Executors.
3 25 9 s

H. E. Gayle. 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO

WHAT WOMEN WEAR.

Timely Chat About New Shirt Waists, New Hats and New Wraps.

Between shirt waists, hats and new wraps the heart of the fashion writer balances. When you see the millinery, you think nothing else worth bothering about. Then you see the shirt waists in more colors than one can imagine and after awhile the eyes, wearied with them, fall restfully upon the more sober tints in the outdoor garments.

Some of the golf and handsome promenade capes are made fairly stiff with stitching. The sprung flounce is completely covered by the rows of stitching, and sometimes there are six or seven rows above that on the edge of the cape proper.

THE NEWEST WRAPS FOR SPRING.

A very handsome and stylish cape of this kind had a pinked ruffle of silk all around the under part. The cape was of chocolate brown cloth, and this silk was of myrtle green. The silk ruffle was set up very high at the neck, making a beautiful leaflike surrounding for the flowerlike face. Some of the capes have very narrow soutache braid sewed on closely until the whole thing is stiff. Some of the golf capes are entirely of shawl plaid, and others have the upper part of cloth with a serpentine flounce of plaid below and a hood of plaid.

The pretty jackets are beyond description, because there are too many varieties, shapes and colors. But they are all very short, reaching but little below the waist, even the reefer shapes. There is a jauntiness about them that is fine to see. Nearly all those made of drab, biscuit and tan are strap seamed. Those made to match suits are stitched and pressed open and made perfectly smooth. Some where these are full suits are elaborately trimmed with braid or satin milliner's folds.

Stitching is always applied as an ornament to all tailored suits, but the really fine tailor suits are made absolutely without trimming of any sort, their chief beauty being the quality of the material and the perfection of finish.

The newest ribbons are calculated to render one culpable of the sin of envy, for no one can look at them without wanting the whole lot, each having a quality of its own to make it desirable. The wide sash ribbons are like soft pictures of delicately colored flowers on a pale tinted ground. The trimming ribbons have several very novel features. One of them is the furnishing of two kinds of ribbon for use at the same time. For instance, there is a four inch taffeta in pinhead checks of deep red and white, with a red cord edge. The other is the same width, of the same shade of red, but all in one solid color, with a white cord on each edge. These two ribbons are then used, one as backing for the other and arranged so that the two designs are in plain sight. The effect is really artistic. Naturally this idea is carried out in several different colors.

There are other ribbons with a moire ground, with satin stripes of white, on which are woven the daintiest flowers imaginable. Full blown roses as perfect as painting are no larger than a good sized pinhead. These are all in very light tints. There are many ribbons with many satin stripes over faille weave or moire. These two are all in delicate color. Straw and white are lovely.

There are dozens of novelties with fringed edges, and somewhere one side has fringe and the other a cord that can be drawn up, making of the ribbon a fringed ruffle. There is much maize color and canary yellow intermingled with white, and very delicate and dainty it is. A ribbon especially adapted for flat or ruffled trimmings has one half plain and the other edge bordered with natural colored flowers, the outline of the roses scalloped out. In fact, I saw no other flower but roses used on this ribbon, and they were a little conventional so as to afford a regular scallop. They were daintily shaded and had green leaves.

Persian and mosaic patterns in hundreds of tints and colors in taffeta are shown, and many different rich shades of dark blue in heavy satin ribbon. There are lighter shades also. Shades of green massed together are seen in abundance and also of brown. Then, too, there are ganze ribbons in Persian designs with feathered edges and metal threads.

Speaking of metallic luster reminds me of the fearful and wonderful petticoats of pink, blue and green and red cambric with gilt stripes printed on them. These are made up in the accepted umbrella shape run with pipings of coraline. What on earth they are intended for is beyond my comprehension. It does not seem possible that any lady having her sane senses would even look at one without a shudder, much less put one on.

The shirt waists are in for a greater degree of popularity than ever. The white ones are the daintiest. Tucks and fine lace ornament them. The silk ones are corded, tucked and ruffled and trimmed in every way one can imagine.

HENRIETTE ROUSSEAU.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Provinz Westfalen.

Dortmund. Die Einweihung des Dortmund-Ems-Kanals wird wohl im Laufe des Monats Juni vollzogen werden können. Dortmund rüstet bereits für die Feier. Dieser Tage sind in einer großen Versammlung die einzelnen Kommissionen gebildet worden.

Hevendehl. In der Wohnung der 70jährigen Wittwe Piepenstock entstand auf nicht aufgeklärte Weise Feuer. Als einige Mitbewohner des Hauses in das mit dichten Rauchwolken angefüllte Zimmer eindrangen, sahen sie die Frau Piepenstock, lichterloh brennend, unter dem Tisch liegen. Obgleich die Flammen schleunigst erstickt wurden, war es bereits zu spät. Die Aermste, deren Körper mit schweren Brandwunden bedeckt war, verschied auf dem Transport zum Krankenhause.

Sachsen.

Dresden. König Albert von Sachsen und die königliche Familie besuchten neulich das im November eröffnete prächtige Central-Theater. Es ist dies wohl das erste Mal, daß ein Monarch ein Variete-Theater besuchte. Der König und die Königin scheinen Gefallen daran gefunden zu haben, denn sie befahlen den im Dresdener Victoria-Salon auftretenden Verwandlungskünstler a la Fregoli zur Soiree in die königliche Villa in Strehlen.

Bautzen. Die hiesige Strafkammer verurtheilte den verheiratheten Kaufmann Guettler aus Reichenberg, welcher seine Geliebte, die Barbiersfrau Leupelt, in einem Zittauer Hotel erschossen, wegen Tödtung mit dem Einverständniß der Getödteten zu fünf Jahren Gefängniß.

Chemnitz. In dem hier gastirenden Cirkus Corty-Althoff hat bei einem gewagten Sprung aus großer Höhe in ein Wasser-Bassin der Tauchkünstler Baume das Genick gebrochen.

Leipzig. Fröhlich und guter Dinge feierten dieser Tage der junge Bäckermeister Seidel und seine Auserkorene das Hochzeitsfest. Anstatt aber eine Hochzeitsreise anzutreten, begab sich Seidel nach dem Abschluß des Hochzeitsfestes mit seinem Gesellen Boehle in die Backstube, um der gewohnten Berufsarbeit obzuliegen. Beide mochten vorher wohl etwas zu tief in's Glas geguckt haben, denn Beide schliefen beim Teigkneten ein und sind nicht wieder erwacht. Ausströmendes Backofengas hat ihrem Leben ein Ende gemacht.

Oelnitz. In dem Dorfe Arnoldsgrün wurden durch eine verheerende Feuersbrunst elf große Bauernhöfe in Asche gelegt.

Zwickau. In Elbmath wurde der Tiefenbrunner Gutsbesitzer Albert von einem sächsischen Grenzaufseher beim Viehschmuggel abgefaßt und, als er sich seiner Verhaftung widersetzte, von diesem erschossen.

Thüringische Staaten.

Coburg. Dem zum Vize- und Deputy-Konsul der Ver. Staaten in Coburg ernannten Herrn Alwin Florschütz ist das Exequatur Namens des Reiches ertheilt worden.

Kranichfeld. Unser beliebter Luftkurort ist von einer schweren Feuersbrunst heimgesucht worden, welche 41 Häuser in Asche legte. Bei den Löscharbeiten kam ein Feuerwehrmann um's Leben.

Pößneck. Interessante Funde wurden in einem Gipssteinbruche gemacht, man fand nämlich eine Anzahl fossiler Knochen von verschiedenen Größen und Formen. Die Königliche geologische Landesanstalt und Bergakademie in Berlin stellte fest, daß die Knochen von Hyäne, Auerochse und Rennthier entstammen.

Freie Städte.

Hamburg. Das Schiff „Dankbarkeit," Kapitän Brower, wurde während der letzten heftigen Stürme, welche über die Nordsee dahinrasten, mit Mann und Maus von den Fluthen verschlungen; nur dem Steuermann gelang es, sich zu retten.—Der bekannte Großkaufmann, Senator und Generalkonsul W. H. O'Swald ist einem Herzschlage erlegen. Er war Präsident der städtischen Deputation für Handel und Schiffahrt und hat sich um seine Vaterstadt mannigfache Verdienste erworben. Er gehörte einer alten Hamburger Patrizier-Familie an.—Auf der Elbe kollidirte der Dampfer „Minneburg" mit dem Dampfer „Thekla Bohlen," wobei zwei Heizer des letzteren getödtet wurden. Auch brach auf der „Thekla Bohlen" Feuer aus und 20 Personen vermochten sich nur dadurch zu retten, daß sie auf den Dampfer „Minneburg" übersprangen.

Bremen. Herr W. Theodor Fischer, der Begründer der Tabakfirma Theodor Fischer u. Co., einer der ältesten Mitglieder der bremischen Kaufmannschaft, beging in rüstiger Frische seinen 80. Geburtstag.

Lübeck. Ein Hamburger Destillationsgehilfe Namens Laage, der seinen Prinzipal in acht Jahren um 40,000 Mark bestohlen hat, wurde hier festgenommen.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.
MONEY TO LOAN
197 North Ave.
Wm. D. Thickstun. John F. [illegible]
Telephone 601.

(B) AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

A Bold Move In
Parlor Suits
Without an Equal in the History of This House!
Even that great 3rd floor of ours doesn't begin to hold 'em all. The Parlor
Suit Like Cut, $19.75— $30 usually.

Carved mahogany-finish frame—green Roman plush, embroidered backs, elegant and striking. Others at even greater price-drops.

Full overstuff tapestry covering, tops tufted and corded.
At $45.50, was $65.

Again, inlaid, mahogany-finish frame, Roman plush covering.
At $50, was $75.

And—striped Silk Damask Suit, mahogany frame, piano polish—at $75—was $125.

Another—having Turkish backs, full overstuffed—heavy fringe, for $90—was $175.

Bedroom Suits
—A great crash in their prices, too.
For $10.98—a $14 Suit.
Antique oak finish, well constructed, nice looking.
For $14.98—a $20 Suit.
24x30 mirror, all new in shape and make-up.
For $55—a $75 Suit.
Elegant—in curly birch—superbly carved.
Fully 300 other suits at lowest prices ever put on record.
Carpets—All in
This season's loveliest colors and patterns—thousands of rolls—prices that NO other store can touch, they're so low.
Go-Carts—$2.49
And up—biggest line in all this city. Baby Carriages, too—$3.48 up.

SWEEPING REDUCTIONS ON SIDEBOARDS AND EXTENSION TABLES.

The Portland Range—and the Domestic Sewing Machine—2 good things.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St., Near Plane St., Newark, N. J.
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS.
Note first name "Amos."
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.
CARFARE PAID TO OUT-OF-TOWN BUYERS.
A Private Delivery Wagon Sent on Request.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO

SPECIAL SALE.
We will sell skirts and suits of our own make for this week at a price that will require no brass band to sell. An examination of our goods is all that is necessary. Ladies, as a rule, know where and when to buy. Our prices are lower than the lowest. For fit and make there are no equal in town. Call and inspect our stock.
Cloos & Richardson. LADIES' TAILORS, 225 W. FRONT ST

SPRING HATS,
SPRING NECKTIES.
SPRING SHIRTS
AT
JAMES R. BLAIR'S,
126 PARK AVENUE.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER.
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phoenix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. Life INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672.

COAL
C is for coal, clean, cheery and cheap.
O is the order to lay in a heap.
A is the atmosphere warmed by its glow.
L is the light that starts it to go, and to get the best coal buy of Stevens & Co.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.
THE DELINEATOR AND GLASS OF FASHION
For April Now Ready. Ask for the April Fashion Sheet.
Subscriptions taken.
A. L. & M. D. GORSLINE.
144 PARK AVE. PLAINFIELD, N. J.

5,000 FEET OF
MOULDINGS IN GILT AND HARD WOOD
Bring Your Pictures and Have Them Framed
At the PLAINFIELD ART GALLERY, Y. M. C. A. Building

Jersey Poultry
is the specialty of
SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue

Have you tried their
SAUSAGE
It is the best made in
PLAINFIELD

Elston M. French & Co.
Successors to VanBuren Bros.
Real Estate and Insurance.
Largest agency in the city. Loans negotiated.
169 NORTH AVENUE
Opposite Depot

H. Eggerding,
151 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall Streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 20th, 1898.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 7 00, 7 26, 7 50, 7 55, 8 00, 8 13, 8 20, 8 37, 8 48, 9 25, 9 56, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 00, 1 15, 2 12, 3 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 54, 5 37, 6 04, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 09, 7 39, 8 45, 9 15, 10 17, 11 28 p. m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 5 59, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10, a. m.; 12 m., 12 58, 1 45, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 12, 8 32, 9 18, 10 22 p. m.

Leave New York, foot Liberty St, at 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10 10 00 a. m.; 12 00 m., 1 00, 1 30, 2 00, 2 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 40, 5 00, 5 15, 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 30, 11 45 p. m.; 12 15, 1 00 night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 00, 9 00, 9 15, a. m.; 12 m.; 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 7 30, 9 00, 10 00 p. m.; 12 15 night; 1 00 a. m.

Leave New York South Ferry from Whitehall St. at 7 10, 7 55, 8 35, 9 05, 9 55, 11 55 a. m., 12 55, 1 25, 1 35, 3 25, 3 35, 3 55, 4 35, 4 55, 5 25, 5 55, 6 10, 6 20, 6 55, 7 25, 7 40, 8 10, 9 10, 9 55, 11 40 p. m., 12 10 night. Sundays—At 6 55, 8 55 a. m., 12 00 m., 12 55, 1 25, 3 55, 6 40, 7 25, 8 55, 9 55 p. m., 12 10 night.

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 37, 6 29, 7 00, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 08, 9 56, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 00, 1 15, 2 12, 3 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 54, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 8 45, 10 17, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 5 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 32, 10 22 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 30, 8 05, 8 28, 9 03, 10 05 a. m.; 12 10, 1 05, 1 35, 2 40, 3 35, 4 02, 4 40, 5 04, 5 45, 6 19, 7 35, 8 10, 9 35, 10 05, 11 25 p. m. Sunday, 7 15, 9 05, 11 35 a. m.; 1 10, 2 45, 4 05, 5 55, 7 35, 9 15, 10 15 p. m.

Passengers for Newark please change car Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 6 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00 m., 1 01, 2 11, 2 27, 3 32, 4 35, 5 03, 5 34, 6 04, 6 06, 6 19, 6 38, 7 15, 7 34, 8 21, 10 44 p. m; 12 44 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 06, 9 52, a. m; 2 05, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 16, 11 14 p. m.

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7, 7 27, 7 33, 7 45, 8 20, 9 15, 9 35, 10 15, 11 45, a. m; 12 30, 1 53, 2 08, 3 25, 4 20, 5 26, 6 05, 6 08, 6 45, 8 22, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 45 a. m; 12 35, 1 20, 5 15, 7 27, 7 55, 8 05, 8 45, 10 00 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m., 1 01, 3 [illegible], 5 23, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 6 45, 9 08 a. m; 3 08, 6 35 p. m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 01, 8 15, a. m; 12 36, 4 10, 5 10, 7 17, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 11 22 a. m; 4 00 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield 7 12 a. m; 5 25 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch.

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c., with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

1 01 p. m. way for Easton, German Valley and Chester, connecting at Junction for stations on D. L. & W. R. R.

3 27 p. m. For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton, with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

5 35 p. m., for Flemington and Easton connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For German Valley and Chester, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

6 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

9 08 a. m. Sundays for Easton.

3 08 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley and Flanders, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

6 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc., and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 8 37, (5 37 for Sea Girt) 9 13, 10:37 a. m.; 3 46, 6 21 p. m. Sundays, express Ocean Grove, 8 02 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 56, 10:37 a. m.; 1 15, 3 46, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 8 45 p. m. Sundays 8 02 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 8 37 a. m.; 1 15 p. m.

For Freehold, 8 37, 8 13, 10:37 a. m.; 1 15, 3 46, 6 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat 8 37, 5 37 p. m. (Lakewood only) a. m., 1 15, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 02 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 29, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, 5 34*, 6 38*, 8 21 p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 56, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, 5 09*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 29, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01, 2 16, 4 14, 5 34*, 6 38* 8 21, p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 56 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, 5 09*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 5 34*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a. m; 2 16, 5 09*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 6 38 p. m. Sundays, 5 35 p. m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked * change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H. OLHAUSEN, General Superintendent.

H. P. BALDWIN, General Passenger Agent.

LEHIGH VALLEY RAILROAD

Time table in effect Feb. 5, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

WESTWARD.

5 05 a. m. daily, 6 25 a. m. 2 26 p. m. daily except Sundays. Easton local.

6 25 p. m. Sunday evening local for Mauch Chunk.

9 03 a. m. daily; Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

11 03 a. m., 5 23 and 9 43 p. m. daily except Sunday. Local for Bound Brook.

12 03 p. m. daily except Sunday "Black Diamond Express" for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

2 04 p. m. daily local for Easton and Wilkes Barre.

4 03 p. m. daily except Sunday, express for Wilkesbarre, Scranton, Pottsville, Hazleton Shamokin, L. & B. Junction and principal intermediate stations.

7 03 and 9 22 p. m. daily, solid vestibule express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

9 03 p. m. Daily express for Easton, Bethlehem, Mauch Chunk, Sayre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge, carries sleeping car passengers only, and no baggage east of Buffalo.

EASTWARD.

For New York and Brooklyn local 6 40, 7 40 and 9 40 a. m., 3 04 and 5 18 p. m. daily except Sunday. Sundays 10 29 a. m. and 6 04 p. m. Express 7 06, 8 14, 10 09 a. m., 12 15, 2 50, 5 10, 7 07 and 9 06 p. m. daily except Sunday. Sunday 7 06, 8 14 a. m., 2 50 and 7 07 p. m.

PERTH AMBOY BRANCH.

For Perth Amboy and intermediate stations 8 12 10 09 a. m., 5 22 and 7 23 p. m. daily except Sundays. Sunday 10 29 a. m. and 7 06 p. m.

Trains leave Perth Amboy (State street) 7 12, 8 35 a. m., 4 35 and 6 35 p. m., daily except Sunday. Sunday 7:12 a. m. and 5 42 p. m.

For further information call on or address the Ticket Agent, South Plainfield, N. J. Through tickets to all important western points may be purchased at the South Plainfield office.

Col. BOLLIN H. WILBUR, General Superintendent, S. Bethlehem, Pa.

CHAS. S. LEE, General Passenger Agent, 26 Cortlandt St., N. Y. City.

NEW YORK TERMINALS—Foot of Cortlandt Desbrosses and West 23d streets.

A WOUNDED NAME

BY BRIG. GEN. CHAS. KING, U.S.A.

[Copyright, 1899, by F. Tennyson Neely.]

[CONTINUED.]

CHAPTER XXI.

The day of perturbation had been succeeded by a night of worry at department headquarters. Dispatches full of grave import were coming in from Gate City and Cheyenne. Old John Folsom, long time a trader among the Sioux and known and trusted by the whole tribe, had given warning weeks before that serious consequences would attend the effort to build another post along the Big Horn. Red Cloud and his hosts of warriors had sworn to sweep it from the face of the earth and every man of its garrison with it. All this had been reported by the general to his superiors at Washington, and all this had been derided by the Indian bureau.

Against the judgment, against the counsel of the department commander, the work went on. A large force of laborers hired by Major Burleigh at Gate City early in the spring had been sent to Warrior Gap, under strong escort, and the unseasoned timber and fresh cut logs were being rapidly dovetailed and mortised, and long wagon trains laden with stores and supplies, purchased by Major Burleigh's agents, were pushing out across the Platte.

"Indians, indeed!" said that experienced officer disdainfully. "They do not presume to interfere!"

And long since the whisper had been going the rounds that Major Burleigh's interest in the construction of that new post, involving an expense of some hundreds of thousands of dollars, was something more than official. In vain John Folsom and veteran officers of the fighting force had pointed out that Indians never do interfere when they see huge trains of provisions and supplies coming just where they want them. Orders were orders, and the building went on. John Folsom said that any day the news might come that Red Cloud and his braves had massacred every man and carried off every woman in the new cantonment. Wives and children were there, secure, as they believed, behind the stout hearts and far and fast shooting new breechloaders, trustful, too, of the Indians whom they had often fed and welcomed at their doors in the larger and less exposed garrison.

"Two of our companies can stand off a thousand Sioux," said one gallant officer, who based his confident report on the fact that with 50 of the new breechloaders, behind a log breastwork, he had whipped a horde of mountain braves, armed only with lance and bow and old "smoothbores" or squirrel rifles.

"We came down through the whole tribe," said Burleigh, with swelling breast. "I had only a small troop of cavalry, and Red Cloud never so much as raised a yelp. He knew who was running that outfit and didn't care to try conclusions."

It all sounded very fine among the barrooms and over the poker table at Gate City, where Burleigh was a patron and an oracle, but in the distant camps along the Platte and Powder rivers and among troopers and linesmen nearer home there were odd glances and nudging elbows whenever Burleigh's boastings were repeated. Even as far as department headquarters the story was being told that the mere report of "Big band of Sioux ahead" sent in by the advance guard, a report that brought Loring and Stone leaping nimbly out of the ambulance, rifle in hand and ready for business, sent Burleigh under the seat and left him there quaking.

"Get your men down from the Big Horn," was John Folsom's urgent advice to the department commander. "Get your men up there," was the order from Washington, and no wonder the general was troubled. Then, in the midst of it all, began to come these rumors affecting Burleigh's integrity; then the determination to send Loring to look after this new boon companion with whom Burleigh was consorting; then a dispatch from old Colonel Stevens, "old Pecksniff," as the irreverent youngsters called him, the commander at Fort Emory, on the outskirts of Gate City, telling of a tremendous storm that had swept the Laramie plains and the range of the Medicine Bow and Rattlesnake hills, just after Lieutenant Dean had been sent forth with a small party of troopers to push through to Warrior Gap with a big sum of money, $10,000 in cash, for the payment of contractors and their men at the new post, and, what was of thrilling import, there had been a deep laid scheme to head him off, ambuscade him and get that money.

Hank Birdsall and his gang, 40 of the worst toughs on the western frontier, had "got the tip" from some one in the secret in Gate City, and no one outside of the post commander himself and one of Burleigh's confidential clerks had the faintest inkling of the transaction. Nothing but that storm could have defeated their purpose. Several of the outlaws and many of their horses were drowned, and one of the gang, rescued at the last minute by the mail carrier to Frayne, rescued just in time to save his life, had gasped his confession of the plot. Birdsall and his people were now scattering over the territory, but old Pecksniff felt that matters so serious demanded full report to the department commander, and this full report had reached Omaha the very night that Loring got his orders to leave.

Hastening to the office in compliance with the imperative summons, his heart beating heavily despite his calm of manner, his thoughts reverting to that well known face and the appealing voice at his window despite his utmost effort to forget them, Loring found the general, with his chief of staff and Captain Stone, busy over telegrams and dispatches. One of these the general handed to the engineer. Then, as the latter read, the veteran of three wars arose from his chair, took the young soldier by the arm and led him aside, a proceeding that caused Captain Stone to glance up from the telegram he was swiftly copying and to follow with angering eyes until suddenly aware that the adjutant general was observing him. Then his pen renewed its scratching. It was not good that a newcomer, a young lieutenant, should be preferred to him, and it was too evident that between the general and the engineer was a bond of some kind the aid could not explain.

"Do you understand this?" asked the general, as he pointed to the letter in Loring's hand. It was brief enough. It was written by a clerk in Burleigh's office to a fellow clerk in that of the chief quartermaster at Omaha, and the latter had felt it his duty, he said, to inform his immediate superior, who in turn had laid it before the chief of staff. It read as follows:

The old man's rattled as I never saw him before, and God only knows what's amiss. Two young lieutenants came in and thrashed him right before the whole of us, called him a liar and all that. His friend Newhall, that pulled him through the yellow fever, he says, was there at the time, drunk, and actually congratulated them, and, though Burleigh raved and swore and wrote no end of dispatches to be sent to Omaha demanding court martial for Lieutenant Dean, devil a one of them was ever really sent. Not only that, but Burleigh was threatened and abused by Newhall and had to buy him off with a roll of greenbacks—and I saw it. Who's Newhall, anyhow, and what hold has he on Burleigh? Nursing him through yellow fever doesn't go. Newhall's gone, however, either over to Cheyenne or out on the Cache la Poudre. There's something rotten in Denmark, and I want to get out of this.

"I have determined to go to Gate City myself, even though time can ill be spared, Loring," said he. "There is urgent need of my presence at Laramie. He had his suspicions, strong and acute, yet with nothing tangible as yet on which to base them, and if he breathed them what would be the result?

The girl whose identity he had promised not to betray "until Sister Naomi could be heard from" would beyond all question be called to account. To his very door had she come within 48 hours of that strange evening which the rector's prattle had made public property, begged a minute's interview without giving any name, and, stepping down into the plainly furnished little western parlor, there in the dim light of a single kerosene burner, Walter Loring had come face to face with his old love—Geraldine.

Mindful of all the harm she had done him in San Francisco, rather than of what had passed before, he met her in stern silence. On his generosity, his magnanimity, she threw herself. She had deceived and wronged him in ever engaging herself to him, she said, and would have gone on to say more.

"That is all past and done with," he coldly interposed. "What is it now?"

And then it transpired that good Mr. Lambert had been the means of securing for Naomi an excellent position; that Naomi had gone to enter on her duties and had sent for her sister to come and live at Mrs. Burleigh's until she could better provide for her; that Naomi was living under an assumed name, and that she prayed that no one might know their unhappy past. The interview was cut short by the curiosity of some member of the household who came in ostensibly to trim the lamp.

"It shall be as you wish until you hear from your sister," said Loring, bowing her out with punctilious civility and praying in secret that there it might end, but end it did not. Within another 48 hours she was there with another quest. The servant who announced her presence in the parlor below did so with a confidential and impertinent grin.

"The same lady wants to see Lieutenant Loring," and this time he was colder and sterner than before.

Her evident purpose was to revert to the relations that once existed, though her plea was only for news from California. Had nothing ever been heard of the missing jewels? she asked. Their need was so great! She had most excellent prospects of an engagement in Boston if she could only have six months' instruction under Signor Calabresi, but his terms were so high, and she would have to live in New York, and people kept writing her that she and Naomi really ought to make some effort to recover the value of that property, and she had come, friendless as she was, to ask if he thought a suit against the steamship company would result in their getting anything. Captain Pet—a gentleman, that is, who had been most kind in San Francisco, had promised to do something, but now that the general was dead what could he do? There was no doubting the identity or intentions of that gentleman, thought Loring, as he gravely replied that they would only be defeated in any such attempt.

Then, with swimming eyes, she had bemoaned her past, her fatal errors, her greed for wealth and position that had led her to stifle her own heart throbs and deceive the one true friend she had ever known, and Loring broke short the conversation by leaving the room. Then she came again, alone, and he refused to see her. Then she came with Mrs. Burton, and the house was in a titter, and he broke up his establishment and moved back to the hotel, to the scandal of his landlord, as has been said, who made loud complaint to the powers at headquarters.

Then she wrote that she was being followed and persecuted by a man she never knew before, the man who was with her the night Mr. Lambert said they met them in front of Mrs. Burton's, a dreadful man who said that he believed that she loved Lieutenant Loring and made threats against him. She implored Loring's protection, and Loring saw through the flimsy device and returned the letter unanswered and later letters unopened, and then the woman seemed to take fire and in turn she threatened him.

And now she had brought Mrs. Burton to witness his cruelty to her, the meek, suffering girl to whom he was pledged and plighted, who had followed him to Omaha in hopes of softening his heart and winning back his wayward love, as was the burden of her sorrowing song to that most sympathetic of women, already burning with prejudice and fancied wrong of her own. One "woman scorned" is more than enough for many a reputation. Two, in double harness, would wreck that of St. Anthony.

All this and more had sped through Loring's mind that night and was uppermost in his thoughts as he stood there facing his patient commander. The general's fine, clear cut features clouded with anxiety as he noted the long silence and hesitation. Again he spoke, with grave yet gentle reproof in his tone.

"Surely, Loring, if you know of the fellow, it is our right to know!"

"I realize it, sir, but I can do better than tell a mere suspicion. Give me authority to act, and I'll land that man in jail and lay his whole story on your desk."

"Then go and do it," said the chief.

TO BE CONTINUED.

Walter Loring had come face to face with his old love—Geraldine.

Possibly I may have to go to Frayne and shall need you with me, but meantime this thing must be explained. Everything indicates that this Captain Newhall, who was one of his chums in New Orleans, has some heavy hold on him—a gambling debt, perhaps, or knowledge of cotton transactions during the war. I cannot but feel that you know something of the man. Tell me, did you meet that fellow when he was here?"

Loring stood looking gravely, straight into the face of his superior. Swiftly his thoughts sped back to that soft, warm evening when he and the rector slowly ascended the gentle grade toward Mrs. Burton's homestead, and there was unfolded before his eyes that picture he was destined never to forget—the lovely tints of the clear northern sky, the broad valley of the river, with its bluffs and hillocks, the dark forms, slender and graceful both, coming nearer and nearer until in startled recognition of one at least he halted in dumb amaze and therefore caught but a flitting glimpse of the other as it whisked jauntily away.

HURRAH! HURRAH! HURRAH!

Here we are, the largest and best equipped laundry in your state. We not only say this, but it is a positive fact. Our numerous laundries and branches are located in all the principal cities of the States of NEW YORK, NEW JERSEY AND PENNSYLVANIA.

And can frankly say that the work turned out by each is appreciated by our numerous patrons. The introduction of has gained great fame. And still another great advantage is gained by your laundry coming to us, and that is, all your fine shirts are ironed by hand. Your collars and cuffs are turned and ironed in the proper way the maker intends them to be. Telephone or drop us postal. Will call and deliver free of charge.

Our Celebrated Domestic Finish

City Steam and Hand Laundry

19 SOMERSET ST.

TELEPHONE.

Morey & LaRue, Proprietors.

PLAINFIELD N. J.

McCullough's STEAM MILL.

Steiner place, North Plainfield

R. H. McCullough, Prop'r

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished.

C. ARNOLD, 35 Somerset Street,

has an elegant display of

Genuine Spring Lamb,

JERSEY BROILERS AND POULTRY

of all kinds. It will do your heart good to inspect my stock before purchasing your Sunday dinner. 3 21 tf

Advertised Letters

Plainfield, N. J., April 3, 1899

Ballis Miss May
Brown Mr A G
Brown Miss Margaret
Burrell Mr Jacob
Carter Mrs Augusta
Campbell Mr R
Cobb Mr J M
Howard Mr Walter G
Greene Mr William
Hunter Mr
Hurlburt Mr & Mrs A.
Lewis Mrs Lucy
Moneton Mr George A
Ollis Mr Sydney L
Palsen Miss Julee Lina
Reid Miss Emma
Rienecker John
Rogers Mr E H
Scruggs Miss Sallie W
Smith Mr W R
Sutton Mrs S P
Wilson Miss Susie
Work Mr Chas L

639 south street

J. C. Pope & Co.,

INSURANCE AGENTS,

110 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J

Wm. J. Pearson,

(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)

Carpenter and Builder

15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to.

A custom tailor, doing business in Ithaca, N. Y., relates the interesting case of a sister of his who had catarrh in the head and of the stomach for ten years, and had changed her place of residence a number of times trying and hoping to get rid of it. She had tried some of the best doctors, but without any help, until finally her brother sent her some Ripans Tabules. They benefited her from the first. She has taken six boxes of them in all, and is now entirely cured.

A new style packet containing four tubes (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores—FOR SIXTY CENTS you can buy enough for a year's use and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (enough for a year) sent to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce St., New York, on receipt of sixty cents (for tubes will be sent for five cents.

EUGENE FIELD'S DONKEY.

Don Cæsar de Bazan Was a Great Favorite With His Master.

The most famous donkey that ever resided in the city of Chicago is Don Caesar de Bazan of the tribe of Jerusalem.

The little quadruped soon learned to love Mr. Field, and, in turn, shared the great-hearted poet's favors with the other pets around the place.

Don was not allowed to enjoy himself all day, however, for no sooner had Mr. Field's familiar figure disappeared in the direction of Clark street than the boys began to prod sharp sticks at him for the sheer pleasure of seeing him squirm and kick.

Don was obliged to grin and bear all these abuses until Mr. Field returned at night. He did it with a very qualified grace, but in absolute silence, for he never brayed except in the presence of his master. Don had good ears and a keen perception, and as soon as he heard the deep-toned voice so familiar to all who knew Mr. Field he would commence to urge his complaints in the most vigorous, rasping brays.

When Mr. Field moved to Buena Park, Don became a trouble to his master. Don would get into mischief among the flower beds or stray into some neighbor's lot. At last Mr. Field was driven to despair as to how to dispose of Don Caesar de Bazan to the advantage of that estimable animal.

Just at this time Mr. George Yenowine, a warm friend of the family, visited Chicago, and when he heard of the donkey dilemma quickly bethought himself of carting Don to the farm in Kentucky.

So Don Caesar de Bazan, with his bag and baggage, in the care of Mr. Yenowine, departed for Kentucky.

Two years later Mr. Field visited Yenowine Farm, immediately repaired to the pasture and called upon Don. The latter marched up to the fence, flopped his ears back and forth in a knowing fashion, looked at his late master with a cunning leer, then promptly and silently retired to the far corner of the meadow. The next morning, however, he marched deliberately to the house and began to bray.

It was ever after Mr. Field's opinion that animals think more than they are given credit for.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

RACING COCKROACHES.

An Amusement of Turkish Prisoners During Their Tedious Confinement.

Racing cockroaches is the latest device of the prisoners who are languishing in Turkish prisons.

The prisons are overrun with cockroaches. The more intelligent of the prisoners make friends with these insects.

Infinite patience is required to train a cockroach.

By enticing a number of cockroaches into his cell every day, one of the prisoners discovered that they could easily be taught, if they were propitiated with molasses. After a few weeks' work he astonished his friends in the prison by bringing out for their edification a corps of trained cockroaches.

The cockroach fever at once spread through the prison. Every man who could beg or borrow molasses began a company of cockroaches.

Two of the most highly trained cockroaches were pitted against each other, and the prisoners ranged themselves on either side of the corridor to watch the race.

The owner of each insect prodded him with a piece of straw. As the cockroaches raced along the floor the excitement among the prisoners and jailers rose to fever heat. The insects had been so well trained that they deviated neither to the right nor left, but kept straight ahead.

The one that was beaten lost the race because he stopped to scratch his leg. —New York Journal.

Corporation Notice.

Frank Bergen, Albert B. Carlton and Joseph A. Hubbard, the "Commissioners of Adjustment" appointed for the City of Plainfield, Union County, New Jersey, by the Circuit Court of the County of Union, by order made on the twenty-ninth day of May, 1897, under the provisions of Chapter CXII of the laws of 1896, entitled "An act concerning the settlement and collection of arrearages of unpaid taxes, assessments and water rates or water rents in cities in this State, and imposing and levying a tax, assessment and lien in lieu and instead of such arrearages, and to enforce the payment therefore, and to provide for the sale of lands subjected to future taxation and assessment," passed March 30, 1896, and the several amendments thereof and supplements thereto, having made and filed in the office of the Clerk of said Circuit Court a report of their proceedings, assessments, charges and liens fixed and certified by them, together with the assessment maps therein referred to, and such proceedings, as required by the statute in such case made and provided, having been taken in the premises that the said court by order made on the nineteenth day of October last, did refer the said report to the same commissioners to reconsider the subject-matter thereof, and return the same corrected and revised, or a new report to be made by them in the premises without unnecessary delay, pursuant to the statute in such cases made and provided, as by reference to said orders and the minutes of said court will more fully and at large appear; and said Commissioners of Adjustment for the City of Plainfield having thereafter decided to make a new report in the premises:

Notice is hereby given that said Commissioners of Adjustment, appointed as aforesaid for the City of Plainfield, have made, certified and filed in the office of the Clerk of the said Union County Circuit Court a new report of their proceedings, assessments, charges and liens fixed and certified by them, together with the assessment maps referred to therein, and the said Court has fixed Monday, the twenty-fourth day of April, eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, or as soon thereafter as the court can attend to the same, at the Court House in the City of Elizabeth, as the time and place for hearing any objections that may be made to the assessments, charges and liens fixed and certified by the "Commissioners of Adjustment" in said report, when and where all parties interested therein may be heard.

Dated March 30th, 1899.

William Howard, Clerk of the Circuit Court of the County of Union.

4-7-8-14-15-21-22

A Double Bill

EASTER WEEK

Our Easter panel, "Innocence" given free to purchasers of teas, coffees, baking powder, etc. A Lady's Rocker given to purchasers of one pound baking powder.

GRAND UNION TEA CO.

138 West Front street.

F. A. DUNHAM,

—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—

109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87 F.

DEAD HORSES

Removed free. Buckman Brothers, 511 South Second Street. Main office New Brunswick, N. J. Telephone Call, 63 F. Fertilizer Works, Livingston Park, N. J. 4 3 3m

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN

I a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 2c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 329 North avenue.

HEADQUARTERS FOR

Plants and Cut Flowers.

Chas. L. Stanley 142 North Avenue.

FLORAL DESIGNS A SPECIALTY.

Greenhouses, South Avenue, Netherwood.

TRY THE

QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,

No. 337 Park Avenue

(Miller Building.)

Goods called for and delivered free of charge.

Domestic or gloss finish.

William Hand & Son,

STAGES

For Parties, etc. 518 Park avenue

Flynn Bros.,

SHOE DEALERS,

222 WEST FRONT STREET,

Near Music Hall,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods

Have stood the test for years.

LAIRE'S

SPRING AND SEASONABLE GOODS.

Garden Wheel Barrows.
Garden Tools, all kinds.
Garden Seeds, all varieties.
Lawn Seed.
Lawn Dressing.
Fertilizers, all kinds.
Lawn Rakes.
Ask to see the finest family scale made, for $1.50.

TELEPHONE CALL 682.

THE J. P. LAIRE HARDWARE CO.

WASHINGTON

VIA SOUTHERN RY. VIA

OLD POINT COMFORT

is the most attractive short trip at this season of the year.

STEAMSHIPS OF THE

OLD DOMINION LINE

PERFORM DAILY SERVICE

Through tickets returning from Washington by rail or water.

(For full information apply to

OLD DOMINION S. S. COMPANY,

Pier 26, North River, NEW YORK.

W. L. Guillaudeu Vice-Pres. & Traffic Mgr.

Ladies Desiring . . .

KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING

done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 604 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL,

corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.

RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor.

L. MORALLER & SON

Watchmakers and Jewelers

HAVE REMOVED TO 219 PARK AVE.

Next to Armstrong's Drug Store. 3 16 1m

COLLIER,

SCIENTIFIC OPTICIAN.

Established 1869.

103 Park Avenue

Your Valuables,

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

HENRY J. WIERENGA,

Furniture and Freight Express.

Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store 126 Park avenue. 10 1 1y

DR. S. F. RANDOLPH,

DRUGGIST,

Cor. Liberty and Fourth Sts. Telephone 181.

PRESCRIPTIONS FILLED DAY OR NIGHT.

H. HAND,

Licensed Auctioneer.

OFFICE—Corner South Ave. and Berckman St.

REAL ESTATE and FIRE INSURANCE. 11 16 1m

SOME MEN THINK

that fretting over business affairs will change results. Don't fret. It will do no good. The man whose business is protected through a good sized Life Insurance policy in The Prudential, can obtain more credit in business. His associates are protected against loss.

WRITE

Home Office, Newark, N. J. THE PRUDENTIAL Insurance Co. OF AMERICA.

JOHN F. DRYDEN, President. LESLIE D. WARD, V. Pres.
EDGAR B. WARD, 2d V. P. and Counsel. FORREST F. DRYDEN, Secretary
J. Elston Woodland, Sup't, E. Front St. & Park Ave., Box 790, Plainfield, N. J.

THE PULPIT SUBJECTS.

SERVICES IN THE LOCAL CHURCHES TOMORROW.

What Plainfield Ministers Will Talk About for the Elevation of the Minds and Morals of Their Congregations.

St. Mary's (R. C.) church, Rev. P. E. Smyth, pastor.—Masses at 7:30, 8:30, 9:30, 10:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 2:30; evening devotions at 8.

St. Joseph's (R. C.) church, Rev. William H. Miller, pastor.—Masses at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m.; Sunday-school at 3; evening devotions, 8.

Mission Church of the Heavenly Rest, Clinton avenue, William Winans Moore and Francis Gregory Moore, Lay Readers—9:45, Sunday-school; 11, morning service, with a celebration of the Holy Communion, Rev. Livinston Schuyler will officiate; 4:30, evening prayer.

Wilson Memorial chapel—3, Sunday-school; evening, H. E. Needham will speak.

First M. E. church, Rev. W. C. Snodgrass, pastor—10:30, sermon by Rev. Henry A. Buchtel, D. D., of Calvary church, East Orange; 2:30, Sunday-school, with brief address by Dr. Buchtel; 7, Epworth League; 7:45, sermon by Rev. Orrin W. Snodgrass, of Westbrook, Conn.

Trinity Reformed church, Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, pastor—Morning subject, "Another Trust;" 2:30, Sunday-school; evening theme, "Characteristics of Growth."

All Soul's church, Rev. A. C. Nickerson, pastor—10:30, sermon by Rev. Hobart Clark, of West New Brighton; 3, Sunday-school; 11:50, Sunday-school.

Hope chapel, Rev. G. Kennedy Newell, pastor—10:30 and 7:45, evangelistic services, led by F. E. Taylor.

Church of the Redeemer, Rev. W. Montgomery Downey, rector — 11:15, morning prayer and sermon; 3:15, Sunday-school; 4:30, even song.

St. Stephen's church, Rev. S. P. Simpson, rector — 7:30, Holy Communion; 9:45, Sunday-school; 11, Holy Communion and sermon; 4:30, evening prayer and anniversary of Altar Society.

Grace P. E. church, Rev. E. M. Rodman, and rector, Rev. F. Appleton, curate—7:30, Holy Communion; 10:30, morning prayer and sermon; 2:45, young men's Bible class; 3, Sunday-school; 7:30, evening prayer and sermon.

Christian church, Grove street, Rev. H. W. McKane, pastor—Morning subject, "Make the Tree Good;" evening, special sermon to the Woman's Relief Corps.

East Third Street mission—Evening. Rev. George O. Bowers will lead the meeting.

Park Avenue Baptist church, Rev. J. W. Richardson, pastor — 10:30, sermon, subject, "How Far May a Christian Use This World?" 2:45, Sunday-school; 7:30, sermon, subject, "The Everlasting Christ."

First Presbyterian church, Rev. C. E. Herring, pastor—Morning subject, "The Resurrection of the Body;" evening subject, "The Meekness and Gentleness of Christ."

Congregational church, West 7th street, Rev. C. L. Goodrich, pastor—10:30, sermon, subject, "A Representative Man;" 2:45, Sunday-school; 7:30, evening service.

Filmore Baptist church, 117 Madison avenue, Rev. W. D. Johnson, pastor—11, sermon, subject, "Working Together for Good;" 3, Sunday-school; 8, sermon, subject, "Seeing Jesus."

Calvary Baptist church, Rev. Scott Wallace, pastor—11, covenant meeting; 3, Sunday-school; 4, Holy Communion; 7, Young People's meeting; 8, sermon, subject, "Who Is On the Lord's Side?"

Y. M. C. A.—9:30 and 5:15, Bible classes; men's meeting. Tom Graham, the Scotch evangelist will speak. The Cecelia Bradford Trio, of New York, will furnish the music.

BASKET BALL.

The girls' basket ball team of the Plainfield High School will play a match game with the girls' team from the East Orange High School in the Whittier building tomorrow afternoon. A small admission will be charged.

CYCLING COMMENT.

R. Frucht, bicycle dealer, 218 Park avenue, has a very large stock of all articles pertaining to bicycles, and is selling the same as low as can be purchased in New York city or elsewhere.

To Cure a Cough in One Day
To Cure a Cold in One Day
To Cure Sore Throat in One Day
To Cure Hoarseness in One Day

Take Cleveland's Lung Healer, 25c. Trial size free. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenue.

LIFE FOR A TOOLCHEST.

TRIFLING THING THAT MADE SCHUMACHER KILL HIS SISTER-IN-LAW.

He Held a Fancied Grievance Against Her—Created a Disturbance in Jail—Slap in the Face Made Him Docile.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Brunswick, April 8.—An examination under the direction of Prosecutor John S Voorhees is being made into the mental condition of Albert Schumacher, who murdered his sister-in law, Elizabeth Schumacher, near Oak Tree, and also into the circumstances leading to the crime. The man lived for years with Ellis Noe, near Oak Tree. Mr. Noe humored him and told him he could have all his property when he died. Mr. Noe died three months ago, leaving no will. His sister and nearest heir, Mrs. Payne, of South Plainfield, inherited his property. An adminstrator's sale was held last Wednesday of the personal property. Albert Schumacher imagined the property was his, and could not understand why people should be taking articles away. His brother, Charles Schumacher, bought a toolchest which Albert highly valued.

That night Albert called at his brother's house and was allowed to stay over night. In the morning he demanded the toolchest, which was denied him. He attributed his fancied wrongs to his brother's wife, and Thursday he shot and killed her. At the jail he created a great disturbance and wanted to fight everybody, until another prisoner slapped him in the face. He has since been docile. His case will be presented to the Grand Jury next week.

—The Somerset County Board of Freeholders will held a regular meeting next week Tuesday.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help, but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion build up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by L. W. Randolph, druggist. Guaranteed.

This is a money-back store.

EXTRACT VANILLA 75c PER HALF PINT

Extracted From Selected Mexican Bean

POWERS Prescription Pharmacy

Somerset St. Craig Pl.

Receiver's Notice.

THOMAS E. H. CURTIS, Receiver of the Hall Electric Pump Company, by direction of the Chancellor of the State of New Jersey, hereby gives notice to the creditors of the said Hall Electric Pump Company, to present to the undersigned, Receiver, and prove before him under oath or affirmation or otherwise, as the said Receiver shall direct, to the satisfaction of the said Receiver, their several claims and demands against the said Hall Electric Pump Company, within two months from the sixth day of April A. D. 1899, or they will be excluded from the benefit of such dividends as may thereafter be made and declared by the Chancellor upon the proceeds of the effects of said Hall Electric Pump Company.

Dated, Plainfield, N. J., April 6th, 1899.

THOMAS E. H. CURTIS, Receiver.

Craig A. Marsh, Sol'r. 4 8 4w

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That the account of the subscribers, Executor's of and Trustees under the will of Daniel J. Marshall, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphan's Court of the County of Union, on Wednesday, the tenth day of May next.

Dated April 7th, 1899.

JOHN H. VANWINKLE.
FREDERICK W. MCCULLY.
HARRY W. MARSHALL.
4 8 10 oaw-s

J. C. STORM :

Dealer in all kinds of Choice Meats, Canada Mutton, Jersey Pork. Strictly Fresh-Killed Poultry.

Game in Season. All Kinds of Bologna.

318 Liberty Street, near Fourth St.

A Sponge

a whisk broom and a hot iron may make grease spots disappear temporarily, but proper treatment is necessary to get them out by the roots, so to speak. A suit of clothes properly cleaned and pressed, $1.50.

HILLIER & CO.,

129 West Front Street,

Opposite White's. 'Phone 851.

3000 Pairs of Knee Pants

Jos. Klein & Co.
Manufacturers of BOYS' KNEE PANTS.

All Goods Made On the Premises

NEW YORK, MARCH 1, '99.

MR. M. WEINBERGER,
M'g'r New York Clothing Co.,
Plainfield, N. J.

DEAR SIR:—

We are ready to see you; have settled with insurance company and will keep goods until we see you. Make as early call as possible.

Yours truly,
JOS. KLEIN & CO.,
Manufacturers of knee pants exclusively.

A GREAT CHANCE FOR MOTHERS

to buy the finest knee pants at almost your own prices.

Jos. Klein & Co., are positively the largest manufacturers of knee pants in the United States. They occupy the building numbers 616 and 618 Broadway, New York City.

A fire started recently in the floor above their establishment, and their stock of knee pants was slightly damaged by water only, there is not a spot or a speck on the goods, and having bought this fine stock of over 3,000 pairs of strictly all wool materials of the standard Ashland Mills cassimeres, blue and black serges, fancy cheviots, blue and black clay diagonals, black cheviots and fancy worsteds knee pants. Every pair of them are perfect fitters, made with the patent waist bands and every seam is taped. The sizes are from 3 to 16 years.

These knee pants were manufactured to sell from 50c to 2.00 Our prices on these knee pants. A 50c knee pants at 17c, 65c pants at 25c, 75c pants at 29c and 1.00 pants at 38c, 1.25 pants at 50c. There are over 100 styles of knee pants to choose from.

Come early and get your grand selection. This is positively the largest assortment of knee pants ever shown in Plainfield. And having purchased them about 25c on the dollar, we can afford to sell them to you at almost your own price. Four large tables are reserved for this stock.

New York Clothing Co.

M. Weinberger, Manager. 214 West Front St., next door to Music Hall, Plainfield, N. J.

FRANK L. C. MARTIN CYCLE CO.

Pioneer Bicycle House of New Jersey. Established 1889.

Cleveland Bicycles.

In Clevelands there is only one grade, all models are the same quality. Special features of some models, making cost higher.

Models 64, 65 and 68 are the only scientifically constructed light weight wheels ever built. Call examine and be convinced.

Repairing, Renting, Storing.

Some of the distinctive features of the Cleveland:

Chain with hardened blocks and pins No wearing stretching, breaking.

Burwell Combination ball-roller bearing, reducing friction to a minimum.

NAME PLATE

CLEVELANDS ride the best, look the best, wear the best and are the best.

For the past five years Clevelands have led the world in cycle construction, each year bringing out entirely new models, while some others once considered high grade have simply stuck to their old antiquated styles. Quantity makes price.

Our New Proposition
enables everyone to own and ride the best

TERMS -- $1.00 DOWN and $1.00 WEEKLY.

New Stores, 108 and 110 East Fourth St., near Park Avenue. Unequaled Facilities.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR
Sun Rises 5:29 a. m.
Sun Sets 6:33 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 7:33 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Fair Tonight and Tuesday. Warmer Tuesday. Ther. 60.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., MONDAY, APRIL 10, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

FINE WORK DONE BY LOCAL CAMERAS.

Annual Photograpnic Print Exnibition of Camera Club.

AWARDS TO COMPETITORS.

HIGHEST HONORS TO MISS CARMAN AND J. HERVEY DOANE.

The Exhibition Opens Tonight in the Rooms of the Plainfield Camera Club—It Will be Free to all—Exhibits Show Great Improvement Over Last Year—Fine Work Shown.—Open for a Week.

Plainfield is possessed of some expert amateur photographers. The fact is made very evident by the display at the annual photographic print exhibit of the Plainfield Camera Club, which opens this evening in the club gallery on the top floor of the Babcock building. The exhibits shown are excellent and are sufficient in number to make a good showing without tiring the visitor. To the camera fiend the exhibition possesses wonderful attractions. To the rest of mankind it is interesting.

One of the first things the visitor will notice is the decided improvement that has been made in this line of work during the past year. It is by far the best collection of its kind ever held here, and the Press reporter, who was honored by a premature visit to the exhibition, was properly impressed.

Besides the displays of the various contestants for honors, there are several collections for exhibition only. Part of them are work of professionals. Tonight at 7:30 o'clock the exhibition opens to the public. It will remain open every afternoon, from 2 o'clock to 6, and every evening from 7:30 to 10 this week. The exhibition is free to the public of Plainfield and vicinity and all interested in the work are invited to visit it. There will be members of the reception committee of the club on duty all the time.

Saturday night the different exhibits were hung and awards made in the various classes. The most important was the giving of the two silver medals by the club to the two best exhibits, one for either sex. The men's medal went to J. Hervy Doane, secretary of the club. Miss Julia M. Carman was the winner of the other.

An award was made for the best exhibit made by a club member and was given to Louis Borsum. The awards in the various classes were as follows:

Landscapes—First, Walter H. Freeman; second, Willis W. Vail.

Marines—First, J. R. Joy; second, W. W. Moore.

Interiors—First, Harry H. Coward; second, J. R. Joy.

Portraiture—First, Mrs. Louis H. Morgan.

Groups—First, John Neagle; second, Mrs. W. R. Codington.

Hand camera work—First, H. H. Coward, second, William M. Miner.

Mechanical—First, William Marsel.

Animal study—First, George H. Fountain; second, George A. Neuman.

Enlargements—First, William Demarest; second, the Misses Tracy.

Beginners' work—First, Miss Edith B. Little; second, Miss Eveline DuBois Benton.

LAST OF THE STAR COURSE.

The Bradford Trio Gave One of the Best Entertainments of the Season.

The last entertainment in the Y. M. C. A. Star Course series was given Saturday evening by the Cecelia Bradford Trio, of New York, before a good-sized appreciative audience. The entertainment was one of the best in the series and those who attended felt well repaid for coming out. The artists were Miss Cecelia Bradford, violin soloist; Miss Charlotte Bradford, elocutionist, violinist and vocalist; John Bradford, flute virtuoso, and James Bradford, pianist. Each one is an artist of ability, but Miss Cecelia Bradford won notable distinction by her playing on the violin. Her work was equal to any that has been given in Plainfield and her renditions were exquisite. Miss Charlotte Bradford, as an elocutionist, won merited applause for her fine work, and the flute selections by John Bradford were thoroughly enjoyable. James Bradford at the piano performed his work perfectly.

The programme rendered was a classic one and every number was a gem. Those present hope to have another opportunity of hearing these artists and it is to be hoped that they will have a larger patronage.

A Large Collection.

The Easter collection taken up in St. Mary's church, this city, amounted to $870.

—Press want ads bring results.

PLEASANT EASTER TEA.

SOCIAL EVENTS OF PASSING NOTE IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

Miss Helen R. Clark Acted as Host in Honor of Mrs. Howard Wade Beebe—Tea Also Given by Misses Tracy.

Among the Easter teas Saturday afternoon was the very charming one given by Miss Helen R. Clark, daughter of E. B. Clark, at her home 131 Crescent avenue, in honor of Mrs. Howard Wade Beebe, of Stelle avenue. The house was tastefully decorated with roses and jonquils, while in the dining room pink roses were used exclusively. The artistic table, with pink-shaded candles and a profusion of pink roses, was presided over by Mrs. Marion S. Ackerman, Mrs. Halleck and Mrs Arthur Masters, assisted by Miss Annie and Mary Miller, Mary and Jessie Bushnell, Harriet and May Shreve, Caroline Vail, Edith Gilbert, May Rodman, Effner Strong, Anna Miller, Mrs. Harry Johnson, Mrs. Eugene Moore, the Misses Haviland, of New York; Mrs. Samuel Porter Williams and Miss Williams, of Hartford, Conn.

THE MISSES TRACY'S AFFAIR.

A Tea and Reception Given—125 Guests Were Present.

The Misses Tracy, of West Eighth street, entertained the younger set at a tea Saturday afternoon. There were about 125 present, mostly of Plainfield.

The Misses Tracy were assisted in receiving by their mother, Mrs. J. Evarts Tracy. In the dining room were Mrs. Howard Tracy, Mrs. Evarts Tracy, Mrs. Daniel F. Ginna, Miss Whiton, Misses Haviland, Miss Annie Cook, Misses Louise and Mary Bushnell, Miss Maud VanBoskerck, and Miss Emma Wadsworth, of New York.

The decorations were of cut flowers and plants. The table was in pink.

OAK TREE MURDERER THOUGHT TO BE INSANE.

DOCTORS EXAMINED SHOEMAKER.

Prisoner Shows Every Indication of Being Insane—His Victim Buried Saturday Afternoon.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

New Brunswick, April 10.—Drs. H. R. Baldwin and William Moore made an examination Saturday of Albert Shoemaker, who killed his sister-in-law at Oak Tree, Wednesday, with a view of determing his mental condition. Prosecutor Voorhees and the physicians refused to make known the result of the examination, but the Prosecutor admitted that the examination, while not conclusive, sustained the belief that the prisoner is of unsound mind.

Dr. Long, the county physician, performed an autopsy upon the body of Mrs. Elizabeth Shoemaker at Metuchen. He found that the bullet had entered the back, about three inches below the left shoulder blade and two inches from the left side, and had pierced the lung and heart. The body was buried Saturday afternoon at Metuchen by the township authorities in Potter's Field.

WOMEN WHO WOULD VOTE.

Fair Suffragist Advocates to Listen to Rev. Antonette Blackwell.

A meeting of the New Jersey Woman Suffrage Association will be held at the Woman's Club House, 17 Centre street, Newark, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Flowrence Howe Hall, the President, will preside and Rev. Antonette Brown Blackwell will make an address. Mrs. Blackwell is a favorite speaker with the women of our State, although she has lately removed to New York city. Her beautiful silver hair, and sweet gracious presence, seem to bring a benediction with them while her gentle voice and thoughtful words please and interest all hearers. The meeting will be open to the public, and all interested are cordially invited to be present. No admission fee will be charged. Delegates to attend the National Convention to be held April 27th to May 4th at Grand Rapids, Michigan, will be chosen.

State Board of Education Meets.

Mr. and Mrs. S St. John McCutchen, of Rockview terrace, left for Atlantic City Saturday, where they will remain until tomorrow. Mr. McCutchen will attend there the session of the State Board of Education, of which he is the retiring vice-president. At the meeting this afternoon the officers for the new year will be elected and the apportionment of the State school money made.

Baptists Annual Meeting.

The twenty-third annual meeting of the Park Avenue Baptist church and society will be held Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. Three trustees, to succeed C. K. Compton, F. K. Fish and John H. Doane, will be elected, and other business will be transacted.

—Press want ads pay

DID COP JERRY DO THE GRACEFUL ACT?

Or, How Was the Trolley Car Boarded by Two Men?

STORY HEARD IN COURT.

JUDGE RUNYON REGALED WITH TALES THAT WERE DIFFERENT.

Officer Cash Claims That He Found Two Intoxicated Men Lying in the Gutter and Pressed a Trolley Car Into Service as a Patrol Wagon—The Prisoners Say Nay—Conducter to be Heard.

While Patrolman Jerry Cash doesn't pretend to be a musician of marked ability, he has an ear that can distinguish a sweet harmony from a confusion of sounds. According to his statement given in city court this morning, he was riding townward on a trolley car from Netherwood yesterday afternoon when the air in his vicinity was rent asunder by hideous noises that caused his flesh to creep and which quite outraged his musical sense.

When the policeman heard these sounds he says he ordered the hum of the trolley to cease for the time being and he investigated the cause thereof. The sounds, he says, eminated from the vocal cords of two men who sat in the gutter on LaGrande avenue. Furthermore, he insists, they were decidedly under the influence of strong drink.

Jerry says he carted these two individuals to the trolley car and hoisted them on board and conveyed them to the lockup for the night. But here a difference of opinion exists. The men were William Waldron, of 30 Harmony street, and Herman Schnerman, of 148 East Fifth street. They say that they did not try to sing and that they climbed on board the car in a decent and orderly manner and that when they arrived there, they were informed by Jerry that they were under arrest.

Both men told the same story. There was testimony that they were drunk but the testimony disagreed as to whether they were arrested before or after their advent in the trolley car. Judge Runyon thought it over and adjourned the case until the conductor of the trolley car can tell his little tale.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY.

Howard VanArsdale Celebrated His Fifth Birthday Saturday.

A very pleasant time was had Saturday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard VanArsdale, of Orchard place, the occasion being the celebration of the fifth birthday of their son, Howard The little guests enjoyed themselves with singing, recitations and the playing of games. The youthful host was not forgotten by his young friends, as the number of presents received amply testified. Refreshments were served, to which all did justice, and the affair ended by those present declaring they had had a splendid time and wishing Master VanArsdale many happy returns of the day.

Those present were Dorothy Lynn, Marion Lynn, Helen Wooley, Lena Green, Ethel Searing, Stella Hoffman, Mabelle Koch, Earl Lynn, Russell Miller, Joe Carty, Jay Hoffman, Clifford Vail, Arthur Thorn, Ernest Conover, Howard VanArsdale, Mr. and Mrs. McGuire, Frank VanArsdale, of Old Bridge.

Mrs. VanArsdale was assisted in serving the refreshments and entertaining the young guests by Mrs. McGuire and Miss Anna Searing.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL COMMITTEES.

Special Workers to Raise Funds to Pay for Excursion.

At the session of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church yesterday afternoon, announcement was made of several committees. W. O. Chapman was named as chairman of the excursion committee, and he will select the other members of that committee. A contingent fund committee, to assist the excursion committee, was announced, and J. Herbert Case is the chairman. This committee will attempt to raise funds for the purpose of helping out on the expenses for the annual excursion. Announcement was also made of the finance committee as follows: George F. Brown, chairman; J. Herbert Case, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Batchelor, Mrs. George F. Brown.

A Delicate Operation.

Charles Schipper, of West Seventh street, underwent an operation Saturday for appendicitis. Dr. Endicott performed the operation which was very successful. The chances are that Mr. Schipper will recover nicely from his illness.

—Use Press want ads.

STRANGER HAS GONE, CHECKS ARE NO GOOD.

M. V. Andrews, of Williamsport, is Not in Town Anymore.

PLAINFIELDERS WANT HIM.

LEFT WORTHLESS CHECKS BEHIND HIM AMOUNTING TO $500.

He Was Boarding at McVey's Hotel All Winter and Made Several Acquaintances—They Kindly Cashed Checks for Him—He Was a Traveling Insurance Agent, He Said—Now He's Disappeared.

For the past few months a well-dressed elderly man has been stopping at McVey's Hotel. He gave his name as M. V. Andrews, of Williamsport, Pa., and claimed to be a travelling agent for the Equitable Life Insurance Company, of New York. He made several acquaintances here and finally asked some of his new-made friends to cash some checks for him. Last week several hundred dollars' worth of these checks came back from the Williamsport National Bank. The bank had refused to honor them.

There are now several Plainfielders who feel quite anxious to interview Andrews personally. Among them is Dr. R J. Shaw, whose pharmacy is on East Front street. He is said to have lost $120 by cashing worthless checks. J. J. Krausse, manager of the Grand Union Tea Company, is alleged to be out $140 by the same means.

J. H. McVey hasn't received pay for two weeks board. N. H. Saxton, manager of Rheume's lumber yard, is a loser to the amount of $40. Then there are others for smaller amounts. He is also said to have tried his schemes on others but without success.

Last week Andrews was in town from Thursday to Saturday, but the holders of the worthless checks didn't get a chance to meet him. Today Mr. Krausse received a letter from Andrews, post marked Mauch Chunk, in which he said that he would make the checks good.

HOME FOR OLD WORKMEN

TRADES FECERATION VOTE TO ACCEPT MAYOR DRAKE'S OFFER.

The Decision Made Yesterday—Work to Be Started on the Home at Once—Corner Stone to Be Laid July 4th.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Newark, April 10—The New Jersey Federation of Trades and Labor Unions is to erect a home for aged union workmen. Work on the building will begin at once, and it is expected that the corner stone will be laid July 4th. The Executive Board of Federation met yesterday at Newark. It was decided to accept the offer made recently by Mayor Drake, of Lincoln, of a tract of land ample enough for the home and grounds. Mayor Drake also includes in his gift 100 building lots, to be diposed of by sale, the proceeds to be placed in the building fund. The committee will advertise for plans of the home.

Chairman Henry J. Gottlob, of Newark, submitted a report of the legislative work of the Federation. All the bills introduced by the Federation, Mr. Gottlob said, passed the House, but all save three were killed in Senate committees. Of these three two became laws and the third was vetoed by the Governor. The new labor law prohibits the employment of alien workmen on public construction, and provides for semi-monthly payment of wages in cash.

Silas D. Drake, whose ambition is gauged only by the amount of work he can crowd into 365 days in a year, called at The Press office this morning waving a telegram in his hand. It was a message from Mr. Gottlob, of Newark, telling of the action stated above. Mr. Drake was in high glee. He says this work is the cap-stone of his life. The boomer claims the credit of conceiving the idea of this proposed home and taking the initiative step in reference to it. The doughty Mayor says that he has built an opera house, a church, several towns, and a school house, and now he proposes to cap the climax by erecting this magnificent philanthropic institution.

Public Schools Open Again.

The sessions in the Plainfield Public Schools were resumed this morning after the spring vacation. There was a good attendance reported at all the schools. The regular routine of work was resumed at once.

Out of the Hospital.

John LeMaire, of Jackson avenue, who has been at the hospital, where he underwent an operation, has been discharged cured. He appreciates very much what the physicians and nurses have done for him.

RELIGIOUS DEVOTION AT THE CONFERENCE.

The Attending Clergymen Filled Pulpits in Local Churches.

NEW DEACONS AND ELDERS

ANNIVERSARIES OF SUNDAY-SCHOOL UNION AND TRACT SOCIETY.

Rev W. C. Snodgrass, of Plainfield, Occupied the Pulpit in Calvary Church in Orange—The Report of Presiding Elder Smith, of the Elizabeth District, Showed a Prosperous Condition.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Newark, April 10.—Yesterday was one of quiet religious devotion at the Methodist Episcopal conference, the attending clergymen taking part in the services of the various churches of the city and suburbs. In Calvary church in Orange yesterday morning Rev. W. C. Snodgrass, of Plainfield, occupied the pulpit and delivered the sermon.

Rev. Dr. R VanHorne conducted a conference love feast in the Halsey Street church at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. At 10:30 o'clock Bishop Fowler preached an appropriate and eloquent sermon. The church was crowded to the doors.

Bishop Fowler, with simple but impressive ceremony, ordained in the afternoon the following deacons and elders:

Deacons—Chester J. Hoyt, George A. Cain, Merle N. Smith, Charles H. Cookman, Hedding B. Leech, Wilbur W. C. Walker, Edward M. Furman, William Reberger, Howard L. Andrews, Edward McMillan and Wilber Westcott.

Elders—Charles L. Mead, Clyde W. Demmings, Warren R. Neff, Joseph E. Appley, Abel C. McCrea, Wallace B. Fleming, Andrew J. Turner, Ralph B. Urmy, Christopher H. Vonglon, Charles E. Scudder, Floyd J. Seaman, David M. M. Houghtailing and Thomas F. Alexander.

Rev. W. S. Robinson preached a missionary sermon in the Halsey Street church in the evening, and special exercies were held in St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church in celebration of the anniversaries of the Sunday-school Union and Tract Society. Addresses were made by Rev. G. C. D. Wilding and Rev. Dr. T. I. Coultas.

The report of Presiding Elder G. W. Smith, of the Elizabeth district, was read. It was in part as follows:

"The Elizabeth district contains fifty-nine charges, ten of which are in the borough of Brooklyn of Greater New York, and the others are in that charming section of New Jersey, extending from the plains of Succasunna, on the north to the Raritan on the south, and from the Delaware on the west to the Kill von Kull on the east.

"The work has been manned by fifty-nine pastors, more than 1,000 official members, and about 1,300 Sunday-school officers and teachers.

Dr. Smith said that the Elizabeth district churches had been busy all the year paying off debts, building parsonages and improving property. For these purposes $10,000 had been raised.

"The uncompromising foe of the Church," said Dr. Smith, "is the liquor saloon. In but one community in the district have we known of instances where members have so far forgotten their vows as to sign applications for licenses, and they were so speedily brought by the church to account that they acknowledged their wrong-doing and promised to reform their ways."

"It is sometimes said," remarked Dr. Smith, in conclusion, "that ministers are not practical business men, but I wish to say that the enterprises which have been named, resulting in freeing of the churches from crushing debts, and carrying forward important improvements have all been led by the pastors. It is sometimes hinted that if the pastors would do thus and so, great things would be accomplished, for this or that cause. It is but just to say that the causes themselves could not live were it not for the loyalty and devotion of the pastors, many of whom subject themselves to great self-denial."

Preached to Soldiers' Wives.

Rev. W. H. McKane, pastor of the Christian church, preached a special sermon to the members of the Woman's Relief Corps last night. There was a large delegation present, and also several G. A. R. men with their wives. Among them was W.C. Smith, department commander. Mr. McKane chose the Civil War as the subject of his discourse, and related reminiscences of the great struggle.

—E. H. Chappell, of West Fourth street, has moved to East Front street.

NEGROES IN PORTO RICO

DR. CARROLL GIVES THE COLORED MEN A HIGH CHARACTER.

The President's Commissioner Says They Form the Best Part of Mechanics—Practical and Hard Headed Thinkers

Dr. H. K. Carroll, of Westervelt avenue, the President's special commissioner to examine into the political and social conditions in Porto Rico, was much impressed by the high character of the negro population there. The most capable builders, carpenters, bricklayers, masons, printers, plumbers and artisans generally are negroes, he said. They mingle with the white workmen on terms of perfect equality, and so far as Dr. Carroll could find, there is no color line. When he held public hearings in the different towns in the island to get at the public sentiment, representatives of the artisans' guilds or gremios came before him. More than half of the delegates selected by the gremios to meet him were negroes. He found them, he says, practical and hard-headed thinkers.

Dr. Carroll's report on the general conditions in Porto Rico, points out in a part of his report the primary and final importance of good roads as follows:

"Bad roads also reduce the profits to planters and raise the prices of the necessaries of life in the interior. It is idle to talk of prosperity, good schools and good government until the means of transportation are provided. With this advantage, Porto Rico has a brilliant prospect."

FUN GALORE FOUND AT THE RED MEN'S FAIR.

CAKEWALKS SEEM TO BE POPULAR.

1,000 Persons in Attendance Saturday Night—A Fine Programme For Tonight.

Saturday night witnessed the biggest crowd yet at the Red Men's fair, fully 1,000 people being in the hall between the hours of 9 and 12 o'clock. The principal attraction was the cakewalk, in which two couples took part, Miss Anna Seals, of Somerville, and John Kennedy, and Miss Hogan and Michael Higgins.

The judges meant to give the prize to the latter couple, but in the announcement made a mistake and declared Kennedy and Miss Seals the winners. Wm Newcorn, who presented the cakes, made everything all right by handing each couple a cake.

Other features of the evening were piano solos by Miss Laura Radin, vocal solos by John Moran, and buck and wing dancing by Springer and Lusardi.

Tonight fifty-eight Indian bucks and squaws will repeat the scene of Wednesday night, and will also present an exhibition of an Indian encampment. George Thatcher, the well-known comedian, is expected to be present, and so are Springer and Lusardi. The prizes will be awarded at the close of the fair, which is expected to end in a general good time.

INDOOR CYCLING AT AN END.

Society Awheel for the Last Time in the Rink.

The Plainfield society people were awheel again at the rink Saturday night, probably for the last time this season. A pleasant evening was spent, and the only regret is that these indoor rides were not begun earlier in the winter. The affair, like those in the past, was managed by the F. L. C. Martin Cycle Co.

A feature of the evening was the trick riding by John Keefe, formerly with the F. L. C. Martin Cycle Co, but now with a theatrical troupe. The patronesses were Mrs. J. W. Reinhart, Mrs. Samuel Huntington and Mrs. Joseph M. Myers. Miss Andrews and Mr. West led the drill, music for which was furnished by N. H. Guttman. There were about fifty present.

The Latest and Best.

The Union Building and Loan Asciation opens a new series this evening. This is the most wide-awake and progressive building loan in Plainfield, and it is heartily recommended to all. Anyone looking for a safe and profitable investment for their savings are not obliged to look any further. Any further information about this association will be cheerfully given to anyone who will call at the office of the association in the Marsh building, 203 Park avenue, corner of Second street.

Presided at the Organ.

Herbert J. Harold, of East Fifth street, presided at the organ in Trinity Reformed church yesterday during the absence of A. L. Titsworth, who was suddenly called to Philadelphia.

—L. W. Randolph will lead the Endeavor meeting in Trinity Reform church tonight at 8 o'clock. Visitors always welcome.

TRYING TO RETIRE A PASTOR AT MT. HOREB

Rev. H. D. Opdyke Not Liked by Some of His Congregation.

BUT HE HAS DEFIED THEM.

ALSO A SCHOOL TRUSTEE AND OVERSEER OF ROADS.

A Committee of Dissatisfied Members Appealed to Bishop Fowler and Tried to Prevent His Reappointment by the Conference — Charged With Running Political Picnics and Other Matters.

Rev. H. D. Oppyke is pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Mt. Horeb, with subordinate charges at Springdale and Martinville. This charge he has held for four years. During that time there has been troubles of all kinds to upset the progress of religion. Now the people have arisen in their indignation and have appeared before Bishop Fowler, who presides over the conferece now being held in Newark, and have asked to have Rev. Mr. Opdyke removed from the charge. The pastor has by good management succeeded in keeping his place for four years, much against the will, it is said, of a large majority of the parishoners, but with a majority of the board of trustees with him he has remained.

Last year the pastor had the quarterly conference called three weeks earlier than usual and thus managed to keep his place for another year. The Presiding Elder, G. W. Smith, formerly of this city, but now of Staten Island, has been called a number of times to the church to settle difficulties. The opposing faction sent a committeee to Newark to see the Bishop. They laid the troubles before him and told him how the church was suffering and how the support was being taken away.

When confronted with charges Mr. Opdyke denies them all. Among some of things that has grieved the people are the picnics that are held from time to time in Morris and Hunterdon counties. These picnics, the people say, are political gatherings. On one occasion Senator Daly attended and a number of political addresses were made, in which Pastor Opdyke took part. The pastor is also overseer of roads and a member of the school board, while his daughter teaches the school. Miss Opdyke, it is said, is not liked and an effort has been made to remove her, but her father succeeds in having the other members of the board stand by him.

The pastor gets his strength from a majority of the trustees in the church, among whom are Nelson Sautter, Thomas Clark, George Davis, William Vactor, Wm. Quick and Eli Doty. A committee composed of Manning Coddinton, Frank Elliot, Lemuel Tunison, J. VanNest and Wm. Smith, went before Bishop Fowler and complained of their pastor and asked to have him removed.

Today a committee of the pastor's friends went to Newark for the purpose of presenting their story and having the pastor returned to Mt. Horeb. Tomorrow the appointments are to be made.

Yesterday Pastor Opdyke returned from the conference and after service he called a meeting of the board of trustees. He told them that he understood that they had been falsifying about him. To this question some of the members stood by what they had said and talked plainly to the pastor.

The pastor receives a salary of about $700, of which amount Mt. Horeb gives $400, Springdale $150 and Martindale about 125.

Time for Trailing Arbutus.

The time for the appearance of the trailing arbutus in the vicinity of Bonhamtown has arrived. There were a number who wheeled or drove there Saturday afternoon and yesterday, but they found very few flowers, indeed. There were plenty of buds, however, and a warm rain followed by the sun will bring out a profusion of them There is said to be more this year than for a long time. The sand hills, where they are found, have not been burnt over this year so the arbutus has not suffered in that way.

Telephone Company Working Fast.

The New York and New Jersey Telephone Company is loosing no time in preparing its system to connect with the cables in the underground conduits. The turret-like boxes are placed on the distributing poles and the poles are now being connected with the conduits. In a short time, the work of stringing the wires from the boxes to connect with the present lines will be started.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. H. Hardy, of Brooklyn, spent Sunday at the home of A. L Force, 82 Duer street.

THE PALACES AND TEMPLES OF ANCIENT EGYPT

had their walls shining with gold and sparkling with precious stones, but modern art has contrived to design decorations of a less costly character in the beautiful designs and refined colors and shades of Wall papers, friezes, etc., such as Woolston & Buckle keep in their varied and elegant stock at such tempting prices.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

ROGERS.
232 West 2d St.

Seafood for Health
Always
Desirable
when direct from the nets.

M. E. STEPHENSON,
146 NORTH AVE.

Weddings, Dinners and Receptions supplied with every requisite. China, Glass, Linen and Silver to loan.

ESTIMATES
cheerfully furnished. Telephone orders will receive prompt attention.

TELEPHONE 624.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections
210 PARK AVE.

PHILLIP SWAIN,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES, and LOOKING GLASSES.
317 West Front street.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street. 8 15

HOTEL KENSINGTON
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107, 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

SOMERSET HOTEL
Somerset St. and Lincoln Place.
North Plainfield, N. J.
W. F. DREYER, Proprietor.
AMPLE ACCOMODATIONS FOR MAN AND BEAST.

E. B. Maynard,
NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

NEUMAN BROS.,
GROCERS,
Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

John G. Bantle,
428 WATCHUNG AVENUE.
First-class
TAILOR
SPECIALTY OF
Ladies' Tailor-made Garments
Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

DOBBINS. CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

New York Announcement.
SPRING—1899.
Horner's Furniture.

The BEST IN THE MARKET, because representing the productions of the best makers only. Other advantages are the unequalled assortments in all lines, whether wanted for city or country houses, and the very moderate prices at which the goods are marked.

The completeness of our assortments can best be understood from the fact that we carry in stock, and exhibit, more than two hundred and fifty distinctly different Bedroom Sets in every variety of material, as well as endless lines of Parlor, Drawing Room, Library and Dining Room Furniture, ranging from the modest and inexpensive to the most elaborately carved and inlaid.

In a word, every article required for use, comfort and adornment in the household can be had with its plainly marked moderate price at the Great Furniture Emporium of

R. J. Horner & Co.,
Furniture Makers and Importers,
61-65 W. 23d St., New York
(Adjoining Eden Musee.)
Horner & Co.'s establishment is one of the sights of New York.—Newspaper Comment.

EDUCATIONAL.

GREGG SHORTHAND SCHOOL
Babcock Building,
The latest and best system. Stenographers filling positions after 3 months.
DAY AND EVENING.
W. E. Van Wert, Principal.
Standard Typwriters in use.

MISS SARAH A. PALMER,
TEACHER OF PIANO (Virgil Method AND THEORY IN ALL ITS BRANCHES.
The Virgil method and the Practice Clavier give to the pupil not only finger agility, but also mental control and concentration, whereby alone the best results can be obtained.
132 Crescent Avenue.

Piano Instruction
Virgil Clavier Method a specialty.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
915 MADISON AVE.
Sight Reading Classes, vocal and instrumental.

F. V. L. Goodwin,
TEACHER OF MUSIC.
Lessons given at home on Piano. Special attention to beginners. Residence.
105 MANNING AVENUE,
North Plainfield, N. J.

SHORTHAND! BOOKKEEPING!
No better systems can be found than those taught in : : : :
PLAINFIELD BUSINESS COLLEGE,
City Bank Building.
Both sexes. Day and Night. Come and see us.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Dufft.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street. Plainfield, N. J

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE,
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's hall, No. 109 Park avenue, at 8:15 p m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711.
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

This question of

EYES

is a most serious one. Too lengthy to discuss here. If your eyes are causing you discomfort, or if you suffer with headache, neuralgia or pain in the eyes, consult our specialist at

107 E. Front Street Every Thursday

Hours 10 to 5. Free Examination. Work guaranteed.

LEECH, STYLES & CO.

REVERE HOUSE
PARK AVENUE, 7th and 8th sts. | PLAINFIELD, New Jersey
Families accomodated for the Spring and Summer months at greatly reduced prices.
The house contains all modern improvements lighted by Gas and Electricity. Sanitary arrangements perfect. Cuisene unsurpassed
GEO. B. DE REVERE.

MRS. CROKER SEES MOSS

Interesting Testimony Before the N. Y. Investigating Committee.

INFLUENCE COST BIG MONEY

Builders Tell of Princely Fees of $5 000 and $10,000 Each to Retain McCann, Croker,s Nephew, as Counsel to Have Material Passed by the Building Commission.

New York, April 10.—In opening the first public session of the committee, Chairman Mazet had the clerk read the Assembly resolution of March 29 authorizing the investigation, and then call the roll, all the members of the committee answering "Present!" except Assemblyman Wilson. Frank Moss, the counsel, then set forth the committee's purposes as follows:

"Mr. Chairman, before we proceed I desire to say for the associate counsel that we undertake this work together with the idea that its purpose is that legislation may be passed to remedy evil conditions which it is believed exist, and which we will undertake to develop. The investigation, preliminary, which we have made convinces us that the conditions exist, and we purpose to show it to you in such a way that the Legislature may pass the immediate legislation that may be needed. That is our view of the work which we have undertaken.

"I wish to say that the counsel will proceed in this matter together with the committee, and are proceeding with perfect confidence in each other, and that the investigation and development of the testimony will be the result of the conferences that will be held between the counsel and the chairman of the committee, as such conferences have been held. We wish to say that we invite the confidence of the people generally throughout the country. They may come to us with perfect freedom and depend upon our proper treatment of the matters that are laid before us, and depend upon our utmost endeavor to protect them from any interference with their rights."

Dr. O'Sullivan's Clients.

Mr. Mazet said he had nothing to add to Mr. Moss' explanations. Then, before an opportunity was given for any witnesses to be called, Dr. J. O'Sullivan asked permission to go on record as appearing as counsel for the officials involved in the inquiry. He said the heads of departments were as anxious as the committee to discover any wrongdoing, and that his instructions were to facilitate the inquiry in every way.

"As to the status of Dr. O'Sullivan in this matter," interrupted Mr. Moss, "I would like to have it represented a little more clearing. The counsel on this side of the table represent seven gentlemen of the Assembly, who are to sit to conduct this examination. We know exactly whom we represent, and if Dr. O'Sullivan is to have any status at all we should know who retains him. I do not understand that he comes from the office of the Corporation Counsel, but is here under some special retainer, and I would like it to be put on the record who has retained him."

"For one department, I am retained by the Police Department," said Dr. O'Sullivan.

One surprise followed another in the first day's work of the Mazet investigating committee.

Frank Moss, the committee's counsel, plunged first into the Department of Buildings, then took up the fat contracts of the Tammany firm of Naughton & Co., and finally delved earnestly into the conduct of the Police Department.

The powers, privileges and perquisites of members of the family of Richard Croker, the Tammany chieftain, formed the subject of the preliminary examinations. After he had taken up this lead Mr. Moss struck right out from the shoulder.

Frank Croker Called.

Mr. Moss caused a sensation by calling to the stand Frank Croker, one of Mr. Croker's sons. The failure of young Mr. Croker to respond made another sensation. The subsequent appearance of Mrs. Richard Croker in the County Court House an dthe calling to the stand of Mr. Croker's nephew, Charles E. F. McCann, accentuated the line in which Mr. Moss evidently was proceeding.

Charles Stark, who had been sent by Mr. Moss to serve a subpoena on Frank Croker, reported to the committee's counsel that he was satisfied young Croker was at the family home, No. 5 East Seventy-fourth street, when he went there yesterday morning to serve the subpoena. If Mr. Stark is not mistaken, the son of Tammany's leader left the city later and his whereabouts could not be learned by Mr. Moss. Mrs. Croker explained to Mr. Mazet that her son was out of the city.

A system for fireproof work in buildings, in use in other cities, has been officially prescribed in New York. Architects who had been convinced of its merits found that their plans calling for its use were invariably rejected, and they were compelled to adopt a system far more expensive, said to be heavier and for that reason less desirable.

There was a sudden reorganization of the Roebling Company. Richard Croker's son, Frank and James W. Hinkley became stockholders. The objections then vanished. Not only were plans calling for the use of the system approved, but in the specifications for bids on new schoolhouses the language used by the corporation in its advertising pamphlets were literally copied, and other concerns were practically barred from competition.

Young Mr. Charles E. F. McCann, a member of the bar, who had been appointed Deputy Assistant District Attorney by Colonel Asa Bird Gardiner, received magnificent fees from the owner of the fireproof system. Where many lawyers of his age were plodding along on incomes of a few hundred dollars Mr. McCann was getting retainers running into the thousands. Indeed, he was not quite certain whether he had asked the representatives of one corporation for $5,000 or $10,000 to appear as their counsel at the sessions of the Building Codes Commission.

The local manager of one of the fireproofing concerns that has had trouble with the Building Department gave a slightly different version of Mr. McCann's position. He said the young man had referred to a proposition to grade the different fireproof systems so as to permit some to be used on any style of construction, others to be limited to buildings of one hundred feet in height or less, while the rest would be confined to comparatively small houses. A fee of $10,000 was required for placing this particular system in the second class. More must be paid if there was to be no limit or restriction on the use.

William P. Tostevin, president of the Tostevin-Hayes Fireproof Construction Company, made the only direct charge of the day against a city department. He testified that he had been sent to see Cornelius Daly about having the product of his company approved by the Department of Buildings, and that Daly had suggested a consideration of $2,000 as a proper basis for arranging the matter.

Chief Devery was the main witness. He was on the stand for two hours. Mr. Moss put him through a severe examination, but the Chief held his own in a way that delighted his friends. Mr. Moss did not finish with him, however, and will continue his examination.

"Con." Daly's Expensive Pull.

William P. Tostevin's testimony was in part as follows: He said he had gone to see Mr. "Con" Daly.

Q. Where did you find him? A. In his saloon, No. 581 Columbus avenue.

Q. Tell me about the conversation you had with Mr. Daly? A. Not knowing Mr. Daly, I walked into the saloon, and there were two men behind the bar both in their shirt sleeves. I inquired of the first one, and asked if Mr. Cornelius Daly was in. He said, "Yes; this is the gentleman," pointing to the next man on his right. I walked over to the gentleman and I said: "Is your name Mr. Cornelius Daly?" He said: "It is." Said he, "What can I do for you?" Without informing him of my name or my connection with any matter, or of anything else, I said to him, "I have been referred to you by Mr. John Dooner, the Superintendent of the Department of Buildings."

He said, "Oh, yes, yes, yes. Can you excuse me for a moment?" I said, "Certainly." He put on his coat, it being, I presume, a Raines law hotel. I did not go up to see, but from the character of the building I judge it was. He busied himself with some people inquiring for rooms, and finally he said, "I am now at your service." I handed him this business card as being a card of introduction, not stating whether my name was W. P. Tostevin or George Hayes, or whether I was anybody else.

"He said," continued Mr. Fostevin, 'I am now at liberty to see you,' and he conducted me to one of these private compartments that saloons of that kind have, and he said, 'Now, what can I do for you?' Said I, 'That is just what I have come here to see. As I told you, I have been referred to you by Mr. John Dooner, the Superintendent of Buildings.' He then picked up the card and glanced at it, closely examined it, and he said, 'Oh, yes; you are in the fireproof constructing business.' I said, 'Yes.'"

"'I suppose,' he said, 'it is in relation to obtaining the approval of the Department of Buildings to your system of construction?' I said, 'I guess that is right.' We talked over a few minor matters. You will notice that the card is marked in the description of arches, etc. I had a piece of paper in addition to that card, which I have lost. I started in to describe the different systems of construction that we were using.

"We talked over the different constructions, and he finally said to me, 'Your construction is not approved by the Building Department, is it?' I said, 'No, it is not.'

"He said, 'What do you think it is worth to receive the approval of the Building Department to your system of construction?'

"I said, 'I think that is a question you had better answer yourself. There might be a difference of opinion between us in regard to values.' He thought over it for a few moments, and he said:

"'Give me $2,000 worth of stock, make me a director of your company, and we will locate the balance, the $3,000, by selling it at a price that may be agreed upon, and we will turn it into the treasury, if agreed upon, or divide the "rake off" among the stockholders.'

"'At any rate,' he said, 'Mr. Tostevin, I'll tell you what to do. Now, you go home and see your company and consult with them, and meet me at any time you say by previous notice at my place of business along about this time every day, or after, say, 2 o'clock or 3 o'clock on the Exchange, No. 59 Liberty street, I think it is.' Well, I dropped him. I never went near him after that."

THE POPE'S DANGER.

Periods of Weakness May Result in Syncope Without the Power to Rally.

Rome, April 10.—The Pope has atheromatous patches on his aorta.

His danger lies in the periods of debility, which may result in syncope, with an inability to rally.

His Holiness continues to improve. He has a good appetite, sleeps well and takes indoor exercise, only waiting till the weather allows him to resume his visits to the garden.

He now grants several official audiences daily.

Further particulars regarding the farewell audience accorded Archbishop Ireland by the Pope last show that it lasted half an hour, and was of a most cordial nature throughout. The Pontiff strove to prove his great esteem of the Archbishop and the friendly feeling he had for him. He congratulated the Archbishop upon having been chosen by the French Episcopate to preach the panegyric of Joan of Arc, on May 7, and said, smiling sadly:

"I hope to see you again, but if God takes me before your return remember I have always felt a fatherly love and interest in yourself and all American Catholics, to whom I send my blessing."

Moving Pictures of Cleveland.

Princeton, N. J., April 10.—Ex-President Cleveland has consented to sit before a mutoscope. The pictures taken by the machine will be exhibited with those of the late President Felix Faure of France and of Pope Leo.

Monroe B. Long, M D., President. | Eugene M. Laing, Vice-President.
Robert A. Meeker, Secretary. | Robert J. Shaw, Treasurer.

THE UNION BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.
OFFICE, 203 PARK AVENUE.

Special Features

A uniform Loaning Rate of $8.67 Per month on each $1,000 borrowed. ANY additional amount may be paid in, no matter how small, with any monthly installment; thus maturing the stock that much sooner.

It accommodates itself to the financial condition of the borrower instead of compelling him to pay a certain fixed amount each month.

Liberal Withdrawals With Interest

THE MEMBERS MAY WITHDRAW AT ANY TIME AND RECEIVE THE WHOLE AMOUNT PAID IN AND AFTER ONE YEAR SIX PER CENT INTEREST ON THE SAME.

The whole or any part of the loan can be paid off at any time.

A New Series Issued Every Month.

To Investors

PAID-UP OR INCOME STOCK, COSTING $60 PER SHARE AND BEARING 5 PER CENT INTEREST AND HAVING A MATURITY VALUE OF $100 PER SHARE is issued from time to time, as the board of directors may determine, and is especially desirable for those wishing a secure and profitable investment.

For further particulars inquire at the office 203 Park Ave., Room 8, or address the secretary,

R. A. MEEKER,
203 PARK AVE.

Leggett's
SYRUP WHITE PINE AND TAR
is growing more popular every day. Why? Because it is a simple, palatable, reliable
Cough Remedy.
Try it, is all we ask.
25c. a Bottle.
Leggett's Pharmacy,
Y. M. C. A. Building.

E. D. BARRETT,
Sanitary Plumbing.
Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Telephone 612. 148 East Fifth Street.
4 3 1m

BICYCLES BICYCLES
George Gould,
AGENT FOR
VICTOR, PATEE, WAVERLY, IVANHOE and NASSAU SPECIAL
Rents, Repairs, Sundries and Storage.
326 PARK AVENUE.
CLIFTON BUILDING.

MISS JENKINS,
PARLOR MILLINERY
303 East Sixth Street.

EUROPE, starting June 29, 69 days, 48 days or 41 days; English coaching, Holland, Germany, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, Paris. Experience, fourteen years. Particulars of HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS, Plainfield, N.J.

F. A. LONG,
No. 106 SOMERSET ST.
Near Manning Avenue.
Up-to-Date Cash Grocery Store
Orders called for and delivered in any part City or Dunellen.

ARLINGTON HOTEL.
(Splendid Mountain View.)
SOMERSET ST. AND GREENBROOK ROAD.
Charles Jensen, Prop'r.
First-class bar. Large parlor with piano for parties, receptions etc. Stable and shed accommodations.

L. L. Manning & Son,
STEAM
GRANITE WORKS.
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

Receiver's Notice.

THOMAS E. H. CURTIS, Receiver of the Hall Electric Pump Company, by direction of the Chancellor of the State of New Jersey, hereby gives notice to the creditors of the said Hall Electric Pump Company, to present to the undersigned, Receiver, and prove before him under oath or affirmation or otherwise, as the said Receiver shall direct, to the satisfaction of the said Receiver, their several claims and demands against the said Hall Electric Pump Company, within two months from the sixth day of April A. D. 1899, or they will be excluded from the benefit of such dividends as may thereafter be made and declared by the Chancellor upon the proceeds of the effects of said Hall Electric Pump Company.

Dated, Plainfield, N. J., April 6th, 1899.
THOMAS E. H. CURTIS, Receiver
Craig A. Marsh, Sol'r. 4 8 4w

BE ON TIME
If you want first choice of our new lot of
: House Gowns
at $1.00 each. Quality, Fit, Style perfect in every way.
VanEmburgh & Son.

SHOES FOR EVERYBODY.

For Spring we have picked from the best makers as just right at our just right prices just such shoes as will suit the big majority.

We call your attention this week to the VanArsdale $3.00 shoe—for men and women—These shoes are doing us lots of good, but we have better ones, and we have them for less money, and every grade is as good as shoemaking can make them.

VAN ARSDALE,
Repairing Properly Done. 127 East Front St.

J. F. MacDonald. UPTOWN GROCER. 186 E. Front Street.

20 Fresh Eggs, direct from farmers	25c
Best Jersey E R. Potatoes	43c basket
Best Oil, 5 gal.	45c
Minnesota Flour	55c bag, $4.35 bbl
4 lbs. Carolina Rice	25c
Best Oatmeal	3c lb
Best Pure Lard, no compound	7c lb
Large California Prunes	4 lbs for 25c
O. K. B. Powder	18c
Gold Medal Milk	8c
Kirkman's Borax Soap (6 C. box)	23c
Fine Tomatoes	7c can
Fine Corn	6c can
N. O. Molasses	33c Gal
2 bottles Best Maple Syrup	25c
Canned Salmon	8 can
Pea Beans	5c quart
Lima Beans	8c quart
Lemon and Ginger Snaps	5c lb

We won't say anything about our 20c Coffee. Everybody uses it.

SPECIAL SALE

Over 13 hundred pairs of shoes. Nothing to say about the price, only that the lowness of it will surprise everybody.

SHERWIN'S, 149 West Front St.

R. FRUCHT NO. 218 to 224 PARK AVENUE.
Wholesale and Retail Dealer in
BICYCLES,
Saddles, Handlebars, Oils, Carbon for Bicycle Gas Lamps, Pedals, Cement, Rims, Hubs, Spokes.

and all other articles pertaining to Bicycles. Also dealer in Edison Graphophone and photograph materials, and also sole agent for Plainfield of the Tribune Bicycle, the best in the world. I have taken permanent possession of the premises I recently purchased, 218, 222 and 224 Park avenue, nearly opposite North avenue, and there opened a bicycle store and repair shop, and will sell bicycles and bicycle goods at great bargains. Every man and woman who deals with me will save money. I buy for spot cash and sell for same, thus saving a percentage which I share with my customers. I guarantee to sell goods of this kind as low as can be purchased in New York City or elsewhere. My policy is to give my customers the full benefit of the lowest cash prices for best goods. Call at my store and procure my prices and be covinced. t-s

---

GOOD SHOE TRADE!

We are doing a good shoe trade on our "Specialty" shoes for Men and Women, such as are advertised in the leading magazines. The best made for the least money.

For Women, "S & S," $5 and $4, "Sorosis" $3.50, "Superior" $3, "H & S" $3, and down to $2.50, $2, $1 50, $1.25, 98c.

For Men, "J & M." Best made at any price, $5.00, "Elite" $3.50, and on down to $3, $2 50, $2, $1.50, $1 25 All guaranteed best wearing shoes sold for the price, and latest styles. No need at all to go to New York. Peddie's Trunks, Dress Suit Cases and Bags.

SEE ELEGANT DISPLAY IN OUR SHOW WINDOWS.

DOANE & EDSALL.

When March winds blow,
And our face and hands chap so
USE CHAP CURE.
Manufactured only by
T. S. ARMSTRONG, "The Apothecary"
COR. NORTH AND PARK AVES.

STANDARD FOR THE WORLD.
Stop and See the
1899 Chainless
and others.
We have a few bargains in
SECOND HAND WHEELS.
COLUMBIA BICYCLE AGENCY.
405 PARK AVENUE. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED IN REPAIR WORK by C. L. Thorn, of the Columbia Agency.

Direct from the Manufacturer to the Consumer.

ONE BIG WEEK.

Last Week Was One Continuous Rush from Monday Morning Until Saturday Night.

The old adage "Prices Tell," has been well illustrated with us by the patronage we have received since we opened the retail store.

The comment of all our customers are summed up in one sentence, viz; The cheapest line of stylish well-made clothing we ever saw. Here is a list of some of our most ready sellers.

Lot 4734, 5086, 5081, 5094 — 3.50 These are men's sack suits in fancy mixtures and we recommend them to anybody who wants solid wear for little money. $5.00 is cheap for them.

Lot 4567, 4561, 5067, 5059 — 3.75 These have been general favorites and are going fast. We were compelled to fill in on some of them. They are all right.

Lot 4600, 4605, 4589, 4592 — 4.75 Strictly all wool. We invite you to compare this line with the average $8.00 suit.

Lot 5232, 4630, 5011, 5027 — 5.00 Cheviots and fancy worsteds fit for anybody to wear any place. We have 19 styles at $5.00.

Ask to see Lot 5319, 5322, and 5380, 5383. These are $10.00 and they are beauties.

Lot 4896—Blue Serge, wire woven, $6.75, worth $10.00.
Lot 5406—Blue Serge, wide wale, very popular, $7.00. Compare them with the ordinary $12.00 suit.

Come and see our silk-lined overcoat, silk-lined to the edge. Those Fancy Vests the $4.00 kind, we have them for $2.00. You will be surprised to know that we sell a child's suit with extra pants for 98 cents.

SCHEPFLIN & SCHULTZ,

M. J. CASHIN, Manager Retail Store.

322 West Front Street. Schepflin Block.

Important Silk Sale.

A Manufacturer's stock of several qualities in plain amd fancy Silks, representing hundreds of yards of this season's newest patterns and colors. All offered at the lowest prices ever known for equal fabrics.

PLAIN TAFFETAS in 30 different colors, worth fully $1.00 yd. at 75c.

FANCY TAFFETAS, in satin striped and plaid effects, worth $1.19, at 85c a yard.

BLACK SATIN DUCHESSE, perfect in weave, a quality we can recommend, worth 79c, at 65c yard.

PLAIN ALL SILK TAFFETAS, in maroon, cerise, tourquise, and helio, while they last at 49c yard.

LADIES' TAILORED JACKETS, in covert cloth, box front, strapped seams, at 3.49 reduced from 4.45.

PRETTY REEFERS, for children, in fancy checks, braid trimmed, large Sailor Collar, worth 2.00, at 1.39.

A RARE CHANCE in fancy plaid Skirts, strictly all wool, percaline lined, velvet bound, buttoned back, worth 5.00 at 3.25.

We carry a complete line of celebrated "KENOSHA BLACK CAT BRAND" of Hosiery, triple knees and wear longer than any other stocking in the market, sizes 5½ to 10½ in medium and light weight, at 25c a pair.

BOEHM'S.

YOU Should See

The Great Showing OF SHIRT .... WAISTS AT LEDERER'S.

POWEL'S BEEF PROCESS

It Was This Which Stirred Up the Entire Army Scandal.

HARMLESS SAYS INVENTER

No Acids or Anything Else Injected Into Beef to Preserve It—Fumigation the Method Used—Preserved Meat Served to Customers by Many Hotels—Army Officers Condemn Canned Beef Supplied.

Washington, April 10.—The beef court of inquiry heard Saturday the inventor of the processing of beef that has been so often described as "embalmed beef." Much information was brought out, but more than the court believed it should compel the chief witness to give was not obtained.

The court learned that Mr. Powel has been serving processed beef to many consumers, none of whom has found it detrimental to health or productive of illness. The court did not consider that it was obliged to insist upon having evidence that would destroy the business of a witness. Of the process, it was said by a member of the court that it was so simple that a patent could not be obtained for it, and that it was nothing more nor less than fumigation with sulphur and saltpetre. The meat, it is asserted, processed in this way, is served to very prominent hotels and restaurants.

Mr. Powel stated that he had been a dealer in meats in New York for the past twenty-five years. He explained at some length that he was the sole owner of the Powel process for preserving fresh meats without the use of ice; that the formula was a secret, and that it was not patented because so eminently simple. He declared emphatically that neither boric nor salicylic acid was used in the process, nor, he added, "is there any injection or immersion in chemicals. The process is applied by fumigation. There would be no smell except that of sulphur for a half hour or so after the application; nor would any taste be noticeable."

Mr. Powel gave the particulars of his treatment of a carload of Armour's beef which was sent to Tampa in the spring of 1898. When he heard that the contract was to be given by the Government he had reached the conclusion that the Government ought to have the use of the process, and he had written to the President, to Gen. Miles, and to Gen. Eagan, asking where he should apply to have the process used. Gen. Eagan had replied that the department was not engaged in purchasing any process, but that it could only deal with those who would supply the meat and guarantee that it should keep.

He said that the process was applied to a car of six carcasses of beef at Chicago owned by Armour & Co. He had made the arrangement with Mr. Connors, the superintendent of Armour & Co., agreeing that they should have the preference in the use of the process for the use of the Government. These carcasses were taken to Tampa the latter part of May last, and Col. Weston secured four of the carcasses, exposing them in the sun for about eighty hours. It was after this exposure that Col. Weston of the Commissary Department made his report, which was commendatory.

Mr. Powel said later that not to his knowledge had Armour & Co. used the process during the war, nor had it ever been used by any one except himself. There were, however, other beef-preservative processes in the market.

"Dos your process resemble the embalming process at all?" asked Major Lee.

"Not in the least," replied Mr. Powel, "but I see no reason why it could not be so used—wny human bodies could not be preserved by its use. However, there is no resemblance to the embalming process."

Mr. Powel said that he had known of hotels in which beef prepared by him and which it gave the best satisfaction. He had only a verbal contract with Armour & Co., but the understanding was that if that firm got the contract it was to have the exclusive control of the process during the continuation of the contract only. He was to have 50 cents per 100 for its use—about $200 per carload. He had not attempted to make any arrangement with Swift & Co., the successful bidders at the time, but after the battle of Santiago had written to Mr. Swift on the subject, furnishing him a sample of the beef that had been treated. Nothing, however, had come of it.

Mr. Powel said that he made no claim that his process would not discolor beef. Any process would cause a change in appearance. After the use of his process, beef would look like meat that had been in cold storage for two weeks, darkening the grain and bleaching the fat. There would be a smell of sulphur for an hour, as sulphur was one of the articles used in the fumigation.

The witness said that refrigerated meat which had not been kept cool enough would look slimy and be dark of grain. He considered it impossible to keep fresh meat for seventy-two hours after leaving a refrigerator without a preservative process, and he was of the opinion that any agreement to keep it so long in the climate of Cuba after taking it out of the refrigerator must involve some preservative process. He thought if thoroughly frozen it would keep from twelve to twenty hours, and not longer.

The reading of the unfavorable reports of the army officers upon the canned roast beef as an army ration was concluded. The reports read included sixty or seventy statements from army officers.

Capt. George B. Davis, who was Gen. Eagan's principal assistant in the Commissary General's office during the war, was recalled to give testimony concerning a shipment of canned roast beef to the troops at Dunn Loring, Va. He said many cans of the canned beef had been opened in the office, and he had never found any that did not contain wholesome meat.

Before concluding, Capt. Davis asked permission to make a brief statement in response to Mr. De Caindry. He said that his charge of the files of the Commissary General's Office was only perfunctory, and that he had a search made for the memoranda which Mr. De Caindry had reported as missing, and had found one of them. He had never removed any papers from the files.

On Jan. 11, when T. J. Connors, the writer of the letter for Armour & Co., was before the President's investigating commission, he testified that he had had charge of the beef business in Chicago before coming East. He testified that he had never used any chemicals, either boracic acid, salicylic acid, or nitrate of potash, nor even common salt.

"When we first started out in the dressed beef business," he testified, "our opponents, the wholesale meat dealers in the East, raised a cry with regard to our beef being embalmed. That was the general complaint they made about it, and they have never been able to verify it."

Connors's letter, written in July, referred to packages of beef that had been embalmed, and told how it was to be treated to last 100 hours, instead of the 72 required by Gen. Eagan under his contract, and Conners insisted that beef could last seventy-two hours only whentreated as described.

Arthur Meeker, manager for Armour & Co., testified he had been employed for fourteen years, and that absolutely no chemical agents had bee nused to preserve beef. He had heard of Powel but did not know him, but said that he had bought some beef from one of the Armour houses in Florida, and made some kind of a process with it.

When the practice of economy is a necessity, the cost of the soap used in a year is an important item. The grocer who has an eye to larger profits, may not suggest Ivory Soap, but you insist on having it. Ivory Soap is pure soap, through and through. That makes it the most economical and best.

IT FLOATS.

COPYRIGHT 1896 BY THE PROCTER & GAMBLE CO. CINCINNATI

KANG YU WEI TELLS OF HIS FLIGHT.

Leader of the Chinese Reform Movements Arrives at Vancouver.

Vancouver, B. C., April 10.—Among the passengers on the Nipper Yusen Kaisha liner Idzmi Maru, which arrived here from the Orient, was Kang Yu Wei, who, before the upheaval at Pekin some months ago, was second only to Li Hung Chang in imperial favor in China, but is now a fugitive, with a large price on his head. The story of his escape under sentence of death has been often told. Through an interpreter the leader of the reform movement described his flight as follows:

"I had scarcely got out of the gates of Pekin when they were closed to prevent my escape. I made my way disguised as a coolie to Tien-Tsen and took passage to Weo-Suing. There faithful brothers of a secret order told me that assassins awaited my coming on the starboard side of the British steamer Bullarat, to which I was to be transferred. I simply boarded the steamer on the port side, thus escaping them, and by invitation of the captain was locked in his cabin. When the Empress' assassins saw how they had been tricked they signaled two Chinese war ships, which at once put after the Bullarat. Then two British war ships also pulled out on the stream and from the stern of the Bullarat I watched the Britishers sail across the bows of the Chinese war ships twice, then saw the ships flying the dragon fall in the rear and slowly disappear from view. The British war ships conveyed me to Hong Kong.

"On the wharf at Hong Kong just as I stepped from the steamer, a coolie made a lunge at me with a knife, after that a close body guard of twenty hemmed me in. At the hotel a Chinese cook poisoned my food, but a faithful follower tasted it and suffered in my place. I went from Hong Kong to Tokio. Here the hatchetmen in the Empress' pay tried seven times to kill me, but my close body guard received the wounds often in my stead, fortunately slight ones."

Kung Tu Wei then dressed in European clothes and, boarding the Idzmi, locked himself and eight followers in a room, from which he did not appear for three days. He is going from British Columbia to London.

PORTER TO SUCCEED ALGER.

Ambassador to France Said to be About to Become Secretary of War.

Washington, April 10.—Ambassador Porter, it is again reported to-day, has asked for and received leave to absent himself from his post for a short time, and it is suggested at the Department of State that his return to this country may turn out to be made chiefly to accept the position of Secretary of War, and that Alger is soon to resign.

It is recalled that when Ambassador Porter was questioned, a short time ago, concerning the report that he was to become Secretary of War, he declined to discuss the matter. In connection with the report about Ambassador Porter, it is said that Whitelaw Reid may succeed Mr. Porter as Ambassador to France.

Alger Arrives at San Juan

San Juan, P. R., April 10.—Secretary Alger arived here at noon from Ponce, traveling across the island read.

At Coamo, Aibonito, El Caney, and Caguas he was met by delegations of citizens, and several hundred persons came out a mile from each of the places, carrying flowers and American flags, and escorted Secretary Alger and his party to the towns. Everywhere enthusiastic welcome was extended to the visitors, and feasts were prepared at each stopping place.

At Caguas a delegation presented a petition praying for the pardon of a native who had killed a member of the Forty-seventh Regiment of New York Volunteers. Secretary Alger, however, refused to interfere in the case before consulting with Gen. Guy V. Henry, the Governor General of Puerto Rico.

The visitors were met at Rio Piedras by Gen. Henry and his staff, and were entertained with a breakfast at the City Hall by the Mayor and the Councilmen.

Enthusiastic demonstrations marked the arrival of Secretary Alger in San Juan. A review of the troops was held this afternoon and a dinner will be given in honor of Secretary Alger at Gen. Henry's residence to-night, to be followed by a reception.

Chicago Honors Roosevelt.

Chicago, April 10.—Gov. Theodore Roosevelt, is the guest of Chicago. The Rough Rider reached the city at 8.55 o'clock, and was welcomed by the officials of the Hamilton Club, at whose Appomattox banquet he will speak to-night. In addition to the formal welcome by the Hamilton Club members, the Governor heard three cheers and a tiger, such as terrified the Spaniards around Santiago last summer, from the throats of the Chicago survivors of his regiment, who have arranged to meet their former leader in a body.

Field Corn.

The best dent variety. Ears of large size, set low upon the stalks and nearly always two or more good ears upon each stalk as shown in the illustration. Cob very small, with deep kernels, which are of a rich golden color. It is an immense yielder, having produced 136 bushels of shelled corn per acre; withstands drought better than most other varieties and succeeds of all soils, whether light or heavy, and over a wide range of climate.

GEN. LAWTON ADVANCES

With 1,500 Picked Troops He Embarks in Canoes.

WILL CAPTURE SANTA CRUZ

Intends to Cross the Lake and Take an Important Filipino Position—Then to Sweep Country—Gen. King Accompanies the Expedition in Command of Part of the Troops.

Manila, Philippine Islands, April 10.—At nightfall Saturday Generals Lawton and King launched an expedition of three gunboats, with fifteen hundred picked men, in canoes in tow of the gunboats.

The object of the expedition is to cross Laguna de Bay, capture Santa Cruz and sweep the country to the south.

The expedition, which embarked at San Pedro Macati, consists of eight companies of the Fourteenth Infantry, three companies of the Fourth cavalry, the Fourth Dakota Volunteers, four companies of the Idaho Volunteers, four mountain guns and sharpshooters of the Fourteenth Infantry.

At the mouth of the Pasig River the men wil be transferred from the canoes to the three gunboats, the Laguna de Bay, the Oeste and the Nindapau.

Santa Cruz, the objective point of the expedition, is at the extreme end of the lake.

Quiet in Manila Before a Battle

Washington, D. C., April 10.—Acting Secretary Meiklejohn received a dispatch from Major General Otis, announcing that the situation is quiet at Manila.

It is the peace that precedes a battle. The authorities are confident that a forward movement is impending, and they expect to learn by to-day that General MacArthur's division has advanced from Malolos to Calumpit, where Aguinaldo and a strong force of insurgents are located. General Lawton's advance on the rebels south of Manila is for the purpose of scattering them, and perhaps to make a demonstration. General Otis has not yet communicated his plan of operation to the department, but the authorities are hopeful that General MacArthur will endeavor to defeat Aguinaldo and his men by a flank movement. It is feared that if the troops simply march along the railroad to Calumpit the insurgents will retreat further to the north, so that the movement will not produce any satisfactery results.

The Twenty-first Infantry will leave Plattsburg barracks on Monday for San Francisco, where they will board the transport Hancock and sail for Manila on April 17.

Adjutant General Corbin has received reports from General Otis showing about three thousand six hundred men will be required to bring the complement of men of the regiments up to that authorized by the President under the provisions of the new army law. The men will be sent to Manila as soon as possible.

Dewey Cannot Come Home.

Washington, D. C., April 10.—Secretary Long says that the delicate duties devolving upon Admiral George Dewey, in connection with the restoration of peace and the reorganization of the government in the Philippines, precludes a compliance with the request of the Business Men's Association of Washington, looking to his participation in the proposed peace jubilee in this city next month.

Ex-Justice S. J. Field's Death.

Washington, April 10.—Justice Stephen J. Field of the United States Supreme Court, retired, died at his home, on Capitol Hill in this city, at 6.30 o'clock last evening, from kidney complications. About his bedside were his wife and her sister, Mrs. J. Condit Smith; Justice David J. Brewer, his nephew; Mrs. Edgerton of California, Mr. Linton, his private secretary; the Rev. Edward M. Mott, rector of the Church of the Advent, and the family servants. He had been unconscious since Saturday morning and death painlessly.

Ever since Justice Field's retirement from the Supreme Court bench, on December 1, 1897, he has been in comparatively good health, and being relieved from the responsibilities which he had borne for so many years, he became more cheerful than formerly.

About two weeks ago he took a longer ride than usual in an open carriage and contracted a severe cold, which rapidly developed the kidney troubles, from which he had suffered, though only slightly, for some time. The disease readily yielded to treatment, and on Thursday last he sat up for a time and seemed almost himself again, but on Saturday morning a change for the worse occurred, and about noon he lost consciousness. From that time he sank rapidly until the end.

No arrangements have yet been made for the funeral, nor is it now known where he will be be buried. It is probable that his body will be taken to Stockbridge, Mass., where are buried his father, mother and two brothers, Cyrus, Dudley and Jonathan; two sisters and other members of the Field family. It is possible, however, that Mrs. Field may decide to take his body to California.

Justice and Mrs. Field never had any children, and the only surviving member of his father's family is the Justices's youngest brother, Dr. Henry Field, the editor of the Evangelist.

W. W. Aster Goes Home.

New York, April 10.—Although his name did not appear on the passenger list, William Waldorf Aster sailed for Liverpool on the Cunard line steamship Lucania. When he came here, about a week ago, he said he would go back to England just as soon as it was possible for him to arrange the details of the business that brought him.

He was accompanied by the same party who were with him when he came, and those conversant with his plans said last night that he had arranged to return by the Lucania before he left the pier upon his arrival, and that his name was left off the printed passenger list simply in accordance with his own desire to avoid publicity.

Catarrh of the Stomach.

A Pleasant, Simple, Safe, But Effectual Cure for It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable.

The usual symptoms are a full or bloated sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the lungs and heart and difficult breathing; headache, fickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out and languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue, and if the interior of stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate disease is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily and thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach.

To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do, and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlan on the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Diastrse, Aseptic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids.

These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and, not being a patent medicine, can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. N. J. Booher, of 2710 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom, passing back into the throat, reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me three years for catarrh of the stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I can not find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of the stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals.

Send for book, mailed free, on stomach trouble, by addressing the F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. The tablets can be found at all drug stores.

THIS IS THE POINT.

There are a great many stores that are anxious to get your trade, and that will make almost any kind of a promise to get it.

But there is always one thoroughly dependable store—a store that is sure to give you the best and most reliable meats that money can buy. Proper selection and correct butchering explains the satisfaction they give.

FRED ENDRESS,

131-135 West Front Street Only.

A GREAT OFFER

To the Public of Plainfield and vicinity by

CHARLES EISENBERG,

the well-known Painter, Paper Hanger and Decorater, who has opened a branch store

310 West Front Street,

(Stillman Building.)

I will paper any fair sized room, ceiling and walls, with the latest designs of gilt papers, including sizing and repairing, from $4, up.

I also carry the finest and largest assortment of imported and domestic wall papers and decorations. I do first-class work in tinting, kalsomining and inside and outside painting at reasonable prices. Call at the store or send a postal card, and I will call on you with sample books, and cheerfully give estimates. I guarantee first-class workmanship.

Yours truly,
Chas. Eisenberg.

Stores—310 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J.; 312 Main street, Orange, N.J.; 61 Springfield avenue, Newark, N. J.; Warehouse 10, 12, 14 and 16 Mercer street, Newark, N. J. Phone, 1073 Plainfield. Open evenings until 9. Sample books to the trade.

Putnam & De Graw.

SPECIALS FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

Ladies' 25c fast black Hose, for 19c
Children's fast black Hose, 10c—3 for 25c.
Children's fast black Hose, 15c—2 for 25c.
Gent's colored Shirts, detached cuffs regular $1.00 quality for 75c.
Gents' white Laundered Shirts, regular 75c quality for 62c.

H. E. Gayle 18 VINE STREET.

(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)

Carpenter and Builder

ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. A. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:30 p. m.

236 North avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week $5 a year—in advance.

No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada

Delivered by carrier or by mail.

The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district

Any subscriber failing o receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on request.

Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N.J., APRIL 10, 1899.

FEATURES OF TODAY'S PRESS.

PAGE 1.—Important local news.
PAGE 2.—Telegraphic news.
PAGE 3.—Telegraphic news.
PAGE 4.—Editorial and gossip.
PAGE 5.—Vicinity news.
PAGE 6.—Woman's department.
PAGE 6.—German news.
PAGE 7.—Miscellaneous.
PAGE 8.—Sporting and local news.

FACTS ABOUT PLAINFIELD.

(The accompanying facts about Plainfield are for the information of the non-resident public and do not recognize the dividing line line between the city of Plainfield and the borough of North Plainfield, except when such a distinction is necessary in describing a municipal institution)

CLUBS—Ten.
BANKS—Three.
HOTELS—Seven.
SEWERS—24 miles.
GAS—20 miles of mains.
CHURCHES—Thirty-five.
BONDED DEBT—$120,000.
PUBLIC SCHOOLS—Eleven.
SOCIETIES AND LODGES—Ninety.
POLICE—Nineteen paid members.
POSTOFFICE—Free delivery of mail.
BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS—Ten.
NEWSPAPERS—Five; two daily; three weekly.
TELEGRAPH—Postal Telegraph and Western Union.
TELEPHONE—Local and long distance; 500 local subscribers.
HOSPITAL—Muhlenberg; ward capacity, 20; emergency, 30.
STREETS—Seventy miles graded; thirty-seven macadamized.
WATER SUPPLY—Artesian wells; forty-five miles of mains.
TAXABLE VALUATION—City, $8,000,000; borough, $2,250,000.
COUNTY—Plainfield in Union; North Plainfield in Somerset.
POPULATION—City and borough, 20,000; immediate suburbs, 5,000.
FIRE DEPARTMENT—Eight companies; paid drivers; four departments.
ELECTRIC LIGHT—Incandescent and arc in every part of city and borough.
STREET RAILWAY—Nine miles of track; cars run every 12 minutes from 5:30 a. m. to 12 p. m.
RAILROAD—Central Railroad of New Jersey; 24 miles from New York; 65 miles from Philadelphia; 45 minutes from New York; four depots; commutation ticket to New York $80 a year.

COMING EVENTS.

April 10—Union Bible class taught by Rev. D. M. Stearns.
April 10—Literary Society of the Y. M. C. A.
April 17—Star Course entertainment in Y. M. C. A. Hall
April 20—Gymnastic exhibition at Y. M. C. A.

A Severe Law.

In future any man who is imprisoned in New Jersey for debt may remain in jail for life unless some special law is passed by Congress to release him. Judge Blair of the Hudson County Court of Sessions has so decided, in a decision rendered in the case of Joseph Schnitzer, a furniture dealer of Jersey City, who sought to take advantage of the insolvent debtor act of New Jersey. Judge Blair says that the United States bankruptcy act supersedes the New Jersey insolvency act, and that forfeited bonds entail imprisonment.

Judge Blair, when interrogated regarding his decision, said: "I base my decision on a recent decision of the United States Court. It is true that under the decision it will be impossible to get any person who is imprisoned for debt out of jail unless the bankruptcy law is amended. There is no provision in the law at present for getting a person imprisoned for debt released from custody."

New York is again sounding high the praises of a policeman who performed heroic work in saving human lives at the Andrews fire the other day. As a rule the New York policeman is regarded as a great man when he is considered by himself, but when he is looked as part of the guardian force of the metropolis there is nothing too sarcastic and villianous for the populace to give voice to. There are hundreds of New York policemen who are made up of the same heroic material as this man—Murray is his name—who won the commendation of the whole world for his bravery at the fire that killed the unlucky thirteen, but they have never had the opportunity to show their stamna and courage. Yet in the abstract form they do not receive the credit they actally deserve.

Director Merriam, of the Census Bureau, has allotted six supervisors of the census in New Jersey. The census districts into which the State is divided are made up as follows: First, Hudson county; second Essex; third, Bergen, Passaic, Morris, Sussex, Warren; fourth, Hunterdon, Middlesex, Somerset, Union; fifth, Monmouth, Mercer, Ocean, Burlington; sixth, Camden, Gloucester, Atlantic, Cumberland, Salem, Cape May. The tug-of-war will come in the struggle for appointment of enumerators, of whom there will be a great many.

The Hon. Tom Johnson, who owns a large part of the Brooklyn trolley roads, says that the time will come when the people will ride free in street cars. That is pleasant to anticipate, but just now the people would be better satisfied if the Hon. Tom would make it safe to walk in the same streets with the trolley cars in Brooklyn town.

The Elizabeth Journal is doing splendid missionary in educating the people of that city to a realization of the value of good streets.

Fish stories are restricted in Connecticut by a law which imposes a penalty for the catching of more than thirty trout in one day.

People are wondering what will be done with Aguinaldo if he is caught. What an important word that "if" is.

Winter is struggling hard to get out of the lap of Spring.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

By the Fourth of July trolley cars will be running from Plainfield to Westfield, if not to Garwood, and unless the road is continued to Elizabeth, our merchants will not be favored with any trade from that direction. Outside of paved streets, there is nothing so badly needed by this city as trolley connection with outside towns. Before the close of the year trolley cars ought to be running to Cartaret, to Summit, to Plainfield and Rahway, and if we had the right sort of men here all this would be accomplished.—Elizabeth Leader.

PASSING COMMENT.

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

"When the city directory appears," says the New York Commercial Advertiser, "it will cost a cent to look at one in your corner drug store. The volume will sell, it is said, at $12.50, but copies will also be supplied free to druggists who accept with it the automatic cover that will open with the insertion of a copper. The profits, of course, go to the publishers, but that gives the patient drug store man no right to complain. He can still go on selling postage stamps at cost."

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

A comedy-drama that fairly bristles with strong sstuations and stirring lines will be seen at Music Hall Saturday under the title of "Killarney and The Rhine." As the name would indicate, the play is both of Irish and German interest. The principal character, that of Conrad, is a German, who is in love with Eily O'Neil, a young colleen. Through their love making an interesting story is woven that is well worked out. The company, which is headed by J. E. Toole and Miss Lillian DeWoolf, is a good one. Mr Toole is a natural comedian, and in the several "heavy" scenes he acts with true dramatic firmness.

* * * * *

Still the enormous programmes continue at the popular Proctor theatres in New York. Nearly every week witnesses the debut at one of the Proctor houses of some famous star in comedy or drama. The latest to break away from the ranks of the legitimate is Marie Wainwright, who for so many seasons has starred in emotional roles. She is presenting a costume comedietta on the Proctor circuit, and she will be seen at the Twenty-third Street Theatre for the first time today. This is a pretty comedy of the Empire period and Miss Wainwright displays some exquisite costumes. The star at the Pleasure Palace will be Neil Burgess, the quaint comedy star, in his famous impersonation of "Widow Bedott." This is a world-wide famous characterization of Neil Burgess, and it is one of the funniest features on the vaudeville stage.

New York Too Big for Him.

John Waldron, a lad employed by Collector George F. Brown, made his first trip to New York yesterday in company with a fellow-employe at Mr. Brown's. The boy had never seen the Brooklyn bridge, and it was a great sight to him. While near the bridge he became somewhat entangled and lost his partner. The crowd was large and for a little while he was lost. He was about to approach a policeman to inquire the way home, when his companion appeared and escorted him out of the crowd. The boy was much frightened for a time, but was overcome with joy to see his friend again. He declares that New York is a big town and that he does not want to go there again.

DEBTOR PAID IN BLOWS.

MICHAEL POWERS, TRYING TO COLLECT A BILL, BADLY DONE UP.

Charles W. Smith Accused of Committing the Assault and Was Arrested—Examination Being Held This Afternoon.

Michael Powers, of South avenue, a coal dealer, was out collecting bills Saturday afternoon. Among the places where he stopped was Charles W. Smith's, a few doors below him on the same street. Powers had a bill for about $50 against Smith which he wanted to collect.

Just what happened between the two men is not positively known. There was an argument about the bill which ended in a scuffle, and Powers came out of the affair with his right wrist sprained, one or two front teeth knocked out, and several cuts and bruises about his face and body.

Powers went straight to Justice Mosher and swore out a warrant for Smith's arrest. Constable Mattox arrested the man that night and he was arranged in court at once and pleaded not guilty to assault and battery. The hearing was to have come off this morning, but Mrs. Powers, who is said to have interfered in the fight on behalf of her husband, was taken ill in court, so the hearing was put off until 2 o'clock, to give her a chance to recover.

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard street, Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"It soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will everyone who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's Drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

EARLY INTELLIGENCE.

—There will be several interesting speeches at the next meeting of the Board of Trade.

—Mr. Comstock and family, of West Fifth street, have moved to Sheephead's Bay, L. I.

—That Peck's efforts to give you the best line of dress trimmings has been appreciated, his large sales are proof positive.

—A regular meeting of the Plainfield Camera Club will be held this evening in the club rooms in the Babcock building.

—Tomorrow evening there will be an important meeting of Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., and every member is urged to attend.

—There will be a meeting of the West End Hose Company tomorrow evening, when business of interest to every member will be considered.

Another New Society.

Thomas F. Gilmore, of New Haven, Conn., has called a meeting for tomorrow evening at the Sons of Temperance rooms in the Elkwood building, West Second street, for the purpose of organizing a council of Sr. O. U. A. M. A large number of people have been invited to be present, and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance.

Progressive Euchre at Park Club.

Tomorrow night will be regular club night at the Park Club house. These Tuesday evenings at the club have proved very popular and the house committee is satisfied to continue them. Progressive euchre will be the attraction tomorrow evening, under the care of several of the wives of members.

Didn't Confiscate the Tools.

Justice Mosher this morning decided that D. J. Galbraith, who was charged last week by Patrick Kane with wrongfully retaining possession of a couple of shovels and a pickaxe, was not guilty, and dismissed the case.

Mrs. J. R. Truell, of Central avenue, is building a residence at the corner of West Fourth and New streets.

GIVE THE CHILDREN A DRINK

called Grain-O. It is a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it because when properly prepared it tastes like the finest coffee but is free from all its injurious properties. Grain-O aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder, and children, as well as adults, can drink it with great benefit. Costs about ¼ as much as coffee 15 and 25c.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages there should be cleanliness.

Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail.

ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

SHIRT WAIST SHOWING.

We are proud of our Shirt Waist Showing. The collection is really Superb. The variety is great. The styles are correct. The designs and materials are exclusive and original.

Prices Range from 50c. to $9.00.

White Lawn Waists and White Corded Pique Waists in infinite variety. A WORD OF ADVICE Select them now. Now the assortment is complete. Later the stock will be depleted. There will be no duplicates.

TAILOR MADE SUITS.

Some very natty suits at $6 98, made of black cheviot. A large line of finer suits from $10 to $23. All are new, stylish, perfect-fitting, well-made and inexpensive. What more can you ask for.

SPRING WASH GOODS.

Warm weather is coming and that very quickly. Select your wash fabrics now and have them ready for the hot weather. The assortment is better now than it will be later. Our line is most attractive and goods are thoroughly reliable.

"VICTOR" Odorless Moth Bags.

Made of Heavy Black Silesia, double stitched seams with patent closing device, with nickle hooks from which to suspend garments. Manufacturer has sold his patent. We bought all he had on hand at half price.

The Retail Price is $2.00.

Our price while they last 98c.

About Carpets.

If you want Carpets 10 years old fresh from the auction room we have nothing to say. If you want new up-to-date Carpets, fresh from the looms. If you want Carpets upon which you may depend to give satisfactory service. Then we have much to say. If you want your work done anyway to get it done, we have nothing to say. If you want your work done properly by experienced men, then we are the people to call on.

If you want fresh, new Japanese and Chinese Matting in the newest designs. If you want elegant Smyrna, Moquette or Royal Wilton Rugs or anything else in floor coverings, come and see our goods. If you want your house fitted up with new window shades, we fit and hang them.

Do you contemplate buying a New Trunk, Traveling Bag or Dress Suit Case? Then by all means see ours. Trunks with 3, 4 and 5 Trays for preventing the wrinkling of Fine Dresses. Elegant Steamer Trunks, Leather Bound, Cloth Lined, Brass Trimmed.

Positively the Best Line of Trunks We Have Ever Seen.

DOWN STAIRS.

Our Basement will never make us rich. We sell the goods on too small margins. A furniture store, for instance, would never be able to meet its expenses on our profits.

Bed Room Furniture, Dining Room Furniture, Couches, White Enamel Beds, Woven Wire Springs, Mattresses of all kinds, Pillows, etc., we sell remarkably cheap and we are sending them broadcast over two counties.

Jewett Refrigerators.

It is false economy to struggle along with an old half-worn out Refrigerator.

Get a new one—you will soon save ice enough to pay for it for they are cheap, cheaper than you imagine, and certainly a great comfort.

If you are interested in getting your money's worth, and who is not, we are the people to visit.

No Branch Stores. No Old Goods.

Trading Stamps With Each Cash Purchase.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,

234-236-238 WEST FRONT ST.

PECK'S CORNER.

Nothing to wait for! Everything to come for!

AT PECK'S

LADIES' NECKWEAR.

No such an assortment can you find as here.

DRESS LININGS.

Everything you need.

FRENCH AND SCOTCH FLANNELS.

Fine goods and beautiful patterns.

SHIRT WAISTS.

have arrived; have just been made from the newest and latest styles and are NEW.

AT PECK'S.

GEO. W. COLE.

UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER.

200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.

OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

H. DeMOTT,

UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER.

Residence and office 89 Somerset St.

TELEPHONE 248 B.

WANTS AND OFFERS

NINE ROOM HOUSE to let all improvements, East Second street. Enquire Wm. Newcorn, 204 West Front street. 2 21 tf

BARN to let, Second street, near Watchung avenue. Apply at Daily Press office. 3 13 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

WANTED—Houses to rent from $15 up. Elston M. French & Co. 2 1 tf

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

6 ROOM house, new, near Netherwood station; to let or for sale. Sherwin's shoe store. 3 22 tf

TO LET—Choice corner flats, steam heat; all improvements, in Clifton Building, Fourth street and Park avenue. C B. Clifton, Seventh street and Spooner avenue. 4 5 5

TO RENT—The new dwelling house, 929 Madison avenue; has all the modern improvements throughout Street macadamized to curb. Apply to John M. Whiton, 821 Central avenue. 3 17 tf

TO LET—Half house, city water; 6 rooms; $10 per month. Inquire at 138 Duer street. 3 30 tf

HOUSE and lot for sale, cheap, first-class stables. Hand & Allen, Scotch Plains, N. J. 4 7 3

FOR SALE—Two seated surrey, good condition; price $50, closed carriage, (good back) $30. Call Stable, B O. Bowers, 400 Franklin place. 4 7 3

FOR SALE—Milk, from 2 cans to 100 quarts per day; to suit buyer. Address G. H. Albertson, Kellogg farm, Mt. Pleasant. 4 6 4

HOUSE and barn to let, 682 West Third street, water and sewer connected; rent $13 00. Inquire 1220 West Front street. 4 6 tf

TO LET—Two four room flats, with improvements; very convenient. T. Callahan, Richmond and Third Sts. 3 31 eod tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. Chas. L. Moffett, Attorney, cor. Park and North Aves. 12 11 eod tf

FOR SALE—At a great sacrifice. 100 shares of Class E Stock, of the Mercantile Co., Operative Bank, maturity value $100 each share, on which shares has been paid $225 00. Apply Pope & Runyon, Attorneys. 4 6 tf

WANTED—At once, a pony cart or light phæton. Address B., care Press. 4 6 3

COW manure for sale. Michael Hefrian, 535 East Third street. 4 8 3

GENTLEMAN can have furnished room, with first-class board in small adult family, centrally located; price moderate. Address Home, care Press. 4 8 2

WANTED—To buy good horse, cheap, for lady to drive. Address Horse, box 87, Dunellen, N. J. 4 8 2

DESIRABLE rooms, with good board. 62 Sandford avenue. 4 10 6

HOUSE 87 Manning avenue to let, newly papered, moderate rent; also store. 66 Manning avenue. 4 10 2

NICELY furnished front room to let, to 1 or 2 gentlemen, without board. 325 North Front street. 4 10 2

COTTAGE to let, corner East Sixth street and Franklin place. L. E. Hart, 517 West Front street. 4 10 2

WANTED—Industrious man for advantageous position. Good chance for advancement. Apply room 3, City Nat'l Bank B'ldg.

10 CRAIG place; boarders wanted, private family. 4 10 6

WANTED—Second-hand baby carriage, in good condition, at once, state price. Address S., care Press. 4 10 2

FURNISHED rooms, with or without board; men only; trolley passes the door. 127 West Fourth street. 4 10 2

LOST—Scarf pin, large carbuncle stone. Finder rewarded by returning same to 514 West Seventh St.

LOST—Bunch of keys, finder rewarded by leaving at this office.

WANTED—Part of house, for light housekeeping, centrally located. Address P. O. Box 291, City.

FOR SALE—A good wheel, price $5. Apply 62 Duer street.

$18,000 TO LOAN. Robert M. Clark, Attorney, 109 East Front street. 4 10 4

WANTED—Carpenters on Lawrence Cement Co.'s new mills. Apply James Stewart & Co., Contractors, Siegfried, Pa. 4 10 3

WANTED—Agents, ladies' preferred. Call on E. C Howard, 312 LaGrande avenue, from 9 a. m., till 1 p. m., Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday only; references given and required. 4 10 3

SARDOU'S GREAT PLAY "DIPLOMACY," For Charity, Music Hall, Saturday evening, April 29th, at 8. Reserved Seats 50c, 75c, $1, $1.25. Armstrong's Drug Store. Every seat in hall gives good view of stage. Acoustic properties all right when house is full which is now assured. 4 7 td

MANICURING, 25 CENTS.

REMOVING CORNS, 25c.

SHAMPOOING, With Massage, 50c.

M. V. Stickle, 149 E. Fifth St.

SCIENTIFIC MASSAGE

Facial Massage and Steaming.

THERMO-ELECTRIC BATHS.

MISS HOLMES, 440 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J. 3 1 tf

NOTICE.

Sealed bids will be received by the Committee on Streets and Public Health, of the Borough of North Plainfield, for crushed stone, flagging for side-walks and cross-walks, to be delivered as needed. The bids to be submitted to the committee and opened in the presence of the bidders on Monday, April 17, at 8 o'clock p. m., at the Borough Council room, corner of Somerset Street and Craig place, in the said Borough of North Plainfield, and at no other time or place.

The committee reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Dated April 10th, 1899.

ROBERT CLARK, JR.,
Chairman of Committee.

4 10 7

GOSPEL MEETINGS

in HOPE CHAPEL,

Every Evening Except Saturday.

Conducted by

F. E. TAYLOR.

Splendid Singing by a Chorus Choir.

FOR SALE

At a Bargain.

Three Story and Basement, Large Brick and Stone House, No. 1103 Putnam Avenue, Corner Carlton Avenue. Lot 115x175 feet.

For full particulars apply to ANDERSON PRICE, 80 Broadway, New York City, and Rutherford, N. J. 4 10 3

A. WILLETT & SON,

107 PARK AVENUE.

MEN'S TAN SHOES $3.00.

We pride ourselves on our $3.00 Tan Shoes this year.

Made in latest style and newest shades of Tan.

They are a fine wearing shoe upon which we can depend for future favors, and they will please the most fastidious.

Call and see them.
A pleasure to show.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
ABSOLUTELY PURE
Makes the food more delicious and wholesome
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, April 10.—Augustus Todd has leased his house on Front street to Holland Church and family, who will move here from Pennsylvania soon. Mr. Church works in one of the factories at Lincoln, and will go back and forth each day.

Rev. A. I. Martine, of the Presbyterian church, is entitled to a four weeks vacation each year. This year he is taking two weeks of his vacation this month, so his pulpit is being filled by supplies during his absence.

The railroad company will soon begin building a roadway to the new freight house. Several loads of slag have arrived which will be used for that purpose.

Miss Wilgus, one of the teachers in the Whittier school, has returned from Red Bank, where she has been spending her Easter vacation.

The date of the entertainment to be given by the pupils of the public school for the library fund, is April 20th.

Augustus Runyon, of Plainfield, spent Saturday visiting his father, John Runyon, of Washington avenue.

Mrs. William Conley, who broke her ankle during the winter is just able to be around again.

Miss Weatherwax has returned from Red Bank where she has been spending her Easter vacation.

Mrs. Alvah Gray's mother, who has been visiting her, has gone to Irvington to stay a week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Randolph entertained company from out of town yesterday.

L. L. Drake has rented the Condert farm and has already taken possession.

School opened again this morning after the Easter vacation.

Rev. A.I. Martine preached at High Bridge yesterday.

Mrs. A. A. Lake is confined to her home by illness.

Miss Mabel Jamison spent Saturday in Plainfield.

Alvah Gray has been entertaining his sister.

NEW MARKET

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press

New Market, April 10.—Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Nelson have moved into the Grennel house.

A business meeting of the C. E. society of the Baptist church was held Saturday night. The business session was followed by a sociable.

Martin Larkins, of Boston, was visiting friends in town Saturday and yesterday.

Charles Meeker is confined to his home by illness.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, April 10.—At the close of yesterday morning services the Lord's supper was celebrated and the right hand of fellowship was extended to the new pastor, Mr. Shott and his family. Dr. Parks on behalf of the church in a few well chosen words extended the hand of fellowship after which he assisted Mr. Shott in the service.

The layer of stone on Park avenue has been covered with a layer of sand. This, with the constant driving Park avenue gets, will soon back the stone and our main street will be in better condition than ever.

Mr. and Mrs. George Goodbrough entertained Mr Goodbrough's brother and wife, of New York, Saturday and Sunday.

The Baptist parsonage looks very nice with its new coat of paint. Henry Keuhn did the work.

Miss May Johnson, of New York, spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Susie Parse.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jimerson, of Westfield, spent Sunday with relatives in town.

Miss Emma Clark entertained the Misses Gaskill, of New Market, Sunday.

WESTFIELD

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Westfield, April 10—A special meeting of the Township Committee will be held in the town rooms this evening at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of deciding as to what kind of road roller shall be purchased.

The Bishop will visit St. Paul's church Friday evening to administer confirmation to a large number of candidates who will be presented by the rector, Rev. Charles Fiske.

W. G. Peckham, the well-known New York lawyer, who lives in this town, has been made chairman of the visiting and international committee of Harvard College.

Bon Ami
Will not Scratch
IT IS THE FINEST CLEANER MADE, YET WILL CLEAN THE DIRTIEST SURFACES EASILY.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY.

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—A fine display of new spring shoes can be seen at Doane & Edsall's.

—Minerva Temple, No. 4, Rathbone Sisters, will meet tomorrow evening to consider important business.

—The spring term of the kindergarton connected with Miss Scribner and Miss Green's school begins today.

—Patsy Christmas, contractor, expects to start the Park avenue storm sewer this week if the weather permits.

—Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. and A. M., will hold a regular communication tomorrow evening and work a degree.

—Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum, will meet this evening in regular session. A full attendance is desired.

—One week from this evening the Common Council will hold an adjourned session to transact important business.

—Monday evening, April 24th, a grand concert will be given by the singing section of the Gesang and Turn Verein.

—A fair will be held at the First Church of Christ this week, commencing this evening and continuing every night.

—Rev. Dr. Main will teach the Sunday-school lesson this afternoon before the members of the Primary Teachers' Union.

—The Christian Endeavor Society of the Crescent Avenue church will hold its annual meeting next Friday evening in the chapel of the church.

—Wm. Monfort, the photographer, took a number of handsome photos of Potter presses last week. They will be sent to London for exhibition.

—Justice of the Peace J. Q. Miles, of the borough, will be prepared to open his office about May 1st. He will go to Somerville in a few days to be sworn in.

—The Grand Union Tea Company, 138 West Front street, J. J. Crouse, manager, are given away free with one pound of baking powder a lady's easy rocker or sewing chair.

—George W. Wrennick, No. 135 North avenue, dealer in all kinds of sporting goods and cycles, has taken the agency for the "Manhattan," a new typewriter that has become a great favorite.

—The regular meeting of Lucetta Council, Daughters of Liberty, will be dispensed with this week Wednesday evening on account of the celebration of the fourth anniversary of the council to be held in Washington Hall.

—Charles Eisenberg, painter, paper hanger and decorator, of West Front street, is making a great offer to Plainfield and vicinity to do papering and decorating at one third off from regular price for the rest of the season.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongued coated, pain continually in the back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters;' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50cts., guaranteed, at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store

PEOPLE COME AND GO.

PERSONAL MENTION OF INTEREST TO PRESS READERS.

Some Come to Enjoy Pleasures of Plainfield, Others Journey to Either Mountain or Shore for Recreation.

Herbert Randolph, of Mt. Pleasant, has taken up his residence in this city.

Miss Harned, of Craig place, has returned from a visit with out-of-town friends.

Miss Backer, of this city, has been visiting her father, L. C. Backer, of White House.

Mrs. Adam Seals and son, of this city, are visiting relatives at East White House.

Wm. Casey, of this city, has accepted a position in the Cramp ship-yards, Philadelphia.

Rev. Father Miller, of St. Joseph's church, is ill at the home of his parents at Amboy.

Sydney R. Titsworth, of West Fifth street, returns to his studies at Alfred University today.

James M. Middledith, of Mercer avenue, has returned to his studies at Lehigh University.

Russell Harden, of South Branch, has been visiting his brother, Charles Harden, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Maxson, of this city, have returned from a pleasant stay at Atlantic City.

David Krymer, of Fifth street, who has been so ill, is now improving and hopes to go to work soon.

Mrs. W. G. Anderson, of Franklin place, has been spending a week with her daughter in Brooklyn.

Miss Weaver, of Philadelphia, is a guest at the home of the Misses Negley, of West Seventh street.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Scott, of West Seventh street, are entertaining company from out of town.

Miss Smith, of New York, has been spending the week with the Misses Negley, of West Seventh street.

Nathan E. Lewis, of West Eighth street, has returned after spending his Easter vacation at Ashaway, R. I.

Albert B. Meredith, of West Sixth street, has returned after spending his vacation with relatives in Boston.

William L. Smalley, Jr., of New Brunswick, who has been visiting relatives in town, has returned home.

Justice Nash, of Columbia Lodge, A. O. U. W., goes to visit Upchurch, Lodge, Westfield, tomorrow night.

U. S. Tingley, son of John Tingley, has secured a valuable position with the Roebling Steel Works, of Trenton.

Miss Andersen, of Somerville, has been visiting Miss Maude E. VanDyke, of East Front street, for a few days.

Former Mayor L. V. F. Randolph and daughters, of East Front street, have returned from their trip through Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. George Randolph, of Brooklyn, spent yesterday with their daughter, Mrs. J. M. Smalley, of Watchung avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. George Homan, of Hillside avenue, entertained a few friends in an informal manner at their home Friday evening.

Andrew Cox, of Liberty street, who has been detained at home for some time by illness, is just about the same. He is yet unable to leave the house.

Fred Leland, of Central avenue, who is detained at a hospital in the south is reported as being no better. His relatives are exceedingly anxious as to his recovery.

Lewis Putnam, of Watchung avenue, expects to be able to leave the hospital in a few day. The leg from which his foot was amputated, owing to a severe fracture he received some time ago, is about well.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be distroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.
Sold by Druggists, 75c.
Hall's Family Pills are the best.

That Throbbing Headache.

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and strong nerves and build up your health. Easy to take. Try them. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

AT RANDOLPH'S !

Roots and Herbs are numerous, yet we urge the combination of

Randolph's -:- Sarsaparilla

is one of the best to clean the blood. None better. Only 50 cents per bottle.

L. W. RANDOLPH,

Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.

PLAINFIELD, N. J. TELEPHONE CALL 109

"PAY CASH AND SAVE MONEY" AT

V. L. FRAZEE'S,

THE PEOPLE'S CASH GROCER

151 West Front Street.

SPECIAL PRICES FOR ALL THIS WEEK.

Good New York State Creamery Butter	19c lb
Fresh Jersey Eggs, every Egg guaranteed -	15c doz
Best Elgin Creamery Butter	22c lb
Granulated Sugar	5c lb
Best Sugar Cured Hams	8½c lb
Best Early Rose Potatoes	43c basket
Carolina Rice	4 lbs 23c
Paris Sugar Corn	9c can, 3 cans for 25c
Good Sweet Sugar Corn	6c can
Best Tomatoes, NO BETTER, solid packed	7c can
Best New York State Sugar Corn	7c can
Marrowfat Peas	6c can
Good Early June Peas	8c can
Best Small Early June Peas, NO BETTER	10c can
Best Lard	5c lb
Best Full Cream Cheese	12c lb
Best Minnesota Patent Flour per bbl	$4.40
" " " " 24 1-2 lb bag	55c
If one baking is used and not satisfactory money returned for whole bag or barrel.
Best California Prunes	5c, 7c, 8c and 9c lb
" " Dried Peaches	12c lb
New Dried Lima Beans	8c quart
" " White Beans	5c quart
Aunt Jemima Pancake Flour	9c pkg
3 lb package Best Prepared Buckwheat	10c
3 lb Package Best Prepared Flour	10c
Best Rolled Oats	3c lb, 6 lbs for 15c
Pure Vermont Maple Syrup	25c quart bottle
Magnolia Condensed Milk	8c can
Fern " "	7c can
Pickles	7c doz
Best New Orleans Molasses	33c gal
" Vanilla Drip Syrup	33c "
" Old Cider Vinegar	15c "
" 150 Test Oil	5 gals for 45c
Washing Soda	1c lb
Babbitt's Soap	2 cakes for 7c
Higgin's German Laundry Soap	3c cake
Fairbank's Soap	10 cakes for 25c
Duryea's Best Starch	4c lb, 7 lbs for 25c
Duryea's Best Corn Starch	6c package
Fine Fat Mackerel	9c each, 3 for 25c
Shredded Codfish	5c package
New Columbia River Salmon	10c can
1 lb box Davis O K Baking Powder	18c
25 Best Lemons for	25c
Best Mocha and Java Coffee	25c lb
Lion Coffee	9c lb
3 lb Can Best Bartlett Pears for	10c
3 lb Cans California Peaches	13c can, 2 for 25c
Best Ginger Snaps, Lemon Cakes, Nic Nacs, Soda and Oyster Crackers	5c lb
Best Clothes Pins	1c doz
Mince Meat	7c pkg
Kirkman's Borax Soap, 6 cakes in a box for	23c

A GREAT DRAMATIC SCENE.

"Diplomacy" Possesses That Which Thrills the Audience.

The great scene in the second act of "Diplomacy," known as the "Scene of the Three Men," is considered one of the greatest in the English drama. The three parts are Henry and Julian Beauclerc and Count Orloff, taken for the performance in Music Hall April 29th, by D. M. VanVliet, Alfred Young and P. H. Pincoffs—all of Plainfield except Mr. Young. Mr. Van Vliet is said by those who have seen the rehearsals to give a graceful, dignified and intelligence interpretation of the difficult part of Henry Beauclerc. Mr. Pincoff, with a natural grace and manner, is an impressive Orloff and Alfred Young in Julian is equal to anything ever on the professional stage. Mr. Young is a pupil of Belasco, who has made Mrs. Leslie Carter famous.

Macadamizing Franklin Place.

The work of macadamizing Franklin place is progressing rapidly. Several layers of crushed stone stone have already been put on and rolled down. Work has also begun on East Sixth street, east from Franklin place.

IF

your grocer says he does not keep our Flavoring Extracts, ask him to get them for you.

A. L. Kaerth & Co.

132 E. Second St.

Mrs. Grover Cleveland, at Princeton, N. J., said:

"Mr. Naylor, the carpet cleaning you did for me is entirely satisfactory."

A. F. Naylor,

Bedding Factory & Store,

'Phone 931 23 Somerset-st.

SPRING CLEANING

will soon be here, and while cleaning up your homes do not forget to clean your system.

Hepburn's Blood Purifier

for the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys, will do this in a satisfactory manner. Money refunded if it don't do what is claimed for it. We have made and sold it the same way for the past 14 years.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY, HEPBURN & CO.

Cor. Park Ave. and Second St. Telephone 671.

CHAS. L. FORCE,
Architect and Superintendent.
208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given. 1 31 tf

STATIONERY
LESS THAN COST.

The entire stock of R. C. Rand has been removed from West Front St. to

37 SOMERSET STREET,

Thorn's Block, where it is being closed out at less than cost in order to settle with his creditors. There are many bargains left. Come and get them. A. B. THORN, Assignee
4 7 6

Plainfield, N. J. Morristown, N. J. FOUR LARGE STORES. Wilmington, Del. Perth Amboy, N. J.

CROSBY & HILL

SUCCESSORS TO EDWARD WHITE.

This Store contains today more merchandise of the Newest, Brightest and Best kinds than has ever been seen collected together by any single house in this city and its value in dollars and cents is more than the value of all combined Dry Goods stocks in Plainfield, the advantages to the customers must be apparent to all, larger stocks of every kind to select from Goods all bought for cash and priced on an instant cash basis. Our Unmatched Shopping Conveniences, our perfect store service. The daily giving of the best values in merchandise, our liberal guarantee with every dollar's worth of merchandise we sell. Your Money Back if you are dissatisfied with your purchase, no matter if it is the smallest piece of the most expensive merchandise.

We commence today A Ten Days' Sale that will command wide-spread attention, it concerns some of the best values that have ever been given in this city; every department will offer merchandise of the newest and best sorts at prices lower than you are accustomed to pay for inferior kinds.

Some new Arrivals in Silks that we include in this sale.

50c Printed India Silks, 30 inches wide, about 1,000 yards, Navy blue and Black Grounds, printed in choice neat figures, worth 75c.

75c Striped all silk Taffeta, light and Medium Ground-work, al new designs and fully worth $1.00.

95c Corded Silk Taffetas, handsome new designs and very choice colorings and effects, the very newest patterns for shirt waists, actual value $1 25.

39c 2,000 yards of Plaid Satin all the newest Spring shades and designs, very suitable for Coat and Cape linings or shirt waists, worth 65c.

Wool Dress Goods.

69c All-wool French Broad cloths, very light in weight and fine in finish, 54 inches wide. The shades are Tans, Browns, Navy Blue, Green and Garnet, they are the $1.00 quality.

25c Satin Striped Wool Challies, light colored grounds, handsome floral designs, 30 inches wide, worth 39c.

79c All-wool French Whipcord Suitings, 42 inches wide, new Spring colorings, value $1 00.

89c All-wool Venetian suitings, 54 inches wide, all the new Spring colorings, value $1 00.

New Wash Goods.

Several cases of New Wash Goods have just arrived and are priced for quick sellers, they are the correct things for the coming season.

8c Scotch dimities, beautiful new striped effects, value 10c.

10c New corded ginghams, new patterns, value 12½c.

12 1-2c French Organdies, exclusive styles too, put up in neat boxes of one dress pattern each, with no two alike, they are the regular 25c quality.

12 1-2c Swiss Mulls, choice new patterns and new weave, worth 17c.

12½c Grenadine Dress Goods, 30 inches wide, the newest weave shown (plain colors only), but all the newest tints, value 25c.

Suit Department. 2d. floor.

Some notable values in women's suits, Jackets and Dress Skirts.

$6.98 Women's tailor made suits, worth $10 00.

$10.00 " " " " " $15.00.

$11.98 " " " " " $17.50.

$3.50 Women's Covert Cloth Jackets, worth $4.50.

$5.00 Women's Venetian Cloth Jackets, satin lined, worth $6.50.

$2.98 Women's Mohair Skirts, newest cut, worth $4.00.

$4.98 Women's Venetian Cloth Dress Skirts, worth $6.50.

$5.00 Silk Shirt Waists, newest shape and newest patterns of material, remarkable value.

33c Percale shirt waists, worth 50c.

$1.00 Madras and percale shirt waists, about twenty different sorts.

$1.00 and $1.39 white pique shirt waists, embroidery and braid trimmed.

Ribbons.

10c the very best ribbon value, Plainfield people have ever seen 2,000 yards fancy French ribbons, 3 to 7 inches wide, value from 15c to 40c.

Men's Furnishing Department.

We offer some Trade Makers in this department that are sure to be appreciated.

12½c Men's Fast Black half-hose worth 18c.

49c Men's Laundried Cambric Shirts with one pair separate cuffs, worth 75c.

39c Men's Outing Shirts, worth 50c.

17c Men's Silk Scarfs, tecks and four-in-hands, the regular 25c kind.

39c Men's Scarfs, tecks, puffs and four-in-hands, very choice patterns, light and dark colors and made in the newest shapes, regular 50c quality.

Special Price Small Wares and Toilet Articles.

A La Rose Soap, 3 cakes for 5c.
Buttermilk Soap, 3 cakes for 15c.
Packers' Tar Soap, 17c cake.
Junipers Tar Soap, 10c, 3 cakes for 25c.
Dr. Lyon's Tooth Powder, 13c.
S. H. & M. Bias brush binding, 10c.
Fulled edge silk elastic, 17c, worth 25c.
Perforated Dress Shields, 15c, worth 20c.

Free.

One box of Royal Tooth Powder with every 50c purchase at Notion Counter.

Carpet Department.

Our Carpet Department is on the third floor and is a perfect daylight show room, easy of access by elevator, interesting prices prevail at present.

50c Best quality of 10 wire tapestry brussels carpets, usual 75c quality.

69c Best quality Saxony Axminster carpets, value 95c.

$2.98 20 yard rolls Linen Warp Matting, value $4.00.

Axminster Rugs.

18x39, 79c, value $1 00.
30x64, $1.85, value $2 50.
36x72, $2.89, value $4.00.

19c Hand-made opaque window shades complete, rugular price 25c.

THE MARCH OF PROGRESS

in wall paper can best be witnessed in our magnificent stock, comprising all of the latest and artistic patterns, on paper of the very best texture.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.

Wall Papers, Paints, Oils, Glass, Etc.
201 Park Ave. Corner Second St.
Telephone Call 635. Estimates Furnished.

PATENTS

TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &c.

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.

Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS,
New York City and country work our specialty. Satisfaction guaranteed. Stages to hire.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $6.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Everything for the Garden.
SWEET PEAS the choicest, fancy Lawn Grass Seeds and odorless lawn dressing.
'Phone No. 6.
A. M. Griffen, 119 East Front St

Safe Deposit Vaults
THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK
Of Plainfield, New Jersey.
Capital $200,000
Surplus and Profits ..... $ 90,000
J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. DUNYON, Cashier
H. M. ESTIL, Vice " D. M. DUNYON, Ass't
DIRECTORS:
Charles Potter. Wm. McD. Cortel.
P. M. French. H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman. Isaac W. Bushmore
J. W. Johnson. Wm. B. Coddington.
F. S. Dunyon.
SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per annum.
VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE
BANANAS 12c. and 15c. per doz.
ORANGES 15 and 18 for 25c.
Confectionery and fruit, lowest prices.
C. E. BICKNELL,
"On the Bridge." Somerset St.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,
Painters and Paper Hangers,
Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets
Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto--first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11 t

A. LUSARDI,
120 NORTH AVENUE.
Wholesale and Retail
Dealer in choice fruit of all kinds, of Confectionery, Peanuts' Cigars, etc. Soda Water of all flavors and always ice cold. Branch store corner Front and Somerset streets.

J. W. VAN SICKLE.
122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly.
TELEPHONE 148 b.

I am fifty-eight years old. For several years I had had indigestion and liver complaint and was very much troubled with constipation. I employed different physicians and tried different medicines, but only received temporary relief. I had to give up my business on account of my poor health, and just attend to the work on my small lot, and that was more than I felt able to do. Early in the Summer I saw an advertisement of Ripans Tabules in the Bucks County Intelligencer. I did not have much faith in them, but finally decided to give them a trial, and purchased a box and commenced taking them. Before I had taken half of the Tabules I began to improve, and by the time I had taken all of them I was so much improved that I felt like another man. I have continued their use, and I am gaining daily in health and strength. Now I can do the work on my lot with ease, where it used to be a burden to me. I can speak only in praise of the Tabules, and would recommend them to all persons who are ailing.

WANTED—A case of bad health that R·I·P·A·N·S will not benefit. Send five cents to Ripans Chemical Co., No. 10 Spruce Street, New York, for 10 testimonials. R·I·P·A·N·S, 9 cents, or 12 packets for 48 cents, may be had of all druggists, or by mail on receipt of price, a standard medicine at a moderate profit. They banish pain and prolong life. One gives relief. Note the word R·I·P·A·N·S on the packet. Accept no substitute.

Mullins
218-220 MARKET STREET, NEWARK.

Homes Furnished For $1 a Week.

$9.95 will buy one of these Solid Oak Chamber Suits, neatly carved, with bevel plate mirror, only..... $9.95

WE have the largest stock of Chamber Suits ever offered in the city (in all woods,) from $9.75 to $250.

Handsome new Parlor Suits in Silk Damask, Tapestry, Plush or Velour, this week $24.50

We are now showing over 300 new Parlor Suits—all the very latest designs, without any doubt the largest and handsomest stock of Parlor Suits in the city. Prices from $22.50 to $350.

THIS IS CARPET HEADQUARTERS.

MULLINS SPRING CARPETS

And one visit to our store will convince you. Be sure and see our stock and get our prices before you buy.

Tapestry Brussels 45c to 75c yd
Velvets, 75c to $1 yd.
Moquettes, 90c yd.

This is the Week to Buy Your Baby Carriage.

All New Designs, at Reduced Prices, from $3.25 to $25.
Go Carts this week at $1.50.
THIS CARRIAGE ONLY $5.75
Open an Account with Us and You Will Save Money.

MULLINS & SONS,
218-220 Market St., Newark.
Branch Houses 78-84 Myrtle Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y. 121-125 Newark Ave., Jersey City, N. J., 136-138 Main St., Paterson, N. J.

A Lady's Easy Rocker
or sewing chair given to all purchasers of one pound of Baking Powder.
We handle all good kinds of Teas and Coffee, at prices to suit the times
Goods purchased if not satisfactory money refunded.

GRAND UNION TEA CO.
138 West Front street.
John J. Crouse, Manager.

DEAD HORSES
Removed free. Buckman Brothers, 611 South Second Street. Main office New Brunswick N. J. Telephone Call, 65 F.
Fertilizer Works, Livingston Park, N. J.
4 3 3m

Arrival and Departure of Mails

NEW YORK MAILS.

Arrive—7:30, 8:40, 11:30 a. m., 3:00, 5, 6:30 p. m
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m., 12:30, 3:00, 5:00, 7:30 p.m.

SOMERVILLE and EASTON.

Arrive—8:40 a. m., 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m., 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.

Arrive—8:40 and 11:30 a. m., 1:00 and 3:00 p. m.
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a. m., 5:00 p. m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE.

Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.

Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M

STAGE ROUTE.
Plainfield and Scotch Plains.

STAGE LEAVES PLAINFIELD
(E. FRONT ST., OPP. PARK AVE.)
9:30 a. m., 12:45, 4:00 and 6:00 P. M.

STAGE LEAVES SCOTCH PLAINS
(FRONT POST OFFICE)
10:30 a. m., 2:00, 5:00 and 7:00 p. m.

Upon notice a special stage will be held for parties of six or more attending the theatre or other attraction.

THOS. NEWMAN, Prop.

WHAT IS WORN.

Attractive Novelties For the Warm Weather Season.

Satin cloth still enjoys great favor for costumes of moderate elegance. There are also new varieties of cloth, prepared for warmer weather, which are very light, fine and beautiful. Light tones predominate, and all shades of gray are to be fashionable, as well as red, fawn and tobacco brown.

Capes and wraps of the tailor made style are trimmed almost exclusively with stitching, and the stitching is usually of a contrasting shade. It not only heads the circular flounces which are the finish of most wraps and re-enforces the collar, but designs yokes and ornamental forms—trefoils, Greek borders, etc.—on the goods. Mauve stitching on purple cloth and straw on copper may be cited as examples of this mode.

CLOTH BODICE.

Little shirred toques of mousseline de sole or tulle are charmingly trimmed with flowers—cyclamens, violets, moss roses, etc. They are lifted high at the side, and the flowers are placed next the hair.

Among the most exquisite of new fabrics for evening wear are rather heavy but transparent gauzes, woven with a thick silk border along one edge and a fringe beyond that. The border is enriched by designs in the oriental style and is about three inches wide. These gauzes are seen in all delicate colors.

An illustration is given which depicts a bodice notable for a spring walking gown. It is of gray satin cloth and is tight fitting, with a short, rounded basque. The yoke and collar are of garnet velvet, and bands of the velvet cross the front in military style. The top of the gray cloth sleeves is cut away to show garnet velvet shoulder pieces, and the sleeves are additionally trimmed with bands of velvet and steel buttons. The pelerine is composed of four small, flat ruffles of cloth, with velvet at the edges. The collar is lined with gray cloth and flares over at the top.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

THE FASHIONS.

Attractive Novelties For the Seasonable Wardrobe.

The little vests worn with Louis Quinze coats are appropriately adorned with embroidered pocket flaps and are closed with small but elegant buttons, placed close together.

The princess form of the tunic costume promises to be the favorite for warm weather street costumes to be worn without a wrap. It is as yet impossible to tell definitely whether the trailing skirt is to be retained.

TUNIC COSTUME.

Collars and revers of shirred satin, in white or light shades, are increasingly used on gowns of cloth, wool or dark silk.

The long cape, or mantle, closely defining the shoulders and bust, has completely displaced the fluffy cape so long in favor and so universally becoming. The new wraps are far less voluminously trimmed, but not less richly, the embroidery and flat applications employed being often of extravagant cost. It is likely that silk wraps of the same clinging description, but much lighter and thinner than those of cloth, will be worn during the summer.

The picture shows a charming costume, consisting of princess redingote or tunic of gray cloth over a plaited skirt of lettuce green taffeta. The redingote has a train and is embroidered with applications of gray cloth and black velvet, mingled with silver. It fastens at the side with silver buttons and has embroidered sleeve caps. The single revers is of white Richelieu lace, and the lower part of the sleeves is covered with the same decoration. The collar is of green taffeta. The color combination is new and extremely attractive.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Oldenburg.

Bockhorn. Vom hiesigen Gemeinderath ist beschlossen worden, ein Krankenhaus zu erbauen, und wird zu diesem Zwecke jetzt in nächster Nähe Bockhorns hierzu Land anzukaufen gesucht.

Mecklenburg.

Schwerin. Eine neue Hoftracht der Geistlichen wurde kürzlich angeordnet. Es ist der sogenannte „deutsche Rock," ein bis auf die Knie reichender Rock, der von oben bis zur Taille mit sieben Knöpfen geschlossen wird und mit einem Stehkragen versehen ist, durch dessen sieben Centimeter breite Oeffnung die weiße Halsbinde hindurchschaut. Nur bei Galakouren soll der Talar getragen werden.

Braunschweig. Lippe.

Braunschweig. Die Stadtverordneten erklärten einstimmig die Anlage eines Stichkanals als eine Lebensfrage für Stadt und Land und stellten einen entsprechenden Beitrag oder eine Zinsgarantie in Aussicht. Es wurde eine Kommission eingesetzt, die die Angelegenheit weiter verfolgen soll.

Detmold. Vermächtnisse im Betrage von 27,000 Mark sind von den verstorbenen Eheleuten Gymnasial-Direktor a. D. Herrmann und Frau testamentarisch ausgesetzt worden. Es erhielten unter Anderem: der Gustav Adolf-Verein 2000 Mark, Lippischer Pestalozzi-Verein 2000 Mark, Paulinen-Anstalt 1000 Mark und Herberge zur Heimath hierselbst 1000 Mark, Diakonissen-Anstalt Kaiserswerth 1000 Mark, v. Bodelschwing'sche Anstalten 1000 Mark, Kasse des nationalliberalen Reichsvereins zu Berlin 1000 Mark 2c.

Großherzogthum Hessen.

Darmstadt. Hier verschied plötzlich am Herzschlag der verantwortliche Redakteur der offiziösen „Darmstädter Zeitung," Hofrath Becker. Der Verstorbene stand noch im besten Mannesalter.

Mainz. Vor der Strafkammer hatte sich der frühere Gendarm Paul Kesselring in Worms wegen Majestätsbeleidigung zu verantworten. Er hatte in der Trunkenheit beleidigende Aeußerungen gegen den Kaiser gebraucht. Das Gericht erkannte auf Freisprechung, weil der Angeklagte sich seiner Worte jedenfals nicht bewußt war, auch sei von einem früheren Gendarm, der sich gut geführt hatte, nicht anzunehmen, daß er den Kaiser beleidigen wollte.

Nieder-Ingelheim. In der hiesigen Cementfabrik verunglückte der Arbeiter Alois Martin. Er war damit beschäftigt, einen Treibriemen aufzulegen. Hierbei wurde er von der Transmission erfaßt, in die Höhe geschleudert und schwer am Unterleib verletzt.

Vilbel. Zwischen hier und Berkersheim wurde die Leiche des seit sechs Wochen vermißten 15jährigen Töchterchens des Maurerpoliers Vetter aus der Ried geländet. Das Mädchen wurde seiner Zeit beschuldigt, einer im Elternhause wohnenden Frau 5 Mark entwendet zu haben, und hatte sich den Vorwurf so zu Herzen genommen, daß es freiwillig den Tod suchte. Das Geld hat sich später wieder gefunden.

Bayern.

München. Der Magistrat beschloß nach Antrag des Schulraths Dr. Kerschensteiner für das Schuljahr 1899 für Knaben 30 Turnspiel-Klassen und für Mädchen 33 solche zu bilden. Unter den 30 Knabenklassen sind vier für die Fortbildungsschüler und drei für Feiertagsschülerinnen.—Hier ist der Raubmörder Egger hingerichtet worden.—Der Rathhaushorwart Matthäus Gumerum rettete kürzlich unter eigener Lebensgefahr im Englischen Garten einen hiesigen Wirth von dem selbstgesuchten Tode des Ertrinkens.

Aibling. Das Herrschaftsgut Schloß Zinneberg, früher im Besitze des Grafen Arco-Zinneberg, zuletzt der Familie v. Scanzoni gehörig, wurde dieser Tage mit den Nebengütern Egmating und Niederseeon um etwa 2,000,000 Mark an Rentier Byfing in Hamburg verkauft. Wie man hört, soll das von der Kurfürstin Leopoldine zu Ende des vorigen Jahrhunderts erbaute Schloß abgetragen und an dessen Stelle ein moderner Bau aufgeführt werden.

Allach. Neulich Abends gerieth im hiesigen Bahnhofe der Arbeiter Karl Schnell beim Rangiren zwischen die Puffer zweier Wagen und wurde förmlich zerquetscht, so daß er sofort todt blieb.

Hof. Die neue Baumwollspinnerei und Weberei hier hat durch Generalversammlungs-Beschluß dem Verschönerungsverein und dem Diakonissenverein je 1000 Mark überwiesen.

Neustadt a. d. Aisch. Dieser Tage wurde hier einer der ältesten Lehrer Bayerns, Herr Johannes Konrad Grau, 86 Jahre alt, in's Grab gebettet. Er wirkte lange Jahre in Gutenstetten, später in Schwabheim und verlebte nach seiner Pensionirung den Rest seiner Jahre hier in seiner Ge-[illegible]

Nürnberg. Zur Hebung des Obst- und Gemüsebaues in Bayern hat die Regierung die Anstellung eines Obstbauinspektors beschlossen. In Aussicht genommen ist der königliche Obergärtner Mertens in Geisenheim. Seinen Wohnsitz wird er hier nehmen und seine Thätigkeit voraussichtlich am 15. Mai beginnen.

(B) AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED

Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.

A Bold Move In
Parlor Suits
Without an Equal in the History of This House!
Even that great 3rd floor of ours doesn't begin to hold 'em all. The Parlor
Suit Like Cut, $19.75—$30 usually.

Carved mahogany-finish frame—green Roman plush, embroidered backs, elegant and striking. Others at even greater price-drops.

Full overstuff tapestry covering, tops tufted and corded.
At $45.50, was $65.

Again, inlaid, mahogany-finish frame, Roman plush covering.
At $50, was $75.

And—striped Silk Damask Suit, mahogany frame, piano polish—at $75—was $125.

Another—having Turkish backs, full overstuffed—heavy fringe, for $90—was $175.

Bedroom Suits
—A great crash in their prices, too.
For $10.98—a $14 Suit.
Antique oak finish, well constructed, nice looking.
For $14.98—a $20 Suit.
24x30 mirror, all new in shape and make-up.
For $55—a $75 Suit.
Elegant—in curly birch—superbly carved.
Fully 300 other suits at lowest prices ever put on record.
Carpets—All in
This season's loveliest colors and patterns—thousands of rolls—prices that NO other store can touch, they're so low.
Go-Carts—$2.49
And up—biggest line in all this city. Baby Carriages, too—$3.48 up.

SWEEPING REDUCTIONS ON SIDEBOARDS AND EXTENSION TABLES.

The Portland Range—and the Domestic Sewing Machine—2 good things.

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St., Near Plane St., Newark, N. J.
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS.
Note first name "Amos."
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.
CARFARE PAID TO OUT-OF-TOWN BUYERS.
A Private Delivery Wagon Sent on Request.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO

SPECIAL SALE.
We will sell skirts and suits of our own make for this week at a price that will require no brass band to sell. An examination of our goods is all that is necessary. Ladies, as a rule, know where and when to buy. Our prices are lower than the lowest. For fit and make there are no equal in town. Call and inspect our stock.
Cloos & Richardson. LADIES' TAILORS, 325 W. FRONT ST

SPRING HATS,
SPRING NECKTIES.
SPRING SHIRTS
AT
JAMES R. BLAIR'S,
126 PARK AVENUE.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER.
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phoenix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. Life INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672.

COAL
C is for coal, clean, cheery and cheap.
O is the order to lay in a heap.
A is the atmosphere warmed by its glow.
L is the light that starts it to go, and to get the best coal buy of Stevens & Co.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.
THE DELINEATOR AND GLASS OF FASHION
For April Now Ready. Ask for the April Fashion Sheet.
Subscriptions taken.
A. L. & M. D. GORSLINE,
144 PARK AVE. PLAINFIELD, N. J.

5,000 FEET OF
MOULDINGS IN GILT AND HARD WOOD
Bring Your Pictures and Have Them Framed
At the PLAINFIELD ART GALLERY, Y. M. C. A. Building

Jersey Poultry
is the specialty of
SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue
Have you tried their
SAUSAGE
It is the best made in
PLAINFIELD

Elston M. French & Co.
Successors to VanBuren Bros.
Real Estate and Insurance.
Largest agency in the city. Loans negotiated.
168 NORTH AVENUE.
Opposite Depot

H. Eggerding,
131 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall Streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 20th, 1898.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 7 00, 7 26, 8 00, 7 55, 9 00, 8 13, 8 30, 8 37, 8 48, 9 35, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 03, 1 15, 2 12, 2 29, 3 12, 3 46, 4 54, 5 37, 6 54, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45, 7 09, 7 39, 8 45, 9 15, 10 17, 11 28 p. m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 50, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 16, a. m.; 12 m., 1 45, 3 17, 5 30, 6 41, 6 52, 8 18, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

Leave New York, foot Liberty St. at 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10 10 00 a. m.; 12 00 m., 1 00, 1 30, 2 00, 3 00, 3 45, 4 00, 4 40, 5 00, 5 15, 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 30, 11 45 p. m.; 12 15, 1 00 night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 00, 9 00, 9 15, a. m.; 12 m.; 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 10 00 p. m.; 12 15 night; 1 00 a. m.

Leave New York South Ferry from Whitehall St. at 7 10, 7 55, 8 35, 9 05, 9 55, 11 55 a. m., 12 55, 1 25, 2 25, 3 25, 3 35, 3 55, 4 35, 4 55, 5 25, 5 55, 6 10, 6 25, 6 55, 7 25, 7 40, 8 10, 9 10, 9 55, 11 40 p. m., 12 10 night. Sundays—At 6 55, 8 55 a. m., 12 00 m., 12 55, 1 25, 3 55, 6 40, 7 25, 8 55, 9 55 p. m., 12 10 night.

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 37, 6 29, 7 00, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 25, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 1 15, 2 12, 3 20, 3 12, 3 46, 4 54, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 8 45, 10 17, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 32, 10 22 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 00, 8 05 8 38, 9 03, 10 03 a. m.; 12 10, 1 05, 1 35, 2 40, 3 35, 4 02, 4 40, 5 04, 5 45, 6 19, 7 35, 8 10, 9 35, 10 05, 11 26 p. m. Sunday, 7 15, 9 05, 11 35 a. m.; 1 10, 2 45, 4 05, 5 55, 7 35, 9 15, 10 15 p. m.

Passengers for Newark please change car Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00 m., 1 01, 2 11, 2 27, 3 32, 4 35, 5 03 54, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 26, 11 29, p. m; 12 44 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 06 55, a.m; 2 08, 3 40, 5 08, 6 35, 8 30, 10 16, 11 14 p.m

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7, 7 27, 7 33, 7 45, 8 20, 9 15, 9 35, 10 15, 11 45, a. m; 12 50, 1 53, 2 05 3 20, 4 30, 5 28, 6 05, 6 08, 6 45, 8 22, 8 45, 11 05 p. m. Sunday at 8 25, 9 48, 10 45 a. m; 12 35, 1 20, 5 15, 6 27, 7 53, 8 08, 8 45, 10 00 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m., 1 01 5 25, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45, 6 06 a. m; 2 08 6 35 p. m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 01, 8 15, a. m; 12 36, 4 10, 5 10, 7 17, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 11 22 a. m; 6 20 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield 7 12 a. m; 5 25 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c., with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

1 01 p. m. way for Easton, German Valley and Chester, connecting at Junction for station on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 27 p. m. For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaquua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton, with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

5 25 p. m. for Flemington and Easton connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For German Valley and Chester, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

8 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Easton.

2 08 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley and Flanders, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

6 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc., and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 8 37, (5 27 for Sea Girt 6 13, 10:27 a. m.; 3 46, 6 21 p. m. Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 6 13, 8 37, 9 58, 10:27 a. m; 1 15, 3 46, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 8 45 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a.m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 15 p m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 6 13, 10:27 a. m.; 1 15, 3 46, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat 5 37, 3 13 p 38 (Lakewood only) a.m., 1 15, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 29, 9 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, 5 34*, 6 38*, 8 21, p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55, 10 44 a.m.; 2 16, 4 55, 5 09*, 6 38* p m.; 1 17 night

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 29, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01 1 16, 4 14, 5 34*, 6 38* 8 21, p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, 5 09*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 5 34*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night, Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a.m; 2 16, 5 09*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 6 38 p m. Sundays, 6 38 p m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H OLHAUSEN, General Superintendent.

H. P. BALDWIN, General Passenger Agent

LEHIGH VALLEY RAILROAD

Time table in effect Feb. 5, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

WESTWARD.

5 05 a. m. daily, 6 25 a. 26 p. m. daily except Sundays. Easton local.

6 25 p. m. Sunday evening local for Mauch Chunk.

9 03 a. m. daily; Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

11 02 a. m., 5 22 and 9 43 p. m. daily except Sunday. Local for Bound Brook.

12 52 p. m. daily except Sunday "Black Diamond Express" for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

2 04 p. m. daily local for Easton and Wilkes-Barre.

4 58 p. m. daily except Sunday, express for WilkesBarre, Scranton, Pottsville, Hazleton, Shamokin, L. & B. Junction and principal intermediate stations.

7 03 and 9 32 p. m. daily, solid vestibule express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

9 02 p. m. Daily express for Easton, Bethlehem, Mauch Chunk, Sayre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge, carries sleeping car passengers only, and no baggage east of Buffalo.

EASTWARD.

For New York and Brooklyn local 6 49, 7 40 and 9 40 a. m., 3 04 and 5 18 p. m. daily except Sunday. Sunday 10 29 a.m., and 6 04 p.m. Express 7 06, 8 14, 10 09 a.m., 12 15, 2 50, 5 10, 7 07 and 9 06 p. m. daily except Sunday. Sunday 7 06 8 14 a.m., 2 50 and 7 07 p. m.

PERTH AMBOY BRANCH.

For Perth Amboy and intermediate stations 6 12 10 06 a. m., 5 22 and 7 23 p. m. daily except Sundays. Sunday 10 29 a. m. and 7 06 p. m.

Trains leave Perth Amboy (State street) 7 13 8 25 a. m., 4 30 and 6 35 p. m., daily except Sunday. Sunday 7:13 a. m. and 5 43 p. m.

For further information call on or address the Ticket Agent, South Plainfield, N. J. Through tickets to all important western points may be purchased at the South Plainfield office.

Col. ROLLIN H. WILBUR, General Superintendent. S. Bethlehem, Pa.

CHAS. S. LEE, General Passenger Agent 26 Cortlandt St., N. Y. City.

NEW YORK TERMINALS—Foot of Cortlandt Desbrosses and West 23d streets.

A WOUNDED NAME

BY BRIG. GEN. CHAS. KING, U.S.A.

[Copyright, 1899, by F. Tennyson Neely.]

[CONTINUED.]

CHAPTER XXII.

Another week, and all Wyoming was awake and thrilling. There had been dreadful doings on the Big Horn, and John Folsom's prophecy had come true. Enticing one detachment after another from the stockade at Warrior Gap by show of scattered bands of braves, that head devil of the Ogallalas, Red Cloud, had gradually surrounded three companies with ten times their force of fighting men and slaughtered every soldier of the lot.

There had been excitement at Gate City during a brief visit of the general and his aid inspecting the affairs of Major Burleigh, who, confined to his bed by nervous prostration and forbidden by the doctor to see anybody, had nevertheless sent his keys and books and bank account, and, to the mystification of the chief, more money was found in the big office safe at the depot quartermaster's than was necessary to cover his accountability.

The general and his inspector were fairly puzzled. They personally questioned the bank cashier and the quartermaster's clerks. They ransacked that safe and poured over the books, both there and at the bank. The only queer thing discovered was that a large sum of money—$5,000 or so—had been withdrawn from the bank in cash one day and within the week replaced.

Then the general had to turn back to Cheyenne and hasten thence to the forts along the Platte to expedite the sending of his soldiers to the relief of the beleaguered posts along the Big Horn, the tidings of the massacre reaching Gate City and plunging Fort Emory in mourning only a few hours after his departure.

Then came still another excitement at Gate City. Major Burleigh had suddenly become endowed with new youth and energy. He who was declared by his physicians to be in a critical condition, one demanding the utmost quiet, he who could not even see the department commander and of whom the doctor had said it might be weeks before he was again fit for duty, had sprung from his bed, dictated certain letters, wired important news to the chief quartermaster at Omaha, demanded of the railway authorities an engine and caboose to bear him over the newly completed mountain division to Cheyenne, had taken every cent from his private safe, had entered his office at an early hour, satchel and safe key in hand, was confounded by the sight of two clerks there smoking forbidden pipes and, turning, without a word had fled. One of these was the young man who so recently had written to a confidant in Omaha telling of Burleigh's queer doings and his own desire to get from under.

It transpired later that Burleigh went back to the bank, presented a check for the balance to his credit and demanded currency, but the cashier had become alarmed by the investigations made by the general and had temporized, said he must consult the president and asked the major to call two hours later, whereat Burleigh had taken alarm. He was looking ghastly, said the cashier. It was apparent to every one that, mentally, bodily or both, the lately debonair and successful man of the world had lost his grip.

And before even the swift running engine could have landed the fugitive in Cheyenne the truth was known. The package purporting to contain $10,000 in currency for the payment of the workmen at Warrior Gap, sealed in Burleigh's office and sent at incredible risk by the hands of a young cavalry officer with only ten troopers through the Indian lines, borne intact to the commanding officer of the new post, though its gallant guardians had run the gantlet at the cost of the blood of more than half their number, was found when opened to hold nothing but waste paper.

Then indeed was explained Burleigh's insistence. Then indeed was apparent why he had not pressed his charges against the officer who had publicly horsewhipped him. Then indeed was explained why good old John Folsom had withdrawn so large a sum in cash from the bank and how Burleigh was enabled to replace what he himself had taken. Then did it begin to dawn on people where Hank Birdsall, "the Pirate of the Plains," as he had been alliteratively described, had got the "straight tip" which enabled him to instantly enlist the services of so many outlawed men in a desperate game.

Gradually as the whole scheme became evident and the truth leaked out Gate City woke up to a pitch of pious fury against its late popular and prominent "boomer" and citizen. Gradually it dawned upon them that, in jealous hatred of the young soldier whom Folsom's lovely daughter seemed to favor, he had first sought to undermine him, then to ruin and finally to make way with, even while at the same time covering the tracks of his own criminality.

It was Elinor Folsom's lover, Lieutenant Dean, who horsewhipped him for good and sufficient reasons. It was Elinor's father who bribed him with a big and sorely needed loan to prefer no charges against the boy. It was Burleigh who almost immediately after this tremendous episode had secured the sending of Lieutenant Dean on a mission so fraught with peril that the chances were ten to one against his ever getting through alive.

Colonel Stevens himself had met him on arrival.

Who could have "posted" Birdsall but Burleigh? Who could say what the amount of his shortage really was? The key of the big safe was gone with him, and in that safe at the time of the general's visit was at least $15,000. Old Pecksniff, commanding officer at Fort Emory, had wired to department headquarters.

An expert safe opener was ordered out from Chicago, and right in the midst of all the turmoil there suddenly appeared upon the scene a blue eyed young man, with pale features, clear cut and strong, a light brown mustache that shaded his mouth, and, though he wore no uniform, the rumor went round that this was Lieutenant Loring of the engineers. Infantry and cavalry, commissaries and quartermasters, doctors and sutlers, the denizens of Gate City well knew as attachments of the army. But what the mischief was an engineer? Loring put up at Gate City's new hotel, simply registering as from Omaha, but that he bore credentials and was a man of mark Gate City learned from the fact that Colonel Stevens himself had met him on arrival and wished to take him out to the fort, and was ill pleased when Mr. Loring explained that his business would be best performed in town. Gate City followed the young man with eager eyes, confident that engineer must be the army name for detective. He studied the hotel register. He curiously examined all relics of the late lamented Newhall, who disappeared before Burleigh. He questioned the clerks at the corral, reconnoitered the neighborhood, asked what were their means of defense, turned inside out a worn yet shapely boot that had been the captain's, bade man after man to describe that worthy and finally walked away from the depot, having picked up lots of information and imparted none.

He spent some time at Folsom's that evening. He drove out to the fort in the afternoon, "and what do you think he wanted?" said old Pecksniff, whose command had been cut down to one company and the band. "Wanted me to post a strong guard over the quartermaster's depot lest that dashed marauding gang of Birdsall's should gallop in some night with Burleigh's safe key and get away with the funds. I asked him if those were the general's orders, and he said no. I asked him if they were anybody's orders, and he said no. I asked him if it was anybody's idea but his own, and he said no, and then I told him, by gad, I hadn't men enough to guard the public property here at the post. The quartermaster's depot was responsible for most of them being away. Let them take care of their own."

Gate City hotel was alive with loungers that night, waiting for the engineer. At 9:30 he had come from the quartermaster's corral and after a few minutes had gone away with Mr. Folsom, who drove up in his carriage. He was up at the old man's now, said the impatient ones, fooling away the time with the girls when he ought to be there answering their questions and appeasing their curiosity. The talk turned on the probable whereabouts of Burleigh and his "pal." So had the mighty fallen that the lately fawning admirers now spoke of the fugitive as a criminal. He couldn't follow the Union Pacific east. Everybody knew him, and by this time officers were on the lookout for him all along the road. He had reached Cheyenne, that was known, and had driven away from there up the valley of Crow creek with two companions. Loring himself had ascertained this in Cheyenne, but it was the sheriff who gave out the information.

He was in hiding, declared the knowing ones, in some of the haunts of Birdsall's fellows, east of Laramie City, a growing town of whose prowess at poker and keno Gate City was professionally aware and keenly jealous. He might hide there a day or two and then get out of the country by way of Sweetwater along the old stage route to Salt Lake, or skip southward and make for Denver. Northward he dare not go. There were the army posts along the Platte, beyond them the armed hosts of Indians, far more to be dreaded than all the sheriffs' posses on the plains.

Ten-thirty came and still no Loring, and the rounds of drinks were getting monotonous. Judge Pardee, a bibulous and oracular limb of the law, had been chosen inquisitor general, with powers to call for all the news that was stowed away in that secretive "knowledge box" on the shoulders of the engineer. Gate City had resolved and "lowed" that a man reputed to know so much should be held up and compelled to part with at least a little. Jimmy Peters, the landlord's boy, scouting out to Folsom's, came back on the run, breathless from three-quarters of a mile of panting through that rare atmosphere, to say that he had just seen a couple of officers ride away to the fort, and old man Folsom, with "the engineer feller," was coming out the front gate. They'd be along in a few minutes.

So in their eagerness some of the loungers strolled out in front and gazed westward up the long, broad, hard beaten street on which, in many a spot, the bunch grass of the prairie still lingered. It was a lovely summer night, warm, starlit, but the moon had early sunk to rest, and the darkness was intense, yet the first men to come forth could have sworn they saw two horsemen, dim and shadowy, go loping across the broad thoroughfare from north to south at the first cross streets. There was nothing remarkable in horsemen being abroad at that hour. Horses were tethered now in front of the hotel. What was strange was that they passed within a mile of Peter's bar and didn't stop for a drink. Men who are capable of that neglect of opportunity and the attendant privilege of "setting 'em up" for all hands could be nothing less than objects of suspicion.

Two minutes later and somebody said, "Shut up!" a frontierism for "Hush!" and all ears were turned expectant. No, there was no sound of brisk, springy footsteps on the elastic wooden walk. Already men had noted that quick, alert, soldierly gait of the new officer. But "Shut up!" was repeated when audible murmurs were made.

"There's more fellers a-horseback up yonder. Who in 'ell's out tonight?" queried the citizen with the keenest ears. "Jimmy, boy, run up there and scout. I'll give you a dime."

And Jimmy, nothing loath, was off, swift and noiseless as an arrow. It was time for Loring and "old man Folsom" to be getting there if they were coming, and the boy was athrill with excitement and interest.

Bending low, as he knew the Indians went on scout, springing along the plank walk, he shot like a flitting specter up the street, stooping lower and glaring to left and right at the first crossing, but seeing nobody. A noiseless run of a third of a mile brought him to a corner where, looking southward by day, one could see the flagstaff and the big white gateway and beyond it the main office of the quartermaster's corral. Staff and gateway were invisible now, but beyond the latter gleamed two lights, each in a separate window of that office. Why should the curtains be up now? Why, indeed! It was a question that interested other prowlers besides himself, for, as he paused for breath, close at hand he heard the stamp of a horse's hoof, followed by a muttered curse, an evident jerk of the bit and jab with the spurs, for the tortured creature plunged and stamped in pain. "Keep that dashed broncho quiet!" growled a voice. "You'll give the whole thing away!"

"It's given away now," was the surly half whisper in reply, "else those fellows would never be up at this hour of the night. They've mounted guard. Where'd the man go with the key?"

Mr. Loring, with his grip on the collar and his pistol at his captive's ear.

"Up to Folsom's back gate. Three of our fellows are shadowing him, though. He can't get away with it. He said he had to see his wife or she'd betray the whole business."

"All the same I don't like it. The old man always has a raft of fort people there. Hello, listen!"

All on a sudden there came from afar up the broad avenue the sound of scurrying hoofs. Down through the darkness, louder and louder, spurring and thundering, came three horsemen whom the shadows at the corner reined out eagerly to meet. There was no suspense.

"Come on!" savagely growled a hoarse voice. "The game's up. Newhall's wife led him square into a trap. They've got him, key and all."

Then away they rode, athirst and blasphemous, and away sped Jimmy with his wondrous news, and out tumbled the loungers at Peter's bar, the judge and the sheriff last, and those who had horses mounted and galloped up to Folsom's and those who had not trudged enviously after, and a few minutes later there was gathered at the corral a panting and eager band of men, for thither had Mr. Loring, with his grip on the collar and his pistol at his captive's ear, marched an ashen faced, scowling, scurrilous man, a dashing looking fellow at times, a raging rascal now, cursing his wife for a foul traitress, cursing his captor for an accomplice, saying filthy words about women in general, until choked by a twist of the collar. Into the lighted office and the presence of two armed clerks the engineer marched his man, the first arrivals following eagerly until the door was shut and barred. Into the hands of a sheriff did Loring personally commit his prisoner. Then calling to his aid the chief clerk he tried the key in the lock of the safe. It worked exactly. Then he turned to the civil officer of the law.

"Guard this man well," said he. "He has escaped twice before. It is not Captain Newhall. He is a thief—whose name is Nevins."

"And you hear me, young cock of the walk," was the furious outbreak of the captive runagate, "you stole that key from me, to whom it was given to deliver to Colonel Stevens. It isn't the first time you stole, either. You'll sweat for this night's work so sure as there's a God in heaven!"

TO BE CONTINUED

HURRAH! HURRAH! HURRAH!

Here we are, the largest and best equipped laundry in your State. We not only say this, but it is a positive fact. Our numerous laundries and branches are located in all the principal cities of the States of NEW YORK, NEW JERSEY AND PENNSYLVANIA.

And can frankly say that the work turned out by each is appreciated by our numerous patrons. The introduction of has gained great fame. And still another great advantage is gained by your laundry coming to us, and that is, all your open front shirts are ironed by hand. Your collars and cuffs are turned and tipped in the proper way the maker intends them to be. Telephone or drop us postal. Will call and deliver free of charge.

Our Celebrated Domestic Finish

City Steam and Hand Laundry

19 SOMERSET ST.

TELEPHONE.

Morey & LaRue, Proprietors.

PLAINFIELD N. J.

McCullough's STEAM MILL.

34 Steiner place, North Plainfie

R. H. McCullough, Prop'

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnishe

C. ARNOLD, 35 Somerset Street,

has an elegant display of

Genuine Spring Lamb,

JERSEY BROILERS AND POULTRY

of all kinds. It will do your heart good to inspect my stock before purchasing your Sunday dinner. 3 21 tf

REMOVAL.

I have moved my stock of

BOOTS AND SHOES

TO 120 W. FRONT ST., with Crane, the hatter,

B. R. FORCE.

FRENCH

Plate glass mirror oak mantel, complete with summer front, for $13.00. You can't equal it elsewhere.

CURTIS M. THORPE,

310-312 PARK AVE.

L. A. HUMMER,

Variety Market.

Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.

163 SOMERSET STREET.

Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

SHERIFF'S SALE—In Chancery of New Jersey. Between Charles DeHart Brower, complainant, and Elizabeth B. Demarest and others, defendants. Fi. fa. for sale of mortgaged premises.

By virtue of the above stated writ of fieri facias, to me directed, I shall expose for sale by public vendue, at the Court House, in the city of Elizabeth, N. J., on at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, all that tract or parcel of land and premises hereinafter particularly described, situate lying and being in the city of Plainfield, in the county of Union and state of New Jersey;

WEDNESDAY, THE NINETEENTH DAY OF APRIL, A. D. 1899,

Beginning at a point, being the southerly corner of Crescent avenue and Seventh street, thence along the southwesterly line of Crescent avenue a southeasterly course two hundred (200) feet to a point and corner of land of Job Male; thence along lands of said Job Male in a southwesterly course one hundred and three (103) feet, more or less, to a corner of Henry B. Morehouse's land; thence along his line in a northwesterly course one hundred and ninety-seven (197) feet, more or less, to the southeasterly line of Seventh street; thence along said southeasterly line of Seventh street in a northeasterly course one hundred and nineteen (119) feet, more or less, to the place of beginning.

Being the same premises conveyed to the said David M. Demarest by George Watson and wife by deed, on the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, and recorded 13th of October, 1874, in book 94 of deeds for Union county, pages 209, 210 and 211.

WILLIAM T. KIRK, Sheriff.

COWLES & CAREY, Sol'rs.

3 20 td EDJ&PP Fees—$8.10.

Advertised Letters

Plainfield, N. J., April 10, 1899

Ackerman Miss Susan
Bantle Miss Johanna
Berry Mr John
Bolinger Mrs Jos.
Brennan Mrs Eliza th
Brennan Miss Mary
Fifield Mr W B
Francis Mr A J
Goodhue Mrs Fred
Hanshaw Mr S W
Hoff Mrs Ella J
Metcalf Mrs Manton
Miles Mrs
Musen Messrs F & F
Morris Mrs C A
Peterson Miss Eliza-th
Phillips Mrs H H
Sanders Mr J A
Schwartz Mr K
Smith Mr DeWitt
Steele Mr M
Stone Miss Mary
Volkman Miss M J
Walter Miss Lena
X L care P. O Box 18
Z Mrs

E. H. BIRD, P. M. Plainfield, N. J.

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anæsthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. C. W. LEONARD.
FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.
Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.
Office Hours, 8 to 6.

M. POWERS,

DEALER IN

LEHIGH COAL.

FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.

Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A.
Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills

25c.

A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.

MALLINSON'S

North and Watchung avenues.

STATIONERY at HARPER'S,

411 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J

RUSHMORE & CO.

WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST.

Dealers in

Lumber, Coal and Wood

Moulding & Planing Mill

Turning and Scroll Sawing.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN

is a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 5c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 209 North avenue.

HEADQUARTERS FOR

Plants and Cut Flowers.

Chas. L. Stanley 142 North Avenue.

FLORAL DESIGNS A SPECIALTY.

Greenhouses, South Avenue, Netherwood.

TRY THE

QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,

No. 337 Park Avenue

(Miller Building.)

Goods called for and delivered free of charge.

Domestic or gloss finish.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.

MONEY TO LOAN.

197 North Ave.

Wm. D. Thickstun. John F. Emmot

Telephone 601.

This is a money-back store.

EXTRACT VANILLA 75c PER HALF PINT

Extracted From Selected Mexican Bean

POWERS Prescription Pharmacy

Somerset St Craig Pl.

J. C. STORM :

Dealer in all kinds of Choice Meats, Canada Mutton. Jersey Pork. Strictly Fresh-Killed Poultry.

Game in Season. All Kinds of Bologna.

318 Liberty-Street, near Fourth St.

ALEX. LUSARDI.

211 West Front Street,

Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery. Nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores 9 9 1 year

J. C. Pope & Co.,

INSURANCE AGENTS.

110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

Wm. J. Pearson,

(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)

Carpenter and Builder

15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to.

A. DUNHAM,

CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.

109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87 F

William Hand & Son,

STAGES

For Parties, etc. 518 Park avenue

Flynn Bros.,

SHOE DEALERS,

222 WEST FRONT STREET,

Near Music Hall,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods

Have stood the test for years.

LAIRE'S

SPRING AND SEASONABLE GOODS.

Garden Wheel Barrows.
Garden Tools, all kinds.
Garden Seeds, all varieties.
Lawn Seed.
Lawn Dressing.
Fertilizers, all kinds.
Lawn Rakes.
Ask to see the finest family scale made, for $1.50.

TELEPHONE CALL 682.

THE J. P. LAIRE HARDWARE CO.

WASHINGTON

VIA

OLD POINT COMFORT

is the most attractive short trip at this season of the year.

STEAMSHIPS OF THE

OLD DOMINION LINE

PERFORM DAILY SERVICE.

Through tickets returning from Washington by rail or water.

For full information apply to

OLD DOMINION S. S. COMPANY,

Pier 26, North River, NEW YORK.

W. L. Guillaudeu, Vice-Pres.,

& Traffic Mgr.

10-28 11W

Ladies Desiring . . .

KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING

done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 208 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL.,

corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.

RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

L. MORALLER & SON

Watchmakers and Jewelers

HAVE REMOVED TO 219 PARK AVE.

Next to Armstrong's Drug Store. 3 15 1m

COLLIER,

SCIENTIFIC OPTICIAN.

Established 1869.

103 Park Avenue

Your Valuables,

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

HENRY J. WIERENGA,

Furniture and Freight Express.

Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Hat Store 126 Park avenue. 10 1 1y

E. S. F. RANDOLPH,

DRUGGIST,

Cor. Liberty and Fourth Sts. Telephone 781.

PRESCRIPTIONS FILLED DAY OR NIGHT.

H. HAND,

Licensed Auctioneer.

OFFICE—Corner South Ave. and Berckman St.

REAL ESTATE and FIRE INSURANCE.

11 16 1m

YOUNG VETS ORGANIZE.

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS TO PARTICIPATE IN DECORATION DAY.

Memorial Committee Appointed to Confer With the G. A. R.—The Young Fellows to Turn Out in Full Uniform.

A meeting of the soldiers and sailors of the last war, who are interested in some part in the Memorial Day celebrations, was held at the Boys' Club yesterday to make a few plans. The meeting was called to order by Chas. A. Peterson, and Comrade Stewart was made chairman. C. A. Peterson was appointed secretary and a memorial committee, consisting of Comrades Mair, Davis and King, was chosen to confer with the memorial committee from the G. A. R. As soon as this conference is held, another meeting of the boys will take place.

It is the intention of the boys to turn out in uniform, and an invitation is extended to any sailor or soldier, who enlisted last spring or summer, to join the movement.

B. A. Pollak, of Central avenue, has returned from a visit with Westfield friends.

SPORTING.

ON THE DIAMOND.

The first baseball game of the season in this city was played last Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the corner of Berckman street and North avenue, between the married and single men employed at the Aluminum Press and Plate Works. It required two hours to play the game and there were many exciting features. The single men finally won by a score of 36 to 6. The battery for the married men was P. Overbaugh, of Newark, pitcher, and Wm. Haley, of Elizabeth, catcher. For the single men Wesley Johnson, of Hoboken, was the pitcher, and Wm. Stanley, of Rahway, catcher. The game was unpired by Mr. Jones, of Bound Brook.

CYCLING COMMENT

Miss Mattie Merrill, of Sandford avenue, has purchased a new wheel which she enjoys very much.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

J. B. Cloos, of West Front street, entertained his brother from New York, yesterday.

Mrs. Milligan, of West Fourth street, has returned from a visit with relatives in Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Startup, of Westervelt avenue, are entertaining Mr. Startup's sisters from Middletown, N. Y.

Rev. C. G. Bristol and family, of Hartford, Conn., have returned home after a pleasant visit with Plainfield relatives.

Wm. A. Lord, a former resident on Belvidere avenue, but late of New York, has decided to return to Plainfield again, where he will reside.

Mrs. L. K. Clark, of New York, who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ford, of East Fourt street, has returned home.

WHERE IS BRIGGS?

Was Employed in the Central Railroad Office in New York.

Frank E. Briggs, of 837 Richmond street, left home over a week ago and has not been seen since. Briggs was employed in the Central Railroad building at 143 Liberty street, New York, and was also a member of the firm of Hartney & Briggs, insurance agents, of this city.

He has a wife and family, and Mrs. Briggs is greatly worried over the disappearance of her husband.

Clark T. Rogers' Case on.

William Newcorn is in New Brunswick today trying the case of Clark T. Rogers, of New Market, against the Brunswick Traction Company for damages sustained in an accident several months ago.

To Cure Constipation in One Week
To Purify the Blood in One Week
To Strengthen Nerves in One Week
To Cure Sick Headache in One Day

Take Cleveland's Celery Compound Tea, 25c. Trial size free. It it fails to cure your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenues.

Fun at Mock Trial

Lawyer S. S. Swachammer, of the borough, was in Whitehouse, Saturkay, where he acted as counsel for a party in a mock trial. The case was a breach of promise suit, and was held in Stillwell Hall for the benefit of the Star Social Club, of that place. Fred Pope, of the firm of Pope & Runyon, was the opposing counsel. The trial was a lively one, and made fun for a hall full of visitors for several hours.

Death of Mrs. Staats.

The death of Mrs. Staats, of West Second street, occurred today forenoon after a long illness. She was 87 years of age and one of Plainfield's best known residents. She has resided here for a great many years. She was an attendant at Trinity Reformed church. Among those who survive her is a son, Stephen Staats, with whom she lived.

—This week we will have North river and Delaware river shad for everybody. Rogers.

—A fair and bazaar under the auspices of the Children of Mary will open Wednesday in St. Joseph's church, and will continue through Thursday and Friday.

—Miss Huntington, of Hartford, Conn, will address a meeting in the Guild room of Grace P. E. church tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock on the subject of missionary work in China. All are invited.

A Frightful Blunder.

Will often cause a horrible Burn, Scald, Cut or Bruise. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, will kill the pain and promptly heal it. Cures Old Sores, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Boils, Felons, Corns, all Skin Eruptions. Best Pile cure on earth. Only 25 cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

A Woeful Waste

to discard a dress simply because it's a little faded, spotted, or color out of style. These dresses can be cleaned or dyed to a fashionable shade Saves buying new material and is just as good.

HILLIER & CO.,
129 West Front Street,
Opposite White's. 'Phone 851.

3000 Pairs of Knee Pants

Jos. Klein & Co.
Manufacturers of
BOYS' KNEE PANTS.

All Goods Made On the Premises

NEW YORK, MARCH 1, '99.

MR. M. WEINBERGER,
M'g'r New York Clothing Co.,
Plainfield, N. J.

DEAR SIR:—

We are ready to see you; have settled with insurance company and will keep goods until we see you. Make as early call as possible.

Yours truly,
JOS. KLEIN & CO.,
Manufacturers of knee pants exclusively.

A GREAT CHANCE FOR MOTHERS

to buy the finest knee pants at almost your own prices.

Jos. Klein & Co., are positively the largest manufacturers of knee pants in the United States. They occupy the building numbers 616 and 618 Broadway, New York City.

A fire started recently in the floor above their establishment, and their stock of knee pants was slightly damaged by water only, there is not a spot or a speck on the goods, and having bought this fine stock of over 3,000 pairs of strictly all wool materials of the standard Ashland Mills cassimeres, blue and black serges, fancy cheviots, blue and black clay diagonals, black cheviots and fancy worsteds knee pants. Every pair of them are perfect fitters, made with the patent waist bands and every seam is taped. The sizes are from 3 to 16 years.

These knee pants were manufactured to sell from 50c to 2.00 Our prices on these knee pants. A 50c knee pants at 17c, 65c pants at 25c, 75c pants at 29c and 1.00 pants at 38c, 1.25 pants at 50c. There are over 100 styles of knee pants to choose from.

Come early and get your grand selection. This is positively the largest assortment of knee pants ever shown in Plainfield. And having purchased them about 25c on the dollar, we can afford to sell them to you at almost your own price. Four large tables are reserved for this stock.

New York Clothing Co.

M. Weinberger, Manager. 214 West Front St., next door to Music Hall, Plainfield, N. J.

The SPERRY & HUTCHINSON Original

GREEN TRADING STAMPS

Can be Had From the Following Progressive PLAINFIELD MERCHANTS:

DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, ETC.:
I. H. Boehm, 111-113 West Front street.
GROCERS:
Fred W. Dunn, North and Park avenues.
N. K. Barnes, 245 West Front street.
J. F. MacDonald, 186 East Front street.
S. Sharky, Richmond and Third streets.
P. H. Currin, 196 Somerset street.
BUTCHERS:
Drake & Mundy, West Front street.
Drake & Mundy, Somerset street.
CLOTHIERS:
Schwed Bros., 107-109 East Front street.
BAKERS:
W. W. Warnock, 138 North Avenue.
Julius Stahl, Somerset street.

CONFECTIONERY:
J. J. Philpitt, 41 Somerset street.
COAL AND WOOD:
TenEyck & Harris, 121 Watchung avenue.
FURNITURE:
Garret Q. Packer, 301-305 West Front street.
GENT'S FURNISHINGS:
U. B. Crane, 120 West Front street.
JEWELER:
Asa Collier, 103 Park avenue.
LAUNDRY:
Morey & LaRue, 19 Somerset street.
STATIONERY:
J. M. Harper, 411 Park avenue.
PIANOS AND MUSIC DEALER.
W. R. Brokaw, 123 East Front street.

ASK FOR THEM.

FRANK L. C. MARTIN CYCLE CO.,

PIONEER BICYCLE HOUSE OF NEW JERSEY. ESTABLISHED 1889.

We sell bicycles cheaper than others rent them.

Clevelands, Crescents, - - Prices $25 up.
Barnes, Featherstones, - -

- - A Complete Stock to Select From. - -

Our Immense Business of last Saturday shows that our new proposition was enthusiastically received.

OUR OBJECT

in selling on such an easy basis is to get every man, woman and child to own and ride a bicycle. We are cranks on the subject, have wheels in the head and cannot understand how it is possible for anyone to thoroughly enjoy life without riding a wheel.

T-E-R-M-S:

$1 Down AND $1 Weekly.

Golf Goods. Rentals. Repairs. Storage.

NEW STORES 108 and 110 EAST FOURTH ST. (Near Park Ave.) Unequalled Facilities.

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR
Sun Rises 5:28 a. m.
Sun Sets 6:34 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 7:34 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Fair and Warmer Tonight, Wednesday Partly Cloudy. Ther. 60.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., TUESDAY, APRIL 11, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

HOW TO ESCAPE FROM A BURNING BUILDING.

Chief Doane Tells a Press Reporter the Best Method.

HE DOESN'T FAVOR A ROPE.

NONE BUT ATHLETES CAN USE IT SUCCESSFULLY.

He Favors a Movable Iron Ladder Or a Friction Pulley as the Best Way—A Rope is Better Than Nothing—Every House Should Have Some Means of Exit Besides Stairways.

The two great fires in New York during the last month, with the accompanying loss of life, has set people to thinking all over the country. In a number of Plainfield households rope fire escapes have been procured and the members of the families have turned out for fire drills. In most of the homes in this city and the borough there is no provision at all for fire. A Press reporter interviewed Chief T. O. Doane, of the fire department, yesterday afternoon, regarding the need of preparation and the best methods to be adopted.

"Yes," said the Chief, "every house in Plainfield of more than one story should be provided with some means of exit beside the stairways. Most people, however, never think of such things until a fire in the immediate vicinity brings the facts nearer to home."

The trouble with a plain rope, the Chief said, was that very few, unless they were athletically inclined, could descend hand over hand in safety. It is difficult to successfully wrap the rope about one leg and thus slacken the rapidity of the descent. With a woman, it was next to impossible. He told of the old way where the rope was wrapped about the body under the arms and crossed and held in front, thus using it as a brake to slacken speed.

The Chief favored either a patent movable iron ladder that is built to be fastened inside a window and is hidden until the required time by being covered with a wooden window seat or a friction pulley, a patent device, which prevents the rope slipping through the pulley except very slowly. This pulley works both ways. A woman or sick person may be lowered with the rope and then another person left in the upper room may take the other end of the rope and descend in safety as the pulley is reversable.

In the Chief's opinion every house should be fitted with fire extinguishers. The trouble with most of these was that they would not keep their usefulness a great length of time but there are some successful ones that are not expensive.

PIONEER BICYCLE COMPANY.

F. L. C. Martin Company Commence Their Eleventh Year.

With the beginning of this season commences the eleventh year of business for the F. L. C. Martin Cycle Company. This hustling firm are the pioneer bicycle dealers of the State. Their new easy-payment system enables everyone of moderate means to own a wheel.

The bicycles handled by them this year are the Cleveland, Crescent, Barnes and Featherstone. A full line of sundries and golf goods and other features, and these are sold at reasonable prices. Another feature is the storage of commuters' wheels. The facilities for keeping and protecting them cannot be eclipsed. Every wheel left on storage for repairs is fully covered by fire and burglary insurance.

Much care and attention has been devoted to the repair department, where all makes of wheels will be promptly looked after. The shop is equipped with the latest improved tools and machinery, and is in charge of men who thoroughly understand their business.

The stores are up to date in every particular, and the long and honorable career of this company has secured the confidence of the public. In their new location, on East Fourth street, they are as sure of as much patronage as in the past. F. L. C. Martin, president of the company, devotes every other day to the Newark store, and G. M. Macintyre, manager of the company, is always looking after the interests of the Plainfield house.

Always on the Lookout for Bargains.

M. Weinberger, the West Front street clothier, has made the largest purchase of fine knee pants ever known in Plainfield and is selling them rapidly at astonishing low prices. Mothers will do well by taking advantage of this great chance to dress up their youngsters.

—Press want ads bring results.

COLLEGE GIRLS TALKED.

PLEASANT AFTERNOON ARRANGED BY THE BRANCH ALLIANCE.

Various Phases of College Life Discussed in an Interesting Manner—Tea Served and Chat Enjoyed at Close.

The regular meeting of the Branch Alliance was held at the Unitarian church yesterday afternoon. The feature of the meeting was that it was given up to several young women in this city who are graduates of some of the leading American colleges, and through the reading of several papers the objects, aims, ideals, influences, intellectual, social and religious opportunities, were related in an entertaining manner. The several colleges represented were Bryn Mawr, Vassar, Radcliff, Framingham Normal School, Pratt Institute and Smith. An interesting feature was a paper telling of student life in Paris among the American girls.

The papers treated of many pleasing features in student life among young women, of the social clubs, societies, etc., and of the plan of self-government adopted by several colleges. After the reading of the papers an informal discussion was enjoyed by all present, and many points of advantage were brought out.

After the meeting a tea and social time was enjoyed by all. Miss Conklin gave the tea, assisted by several of the young women.

LANDED ON HIS HEAD.

A HOBO THROWN FROM TOP OF A FREIGHT CAR.

Sudden Start of the Train Unbalanced Him—Brought to Muhlenberg Hospital—Has Very Little to Say of Himself.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, April 11.—What came near being a fatal accident happened to a young railroad hobo on the Central yesterday afternoon, near the "Eight Row," and it was only by good fortune that he was not run over by the cars and his body completely mangled, instead of being laid up in Muhlenberg hospital with an ugly cut in his scalp.

The lad, who gave his name as Thomas Ryan, no residence, and his age as seventeen, was seated on one of the break wheels of a freight train, high up on the roof, enjoying a free ride. The engineer started his engine and the jolt threw Ryan off his seat and tumbled him to the track below, where he struck on his head.

Charles Filton, a switchman, saw the man lying there after the train had passed.

Ryan was carried to the station and Dr. Brakeley made a hasty examination, but could not tell whether the lad's skull is fractured or not. He was taken to the hospital in Mat Egeny's wagon.

Ryan would tell little about himself, except that he was going to see his brother in Reading, and that he was out of work.

ANXIOUS FOR UNIVERSAL PEACE.

Society of Friends Approve of the International Peace Conference.

There was a meeting of the philanthropic committee of the Plainfield Monthly Meeting of the Religious Society of Friends last Sunday, and great satisfrction was expressed that by appointment of the President this country is to be ably represented at an international peace conference to be held next month at the Hague, at the invitation of the Czar of Russia, to promote disarment.

At the same meeting the members adopted a paper to be sent to President McKinley deploring the recent official interpretation by the Attorney-General, of the late act of Congress concerning the sale of intoxicating liquors in army canteens, and earnestly appealing for an execution of the law in accordance with its obvious intent for the entire suppression of liquor in the Army.

Rogers' Case Begun.

(Special to The Daily Press)

New Brunswick, April 11—The damage suit of Clark T. Rogers against the New Brunswick Traction Company for $2,000, was bagun yesterday, but soon adjourned until Wednesday on account of the illness of an important witness for the defense. William Newcorn, Rogers' attorney, put two witnesses on the stand to prove the photographs taken of the scene where the accident occurred.

A Novelty.

A well-trained ladies maid will dress women's, children's and men's shoes free all this week at Doane & Edsalls with "Vici" dressing made by Robert H. Foederer, maker of the world renowned vici kid leather. See advertisement about "dolls day."

—The regular meeting of the "Woman's Parliamentary club," will be held Thursday, at 10 a. m.

PROPERTY OWNERS ARE ANXIOUS TO BE HEARD.

THE BOULEVARD IMPROVEMENT.

Objection to Mr. Hubbard as a Commissioner—Further Hearing to be Held Thursday.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, April 11.—The Commissioners appointed by Justice Van-Syckel to assess benefits and damages to the property owners in Westfield avenue, in Union Township, whose land is wanted by the county for the new boulevard gave a hearing yesterday to the interested property owners at the courthouse.

A number of the land owners were heard, and a number were represented by counsel, who asked for an adjournment of the hearing. The Commissioners consented to this, and said they would meet Thursday, April 13th, also Tuesday and Wednesday, April 18th and 19th.

County Attorney Codington appeared at the hearing for the county.

Judge Gilhooly filed an objection to one of the Commissioners, Mr. Hubbard, on the grounds that he is a brother of Director Hubbard, of the Freeholders, and father of County Engineer Hubbard.

RED MEN'S FAIR CLOSED.

AS NEARLY AS CAN BE ESTIMATED THE PROFITS ARE $700.

Last Night Possessed Many Attractions for the Visitors—An Indian Duel—Those Who Won the Prizes There.

After six successful nights the Red Men's fair closed last night $700 ahead, as near as can be judged.

Last night the attendance was as large as ever. A short programme was rendered. George Thatcher, the comedian, was there, and the Kennon sisters sang and appeared in a dialogue. The Indian scene of Wednesday night was re-enacted, and a genuine camp exhibition was given.

In one of the scenes William Newcorn and William Westphal in full Indian costume fought a duel to the death, which amused the spectators very much, and ended in Mr. Newcorn's coming out victor and lifting the other's scalp in a realistic way.

The prizes awarded last night were as follows: The dinner set went to Mrs Edward Bowman; the toilet set to Robert Clark; the Red Men's pin to Johnston Wilson; cigar ornament Harry Dreier; cushion, Eden Boice; lamp, Mrs. Jules Stephany; wheel, Miss Ada Westphal; diamond ring, Mrs. Charles Holstein; and the doll, Fred Huff.

THE SEQUEL ENDED WELL.

Police Court Drama Proved Satisfactory to All Concerned.

The second and concluding act of the police drama, in which Patrolman Jerry Cash and his musical prisoners were in the leading roles, was given in City Court this morning to the satisfaction of City Judge Runyon. He was a wise young Judge. He made Jerry happy by upholding his course and gave the prisoners just cause for rejoicing by suspending sentence on them. All of which was eminently proper.

Conductor McCarty and Motorman Hipp, of the trolley car that was utilized as a patrol wagon, were put on the stand. McCarty said Wm. Waldron and Herman Schnerman were waiting to get on the car when Cash arrested them. Neither he nor Hipp saw any disorderly conduct on their part. McCarty thought one of them was drunk.

Suspended Sentence.

Miss Bertha Schlick, seventeen years old, without parents and without a home, and Joseph Stevens, alias "Doty," were arraigned before City Judge Runyon, this morning, on the charge of being disorderly. They were arrested by Patrolman Mattox. The Judge heard their story and suspended sentence with a warning.

Mr. Randolph Led

The Endeavor prayer meeting in Trinity Reformed church last evening, under the excellent leadership of L. W. Randolph, was spiritually refreshing to the large number of persons present. During the offertory Miss Krymer sang a solo, "Consider the Lillies," to the delight of all.

Important Meeting of Branch Alliance.

At the May meeting of the Branch Alliance, Mrs. Henry Bell, of Rutherford, who is director for this state, will be present and make an address. Officers will also be elected and a programme for the coming season will be prepared and adopted.

To Explain the Project.

The soldiers' monument committee will in a few days issue the circulars which they have had prepared. They will be sent to every person in the city so far as possible and a liberal response is hoped for.

RUNAWAY SENDS ONE VICTIM TO HOSPITAL

George H. Kenyon Thrown Out On His Head.

FRIGHTENED AT TRUCK.

RAN OUT EAST FOURTH STREET TO RICHMOND STREET.

There Collided With Stone Work on Railroad Embankment and Upset Wagon—Kenyon and Boyd Thrown Out—Kenyon Was Unconsious—Taken to Hospital, But Sent Home Last Night—Is Improving.

George H. Kenyon paid a visit to Muhlenberg Hospital yesterday afternoon as the result of the misbehavior of his horse. The horse became frightened at a truck on East Fourth street, ran away and wound up by colliding with a stone embankment to the railroad at the corner of East Fourth and Richmond streets. Kenyon and his companion were thrown out and both injured.

Mr. Kenyon runs a piano and bicycle store on West Front street. He also represents a sewing machine company. A man by the name of Boyd acts as his agent for the latter. Yesterday afternoon Kenyon and Boyd went out on a business errand in Kenyon's wagon. As they were going out East Fourth street they passed a truck and the horse shied. The curb bit wouldn't work and the horse went out Fourth street along the railroad at a mad gallop.

At Richmond street the earth embankment of the railroad is walled up with stone The horse made a leap at it, upset the wagon and spilled the occupants out on their heads. There was a rush of the passers-by to the spot, where they found Kenyon senseless and Boyd badly dazed. Both were cut and bruised.

The ambulance was summoned and Kenyon was taken to Muhlenberg Hospital where he recovered consciousness after a time. His shoulder was badly bruised and he received injuries to the back of his head He was taken to his home on West Front street late in the afternoon, where he is at present. Dr. Buchanan is attending him. He is much improved today.

Boyd was bruised and cut about the wrists and legs but is out today as usual.

The wagon was wrecked by the runaway. The horse was caught a short distance from where the accident occurred.

GREETED THEIR OLD COMMANDER.

Gen. Sewell at the Second Brigade's Reunion

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, April 11—The Second New Jersey Brigade Society held its twelfth annual reunion here yesterday. United States Senator Sewell, who was the brigade's commander, addressed the veterans, who enthusiastically greeted him. According to the report of the secretary three members of the Society died during the past year.

Capt. Joseph H. Crawford, of Philadelphia, was elected president for the ensuing year. A banquet was served in the armory of Bayard Post, Grand Army of the Republic.

A number of Plainfield veterans were in attendance.

One of Plainfield's Oldest Residents Dead.

Mrs. Hannah Staats, aged 87 years, one of Plainfield's oldest residents, died yesterday at her home on West Second street, the result of an illness with tubercular bronchitis. Mrs. Staats was born in 1811 at Chester, this State, and resided in this city since 1840. Ten years later she was married to Cornelius Staats, who died in 1884 One son survives Mrs. Staats and that is Stephen Staats, who resides on West Second street. Mrs. Staats was one of the three remaining charter members of the Crescent Avenue church, where she was a faithful and regular attendant when able.

A Bad Bicycle Fall

Edgar I. Serrell, of Myrtle avenue, who is acting as superintendent for his uncle, L W. Serrell, Jr., in the construction of the trolley line at Garwood and Cranford, met with an accident yesterday morning while on his way to work on his wheel. He was putting on his gloves and had both hands off the handle bars when he struck a stone and was thrown to the ground. He broke one of the small bones in his hand and now carries it in a sling.

—At VanEmburgh's—napkins 59c. per dozen; also a heavy counterpane worth $1 75 to be sold for $1 25; also one at $1, extra quality Our $1 shirts and house gowns all new, demand your attention. New ginghams at 7c. and 10c. per yard.

PAY YOUR TAXES OR YOU WILL BE SENT TO JAIL.

BOROUGH OFFICIALS DETERMINED.

All Poll and Personal Tax Delinquents to be Notified to Settle Immediately.

Collector George F. Brown, of the borough, will start in sometime this week to serve notices on persons owing personal and poll tax. If they do not settle they will be arrested on a warrant to be issued by Justice Crossley. This move is made according to the action of the Mayor and Council at the last meeting, when Mr. Rogers introduced a resolution authorizing the collection of these taxes under the law which empowers the officials to collect or arrest. There are between two and three hundred people in the borough who owe such taxes, and no doubt there will be some excitement before all the money is collected.

WAS BICYCLE STOLEN?

GEORGE LEWIS WILL HAVE TO ANSWER TO GRAND JURY.

Harvey Apgar Accuses Colored Man of Committing the Theft.—Lewis Says He Found the Wheel in His Yard.

A somewhat complicated case was given a hearing last evening before Justice Mattison, of the borough, wherein George Lewis, colored, who has served a term in State Prison, was arraigned on a charge of stealing a bicycle owned by Harvey Apgar, of this city. On the evidence produced the Justice held Lewis for the Grand Jury.

It appears that Tuesday, April 4th, Harvey Apgar was working for Michael Whelan at the latter's home on Brook avenue. He rode his wheel to his place of employment, and when he completed his task and went to look for his wheel it was not to be found. The next morning Lewis was seen riding down Somerset street toward Front street on the wheel. At the corner of Chatham street Lewis met Whelan, who eyed him suspiciously. The latter asked Whelan if he recognized the wheel.

Whelan said that it belonged to Harvey Apgar. Lewis immediately gave up the wheel to Whelan who put it in Zeller's store until his return from work that night.

Lewis says that he was on his way to the home of Marshal Campbell to tell him about the wheel. When arranged last evening Lewis said that he found the wheel by the back door of his house on Manning avenue, and that he was looking for the owner.

FUNERAL OF MRS. RANDOLPH

Drs. Lewis and Main Officiated—Large Attendance of Friends.

The funeral of Mrs. Rachel L. Randolph was held yesterday afternoon from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jane L. Dunham, of West Fifth street. Rev. A. H. Lewis, D. D., officiated, assisted by Rev. A. E. Main, of the Seventh-Day Baptist church, who offered prayer.

There was singing by a quartette composed of Miss Ernestine Smith, Miss Nan Randolph, Elmer E. Runyon, and David E. Titsworth. The pallbearers were all relatives of the deceased, sons or sons-in-law, David L. Randolph, William M. Randolph, Charles H. Dunham, Frank M. Dunham, I. N. VanSickle and J. F. Hubbard. Interment was in Hillside.

A Heavy Judgment.

Yesterday before Justice Mattison, of the borough, N. P. Walters, of Cook county, Illinois, secured judgment against S. B Corby, of North Plainfield, for $145.13, the full amount claimed. Lawyer Winfield S. Angleman represented the plaintiff. The defendant did not put in an appearance.

Tie in Pool Tournament

The pool tournament, which has been in progress in Krewson's pool rooms this winter, ended last night. J. DeNise and F. DeCamp tied for first place. Dowd, Leonard and Sutterlin tied for fourth money. The latter tie will be played off tonight and the other tomorrow night.

Snap Shots of Cops.

A. C Rogers took a snap shot of the policemen Saturday afternoon, just as they were leaving the rink after their drill, and has the picture on exhibition in W. H. Rogers' show window. Besides the officers in the picture are Councilmen Buckle, VanHerwarden and Tolles.

Furnished the Lumber.

The firm of Rushmore & Company delivered a great part of lumber and furnished the street posts and corners for Somerset Park, owned by P. Rochricht of New York. The Somerset Park property, (formerly the Spencer tract), is to be opened April 15th.

—Next Saturday afternoon the Loyal Temperance Legion will give an entertainment in the W. C. T. U. rooms. There will also be a sale.

BUILDING TROLLEY ROAD

CONTRACTOR SERRELL HAS STARTED WORK IN GARWOOD.

A Gang of Sixty Italians Grading the Route so That the Rails Can be Laid in a Week—Working on Private Land.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Garwood, April 11.—Work began yesterday on the trolley line of the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railroad Company from Plainfield to Elizabeth, which, according to the officials of the company, is to be in working order by the latter part of July.

H. C. VanEmburgh, of Plainfield, staked out a part of the line and in the afternoon a gang of about sixty Italians were put to work by Contractor Lemuel W. Serrell, Jr. They were in charge of Edgar Serrell.

The work started at the corner of Central avenue and Spruce street and by night the brush had been all cleared away on Spruce street, which is private property, for a distance of several hundred feet. This morning the work of grading began. The contractor expects to commence laying the rails the last of the week or the first of next.

Superintendent Morse, of the Garwood Land and Improvement Company, was on hand all day to see that the interests of the company, through, whose land the bigger part of the line in Garwood passes, were looked after. The people at Westfield and in this place are very much pleased at the prospects of having a trolley before this time next year.

POWERS NOW ACCUSED.

ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF ASSAULT BY SMITH.

Latter is Held for the Grand Jury by Justice Mosher—Warrant Sworn Out for Powers in Justice Moffett's Court.

The hearing of Charles W. Smith, charged with assault and battery on the person of Michael Powers, took place yesterday afternoon before Justice Mosher, and resulted in Smith's being held for the grand jury in the sum of $200 bail. Instead of ending the case there, Smith has begun an action against Powers, and in Justice Moffett's court has sworn out a warrant for the latters arrest, making a similar charge against him. This case will be heard today.

Powers' testimony on the stand yesterday was that he asked Smith for the amount of his bill (which was $4 instead of $50) and that Smith deliberately struck him, knocking him off the piazza. Then before he could get up he says Smith struck him again, and before he could get out of the gate once more.

Powers' best witness was Hezekiah Hand, who said he saw the whole performance from a safe distance.

Smith was not put upon the stand to tell his story, so only one side of the case was heard. Daniel Little went on Smith's bond.

Powers was arrested this morning, and entered a plea of not guilty. His hearing is set down for tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Councilman Hetfield is Powers' counsel.

DISCUSSED A MOMENTOUS SUBJECT.

First Meeting of Y. M. C. A. Debaters Consider Phillipine Islands.

The Y. M. C. A. Literary Society held its first debate last night, and considered the subject of the policy of the United States in holding the Phillipine Islands. O. S. Rogers, Harvey Linbarger and Robert W. Davis spoke in favor of it, while the negative side was taken by Charles Doliver, Clarence Rogers and Charles Sprague. No judges were appointed, so the debate was not decided.

In addition to the debate readings were given by Carl E. Drange and Robert W. Davis, and an oration was delivered by T. Henry Stafford. A. B. Meredith, the critic, also reported.

Died at the Hospital.

Miss Anna Gustasson, a Swede, recently employed in the family of Mr. Strauss, of Watchung avenue, died at the hospital this morning. She was a sufferer from appendicitis and an operation was performed to remove the appendix. The woman was 21 years of age and had been ill about two weeks. Relatives living in New York have been notified and they will take charge of the body and arrange for the burial.

An Informal Tea

Mrs. John Clapp, of Mercer avenue, gave an informal tea yesterday afternoon, in honor of her guest, Mrs. Griswold, of Wicksford, Mass She was assisted by a number of friends from Washington Park.

Frank Fulton, of the U. S. S. "Supply," is visiting friends and relatives in Plainfield. At present his ship is stationed at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, where she will remain for a week or two.

WHAT'S TO BE SEEN AT PRINT EXHIBIT.

Amateur Work of a High Class Shown.

SUCCESSFUL OPENING.

EXHIBIT WILL BE CONTINUED ALL THIS WEEK.

J. Hervey Doane Has a Remarkable Collection of Carbon Transfers to Etching Paper—Louis Borsum's Exhibit Includes Some Excellent Ones of Naval Parade—Many See the Exhibit.

Last evening marked a very successful opening for the annual photographic print exhibition of the Plainfield Camara Club, which is now being held in the club gallery in the Babcock building. There was a good attendance and the exhibits were properly admired by all. The exhibition will be continued every afternoon and evening this week.

Considering the fact that almost all of the work was done by amateurs, the exhibition was remarkable indeed. One noticeable fact was that nearly all the prints had the dull or carbon finish. Many different kinds of paper were used. Probably the most difficult to successfully make were the carbon prints on etching paper that comprised the principal part of the exhibit of J. Hervey Doane, winner of the silver medal for the best men's collection. These prints were first made on the original carbon paper and were transferred in different tints to the rough etching paper. They were novel and the effect was precisely like that of an etching.

One of the exhibits that attracted much attention was that of Louis Borsum, of Woodland avenue. It was the winner of the club award for the best collection. It included a number of large photographs of the different war ships, taken at the time of the naval parade. They were very handsome views and perfect in every detail. An interior of Mr. Borsum's home was one of the best prints shown in the exhibition, the details being remarkably clear. Mr. Borsum's photographs were all taken with a very large camera.

SAYS HE TOOK HER $250 DIAMOND.

John A. Teeple Accused in a Serious Manner by a Bayonne Girl.

(Special to The Daily Press)

Elizabeth, April 11.—John A. Teeple, of Plainfield, came up before Judge Atwater, of the District court, yesterday, charged by Nellie Stack, of Bayonne, with converting a $250 diamond ring belonging to her to his own use. Teeple had Lawyer Swackhamer, of Plainfield, to defend him, and after hearing the evidence the Judge reserved his decision for a week.

The alleged conversion took place last October. The summons in this case was served on Teeple while he was confined in the county jail, where he was serving a sentence of thirty days for embezzlement.

St. Joseph's Bazaar.

A bazaar in aid of St. Joseph's church, in the borough, will be held in Saengerbund Hall for three nights, commencing tomorrow evening. There will be an attraction in the shape of an art gallery, and other features will be the serving of refreshments and the rendition of good music. The advertisement appears in another part of The Daily Press.

Miss Lord to Appear.

Next week a musical and literary entertainment will be given in All Souls' church for the benefit of the Plainfield Relief Association. Miss Elizabeth Lord, of the Emerson School of Oratory, of Boston, will appear at the entertainment. The date for the affair will be announced in a few days.

Plainfielders at Atlantic City.

Among the guests registered at Haddon Hall, Atlantic City, are the following from Plainfield: A. S. Patterson and family, Mr. and Mrs. St. John McCutchen and R. V. Lindabury and wife, of Elizabeth.

Beautiful Flowers

The display of crocuses in the yard adjoining the residence of Former Mayor Charles J. Fisk, on West Seventh street, is a very beautiful one, attracting the attention and admiration of passersby.

Dr. Carroll Improved.

Dr. H. K. Carroll, of Westervelt avenue, is reported as being improved from his severe illness, and he hopes in the course of a short time to be able to go to Washington.

Entertained Their Friends.

Misses Osgood, of Myrtle avenue, entertained a number of their friends at their home last evening. The time passed very enjoyably with games and music.

THE PALACES AND TEMPLES OF ANCIENT EGYPT

had their walls shining with gold and sparkling with precious stones, but modern art has contrived to design decorations of a less costly character in the beautiful designs and refined colors and shades of Wall papers, friezes, etc., such as Woolston & Buckle keep in their varied and elegant stock at such tempting prices.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

ROGERS.
232 West 2d St.
Seafood for Health
Always
Desirable
when direct from the nets.

M. E. STEPHENSON,
146 NORTH AVE.
Weddings, Dinners and Receptions supplied with every requisite. China, Glass, Linen and Silver to loan.
ESTIMATES
cheerfully furnished. Telephone orders will receive prompt attentention.
TELEPHONE 624.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections.
210 PARK AVE.

PHILLIP SWAIN,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.
317 West Front street.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset treet. 813

HOTEL KENSINGTON
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107, 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

SOMERSET HOTEL
Somerset St. and Lincoln Place,
North Plainfield, N. J.
W. F. DREYER, Proprietor.
AMPLE ACCOMODATIONS FOR MAN AND BEAST.

B. B. Maynard,
NEW SHOP NEW FURNITURE BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

NEUMAN BROS.,
GROCERS,
Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

John G. Bantle,
428 WATCHUNG AVENUE.
First-class
TAILOR
SPECIALTY OF
Ladies' Tailor-made Garments
Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

DOBBINS. CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

EDUCATIONAL.

GREGG SHORTHAND SCHOOL
Babcock Building.
The latest and best system. Stenographers filling positions after 3 months.
DAY AND EVENING.
W. E. Van Wert, Principal.
Standard Typwriters in use.

MISS SARAH A. PALMER,
TEACHER OF PIANO (Virgil Method AND THEORY IN ALL ITS BRANCHES.
The Virgil method and the Practice Clavier give to the pupil not only finger agility, but also mental control and concentration, whereby alone the best results can be obtained.
132 Crescent Avenue.

Piano Instruction
Virgil Clavier Method a specialty.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and MISS MINNIE S. MARSH
2915 MADISON AVE.
Sight Reading Classes, vocal and instrumental.

F. V. L. Goodwin,
TEACHER OF MUSIC.
Lessons given at home on Piano. Special attention to beginners. Residence.
105 MANNING AVENUE,
North Plainfield, N. J.

SHORTHAND! BOOKKEEPING!
No better systems can be found than those taught in : : : :
PLAINFIELD BUSINESS COLLEGE,
City Bank Building.
Both sexes. Day and Night. Come and see us.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Duff.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE,
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's hall, No. 119 Park avenue, at 8:15 p m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711,
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m.
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

This question of
EYES
is a most serious one. Too lengthy to discuss here. If your eyes are causing you discomfort, or if you suffer with headache, neuralgia or pain in the eyes, consult our specialist at
107 E. Front Street Every Thursday
Hours 10 to 5. Free Examination. Work guaranteed.
LEECH, STYLES & CO.

Arrival and Departure of Mails

NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:30, 8:50, 11:30 a. m., 3:00, 5, 5:30 p. m
Close—7:30, 9:15 a. m., 12:30, 2:00, 5:00, 7:30 p.m

SOMERVILLE and EASTON.
Arrive—6:40 a. m., 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m., 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—6:40 and 11:30 a. m., 1:00 and 3:00 p. m
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a. m., 5:00 p. m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M

STAGE ROUTE.
Plainfield and Scotch Plains.
STAGE LEAVES PLAINFIELD (E. FRONT ST., OPP. PARK AVE.) 9:30 a. m., 12:45, 4:00 and 6:00 P. M.
STAGE LEAVES SCOTCH PLAINS (FRONT POST OFFICE) 10:30 a. m., 2:00, 5:00 and 7:00 p. m.
Upon notice a special stage will be held for parties of six or more attending the theatre or other attraction.
THOS. NEWMAN, Prop.

DEAD HORSES
Removed free. Buckman Brothers, 611 South Second Street. Main office New Brunswick N. J. Telephone Call, 65 F.
Fertilizer Works, Livingston Park, N. J. 4 2 3m

Wm. J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to.

REVERE HOUSE
PARK AVENUE, 7th and 8th sts. | PLAINFIELD, New Jersey.
Families accomodated for the Spring and Summer months at greatly reduced prices.
The house contains all modern improvements lighted by Gas and Electricity. Sanitary arrangements perfect. Cuisene unsurpassed
GEO. B. DE REVERE.

CROKER'S SON CALLED

Says His Company Pays Him $2,500 for Learning the Business.

FATHER PAID FOR HIS STOCK

Tells the Mazet Investigating Committee He Expected to Enter the Roebling Co., in a Subordinate Capacity, but It Was Reorganized and He Took $17,000 in Stock Knew Nothing About the Fireproofing Business, but His Father Told Him That He Thought It Would be a Good Thing.

New York, April 11.—The Assembly committee investigating Tammany methods of city government and corruption in the Police Department held a second session yesterday.

Frank Croker, the son of the Tammany leader, was on the witness stand for most of the morning session. In the afternoon Chief of Police Devery was recalled.

Public interest in the inquiry is already intense and widespread. The expectation that Frank Croker and Police Capt. Price would be put on the stand caused a crowd of curious persons to gather early in the hope of getting near enough to hear something of the testimony. The fact that Police Commissioner Abell, Chief Devery and Capt. Price held a conference in the Nineteenth precinct station house added to the interest in yesterday's session. Every person present expected new and startling developments.

Dr. W. J. O'Sullivan, counsel for the city departments, was at his post early. He expressed himself as satisfied with the treatment he received on Saturday at the hands of the committee.

At 10.35 o'clock Mr. Moss arose and addressed the committee. He said:

"I am informed that certain disreputable persons are going about levying blackmail by representing themselves as subpoena servers for this committee. I am told that hundreds of dollars have already been collected by men who represented that they would withhold the subpoenas for a consideration. I have word that a man of the name of Giblin and another of the name of Grant have been going to men who might be summoned and extorting money in this way. I wish to say that no such men are employed by me, and if we can catch these men some of us will leave our work here in order to prosecute them. I do not believe that any man in our employ would do anything of this kind, and I wish to warn the public against these blackmailers."

Chairman Mazet said that he hoped that persons who had been approached by these blackmailers would come forward and tell the facts.

Mr. Moss then called Mr. W. P. Tostevin, the civil engineer who testified on Saturday, to the stand.

Dr. O'Sullivan arose and announced that Frank Croker was present in the room if the committee wished to question him.

Croker Told to Appear Friday.

"I am also authorized to announce on behalf of Mr. Richard Croker that he is in the city, and will be pleased to appear here at any time, if he is wanted, up to April 18. He expects to sail for Europe on that day, but until then he will be within call of the committee at any time."

"Tell him to appear here next Friday," said Mr. Moss.

Mr. Moss called for Mr. Bingham, a builder, who did not respond, and Frank H. Croker took the stand. He said that he was a son of Richard Croker, was 21 years old last September and lived at No. 5 East Seventy-fourth street. He was a stockholder in the Roebling Construction Company, but was not interested in the John A. Roebling Company. Croker said that there were 500 shares of stock in the Roebling Construction Company of the par value of $100, and that he owned 170 shares.

Gets 2,500 a Year as Salary.

"How many shares does Mr. Hinkley own?"

"I don't know."

"What is his political position?"

"I don't know."

"Who first proposed that you go into this company?"

"I proposed it myself to my father. I understood the company had a good name and that it would be a good company to get into."

"When did you leave college?"

"Last June."

"Have you studied in any particular line?"

"No."

"Do you know anything about engineering?"

"No."

"Do you now know anything about fireproof work?"

"Yes; a little. I have learned something since I have been in the business."

"Had you no preference for any other business or profession?"

"No; I simply wanted to be in a good company."

"When you paid your money for your stock did you know that concrete fireproofing was not freely passed by the Building Department in this city?"

"No; I don't think I did. I don't remember exactly."

"Did you know there was any trouble about it?"

"No; I think not."

"You knew it had to be passed by the city authorities before it could be used?"

"Yes."

"How much salary do you get as secretary, Mr. Croker?"

"2,500 a year."

Mr. Moss read a list of the stockholders and asked if it was correct. Croker said he thought so. The two Roeblings, Briggs, Hinkley and Croker are the only stockholders.

"Didn't you put money in this company knowing that everything had been arranged by other people so it would be a safe investment?"

"I knew nothing about any such arrangements."

"You thought your father had investigated the company before he gave you the money?"

"I suppose he had."

"What was done with your $17,000?"

"It was put in the bank."

"Has there been any treasurer's report of the financial operations of the company?"

"Not yet."

"Where does your company deposit?"

"In a bank in Trenton. I do not recall the name."

"Are you in any other companies?"

"Yes; one."

"What company?"

"The United Company."

"What is the business?"

"Drawing up plans for engineers and such work."

"What do you do for your salary of $2,500?"

"I am learning the business."

"I should like to talk with you in private. I have a boy and I would like to know how he might earn such a salary while learning a business," Mr. Moss said.

Frank Croker said he did considerable work in the office, and expected to be of value to the company when he learned the business.

"You have studied the making of concrete?"

"Yes."

"And you are getting paid for that?"

"Yes."

"Do you really do any work as secretary?"

"Yes; I sign contracts."

"Do you keep minutes?"

"Yes; I have them. I have not yet copied them into a book."

"How do you receive your salary?"

"By check."

The witness could not name the banks on which the checks were drawn.

"As a business man, do you believe in a monopoly?"

"No."

The witness testified that his cousin, young Lawyer McCann, had not been retained as counsel by the Roebling Construction Company. He said that he might have received a fee of $5,000 from the John A. Roebling Company.

"What has Mr. McCann been doing for your company?"

"He has looked over specifications."

"He is to represent your company before the Building Code Commission?"

"I believe so."

"What retainer has he received?"

"None that I know of."

"Has any agreement been made as to a fee?"

"No; I know of none."

Of the company to make plans for engineers and do contracting, in which the witness said he was interested, he testified that John Livingstone, J. W. Hinkley, a Mr. Huff, a Mr. Molineaux and his brother, R. S. Croker, were the other stockholders. The capital stock is $50,000, and the witness said he owned sixty shares. He said that Huff was the president and principal stockholder. The company has not yet done any business. The witness said he had not yet paid for his stock.

Know a Lot of People.

"Has any one asked you for the money?"

"No; the stock was given to me."

"Was your brother's stock presented to him?"

"I don't know."

"What assets have this company?"

"I think we have $35,000 in cash and some tools for work and a patent of some kind."

"What kind of work do you expect to do?"

"We expect to do almost any kind of contract work—build railroads and such work as that."

"What were you to do for the United Company in return for the $6,000 of stock?"

"Anythin that I could."

"What could you do?"

"Not much. I know very little about the contracting business."

"What was there between you, your brother and Hinkley on one side and Huff, Livingston and Molineaux on the other side that they should give to you two young men $12,000 in stock?"

"There was nothing between us. They thought we knew a lot of people."

"Did they ask you to speak to any one in the city departments?"

"No; they did not expect to do city work."

"How old is your brother?"

"Two years older than I."

"Has he done anything in particular since he left college?"

"No."

Mr. Moss said to youg Croker: "I think we are through with you finally, but we'll send you a note if I should want you again."

"All right; I will be right here all the time," Croker replied as he left the stand.

The committee was a few minutes late in assembling for the afternoon session. The little room was packed with spectators, the doorkeeper admitting nearly every one who wanted to enter. Chief Devery, Police Commissioner Sexton and Capt. Price lingered on the outskirts of the crowd, waiting to be called.

Chief Deveay Asks for Protection.

At 2.30 o'clock Mr. Moss recalled Chief of Police W. S. Devery to the witness stand.

"Where does Michael Burgin live?" was Mr. Moss's first question.

"One minute, Mr. Moss," said Devery. Turning to Chairman Mazet Devery asked: "Have you admitted the charges against me offered on Saturday by Mr. Moss?"

"We have allowed them to go in," said Mr. Mazet.

"I took an exception to that. Was it noted?"

"It was noted."

"Now, Mr. Chairman, I ask the protection of the committee against Mr. Moss going into anything except my record as Chief of Police and public matters. He is taking advantage of his position here to go behind the Supreme Court, of which he is an officer. I am here to make a clean breast and answer any question relative to public business or my work as Chief of Police, and I object to having those old charges dragged in here. I have been twice acquitted by the courts and there is a stay now pending. I ask that those old charges be left out of this investigation."

Mr. Moss and Chairman Mazet both insisted that Devery must answer the question as to what was the nature of the charge on which he was tried before Justice O'Brien.

Rioting at Pana, Ill.

Springfield, Ill., April 11.—Gov. Tanner received a telegram from Mayor Spenwell of Pana saying that a riot beween white and negro miners was in progress and asking that State troops be sent to the town. The Mayor said that hundreds of armed men were parading the streets and that several shots had been fired.

The Governor replied that he would not send troops till it became absolutely necessary.

MILES CONTRADICTED

A Reporter Substantiates His Interview With the General.

NOT ALL OF IT, HOWEVER

Miles Did Say That He Had Affidavits of Men Who Saw Beef Undergoing the Treatment of Embalming Process, Also That Canned Roast Beef Was Beef of Pulp With the "Extract" Out.

Washington, April 11.—Major-Gen. William R. Shafter was excused from testifying before the court of inquiry yesterday, and was notified that he would be examined to-day at 11 o'clock.

The first witness called was Rear Admiral John G. Walker, president of the Nicaragua Canal Commission. He accompanied the commission to Nicaragua. Admiral Walker was followed by Dr. Charles H. Castle, who was in the First Ohio Volunteer Cavalry as an assistant surgeon. Dr. Castle has been referred to by several witnesses as having been present at an interview between Capt. Carmichal and an agent of Armour & Co. at Lakeland, Fla.

"Did you ever have a conversation with Armour & Co.'s agent regarding the quality of meat?" asked Major Lee.

Dr. Castle explained that he had such a conversation, those present being Lieut. Gampfer, Capt. Carmichael, the agent and himself.

"I wish you would state what the conversation was," said Major Lee.

"I think Capt. Carmichael said the agent came to Lakeland to see what complaint there was against the meat. I called the agent's attention to some greenish discolorations on some of the meat before us at the time. He explained this by stating that this discoloration was due to some chemical with which the beef had been treated before being put in the refrigerators. I asked the agent what the formula was. He said he did not know; that it was a secret process."

Sydney Reid of Brooklyn, N. Y., was sworn. He said he was a reporter.

"Did you have an interview with Gen. Miles on Jan. 31 last?" asked Col. Davis.

"On Jan. 31, yes."

"Have you your notes of that interview?"

"I have what I wrote on returning from the interview," replied Mr. Reid, producing a typewritten paper. He was about to read it, when Major Lee jumped to his feet and inquired what it was proposed to show by this statement. The court was apparently not paying much attention to Major Lee's remarks, and he added: "I want this a matter of record."

Gen. Wade announced that his remarks would be considered in executive session. This was a signal for the clearing of the court room. Gen. Shafter, who had appeared, was among those to leave.

When the court opened Col. Davis inquired: "Where did the interview take place?"

"At the Waldorf-Astoria."

"From your memory and what notes you may have with you, tell what that interview was."

"I have what I wrote soon after. Shall I read it?"

"Yes."

Mr. Reid produced his typewritten article, which was substantially the same as published on the morning of Feb. 1 in the New York Herald, which interview Gen. Miles explained before the court of inquiry by saying that the article written by him was made up.

"I saw portions of that interview in the Herald, combined with other matter which I certainly did not write," the witness said.

Looking at a clipping from the Herald, Mr. Reid identified the following extract as a portion of his article: "I have overwhelming evidence that the embalmed beef was treated with chemicals in order to preserve it. I have affidavits from men who saw the beef undergoing the treatment of embalming process. Now, as to the canned roast beef, that was different from the embalmed beef. The canned roast beef was the beef after the extract had been boiled out of it. You have seen the advertisements, 'Beef extract.' Well, this is the beef after the extract has been taken from it. They put this beef pulp up in cans and label it 'canned roast beef.'"

Cross-examined by Major Lee, the witness said that part of his interview was listened to by Mr. Berry of the New York Times.

"Was Gen. Miles walking when you accosted him?"

"Yes."

"Did you place yourself in front of him?"

"Yes. He said he didn't care to discuss the matter. He absolutely declined to talk to me at that time. I later asked him about an article in the Evening World and asked if it was true. One word led to another and in a moment the General was talking quite freely."

"Did you read his testimony before the War Commission?"

"I may have."

"Do you remember asking him if he adhered to his statements before the Commission?"

"I don't remember."

"Didn't he say he would stand by whatever he said?"

"That sounds very familiar."

Replying further, Mr. Reid said: "I don't claim the verbiage is exactly correct."

"Then this is not a verbatim report?"

"It is not."

"Does this statement contain all Gen. Miles said?"

"Oh, no."

"Then you don't claim that this is a correctly quoted interview?"

"It is, except as to verbiage."

"As you say this is a matter of great importance, why did you not submit this to Gen. Miles?"

"I did not, but the fault was with the General. He did not seem to have time."

"Whatever a man declines to look over, he is responsible for the mistakes."

"No. He is responsible for declining."

Major Lee suggested to the court that the original article and the copy would be better testimony. He asked that Mr. Reid be held for further examination.

BE ON TIME
If you want first choice of our new lot of
: House Gowns
at $1.00 each. Quality, Fit, Style perfect in every way.
VanEmburgh & Son.

SHOES FOR EVERYBODY.
For Spring we have picked from the best makers as just right at our just right prices just such shoes as will suit the big majority.
We call your attention this week to the VanArsdale $3 00 shoe—for men and women—These shoes are doing us lots of good, but we have better ones, and we have them for less money, and every grade is as good as shoemaking can make them.
VAN ARSDALE,
Repairing Properly Done. 127 East Front St.

J. F. MacDonald. UPTOWN GROCER. 186 E. Front Street.

20 Fresh Eggs, direct from farmers	25c
Best Jersey E R. Potatoes	43c basket
Best Oil, 5 gal.	45c
Minnesota Flour	55c bag, $4.35 bbl
4 lbs. Carolina Rice	25c
Best Oatmeal	3c lb
Best Pure Lard, no compound	7c lb
Large California Prunes	4 lbs for 25c
O. K. B. Powder	18c
Gold Medal Milk	8c
Kirkman's Borax Soap (6 C. box)	23c
Fine Tomatoes	7c can
Fine Corn	6c can
N. O. Molasses	33c gal
2 bottles Best Maple Syrup	25c
Canned Salmon	8 can
Pea Beans	5c quart
Lima Beans	8c quart
Lemon and Ginger Snaps	5c lb

We won't say anything about our 20c Coffee. Everybody uses it.

SPECIAL SALE
Over 13 hundred pairs of shoes. Nothing to say about the price, only that the lowness of it will surprise everybody.
SHERWIN'S, 149 West Front St.

R. FRUCHT NO. 218 to 224 PARK AVENUE.
Wholesale and Retail Dealer in
BICYCLES,
Saddles, Handlebars, Oils, Carbon for Bicycle Gas Lamps, Pedals, Cement, Rims, Hubs, Spokes.
and all other articles pertaining to Bicycles. Also dealer in Edison Graphophone and photograph materials, and also sole agent for Plainfield of the Tribune Bicycle, the best in the world. I have taken permanent possession of the premises I recently purchased, 218, 222 and 224 Park avenue, nearly opposite North avenue, and there opened a bicycle store and repair shop, and will sell bicycles and bicycle goods at great bargains. Every man and woman who deals with me will save money. I buy for spot cash and sell for same, thus saving a percentage which I share with my customers. I guarantee to sell goods of this kind as low as can be purchased in New York City or elsewhere. My policy is to give my customers the full benefit of the lowest cash prices for best goods. Call at my store and procure my prices and be covinced. t-s

GOOD SHOE TRADE!
We are doing a good shoe trade on our "Specialty" shoes for Men and Women, such as are advertised in the leading magazines. The best made for the least money.
For Women, "S & S," $5 and $4, "Sorosis" $3 50, "Superior" $3, "H & S" $3, and down to $2.50 $2, $1 50, $1.25, 98c.
For Men, "J & M." Best made at any price, $5 00, "Elite" $3 50, and on down to $3. $2 50, $2, $1 50, $1 25 All guaranteed best wearing shoes sold for the price, and latest styles. No need at all to go to New York. Peddie's Trunks, Dress Suit Cases and Bags.
SEE ELEGANT DISPLAY IN OUR SHOW WINDOWS.
DOANE & EDSALL.

When March winds blow,
And our face and hands chap so
USE CHAP CURE.
Manufactured only by
T. S. ARMSTRONG, "The Apothecary"
COR. NORTH AND PARK AVES.

STANDARD FOR THE WORLD.
Stop and See the
1899 Chainless
and others.
We have a few bargains in
SECOND HAND WHEELS
COLUMBIA BICYCLE AGENCY.
405 PARK AVENUE. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED IN REPAIR WORK by C. L. Thorn, of the Columbia Agency.

Important Silk Sale.

A Manufacturer's stock of several qualities in plain and fancy Silks, representing hundreds of yards of this season's newest patterns and colors. All offered at the lowest prices ever known for equal fabrics.

PLAIN TAFFETAS in 30 different colors, worth fully $1.00 yd. at 75c.

FANCY TAFFETAS, in satin striped and plaid effects, worth $1.19, at 85c a yard.

BLACK SATIN DUCHESSE, perfect in weave, a quality we can recommend, worth 79c, at 65c yard.

PLAIN ALL SILK TAFFETAS, in maroon, cerise, tourquise, and helio, while they last at 49c yard.

LADIES' TAILORED JACKETS, in covert cloth, box front, strapped seams, at 3.49 reduced from 4.45.

PRETTY REEFERS, for children, in fancy checks, braid trimmed, large Sailor Collar, worth 2.00, at 1.39.

A RARE CHANCE in fancy plaid Skirts, strictly all wool, percaline lined, velvet bound, buttoned back, worth 5.00 at 3.25.

We carry a complete line of celebrated "KENOSHA BLACK CAT BRAND" of Hosiery, triple knees and wear longer than any other stocking in the market, sizes 5½ to 10½ in medium and light weight, at 25c a pair.

BOEHM'S.

A stenographer for a large law firm in Boston had a rather common experience: "My work," she said, "is very nervous and exacting, and I used to leave the office utterly exhausted. At night I would often have the most horrible dreams, and sometimes wake up in a cold sweat. Once I found myself sitting bolt upright in bed clutching the bed clothes frantically with both hands. I became so disheartened that I finally told my employer I must give up my position, but he laughed, and said he wanted me to stay, and then suggested that I try his remedy for such troubles. He gave me half a dozen Ripans Tabules and told me to take one after dinner and another before going to bed. I did so, and rested better that very night. Now, whenever I feel nervous, I take just one Tabule before retiring and I sleep right through till morning, and get up thoroughly rested and ready for business. For a sleep-producer and a quieter of the nerves, these Tabules are simply wonderful."

Up-to-Date Clothing.

We have been so busy for the past ten days that we have neglected to make our announcement in the Press of our New Spring Styles of Clothing pertaining to men and boys. We have them on our tables. The Goods are O. K. and the prices the same.

If you are in need just drop in and see us and you will find one of the nicest lines ever shown in Plainfield

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.

206 West Front Street.

Hats and Gents' Furnishings.

YOU Should See The Great Showing OF SHIRT . . . . . WAISTS AT LEDERER'S.

QUAY TRIAL BEGUN.

Jury Quickly Secured in the Conspiracy Case.

Philadelphia, April 11.—The trial of ex-United States Senator Quay and his son, Richard R. Quay, on charges of conspiracy in connection with the deposit of public funds in the People's Bank of this city and the procuring of loans from that institution, was begun yesterday before Judge Biddle in the Court of Quarter Sessions.

Access to the court-room was by ticket only, and those directly interested in the case, jurors, and newspaper-men were compelled to gain admission to the court-room. Outside the court-room a special detail of city hall watchmen held back the crowd. Ex-Senator Quay and his son were present, accompanied by A. S. L. Shields of their counsel. Senator Boies Penrose sat in the space reserved for newspaper-men. The others of Quay counsel present were Rufus E. Shapley, David T. Watson, and J. M. Swearingen, the last two from Pittsburg. District Attorney Rothermel was assisted by Messrs. Finletter, Clement, and Scott. Judge Biddle presided on the bench. Just before the opening, ex-Judge James Gay Gordon and ex-District Attorney Graham, both of whom have been active in the prosecution of Senator Quay and are subpoenaed as witnesses, entered and occupied seats within the enclosure reserved for the present District Attorney and court officers.

There was a long list of witnesses for the prosecution, including Thomas W. Barlow, receiver of the People's Bank; State Treasurer James S. Beacon, ex-State Treasurer Henry K. Boyer, who is now director of the Philadelphia Mint; James S. McManes, once the leader of the Republican machine in this city, who was president of the People's Bank; George A. Huhn, the leading stock broker of the city, through whom Mr. Quay transacted much of his business; David H. Lane, the local Republican leader; Richard F. Loper, who was general manager of the assigned Gurantors' Trust Company, through which the People's Bank lost upward of $500,000; William Montgomery, cashier of the Allegheny National Bank of Pittsburg; Allen B. Rorke of Philadelphia, who is building the State Capitol; Charles H. McKee of Pittsburg, ex-Lieut.-Gov. Lyons's law partner; Clay Kemble, an officer of the People's Bank; Mr. Taber, teller of the same bank; all of the experts who have examined the books of the bank, and many others, in all more than fifty witnesses.

The formal proceedings began at 10.35 o'clock, and the first on the list of the panel of jurors was called. He is Francis J. Hill, a painter by trade. After he was sworn, District Attorney Rothermel called his attention and the attention of the rest of the panel of fifty jurors to the case about to be tried, saying that it was the trial of M. S. Quay and Richard R. Quay for conspiracy. Hill said he had formed no opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the defendants and was accepted. Harry Weiss, dealer, was challenged by the District Attorney, as was Adolph Korns, manufacturer. Adolph D. Vandeveer, cutter, the next called, was sworn. He knew neither of the defendants, and had formed no opinion on the case. Replying to the defendant's counsel, he said he knew no one connected with the prosecution. He was accepted.

George W. McCall became the ninth juror. Charles Eisenhaus, agent, was the tenth accepted, and George A. Denning, iron worker, the eleventh. Finally, Thomas E. Dwyer completed the list. Only one hour and eight minutes was consumed in this work.

As soon as the jury was drawn, Messrs. Shields and Shapley held a brief consultation with the ex-Senator and his son. The prosecuting officers also consulted, the result being that George Denning, juror No. 11, was withdrawn from the box, having been challenged by the commonwealth. Andrew Cochran, designer, was accepted in Denning's place.

Robert R. Vandeveer, juror No. 2, was challenged by Mr. Shields. William Jackson, rigger, a colored man with an unusually dark skin, was accepted in Vandeveer's place. George W. McCall, Sr., juror No. 9, was challenged by the commonwealth. James Mountney, artist, took his place. The defence challenged Thomas E. Dwyer, juror No. 12, who was withdrawn. William J. Espey, Sr., carpenter, took his place. William Temme, Juror No. 4, was challenged by the District Attorney. Edward Bevan, painter, succeeded Mr. Tamme. The defence challenged juror No. 6, James Bevens. Frederick Gies succeeded him. Albert A. Kuhn, juror No. 8, was challenged by Mr. Shields. This was the fourth challenge for the defence, exhausting its right in this respect. Charles Penzler, shoemaker, succeeded Mr. Kuhn.

The jury, as complete, is as follows: Francis Hill, painter, foreman; William Jackson (colored), rigger; John J. McConnell, manufacturer; Edward Bevan, painter; J. C. McLaughlin, horseshoer; Frederick Gies, Sr., gentleman; James Creevy, engineer; Charles Penzler, shoemaker; James Mountney, artist; Charles Eisenhaus, agent; Andrew Cochran, designer; and William Espey, Sr.

The Shamrock Spyers.

London, April 11.—Sir Thomas Lipton, owner of the America's Cup challenger Shamrock, says that the men arrested for spying upon that vessel are English newspaper men, and that he has decided not to prosecute them, in view of the circumstances. He added:

"I wish it to be known that the men are in nowise connected with America. This is the third time attempts have been made by journalists, and I hope it will be the last, as I shall be sorry if I am compelled to take measures which may jeopardize the good feeling at present existing between myself and the press."

Ticket Brokers Resist The Ruling.

Chicago, April 11.—A fight is to be made by ticket brokers here and in other cities against the railroads which are trying to have the Interstate Commerce Commission enforce the law which will deprive them of the right of buy and sell tickets at less than they are sold for by the railway companies, also the refusal of the roads to give trip tickets in exchange for mileage. A meeting of the Guaranty Ticket Brokers' Association was held here Friday, and it was decided to employ legal talent and fight the case at the hearing before the commission.

SANTA CRUZ IS OURS

Lawton's Men Take the Town After a Fight.

WILL PURSUE WESTWARD

Insurgents Forced to Flee, Leaving Sixty-eight Dead on the Field and Many More Wounded and Taken Prisoners—American Loss Six Wounded—Lawton to Pursue.

Washington, April 11.—The following cable dispatch was received from Gen. Otis:

"Manila, April 10.

"Adjutant-General, Washington:

"Lawton's command captured Santa Cruz, chief city of Laguna de Bay, this morning; casualties, six wounded; insurgent troops driven, leaving sixty-eight dead on field and larger number wounded; a considerable number captured. Lawton will pursue westward.

"OTIS."

The War Department had previously received a dispatch from Gen. Otis, a part of which was as follows:

"Lawton now opposite Laguna de Bay with 1,500 men. Condition of troops excellent. Sickness light."

The officers of the War Office made no secret of the fact that a large part of this dispatch was withheld from publication. In the copy given out at the Adjutant-General's office it is indicated that the first part of the dispatch was suppressed and another part, between the first and second sentences of the portion given out for publication, was likewise withheld. The impression is that the part of Gen. Otis's message which was suppressed pertained to the plan of attack to be made on Aguinaldo's forces, and not to events that had already transpired.

Santa Cruz is about 50 miles from Manila, and is in many ways a place of importance. It is the capital of the province of Laguna, and has a population of more than 13,000.

The possession of the town is of great strategic value, as roads lead from it to other important points on and near the shores of Laguna de Bay, the great inland sea of the island of Luzon.

Army officers say that Lawton must have surprised the insurgents, as his loss would unquestionably have been greater had the rebels had time to arrange their lines. The rebel loss must have been heavy, as Gen. Otis says that sixty-eight dead bodies were left on the field. There were only six Americans wounded, a ridiculously small list of casualties considering the number of men engaged and the losses of the insurgents. Lawton is noted for quick movemnets against an enemy and he believes in following a retreating force to the last ditch. It is, therefore, certain that there will be more fighting in southern Luzon. In the campaign against Geronimo Lawton gave that wily Indian no rest, and finally ran him down through sheer perserverance.

According to the latest reports from Gen. Otis, about 3,000 rebels composed the force which Lawton went out to meet. This contingent was formerly a part of Aguinaldo's main army, but by a swift strategic movement of the Americans it was cut off from the others and is now isolated.

A narrow isthmus seperates that part of Luzon lying north of Manila from the southern section of the island. American troops are now in command of this isthmus, and it will be impossible for the 3,000 rebels to the south to join Aguinaldo on the north without crossing this neck of land. The conditions in southern Luzon are more favorable to fair fighting than in the other and more extensive area in which MacArthur's column has been operating and it is expected that there will be a campaign resembling MacArthur's advance on Malolos, but with the additional feature of the surrender or annihilation of the rebels.

THE PENNSYLVANIA DEADLOCK.

If It Is to be Broken at All, It Must be Broken This Week.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 11.—It is generally admitted here that if the Senatorial deadlock is not broken this week it cannot be broken at all. Strenuous efforts are making in various directions to reach a compromise. The ultra-Quay men are not, however, a party to any of these overtures and resolutely maintain their determination to stick by Quay until the end.

It is now evident that whatever is to be done in Senator Magee's behalf will be done in the next two or three days. The work in that direction has begun. Senator Sproul of Chester, the man who injected Charles Emory Smith into the contest as a candidate, has come out squarely for Magee.

Sproul, after arguing that Quay cannot be elected, says: "The candidate to be agreed upon need not necessarily be an anti-Quay man. Any man of good record and the necessary ability, who has intelligence enough to take a leading place in the Senate such as the great Keystone State deserves, and independence enough to be his own master, would be acceptable, I feel sure. Such a man is Senator C. L. Magee of Allegheny."

Senator Sproul follows up this statement with others in a similar strain, and finally pronounces Magee the "logical candidate." It would appear from this that an attempt is being made to give the Magee boom just as much inflation as it will stand without bursting. Meanwhile arrivals from the West bring renewed talk about B. F. Jones, the former Chairman of the Republican National Committee, as the Senatorial candidate on a compromise basis. In the event of his discovering himself to be an "impossibility" Magee would probably make Jones first choice, or rather one of his "first choices."

What will more than anything else probably affect the situation will be the impression made by the Quay trial upon the situation here. Its developments may change the entire state of affairs.

Seventeen Paris Suicides.

Paris, April 11.—Seventeen suicides were reported at the Prefecture of Police yesterday, nearly all of which were due to poverty. Saturday being quarter-day, many of the victims were unable to meet the demands of their landlords, and in desperation resorted to asphyxiation by charcoal fumes.

TO INVESTIGATE TRUSTS.

The Industrial Commission to Conduct an Investigation.

Washington, April 11.—The Industrial Commission has definitely decided to enter upon the investigation of trusts about the middle of May, and the inquiry upon this subject will be continued throughout the remainder of that month and the month of June. The following statement of the intention of the commission was made public to-day:

"The investigation of trusts or industrial combinations by the United States Industrial Commission will include any or all individuals, firms, corporations, or combinations that from any cause, whether control of patents, favors of transportation companies, large capital, or otherwise, may apparently so prevent or regulate, or attempt so to prevent or regulate competition and production that they can fix the price of their products for the whole or a part of a market, with little or no reference to acts of existing competitors or to the cost of production and distribution.

"The commission in its investigation of industrial combinations and large corporate industries, wishes to secure from every source trustworthy information regarding the methods of organizing and conducting such enterprises, and the effects of such organizations upon their rivals in trade, upon employes and upon society at large. To that en dthe commission will collect reports and examine witnesses; but it also invites statements of facts along these lines from any one who is in a position to give them.

"Speculations regarding causes or results are not now needed; but facts of such a nature that the informant could verify them by an affidavit will be gladly received from any one."

DISPUTE OVER SAMOA.

The Attitude of The German Government By an Official.

Berlin, April 11.—Since the interview with Emperor William, United States Ambassador White has met the German Minister of Foreign Affairs, Baron von Bulow, and the British Ambassador here, Sir Frank Lascelles, and has cabled the result at considerable length in cipher to Washington. It is understood on good authority that there is nothing belligerent in the dispatch, but that it related to the desire of the German government to stand by the Berlin treaty and return to the provisional arrangement made by the three consuls, and to the hastening of the appointment and work of the commission as much as possible.

A high Foreign Office official, speaking for Baron von Bulow, said: "We have not received a dispatch from the Commander of the Falke, and do not believe the story told about the strained relations between the commander of the German warship and Admiral Kautz. We should have heard of it officially if it had been true. We have not received any advices confirming the proclamation of Consul Rose. But, at any rate, the argument of the American press that Herr Rose is responsible for the new trouble is wrong, as such a proclamation, if issued, came after Admiral Kautz's action, which is here considered to be a violation of the Samoan act. If Admiral Kautz stated in his proclamation that all the three consuls had expressed willingness to annul the provisional government, Admiral Kautz stated an untruth, and Herr Rose could not be blamed for issuing a counter-proclamation."

Infernal Machanie for Andrews'

New York, April 11.—It became known to-day that early in the month of February an infernal machine was posted at Station Y, at Sixty-seventh street and Third avenue. It was addressed to Wallace C. Andrews, whose house was destroyed last Friday morning with such a terrible loss of life. The police are investigating the fire, hoping to obtain conclusive evidence as to its cause. The troubles that existed among the servants in the house and the threatening letters received by Mr. and Mrs. Andrews during the few weeks previous to the disastor gave rise to a belief that the fire was of incendiary origin. The police have scouted this theory, but strength was added to it to-day when the story of the infernal machine became known.

Democratic Leader.

Washington, April 11.—The Democratic National Committee must have an active head, and Senator Jones's health will not permit him to do the work. Senator Jones prefers to resign, but those with whom he has talked will not hear of this suggestion. They agree, however, with him that there should be some one to take an active lead in party matters.

It is therefore probable that a majority of the committee will be called together here, or some other place, informally, and decide upon one of its members to be acting chairman of that organization.

End of the War With Spain

Washington, April 11.—The Spanish-American war will end formally at 2 o'clock to-day. M. Thiebault, First Secretary of the French Embassy, called at the State Department yesterday and notified Secretary Hay that the Embassy had received the Spanish copy of the treaty of peace. It came in the regular pouch of diplomatic mail arriving in New York on the steamship St. Louis on Saturday. Arrangements were made after M. Thiebault's call to have the ceremonies of the formal exchange of ratifications take place in the White House.

Guilford Trial Delayed.

Bridgeport, Conn., April 11.—The trial of Dr. Nancy Guilford for the murder of Emma Gill, which was interrupted by the illness of a juror, George Gregory, will probably be adjourned till the June term of court. Gregory is in a dangerous condition, the pneumonia from which he is suffering having developed into a malignant form. The crisis is expected this afternoon, when the physicians can determine whether he will recover. No steps for a new trial have yet been taken.

C. P. Huntington Ill.

San Francisco, April 11.—Collis P. Huntington is ill and has been confined to his bed since Saturday.

He is suffering from a cold, which has developed symptoms of kidney trouble.

Earned, Not Bought.

Staying Power Counts in a Long Race.

Plainfield people need not be told how hard it is to earn and maintain a good reputation, and how easy it is to lose one. After such a loss it is well nigh impossible to recover the ground and the majority of those who have slipped by the wayside have been forced to stay there. As with a man's reputation, so it is with medicinal preparations. Some achieve a reputation which stays with them. It is founded on intrinsic merit and not sustained by elaborate advertising. It faces the public backed up by honesty and works its way quietly but thoroughly. Plainfield people want no better proof of the reputation earned by Doan's Kidney Pills than the following experience from a citizen:

Mr. C. E. Hepburn, of 123 Duer street, formerly of Canada, where he first heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, says:—"Doan's Kidney Pills have my endorsement for they cured me of a long standing case of backache which annoyed me very much, especially if I took cold, for at such times I was in pretty bad shape. I heard different people speak very highly of Doan's Kidney Pills and concluded to try them. I got a box from my druggist, Mr. L. W. Randolph, and used them according to directions, with the above good results. I do not hesitate to give my endorsement of a preparation like Doan's Kidney Pills, for I know they can be relied upon and posess the merits claimed for them."

Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

PROPOSALS FOR COAL.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Plainfield, N. J., April 5th, 1899.

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Board of Education of the city of Plainfield, N. J., at a meeting held April 3rd, 1899, notice is hereby given that the Board of Education will meet on May 1st, next, at the Board room in the Stillman school, corner of West Fifth Street and Arlington Avenue, in the city of Plainfield, at 7:45 p. m., at which time and place said Board of Education will receive proposals for furnishing five hundred (500) tons, more or less, of the best coal suitable for steam and hot air heating, in pea, No. 1 chestnut, stove and egg sizes, all coal to be thoroughly screened, trimmed, and placed in the bins within the public school buildings, without any extra expense to the Board for such handling, and to be delivered during the month of July next, or at such time as the Board may direct. Bids to specify the quality of coal, and whether long or short tons.

Payment for all coal contracted for to be made after September 1st next. All proposals to be endorsed "proposals for coal." The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Upon receipt of the bids or proposals, the Board will immediately proceed to unseal the same and publicly announce the contents in the presence of the parties bidding, or their agents, provided such parties or agents choose to be then and there present and also to make proper record of the prices and terms upon the minutes of the Board.

By order of the Board of Education
F. B. CLARK, Clerk of the Board.
4 5 11 18 25 30

THIS IS THE POINT.

There are a great many stores that are anxious to get your trade, and that will make almost any kind of a promise to get it.

But there is always one thoroughly dependable store—a store that is sure to give you the best and most reliable meats that money can buy. Proper selection and correct butchering explains the satisfaction they give.

FRED ENDRESS,
131-135 West Front Street Only.

A GREAT OFFER

To the Public of Plainfield and vicinity by

CHARLES EISENBERG,

the well-known Painter, Paper Hanger and Decorator, who has opened a branch store

310 West Front Street,

(Stillman Building.)

I will paper any fair sized room, ceiling and walls, with the latest designs of gilt papers, including sizing and repairing, from $4, up.

I also carry the finest and largest assortment of imported and domestic wall papers and decorations. I do first-class work in tinting, kalsomining and inside and outside painting at reasonable prices. Call at the store or send a postal card, and I will call on you with sample books, and cheerfully give estimates. I guarantee first-class workmanship.

Yours truly,
Chas. Eisenberg.

Stores—310 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J.; 312 Main street, Orange, N. J.; 61 Springfield avenue, Newark, N. J.; Warehouse 10, 12, 14 and 16 Mercer street, Newark, N. J. Phone, 1073 Plainfield. Open evenings until 9. Sample books to the trade.

Putnam & De Graw.

SPECIALS FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

Ladies' 25c fast black Hose, for 19c
Children's fast black Hose, 10c—3 for 25c.
Childrn's fast black Hose, 15c—2 for 25c.
Gent's colored Shirts, detached cuffs regular $1.00 quality for 75c.
Gents' white Laundered Shirts, regular 75c quality for 62c.

H. E. Gayle 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

Monroe B. Long, M. D., President. Eugene M. Laing, Vice-President.
Robert A. Meeker, Secretary. Robert J. Shaw, Treasurer.

THE UNION BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.

OFFICE, 203 PARK AVENUE.

Special Features

A uniform Loaning Rate of $8.67 Per month on each $1 000 borrowed. ANY additional amount may be paid in, no matter how small, with any monthly installment; thus maturing the stock that much sooner.

It accommodates itself to the financial condition of the borrower instead of compelling him to pay a certain fixed amount each month.

Liberal Withdrawals With Interest

THE MEMBERS MAY WITHDRAW AT ANY TIME AND RECEIVE THE WHOLE AMOUNT PAID IN AND AFTER ONE YEAR SIX PER CENT INTEREST ON THE SAME.

The whole or any part of the loan can be paid off at any time.

A New Series Issued Every Month.

To Investors

PAID-UP OR INCOME STOCK, COSTING $60 PER SHARE AND BEARING 5 PER CENT INTEREST AND HAVING A MATURITY VALUE OF $100 PER SHARE is issued from time to time, as the board of directors may determine, and is especially desirable for those wishing a secure and profitable investment.

For further particulars inquire at the office, 203 Park Ave., Room 8, or address the secretary,

R. A. MEEKER,
203 PARK AVE.

Leggett's

SYRUP WHITE PINE AND TAR

is growing more popular every day. Why? Because it is a simple, palatable, reliable

Cough Remedy.

Try it, is all we ask.

25c. a Bottle.

Leggett's Pharmacy,
Y. M. C. A. Building.

E. D. BARRETT,
Sanitary Plumbing.
Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Telephone 612. 140 East Fifth Street.
4 8 1m

BICYCLES BICYCLES

George Gould,
AGENT FOR
VICTOR, PATEE, WAVERLY, IVANHOE and NASSAU SPECIAL

Rents, Repairs, Sundries and Storage.

326 PARK AVENUE.
CLIFTON BUILDING.

A Lady's Easy Rocker

or sewing chair given to all purchasers of one pound of Baking Powder.

We handle all good kinds of Teas and Coffee, at prices to suit the times

Goods purchased if not satisfactory money refunded.

GRAND UNION TEA CO.
138 West Front street.
John J. Crouse, Manager.

MISS JENKINS,
PARLOR MILLINERY
303 East Sixth Street.

EUROPE, starting June 29, 69 days, 48 days or 41 days; English coaching, Holland, Germany, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, Paris. Experience, fourteen years. Particulars of HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS, Plainfield, N.J.

F. A. LONG,
No. 166 SOMERSET ST.
Near Manning Avenue.
Up-to-Date Cash Grocery Store.
Orders called for and delivered in any part City or Dunellen.

ARLINGTON HOTEL.
(Splendid Mountain View.)
SOMERSET ST. AND GREENBROOK ROAD.
Charles Jensen, Prop'r.
First-class bar. Large parlor with piano for parties, receptions etc. Stable and shed accommodations.

L. L. Manning & Son,
STEAM GRANITE WORKS,
Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.
Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:30 p. m.

136 North avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week
$5 a year—in advance.
No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada
Delivered by carrier or by mail.
The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district
Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.
Advertising rates mailed on request.
Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N.J., APRIL 11, 1899.

FEATURES OF TODAY'S PRESS.

PAGE 1.—Important local news.
PAGE 2.—Telegraphic news.
PAGE 3.—Telegraphic news.
PAGE 4.—Editorial and gossip.
PAGE 5.—Vicinity news.
PAGE 6.—Woman's department.
PAGE 6.—German news.
PAGE 7.—Miscellaneous.
PAGE 8.—Sporting and local news.

FACTS ABOUT PLAINFIELD.

(The accompanying facts about Plainfield are for the information of the non-resident public and do not recognize the dividing line line between the city of Plainfield and the borough of North Plainfield, except when such a distinction is necessary in describing a municipal institution)

CLUBS—Ten.
BANKS—Three.
HOTELS—Seven.
SEWERS—24 miles.
GAS—20 miles of mains.
CHURCHES—Thirty-five.
BONDED DEBT—$120,000.
PUBLIC SCHOOLS—Eleven.
SOCIETIES AND LODGES—Ninety.
POLICE—Nineteen paid members.
POSTOFFICE—Free delivery of mail.
BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS—Ten.
NEWSPAPERS—Five; two daily; three weekly.
TELEGRAPH—Postal Telegraph and Western Union.
TELEPHONE—Local and long distance; 500 local subscribers.
HOSPITAL—Muhlenberg; ward capacity for emergency, 20.
STREETS—Seventy miles graded; thirty-seven macadamized.
WATER SUPPLY—Artesian wells; forty-five miles of mains.
TAXABLE VALUATION—City, $8,000,000; borough, $2,250,000.
COUNTY—Plainfield in Union; North Plainfield in Somerset.
POPULATION—City and borough, 20,000; immediate suburbs, 5,000.
FIRE DEPARTMENT—Eight companies; paid drivers; four departments.
ELECTRIC LIGHT—Incandescent and arc in every part of city and borough.
STREET RAILWAY—Nine miles of track; cars run every 12 minutes from 5:30 a. m. to 12 p. m.
RAILROAD—Central Railroad of New Jersey; 24 miles from New York; 65 miles from Philadelphia; 45 minutes from New York; four depots; commutation ticket to New York $80 a year.

There Must Be a Reason

For the large amount of the best class of advertising that is found in the columns of The Daily Press. And there is.

It Is Because

Buyers of advertising appreciate the fact that The Daily Press is bought by the purchasing public for the excellence of its news service, and the merchant who would reach those people with his trade bargains must do it in the paper that will put his announcement before the greatest number. That is why

The Daily Press Leads.

COMING EVENTS.

April 17—Star Course entertainment in Y. M. C. A. Hall.
April 20—Gymnastic exhibition at Y. M. C. A

The Poll Tax.

Though the law providing for the seizing of the bodies of delinquent poll and personal taxpayers has been on the statute books for these many years, it has been so seldom resorted to that the intention of the borough authorities to invoke its provisions to replenish the treasury of that place makes it an unusual and curious phase of municipal life. The theory of the poll tax is that every man should share to some extent in the burdens of local government, even though he be without personal or real property, and the law calling for the payment $1 for the privilege of exercising the right to cast a vote at the polls finds its existence in this view.

Once upon a time nearly every State in the Union had its poll tax, but in this day and age most of them have repealed the law or else allowed it to remain subject to either enforcement or not, as the officials of the various taxing districts see fit to construe its provisions.

There are thousands of men who decline to pay the poll tax out of principle. They insist that it is odious and not in keeping with the spirit of a republican form of government. Now and then we hear of delinquents of this kind who are lying in jail because they refuse to concede the right of the poll tax to be levied on their person.

According to the resolution of the North Plainfield officials it is evident that they are thoroughly in earnest in their intention to enforce the collection of poll and personal taxes, but whether or not their proceedings will go so far as to commit to jail those who are unable or refuse to pay up, remains a question that will keep the interested ones on the anxious bench until they find out the exact situation.

MONEY FOR THE CUBAN ARMY.

American soldier boys helped the revolutionists drive Spanish rule out of Cuba, and then came home and got the money to pay the insurgents for fighting and took it to Havana. The picture shows United States regulars guarding the wagons transporting the $3,000,000 appropriated to pay the Cuban army. They are on their way from the sub-treasury in New York to the steamer.

Mayor Jones, who was elected in Toledo, O., over the candidates of both of the old political parties, announces a municipal programme in which he proposes other things, the establishment of a city plant for making fuel gas; the city control of the electric lighting plant; civil service in all municipal departments; city home rule; no grant or extension of franchises to private companies without the approval of the people, and substitution of the referendum for the veto power.

Uncle Russell Sage, he of the millions, is said to have had his boots blackened at the same stand in New York for the past twenty years, and has never varied a minute in the time of his arrival there. And yet Uncle Russell always uses the elevated railroad service in going to business every morning. Tell us something that we can believe easier.

There is more truth than fiction in the Atchison Globe's tart comment that "if a wedding notice occupies fifty lines forty-seven are devoted to a description of the dress, beauty, social prominence, etc., of the princess bride, and the remaining three lines to telling that the man she married clerks in a grocery store."

Chief of the Fire Department Doane, in an interview in today's Press, advances some timely information as to the best methods for escaping from a burning building. The trouble with the majority of people in this respect is that they totally fail to appreciate the truth of "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

It is one of the many mysteries of the human brain that an injury to one section of it may make a man insane, while a blow on another part may convert a dull man into a genius. The risk, however, is too great to make it desirable to fall on one's head as a means of cultivating genius.

Gov. Voorhees allowed his partisan feelings to take a back seat long enough yesterday to appoint David Harvey, Jr., Judge of the District Court of Asbury Park. Harvey is a Democrat and was recommended by leading men of both parties.

There are said to be over a million men employed on the street railways of this country. This does not include the people who stand on the sidewalks and wave their hands frantically while the cars speed by at a ten miles an hour gait.

The Passaic News observes that "in the shuffle of the last cards in the legislature it did not seem to occur to anybody that the promised Dollar Gas bill was never passed."

The men employed on the borough streets are in a position to appreciate, in reference to their pay, the full meaning of "work done while you wait."

The most important of New Jersey cities are holding their municipal elections today. Hot fights for the votes are the rule.

The attempt to form a jewelers' trust has failed. The oatmeal trust is in a flourishing condition, however.

With three banks and ten loan associations in Plainfield, the city is not without its objects of interest.

Uncle Sam is doing his share in running Aguinaldo's government—that is, in running it to earth.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

Before leaving Porto Rico Dr. Henry K. Carroll, the President's special commissioner to the island, made a statement for the San Juan News concerning the future, from which it appears that he will recommend a Territorial form of government, since in his opinion the people are fitted for it. The question will at once arise whether such a step would not start Porto Rico on the way to Statehood. Nothing could then prevent any Congress and President, acting in harmony, from admitting the island into the Union. There are imperialist papers which insist that none of the country's new possessions shall ever become a State, but the question involves a group of constitutional issues yet to be decided. What will be the final status of Hawaii, Porto Rico and the Philippines? The United States Supreme Court may have something important to say on the subject.—Paterson Guardian.

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

For the first time in the history of New Brunswick newspapers a Plainfield retail business firm has advertised their business in an extensive style in a paper of that city. The firm that deserves the credit for this bold and enterprising move is Schepflin & Schultz, the West Front street clothiers. In the New Brunswick Times of Saturday they carried a half-column advertisement of their business in a prominent position. It is to be presumed that the trolley facilities between this city and New Brunswick is what prompted this enterprising Plainfield firm to seek trade in the capital of Middlesex county.

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E Springer, of 1125 Howard street, Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"It soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will everyone who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's Drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

—The Somerset County Board of Freeholders will hold their regular monthly meeting at Somerville today.

—At the next meeting of the Sons of Veterans a memorial day committee will be appointed to act in conjunction with the committees from the G. A. R. and Woman's Relief Corps.

—Crosby & Hill will place on sale tomorrow two cases of fine imported hosiery for women, one case of fine half hose for men and two cases of men's fine balbriggan underwear.

—Tomorrow afternoon the Junior Christian Endeavor Society of the First Baptist church will hold a meeting of special interest. All persons interested are cordially invited to attend.

GRAIN-O BRINGS RELIEF

to the coffee drinker. Coffee drinking is a habit that is universally indulged in and almost as universally injurious. Have you tried Grain-O? It is almost like coffee but the effects are just the opposite. Coffee upsets the stomach, ruins the digestion, effects the heart and disturbs the whole nervous system. Grain-O tones up the stomach, aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. There is nothing but nourishment in Grain-O. It can't be otherwise. 15 and 25c. per package.

SHIRT WAIST SHOWING.

We are proud of our Shirt Waist Showing. The collection is really Superb. The variety is great. The styles are correct. The designs and materials are exclusive and original.

Prices Range from 50c. to $9.00.

White Lawn Waists and White Corded Pique Waists in infinite variety. A WORD OF ADVICE. Select them now. Now the assortment is complete. Later the stock will be depleted. There will be no duplicates.

TAILOR MADE SUITS.

Some very natty suits at $6 98, made of black cheviot. A large line of finer suits from $10 to $23. All are new, stylish, perfect-fitting, well-made and inexpensive. What more can you ask for.

SPRING WASH GOODS.

Warm weather is coming and that very quickly. Select your wash fabrics now and have them ready for the hot weather. The assortment is better now than it will be later. Our line is most attractive and goods are thoroughly reliable.

"VICTOR" Odorless Moth Bags.

Made of Heavy Black Silesia, double stitched seams with patent closing device, with nickle hooks from which to suspend garments.

Manufacturer has sold his patent. We bought all he had on hand at half price.

The Retail Price is $2.00.

Our price while they last 98c.

About Carpets.

If you want Carpets 10 years old fresh from the auction room we have nothing to say. If you want new up-to-date Carpets, fresh from the looms. If you want Carpets upon which you may depend to give satisfactory service. Then we have much to say. If you want your work done anyway to get it done, we have nothing to say. If you want your work done properly by experienced men, then we are the people to call on.

If you want fresh, new Japanese and Chinese Matting in the newest designs. If you want elegant Smyrna, Moquette or Royal Wilton Rugs or anything else in floor coverings, come and see our goods. If you want your house fitted up with new window shades, we fit and hang them.

Do you contemplate buying a New Trunk, Traveling Bag or Dress Suit Case? Then by all means see ours. Trunks with 3, 4 and 5 Trays for preventing the wrinkling of Fine Dresses. Elegant Steamer Trunks, Leather Bound, Cloth Lined, Brass Trimmed.

Positively the Best Line of Trunks We Have Ever Seen.

DOWN STAIRS.

Our Basement will never make us rich. We sell the goods on too small margins. A furniture store, for instance, would never be able to meet its expenses on our profits.

Bed Room Furniture, Dining Room Furniture, Couches, White Enamel Beds, Woven Wire Springs, Mattresses of all kinds, Pillows, etc., we sell remarkably cheap and we are sending them broadcast over two counties.

Jewett Refrigerators.

It is false economy to struggle along with an old half-worn out Refrigerator.

Get a new one—you will soon save ice enough to pay for it for they are cheap, cheaper than you imagine, and certainly a great comfort.

If you are interested in getting your money's worth, and who is not, we are the people to visit.

No Branch Stores. No Old Goods.

Trading Stamps With Each Cash Purchase.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,

234-236-238 WEST FRONT ST.

PECK'S CORNER.

Nothing to wait for! Everything to come for!

AT PECK'S

LADIES' NECKWEAR.

No such an assortment can you find as here.

DRESS LININGS.

Everything you need.

FRENCH AND SCOTCH FLANNELS.

Fine goods and beautiful patterns.

SHIRT WAISTS.

have arrived; have just been made from the newest and latest styles and are NEW.

AT PECK'S.

Direct from the Manufacturer to the Consumer.

ONE BIG WEEK.

Last Week Was One Continuous Rush from Monday Morning Until Saturday Night.

The old adage "Prices Tell," has been well illustrated with us by the patronage we have received since we opened the retail store.

The comment of all our customers are summed up in one sentence, viz; The cheapest line of stylish well-made clothing we ever saw. Here is a list of some of our most ready sellers.

Lot 4734, 5086, 5081, 5094 — 3.50 These are men's sack suits in fancy mixtures and we recommend them to anybody who wants solid wear for little money. $5.00 is cheap for them.

Lot 4567, 4561, 5067, 5059 — 3.75 These have been general favorites and are going fast. We were compelled to fill in on some of them. They are all right.

Lot 4600, 4605, 4589, 4592 — 4.75 Strictly all wool. We invite you to compare this line with the average $8.00 suit.

Lot 5232, 4630, 5011, 5027 — 5.00 Cheviots and fancy worsteds fit for anybody to wear any place. We have 19 styles at $5.00.

Ask to see Lot 5319, 5322, and 5380, 5383. These are $10.00 and they are beauties.

Lot 4896—Blue Serge, wire woven, $6.75, worth $10.00.
Lot 5406—Blue Serge, wide wale, very popular, $7.00. Compare them with the ordinary $12.00 suit.

Come and see our silk-lined overcoat, silk-lined to the edge. Those Fancy Vests the $4.00 kind, we have them for $2.00. You will be surprised to know that we sell a child's suit with extra pants for 98 cents.

SCHEPFLIN & SCHULTZ,

M. J. CASHIN, Manager Retail Store.

322 West Front Street. Schepflin Block.

This is a money-back store.

EXTRACT VANILLA 75c PER HALF PINT

Extracted From Selected Mexican Bean

POWERS Prescription Pharmacy

Somerset St. Craig Pl.

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills

o—25c.—o

A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.

MALLINSON'S

North and Watchung avenues.

TRY THE

QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,

No 337 Park Avenue.

(Miller Building.)

Goods called for and delivered free of charge.

Domestic or gloss finish.

A. WILLETT & SON,

107 PARK AVENUE.

MEN'S TAN SHOES $3.00.

We pride ourselves on our $3.00 Tan Shoes this year.

Made in latest style and newest shades of Tan.

They are a fine wearing shoe upon which we can depend for future favors, and they will please the most fastidious.

Call and see them.
A pleasure to show.

NOTICE.

Sealed bids will be received by the Committee on Streets and Public Health, of the Borough of North Plainfield, for crushed stone, flagging for side-walks and cross-walks, to be delivered as needed. The bids to be submitted to the committee and opened in the presence of the bidders on Monday, April 17, at 8 o'clock p. m., at the Borough Council room, corner of Somerset Street and Craig place, in the said Borough of North Plainfield, and at no other time or place.

The committee reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Dated April 10th, 1899.

ROBERT CLARK, JR.,
Chairman of Committee.

4 10 7

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
ABSOLUTELY PURE
Makes the food more delicious and wholesome
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, April 11.—No new cases of scarlet fever have broken out in the borough for two weeks, and the board of health say the disease is stamped out. There are still three cases, but these are all quarantined, and no danger from them is apprehended.

George W. Churchill and Mrs. Nancy Thomas offered for sale the carriages and harness in the stables at public auction in Plainfield Saturday. There were few bidders, and most of the articles were brought back.

Rev. L. E. Livermore, of Lebanon, Conn., preached in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning in the absence of the pastor, Rev. A. I. Martine. In the evening there was no preaching service.

A. L. Egbert, of Bayonne, has purchased a lot, 200x900 feet, on Dunellen avenue, near Clinton avenue, and will build a residence upon it. He will move here in the fall.

Mrs. Catherine Maier, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Maier and Miss Mafer attended the funeral of Mrs. R. H. Becker, at New Brunswick, yesterday morning.

In the absence of Robert Humpston on his vacation on his vacation, Miss Irene Day presided at the organ in the Presbyterian church Sunday.

Mrs. A. I. Martine and daughters, the Misses Mary and Elizabeth Martine, have returned from a visit with relatives at Flemington.

Miss Imogene Smith has so far recovered from her illness as to be able to resume her place as teacher in the Lincoln School.

Mrs. Alvah Gray was taken suddenly ill yesterday and a physician had to be summoned at once.

Miss Annie Fenner, of Plainfield, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Harry Swackhamer.

William Fenner, of New York, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Harry Swackhamer.

Irving Martine, of New York, is spending this month with his mother, Mrs. A. I. Martine.

Miss May Apgar has returned from a visit with her sister in Flemington.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Fredericks spent Sunday with friends at Bayonne.

Terrance Doyle, of Cranford, visited his sister, Mrs. Joseph Maier, Sunday.

Mrs. Albert Brokaw entertained several friends at tea Sunday evening.

Wilson Frederick has been entertaining his brother from Franklin.

There was no preaching service in the Methodist church Sunday.

The Crokinole Club met Saturday night at F. T. Dickinson's.

NEW MARKET

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press)

New Market, April 11.—Mrs. A. N. Randolph and Miss Veigie Tunnison, of Dunellen, spent yesterday with Manning Randolph.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

(Special Correspondence of The Press.)

Scotch Plains, April 11.—Fanwood Council, R. A., will hold an interesting meeting in their rooms this evening. Orator Collins has arranged for a mock trial for the entertainment of the council members, and it is hoped that there will be a good attendance at the meeting so as to encourage the Orator in his good work.

Rev. Mr. Woodruff, of Dover, father of Rev. Mr. Woodruff, of the Methodist church, occupied his son's pulpit Sunday evening.

August Kiemser is erecting a cottage on Stout avenue. John Bornman has the contract for the carpenter work.

Miss Jennie Johnston led a very interesting Epworth League meeting in the Methodist church Sunday evening.

Mrs. George Schlick is spending a week with relatives and friends in Bordentown.

Mrs. Joseph Eiler and daughter are spending a few days with friends in New York.

Miss Minnie Hosinger entertained her friend, Miss Kiely, of Plainfield, Sunday.

A word to the wise is sufficient.

Ely's Cream Balm has completely cured me of catarrh when everything else failed.—Alfred W. Stevens, Caldwell, Ohio.

Ely's Cream Balm works like a charm; it has cured me of the most obstinate case of cold in the head. I would not be without it.—Fred'k Fries, 283 Hart St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Price 50 cents at druggists or by mail. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY.

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—This evening the parish meeting of the First Baptist church will be held.

—Henry Leifke's new house corner of West Front street and Grant avenue is almost completed.

—The Christian Endeavor society of Crescent Avenue church will hold their annual meeting Friday evening.

—A concert under the auspices of Stone Square Lodge, No. 38, F. A. M., will be given in Washington Hall, Thursday night.

—Street Commissioner Gavett's men did a good thing yesterday in cleaning West Front street and removing the surplus mud.

—Park avenue between Fourth and Seventh streets is being treated to a coating of heavy crushed stone with a view of making a good roadbed.

—The Women's Society for Christian work connected with the Seventh-Day Baptist church, will give a supper in the church tomorrow evening.

—The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church will hold a meeting Friday afternoon next in the chapel of the church.

—W. F. Dreyer, of North Plainfield, has purchased two wholesale liquor establishments, one in Newark and one in Brooklyn. By his unassuming way very few people would take him for a millionaire speculator.

—In yesterday's Press an error was made in saying that the entertainment given at the Y. M. C. A. was the last of the Star Course. The entertainment was entirely separate from the Course. The last Course entertainment will be held Monday, April 17th. See adv.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongued coated, pain continually in the back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters;' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50cts., guaranteed, at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store

WESTFIELD.

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Westfield, April 11.—Next Sunday a Dicipies' Mission will be opened in Willard Hall, Prospect street, and Mr. Foster, of Brooklyn, will be present to assist. There will be workers from Plainfield also to assist. On the same day another Dicipies' mission will be opened in the German settlement near Mountainside, between this place and Cranford, and the chances are that one will be opened at Garwood. Rev. B. W. Hand, of Plainfield, will assist Mr. Morse, of this place, in starting these missions.

Miss Hubbard and the other school teachers, who live at the house corner of Elm and Orchard streets, which was, as told in The Press, broken into and robbed during their absence, arrived home Saturday and find that a number of articles are missing. At the time it was reported that nothing had been taken. The things which are missing are a ladies' gold watch chain, a pair of gold cuff buttons, a pair of gold earrings, a fountain pen and two silver breast pins. John M. C. Marsh has the case in hand and now feels satisfied that the robbery was the work of boys and that he has a clew which will ultimately lead to the detection of the guilty party or parties.

Miss Lizzie Piker, of Plainfield, the sister of the well known Broad street shoe dealer, has leased one of the stores in the Taylor building, and will shortly open a first-class dry goods store there.

PEOPLE COME AND GO.

PERSONAL MENTION OF INTEREST TO PRESS READERS.

Some Come to Enjoy Pleasures of Plainfield, Others Journey to Either Mountain or Shore for Recreation.

Charles Dunham, of Bound Brook, has been visiting Plainfield relatives.

Robert Barnes, Sr., of Staten Island, is visiting relatives in this city for a few days.

Miss Keunlin, of West End Park, has returned from visiting friends in Brooklyn.

Mrs. Elijah Dufford, of Middle Valley, is visiting relatives in Plainfield for a time.

John Mantz has taken up his residence at the Hotel Kensington on North avenue.

Mr. Zeglio, of Mt. Bethel, has been visiting his brother, Dr. Zeglio, of Somerset street.

E. J. Richards, formerly of Plainfield, has secured a permanent position at Jersey City.

Miss Grace Hurtt, of Manasquan, who has been visiting relatives in this city, has returned home.

Mrs. George F. Raynolds, of Jackson avenue, is able to be out again after an extended illness.

Augustus Trust and family, of South Carolina, are visiting relatives in the borough for a time.

Rev. C. E. Herring, of Watchung avenue, attended the ministers' meeting in New York, yesterday.

Miss Emma Wadsworth, daughter of Charles Wadsworth, of New York, is visiting friends in Plainfield.

Mrs. Rudolphus MacDonald, of East Front street, seems to be greatly improved from a tedious illness.

Miss Clara Koerster, of Westfield, spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Jennie Thorn, of East Third street.

Miss Polhemus, of East Millstone, and Edward Bartow, of Bound Brook, were guests in Plainfield yesterday.

Mrs. Elizabeth McClaren and daughter, of Somerville, are visiting Mrs. E. J. Richards, of Duer street.

Mrs. Norman Barnes, of Spooner avenue, who has been visiting relatives on Staten Island, has returned home.

Rev. George Angleman has returned from the M. E. church conference and is visiting relatives in town.

Mrs. R. Swackhamer, of Whitehouse, who has been visiting Plainfield friends for a long time, has returned home.

Mr. Miller, of Boston, who has been engaged as organist at the First Presbyterian church, will assume his new duties May 1st.

Miss Williams, of Bryn Mawr, is visiting her friend, Miss Martha Tracy, daughter of J. Evarts Tracy, of West Eighth street.

Mrs. George W. Gardner, of the borough, is expected to return this week from New York State, where she has been visiting her parents.

Rev. G. W. Gardner and wife, of the borough, expect to occupy the new Grace M. E church parsonage next week. It is now being furnished for occupancy.

The engagement is announced of Miss Gertrude Rushmore, daughter of Isaac Rushmore, of West Seventh street, to Edward J. Patterson, of Central avenue.

Rev. Herman C. Eyme, pastor of the German Lutheran church, on Grove street, has leased W. H. Shotwell's house, 76 Duer street, and will take up his residence there in a few days.

Harry Yaeger, of Liberty street, who has been detained at home by injuries received recently, is now able to go out and it is hoped that he will soon be able to return to business.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be distroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.
Sold by Druggists, 75c.
Hall's Family Pills are the best.

That Throbbing Headache.

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and strong nerves and build up your health. Easy to take. Try them. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

AT RANDOLPH'S !

Roots and Herbs are numerous, yet we urge the combination of

Randolph's -:- Sarsaparilla

is one of the best to clean the blood. None better. Only 50 cents per bottle.

L. W. RANDOLPH,
Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.
PLAINFIELD, N. J. TELEPHONE CALL 109

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD

CURRENT ATTRACTIONS THAT PLAINFIELDERS MAY WITNESS.

Local and Metropolitan Performances That Will Please Those Who Delight in the Art of Thespis and Mimic World.

J. E. Toole, the eminent German dialect comedian, supported by Miss Lillian DeWoolf and an excellent company of performers, will be seen at Music Hall, Saturday afternoon and night in Edward Jerome's brilliant four-act drama, entitled "Killarney and The Rhine." Of the company presenting the play nothing but words of praise can be said. Mr. Toole, well known for his excellent comedy work with the late W. J. Florence, the elder Emmet, and other well-known stars, enacts the part of Conrad, a wandering minstrel to perfection. His songs and dances all being his own composition were welcomed by repeated encores. He nevertheless does not depend entirely upon his specialties. Having a thorough dramatic schooling, which enables him to do some clever acting, especially the ending of the third act when choosing between love and duty he holds his auditors spell-bound until the downfall of the curtain. His support is evenly balanced and up to the standard.

SHORT STOPS.

A low trick—The one taken by a deuce.

Doors and windows are taxed in France.

Cutting remarks—The exchange editor.

Cuba has 17,000,000 acres of virgin forest.

A man loses his power when he loses his temper.

When a man wastes money, he also wastes time.

A man of sound judgment—The piano tuner.

Twenty-one counties in Georgia have a prohibitory law.

In France all postage stamps are sold at cigar shops.

Some people are not sick because they can't afford it.

Every time you complain, some one thinks less of you.

There is no longer a rage for photographs of professionals.

What becomes of all the smart children after they grow up?

Some men try to make their signatures as ugly as possible.

It is a sign that people are prosperous when a pawnbroker fails.

A good many bank cashiers are like guns—well loaded when they go off.

The meanest man—The man who says I told you so, when he really didn't.

Fashionable men are beginning to frown upon anything that is gaudy in dress.

Plants grow faster between four and six A. M., than at any time during the day.

Frogs, toads, and serpents, never take food but that which they are satisfied is alive.

Three out of five people questioned are unable to tell the number of stars in the flag.

Amateurs always get down early in the morning after a show to be congratulated.

Every one is jealous of something or somebody. And no one is happy who is jealous.

Whatever a man really needs, he gets. It is the unnecessary luxuries people grumble for.

Very few defects remain after a photographer has finished retouching one's picture.

A town that has no natural advantages seems to get along better than the other kind.

Some authors tell us that "much is said about the tongue." True, the thing is in everybody's mouth.

The population of Greece is increasing faster than that of any other country in Europe at present.

It is an old saying that flowers wilt soon when in the hands of people who have wicked thoughts.

To the credit of the sissy boys it should be stated that there never was one who was proud of his curls.

As soon as children reach the age when they can help their parents, they begin to plan to leave home.

How happy a man would be if he was half as well satisfied with his surroundings as he is with himself.

A very mean man is one who hears of a surprise party, and then goes and tells the person it is "on."

No. 2243.

Report of the Condition OF The City National Bank,

At Plainfield, in the State of New Jersey, at the close of business.

APRIL 5TH, 1899.

RESOURCES.

Loans and discounts	$310,220 50
Overdrafts, secured and unsecured	475 73
U. S. bonds to secure circulation	83,400 00
U. S. Bonds to secure U. S. Deposits	100,000 00
Premiums on U. S. Bonds	6,836 25
Stocks, securities, etc	118,294 10
Banking house, furniture & fixtures	68,400 00
Due from National banks (not reserve agents)	12,745 02
Due from State banks and bankers	12,951 63
Due from approved reserve agents	65,747 73
Checks and other cash items	3,193 15
Fractional paper currency, nickels and cents	615 49
Lawful money reserve in bank, viz.
Specie $2,769 00
Legal-tender notes 17,721 00	20,490 00
Redemption fund with U. S. Treasurer (5 per cent of circulation)	3,753 00
Total	$856,123 50

LIABILITIES.

Capital stock paid in	$150,000 00
Surplus fund	30,000 00
Undivided profits, less expenses and taxes paid	43,759 90
National Bank notes outstanding	72,700 00
Due to other National Banks	32,368 96
Due to State Banks and Bankers	937 35
Dividends unpaid	72 00
Individual deposits subject to check	424,144 43
Demand certificates of deposit	3,499 53
Certified checks	3,498 33
Cashier's checks outstanding	604 00
United States deposits	95,000 00
Total	$856,123 50

State of New Jersey, County of Union, ss:

I, William F. Arnold, cashier of the above-named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

WM. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 11th day of April, 1899.

J. C. Pope,
Notary Public of New Jersey.

Correct—Attest:
J. F. Hubbard,
H. G. Bunkle,
J. F. MacDonald,
Directors.

FOR SALE
At a Bargain.

Three Story and Basement, Large Brick and Stone House, No. 1103 Putnam Avenue, Corner Carlton Avenue. Lot 115x175 feet.

For full particulars apply to ANDERSON PRICE, 80 Broadway, New York City, and Rutherford, N. J. 4 10 3

GOSPEL MEETINGS
in HOPE CHAPEL,
Every Evening Except Saturday.
Conducted by
F. E. TAYLOR.
Splendid Singing by a Chorus Choir.
4 10 6

Receiver's Notice.

THOMAS E. H. CURTIS, Receiver of the Hall Electric Pump Company, by direction of the Chancellor of the State of New Jersey, hereby gives notice to the creditors of the said Hall Electric Pump Company, to present to the undersigned, Receiver, and prove before him under oath or affirmation or otherwise, as the said Receiver shall direct, to the satisfaction of the said Receiver, their several claims and demands against the said Hall Electric Pump Company, within two months from the sixth day of April A. D. 1899, or they will be excluded from the benefit of such dividends as may thereafter be made and declared by the Chancellor upon the proceeds of the effects of said Hall Electric Pump Company.

Dated, Plainfield, N. J., April 6th, 1899.

THOMAS E. H. CURTIS,
Receiver.

Craig A. Marsh, Sol'r. 4 8 4w

STATIONERY
LESS THAN COST.

The entire stock of R. C. Rand has been removed from West Front St. to

37 SOMERSET STREET,

Thorn's Block, where it is being closed out at less than cost in order to settle with his creditors. There are many bargains left. Come and get them. A. B. THORN, Assignee. 4 7 6

STATIONERY
at
HARPER'S,
411 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J

IF your grocer says he does not keep our Flavoring Extracts, ask him to get them for you.

A. L. Kaerth & Co.
132 E. Second St.

Plainfield, N. J. Morristown, N. J. FOUR LARGE STORES. Wilmington, Del. Perth Amboy, N. J.

CROSBY & HILL
SUCCESSORS TO EDWARD WHITE.

To be Helpful and Homelike.

That's an ambition exalted enough for this store, the more helpful we are to our patrons in their buying the stronger will be the chain that binds them to us. The more homelike and hospitable the store may be the more attractive it is to those who have money to spend. It's money spending time now, an anxious time with many who would practice economy in their purchases, that's where the helpfulness of this store comes in. Suppose you put us to the test. Our TEN DAY SALE is attracting wide attention; bargains have never been so plentiful as they are at present; many lots are small and cannot be duplicated.

Some new Arrivals in Silks that we include in this sale.

50c Printed India Silks, 30 inches wide, about 1,000 yards, Navy blue and Black Grounds, printed in choice neat figures, worth 75c.

75c Striped all silk Taffeta, light and Medium Ground-work, al new designs and fully worth $1 00.

95c Corded Silk Taffetas, handsome new designs and very choice colorings and effects, the very newest patterns for shirt waists, actual value $1 25.

39c 2,000 yards of Plaid Satin all the newest Spring shades and designs, very suitable for Coat and Cape linings or shirt waists, worth 65c.

Wool Dress Goods.

69c All-wool French Broad cloths, very light in weight and fine in finish, 54 inches wide. The shades are Tans, Browns, Navy Blue, Green and Garnet, they are the $1.00 quality.

25c Satin Striped Wool Challies, light colored grounds, handsome floral designs, 30 inches wide, worth 39c.

79c All wool French Whipcord Suitings, 42 inches wide, new Spring colorings, value $1 00.

89c All wool Venetian suitings, 54 inches wide, all the new Spring colorings, value $1 00.

New Wash Goods.

Several cases of New Wash Goods have just arrived and are priced for quick sellers, they are the correct things for the coming season.

8c Scotch dimities, beautiful new striped effects, value 10c.

10c New corded ginghams, new patterns, value 12½c.

12 1-2c French Organdies, exclusive styles too, put up in neat boxes of one dress pattern each, with no two alike, they are the regular 25c quality.

12 1-2c Swiss Mulls, choice new patterns and new weave, worth 17c.

12½c Grenadine Dress Goods, 30 inches wide, the newest weave shown (plain colors only), but all the newest tints, value 25c.

Suit Department. 2d. floor.

Some notable values in women's suits, Jackets and Dress Skirts.

$6.98 Women's tailor made suits, worth $10 00.
$10.00 " " " " " $15.00.
$11.98 " " " " " $17.50.
$3.50 Women's Covert Cloth Jackets, worth $4.50.
$5.00 Women's Venetian Cloth Jackets, satin lined, worth $6.50.
$2.98 Women's Mohair Skirts, newest cut, worth $4.00.
$4.98 Women's Venetian Cloth Dress Skirts, worth $6.50.
$5.00 Silk Shirt Waists, newest shape and newest patterns of material, remarkable value.
33c Percale shirt waists, worth 50c.
$1.00 Madras and percale shirt waists, about twenty different sorts.
$1.00 and $1.39; white pique shirt waists, embroidery and braid trimmed.

Ribbons.

10c the very best ribbon value, Plainfield people have ever seen 2,000 yards fancy French ribbons, 3 to 7 inches wide, value from 15c to 40c.

Men's Furnishing Department.

We offer some Trade Makers in this department that are sure to be appreciated.

12½c Men's Fast Black half-hose worth 18c.
49c Men's Laundried Cambric Shirts with one pair separate cuffs, worth 75c.
39c Men's Outing Shirts, worth 50c.
17c Men's Silk Scarfs, tecks and four-in-hands, the regular 25c kind.
39c Men's Scarfs, tecks, puffs and four-in-hands, very choice patterns, light and dark colors and made in the newest shapes, regular 50c quality.

Special Price Small Wares and Toilet Articles.

A La Rose Soap, 3 cakes for 5c.
Buttermilk Soap, 3 cakes for 15c.
Packers' Tar Soap, 17c cake
Junipers Tar Soap, 10c, 3 cakes for 25c.
Dr. Lyon's Tooth Powder, 13c.
S. H. & M. Bias brush binding, 10c.
Fulled edge silk elastic, 17c, worth 25c.
Perforated Dress Shields, 15c, worth 20c.

Free.

One box of Royal Tooth Powder with every 50c purchase at Notion Counter.

Carpet Department.

Our Carpet Department is on the third floor and is a perfect daylight show room, easy of access by elevator, interesting prices prevail at present.

50c Best quality of 10 wire tapestry brussels carpets, usual 75c quality.
69c Best quality Saxony Axminster carpets, value 95c.
$2.98 20 yard rolls Linen Warp Matting, value $4.00.

Axminster Rugs.

18x39, 79c, value $1 00.
30x64, $1.85, value $2 50.
36x72, $2.89, value $4.00.

19c Hand-made opaque window shades complete, rugular price 25c.

THE MARCH OF PROGRESS

in wall paper can best be witnessed in our magnificent stock, comprising all of the latest and artistic patterns, on paper of the very best texture.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.,
Wall Papers, Paints, Oils, Glass, Etc.
301 Park Ave. Corner Second St.
Telephone Call 638. Estimates Furnished.

EXPERIENCE
PATENTS
TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &c.
Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.
Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.
A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.
MUNN & Co. 361 BROADWAY, New York

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS,
New York City and country work our specialty. Satisfaction guaranteed. Stages to hire.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $2.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Everything for the Garden.
SWEET PEAS the choicest, fancy Lawn Grass Seeds and odorless lawn dressing.
'Phone No. 6.
A. M. Griffen, 119 East Front St.

Safe Deposit Vaults
THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK.
Of Plainfield, New Jersey.
Capital.....$200,000.
Surplus and Profits.....$ 90,000.
J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. DUNYON, Cashier
H. M. EDGILL, Vice " D. M. DUNYON, Ass't
DIRECTORS:
Charles Potter, Wm. McD. Cornell,
E. M. French, H. Mulford Estill,
Wm. M. Stillman, Isaac W. Bushmore,
J. W. Johnson, Wm. B. Goddington,
F. S. Dunyon.
SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per annum.
VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE
BANANAS 12c. and 15c. per doz.
ORANGES 15 and 18 for 25c.
Confectionery and fruit, lowest prices.
C. E. BICKNELL,
"On the Bridge." Somerset St

RUSHTON & HANSEN,
Painters and Paper Hangers,
Office and Shop Broadmore and Fourth Streets
Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 3 11 r

A. LUSARDI,
120 NORTH AVENUE.
Wholesale and Retail
Dealer in choice fruit of all kinds, of Confectionery, Peanuts' Cigars, etc. Soda Water of all flavors and always ice cold. Branch store corner Front and Somerset streets.

J. W. VAN SICKLE.
122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly.
TELEPHONE 148 b.

WOMEN OF OLD SPAIN

TYPES REPRESENTING VARIOUS PROVINCES OF THE COUNTRY.

Some Are Brave, Tender and True—Blue-Eyed and Fair-Skinned Beauties, Hereditary Daughters of the Goth Invaders—No Langour About Them.

The Spanish woman, whether she hail from Andalusia or the Asturias is energetic; she has none of the creole langour of the Spanish descended women of Cuba, Mexico and the tropical parts of the Americas. There is vim and force in the native-born Spaniard, and she is usually a better type than the man of her race.

Spain, it has been said, is five Irelands, all mutally distributed hostile and critical one of the other. The Spanish women of hard-working, frugal Galacia, whence come the hewers of wood and drawers of water for the Spanish cities, are used to toil and show it. They will correspond to the Nova Scotia women of the working class who seek employment in the United States; they are accustomed to work, and their backs are fitted for the heavy burdens of life. And they are good women, who look out on life with straightforward eyes. The women of Austrias, Navarre and Arragon correspond to the general northern type; they know what cold winters are and what toil it is to wrest a living from an ungrateful soil, for their portion of Spain is not fertile. They have for centuries been the mothers of fighters, of the hardy warriors who drove back the haughty Moors, and earlier still gave the Romans the toughest sort of a contest. The Catalonian women, from the most industrious province of Spain, are generally strong, muscular women with breadth of shoulders and hips, and arms that give you the idea that, with a little training in boxing, they might be efficient guardians of the public peace, and keep all the men in order. Somehow they do not suggest anything coquettish, and their harsh idiom, a rough Lemosin, spoken grumly, does not inspire thoughts of love. Built strong, they produce children who grow up to work as only the Catalonians can. Barcelona, a beehive of industry, next to Madrid the liveliest city in Spain, is their provincial capital, and the most elegant of the Spanish cities.

Just south of Catalonia is the Province of Valencia. They have beauty and an indescribable charm, perhaps derived from their Greek ancestors, for the enterprising merchants of that classic region colonized in Valencia ages ago, but the chief strain of Valencian blood is Carthagenian and also Celtic. Oddly enough, the Valencian women are not as dark of skin as the men of their race. They have lovely figures, and their hair is indeed "una gloria," so abundant, so lustrous and so beautifully worn. At home in her "tierra," or province, the Valencians wear no hats or bonnets, with the exception, of course, of the wealthy women who take to Paris fashions. They stick a gilt or silver pin through the knot, or roll of glossy hair, and no more. Some of the New England women of the old families, slender and slightly undulating of walk, such women as Salem produces have the air of the Valencianas. Now this is a downright compliment for the Valencian ladies.

They say that the Valencians are treacherous, but, as all Southern races regard the blue-eyed Northern race as perfidious, treachery seems to be a quality we ascribe to all people we know little of.

You find in many parts of Spain blue-eyed and fair-haired women, and we have in Mexico specimens of these hereditary daughters of the invading Goths, who have brought down to our times, in their eyes, the memory of blue summer seas beneath shore-locks icebound in the long winters. And this fair hair is common, too, and somehow one never gets over the feeling, in listening to the soft Spanish coming from the lips of a blue-eyed and light-haired woman, that she has, perhaps, learned it as a foreigner in early youth. But now she is as much a Spaniard as the women whose eyes reveal the descent from the Moor or the Carthagenian, or as she who has the strong profile of the Roman conqueror.

A fair woman is called in Spanish "una guera," pronounced "oonah gwayrah," or else "una rubia." Both terms are common. Among a race where the dark skin prevails, to be fair is a mark of beauty, and one often hears people speaking of some lady in terms of praise as "la guera." To call a baby "fair" is to capture the heart of the mother. A fair-complexioned man is "un guero," "oon gwayroh."

But Spanish women go to bull fights! And so do New England, yea Boston lady tourists, when in Mexico and so do New England's lovely daughters attend the football matches held in the eminently proper city of Springfield, and witness the writhing and kickings and batterings of the contestants. But all Spanish women do not go to bull fights; many of them detest the sport, and I have seen Spaniards who never witnessed a bull fight.

Bismarck's Tomb.

Whatever little faults Bismarck, the man of blood and iron, may have had, it does not seem that his fellow countrymen are likely to forget their beloved old Iron Chancellor. The mausoleum is in a well-wooded corner of the Sachsenwald. It consists of a massive eight-sided tower and a nave, the former now containing the remains of the Prince and Princess. The nave of the building is reserved for a general family vault. The mausoleum has been erected just opposite Friedrichruhe, the home of the late Prince Bismarck, and is not far from the city of Hamburg.

A GILDED ROMANCE.

HOW A MINER'S DAUGHTER ENTERS THE VANDERBILT FAMILY.

The Story of Jim Fair's Strike In the Comstock Lode and the Social Sequel Which Ensued—The Ambition of Mrs. Belmont.

[Copyright, 1899, by American Press Association.]

THE Vanderbilt-Fair wedding brings to mind an old adage which I have heard attributed to Daniel Webster, "There is always room at the top, but those who get there do not find the view as good as they hoped." The evolution of the Fair family is unqiue and possesses a romantic charm. There is a code of climatic ethics in the atmosphere of California curiously adapted or eliminating most of the rules in the conservatism of eastern bigotry. By substituting individualism and personal freedom the Californian rises superior to most codes—that is, social codes. Society to him is a barred cage, and his life is his own. He is a slave to nothing in abstract forms.

Jim Fair was a working miner on the Comstock lode earning a wage of $5 a day. His industry and keenness advanced him to the position of superintendent of the Hale & Norcross mine, with a salary of $1,000 a month. During its occupany he married Mrs. Fair, who was born of Irish parents.

Mrs. Fair was raised in a little mining camp in Calaveras county, Cal. Her brothers appreciated the value of education and saved sufficient money to send her to a country school. Subsequently Mrs. Fair attended the convent for a short time in one of the large towns of California, where she met and married Mr. Fair. She was a handsome girl in her youth, and her daughters have, to some extent, inherited her dark Irish beauty. She lived for some time after her marriage in Nevada, devoting her energy and personality to the interest of her family.

While engaged as superintendent on the Comstock, Jim Fair became notable not only as being a very shrewd man, but as the best miner on the lode.

John Mackay, at this time, was working miner in the Consolidated Virginia mine. He called upon Mr. Fair to pass judgment about the prospects that property presented. Mr. Fair, after a thorough examination, was convinced of the existence of a vast body of ore near at hand. Together Fair and Mackay went to San Francisco to secure capital with which to buy in the majority of the stock. Their efforts met with but little success. They tramped the streets of San Francisco day after day, spending many hours in the offices of small capitalists, who would not respond. Eventually they found in two saloon keepers, Flood and O'Brien, some willingness to form a combination. Flood and O'Brien had between them about $60,000, and with the capital thus furnished they manipulated the stock of the celebrated Con. Virginia.

They boosted the stock to $30 a share and sold out a large block at those prices. Then they broke the market and drove the stock down to $7 or $8 a share. After a few months the Big Bonanza was opened up and cut on different levels, which put over $100,000,000 worth of ore in sight. They then threw it open to the world, and there was a speculative excitement in the stock markets such as the world had never seen. The Con. Virginia stock went to $800 per share, and Flood and O'Brien, Mackay and Fair became the Bonanza kings.

VIRGINIA FAIR.

The sequel to this unique romance, so far as the Fairs go, is known more or less by the world at large. Jim Fair found time and money hanging very heavy on his hands, and before the gates of the splendid palace on Nob Hill were opened to their many friends Mrs. Fair sought a divorce, with which she secured half of his fortune, which allowed her $6,000,000.

The two daughters, Miss Virginia Fair and her sister, Mrs. Herman Oelrichs, were the principal legatees under their mother's will, each succeeding to $2,000,000. Added to this, their paternal inheritance of several millions, we find in the marriage between Miss Fair and Mr. Vanderbilt junior the fusion of tens of millions with hundreds of millions.

The mother of young William K. Vanderbilt is now the wife of O. H. P. Belmont. Among women there are few who have been so conspicuously successful in financial strategy as she. The correct estimate of Mrs. Belmont's personal character cannot be comprehended. She has by her clever manipulations surrounded her life with almost incalculable resources. Her manners are those she owes to fortune. By the invulnerable power of acquisition she holds her rather clouded prestige as a society woman.

Mrs. Belmont's social principles embody the grasping, heartless methods of a trust or monopoly. She is the organizer of a movement in which she is the central figure. It is through her ideas and through her immutable schemes of legislation that she has controlled the Vanderbilt millions. She does control the Belmont millions, and now Miss Fair will contribute to this woman's personal monopoly the millions obtained from Jim Fair's mining expedition on the Con. Virginia lode.

It is true that Mrs. Belmont invested $15,000,000 to $20,000,000 in the title of the Duke of Marlborough, but then she owns Blenheim castle. Her grandson will become the next duke. The sentiments, political and social, of the relatives of the present duke are anti-American in everything American except American money. To acquire that for the little duke and his family they consented to accept an American duchess. But, if the duchess had died without heirs, the invested $15,000,000 were entailed to revert to the Vanderbilt estate.

WILLIAM K. VANDERBILT, JR.

ANNETTE CRAWFORD.

NOTES OF WOMEN'S WORK.

Mrs. Emily Crawford, the Paris correspondent of the London Daily Mail, is recognized as one of the most successful woman journalists.

Art in the public schools is a somewhat new departure which has been successfully inaugurated by Miss Elizabeth Gonger at Joliet, Ills.

Miss Gordon, a society belle of Atlanta, created a social sensation while on a recent visit in Philadelphia by her impersonations and singing of darky hymns.

A young woman, Miss Gussie Freeman, works on the wharfs of the Williamsburg district of New York as a longshoreman and holds her own with the men.

Among the successful business women of the country are the Misses Anna and Kathryn Offerman, who own and manage one of the largest office buildings in Toledo.

Jeannette Macketehenessy, the daughter of a Chippewa chief, has by reason of her almost perfect form and features been for some time employed as a model by leading Detroit artists.

Mrs. Kate Collins has found a primrose path to prosperity, having developed a substantial clientele for her work in decorative art, which is the designing of "favors" for social functions.

Dr. Marie J. Mergler, one of the foremost of the women physicians and surgeons of the country, has been chosen dean of the Northwestern University Women's Medical school of Chicago.

The National Society of Daughters of the American Republic will erect a monument to the memory of Reubena Hyde Walworth, who died from fever contracted in nursing soldiers at Montauk.

Miss Caroline Hazard of Peachdale, R. I., the new president of Wellesley college, is widely known both by her writings and by her membership in a family which has been prominent for generations.

St. Louis has the first and, it is believed, the only branch of the National Cooking Teachers' league, which has headquarters at Chautauqua, N. Y. Miss Lisbeth M. Gladfelder is president of the St. Louis league.

Mrs. Fanny Powell Priestman of Jersey City is recognized as the rediscoverer of the lost art of luster painting on china and has produced several pieces which have attracted much attention among the devotees of the ceramic art.

An example of the reward of perseverance and merit is noted in the career of Miss Hallie Hanson, who a few years ago sold papers on the streets of New York and now writes advertisements for a big dry goods firm for $50 a week.

Miss Grace McKinstry, a St. Paul girl who studied art in Paris, where some of her work is hung in the Champ de Mars, is winning laurels in Washington. She is the protegee of Mrs. Senator Cushman K. Davis, whose portrait she has just finished.

Chicago has a Cavy club, the only organization of its kind in this country, which is devoted to those dear little creatures which have lately become the fads as pets for women and children. The founder and president is Mrs. Edith Kingman Pryor, who has the largest cavy ranch in the United States.

Mrs. Virginia Claypole Meredith of Indiana is known all over the middle west as a stock breeder, the product of her farm taking first prizes wherever exhibited. She is an enthusiastic clubwoman and was recently elected president of Indiana State Federation of Literary Clubs.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Aus der Rheinpfalz.

Frankenthal. In der Glamm'schen Maschinenfabrik wurde der 40 Jahre alte verheirathete Former Jäger von einem herabfallenden 60 bis 70 Centner schweren Eisenblock getroffen und vollständig zerquetscht. Ein zweiter Former, der 23 Jahre alte Georg Helmer, der ebenfalls getroffen wurde, ist lebensgefährlich verletzt.

Kaiserslautern. „Blaumachende" Maurer mißhandelten den Bauunternehmer Liebrich, der sich geweigert hatte, Lohn auszuzahlen. Darauf geriethen die Maurer unter sich in Streit, wobei der 25jährige Maurer Becker erstochen wurde.

Schifferstadt. Der Bahnwärter Sturm wurde, als er bei Nebel das Geleise überschritt, vom Zuge überfahren. Der Kopf wurde vollständig vom Rumpf getrennt.

Württemberg.

Stuttgart. Die hiesigen Bäcker zeigen jetzt wieder einen Abschlag der im Laufe des vorigen Sommers erhöhten Preise für die billigeren Brodsorten an.—Oberbürgermeister Rümelin ist plötzlich gestorben. Seine Leiche wurde im Krematorium zu Heidelberg verbrannt. Rümelin gehörte einer alten württembergischen Familie an und war ein Sohn des Statistikers und Schriftstellers Gustav Rümelin, der auch dem Frankfurter Parlament angehörte. Der Verstorbene stand seit 1892 an der Spitze der württembergischen Hauptstadt und war in allen Kreisen sehr beliebt.

Birkendorf. Die hier neu errichtete mechanische Seidenweberei von Schmitz u. Co. ist nunmehr in Betrieb gesetzt. Das Etablissement ist mit Wasser- und Dampfkraft, sowie elektrischer Beleuchtung ausgestattet und dürfte bei ihrer günstigen Lage der hiesigen Bevölkerung viel Verdienst zuführen.

Dürrmenz-Mühlacker. Die Mühlschreiner Frischs Ehefrau von hier hatte das Unglück, ihrem dreiviertel Jahre alten Kinde an Stelle eines Abführmittels einen Theelöffel voll Lysol zu verabreichen. Trotz sofort angewandter Gegenmittel starb das Kind an Vergiftung. Die unglückliche Mutter wird sich jetzt noch zu allem Unglück hin wegen fahrlässiger Tödtung zu verantworten haben.

Heilbronn. Die Heilbronner Straßenbahn plant die Weiterführung der elektrischen Straßenbahn nach dem zwei Kilometer entfernten Böckingen.

Riedlingen. Neulich wurde der seit einiger Zeit geistig gestörte Küfer Arnold von Altheim nur mit dem Hemd bekleidet erfroren vor seinem Hause aufgefunden. Da Arnold in letzter Zeit in dem Wahn lebte, daß sein Haus brenne, ist anzunehmen, daß er, um der Gefahr zu entgehen, sich durch ein Fenster retten wollte, herabfiel, bewußtlos liegen blieb und erfror.

Tübingen. Der verstorbene Landtagsabgeordnete Schweikhardt hat den Armen der Stadt 1000 Mark vermacht, welche zur Hälfte jetzt und zur Hälfte im Spätjahr vertheilt werden sollen.

Baden.

Karlsruhe. In der jüngsten Generalversammlung des hiesigen Gewerbevereins versuchten die Handwerkerbündler bei den Vorstandswahlen einen Vorstoß zu ihren Gunsten zu machen, scheiterten aber; sie brachten für ihren Wahlzettel nicht viel über ein Dutzend Stimmen auf, während der liberale Zettel im Durchschnitt 130 Stimmen erhielt.

Heidelberg. Kürzlich wurde hier das althergebrachte lokale Kinderfest des Abschieds vom Winter, der Sommertag, begangen. In Folge des günstigen Wetters war die Betheiligung der Zuschauer und Kinder sehr stark. In dem Vormittags 11 Uhr durch die Stadt ziehenden Zug bewegten sich wohl an 3500 buntgeputzte, Sommertagsstecken tragende Kinder und etwa 60 „Sommer" und „Winter" darstellende Gruppen. Die schönsten wurden mit vom Gemeinnützigen Verein gestifteten Preisen ausgezeichnet.

Mannheim. Unter dem Verdacht, mit falschen Plomben versehenes trichinöses Fleisch verkauft zu haben, wurden die Inhaber der Fleischerimportfirma Schmitz u. Oechelhäuser, sowie deren Vorarbeiter verhaftet.

Pforzheim. Der Rechtsagent Hellmuth hat sich in seiner Wohnung erschossen. Er hatte sich kurz zuvor in einer Wirthschaft von seinen Freunden verabschiedet mit dem Bemerken, daß er sich binnen einer Stunde erschießen werde. Der Grund des Selbstmordes soll in zerrütteten Vermögensverhältnissen zu suchen sein.

Schwetzingen. Als neulich Vormittags das Wagenrevidenten-Ehepaar Götz, von dem Kirchgang heimkehrend, seine Wohnung betrat, fand es seinen achtjährigen Sohn, am ganzen Körper mit Brandwunden bedeckt, leblos vor dem Zimmerofen liegend vor. Offenbar hat der Knabe, welcher von seinen Eltern vor ihrem Weggehen mit Feueranzünden beauftragt worden, hierzu Petroleum benutzt.

Elsaß-Lothringen.

Kolmar. Bei den letzten hiesigen Gemeinderathswahlen wurden die Führer der demokratischen elsaß-lothringischen Volkspartei, Rechtsanwalt Blumenthal und Dr. med. Kayser, sowie die Klerikalen Kaufmann Gastard und Oberlandesgerichtsrath Isemann gewählt.

(A)
AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED
Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.
"Spring Openings"—so called—are common, HERE'S one in the Furniture and Carpet Line that proved
The Grandest Yet
—one that had a RIGHT to the name. Not another furniture and carpet house ever got together under its own roof a more elaborate, a more EXTENDED STOCK. Just think of our 3 great buildings given up to brand new Spring styles, ALL waiting for your choosing!
Prices as low as any Cash House, yet credit on your own terms.
Beautiful Souvenirs free to all lady visitors.

$7.69—a $15.00 Board, very much like cut, prettier if anything. The finest sideboard stock in all this city! Up to $125.

85c.
Antique Dining Chair, cane seat, brace arm—a $1.25 chair—others up $5.00 and $6.00—50 kinds.

Carpets—Beauties all of them—lovely Spring Colors, finest sort of weaves—and an immense variety—a 200-foot floor! Don't wonder these prices surprise: Good Ingrains, 26c. yard; very heavy Ingrains, 39c. yard; All-Wool Ingrains, 54c. yard; Brussels, 45c. yard; fine Velvets, 69c.
The stirring sale of 500 rolls of newly received Mattings is still on. China and Japan weaves—new colors.

$3.98
—antique oak—paneled sides finest sort of build, for it's a $5 make—with mirror it's $5.95—large lines of dressers, and bureaus, too.

$3.49
—upholstered body, tinned steel wheels, with rod and parasol.

$4.98
—an $8.00 white enameled Bed, brass rails at head and foot. Brass centre ornaments and post mounts. There's one great dep't with nothing but white goods here! Beds, $1.98 to $65.

"The Domestic Sewing Machine"—The lightest running, longest wearing, surest make! Here—cash or credit.
NO "OPENING" COMPLETE WITHOUT AN EXHIBIT OF THE FAMOUS "PORTLAND RANGE." OVER 10,000 SOLD—NOT ONE AT FAULT!

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St.,
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS. Near Plane St.,
Note first name "Amos." Newark, N. J.
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.
CARFARE PAID TO OUT-OF-TOWN BUYERS.
A Private Delivery Wagon Sent on Request.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO

SPECIAL SALE.
We will sell skirts and suits of our own make for this week at a price that will require no brass band to sell. An examination of our goods is all that is necessary. Ladies, as a rule, know where and when to buy. Our prices are lower than the lowest. For fit and make there are no equal in town. Call and inspect our stock.
Gloos & Richardson. LADIES' TAILORS, 225 W. FRONT ST

SPRING HATS,
SPRING NECKTIES.
SPRING SHIRTS
AT
JAMES R. BLAIR'S,
126 PARK AVENUE.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER.
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phoenix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life. Telephone No. 672.

COAL
C is for coal, clean, cheery and cheap.
O is the order to lay in a heap.
A is the atmosphere warmed by its glow.
L is the light that starts it to go, and to get the best coal buy of Stevens & Co.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.
THE DELINEATOR AND GLASS OF FASHION
For April Now Ready. Ask for the April Fashion Sheet.
Subscriptions taken.
A. L. & M. D. GORSLINE.
144 PARK AVE. PLAINFIELD, N. J.

5,000 FEET OF
MOULDINGS IN GILT AND HARD WOOD
Bring Your Pictures and Have Them Framed
At the PLAINFIELD ART GALLERY, Y. M. C. A. Building

Jersey Poultry
is the specialty of
SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue
Have you tried their
SAUSAGE
It is the best made in
PLAINFIELD

Elston M. French & Co.
Successors to VanBuren Bros.
Real Estate and Insurance.
Largest agency in the city. Loans negotiated.
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Opposite Depot

H. Eggerding,
121 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall Streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 20th, 1898.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 29, 7 00, 7 26, 7 50, 7 58, 8 09, 8 18, 8 30, 8 37, 8 48, 9 26, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 1 15, 2 12, 3 29, 4 12, 4 46, 4 54, 5 37, 6 14, 6 21, 6 30, 6 46, 7 09, 7 39, 8 45, 9 15, 10 17, 11 28 p. m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 6 59, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10, a. m.; 12 m., 12 58, 1 46, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 15, 8 52, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

Leave New York foot Liberty St. at 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10 10 00 a. m.; 12 00 m., 1 00, 1 30, 2 00, 3 00, 3 45, 4 00, 4 40, 5 00, 5 15, 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 30, 11 45 p. m.; 12 15, 1 00 night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 00, 9 00, 9 15, a. m.; 12 m.; 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 7 30, 9 00, 10 00 p. m.; 12 15 night; 1 00 a. m.

Leave New York South Ferry from Whitehall St. at 7 10, 7 55, 8 35, 9 05, 9 55, 11 55 a. m., 12 55, 1 25, 2 25, 3 25, 3 55, 4 35, 4 55, 5 25, 5 55, 6 10, 6 25, 6 55, 7 25, 7 40, 8 10, 9 10, 9 55, 11 40 p. m., 12 10 night. Sundays—At 6 55, 8 55 a. m., 12 00 m., 12 55, 1 25, 3 55, 6 40, 7 25, 8 55, 9 55 p. m., 12 10 night.

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 37, 6 29, 7 00, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 35, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 1 15, 2 12, 3 29, 5 12, 5 46, 4 54, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 8 45, 10 17, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 46, 3 50, 5 41, 6 52, 8 32, 10 22 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 30, 8 05, 8 28, 9 03, 10 03 a. m.; 12 10, 1 05, 1 35, 2 40, 3 35, 4 02, 4 40, 5 04, 11 5 45, 6 19, 7 26, 8 10, 9 35, 10 05, 11 25 p. m. Sunday, 7 15, 9 05, 11 35 a. m.; 1 10, 2 45, 4 05, 5 55, 7 35, 9 15, 10 15 p. m.

Passengers for Newark please change car Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 0 m., 1 01, 2 11, 2 27, 3 32, 4 35, 5 03 34, 6 04, 6 09, 6 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 26, 11 29, p. m; 12 44 night. Sundays 5 45, 8 06 55, a.m; 2 03, 3 40, 5 09, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p.m

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7, 7 27, 7 33, 7 45, 8 20, 9 15, 9 35, 10 15, 11 45, a. m 12 50, 1 53, 2 05 3 20, 4 30, 5 28, 6 05, 6 08, 6 45, 8 22, 8 45, 11 05 p. m Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 45 a. m; 12 35, 1 20, 5 16, 6 27, 7 55, 8 05, 8 42, 10 00 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m., 1 01 5 25, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45 9 56 a. m; 2 03 6 35 p. m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 01, 8 15, a. m; 12 36, 4 14, 5 16, 7 17, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 11 22 a. m; 6 00 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield 7 12 a. m; 5 25 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

8 12 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R. R. Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c., with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

1 01 p. m. way for Easton, German Valley and Chester, connecting at Junction for station on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 27 p. m. For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamauqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton, with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

5 25 p. m., for Flemington and Easton connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.—For German Valley and Chester, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

9 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Easton.

2 08 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley and Flanders, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc., and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 8 37, (5 37 for Sea Girt 8 13, 10:37 a. m.; 3 46, 6 21 p. m. Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 8 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 58, 10:37 a. m; 1 15, 3 46, 4 54, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 6 45 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a.m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 8 37 a. m.; 1 15 p m.

For Freehold, 8 37, 8 13, 10:37 a. m.; 1 15, 3 46, 5 37 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat 8 37, 8 13 9 58 (Lakewood only) a.m., 1 15, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 29, 8 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, 5 34*, 6 38*, 8 21 p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 8 45, 9 55, 10 44 a.m.; 2 16, 4 55, 5 09*, 6 38* p m.; 1 17 night.

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 29, 9 44 a. m.; 1 01 2 16, 4 14, 5 34*, 6 38* 8 21, p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 8 45, 9 55 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, 5 09*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 5 34*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a.m; 2 16, 5 09*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m.; 6 38 p m. Sundays, 8 55 p m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H OLHAUSEN, General Superintendent.

H.P. BALDWIN, General Passenger Agent

LEHIGH VALLEY RAILROAD

Time table in effect Feb. 5, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

WESTWARD.

8 05 a. m. daily, 6 25 p. m. daily except Sundays. Easton local.

6 25 p. m. Sunday evening local for Mauch Chunk.

9 02 a. m. daily; Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

11 02 a. m., 5 22 and 9 42 p. m. daily except Sunday. Local for Bound Brook.

12 02 p. m. daily except Sunday "Black Diamond Express" for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

2 04 p. m. daily local for Easton and Wilkes-Barre.

4 58 p. m. daily except Sunday, express for Wilkes-Barre, Scranton, Pottsville, Hazleton, Shamokin, L. & B. Junction and principal intermediate stations.

7 08 and 9 32 p. m. daily, solid vestibule express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

9 02 p. m. Daily express for Easton, Bethlehem, Mauch Chunk, Sayre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge, carries sleeping car passengers only, and no baggage east of Buffalo.

EASTWARD.

For New York and Brooklyn local 6 49, 7 40 and 9 40 a. m., 3 04 and 5 18 p. m. daily except Sunday. Sunday 10 29 a.m., and 6 04 p.m. Express 7 06, 8 14, 10 09 a.m., 12 15, 2 50, 5 10, 7 07 and 9 06 p. m. daily except Sunday. Sunday 7 06 8 14 a.m., 2 50 and 7 07 p. m.

PERTH AMBOY BRANCH.

For Perth Amboy and intermediate stations 8 12 10 08 a. m., 5 22 and 7 28 p. m. daily except Sundays. Sunday 10 29 a. m. and 7 06 p. m.

Trains leave Perth Amboy (State street) 7 12 8 25 a. m., 4 30 and 6 35 p. m., daily except Sunday. Sunday 7:13 a. m. and 5 42 p. m.

For further information call on or address he Ticket Agent, South Plainfield, N. J. Through tickets to all important western points may be purchased at the South Plainfield office.

Col. ROLLIN H. WILBUR, General Superintendent, S. Bethlehem, Pa.

CHAS. S. LEE, General Passenger Agent 26 Cortlandt St., N. Y. City.

NEW YORK TERMINALS—Foot of Cortlandt Desbrosses and West 23d streets.

[Copyright, 1899, by F. Tennyson Neely.]

[CONTINUED.]

CHAPTER XXIII.

Gate City had found a hero and wished to worship him, but its hero proved as intractable as he was reticent. For three days after the capture of Nevins the community was agog with rumor and excitement. To begin with, the captive "had the cheek of a brass monkey," said the sheriff, and swore stoutly that he was a wronged and injured man. So far from being a prisoner he should be on a pinnacle, rewarded by a generous and grateful government for important services rendered. Who but he had followed and found the renegade major and wrested from him full confession and the key of the safe? The latter in turn had been forcibly wrested from him through the malevolent jealousy of that upstart engineer, but never, said Nevins, would he now betray Burleigh's hiding place or impart his confession until full reparation was made for the wrongs and indignities heaped upon him. The sheriff was fairly dazed.

"Who were all the fellows you had with you," he demanded, "if they weren't some of Hank Birdsall's crowd, come there to raid the quartermaster's depot?"

Nevins' indignation was fine to see. He denied all knowledge of the presence of any such. He demanded an interview with Folsom. He utterly refused at first to accord one to his wife, as Naomi Fletcher, Folsom's housekeeper, was now understood to be. That woman was in league with his enemies, he swore. That woman wrote and bade him come and then had Folsom and Loring and other armed men there to pounce upon him. Folsom came and had a few words with him, but told him bluntly that he wouldn't believe his preposterous story and would have nothing to do with him until he withdrew the outrageous accusations against both his wife and Loring.

"That woman's a million times too good for you," said Folsom.

Then Nevins concluded he must have a talk with Loring, and on his message being conveyed that officer, the bearer, was bidden to say that Mr. Loring refused to have anything whatever to do with him, whereat the captive ex-captain ground his teeth with rage and made the jailyard ring with malediction.

Events succeeded each other with marvelous rapidity. Folsom's visit was early the morning after the capture, and by noon he was bowling along on a 70 mile ride to the ranch in the Laramie valley, hurried thither by the news that Birdsall's gang had run off many of his son's best horses and that Hal Folsom himself was missing.

Loring galloped by the side of the ambulance several miles, conferring with the old frontiersman all the way, then turned back to resume his work at the depot. Eagerly he wired dispatches to the general, which were forwarded from Cheyenne to the Platte, telling of his important capture, smiling quietly as he wrote.

Had he not promised to produce the mysterious Newhall himself? Admirable service, indeed, had the young engineer rendered. The testimony of Folsom, Loring, Jimmy Peters and one or two wakeful citizens all proved that there must have been a dozen of Birdsall's gang in town that night.

There could be only one explanation, for a price was on the head of every man. They had come with "Newhall" and the key straight from some distant lair in the Black Hills of Wyoming, the big shouldered range that stretches from the Laramie near its junction with the Platte southward to Colorado. They were bent on a sudden rush upon the corral in the dead of night, the forcing of the gate and the office door, then with "Newhall" to unlock the safe they would be up and away like the wind, with money enough to keep them all in clover—and whisky—until the last dollar was gambled or guzzled.

Loring's suspicions had proved exactly correct. Loring's precautions in having the office brightly lighted and a show of armed men about had held the would be robbers at bay during the early hours of the night, and then his prompt action in hurling himself on the mysterious stranger who came stealthily in at Folsom's back gate had finally and totally blocked the game.

But, just in proportion as Loring turned out to be right, old Pecksniff turned out to be wrong, for he had refused a guard for the depot, and therefore was it now Pecksniff's bounden duty to himself to poohpooh the precautions of the engineer and belittle the danger. Not for a moment would he admit that armed desperadoes had come at Nevins' back. As for the key in his possession, with all respect to the statements of Mr. Loring, the story of the unfortunate captain was just as plausible, and that key should have been delivered to him, the commander at Fort Emory, instead of being taken possession of by the engineer.

True, Nevins had been dismissed in disgrace, and in a question of veracity between the two men there was little doubt that Loring's would prevail. But a very peppery, fidgety, unhappy old man was Colonel Stevens for many days, prating about this independence of action of stripling officers right under his nose.

But the worst came on the day when the little troop of cavalry at Fort Emory was still further depleted by the detachment of a sergeant, two corporals and eight troopers, ordered to report with pack mule and ten days' rations to Lieutenant Loring of the engineers, and Colonel Stevens had not been consulted again.

The senior colonel in the department, he had seen his command cut down company by company until only a bare squad, said he, remained to guard the most important post in Wyoming. (Which it wasn't by any means, but he had been led to think so.) And now young whippersnappers just out of West Point were running away with his men right under his nose.

But Loring's orders came to him direct from Omaha. He had need of every precaution. He was now going on a mission that demanded the utmost secrecy, and the colonel could no more conceal a movement than a sieve could water.

Quitting the quartermaster's depot one summer night at 12, the little detachment rode silently out across the southward prairie, swung round to the east when the dim lights of town were a mile behind, took the trot over the hard, bounding turf, and at dawn were heading straight for the breaks of the Laramie. Halting for rest and coffee when the sun was an hour high, they again pushed on until noon, when they unsaddled in a grove of leafy cottonwoods in a little fork of the Medicine Bow, watered the weary horses and gave them a hearty feed and themselves as hearty a dinner, and then picketing and hoppling their steeds, who were glad enough to roll and sprawl in the sand, all hands managed to get some hours of sound sleep before the sun was sinking to the edge of the Sweetwater range.

Then came the careful grooming of their mounts, then a dip in the cool waters, the smoking tins of soldier coffee and sizzling slips of bacon. Then again the saddle and the silent trail, with the moon looking down from the zenith on their warlike array. Heavily armed was every man, each, even the lieutenant, with carbine and brace of Colts, and on they rode through the still, soft night air, chatting in low tones, no man knowing but every one believing that the taciturn, blue eyed young officer in the lead was heading them for a lair of the Birdsall gang. It was too far south just then for Sioux.

Another moon and they had crossed during the dark hours the broad plains of the Laramie and were winding up among the hills. Another rest and spurring from the rear there overtook them a bronzed, weather beaten frontiersman whom Mr. Loring greeted without show of surprise, and when again they moved on it was he who rode at the lieutenant's left, up, up a winding trail among the frowning heights until just as every man was wondering when on earth they could hope for a bite the noiseless signal to halt was given, while the leaders dismounted and peered over a shoulder of bluff ahead, held brief consultation, then down the ravine to the left rode the stranger, and back to his men came Loring, his eyes kindling.

"There is a camp half a mile ahead where I have to make an arrest," said he quietly. "Keep close at my heels. We'll have to gallop when we get in view. Draw pistol. Don't fire unless they do. They probably won't."

And they didn't. Half a dozen startled men, gambling about a blanket; two or three sleeping off a drunk and one hunted, haunted wretch nervously pacing up and down among the pines were no match for the dash of a dozen bluejackets coming thundering into view. There was no thought of fight. Those who could catch their horses threw themselves astride bareback and shot for the heart of the hills; two or three scrambled off afoot and were quickly run down; one, a heavily built, haggard, hollow eyed man, shook from head to foot as the lieutenant reined up his panting and excited horse and coolly said:

"You are my prisoner, Burleigh."

Nor was there attempt at rescue. Mounting his four captives on their horses, their feet lashed to the stirrups, their hands bound, all the abandoned arms, ammunition and provisions destroyed and the camp burned, Loring led promptly away up the range toward the north until clear of the timber, then down the westward slope toward the Laramie valley once more, searching for a secure place to bivouac. Far to the north the grand old peak loomed against the blue gray of the Wyoming skies. Off to their left front, uplifting a shaggy crest from its surrounding hills, a bold butte towered fully 20 miles away, and toward that jagged landmark Loring saw his sergeant peering time and again with hand shaded eyes.

"What do you see?" he presently asked.

"Smoke, sir, I think. Will the lieutenant look with his glass?"

Silently Loring unslung his binocular and gazed. His eyes were keen, but untrained. "Take it yourself, sergeant," he said. And the veteran trooper reined out to one side and peered long and steadily, then came trotting up to the head of column, doubt and suppressed excitement mingling on his weather beaten face.

"I couldn't be sure, sir, but—it looked for a minute like smoke."

"And that means"—

"Indian signals, sir. That's Eagle butte, only a couple of miles from Hal Folsom's ranch."

Loring pondered. It was long since, in any force, the Sioux had ventured south of the Platte, but now, after their victory at Wasrior Gap and the tremendous re-enforcement they had received from all the turbulent tribes, what was to prevent? John Folsom himself had told him it might be expected any moment. John Folsom himself had gone to that very spot consumed with anxiety about the safety of his son, but confident of the safety of himself and those he loved when once he could reach the ranch. "No Sioux," said he, "would raise hand to harm me."

"You are my prisoner, Burleigh."

But Loring's men and horses both were sorely wearied now, and at sundown the little command reached a sheltered nook where grass, wood and water were abundant. Here restfully yet anxiously they bivouacked until 3 in the morning, and then once more, refreshed, but alert and cautious, watchful of their prisoners and watchful of the signs ahead, on they sped for Folsom's ranch. The dawn broke beautifully clear. The trail led down into the romantic valley of the Laramie at the bend where it begins its rush through the range. Then, turning westward as they reached the foot of a steep and commanding height, Loring signaled to his sergeant, and the troopers spurred up alongside.

There before them lay the broad and beautiful valley just lighting up with the rosy hues of the glad young day. There to the northward, black bearded with its growth of pine, the rays of the rising sun just glinting on the topmost crags, towered Eagle butte, a plume of smoke puffs even at the moment beginning to soar slowly aloft. There, not a mile away, straight ahead, was the steep ridge that, hiding Folsom's from view, stretched down from the northward foothills to the very bank of the lapping Laramie. There south of the stream the gradual slope of the black range, studded here and there with bowlders that seemed to have rolled down from the precipitous cliffs under which they were now moving, two seasoned old dragoons 300 yards out to the front, covering the cautious advance.

All the broad sweep of rolling landscape far to the west just lighting up in the slant of the summer sunshine, not a living thing in sight save their own little band, yet beyond that ridge only two miles away lay the ranch, all seemingly peaceful and secure, yet over that jagged watchtower to the north the war signals of the Sioux were flaunting, and every hand seemed to seek the small of the gunstock, even two of the prisoners pleading for "a show in the fight" if there was to be one, and, not five minutes later, it came. Borne on the still, breathless air there rose throbbing from the west the spiteful crack, crack of rifles, the distant clamor of taunting jeer and yell. Back from the front came one of the troopers at mad gallop, his eyes popping almost from his head.

"My God, lieutenant, Folsom's ranch is afire, and the valley's thick with Sioux!"

Even then, when every carbine seemed to leap from its socket, men remembered the groan of despair that rose from Burleigh's lips.

"Look after the prisoners, corporal. Sergeant Carey, you and the first six come with me!" cried Loring. A gallop of less than a minute brought them almost abreast of the ridge. Black and billowing a cloud of smoke was rising, lashed from beneath by angry tongues of red flame. "It isn't the house, thank God!" cried the sergeant. "It's the haystacks. But look at the Indians!"

Look! Well they might! All about the corrals they were darting. All on a sudden there blazed from the ridge line across the stream the fire of a dozen rifles. All around them the spiteful bullets bit the turf. One horse madly reared and plunged, his rider cursing heartily. Wildly the more excitable troopers returned an aimless shot from saddle, while others gazed eagerly to the officer for orders. It was his first meeting with the Sioux. It had been his hope to gain that threatened ranch by dawn and join its garrison, but where was that hope now?

Down along the banks of the Laramie, lashing their bounding ponies, brandishing their weapons and yelling like mad, a band of Sioux, full 40 strong, came charging at them, splashing through the shallows and scattering out across their front in the well known battle tactics. Not an instant was there to be lost!

"Jump for those rocks, men!" rang Loring's order. "Cut loose your prisoners, corporal! They must fight for their lives!"

But, oh, what chance had so few against so many? Springing from saddle, turning loose their startled, snorting horses that go tearing away down the valley, the old hands have jumped for the rocks and, kneeling and taking deliberate aim, open fire on the foremost of the foe. A gaudy warrior goes down in the flood, and a yell goes up to heaven. Another good shot slays a feather decked pony and sends his rider sprawling, and wisely the others veer away to right and left and scurry to more distant range, but up the slopes to the south still others dart.

From three sides now the Indian bullets are hissing in. In less than four minutes of sharp, stinging fight gallant Sergeant Carey is stretched on the turf with a shattered elbow, Corporal Burke and two troopers are shot dead, and Loring, with white, set face and a scorching seam along the left cheek, seizes a dropped carbine and thrusts it into Burleigh's shaking hands.

"Up with you, man!" he cries. "It's your scalp you're fighting for. Here, take a drink of this." And his filled canteen is glued to Burleigh's ashen lips.

A long pull, a gasp, and hardly knowing what he does the recreant officer kneels at the nearmost rock, aims at a painted savage leaping to the aid of a fallen brother, and the chance shot, for a marvel, finds its mark, and with a howl the warrior drops upon the bank.

Kneeling and taking deliberate aim, open fire on the foremost foe.

"Well done, Burleigh!" shouts Loring. "Fire again!"

Hope or whisky or lingering spark of manhood has fired the major's eye and nerved his hand.

With something like a sob one of Birdsall's captured crew rolls over to where the young commander is coolly loading and firing, and, despite their heavy loss, the stout defense has had its effect and the yelling braves are keeping at wider range.

"I'm done for, lieutenant," he moans. "For God's sake lie flat behind me!" And he feebly points to the slope behind their left rear, where half a dozen Sioux, dismounted, are skipping to the shelter of the rocks.

Another minute and their bullets are hissing at the backs of the besieged. Another minute and Burleigh topples over on the sward, the lifeblood pouring from his side, and Loring sees that half his fighting force is gone, even as everything begins to swim before his eyes, and the hand that strives to sweep away the blur before his sight leaves his pallid face smeared with blood.

There is a sound of coming thunder in his ears, the blare of distant trumpet, the warning yell of wary Indians, the rousing cheer of charging horses, and the earth seems turning round and rolling up to meet him as he droops, fainting at his post, the battle won.

Well and gallantly done, was the universal verdict of the frontier on Walter Loring's maiden fight. Brave, cool and resolute in face of desperate peril he had proved, and many a sympathizing soldier hovered about the hospital tent where day after day he lay in the delirium of fever that followed his wounds. Yet will it be believed that when at last convalescence came and the doctors were compelled to raise the blockade, the news was broken to him that so soon as he should be declared strong enough there was still another ordeal ahead. The gallant general he had served so well had indeed been ordered elsewhere, as was prophesied at Omaha. "A new king came who knew not Joseph." The senior colonel was assigned to temporary command of the department, and he (old Pecksniff) listened to the tales of Nevins and of that new arrival from California, Petty, re-enforced by heaven alone knows what allegations from the lambs of Lambert's flock.

"They found some dashed trumpery jewelry in a tin case in a trunk you left with your traps at Omaha," was the indignant outburst of Lieutenant Dean, who had led the rush of the cavalry to the rescue of Folsom's ranch and Loring's exhausted party, "and some idiot has preferred charges on the strength of them!"

TO BE CONTINUED.

HURRAH! HURRAH! HURRAH!

Here we are, the largest and best equipped laundry in your state. We not only say this, but it is a positive fact. Our numerous laundries and branches are located in all the principal cities of the states of NEW YORK, NEW JERSEY AND PENNSYLVANIA.

And can frankly say that the work turned out by each is appreciated by our numerous patrons. The introduction of has gained great fame. And still another great advantage is gained by your laundry coming to us, and that is, all your open front shirts are ironed by hand. Your collars and cuffs are turned and tipped in the proper way the maker intends them to be. Telephone or drop us postal. Will call and deliver free of charge.

Our Celebrated Domestic Finish

City Steam and Hand Laundry

19 SOMERSET ST.

TELEPHONE.

Morey & LaRue, Proprietors

PLAINFIELD N. J.

McCullough's STEAM MILL

Steiner place, North Plainfield

R. H. McCullough, Prop'r

Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, turning, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnished

C. ARNOLD, 35 Somerset Street.

has an elegant display of

Genuine Spring Lamb,

JERSEY BROILERS AND POULTRY

of all kinds. It will do your heart good to inspect my stock before purchasing your Sunday dinner. 3 21 tf

REMOVAL.

I have moved my stock of

BOOTS AND SHOES

TO 120 W. FRONT ST., with Crane, the hatter,

B. R. FORCE.

J. C Pope & Co.,

INSURANCE AGENTS,

110 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J

C. A. DUNHAM,

—CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.—

109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas Telephone 87 F

William Hand & Son,

STAGES

For Parties, etc. 518 Park avenue.

FRENCH

Plate glass mirror oak mantel, complete with summer front, for $13.00 You can't equal it elsewhere.

CURTIS M. THORPE,

310-312 PARK AVE.

L. A. HUMMER,

Variety Market.

Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.

163 SOMERSET STREET.

Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A

Advertised Letters

Plainfield, N. J., April 10, 1899

Ackerman Miss Susan
Bantle Miss Johanna
Berry Mr John
Bellinger Miss Jos.
Brennan Mr Elizabeth
Brennan Miss Mary
Fifield Mr W B
Francis Mr A J
Goodhue Mrs Fred
Hanbow Mr S W
Hoff Mr Elia J
Mateaf Mrs Manton
Miles Mrs
Musen Messrs F & F
Morris Mrs C A
Peterson Miss Eliza-th
Phillips Mr H H
Peters Mr J A
Schwartz Mr K
Smith Mr DeWitt
Steele Mr M
Stone Miss Mary
Volkman Miss M J
Waterman Miss Lena
X Learch O box 18
Z Mrs

E. H. BIRD P. M., Plainfield, N. J.

Flynn Bros.,

SHOE DEALERS,

222 WEST FRONT STREET,

Near Music Hall,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods

Have stood the test for years.

LAIRE'S

SPRING AND SEASONABLE GOODS.

Garden Wheel Barrows.
Garden Tools, all kinds.
Garden Seeds, all varieties.
Lawn Seed.
Lawn Dressing.
Fertilizers, all kinds.
Lawn Rakes.
Ask to see the finest family scale made, for $1.50.

TELEPHONE CALL 682.

THE J. P. LAIRE HARDWARE CO.

WASHINGTON

VIA

OLD POINT COMFORT

is the most attractive short trip at this season of the year.

STEAMSHIPS OF THE OLD DOMINION LINE

PERFORM DAILY SERVICE.

Through tickets returning from Washington by rail or water.

For full information apply to OLD DOMINION S. S. COMPANY, Pier 26, North River, NEW YORK.

W. L. Guillaudeu, Vice-Pres., & Traffic Mgr.

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anaesthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling	from $1 up
Silver Filling	50c. and 75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. C. W. LEONARD.

FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.

Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Office Hours, 8 to 6.

M. POWERS,

DEALER IN

LEHIGH COAL.

FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.

Office 171 North Ave. Telephone 67 A.

Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.

RUSHMORE & CO.

WATCHUNG AVE.

and FOURTH ST

Dealers in

Lumber, Coal and Wood

Moulding & Planing Mill

Turning and Scroll Sawing.

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN

If a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 5c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. LaRue & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 109 North avenue.

HEADQUARTERS FOR

Plants and Cut Flowers.

Chas. L. Stanley 142 North Avenue.

FLORAL DESIGNS A SPECIALTY.

Greenhouses, South Avenue, Netherwood.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.

MONEY TO LOAN.

197 North Ave.

Wm. D. Thickstun. John P. Emmot

Telephone 601.

J. C. STORM

Dealer in all kinds of

Choice Meats, Canada Mutton, Jersey Pork, Strictly Fresh-Killed Poultry.

Game in Season. All Kinds of Bologna.

318 Liberty Street, near Fourth St.

ALEX. LUSARDI.

211 West Front Street.

Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery, nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruits a specialty. No branch stores

Ladies Desiring . . .

KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING

done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 6 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL,

corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.

RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

L. MORALLER & SON

Watchmakers and Jewelers

HAVE REMOVED TO 219 PARK AVE.

Next to Armstrong's Drug Store.

COLLIER,

SCIENTIFIC OPTICIAN.

Established 1869.

103 Park Avenue

Your Valuables,

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

HENRY J. WIERENGA,

Furniture and Freight Express.

Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Bar Store 126 Park avenue.

E. S. F. RANDOLPH,

DRUGGIST,

Cor. Liberty and Fourth Sts. Telephone 181.

PRESCRIPTIONS FILLED DAY OR NIGHT.

H. HAND,

Licensed Auctioneer.

OFFICE—Corner South Ave. and Berckman St.

REAL ESTATE and FIRE INSURANCE.

OVER 25,000,000

calls are made by Agents of the Prudential in the course of simply for the collection of the weekly premium on Industrial policies.

A YEAR

WRITE

Home Office Newark, N.J. THE PRUDENTIAL Insurance Co. of America.

JOHN F. DRYDEN, President. LESLIE D. WARD, Vice-Pres.
EDGAR B. WARD, 2d Vice-Pres. and Counsel. FORREST F. DRYDEN, Secretary.

J. ELSTON WOODLAND, Superintendent,
Cor. E. Front St. and Park Ave. Box 790, Plainfield, N. J.

MISSION WOMEN MEET.

PRESBYTERIAN SOCIETY HOLDING THEIR ANNUAL MEETING.

Devotional Exercises, Addresses and Officers' Reports This Morning — 1,862 Members in the Elizabeth District.

The twenty-eighth annual meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Presbytery of Elizabeth, which includes practically all of Union County, is being held in the Crescent Avenue church today. The morning session began at 10 o'clock, and consisted of devotional exercises led by Mrs. E. B. Cobb, of Elizabeth; a greeting by Rev. C. E. Herring, of Plainfield; an address upon "enthusiasm" by Mrs. F. B. Kelly, of Elizabeth, and the reading of various reports.

The recording secretary, Miss E. M. Colton, of Elizabeth, reported that the Presbytery had 1,862 members, and that Metuchen and Perth Amboy lead in the amount of contributions for last year.

The treasurer, Mrs. E. P. Tenney, of Roselle, announced that the receipts during the past year were $5,237.77, an advance of $287 over the previous year.

At noon lunch was served to the visiting delegates by the ladies of the church.

Mrs. Tomlinson Will Speak.

A parlor meeting of more than usual interest is in preparation for Wednesday afternoon, at the parsonage of the Fulton Street M. E. church at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Mary Tomlinson, wife of Dr. Tomlinson, of Plainfield, and County President of the W. C. T. U., will be the speaker. Mrs. Tomlinson is also National Superintendent of parlor meetings, and as her addresses always teem with brightness and instruction a treat is in store for all who make make it possible to attend Wednesday.—Elizabeth Journal.

Hope Chapel Enthusiasm.

The evangelistic meetings, under the care of F. E. Taylor, at Hope chapel, commenced Sunday night with a large turnout and much interest. A good-sized choir has been organized by W. N. Runyon, and the singing is quite a feature. The meetings will be conducted every night, except Saturday, and they seem to promise great results.

Adjourned the Hearing.
(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, April 11.—The hearing of the rule to show cause why a receiver should not be appointed for the Carabelle Land and Lumber Company, was to take place before Chancellor McGill, yesterday. The application was made by Richard F. Brokaw, of Bound Brook. Chancellor McGill adjourned the hearing for a month.

A Frightful Blunder,

Will often cause a horrible Burn, Scald, Cut or Bruise. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, will kill the pain and promptly heal it. Cures Old Sores, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Boils, Felons, Corns, all Skin Eruptions. Best Pile cure on earth. Only 25 cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

A Woeful Waste

to discard a dress simply because it's a little faded, spotted, or color out of style. These dresses can be cleaned or dyed to a fashionable shade Saves buying new material and is just as good.

HILLIER & CO.,
129 West Front Street,
Opposite White's. 'Phone 851.

PARTICULAR MENTION.

PERSONAL GOSSIP OF INTEREST TO CITY AND BOROUGH.

In Brief are Told the Daily Doings of Many Residents and Visitors Who Go and Come in a Social and Business Way

Mrs. Peeke, of East Millstone, has been visiting friends in Plainfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Apgar, of Brooklyn, have been visiting Mrs. Apgar's parents in this city.

Miss Grace Allen, of Dover, has been a guest of Edson C. Martin, of Putnam avenue.

Miss Carolyn Kampman, of Sandford avenue, returned to Wellesley College yesterday.

Misses Haviland, of New York, formerly of Rockview avenue, are visiting friends in town.

Mrs. Fitch, of Westfield, has returned after a short visit with her parents on Prospect avenue.

Miss Angie S. Kuhl, of Somerville, has been the guest of Miss Helen Lovell, of Crescent avenue.

F. E. Knight and family, of Woodland avenue have taken up their residence on Sandford avenue.

M. J. Cashen, manager for the Schepflin & Schultz, clothiers, is detained at his home by illness.

Miss Edith L Burt, of West Seventh street, returned yesterday afternoon to her studies at Wellesley College.

Miss Harriet Goddard, of East Ninth street, has returned to Wellesley College after spending the vacation at home.

Mrs. J. C. Ludlum, who has been sojourning at Lakewood for six weeks, has returned to her home on East Front street.

Sydney Ross Titsworth, of West Fifth street, left last night for Alfred University to resume his studies after the Easter vacation.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Lena Meier, of Manning avenue, and Mifford Giles, of East Second street.

Herman Lange has resigned his position as chef at McVey's Hotel, to accept a similar position at a summer hotel on Long Island.

Charles Kohler and family, of Staten Island, have returned home after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Van-Name, of Elmwood place.

Miss Helen Hazen, of Watchung avenue, has returned to her studies at Mt. Holyke College, after spending the Easter vacation at home.

Rev. George W. Gardner, pastor of Grace M. E church, who has been attending the conference in Newark, will return home this evening.

W. E. Lowe and family, of Park avenue, who have been stopping at the Hotel Savoy, New York, for the past two months, returned home yesterday.

Miss Marion D. Woodcock, of West Seventh street, and Miss Lucile Rockwell, of East Front street, have returned after a visit at the home of Mrs. William P. Woodcock, Lexington avenue, New York.

Mrs. J. L. Harberger, of the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, Mrs. Conrad Bachem and Miss Anderson, of Third place, Plainfield, have sent out invitations for receptions to be given Wednesdays, April 12th and 19th, from 4 to 6, at the residence of Mrs. Bachem, 180 West Eighty-eighth street, New York.

To Cure a Cough in One Day
To Cure a Cold in One Day
To Cure Sore Throat in One Day
To Cure Hoarseness in One Day

Take Cleveland's Lung Healer, 25c. Trial size free. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenue.

ITEMS BRIEF AND BRIGHT

GATHERED ALL ABOUT THE TOWN BY ALERT PRESS REPORTERS.

News in Short Paragraphs That are Interesting to Read During the Spare Moments of Many Busy Plainfielders.

—The fair arranged by the members of the First Church of Christ will be held next week.

—Lucetta Council, No. 28, D. of L, will celebrate their fourth anniversary tomorrow evening in Washington Hall.

—LaRue & Cuming have rented Mr. Swintons house, No. 914 Putnam avenue, to George Glidersleeve, of New York.

—The bedding factory and store 23 Somerset street is headquarters for bedding, springs, iron beds and carpet cleaning.

—Next Friday evening Rev. Garret Conover, of Nyack, N. Y., will deliver a free lecture at Warren chapel on the subject "The Life of Jesus in Picture and Song."

—Thursday evening next the Ladies' Aid Society of Warren chapel will give a supper to the Berean Bible class and other adult members of the Sunday-school.

—Tomorrow evening at the First Presbyterian church the annual parish meeting will be held, which was postponed from last week Wednesday on account of the illness of Mr. Bettman and Mr. Cave.

—The benefit entertainment and dance that was to be given for the benefit of Mrs. Bender, in Saengerbund Hall, Friday evening, of this week, will be given Wednesday evening, April 26th, at the same place and time.

—We know every house wife will find it to her interest to make purchases from the large and still growing ten cent department at Van Emburgh's. They have a wonderful variety of goods for this low price displayed in their day light basement.

—Officers will be elected at the May meeting of Warren Engine Company. Nominations have been made, but only a few know who have been nominated, as only those who have attended the meetings know the names, and they refuse to tell the absent members.

—The "Wedgwood" writing paper, the very latest in shade and style, is given an attractive and rich display in the window of Mulford Estil, the Park avenue stationer. It is attracting a great deal of attention and there is an increasing demand for it. There are several styles to select from.

THE COURTS

JUSTICE MOSHER.

Judgment rendered—In the case of the Home Building Loan Association against Bowden, for full amount.

Somerset County Fair.

A statement has just been issued to the stockholders of the Somerset County Fair showing the receipts last fall to be $5,202.87 and the disbursements $4,399 93, leaving a balance on hand of $802.94 to be distributed among the stockholders. The directors say they would have made a profit had it not been for the stormy Thursday. The stockholders will receive $2.38 for each five dollar share they subscribed.

More Bowling Among Red Men.

Paughcaughnaughsinque Tribe of Red Men will have several candidates to adopt at their meeting tomorrow night. There will also be a quoit match between two sides captured by Bush and Voorhees.

Chance to Work for Uncle Sam.

Advertisements for bids for sites for the $100,000 postoffice building in New Brunswick have been published. A number of sites will probably be offered the Government.

TO SUCCEED IN BUSINESS.

Don't worry. Don't overwork.

Don't make the field too broad.

Keep a high vitality. Sleep well, eat well, enjoy life.

Stick to your chosen pursuits, but not to chosen methods.

Be content with small beginnings—and be sure to develop them.

Be wary of dealings with unsuccessful men.

Be cautious; but wehn you make a bargain, make it quietly and boldly.

Keep down expenses, but don't be penurious.

Make friends, but don't encourage favorites.

Don't take fresh risks to retrieve your losses. Cut them off short.

A regular system of sending out bills and statements is more effective than spasmodic dunning.

Have a proper division of work, and neither interfere nor permit interference with your employes.

Look after your "blotters"—and all books of original entry. In litigation they are reliable evidence. Copies are not.

It is better for your credit to postpone payment squarely than to pretend to pay by giving a check dated ahead.

DRIVING THE FILIPINOS

GEN. LAWTON PUSHING INTO THE MOUNTAINS

Importance of His Victory at Santa Cruz—An Attack on General Wheaton is Repulsed With Heavy Loss to Enemy

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Washington, April 11—The War Department has received a despatch from Gen. Otis announcing the success of Gen. Lawton's campaign in the capture of Santa Cruz He says that Gen. Lawton is pushing the Filipinos into the mountains beyond that city.

Gen. Otis also informs the War Department that the insurgents made an attack upon Gen. Wheaton's brigade, and that they were repulsed with heavy loss.

Following is the text of the despatch from Gen. Otis relating to the attack on Gen. Wheaton:

"Manila, April 11th.

"Adjutant General, Washington:

"Insurgents attacked MacArthur's line of railway commnnication last night in considerable force; repulsed by Wheaton with heavy loss. Wheaton's casualties three killed, twenty wounded. Otis."

—The quarterly business meeting of the teachers of the Park Avenue Baptist Sunday school will be held tonight at at the home of T. I. Runyon, of West Fourth street.

SPORTING.

CYCLING COMMENT.

Roland Hornem, of Willow avenue, is the owner of a brand new '99 Cleveland bicycle.

Donald A. McGee, of Washington Park, is now riding one of the 21 pound models of the '99 Cleveland, purchased of the F. L. Martin Cycle Company.

George Gould, bicycle dealer, of 326 Park avanue, Clifton building, is agent for Victor, Patee, Waverly, Ivanhoe and Nassau Special. He also rents and repairs and takes bicycles on storage. Give him a call.

William M. McCutchen, of Yale University, did not return to his home in Plainfield to spend the Easter vacation. He remained in New Haven with the cycling squad instead and is now in hard training for the bicycle team of Yale. He represented that college in the races last year and won his "Y." Unless his health breaks down, he has an excellent show of going on the team again this year.

ON THE DIAMOND.

The candidates for the baseball nine of the Plainfield High School took advantage of the good weather last week and were out for practice every day. Captain Claud Edwards has his team nearly picked, and will be able to announce the probable formation in a few days. The playing season will begin about the middle of this month. Several games have already been scheduled.

Mrs. Grover Cleveland, at Princeton, N. J, said:

"Mr. Naylor, the carpet cleaning you did for me is entirely satisfactory."

A. F. Naylor,
Bedding Factory & Store,
'Phone 931 23 Somerset-st.

MISS M. E. RUCKMAN
has reopened her
— FASHIONABLE MILLINERY PARLOR —
at 611 S. 2d St. Hats trimmed for 25c.
Cor. Plainfield Ave. 4 6 eod 1m

MANICURING, 25 CENTS.
REMOVING CORNS, 25c,
SHAMPOOING, With Massage, 50c.
M. V. Stickle, 149 E. Fifth St.

SCIENTIFIC MASSAGE
Facial Massage and Steaming.
THERMO-ELECTRIC BATHS.
MRS HOLMES, 440 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J. 3 1 tf

SPRING CLEANING

will soon be here, and while cleaning up your homes do not forget to clean your system.

Hepburn's Blood Purifier

for the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys, will do this in a satisfactory manner. Money refunded if it don't do what is claimed for it We have made and sold it the same way for the past 14 years.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY, HEPBURN & CO.
Cor. Park Ave. and Second St. Telephone 671.

GEO. W. COLE,
—UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER.—
200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

H. DeMOTT,
UNDERTAKER
AND EMBALMER.
Residence and office 59 Somerset St.
TELEPHONE 248 B.

DIED.

STAATS—In this city, Monday, April 10th, 1899, Hannah, wife of the late Cornelius Staats, in her 88th year.

Funeral services at the residence of her son, Stephen Staats, No. 130 West Second street, Thursday, April 13th, at 2 p. m. Friends and relatives are invited. 4 11 2

WANTS AND OFFERS.

NINE ROOM HOUSE to let all improvements, East Second street. Enquire Wm. Newcorn, 204 West Front street. 2 21 tf

COW manure for sale. Michael Hefrian, 535 East Third street. 4 8 3

HOUSE 87 Manning avenue to let, newly papered, moderate rent; also store. 66 Manning avenue. 4 10 2

NICELY furnished front room to let, to 1 or 2 gentlemen, without board. 325 North Front street. 4 10 2

TO LET—Double House, all improvments, recently been placed in complete order.' 407 LaGrande Ave. Enquire Agents or B. O Bowers. t-s tf

FIRST-CLASS laundress, wishes some work at home; good Plainfield references. Address B. E., care Press. 4 11 2

POLISH woman with 5 year old child, wants situation. Call 35 Cottage place.

FOR RENT—Nicely furnished room, all conveniences, gentlemen preferred; located centrally. Address R V., care Press.

WANTED—White pure leghorn eggs for hatching. Address M. L., care Press.

WANTED—For self, wife and infant, room with board for two; in refined private family, having lawn attached to house. Address Broadway, care Press.

WANTE —Laundress, day's work, who can do gentlemen's shirts. Address W. C, care Press.

WANTED—Girl at 117 East Fifth street.

WANTED—Horse for light driving, for keep during summer months. Address Good Care, care Press 4 11 3

HOUSE for rent, 505 Watchung avenue, all improvements; 3 minutes from station. Inquire Neuman Bros, grocers. 4 11 6

FOR SALE OR TO LET—A nice house, newly painted and papered, 7 rooms; city water; 10 Stone street, N. P., $16 00 J. B. Bovey, 237 Somerset street. 4 11 6

HANDSOMELY furnished rooms, with board; new apartment house. 122 Watchung avenue. 4 11 tf

GOOD second-hand bicycle, $6 00. 214 Church street.

GARDENER, thorough competent with all flowers, shrubbery, vegetables, etc., wants situation where his services will be required 1 day per week, steady for the season. Address Cole, care Press.

MAPLE and cherry trees for sale reasonable, 18 feet high. immediate shade. Address Owner, care Press. 4 11 3

SHETLAND ponies, thoroughly broken for children's use, harness and Colfax vehicles purchased to fit ponies. S. A. Cruikshank, 304 Belvidere avenue.

GIRL wanted for general housework. Apply at 14 Craig place. 4 11 2

TO LET—Four nice rooms. Apply 611 Liberty street. 4 11 6

6 ROOM house, new, near Netherwood station; to let or for sale. Sherwin's shoe store. 3 22 tf

TO LET—Choice corner flats, steam heat; all improvements, in Clifton Building, Fourth street and Park avenue. C B. Clifton, Seventh street and Spooner avenue. 4 5 5

TO RENT—The new dwelling house, 929 Madison avenue; has all the modern improvements throughout Street macadamized to curb. Apply to John M. Whiton, 821 Central avenue. 3 17 tf

TO LET—Half house, city water; 6 rooms; $10 per month. Inquire at 138 Duer street. 3 30 tf

HOUSE and barn to let, 682 West Third street, water and sewer connected; rent $13 00. Inquire 1220 West Front street. 4 6 tf

FOR SALE—At a great sacrifice. 100 shares of Class E Stock, of the Mercantile Co., Operative Bank, maturity value $100 each share, on which shares has been paid $225 00. Apply Pope & Runyon, Attorneys. 4 6 tf

10 CRAIG place, boarders wanted. private family. 4 10 6

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

WANTED—Second-hand baby carriage, in good condition, at once, state price. Address S., care Press. 4 10 2

FURNISHED rooms, with or without board; men only; trolley passes the door. 127 West Fourth street. 4 10 2

$18,000 TO LOAN. Robert M Clark, Attorney. 109 East Front street. 4 10 4

BARN to let, Second street, near Watchung avenue. Apply at Daily Press office. 3 13 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

WANTED—Houses to rent from $15 up. Elston M. French & Co. 2 1 tf

DESIRABLE rooms, with good board. 62 Sandford avenue. 4 10 6

COTTAGE to let, corner East Sixth street and Franklin place. L. E Hart, 517 West Front street. 4 10 2

WANTED—Carpenters on Lawrence Cement Co.'s new mills. Apply James Stewart & Co., Contractors, Siegfried, Pa. 4 10 3

WANTED—Agents, ladies' preferred. Call on E. C Howard, 312 LaGrande avenue, from 9 a. m, till 1 p. m., Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday only; references given and required. 4 10 3

SARDOU'S GREAT PLAY "DIPLOMACY," For Charity, Music Hall, Saturday evening, April 29th, at 8. Reserved Seats 50c, 75c. $1, $1.25., Armstrong's Drug Store. Every seat in hall gives good view of stage. Acoustic properties all right when house is full which is now assured. 4 1 td

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL!
MAZE EDWARDS, Lessee and Manager.
Telephone 722.

Two Grand Performances, Matinee and Night

Saturday, April 15, 1899.

The Great Singing Comedian,

MR. J. E. TOOLE,

And his Competent Company of Players, in the Romantic Comedy Success of Three Continents,

"Killarney and the Rhine."

Interspersed With Comedy, Pathos, Original Music, Songs and Dances, Special Scenery and Elaborate Costumes.

Prices—Matinee, 25c and 50c. Night, 25c, 35c, 50c and 75c. Reserved Seats Now on Sale.

Y. M. C. A. STAR COURSE.
Prof. Livingston Barbour.
IMPERSONATOR.
Monday, Apil 17, - 8 P. M.
Admission 25 Cents.
4 11 6

GRAND BAZAAR
in aid of
St. Joseph's Church, North Plainfield, will be held in
Saengerbund Hall
SOMERSET STREET,
Wednesday, Thursday and Friday
Evenings,
APRIL 12, 13 AND 14.
Art Gallery, Refreshments, Music.
Admission 10 Cents.
4 11 4

CHAS. L. FOROE,
Architect and Superintendent.
208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given. 1 21 tf

BOYS' KNEE PANTS.

One Thousand Pairs of Knee Pants Sold in Three Days.

The stock of knee pants which we have recently purchased of Jos. Klein & Co., of 216-218 Broadway, New York City, were slightly damaged by water only, you could hardly tell when you look at them.

But having bought them at 20c on the dollar we have marked the prices on them so low that there is hardly a customer comes in but what carries away from ½ to 2 dozen pairs. We have re-assorted all the styles and sizes and marked them down lower than ever so as to dispose of the balance of the stock in the next three days.

All 50c knee pants marked down to 20c; 65c and 75c knee pants at 30c; all the knee pants of the 85c and the $1 kind at 38c; the $1.25 and $1.50 knee pants will go at 49c.

Every pair of these knee pants are guaranteed not to rip and are perfect fitters; in fact they are the finest stock ever shown in Plainfield. Over 1,500 pairs to choose from. Come and get your choice as they may all be gone soon.

Our regular men's and boys' clothing sale goes on as usual.

New York Clothing Co.

M. Weinberger, Manager. 214 West Front St., next door to Music Hall, Plainfield, N. J.

Shoes Dressed Free!

By a well-trained ladies' maid, with "VICI" dressing, made by Mr. Robert H. Foerderer, the maker of the world renowned Vici Kid leather.

Come in and have your shoes polished "while you wait." The "demonstrator" will be here all this week. It's for men, women and children.

LOOK OUT for "Dolls' Day," when every little girl, accompanied by her parent, and bringing her doll with her, will be given a pair of doll's handsome Vici Kid shoes fitted to dollie's feet. Ask about "Doll's Day."

Doane & Edsall.

F. L. C. MARTIN CYCLE CO.

SELL BICYCLES CHEAPER THAN OTHERS RENT THEM.

Terms: $1 Down, $1 Weekly.

108 and 110 EAST FOURTH STREET. (Near Park Avenue.)

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR
Sun Rises 5:25 a. m.
Sun Sets 6:36 p. m.
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 7:36 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Increasing Cloudiness Tonight and Friday, with Possibly Showers and Thunderstorms in North Portion Friday. Ther. 64.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., THURSDAY, APRIL 13, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

THE LATEST TRUST ONE OF BACHELORS.

Composed of Politicians Prominent in New Jersey.

AFTER ALL OF THE OFFICES.

SENATOR JOHN KEAN IS THE HIGH MOGUL OF THEM ALL.

An Imposing Array of Incorporators, But the Aggregation is Limited to Members of the G. O. P.—Its Financial Ability is Unquestioned, for Many Can Write Their Checks for Thousands.

New Jersey has a world-wide reputation as the maker of trusts. Each day a dozen or more go to her credit, but the latest proposed trust will be the oddest. It must go into history as the most novel aggregation of force ever attempted. It might be called by some other name, but truth urges that it be designated as "A Bachelor Trust." It has the double purpose of creating a boom in celibacy and of controlling all the offices in the State. The secret of the formation of the trust leaked out in this way: Senator Stokes, of Cumberland county, is one of the Republican leaders on the floor of the Senate. Senator Pitney, of Morris, is another. The latter is said to have a very lively ambition to be the next Governor of New Jersey. "Say, Senator Pitney," said Senator Stokes one day, "you may as well give up that idea of being the next Governor, for you are not in it. Don't you know that we bachelors have formed a trust to control all the offices in this State for the next quarter of a century?" This, although said jocularly, made the Senator from Morris county reflect.

A light came over his face as if he saw the army of bachelors, headed by Senator John Kean, marching through the corridors in time, laying hold of all the pleasant berths and soft snaps that were in sight. "Yes, Senator, it looks very much as if you had," he said, and he was not long in finding corroboration of this remarkable statement. The incorporation of the trust is only a matter of a few days now, it is believed. The list of incorporators is given as follows: John Kean, United States Senator; Foster M. Voorhees, Governor; Barker Gummere, Mercer county leader; David O. Watkins, Speaker; William Hancock, State Comptroller; Edward C Stokes, Cumberland county leader; Hobart Tuttle, Secretary to Governor; Frederick Evans, Secretary to Vice-president. The company is limited, not in relation to its capital but to its politics. It is a distinctively Republican corporation. As to its financial ability, there are only three men on the list who are unable to write or five figures on a check. They are, of course, all bachelors. John Kean, United States Senator, was one day asked why it was that a man of his wealth and associations should remain single. He gave an unsatisfactory reply.

Governor Voorhees about a year ago was getting a trifle lonesome, but then the war with Spain started, and he had to go and be a war Governor. He has not yet recovered from the excitement. State Comptroller Hancock has been too busy in many fields of activity to consider the matter, and now he is afraid it is too late. Fitzgerald's State Manual, which is particularly useful for finding out the age of eminent Jerseymen, says he was born in 1854. Speaker David O. Watkins, who was Acting Governor last year, and, according to the newspapers, is being urged to be a candidate for election, has been so busy making his mark in the world that he neglected matrimonial matters entirely and is now a confirmed bachelor. Barker Gummere, County Clerk of Mercer and active in State politics has no excuse to offer, but says that bachelorship is more consistent with statesmanship.

Senator Edward C. Stokes, of Cumberland county, is very close to the Governor and, as they have been moving along together on the road to political success, their neglect of marriage has probably the same excuse. Hobart Tuttle, the Governor's private secretary, is also a brother-in-law of Vice-President Hobart. He is active in society in New Jersey and Washington. How long he will remain in the Bachelor Trust is now a matter of considerable conjecture. Frederick Evans, the private secretary of Vice-President Hobart, is considerable of a club man. He lives in Newark, but is at home in New York and Washington, so that, like a rolling stone, he has not gathered much moss in the matrimonial land. There are many other Republican bachelors of prominence in New Jersey. They are not in the trust, but are gathering political strength to get there."

POWERS IS HELD, TOO.

JUSTICE MOFFETT HOLDS COAL DEALER FOR THE GRAND JURY.

Hearing Held Yesterday and a Different State of Affairs Shown Than What Appeared Before Justice Meshar.

Some new facts concerning the fracas between Charles W. Smith and Michael Powers, both of South avenue, were heard yesterday in Justice Moffett's court, when Smith gave his version of the affair. The story was utterly at variance with the narrative Powers tells, and was so ably supported by witnesses that Justice Moffett held Powers in $200 bail to await the action of the Grand Jury on the same charge that Smith is held—assault and battery.

Counsellor C. L. Murphy, of the firm of Murphy & Blatz appeared for Smith, while Councilman Hetfield represented Powers. Smith's story was that he owes Powers a small bill, and that the latter has asked him for it repeatedly. Saturday afternoon, he says, Powers met him on the street, and again renewed his claim, and was told by Smith that owing to illness in his family he was unable to pay it.

Then, Smith says, Powers followed him up to his front door, still urging his claim, and threatening to "take it out of Smith's hide." Smith says he ordered him away three times, but instead of going Powers raised his fist and struck him in the face. This was proved by three witnesses, Smith's daughter and two neighbors, who said they saw Smith's hat fly off. Then Smith says he struck Powers back, following up his advantage with two other blows.

Mrs. Powers then appeared upon the scene and succeeded in inducing her husband to go home. Smith also went into the house and that ended the fight. As the matter stands now, both men are held for the Grand Jury, each one the principal witness against the other.

A LOT OF BAD DOLLARS THAT HAD BEEN HIDDEN.

DISCOVERED AT BOUND BROOK.

Spurious Coin Left Behind by Counterfeiting Gang That Was Rounded Up.

(Special to The Daily Press)

Bound Brook, April 13—About two months ago a gang of counterfeiters from Shamokin, Pa., located in Somerville a week and then moved to Bound Brook and rented of W. O Ross his store on Main street for the alleged purpose of general repairing. They arrived on a Saturday and the next Tuesday their place was seized by detectives. There were three men and a woman. The men were taken to the county jail at Somerville and later removed to Shamokin.

About two weeks ago the woman, who had gone to Shamokin, returned to the place for a few hours. It was found she went to the back yard.

Secret Service Agent Brown hired James Vanderveer, a scavenger, to clean up an outhouse. Vanderveer pulled out a 25-pound bag of metal. The bag contained several thousand dollars in counterfeit money. Brown put the coin in a large canvas case and started for New York.

The woman was a Russian about 26 years old.

MARRIED FIVE YEARS.

Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Davis Celebrated.

Tuesday was the fifth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Davis, of East Fifth street. Some of their friends determined to give them a surprise that night, but in some way the host and hostess learned of their intention and turned the tables on them. Nevertheless every one had a good time, and there were presents for the husband and wife and good things to eat for the guests.

The party was arranged by Horace Huff and John Pool. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Horace Huff, Mr. and Mrs. John Pool, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. William Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Pope, Mr. and Mrs. Bittenbender, Miss Bittenbender, Mr. and Mrs. Hellier, Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, Miss Crouse, of Somerville and Fred Pope, of Somerville.

Cut off the Tip of His Finger.

Clark Mundy, of the meat firm of Drake & Mundy, cut a small piece off from the third finger of one of his hands this morning by the slipping of a knife. The injured finger was dressed at Randolph's drug store.

Rev. Mr. Appleton's Last Sermon.

Next Sunday evening Rev. Floyd Appleton, curate of Grace P. E. church, will deliver the last discourse in the series on the ten commandments. The subject will be "The Tenth Commandment."

—Read fish-car ad on page 4.

—Press want ads bring results.

OTIS IS NOT FEARED LIKE ADMIRAL DEWEY.

Capt. Morrison Writes of the War in the Philippines.

EYE-WITNESS OF A BATTLE.

THRILLING AND GRAPHIC LETTER RECEIVED IN PLAINFIELD.

Captain Morrison Writes to E. H Holmes—He Says the Filipinos are Treacherous and Need to Be Thoroughly Licked—High Praise for the Conduct of the American Soldiers—Their Deadly Aim.

Early in December of last year Captain George D. Morrison, of Plainfield avenue, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Agnes Morrison, sailed from Philadelphia with a load of coal which was to be taken to Manila for Admiral Dewey. Since arriving at Manila Mr. Morrison has seen many interesting things and in a letter written to his personal friend, E H. Holmes, of East Front street, he relates something of what has taken place. Lack of space forbids the publication of the entire letter, but the following extract will prove interesting reading. The letter was received a few days ago by Mr. Holmes.

"I don't know where to begin to tell you about the things that have transpired since our arrival on December 26th last. It has been a history-making time. Just three weeks ago today the first great battle between our forces and the insurgents was fought. We were then lying at Cavite, about six miles distant. But we came to Manila about 10 a. m., and went aboard the British bark "Wildwood," from the deck of which we reviewed the great fight. Just then the Cruiser Charleston steamed by close, going to take up a position south of Manila, near a suburb named Milate. She had been to the north of the city shelling the insurgents' trenches. The firing was general all along the line from north to south, it being the intention of the enemy to take Manila, a feat they boasted easy to do. The fact is the Filipinos had been decidedly hostile ever since our arrival here; but after the publication of President McKinley's proclamation by Gen. Otis it became much more pronounced.

"To resume the story. Our ship enfiladed the insurgents trenches, which at Malate were piled full of insurgents. The slaughter was awful. About noon the firing to the north had ceased excepting an occasional volley. At 2:30 p. m. a party of us, including my daughter, Agnes, who seems interested in blood-curdling adventures, went on shore to get the news—news that day was at a premium. A launch took us up the Pasig river to the Captain of the ports' landing. We walked—a carriage of any kind could not be had—to the general hospital, where the wounded were being brought in. We saw and talked with a company of soldiers covered with dust and mud from the trenches just in from the front. They all had long knives captured from dead insurgents. One said his musket gave out and he took one from a dead comrade. Another said he preferred his Springfield rifle to any other. Going into the hospital we saw from fifty to seventy-five wounded. Some were on the surgeon's table and the rest in halls were waiting their turn. The surgeons looked more like butchers, though professional gentlemen. The sights were awful. I cannot describe them. One fine big fellow, who had both eyes shot out, was lying on a table. The poor fellow wanted the bandage removed so he could see. He died two weeks later. In a court, just outside the surgical wards, were fifteen insurgent wounded being attended by nurses and physicians. Among them was an officer, a mere boy of eighteen years, and a Tagale, a mountaineer, with long hair to his waist. About fifty of these had been killed and 150 taken prisoners. They used bows and arrows. We wended our way back with the thought that war is a horrible thing; and yet there is in spite of sentimentalism a 'must needs be' about it all. 'The sword, the famine and the pestilence' are God's agents to clear the atmosphere of this world, and peace societies will not avert the inevitable consequences of the sin that is in the world.

"On the streets the guards were tripled, and they searched every Filipino for concealed weapons. Carriages were stopped and street cars boarded and searched. It was thought by conservative heads that 5,000 would cover the loss by death in that day's battle.

"Last Wednesday evening at 8

CONTINUED ON PAGE 4

SAW CERVERA'S FLEET.

INTERESTING LANTERN SLIDES AT CAMERA CLUB EXHIBIT.

Success of Exhibit Still Continues—Excellent Work of H. H. Coward, Chairman of Committee, Shown—Mr. Ayers' Exhibit.

Not only has Harry H. Coward devoted his best efforts towards the success of the annual photographic print exhibition of the Plainfield Camera Club, as chairman of the committee in charge, but he has put on exhibition one of the finest collections there. He received the first award for hand camera work and was justly entitled to it. The pictures were taken during the summer and are of miscellaneous subjects, but all well chosen. The rest of his work exhibited is of very high class, and the photograph of the interior of one of the Plainfield public school rooms is deserving of the award it received.

Among the other exhibits that attention was that of Charles Neagle. He has a series of pictures of groups or tableaux that were given in Vincent chapel two years ago. They are of a number of the young women, who attended the First M. E. church, and showed in various groupings in Greek costume with powdered hair. The effect is that of statuary.

Samuel Ayres, of Netherwood, has a photomicrograph on exhibition, which has greatly interested all who have seen it. Mr. Ayres is the only man in this country who manufactures them, and his exhibit of them is very interesting. He will show them every evening this week while the exhibition remains open.

The attendance at the print exhibition last evening was as large as ever. There were also a large number of visitors present in the afternoon. It will continue all this week and is free to all.

There was a surprise in store for the visitors at the exhibit last night. It was learned at the last moment that Dr. Simpson would be there and have some lantern slides made from photographs taken at the time of the destruction of Cervera's fleet off Santiago. The slides were exhibited and much enjoyed by the visitors present.

M'CABE MADE A VICTIM OF A LYING YOUNSTER.

BARBER HONORABLY DISCHARGED.

The Boy Admitted His Stories Were False and McCabe Was Entirely Innocent.

Eugene McCabe, the barber who formerly lived in this city and ran a shop on North avenue, has been honorably cleared of the charge of burglary in Brooklyn upon the strength of stories told by an eleven year old boy. The latter alleged that McCabe had met him on the street and had threatened his life if he did not commit robberies which the barber had planned. The boy has confessed that his tales were absolutely false, and that he had never seen McCabe until the latter was arrested. McCabe was therefore released from custody on motion of District Attorney Steele, of Brooklyn, yesterday.

THEIR ANNUAL SUPPER.

Women's Society for Christian Work Arranged the Affair.

The annual supper of the Women's Society for Christian Work of the Seventh-Day Baptist church, was held in the church parlors last evening.

The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. John P. Mosher, chairman, Mrs. F. A. Dunham, Mrs George E Rogers and Mrs. Frank H. Smith. Supper was served by the following waitresses: The Misses May Ross, Evelyn M. Lewis, Bessie F. Randolph, Ethel Titsworth, Ruth Maxson, Belle Niles, Elfreda Randolph and Mertie Randolph.

Later in the evening, an informal programme was rendered under the direction of Miss Mabel Maxson. It included two selections by a chorus composed of the Misses Grace Weeks, Bessie Dunham, Eva Rogers, Helen Rogers, Eva St. John and Ethel Rogers, two contralto solos by Miss Nan Randolph, piano duet by Mrs. F J. Hubbard and Mrs. W. C. Hubbard and organ selections by A. L. Titsworth. F. J. Hubbard acted as master of ceremonies.

To Open a Driveway.

D S. Roberts, of North avenue, has decided to open a driveway through his building, where Timbo & Co. have a cigar store, and the firm will take a store in the Woolston & Buckle building further up the street.

A Precious Invitation.

The First Baptist Christian Endeavor Society will hold its regular meeting tomorrow at 8 o'clock. Subject; A Precious Invitation. The meeting will be of an evangelistic character.

Mrs. Mezenbach, of Somerset street, is visiting relatives in Elizabeth.

HILLSIDE LINKS TO OPEN NEXT WEEK.

Members Can Play There on April 22d.

NO FORMAL OPENING EVENT.

PARK GOLF CLUB WILL ALSO BEGIN ITS SEASON SOON.

Both Clubs Promise an Active Season For Their Members and Plainfield Will See Much of Golf This Year—Steward Ivarney is Now at Hillside Club House Ready For Action—Will Serve Lunches.

Golf promises to be a popular sport in Plainfield during the year of '99. The Hillside Tennis and Golf Club has become settled in its new club house and grounds on the hill while the adjunct of the Park Club, the Park Golf Club, is ready for an active season on its links near the mountain.

Neither of the clubs propose to mark the opening of their courses this spring with any formal event. There will simply be the announcement that the links are open for play and then a programme of the summer happenings will be announced in due time.

The links of the Hillside Club have been undergoing the necessary repairs and improvements after the winter season. They are now nearly ready for play. The golf committee has decided to open them to the use of the members Saturday, April 22d, and notices to that effect will be sent out in a few days. Steward Ivarney, recently of the Seabright Golf Club, is already in command at the club house and is preparing to look after the members' wants. He brings with him an excellent cook and call boy and will serve lunches to the members and their friends at the club house as was done last year.

The summer schedule of the Hillside Club has not yet been announced. All the members are anxious, however, to begin at once and get their hand in once more. The schedule will be even more complete than last year and promises to make lots of lively competition.

The Park Golf Club is also preparing to open its links in the course of a few weeks. The course is being put in excellent condition while the club house is being enlarged and more provision made for the wants of the members while there. The membership is rapidly filling and the Governors are confident of a very succesful season this year.

PAID THEIR DEBTS.

Satisfactory Financial Condition Reported at Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Park Avenue Baptist church and society was held in the church parlors last night. It was called to order by T. A. Cuming, clerk of the church. The pastor, Rev. J. W. Richardson, was chosen moderator.

Acting Treasurer R. C. Treadwell reported that all bills had been paid, together with the deficit of last year, and that there was still a small balance in the treasury. The regular bonded indebtedness of the church still remains. The trustees made no report. Their report will be handed in at the next meeting of the church and society.

The following trustees were then re-elected: Fred K Fish, Sr., John H. Doane and C. K. Compton. The appointment of committees was left to the pastor. The meeting then adjourned.

FELL BETWEEN CARS.

Paul Thomas, a Brakeman in Jersey City Yards, Badly Hurt Last Night.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Jersey City, April 13.—Paul Thomas, a night brakeman in the Jersey Central freight yards, had his left arm and leg broken last night through an accidental fall between two of the cars. He was also injured internally. He was removed to St. Francis Hospital.

Thomas is twenty two years of age and lives on East Second street, Plainfield. His friends were notified by telegraph and Thomas Welch, with whom he boards, came to see him.

He died this morning at St Francis Hospital, Jersey City, from the injuries received in the accident.

Letter From Revs. Rodman and Richards.

Last Monday afternoon when the Plainfield Ministers' Association met at the home of Rev. Dr. Yerkes, of West Seventh street, a pleasing feature was the reading of greetings from Revs. Dr. W R Richards and E. M. Rodman, who are now traveling with the Honeyman party. At the time the letter was written the party was in Athens and everyone was having a good time and enjoying good health.

—Use Press want ads.

FIRST PRESBYTERIANS

THE ANNUAL MEETING TRANSACTED IMPORTANT BUSINESS.

Resignation of J. M. Bettman, as Elder, Was Not Accepted—Receipts for the Past Year Were $5,154 04.

The annual church and parish meetings of the First Presbyterian church were held at the church last night. The church meeting was called to order at 8 o'clock, and the pastor, Rev. C. E. Herring was made chairman. H. A. Pope was secretary.

The annual reports showed the church to be in a good condition financially as well as spiritually. J. M. Bettman, elder, and clerk of the session, sent in his resignation to those two offices, which were laid upon the table, then reconsidered and not accepted. A committee, composed of E M. Cave and R. H. Radford, was appointed to wait upon Mr. Bettman and to try and induce him to change his mind.

W. H. Shotwell and R. H. Radford were re-elected elders to serve for three years, and A. G. Remeen was elected deacon in place of John Lindsay, whose term expired. The church meeting then adjourned and the parish meeting convened.

E. M. Cave was made chairman of the parish meeting and H. A. Pope, secretary. The treasurer's report showed that the receipts for the past year were $5,154 04, all of which has been disposed of. There is a debt of $300 left. W. H. Shotwell and H. A. Pope were elected trustees to serve for another term. Mr. Shotwell has already served forty years and Mr. Pope for twenty-five years.

The pastor's salary was left as it was before, $2 500. The sum of $600 was appropriated for music, and a resolution was adopted changing the date of the annual parish meeting from the first Wednesday after the first Monday in April to the second Wednesday after the first Monday.

PRESENTS FOR MEMBERS OF LUCETTA COUNCIL.

GIVEN AT FOURTH ANNIVERSARY.

Celebration Held in Washington Hall—Gold Watch and Chain for W. W. Stratton.

Lucetta Council, No. 28, D. of L., celebrated their fourth anniversary last night in Washington Hall. Three members of the order were presented with tokens of the esteem in which their fellow members hold them. Mrs. Lillian R. Irwin, state councillor, was presented with a silk umbrella, with a silver handle. A beautiful fan was the gift to Mrs. Elizabeth Packer, state vice councillor. W. W. Stratton, chairman of the committee having the anniversary in charge, received a handsome gold watch and chain.

The programme consisted of an overture by the orchestra; an address of welcome by B. W. Hand; ballads by J. Moran; addresses by W. L. Hayward, Mrs. Lillian R. Irwin, Mrs. Elizabeth Packer and T. F. Gilmore, the latter being the oldest past councillor of the O. U. A. M. of the state. There was also a piano solo by Professor Carpenter; a recitation by Miss Try Mattox; a patriotic song by Miss Mable Hand, assisted by the old veterans; a recitation by Miss Eva Wells, of Westfield, and a cornet solo by Thomas Zanatti, of New York.

The "Picinniny" cake walkers, under the direction of Thomas Martin, gave an exhibition cake walk about 11 o'clock.

The committee in charge of the anniversary was composed of W. W. Stratton, B. W. Hand and N. H. Guttman.

THE TROPHY COMES TO PLAINFIELD.

Park Club Players Victorious Over Elizabeth Chess and Whist Club

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Elizabeth, April 13.—The Elizabeth Chess and Whist Club lost the New Jersey state challenge whist trophy last evening, which it won at the whist congress. The team from the Park Club was victorious by just one trick. The score by rounds was as follows: First round, Elizabeth, 4; Parks, 2; second, Elizabeth, 1; Parks, 7; third, Elizabeth, 7; Parks, 4; total, Elizabeth, 12; Parks, 13. Elizabeth was represented by Messrs. Martinson, Edson, Brown and Haarbiecher. The Park Club team was composed of P. B. Matthews, Albert O. Woltmann, Arthur A. Freeman and Fred H. Freeman.

Horse Got Fractious.

Charles Gaskill, in charge of the grocery rig of E. Boss, the borough grocer, tied the horse to a cable tube in front of the telephone office this morning while he performed an errand. In his absence the animal took fright and almost pulled the cable out of the ground. He finally broke the tie rope, and Roundsman Flynn caught the horse before he had a chance to run away.

ST. JOSEPH'S WOMEN PLAN TO AID CHURCH.

Opening Night of the Bazaar Was a Great Success.

ARRAY OF PRETTY THINGS.

GIVEN UNDER AUSPICES OF ROSARY SOCIETY AND CHILDREN OF MARY.

Saengerbund Hall, Where the Event is Held, is Transformed Into a Scene of Beauty by the Tasteful Arrangement of Booths, etc.—The Women Who are in Charge of the Excellent Affair.

Saengerbund Hall presented an attractive appearance last evening when, under the direction of the Rosary Society and the Children of Mary of St. Joseph's R. C. church a bazaar was opened. The affair is being given for the benefit of the church. There are many attractions and the opening night was a great success in every way. The hall is handsomely decorated in pretty colors through the use of bunting, while the colors selected for the booths are very appropriate.

The refreshment department, where all kinds of good things, including soft drinks, ice cream, cake, and a New England supper can be had, and a large and handsome booth, is in charge of the Rosary Society, of which Mrs. T. A Neely is president and Mrs. A. E. Kenney is vice-president. They are assisted by Mrs. Harper, Mrs. Berkhan, Mrs. Shotwell, Mrs. Bertrand, Mrs. Wilkins, Mrs. Farley, Mrs. Ryan, Mrs. Reilly, Mrs. Meaney, Mrs. Boice, Mrs. Blatz, Mrs. Bailey and Mrs. White.

The booth of which the women are in charge is one of the most attractive. It is richly decorated and is filled with lots of pretty and useful things for sale. All sorts of fancy articles and novelties are to be found, and there are also photographs of Rev. Father Miller and Rev. Father Brennan on sale.

The other booth in charge of the Children of Mary is attracting much attention for its beauty. Here also are to be found fancy articles arranged in a pleasing manner, and the handiwork of skilful fingers is shown to good advantage. Miss Nellie McCann is in charge, assisted by Miss Fitzgerald and Mrs. O'Reilly.

There are several contests arranged that are sure to bring in lots of money. There is a large and handsome painting of Rev. Father Miller and another one of Rev. Father Brennan that are being contested for. The likenesses are fine and are richly framed. There are also contests for a wheel, a gold ring, a gold watch, a doll and a Japanese urn.

One of the greatest attractions at the bazaar is a large tent where Dr. Simpson, who was in the recent war, has displayed to excellent advantage a number of Spanish relics, including flags, guns, daggers and various articles that he procured while in the service. Mrs. O Reilly is in charge of the tent, while Dr. Simpson is present to explain the facts concerning the relics. Last evening Dr. Simpson exhibited in the tent a number of pictures as an additional attraction.

There is still another attraction, and that is the dancing. Music is furnished by Eugene O'Reilly and the light fantastic is one of the enjoyable events on the programme. The bazaar will be continued this and tomorrow evenings and possibly Saturday evening with a change of programme every evening.

NEW TIME FOR SUNDAY-SCHOOL.

Park Avenue Baptists to Hold Their Session at Noon.

The Sunday-school teachers of the Park Avenue Baptist church met Tuesday evening at the home of T. I. Runyon, of West Fourth street, and held their quarterly business meeting. Among other things it was decided to observe children's and chapel days, and to have the usual summer excursion to Asbury Park.

It was also decided to hold the sessions of the school at 12 o'clock, just after church, for one month, beginning in the middle of June. This is something new, and the experiment will only be tried a month unless all like it.

A Delightful Luncheon.

A delightful luncheon was given Tuesday afternoon by Miss Cock, of 285 East Fifth street, to the Plainfield Clericus. There were seven members present and all enjoyed the hospitality of the hostess exceedingly.

Prof. Conde's Annual Concert.

Thursday evening, May 4th, P. Ludwig Conde will give his annual orchestral concert at Y. M. C. A. Hall. The orchestra will consist of twenty-five members including several soloists.

—Press want ads pay.

THE PALACES AND TEMPLES OF ANCIENT EGYPT

had their walls shining with gold and sparkling with precious stones, but modern art has contrived to design decorations of a less costly character in the beautiful designs and refined colors and shades of Wall papers, friezes, etc., such as Woolston & Buckle keep in their varied and elegant stock at such tempting prices.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

ROGERS.
232 West 2d St.
Seafood for Health
Always
Desirable
when direct from the nets.

M. E. STEPHENSON,
146 NORTH AVE.
Weddings, Dinners and Receptions supplied with every requisite. China, Glass, Linen and Silver to loan.
ESTIMATES
cheerfully furnished. Telephone orders will receive prompt attentention.
TELEPHONE 624.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections
210 PARK AVE.

PHILLIP SWAIN,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.
317 West Front street.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game in season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street. 6 13

HOTEL KENSINGTON
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107, 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

SOMERSET HOTEL
Somerset St. and Lincoln Place.
North Plainfield, N. J.
W. F. DREYER, Proprietor.
AMPLE ACCOMODATIONS FOR MAN AND BEAST.

E. B. Maynard,
NEW SHOP NEW FURNITURE BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

NEUMAN BROS.,
GROCERS,
Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

John G. Bantle,
428 WATCHUNG AVENUE.
First-class
TAILOR
SPECIALTY OF
Ladies' Tailor-made Garments
Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

DOBBINS. CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

Corporation Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the following Ordinance has been introduced before the Common Council, read the second time and ordered engrossed preparatory to its third reading, and that it is the intention of the Council to adopt the same.

J. T. MACMURRAY,
City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., April 4, 1899.

AN ORDINANCE

FOR THE ASSESSMENT OF TAXES FOR THE YEAR 1899.

The Inhabitants of the city of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1.—That pursuant to the statutes and ordinances and resolutions in such cases made and provided, there shall be assessed and raised by tax for the year eighteen hundred and ninety-nine, for the general purposes of said city, exclusive of poor, library, school, fire, state and county taxes, the sum of Forty-one Thousand ($41,000) dollars. This sum includes the sum of Twenty-four Thousand dollars ($24,000) to be raised by general tax for street improvements; for the expense for said year of lighting the public streets and places in said city, pursuant to Chapter ccxviii of the Pamphlet Laws of 1894, (page 477), as ascertained and determined by resolution of the Common Council and certified to the Assessors of said city the sum of Twelve Thousand dollars ($12,000); for the principal of such bonds, except obligations payable out of assessments and temporary obligations as may mature during the ensuing fiscal year, under and by virtue of the Act of the Legislature entitled "An Act to provide for drainage and sewerage in cities of this State," approved April 7, 1890, and the several amendments thereof and supplements thereto, and proceedings had and taken thereunder in said city, the sum of Four Thousand dollars (4,000); for interest on the obligations of the city issued under said last mentioned acts, the sum of Five Thousand dollars ($5,000); for the support of the city poor, the sum of Four Thousand dollars ($4,000); for the maintenance of the public library and reading room, the sum of Three Thousand Eight Hundred dollars ($3,800); for the purpose of making alterations in the buildings already erected for the purposes of the Plainfield Public Library, Art Gallery and Museum, and to provide new apparatus for heating and lighting and making other improvements therein, as specified in the resolution and certificate of the Board of Directors of the Plainfield Public Library and Reading Room, under the provisions of the act of the Legislature entitled, "An act to authorize cities to establish and maintain free public libraries and reading room," approved March 14, 1879, and the act amendatory thereof, and supplemented thereto, in pursuance of resolution adopted by the Common Council and approved by the Mayor, under Chapter 15 of the laws of 1896, (P. L., p. 36), the sum of Two Thousand dollars ($2,000); for the maintenance of a Fire Department to be under control and government of said city, the sum of Eighteen Thousand dollars ($18,000); and in addition to the foregoing, a license fee of Two dollars to be paid by the owner of every dog within the city of Plainfield.

Notice of Order to Limit Creditors.

SOMERSET COUNTY SURROGATES' OFFICE.

ESTATE OF ROBERT S. MILLER, DECEASED

Notice is hereby given that on the 18th day of March, A. D., 1899, on the application of J. Amelia Miller as executrix of Robert S. Miller, deceased; an order was made by H. N. Spencer, Surrogate, requiring the creditors of Robert S Miller, deceased, to bring in their debts, demands and claims against the said decedent, under oath or affirmation, and present the same to the subscriber within NINE months from the date of said order; and in default thereof any such creditor should be forever barred of his or her action therefor against the subscriber.

4 6 30 th J. AMELIA MILLER, Executrix.

EDUCATIONAL.

GREGG SHORTHAND SCHOOL
Babcock Building.
The latest and best system. Stenographers filling positions after 3 months.
DAY AND EVENING.
W. E. Van Wert, Principal.
Standard Typwriters in use.

MISS SARAH A. PALMER,
TEACHER OF PIANO (Virgil Method AND THEORY IN ALL ITS BRANCHES.
The Virgil method and the Practice Clavier give to the pupil not only finger agility, but also mental control and concentration, where by alone the best results can be obtained.
132 Crescent Avenue.

Piano Instruction
Virgil Clavier Method a specialty.
MISS ANNA O. MARSH and MISS MINNIE S. MARSH.
2916 MADISON AVE.
Sight Reading Classes, vocal and instrumental.

F. V. L. Goodwin,
TEACHER OF MUSIC.
Lessons given at home on Piano. Special attention to beginners. Residence.
105 MANNING AVENUE,
North Plainfield, N. J.

SHORTHAND! BOOKKEEPING!
No better systems can be found than those taught in : : : :
PLAINFIELD BUSINESS COLLEGE.
City Bank Building
Both sexes. Day and Night. Come and see us.

VOCAL INSTRUCTION.
William Holmes
(Pupil of Dr. Carl E. Duff.)
Baritone Soloist of the First Baptist Church.
Studio at Residence,
440 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J

LODGES AND SOCIETIES.

PROTECTIVE CONCLAVE.
I. O. H.
Meets 1st and 3d Tuesday of each month at Exempt Firemen's hall, No. 109 Park avenue, at 8:15 p m.

PLAINFIELD COUNCIL, NO. 711.
ROYAL ARCANUM.
The regular meetings of this Council are held on the second and fourth Monday evenings of each month in Exempt Firemen's Hall, Coward Building, Park avenue, at 8 p.m
A. I. LITTELL, Regent.
Fred'k J Pope, Sec'y, 408 E. Fifth St.

H. E. Gayle. 18 VINE STREET.
(Formerly of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
ALL WORK PROMPTLY ATTENDED

DEAD HORSES
Removed free. Beckman Brothers, 611 South Second Street, Main office New Brunswick N. J. Telephone Call, 65 F.
Fertilizer Works, Livingston Park, N. J.
4 3 3m

SUBPOENA FOR CROKER

If He Fails to Appear Friday One will be Issued.

HE WILL SAIL FROM JERSEY

Dr. O'Sullivan Hedges on His Statement That Mr. Croker Said He Would Appear Without a Summons—Mr. Croker Says He Engaged Passage on the Liner Lahn but the Steamship People Don't Know It.

New York, April 13.—An attempt will be made to subpoena Richard Croker between next Friday and next Monday to appear before the Mazet Investigating Committee.

It will not be done before Friday morning for the simple reason that Croker, through Dr. O'Sullivan, has promised the committee that Mr. Croker will be on hand that day, and Mr. Moss takes the ground that it would be highly discourteous to Mr. Croker and to Dr. O'Sullivan to issue any subpoena for the former in view of that promise, which has not yet been withdrawn. To be sure, Mr. Croker has told newspapermen and every one else who saw fit to inquire that he will not come without a subpoena, but, as Mr. Moss said that cannot be considered as outweighing his formal, solemn offer to appear.

So, then, next Friday morning, when the Mazet Investigating Committee opens its hearing, Frank Moss will call the name of Richard Croker. Richard Croker will not respond. Then a subpoena will be issued and the subpoena-server will start out liberally supplied with carfare.

That will be necessary, because Mr. Croker is a man of many affairs. He has business in a great many places, and he will be exceedingly busy next Friday and for the few days after that he is to spend here. So the subpoena man will need lots of carfare.

To those who asked him about the Mazet Investigating Committee Mr. Croker said:

"I have not yet been subpoenaed to attend the investigation, and things stand now as they did. I shall not go before the committee unless I am subpoenaed. The action of the committee is not worrying me in the least.

"Some of my friends have suggested that the investigating committee might delay the serving of a subpoena until the last minute so as to interfere with my plan to sail next Tuesday. There's no telling what the committee might do, but if it wishes me to appear on Friday there ought to be no difficulty in finding me. I am not running after the committee, nor running away from it. The committee knows where to find me if it wants me."

A reporter was first to inform Mr. Moss that Dr. O'Sullivan was quoted as saying that he was misunderstood as to saying that Richard Croker would appear without a subpoena.

"The minutes will show," said Mr. Moss. "There can be no doubt as to just what was said, and I very distinctly asked Dr. O'Sullivan to request Mr. Croker to be present next Friday. In view of this, I did not think of subpoenaing Mr. Croker—a subpoena would be discourteous. I relied on Dr. O'Sullivan's word."

"But in view of what Mr. Croker has said, do you still think it would be discourteous to subpoena Mr. Croker?"

"That's a very delicate question of ethics. I am thinking about that. No, it would not be correct to infer that I have decided one way or the other as to subpoenaing Mr. Croker. It's a question on which it is as safe to guess one thing as another. I have had no statement from Dr. O'Sullivan to the contrary of what he said before the committee on Monday."

"Will the investigation continue after the Legislature adjourns?"

"If the Legislature so directs. I believe that Mr. Mazet will present a preliminary report to the Legislature, probably this week, and then it will be decided whether or not we are to continue."

"What are the prospects of finding subjects of investigation?"

"I have so much before me now that positively I do not know where to begin."

Mr. Moss said with reference to the statement of Mr. Kennison of the Society for the Prevention of Crime that the books and records of the society were at the committee's disposal, that there had been no action to that effect taken by the Executive Committee, and that Mr. Kennison spoke only as an individual. Mr. Moss refused to deny or confirm any of the many rumors as to his intentions regarding the inquiry.

"These rumors are the merest speculation," he said. "As to who will be subpoenaed, who will examine such and such a witness, I have told no one. I do not intend to."

Dr. W. J. O'Sullivan announced this afternoon that after an exhaustive search he had been unable to find in any of the city departments a hall for the use of the Mazet Committee.

"I have visited every city department," said Dr. O'Sullivan, "and I have been unable to find a chamber at the disposal of any of them that is not in use."

Dr. O'Sullivan said with reference to Mr. Croker:

"I certainly was not authorized to say that Mr. Croker would appear without a subpoena. I got up and announced that Mr. Frank Croker was in the committee room voluntarily. Then I said that Mr. Richard Croker would sail for Europe on April 18, but would be at the disposal of the committee until then. Continuing to speak of Frank Croker, but without calling the first name, I said that no subpoena was necessary. What I said about him was taken to apply to Richard Croker. I may have spoke in a blundering way. It is very annoying to me.

"I had no right to speak for Mr. Croker, as Mr. Moss and others understood me to speak. I do not know anything about Mr. Croker's willingness or unwillingness to testify without a subpoena."

Some irreverent fellow has suggested that perhaps in stating that he sails on the Lahn of the North German Lloyd next Tuesday, Mr. Croker is trying to play hide-and-seek with the Mazet Committee and subpoena man. Indeed, it has been suggested that he may not have engaged his accommodations on the Lahn prior to the scorching examination of his son Frank the other day, that same examination which made him change his mind about coming forward to testify.

Should Mr. Croker sail on the Lahn next Tuesday, it will be comforting to his friends to know that Mr. Moss's subpoena man cannot take him off that vessel when he goes on board that morning, even should that be the first occasion of their meeting, for the cabin deck of the Lahn on that blessed morning, and at that blessed minute will be a part and parcel of the great State of New Jersey, as the Lahn will be tied fast to a Hoboken dock.

THE TRIAL OF MRS. GEORGE.

State Said to Have a Witness Who Recognized the Prisoner.

Canton, O., April 13.—The trial of Mrs. Annie E. George for the murder of George D. Saxton, President McKinley's brother-in-law, was resumed yesterday.

Thus far in the trial the State has not put any witness on the stand whose testimony has directly connected Mrs. George with the murder of Saxton. The State has a witness, however, it is said, who will testify that she recognized Mrs. George from her home, across the street from the scene of the murder. This witness, it is said, will testify she was looking out of the window when the shots were fired and that she recognized Mrs. George as the person who ran from the place. This witness, the State avers, will be put on the stand the last of the week.

Court opened with the usual crowd of spectators on hand. Policeman Rohn, who was on the stand when court adjourned was again called, and the State objecting to several questions asked by the defence. The Court overruled the State's objections. The principal point brought out on the cross-examination was that burdocks and Spanish needles grow along West Tuscarawas street and that it was possible for the burrs and needles found on Mrs. George's dress to have come from this source. Another tilt came up when the defence was attempting to have the witness testify as to the darkness of the night. The witness attempted to evade a direct answer and the question was repeated several times. Finally the State objected, saying the question had been answered.

"I beg your pardon," said the Court. "The question has not been answered and the witness will answer."

The witness then admitted that the night was exceptionally dark.

Policeman's Rohn's testimony had mostly to do with details of the arrest. Ex-Policeman Charles Dickerhoff was the second witness called. He said he had known the defendant about a year. He said he saw Mrs. George on the evening of the day before the murder.

"Mrs. George told me," testified the witness, "that she had been to see the Mayor that afternoon and that I had been detailed to accompany her to the vicinity of the Saxton block. She said she wanted to have an interview with Saxton, but was afraid he would do her violence. She said I was to go with her that evening. I said I would go. It was 5.45 o'clock when I met her. After going to Police Headquarters I went to the vicinity of the Saxton block. I met Mrs. George at Ninth and Market streets, one block south of the Saxton block. We did not see Saxton that night."

The witness testified that Mrs. George said she did not know whether Saxton was at home. Mrs. George, the witness said, asked him if he would come back the next evening with her to look for Saxton. She did not ask him to go up into the block and call Saxton. She did not go up, she said, on account of the injunction restraining her from entering the block. The time of the meeting the next evening was not specified. The next evening the witness, in citizen's clothes, was in the vicinity of the Saxton block about 6 o'clock. Mrs. George did not come, and between 6.30 and 7 o'clock, the witness testified, he heard of the killing of Saxton.

NEW JERSEY ELECTIONS.

Victories About Evenly Divided Between Republicans and Democrats.

Trenton, April 13.—The election held in the first and second class cities in New Jersey did not result in any surprise. Jersey City re-elected the present Democratic incumbent, Edward M. Hoos, as Mayor, and the entire Democratic ticket with two exceptions. Charles Fichtl, Republican, was chosen Alderman in the Eighth Ward, and C. J. Locke, Republican, was elected constable in the Tenth Ward, which went Democratic for Alderman. The Democrats carried eleven of the twelve wards. The vote was light, and Hoos defeated his Republican opponent, Edward Watson, by 7,000 majority.

In Hoboken, Lawrence Fagan will serve a fourth term as Mayor. William Stuhr, Independent, was his principal opponent, and was defeated by about 1,000. The Republican vote was very small. The Democrats re-elected the collector and water commissioner, and won every Alderman except two, the successful Republicans being Peter Kessler, in the Second Ward, and Oscar Frommel, Independent, in the Fifth Ward.

The Republicans carried Newark for minor officers; they were successful in Asbury Park, where Mayor Frank L. Ten Broeck had a walkover and will serve a fifth term; the party swept Trenton, electing Frank O. Briggs Mayor; Nicholas Williamson, the Republican candidate in New Brunswick for Mayor, had no opposition and was re-elected; Charles M. Howe, the Republican candidate for Mayor in Passaic, had no opposition, while the party made gains in Elizabeth, Englewood, East Orange, Rahway and smaller places.

Egbert Seymour, Democrat, was re-elected Mayor of Bayonne by an overwhelming majority, due to factional fights in the Republican party; Mayor John Hinchliffe, Democrat, was again successful in Paterson, and the Democrats won Orange for minor officers.

Sick From Cuba and Porto Rico

Norfolk, Va., April 13.—The transport Missouri arrived at the quarantine station in Hampton Roads last night. She brought many sick men from Cuba and Porto Rico. The men will be transferred to the Josiah Simpson Hospital as soon as the authorities at Washington respond to the telegram of Quarantine Officer Pettus, asking for instructions prior to allowing the sick to be put ashore.

AMBUSHED IN SAMOA

American and British Force Attacked by Natives.

SAVAGES BEHEADED BODIES

Was on a German Plantation—Its Manager Arrested and Held on the British Cruiser Tauranga Charged With Urging the Rebels to Attack—American and British Sailors Forced to Retreat.

Apia, Samoa, April 1, via. Auckland, N. Z., April 10.—As a result of an ambush of Mataafa warriors on a German plantation to-day, 200 American and British sailors were forced to retreat to the beach, leaving three officers and four sailors dead upon the field.

The officers killed were Lieut. Lansdale and Ensign Monaghan, of the cruiser Philadelphia, and Lieut. A. H. Freeman, of the British cruiser Tauranga.

The expedition was led by Lieut. Freeman, of the Tauranga. Ensign Monaghan met his death by remaining to assist Lieut. Lansdale. He stayed too long and was shot in retiring.

Two British and two American sailors were also killed.

The natives beheaded the dead British and American officers, and priests of the French Mission afterward brought the heads into Apia.

The manager of the German plantation has been arrested and detained on board the Tauranga, on affidavits declaring he was seen urging the rebels to fight.

In a previous engagement twenty-seven of Mataafa's warriors were killed and there were no casualties among the European force.

It is estimated that about eight hundred warriors attacked the Anglo-American party from ambush.

On the arrival of the Tauranga here the British and American consuls issued a proclamation to give Mataafa a last chance. The French priests also used their influence, but all efforts failed, and the rebels continued their depredations. Property was destroyed and bridges and roads were barricaded.

On March 29 the enemy was sighted at Magu'gi and machine guns and a seven-pounder were used. The friendlies also attacked the enemy during the latter's retreat and several rebels were killed or wounded. The friendlies carried one head through Apia, which made Capt. Stuart so furious that he went to the King and threatened to shoot any man found taking heads. The King then issued a proclamation forbidding the practice.

The German Consul wrote to Admiral Kautz asking if two great Christian nations approved of this inhuman and barbarous practice against the laws of Christianity and the decree of the Supreme Court.

The Admiral replied, agreeing with the Consul as to the inhumanity of the practice, and pointing out that had the German Consul upheld the decree of the Supreme Court of January there would have been no bloodshed. He said the custom was an old Samoan one, but first made known to the world ten years ago, when the "heads of honest German soldiers were cut off by the barbarous chief, Mataafa, whom the representative of the great Christian nation, Germany, is now supporting."

The Samoans say Mataafa three times resolved to surrender, but the German Consul, Herr Rose, advised him not to do so, and he now says he will never give in but will fight to the death.

Admiral Kautz's Report.

Washington, April 13.—The following dispatch from Admiral Kautz has been received:

"Auckland, N. Z., April 12.

"Secretary of Navy, Washington:

"On April 1, while the combined forces of the British and United States, under Lieut. Freeman, British Navy, were reconnoitering near Apia, they were ambushed. Deeply regret to announce the death of Lieut. Philip B. Lansdale, Ensign John R. Monaghan, Coxswain James Butler, Ordinary Seaman Norman Edsal and five men wounded, belonging to the Philadelphia. The British loss is killed, two men and Lieut. Freeman."

Dismay in Washington.

Washington, April 13.—The news from Samoa was received here with a feeling approaching dismay. The higher officials refused to discuss it. The secretary of the German Embassy called early in the day upon Secretary Hay. Neither would disclose the nature of the interview.

The detention by British naval officials of a German subject is the most dangerous feature. The German Consul may demand the surrender of the German subject, and it is considered improbable that the British will yield unless upon some adequate guarantee that, if the man is guilty, he is to be sufficiently punished. It is not believed that Rose will make such a promise.

No protest thus far has been lodged at the State Department against Admiral Kautz.

At the British and German embassies the news of the conflict was received with deep concern. Both Sir Julian Pauncefote and Dr. von Heolleben expressed deep regret.

Grand Opera Cleared $100,000.

New York, April 13.—The dividend declared by the directors of the Maurice Grau Opera Company was at the rate of 35 per cent. on the capital of $125,000, of which stock $25,000 remains in the company's treasury. The profits for the current season, which has included three weeks in Chicago, seventeen weeks at the Metropolitan Opera House, two weeks in Boston, and ten days divided between Baltimore, Washington and Pittsburg, are stated unofficially at about $100,000, a showing absolutely unprecedented here as the result of a grand opera season, and made the more notable because of the enormous expense of Mr. Grau's company.

Charles Dudley Warner Better.

New Orleans, La., April 13.—The condition of Charles Dudley Warner, the well-known author and editor, who is lying seriously ill here, is improved today. He was attacked by the grip, which developed into pneumonia, the right lung being affected. Three physicians are in attendance.

Direct from the Manufacturer to the Consumer.

ONE BIG WEEK.

Last Week Was One Continuous Rush from Monday Morning Until Saturday Night.

The old adage "Prices Tell," has been well illustrated with us by the patronage we have received since we opened the retail store.

The comment of all our customers are summed up in one sentence, viz; The cheapest line of stylish well-made clothing we ever saw. Here is a list of some of our most ready sellers.

Lot 4734, 5086, 5081, 5094 — 3.50 These are men's sack suits in fancy mixtures and we recommend them to anybody who wants solid wear for little money. $5.00 is cheap for them.

Lot 4567, 4561, 5067, 5059 — 3.75 These have been general favorites and are going fast. We were compelled to fill in on some of them. They are all right.

Lot 4600, 4605, 4589, 4592 — 4.75 Strictly all wool. We invite you to compare this line with the average $8.00 suit.

Lot 5232, 4630, 5011, 5027 — 5.00 Cheviots and fancy worsteds fit for anybody to wear any place. We have 19 styles at $5.00.

Ask to see Lot 5319, 5322, and 5380, 5383. These are $10.00 and they are beauties.

Lot 4896—Blue Serge, wire woven, $6.75, worth $10.00.
Lot 5406—Blue Serge, wide wale, very popular, $7.00. Compare them with the ordinary $12.00 suit.

Come and see our silk-lined overcoat, silk-lined to the edge. Those Fancy Vests the $4.00 kind, we have them for $2.00. You will be surprised to know that we sell a child's suit with extra pants for 98 cents.

SCHEPFLIN & SCHULTZ,
M. J. CASHIN, Manager Retail Store.
322 West Front Street. Schepflin Block.

BE ON TIME
If you want first choice of our new lot of
: House Gowns
at $1.00 each. Quality, Fit, Style perfect in every way.
VanEmburgh & Son.

SHOES FOR EVERYBODY.
For Spring we have picked from the best makers as just right at our just right prices just such shoes as will suit the big majority.
We call your attention this week to the VanArsdale $3 00 shoe—for men and women—These shoes are doing us lots of good, but we have better ones, and we have them for less money, and every grade is as good as shoemaking can make them.
VAN ARSDALE,
Repairing Properly Done. 127 East Front St.

SPECIAL SALE
Over 13 hundred pairs of shoes. Nothing to say about the price, only that the lowness of it will surprise everybody.
SHERWIN'S, 149 West Front St.

STANDARD FOR THE WORLD.
Stop and See the
1899 Chainless
and others.
We have a few bargains in
SECOND HAND WHEELS
COLUMBIA BICYCLE AGENCY.
405 PARK AVENUE. SATISFACTION GUARANTEED IN
REPAIR WORK by C. L. Thorn, of the Columbia Agency.

Important Silk Sale.

A Manufacturer's stock of several qualities in plain and fancy Silks, representing hundreds of yards of this season's newest patterns and colors. All offered at the lowest prices ever known for equal fabrics.

PLAIN TAFFETAS in 30 different colors, worth fully $1.00 yd. at 75c.

FANCY TAFFETAS, in satin striped and plaid effects, worth $1.19, at 85c a yard.

BLACK SATIN DUCHESSE, perfect in weave, a quality we can recommend, worth 79c, at 65c yard.

PLAIN ALL SILK TAFFETAS, in maroon, cerise, tourquise, and helio, while they last at 49c yard.

LADIES' TAILORED JACKETS, in covert cloth, box front, strapped seams, at 3.49 reduced from 4.45.

PRETTY REEFERS, for children, in fancy checks, braid trimmed, large Sailor Collar, worth 2.00, at 1.39.

A RARE CHANCE in fancy plaid Skirts, strictly all wool, percaline lined, velvet bound, buttoned back, worth 5.00 at 3.25.

We carry a complete line of celebrated "KENOSHA BLACK CAT BRAND" of Hosiery, triple knees and wear longer than any other stocking in the market, sizes 5½ to 10½ in medium and light weight, at 25c a pair.

BOEHM'S.

At the end of the great Civil War there was many a poor soldier who came out of the smoke of battle without bruises, but with broken health on account of the hardships which he had gone through. Many of those who had escaped the bullets were just as badly wounded through stomach and digestive troubles brought on by camp life. A Justice of the Peace for Luzerne County, Pennsylvania, in relating his experience of years before, recently said: "I served four years in the Civil War, and spent ten months of that time in a Southern military prison in which, as is well known, the bill of fare was not high but rough, and which deranged my stomach and bowels to such an extent that I have been a continuous sufferer from indigestion and constipation ever since. I recently procured a box of Ripans Tabules and gave them a trial and was both pleased and surprised to find I could eat the most hearty food without inconvenience, which I have not been able to do for thirty years. I would not be without Ripans Tabules for many times their cost."

A new style packet containing TEN RIPANS TABULES in a paper carton (without glass) is now for sale at some drug stores FOR FIVE CENTS. This inexpensive form is provided for the poor and the economical. One dozen of the five-cent cartons (a dozen tabules) can be had by mail by sending forty-eight cents to the RIPANS CHEMICAL COMPANY, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York. A single carton (TEN TABULES) will be sent for five cents.

Up-to-Date Clothing.

We have been so busy for the past ten days that we have neglected to make our announcement in the Press of our New Spring Styles of Clothing pertaining to men and boys We have them on our tables. The Goods are O. K. and the prices the same.

If you are in need just drop in and see us and you will find one of the nicest lines ever shown in Plainfield

WERNER'S CLOTHING HOUSE,

206 West Front Street.

Hats and Gents' Furnishings.

YOU Should See The Great Showing OF SHIRT . . . . . WAISTS AT LEDERER'S.

MORE OF THE BEEF INQUIRY.

The Recent Rejection of Beef at Santiago Explained.

Washington, April 13.—Gen. Adna R. Chaffee, who commanded a brigade at Santiago, gave the details of the recent condemnation of canned roast beef at the latter place. He said the canned beef had been sent there from other points in the West Indies for distribution to the troops in Cuba, and that he had distributed probably 1,500,000 pounds of it. He had not heard any complaints about the meat until a few weeks ago, when a newspaper reporter had told him that 10,000 cans had been thrown into a vacant house bad. He had immediately reported to Gen. Brooke, and asked for an inspection. This was ordered with Gen. Ernst at the head of the board. The board found that of the 800,000 rations remaining on hand, about 1 85-100 per cent. was bad. They also found a considerable quantity of tomatoes and canned fruit which was not good.

"I was very earnest in the matter of this inspection," said Gen. Chaffee, "for I did not think it would do to have it go to the world that the United States was issuing bad meat to a destitute people."

Gen. Chaffee also testified concerning the meat supply to his command during the Santiago campaign. He believed the refrigerator beef to be perfectly good, but while this was true, the officers and men would not eat it. They rejected it almost wholly as being spoiled. It was generally received in camp by 8 o'clock in the morning, and was almost generally buried a few minutes after it was received. This was due largely, as he though, to the fact that the men were sick. He had remonstrated with them, because he thought they needed the change of diet, but they would not have it. As for himself, he kept the meat until the afternoon, and then found it wholesome and sweet. The beef was covered, as a rule, with a greenish tinge. This could be easily scraped off, and when thus treated the meat was good. He had never received but one quarter which he believed to be actually spoiled.

As to the canned roast beef he had heard neither complaint nor commendation. The men ate it, so far as he knew, without comment. He had eaten the canned beef but once. He had found it unpalatable, too fresh in taste, but he did not consider it as unwholesome.

SMALL POX IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Town of Windber Has Thirty Cases and Quarantine Is Maintained by Troops.

Altoona, Pa., April 13.—The mining town of Windber, Somerset county, is cut off from comunication with the world and those of its inhabitants who have not been able to get away are under strict military surveillance. Thirty cases of smallpox have developed in the town within a few days, due to the utter lack of proper precautions with the first cases.

The serious nature of the situation did not dawn on the people until yesterday, when it was announced that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company would stop running trains on the South fork branch, owing to the protests of people of other towns against bringing passengers from Windber. There was a rush for the last train out. Those who could so gathered up a few of their effects and departed with their families. No more passenger or freight trains will leave the town.

As soon as the refugees had left a strict military guard was established by the local military company, whose members are patrolling the town with fixed bayonets, compelled the people to remain in their homes. Nurses and provisions are sent in for the benefit of the plague-stricken people.

At Sicalip Level, another mining town, the situation is almost as serious. Johnstown has several cases and some have been reported in the neighborhood of this city. From various points in Central Pennsylvania come reports of the appearance of the disease and the entire region is threatened with an epidemic. Its spread is practically unchecked in rural communities where there are no Boards of Health.

Generals Mustered Out.

Washington, April 13.—An order issued by the War Department musters out the following general officers: Major-Gens. James H. Wilson, Fitzhugh Lee, Joseph Wheeler, John P. Bates, Samuel B. M. Young, Adna R. Chaffee, William Ludlow, Leonard Wood; Brig.-Gens. George W. Davis, Theodore Schwan, Lloyd Wheaton, Charles King, Frederick D. Grant, Robert P. Hughes, Samuel Ovenshine, Irving Hale, and Robert H. Hall.

These officers are mustered out to enble them to accept commissions under the act of March 2, 1899. It is expected that they will soon be reappointed as Brigadier-Generals under that act.

The following officers are mustered out and will resume their former commands: Major-Gens. James F. Wade, Thomas M. Anderson, Guy V. Henry; Brig.-Gens. Royal T. Frank, Edward B. Williston, Louis H. Carpenter, Joseph P. Sanger, Henry C. Hasbrouck, John C. Gilmore, Oswald H. Ernst, Harrison G. Otis, Charles F. Humphrey.

Vanderbilt Fire Accidental.

New York, April 13.—It is not generally believed at Oakdale, Long Island, that the fire which destroyed "Idle Hour," the country house of W. K. Vanderbilt, was of incendiary origin. Detectives were working on the case, but they returned to this city and are believed to have abandoned the incendiary theory. Whether "Idle Hour" is to be rebuilt was a question freely discussed at the South Side Sportsmen's Club house. It was generally agreed that nothing definite would be done until William K. Vandebilt is heard from. He is now on his way to Europe. When he arrives on the other side he will receive a dispatch informing him of the fire.

Two Victories for Sloan.

London, April 13.—Tod Sloan, the American jockey, rode two winners at the Newmarket Craven meeting yesterday. The first event was the Wood Ditton Stakes of 10 sovereigns each, with 200 sovereigns added, for 3-year-olds, the second to receive fifty sovereigns out of the stakes; one mile.

The second race was the Two-year-old Plate of 200 sovereigns, five furlongs, which was won by Sir R. W. Griffith's Styria.

QUAY LOSES A POINT

Judge Biddle Admits Books of Bank as Evidence.

ONE QUESTION LEFT OPEN

Defence Takes Exception to the Decision—Arguments Made for and Against the Admissibility of the Books—Defence Attempts to Show Political Conspiracy Against Quay.

Philadelphia, April 13.—In the Quay trial yesterday Judge Biddle decided that the books of the bank are admissible as evidence. He stated that he was not satisfied, however, that the "red book" was proper testimony against the defendant, since it was not found among the regular bank books.

It has not yet been regularly offered in evidence, and the question of its admissibility will be decided when it is presented.

As soon as court opened District Attorney Rothermel began his reply to Mr. Watson, of Quay's counsel, who argued against the admission of the books. The District Attorney's first point was that all manner of criminal charges are established and proven by circumstantial evidence, the crime of conspiracy being frequently proven in this way. Mr. Rothermel bore strongly on the continued payment of interest on the Commonwealth's deposit in the People's Bank to Senator Quay. He offered to prove by letters and telegrams that Mr. Quay was borrowing money from the bank to purchase stock, and that he paid no interest on these moneys.

The Quay Loans.

This continued loaning of money, Mr. Rothermel contended, was in furtherance of the conspiracy between Cashier Hopkins, State Treasurer Haywood and Senator Quay. He first took up the perior for six months ending October 1897, when the Commonwealth's deposit varied from $525,000 to $565,000 During this time he said Mr. Quay had a loan of $185,000 and paid no interest. He proposed to show by the writing of one of the books, the now famous "red book," that Hopkins had carefully computed interest on the amount of the deposit respectively to the credit of Haywood and Quay, the remaining part going, it was alleged to show very scheme, he said, which was added to conceal the operation from the other clerks of the bank.

Following this, he quoted a number of opinions on the subject of conspiracy and the manner in which it may be proved. He combatted the contention of the defense that the statute of limitations barred much of the matter charged against Quay, quoting the Supreme Court to show that a chain of circumstances and transactions extending back indefinitely might be used to secure a conviction, notwithstanding the statute limiting the prosecution to acts committed within two years.

Mr. Rothermel said he would show that on October 1, 1897, Mr. Quay was indebted to the bank, as indorser for his son, in the sum of $100,000, and how that debt was created. He would show that the Board of Directors agreed to discount that note, provided a certain letter was obtained from State Treasurer Haywood guaranteeing the deposit of an equal amount. This letter is one which the District Attorney is endeavoring to have admitted.

Continuing, Mr. Rothermel said he would prove Mr. Haywood received interest on that $100,000. The District Attorney dealt at length with the contention of the defense that the indictment against Senator Quay is fatally defective because it deals with matter foreign to the case under consideration. He cited authorities to sustain his point that the indictment could not be quashed on this ground.

On the question of the books not being competent evidence because entries in them involving Senator Quay were made by third parties, Mr. Rothermel maintained that all such entries made contemporaneous with the acts they related to can be admitted as circumstantial evidence. All entries were made by clerks under the direction of Cashier Hopkins, and were therefore practically made by him from figures entered by Hopkins in the "Red Book." All the entries were indisputable evidence of the ratification of the conspiracy between Quay, Haywood and Hopkins. Hopkins acted, he said, virtually under the direction and control of Senator Quay, and the bank's books therefore become, for the purposes of proof of conspiracy, the books of Quay himself.

Judge Biddle asked: "Mr. Quay was a depositor in the bank, was he not?"

"Yes, sir; but these transactions are entirely outside of his deposit."

Mr. Watson Replies.

Mr. Watson, of Mr. Quay's counsel, replied briefly to the District Attorney. He drew the attention of the Court to the points he raised first, that the guilt of Haywood, Hopkins and others is not under discussion in this case, the two named being dead and the others not under indictment.

Second, that in the indictment against Mr. Quay he is charged with using State funds when under the law State money deposited in a bank becomes the property of the bank, and consequently the defendant cannot be tried on that charge.

Third, that the books are not admissible as competent to prove what the Commonwealth contends they will prove, as they were made by clerks who knew nothing about their purpose, and that they were not authorized by Senator Quay.

Mr. Watson defied the prosecution to cite a case similar to the present in which books were admitted in evidence. Books, followed by the evidence of individuals, he admitted, are allowable as evidence, but books in themselves are not proper testimony to show payments of interest to Senator Quay. If money was paid by any man to Quay put the man on the stand and let him say so, but the acts and declarations of third parties must be debarred.

It is a dangerous thing, he said, in a trial for conspiracy to open the doors for all kinds of evidence. If Hopkins was guilty try him and convict him, but don't try Quay and convict him for Hopkins's crime. The testimony of a co-conspirator is necessary, he contended, to convict a man of the charge of conspiracy; books are not co-conspirators. All of the entries in the red book, he said, constitute evidence of what Hopkins did, not what Quay did.

DRIVES THE REBELS BACK.

Gen. Wheaton Pursuing the Retreating Insurgent Forces.

Manila, April 13.—Gen. Wheaton started at daylight yesterday with the Tenth Pennsylvania, the Second Oregon and two guns to drive the rebels from the American right flank, between the railroad and the foothills. He met with slight resistance near Santa Maria, where a thousand rebels were reported to have been concentrated. During the rest of the day the enemy was in full retreat toward the mountains, burning the villages behind them. Occasionally a few rebels dropped to the rear and fired at the advancing Americans from the jungle, apparently with the idea that this would check our progress and cover the retreat of the Filipinos. Finding these tactics ineffectual the rebels would scramble after the main body.

The American guard along the railroad has been materially strengthened, and it is not likely the insurgents will succeed in getting in the future to as close quarters as they did yesterday, even if they return from the mountains.

Gen. Otis Reports the Santa Cruz Victory.

Washington, April 13.—The following cablegram has been received from Gen. Otis:

"Adjutant-General, Washington:

"Yesterday in the Lake region, Lawton pursued the insurgents eastward from Santa Cruz, dispersing them. Captured all the larger vessels used in the lake trade, and Spanish gunboat. He is now endeavoring to pass them from the river, where concealed, into the lake.

"Wheaton drove enemy ten miles to eastward of railway line of communication with Malolos. Lawton's and Wheaton's casualties few and slight, as enemy made no stand.

"Notified by Spain that she will evacuate Mindora and Polo soon. OTIS."

The word "Polo" in the above dispatch schould probably read "Jolo," which is the designation sometimes given the Sulu group of islands. Spain has had a garrison at Mindora and Jolo, and it is probable that she is now ready to remove her soldiers.

READY FOR THE RALEIGH.

Details of the Actual Reception of Admiral Dewey's Cruiser.

New York, April 13.—Mayor Van Wyck received the following dispatch, dated Hamilton, Bermuda, April 11:

"Raleigh leaves to-night. Will arrive Saturday, daybreak."

Te details of the reception of the Raleigh by New York on Saturday were arranged to-day. It is likely there will be a grand banquet for both officers and crew and a monster theatre party.

It is understood by the Committee on Plan and Scope that although the disposition of the crew of the Raleigh on shore has been left to the commandant of the Brooklyn Navy Yard, the naval authorties at Washington do not deem it wise to turn the crew loose in New York Saturday night, even though the city would like the chance to entertain them.

It has been arranged that the reception committee with the distinguished guests will board the steamer Glen Island at 9 o'clock Saturday morning at Pier 13, at the foot of Courtlandt street. The original committee of citizens named by the Mayor numbered 700. As each member expects two tickets, and as the guests will be numerous, it was found that the Glen Island would be overcrowded, and Mr. John H. Starin promptly offered another steamer of his fleet, The Glen, without fee or price. As it costs a great deal to put these two boats into commission thus early in the season Mr. Starin's munificence placed the committee under great obligations, and they desire to publicly acknowledge it.

If the President and his Cabinet come on, and the Governor and his staff, they will be provided with quarters on the Glen Island. Lieut.-Gov. Woodruff has sent word that unless public business keeps him at the State Capitol he will be here on Saturday. Mayor Van Wyck and his official family will be on the Glen Island. Shortly after 9 o'clock the two boats will steam down the bay and meet the Raleigh. The Mayor, in behalf of the city of New York, will read an address of welcome. The Raleigh, the committee's boats and the steamers which will make up the parade will steam up the Hudson as far as Gen. Grant's tomb.

It is expected that the Raleigh will return and anchor in the river off Thirty-sixth street, when the officers will be taken in hand, and the packies will be caried for in the afternoon and evening.

Two Missing After a Fire.

Scranton, Pa., April 13.—A fire at Throop, near here, yesterday, totally destroyed F. C. Pilger's White Horse Hotel and a tenement house owned by the Pancoast Coal Company and occupied by Chief of Police Martin Gallagher, and badly damaged M. J. Norton's hotel building, C. L. Krotzer's dwelling and a dwelling owned by the Pancoast Coal Company and occupied by Patrick Tierney.

At 3 o'clock the flames were confined to the Norton Hotel building, where their further progress was checked Two children of Hotelkeeper Pilger are missing, and it is believed their bodies are in the ruins. The origin of the fire is unknown. The total loss will reach $20,000.

Bryan's Arrival in New York.

New York, April 13.—It was announced by Eugene V. Brewster that William Jennings Bryan would arrive in New York on Saturday morning to attend the $1 Democratic dinner at the Grand Central Palace in the evening. He usually stops at the Bartholdi; and it is supposed that the recent difficulty between the management and the committee over establishing headquarters there will embarrass him somewhat.

Oliver H. P. Belmont, brother of Perry Belmont, in a letter to Mr. Brewster writes: "It is with great pleasure that I accept your invitation to attend the dinner on April 15."

A Transport From Manila.

San Francisco, April 13.—The transport Morgan City arrived from Manila yesterday after a good passage of twenty-eight days. It was generally understood that she was to bring the bodies of 450 soldiers here for interment. Instead of that, she brought only the bodies of Lieuts. D. D. Alford, James Mitchell, and Edward A. Harting.

Earned, Not Bought

Staying Power Counts in a Long Race.

Plainfield people need not be told how hard it is to earn and maintain a good reputation, and how easy it is to lose one. After such a loss it is well nigh impossible to recover the ground and the majority of those who have slipped by the wayside have been forced to stay there. As with a man's reputation, so it is with medicinal preparations. Some achieve a reputation which stays with them It is founded on intrinsic merit and not sustained by elaborate advertising. It faces the public backed up by honesty and works its way quietly but thoroughly. Plainfield people want no better proof of the reputation earned by Doan's Kidney Pills than the following experience from a citizen:

Mr. C. E. Hepburn, of 123 Duer street, formerly of Canada, where he first heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, says:—"Doan's Kidney Pills have my endorsement for they cured me of a long standing case of backache which annoyed me very much, especially if I took cold, for at such times I was in pretty bad shape. I heard different people speak very highly of Doan's Kidney Pills and concluded to try them. I got a box from my druggist, Mr. L. W. Randolph, and used them according to directions, with the above good results. I do not hesitate to give my endorsement of a preparation like Doan's Kidney Pills, for I know they can be relied upon and possess the merits claimed for them"

Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.

THIS IS THE POINT.

There are a great many stores that are anxious to get your trade, and that will make almost any kind of a promise to get it.

But there is always one thoroughly dependable store—a store that is sure to give you the best and most reliable meats that money can buy. Proper selection and correct butchering explains the satisfaction they give.

FRED ENDRESS,

131-135 West Front Street Only.

A GREAT OFFER

To the Public of Plainfield and vicinity by

CHARLES EISENBERG,

the well-known Painter, Paper Hanger and Decorator, who has opened a branch store

310 West Front Street,

(Stillman Building.)

I will paper any fair sized room, ceiling and walls, with the latest designs of gilt papers, including sizing and repairing, from $4. up.

I also carry the finest and largest assortment of imported and domestic wall papers and decorations. I do first-class work in tinting, kalomining and inside and outside painting at reasonable prices. Call at the store or send a postal card, and I will call on you with sample books, and cheerfully give estimates. I guarantee first-class workmanship.

Yours truly,

Chas. Eisenberg.

Stores—310 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J.; 312 Main street, Orange, N. J.; 61 Springfield avenue, Newark, N. J.; Warehouse 10, 12, 14 and 16 Mercer street, Newark, N. J. Phone, 1073 Plainfield. Open evenings until 9. Sample books to the trade.

Putnam & De Graw.

SPECIALS FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

Ladies' 25c fast black Hose, for 19c

Children's fast black Hose, 10c—3 for 25c.

Childrn's fast black Hose, 15c—2 for 25c.

Gent's colored Shirts, detached cuffs regular $1.00 quality for 75c.

Gents' white Laundered Shirts, regular 75c quality for 62c.

NOTICE.

Sealed bids will be received by the Committee on Streets and Public Health, of the Borough of North Plainfield, for crushed stone, flagging for side-walks and cross-walks, to be delivered as needed. The bids to be submitted to the committee and opened in the presence of the bidders on Monday, April 17, at 8 o'clock p. m., at the Borough Council room, corner of Somerset Street and Craig place, in the said Borough of North Plainfield, and at no other time or place.

The committee reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Dated April 10th, 1899.

ROBERT CLARK, JR.,
Chairman of Committee.

4 10 7

HEADQUARTERS FOR

Plants and Cut Flowers.

Chas. L. Stanley 142 North Avenue.

FLORAL DESIGNS A SPECIALTY.

Greenhouses, South Avenue, Netherwood.

REVERE HOUSE

PARK AVENUE, 7th and 8th sts. | PLAINFIELD, New Jersey.

Families accomodated for the Spring and Summer months at greatly reduced prices.

The house contains all modern improvements lighted by Gas and Electricity, Sanitary arrangements perfect. Cuisene unsurpassed.

GEO. B. DE REVERE.

Monroe B. Long, M. D., President. | Eugene M. Laing, Vice-President.

Robert A. Meeker, Secretary. | Robert J. Shaw, Treasurer.

THE UNION BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION.

OFFICE, 203 PARK AVENUE.

Special Features

A uniform Loaning Rate of $8.67 Per month on each $1,000 borrowed. ANY additional amount may be paid in, no matter how small, with any monthly installment; thus maturing the stock that much sooner.

It accommodates itself to the financial condition of the borrower instead of compelling him to pay a certain fixed amount each month.

Liberal Withdrawals With Interest

THE MEMBERS MAY WITHDRAW AT ANY TIME AND RECEIVE THE WHOLE AMOUNT PAID IN AND AFTER ONE YEAR SIX PER CENT INTEREST ON THE SAME.

The whole or any part of the loan can be paid off at any time.

A New Series Issued Every Month.

To Investors

PAID-UP OR INCOME STOCK, COSTING $60 PER SHARE AND BEARING 6 PER CENT INTEREST AND HAVING A MATURITY VALUE OF $100 PER SHARE is issued from time to time, as the board of directors may determine, and is especially desirable for those wishing a secure and profitable investment.

For further particulars inquire at the office, 203 Park Ave., Room 8, or address the secretary.

R. A. MEEKER,
203 PARK AVE.

Leggett's

SYRUP WHITE PINE AND TAR

is growing more popular every day. Why? Because it is a simple, palatable, reliable

Cough Remedy,

Try it, is all we ask.

25c. a Bottle.

Leggett's Pharmacy,

Y. M. C. A. Building.

E. D. BARRETT,

Sanitary Plumbing.

Steam and Hot Water Heating.

Telephone 612. 148 East Fifth Street.

4 3 1m

BICYCLES BICYCLES

George Gould,

AGENT FOR

VICTOR, PATEE, WAVERLY, IVANHOE and NASSAU SPECIAL

Rents, Repairs, Sundries and Storage.

326 PARK AVENUE.

CLIFTON BUILDING.

A Lady's Easy Rocker

or sewing chair given to all purchasers of one pound of Baking Powder.

We handle all good kinds of Teas and Coffee, at prices to suit the times

Goods purchased if not satisfactory money refunded.

GRAND UNION TEA CO.

138 West Front street.

John J. Crouse, Manager.

MISS JENKINS,

PARLOR MILLINERY

303 East Sixth Street.

EUROPE, starting June 29, 69 days, 48 days or 41 days; English coaching, Holland, Germany, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, Paris. Experience, fourteen years. Particulars of HONEYMAN'S PRIVATE TOURS, Plainfield, N.J.

F. A. LONG, No. 106 SOMERSET ST. Near Manning Avenue.

Up-to-Date Cash Grocery Store.

Orders called for and delivered in any part City or Dunellen.

ARLINGTON HOTEL.

(Splendid Mountain View.)

SOMERSET ST. AND GREENBROOK ROAD,

Charles Jensen, Prop'r.

First-class bar. Large parlor with piano for parties, receptions etc. Stable and shed accommodations.

L. L. Manning & Son,

STEAM GRANITE WORKS,

Corner Central avenue and West Front street, opp. First Baptist Church.

Over 150 monuments and headstones to select from. Prices never so low.

THE DAILY PRESS.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3:30 p. m.

108 North avenue. Telephone Call 61.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week
$5 a year—in advance
No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada
Delivered by carrier or by mail.
The Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district
Any subscriber failing o receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.
Advertising rates mailed on request.
Copy for change of advertisements MUST be in this office by 9 a. m. to ensure change the same day.

PLAINFIELD, N.J., APRIL 13, 1899.

FEATURES OF TODAY'S PRESS.

PAGE 1.—Important local news.
PAGE 2.—Telegraphic news.
PAGE 3.—Telegraphic news.
PAGE 4.—Editorial and gossip.
PAGE 5.—Vicinity news.
PAGE 6.—Woman's department.
PAGE 6.—German news.
PAGE 7.—Catholic news.
PAGE 7.—Miscellaneous.
PAGE 8.—Sporting and local news.

FACTS ABOUT PLAINFIELD.

(The accompanying facts about Plainfield are for the information of the non-resident public and do not recognize the dividing line line between the city of Plainfield and the borough of North Plainfield, except when such a distinction is necessary in describing a municipal institution)

CLUBS—Ten.
BANKS—Three.
HOTELS—Seven.
SEWERS—24 miles.
GAS—20 miles of mains.
CHURCHES—Thirty-five.
BONDED DEBT—$120,000.
PUBLIC SCHOOLS—Eleven.
SOCIETIES AND LODGES—Ninety.
POLICE—Nineteen paid members.
POSTOFFICE—Free delivery of mail.
BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS—Ten.
NEWSPAPERS—Five; two daily; three weekly.
TELEGRAPH—Postal Telegraph and Western Union.
TELEPHONE—Localand long distance; 500 local subscribers.
HOSPITAL—Muhlenberg; ward capacity, 20; emergency, 30.
STREETS—Seventy miles graded; thirty-seven macadamized.
WATER SUPPLY—Artesian wells; forty-five miles of mains.
TAXABLE VALUATION—City, $8,000,000; borough, $2,250,000.
COUNTY—Plainfield in Union; North Plainfield in Somerset.
POPULATION—City and borough, 20,000; immediate suburbs, 5,000.
FIRE DEPARTMENT—Eight companies; paid drivers; four departments.
ELECTRIC LIGHT—Incandescent and arc in every part of city and borough.
STREET RAILWAY—Nine miles of track; cars run every 12 minutes from 5:30 a. m. to 12 p. m.
RAILROAD—Central Railroad of New Jersey; 24 miles from New York; 65 miles from Philadelphia; 45 minutes from New York; four depots; commutation ticket to New York $80 a year.

COMING EVENTS.

April 13—Entertainment in North Plainfield Public School.
April 13—St. Joseph's bazaar at Saengerbund Hall.
April 14—Sociable in Congregational church.
April 14—Meeting of cyclists at Y. M. C. A. Hall.
April 16—William G. Carr, of Brooklyn, will address the Y. M. C. A. meeting at 4:15 p. m.
April 17—Star Course entertainment in Y. M. C. A. Hall
April 20—Gymnastic exhibition at Y. M. C. A
April 25—"Snap Shots in Switzerland," an illustrated lecture by Major W. H. Coughlin, of Brooklyn, at Y. M. C. A. Hall at 8 p. m.
April 29—"Diplomacy" in Music Hall.

The Cranford Chronicle, which can be as saucy as one would like to be when occasion requires, seems to hold a very poor opinion of the prospects of the widened county road boulevard and Senator Kean's offer of $250 000 for a franchise to run a trolley road over it. The Chronicle says that the Kean and Riker interests will combine, and that the pretty idea of a fine boulevard will never materialize. This is the way the Cranford Journal sums it up: "The 100 foot boulevard humbug with its belts of trolley tracks, macadamized pavement, earth driveways and cycle path, having served its only purpose, namely, to give Mr. Kean a grip on Westfield avenue, will be allowed to die a natural and unlamented death."

The amendments made to the laws under which the loan and building associations of the State operate, are regarded by many of the managers of these institutions as inimical to their interests and steps have been taken to test the constitutionality of the amendments. The provisions not fancied are particularly those providing for State supervision of their business, the right of withdrawing members to all the money they have paid in at any time after one year from joining, and the taking of expenses of management out of the profits, instead of out of the money paid in as share dues by members, as is the case at present.

Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota and California were the four States of the country, which, by the Federal Census of 1890, had a larger foreign born than native born male population of voting age. The percentages were 53, 59, 65 and 50½ respectively. Wisconsin, Minnesota and North Dakota have a large Scandinavian population. California has many Chinese residents of voting age.

The early reports that Elizabeth had gone Republican in the city election Tuesday prove to be wrong. The Democrats will still hold the majority of the Board of Aldermen and also the Board of Education.

If Mr. Croker goes on the witness stand before the Mazeteers don't think he is going to railroad himself to prison. Mr. Croker will not be as easy a mark for Moss as some may think him to be.

The Chicago News says that when a man gets too old to set a bad example he begins to give good advice.

People talk a good deal about the exorbitant rates charged for gas, but how about electricity, too?

Some linguist ought to get hold of Aguinaldo and teach him how to yell "enough."

Embalmed beef is not preserving the good name of the country.

VICTORIA IN HER PORTABLE CHAIR.

The illustration shows Queen Victoria in her traveling chair being carried from the steamer by her attendants. This is at Boulogne, where the royal party changes from steamer to railway train when making the annual trip to the Riviera. This chair accompanies the queen on all her journeys of any length.

WHAT THE SHEARS FIND

Editorial Comment From Other Papers of Interest in Plainfield.

Dunellen, a small town on the borders of Union and Middlesex Counties, is experiencing the effect of voting away a too liberal trolley franchise. The Brunswick Traction Company, the beneficiary, not only is taking all the earth granted in the franchise, but is doing as it pleases with the weak provisions of the charter that treat of time schedules and the housing of passengers at the local terminus. Other towns are similar treated until the courts step in and punish the grasping violators of pledges. Dunellen must prevent the running of this company's cars until it keeps its promises. An injunction promptly placed is worth any quantity of argument.—New York Press.

PASSING COMMENT

Things that Are Not Exactly News but Just as Interesting.

Frank Fulton, a young Plainfielder who is doing duty as apothecary on the U. S. S. Supply, has returned to the Brooklyn Navy Yard with that steamer. The Supply, as the name denotes, is a supply ship of the United States Navy and has just returned after a cruise through the West Indies. While the Supply was lying at Jamaica some of the sailors became involved in a quarrel with a crowd of natives. There was a lively time; revolvers were drawn and several lives were lost before peace could be restored. One sailor was killed and several injured. Fulton assisted in dressing the wounds of the latter.

THEATRICAL.

Current Dramatic Attractions That Plainfielders Can Witness.

There will be two splendid performances at Music Hall Saturday, one at 2:15 p m. for the especial accommodation of ladies and children, and the other at the usual hour at night. J. E Toole in "Killarney and the Rhine" is the attraction. The scenes of the drama are all laid in Ireland, while the principal character is a German knight-errrant. It is a queer combination and makes the originality of the production complete, as well as romantic and entertaining. Mr. Toole is seen in the character of Conrad, a part which was written for him, and in which he is given much opportunity to display his entertaining virtues in singing and dancing. Lillian DeWoolf has the soubrette role of Elly O'Neil, in love with Conrad. The scenery, all of which was painted from nature, shows a famous ruined abbey in Ireland, the Wicklow military prison, as shown in the play of "The Wicklow Postman," and the handsome home of Squire Delaney. Reserved seats will be a feature of the matinee performance.

OTIS IS NOT FEARED

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.

o'clock two fires were started in the city by insurgent sympathizers, and they soon became a conflagration endangering the whole city. The object was to burn the commissary. But while much damage was done to the native bamboo huts and substantial stone structures, they completely failed in their purpose. From the ship the sight was grand, if we may use that word to express such fiendish work. The flames surged and rolled and darted up long tongues to the smoky clouds. The fire company, such as it is, got to work, assisted by our soldiers, to extinguish the fire. A Filipino cut one of the hose and a soldier shot him dead. Citizens fled from the houses, women and children huddled together, and with the crackling of burning bamboo and the firing of musketry in the streets it resembled pandemonium. The Filipinos were either shot or driven into the flames. The next morning my daughter, two captains and myself went to the scene of the fire. 'John China' was everywhere carrying off 'loot.'

"These Filipinos are bad; they are a treacherous and murderous set, and expansion or no expansion, they need licking from one end of Luzon to the other, and the sooner the American people at home understand this the better. A conciliatory policy is construed to indicate weakness. The people fear and respect Dewey, for he smashed everything to pieces, but I assure you they have no such regard for General Otis. They need the same kind of medicine Spain received.

"I wish again to speak of our men. There never was a finer lot of men of any clime or nation who went to war than those who came from the western States. They police the city, work in the custom house and do all sorts of things. They are courteous when spoken to. As fighters in the field they are all 'Rough Riders.' Their aim is deadly in the extreme. They lie night and day in the trenches exposed to heat and mosquitoes, liable to be called out at any moment."

A Thousand Tongues

Could not express the rapture of Annie E Springer, of 1125 Howard street, Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden. All other remedies and doctors could give her no help, but she says of this Royal Cure—"It soon removed the pain in my chest and I can now sleep soundly, something I can scarcely remember doing before. I feel like sounding its praises throughout the Universe." So will everyone who tries Dr. King's New Discovery for any trouble of the Throat, Chest or Lungs. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free at L. W. Randolph's Drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

—Perseverence Lodge, Knights of Pythias, will hold a regular meeting tomorrow night. Routine business will be transacted.

—This evening an important meeting of Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., will be held. A full attendance is desired —Tomorrow evening another meeting will be held in Sons of Temperance rooms for the purpose of completing the organization of Sr. O. U. A. M.

DOES COFFEE AGREE WITH YOU?

If not, drink Grain-O—made from pure grains. A lady writes: "The first time I made Grain-O I did not like it but after using it for one week nothing would induce me to go back to coffee." It nourishes and feeds the system. The children can drink it freely with great benefit. It is the strengthening substance of pure grains. Get a package today from your grocer, follow the directions in making it and you will have a delicious and healthful table beverage for old and young. 15 and 25c.

SHIRT WAIST SHOWING.

We are proud of our Shirt Waist Showing. The collection is really Superb. The variety is great. The styles are correct. The designs and materials are exclusive and original.

Prices Range from 50c. to $9.00.

White Lawn Waists and White Corded Pique Waists in infinite variety. A WORD OF ADVICE. Select them now. Now the assortment is complete. Later the stock will be depleted. There will be no duplicates.

TAILOR MADE SUITS.

Some very natty suits at $6 98, made of black cheviot. A large line of finer suits from $10 to $23. All are new, stylish, perfect-fitting, well-made and inexpensive. What more can you ask for.

SPRING WASH GOODS.

Warm weather is coming and that very quickly. Select your wash fabrics now and have them ready for the hot weather. The assortment is better now than it will be later. Our line is most attractive and goods are thoroughly reliable.

"VICTOR" Odorless Moth Bags.

Made of Heavy Black Silesia, double stitched seams with patent closing device, with nickle hooks from which to suspend garments.

Manufacturer has sold his patent. We bought all he had on hand at half price.

The Retail Price is $2.00.

Our price while they last

98c.

About Carpets.

If you want Carpets 10 years old fresh from the auction room we have nothing to say. If you want new up-to-date Carpets, fresh from the looms. If you want Carpets upon which you may depend to give satisfactory service. Then we have much to say. If you want your work done anyway to get it done, we have nothing to say. If you want your work done properly by experienced men, then we are the people to call on.

If you want fresh, new Japanese and Chinese Matting in the newest designs. If you want elegant Smyrna, Moquette or Royal Wilton Rugs or anything else in floor coverings, come and see our goods. If you want your house fitted up with new window shades, we fit and hang them.

Do you contemplate buying a New Trunk, Traveling Bag or Dress Suit Case? Then by all means see ours. Trunks with 3, 4 and 5 Trays for preventing the wrinkling of Fine Dresses. Elegant Steamer Trunks, Leather Bound, Cloth Lined, Brass Trimmed.

Positively the Best Line of Trunks We Have Ever Seen.

DOWN STAIRS.

Our Basement will never make us rich. We sell the goods on too small margins. A furniture store, for instance, would never be able to meet its expenses on our profits.

Bed Room Furniture, Dining Room Furniture, Couches, White Enamel Beds, Woven Wire Springs, Mattresses of all kinds, Pillows, etc., we sell remarkably cheap and we are sending them broadcast over two counties.

Jewett Refrigerators.

It is false economy to struggle along with an old half-worn out Refrigerator.

Get a new one—you will soon save ice enough to pay for it for they are cheap, cheaper than you imagine, and certainly a great comfort.

If you are interested in getting your money's worth, and who is not, we are the people to visit.

No Branch Stores. No Old Goods.

Trading Stamps With Each Cash Purchase.

WOODHULL & MARTIN,

234-236-238 WEST FRONT ST.

PECK'S CORNER.

All Women Admire Pretty

White Goods.

Organdies, Nainsooks, Lawns, Mulls, Dimities, Ducks and Piques and Ginghams and Wash goods was never so beautiful as those shown

AT PECK'S.

SHIRT WAISTS.

The Newest and Handsomest Styles that has been offered.

A New Line of Laces : : : : : and Embroideries.

MORE VALUE FOR YOUR MONEY

AT PECK'S

THAN ELSEWHERE.

When March winds blow,
And our face and hands chap so

USE CHAP CURE.

Manufactured only by

T. S. ARMSTRONG, "The Apothecary"

COR. NORTH AND PARK AVES

CARLOAD FRESH

This afternoon and tomorrow morning, at the "Fish Car," located at the Grant Avenue Freight Station of the C. R. R. Plainfield avenue and South Second St.

Big Shad,	25c
Large Roe Shad	35 to 45c each
Cod, steaks	8c lb
Flounders,	7c lb. 4 lbs for 25c
Fancy Eels,	10c lb. 3 lbs for 25c
Live Cod	5c lb
Live Haddock	5c lb
Salmon, Columbia River	12c lb

Long Branch Fish Co.

J. F. MacDonald. UPTOWN GROCER. 186 E. Front Street.

20 Fresh Eggs, direct from farmers	25c
Best Jersey E R. Potatoes	43c basket
Best Oil, 5 gal.	45c
Minnesota Flour	55c bag, $4.35 bbl
4 lbs. Carolina Rice	25c
Best Oatmeal	3c lb
Best Pure Lard, no compound	7c lb
Large California Prunes	4 lbs for 25c
O. K. B. Powder	18c
Gold Medal Milk	8c
Kirkman's Borax Soap (6 C. box)	23c
Fine Tomatoes	7c can
Fine Corn	6c can
N. O. Molasses	33c Gal
2 bottles Best Maple Syrup	25c
Canned Salmon	8 can
Pea Beans	5c quart
Lin a Beans	8c quart
Lemon and Ginger Snaps	5c lb

We won't say anything about our 20c Coffee. Everybody uses it.

DRAKE & MUNDY,

207 West Front St. Telephone Call 141.

Dealers in All Kinds of

FRESH, SALT AND COOKED MEATS.

FINE POULTRY.

Special Saturday Sale. Usual Line of Bargains.

th-f

TRY THE QUEEN CITY LAUNDRY,

No 337 Park Avenue

(Miller Building.)

Goods called for and delivered free of charge.

Domestic or gloss finish.

MISS M E. RUCKMAN

has reopened her

— FASHIONABLE MILLINERY PARLOR —

at 611 S. 2d St. Hats trimmed for 25c.

Cor. Plainfield Ave. 4 6 cod 1m

GOSPEL MEETINGS

in HOPE CHAPEL,

Every Evening Except Saturday.

Conducted by

F. E. TAYLOR.

Splendid Singing by a Chorus Choir.

4 10 6

CHAS. L. FORCE,

Architect and Superintendent.

208 E. Fifth St. Mail orders given prompt attention. Estimates given. 1 31 tf

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
ABSOLUTELY PURE
Makes the food more delicious and wholesome
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS.

THINGS THAT INTEREST SCOTCH PLAINS AND DUNELLEN.

Brief and Terse Observations Gathered by Alert Press Reporters to be Perused at the Supper Table at Your Leisure

DUNELLEN.

(Special Correspondence of The Daily Press.)

Dunellen, April 13 —Harry Dodwell, baggage-master at the station, caught his hand on a sharp iron projection on a trunk he was handling yesterday, and received a painful though not dangerous wound.

Ernest Ward turned twenty-one Tuesday, and his friends to the number of forty surprised him that evening. They brought music and refreshments with them and passed the night with song and dance.

It is probable that the members of Rev. E S. Jamison's church will tender him a reception in the near future, as he is to be their pastor again for this coming year.

The children who have been confined to the house with scarlet fever, have all recovered, and the Board of Health are about to remove the quarantine.

Herbert Bruch, who has been off duty for several days due to a fall off a freight car in Plainfield, was able to resume work again yesterday.

Mrs. J. W. Griggs, who has been visiting her parents, Freeholder and Mrs. Peter Staats, has returned to her home in New Brunswick.

Rev and Mrs. E. S. Jamison have returned from Newark, where they have been attending the Methodist conference.

Drummond Williams, who recently moved from here, has opened a livery and boarding stable in Asbury Park.

Augustus Todd has rented his North avenue store to a lady who is about to open a notion store.

Clarence Roberts and family, of New York, have moved into the Smith house on Prospect avenue.

The dance in Apgar's Hall tonight is to be under the auspices of Edward Herlick and Fred Giddes.

Mrs. J. G. Taylor and son spent yesterday visiting Mrs. Taylor's mother in Plainfield.

Mrs. Samuel Richardson has been entertaining company from Bound Brook.

Rev. A. I. Martine and wife spent yesterday visiting relatives in Flemington.

A meeting of the stockholders of the building loan is called for Monday night.

Mrs. E. J. Wells, of Bayonne, spent Wednesday with Miss Tiny Ward.

Rev. and Mrs. A. I. Martine will spend Sunday on Long Island.

Miss Delia Fritts is visiting friends in Plainfield for a few days.

Walter Mariner was in Dover yesterday on business.

WESTFIELD

(Special Correspondence to The Press.)

Westfield, April 13—A pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Sherman Cooper on Broad street yesterday evening at 6 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Mary G. Cooper, became the wife of Dr Wm. G. Howe, of New York. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Newton W. Cadwell, of the Presbyterian church. There were no bridemaids, she being attended by Miss Marguerite Pierson, a cousin, who acted as flower girl. Dr. Howe, the groom, is a dentist with an office at 311 Madison avenue, New York. He was attended as best man by his brother, Elliott C. Howe, who has just been given his commission as second lieutenant in the Fourth United States Cavalry.

Robert F. Mitchell, of this town, has been detailed by Winfield Scott Post, No. 73, G. A. R., of Plainfield, to which the old soldiers living in Westfield belong, to arrange for the observance of Memorial Day in the town and the citizens will co-operate with him in raising an amount sufficient to decorate the graves of the men, who fought for their country, with flowers and a small American flag. About $75 is the amount that it is thought will be necessary. The Westfield Fire Department will turn out and parade on that day.

M. Ellsworth Meriam, a teacher in the service of the American Missionary Association, delivered a most interesting address on "The American Highlanders" at the Congregational church last evening.

Ladies' Night With Trinity Commandery.

It isn't often that the outside world is permitted to enjoy the good times that the Knight Templars arrange, but Monday evening, May 1st will be "Ladies' Night" with Trinity Commandery, of this city, and the mothers, wives, sisters and fair friends of the members will be entertained in a right royal manner at Masonic Hall. The affair is already being planned and an entertainment and spread will form part of the ways in which the fair visitors will be looked after on that occasion.

A word to the wise is sufficient.

Ely's Cream Balm has completely cured me of catarrh when everything else failed.—Alfred W. Stevens, Caldwell, Ohio.

Ely's Cream Balm works like a charm; it has cured me of the most obstinate case of cold in the head. I would not be without it.—Fred'k Fries, 283 Hart St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

The Balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Price 50 cents at druggists or by mail. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

JOTTINGS OF THE DAY.

ENTERPRISINGLY GATHERED AND CONCISELY TOLD BY REPORTERS.

Newsy Notes of More or Less Importance Bunched Together for the Ready Reference of Press Readers

—The work of Street Commissioner Gavett on Richmond street is progressing very favorably.

—Stone Square Lodge, F. and A. M. will hold a benefit entertainment and concert in Washington Hall this evening.

—There will be an entertainment by the Plainfield Catholic Club in their club house on Liberty street this evening.

—An excellent photograph of the Plainfield police force was taken recently, and the "finest" look as fine as any force.

—A sociable will be held by the Woman's Association of the Congregational church in the church parlors tomorrow evening.

—This evening a musicale will be given in the Borough Public School for the purpose of securing money to purchase new music.

—There will be a meeting of the Town Improvement Association Tuesday afternoon, April 25th, at which time officers will be elected.

—The members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Catholic Club have arranged an unusually interesting programme to be presented at the club house this evening.

—This evening Stone Square Lodge, No. 38, F. and A. M., will give an entertainment in Washington Hall for the benefit of James Walker, of West Fourth street, who is ill.

—Smalley & Crane will give a present to every customer Saturday. Their meats are good and the prices very low. Look up their advertisement. It will do you good.

—The officers of the T. A. B. Association desire The Daily Press to say that they will give no dance in Washington Hall as announced. The association has decided not to hold any more dances.

—W. W. Knox, D. D. L. L. D., of New Brunswick, says: The genius of Prof. Barbom is marked; his insight into character instructive; his taste excellent; his preparations perfect; his role varied; his impersonations masterly. He will appear in the Y. M. C. A. Star course Monday evening.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongued coated, pain continually in the back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters;' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50cts., guaranteed, at L. W. Randolph's Drug Store

PEOPLE COME AND GO.

PERSONAL MENTION OF INTEREST TO PRESS READERS.

Some Come to Enjoy Pleasures of Plainfield, Others Journey to Either Mountain or Shore for Recreation.

Judson Caine, of Somerville, has been visiting Plainfield relatives.

Mrs. Radin, of North avenue, has returned from a visit with New Brunswick friends.

Miss Clark, of Bound Brook, is visiting the Misess Randolph, of West Eighth street.

All of the local Methodist church pastors have returned from the Newark conference.

Mrs. A. M. Ross, of West Seventh street, has returned from a pleasant stay at Atlantic City.

Julius Lusardi, of Italy, formerly a resident of Plainfield, is now visiting his brothers in this city.

W. E. Lowe and family, of Park avenue, have returned from their winter stay in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sandford, of Brooklyn, are visiting relatives in Plainfield for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris, of West Front street, have been entertaining Mrs. Morris' sister from Stelton.

Frank Bacon, of this city, who has been enjoying a trip to Iowa, is expected to return home today.

Tuesday evening last the Twentieth Century Club was entertained by Miss Mary VanFleet, of East Third street.

N. H. Saxton, of East Fourth street, has secured a position in New York as manager for a large wholesale business.

Miss Lydia M. Garrettson, of Elmhurst, L. I., has returned after visiting Miss Mabelle Smith, of Westervelt avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Rockafellow, of West Front street, are enjoying a visit from their daughter, Miss Sadie Rockafellow, of Elizabeth.

Rev. George Angleman and family, of Junction, this State, are visiting relatives in town. They will leave the last of the week for home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sandford, of West Seventh street, will return tomorrow from Lakewood, where they have been stopping for some time.

Miss Louella Mills, of East Fifth street, has recovered from a slight illness, and has resumed her position at the U. S. Express Company office.

Mr. and Mrs. Kuhl, of New York, who have been visiting their daughter, Mrs William G. Dunn, of Norwood avenue, have returned home

Miss Elizabeth Cashman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cashman, of Clinton avenue, will be married this evening to P. M. Christiansen, of this city.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Gertrude Rushmore, daughter of Isaac W. Rushmore, and Edward J. Patterson, both of this city.

Rev. C. E. Scudder, of Newark, accompanied by his family, are stopping with Mrs. Scudder's parents, Justice and Mrs. T. R. Crossley, of Duer street.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be distroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.
Sold by Druggists, 75c.
Hall's Family Pills are the best.

That Throbbing Headache.

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and strong nerves and build up your health. Easy to take. Try them. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

A Frightful Blunder.

Will often cause a horrible Burn, Scald, Cut or Bruise. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, will kill the pain and promptly heal it. Cures Old Sores, Fever Sores, Ulcers, Boils, Felons, Corns, all Skin Eruptions. Best Pile cure on earth. Only 25 cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by L. W. Randolph, Druggist.

IF your grocer says he does not keep our Flavoring Extracts, ask him to get them for you.

A. L. Kaerth & Co.
132 E. Second St.

AT RANDOLPH'S !

Roots and Herbs are numerous, yet we urge the combination of

Randolph's -:- Sarsaparilla

is one of the best to clean the blood. None better. Only 50 cents per bottle.

L. W. RANDOLPH,
Prescription Druggist. 143 West Front St.
PLAINFIELD, N. J. TELEPHONE CALL 109.

"PAY CASH AND SAVE MONEY" AT

V. L. FRAZEE'S,
THE PEOPLE'S CASH GROCER
151 West Front Street.

SPECIAL PRICES FOR ALL THIS WEEK.

Good New York State Creamery Butter	19c lb
Fresh Jersey Eggs, every Egg guaranteed -	15c doz
Best Elgin Creamery Butter	22c lb
Granulated Sugar	5c lb
Best Sugar Cured Hams	8½c lb
Best Early Rose Potatoes	43c basket
Carolina Rice	4 lbs 23c
Paris Sugar Corn	9c can, 3 cans for 25c
Good Sweet Sugar Corn	6c can
Best Tomatoes, NO BETTER, solid packed	7c can
Best New York State Sugar Corn	7c can
Marrowfat Peas	6c can
Good Early June Peas	8c can
Best Small Early June Peas, NO BETTER	10c can
Best Lard	5c lb
Best Full Cream Cheese	12c lb
Best Minnesota Patent Flour per bbl	$4.40
" " " " 24 1-2 lb bag	55c
If one baking is used and not satisfactory money returned for whole bag or barrel.
Best California Prunes	5c, 7c, 8c and 9c lb
" " Dried Peaches	12c lb
New Dried Lima Beans	8c quart
" " White Beans	5c quart
Aunt Jemima Pancake Flour	9c pkg
3 lb package Best Prepared Buckwheat	10c
3 lb Package Best Prepared Flour	10c
Best Rolled Oats	3c lb, 6 lbs for 15c
Pure Vermont Maple Syrup	25c quart bottle
Magnolia Condensed Milk	8c can
Fern " "	7c can
Pickles	7c doz
Best New Orleans Molasses	33c gal
" Vanilla Drip Syrup	33c "
" Old Cider Vinegar	15c "
" 150 Test Oil	5 gals for 45c
Washing Soda	1c lb
Babbitt's Soap	2 cakes for 7c
Higgin's German Laundry Soap	3c cake
Fairbank's Soap	10 cakes for 25c
Duryea's Best Starch	4c lb, 7 lbs for 25c
Duryea's Best Corn Starch	6c package
Fine Fat Mackerel	9c each, 3 for 25c
Shredded Codfish	5c package
New Columbia River Salmon	10c can
1 lb box Davis O. K. Baking Powder	18c
25 Best Lemons for	25c
Best Mocha and Java Coffee	25c lb
Lion Coffee	9c lb
3 lb Can Best Bartlett Pears for	10c
3 lb Cans California Peaches	13c can, 2 for 25c
Best Ginger Snaps, Lemon Cakes, Nic Nacs, Soda and Oyster Crackers	5c lb
Best Clothes Pins	1c doz
Mince Meat	7c pkg
Kirkman's Borax Soap, 6 cakes in a box for	23c

Special Cash Sale For Saturday.

We are selling all kinds of fresh and smoked meats, trying to meet the public's want, both in quality and prices Here are a few prices that will do you good.

Best Hams, 8 1-2c. Best S. K. Hams,	8 1-2c.
Best Cottage Hams, No Bone, No Fat,	8 1-2c
California Hams,	5 1-2c.
Bacon, 10c. Salt Pork,	8c.
Shoulders Pork, fresh,	6c.

We will also give to every purchaser a useful present A knife sharpener, one that any woman can use. It will readily sharpen your kitchen knives and carvers.

Smalley & Crane,
PLAINFIELD PACKING HOUSE
153 West Front Street.

"DOLLS' DAY."

500 PAIRS of Dolls' VICI KID Slippers absolutely given away on Saturday, April 15th, and you don't have to buy a cent's worth of anything, either, to get them. Every girl who brings a doll to our store on that day, and is accompanied by a parent, will be given a pair of Vici Kid Slippers to fit dollie's feet. The slippers are neatly and daintily made of the famous Vici Kid, as the shoes for big folks. GIRLS, come early in the day.

A ladies' maid is in attendance now, who will dress your shoes Free with Vici Kid Polish.

Doane & Edsall.

Plainfield, N. J. Morristown, N. J. FOUR LARGE STORES. Wilmington, Del. Perth Amboy, N. J.

CROSBY & HILL
SUCCESSORS TO EDWARD WHITE.

SPECIAL

We place on sale today five cases of fine imported hosiery and underwear at one-half their real value; they were sold to us by a prominent importing house of New York and the reason of the extremely low prices is that the cases were slightly wet, the goods are all perfect, but you buy them at half value.

	Price.	Value.
Case No. I — Fine fast black hose for women,	19	39
" " II — " " " " " children,	17	35
" " III — " " " and fancy hose for men	17	39
" " IV — Fine imported French Balbriggan shirts and drawers for men,	39	1.00
" " V — Fine imported Lisle thread shirts and drawers for men,	39	75

The above lots are without an exception the best values that this house has ever offered.

Another lot of merchandise worth special mention and bought under the same circumstances, about 500 bureau, covers 18x48 inches, all linen damask, hemstitched and drawn work ends, 39c each; real value $1.00.

HOUSE FURNISHING DEPARTMENT.

We have just received 1,000 Holland Rose bushes, all strong and hardy. Hybred Roses, and at a small price, 15c each, or 2 for 25c. The names of the roses are as follows:

La France.	Lilac Rose.
General Jack.	Dark Red Rose.
Madame Plantier.	White Rose.
Magna Charta.	Bright Pink Rose.
Mrs. John Lang.	Soft Lilac Rose.
Paul Neyron.	Dark Rose.
Ulrich Brunner.	Reddish Cerise Rose.
Duke of Edinburgh.	Vermillion Rose.
John Hopper.	Rose, crimson centre.

Gladiolas Bulbs,	12c per dozen.
Tube Rose Bulbs,	10c " "
Cannas Bulbs,	4c each.
Dalilias Roots,	5c "
Caladium Bulbs, (elephant's ears,)	5c each.
L. L. May & Co.'s Flower Seeds,	10c doz. packages.
Central Park Lawn Grass Seed,	10c quart.

Some new Arrivals in Silks that we include in this sale.

50c Printed India Silks, 30 inches wide, about 1,000 yards, Navy blue and Black Grounds, printed in choice neat figures, worth 75c.

75c Striped all silk Taffeta, light and Medium Ground-work, al new designs and fully worth $1 00.

95c Corded Silk Taffetas, handsome new designs and very choice colorings and effects, the very newest patterns for shirt waists, actual value $1 25.

39c 2,000 yards of Plaid Satin all the newest Spring shades and designs, very suitable for Coat and Cape linings or shirt waists, worth 65c.

Wool Dress Goods.

69c All-wool French Broad cloths, very light in weight and fine in finish, 54 inches wide. The shades are Tans, Browns, Navy Blue, Green and Garnet, they are the $1 00 quality.

25c Satin Striped Wool Challies, light colored grounds, handsome floral designs, 30 inches wide, worth 39c.

79c All-wool French Whipcord Suitings, 42 inches wide, new Spring colorings, value $1 00.

89c All-wool Venetian suitings, 54 inches wide, all the new Spring colorings, value $1 00.

Suit Department. 2d. floor.

Some notable values in women's suits, Jackets and Dress Skirts.

$6.98 Women's tailor made suits, worth $10 00.
$10.00 " " " " " $15.00.
$11.98 " " " " " $17.50.
$3.50 Women's Covert Cloth Jackets, worth $4.50.
$5.00 Women's Venetian Cloth Jackets, satin lined, worth $6.50.
$2.98 Women's Mohair Skirts, newest cut, worth $4.00.

Carpet Department.

Our Carpet Department is on the third floor and is a perfect daylight show room, easy of access by elevator, interesting prices prevail at present.

50c Best quality of 10 wire tapestry brussels carpets, usual 75c quality.
69c Best quality Saxony Axminster carpets, value 95c.
$2.98 20 yard rolls Linen Warp Matting, value $4.00.

Axminster Rugs.

18x39, 79c, value $1 00
30x64, $1 85, value $2 50.
36x72, $2.89, value $4 00.

19c Hand-made opaque window shades complete, rugular price 25c.

THE MARCH OF PROGRESS

in wall paper can best be witnessed in our magnificent stock, comprising all of the latest and artistic patterns, on paper of the very best texture.

MARSH, AYERS & CO.
Wall Papers, Paints, Oils, Glass, Etc.
201 Park Ave. Corner Second St.
Telephone Call 638. Estimates Furnished.

PATENTS
TRADE MARKS
DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &C.
Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. Handbook on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents.
Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.
A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.
MUNN & CO. 361 Broadway, New York

CONOVER'S MOVING VANS
New York City and country work our specialty. Satisfaction guaranteed. Stages to hire.
OFFICE 159 NORTH AVENUE.

Mrs. John Brown
Successor to
JOHN BURKE and JONES & CO.
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
FROM $8.00 UPWARDS.
Satisfaction guaranteed. Don't give your order until you consult me. Estimates cheerfully given. Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, 149 North avenue. Post Office Box 718.
FRANK BURKE, Manager.

Everything for the Garden.
SWEET PEAS the choicest, fancy Lawn Grass Seeds and odorless lawn dressing.
'Phone No. 6.
A. M. Griffen, 119 East Front St.

Safe Deposit Vaults
THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK
Of Plainfield, New Jersey.
Capital $200,000
Surplus and Profits $90,000
J. W. JOHNSON, Pres. F. S. DUNYON, Cashier.
H. M. ESTIL, Vice " D. M. DUNYON, Ass't
DIRECTORS:
Charles Potter, Wm. McD. Cornell
P. M. French, H. Mulford Estil.
Wm. M. Stillman, Isaac W. Bushmore
J. W. Johnson, Wm. R. Goddington,
F. S. Dunyon.
SAFE DEPOSIT VAULTS.
Boxes to Rent from $5 and Upwards per annum.
VALUABLES TAKEN on STORAGE.

BANANAS 12c. and 15c. per doz.
ORANGES 15 and 18 for 25c.
Confectionery and fruit, lowest prices.
C. E. BICKNELL,
"On the Bridge." Somerset St.

RUSHTON & HANSEN,
Painters and Paper Hangers,
Office and Shop Sycamore and Fourth Streets
Interior decorating a specialty. Our motto—first-class work. Estimates cheerfully given. Orders promptly attended to. 2 11 t

A. LUSARDI,
120 NORTH AVENUE.
Wholesale and Retail
Dealer in choice fruit of all kinds, of Confectionery, Peanuts' Cigars, etc. Soda Water of all flavors and always ice cold. Branch store corner Front and Somerset streets.

J. W. VANSICKLE.
122 North Ave., Plainfield N. J.
FRESH & SALTED MEATS,
GAME IN SEASON. Philadelphia Scrapple.
Orders called for and delivered promptly.
TELEPHONE 148 b.

This question of
EYES
is a most serious one. Too long by to discuss here. If your eyes are causing you discomfort, or if you suffer with headache, neuralgia or pain in the eyes, consult our specialist at
107 E. Front Street Every Thursday
Hours 10 to 5. Free Examination. Work guaranteed.
LEECH, STYLES & CO.

McCullough's STEAM MILL.
11 Steiner place, North Plainfie
R. H. McCullough, Prop'
Sash, blinds, doors, mouldings, scroll sawing, &c. Estimates cheerfully furnishe

C. ARNOLD, 35 Somerset Street,
has an elegant display of
Genuine Spring Lamb,
JERSEY BROILERS AND POULTRY
of all kinds. It will do your heart good to inspect my stock before purchasing your Sunday dinner. 3 21 tf

REMOVAL.
I have moved my stock of
BOOTS AND SHOES
TO 120 W. FRONT ST., with Crane, the hatter,
B. R. FORCE.

Wm J. Pearson,
(Late of Pearson & Gayle.)
Carpenter and Builder
15 Vine St. All work promptly attended to.

J. C. Pope & Co.,
INSURANCE AGENTS,
110 East Front St.,
Plainfield, N. J

EGGS 10 CENTS DOZEN
If a bargain. We have properties for sale and to let at bargain prices. Send 2c stamps for the Real Estate and Insurance Review. Lafiga & Cuming, Real Estate and Insurance, 339 North avenue.

Arrival and Departure of Mails

NEW YORK MAILS.
Arrive—7:20, 8:40, 11:20 a. m., 3:00, 5, 5:30 p. m.
Close—7:20, 9:15 a. m., 12:30, 2:00, 6:20, 7:30 p.m

SOMERVILLE and EASTON.
Arrive—8:40 a. m., 3:00 and 6:15 p. m.
Close—7:20 a. m., 12:30 and 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct.
Arrive—8:40 and 11:20 a. m., 1:00 and 3:00 p. m
Close—7:20 and 9:15 a. m., 5:00 p. m.
Through fast mail for West and South, close 5:00 and 7:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE.
Arrive—12:30 p. m. Close—9:30 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS.
Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. H. BIRD, P. M

A. DUNHAM,
CIVIL ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR.
109 Park Ave. Sewers, pavements and road improvements. Publisher of city map and atlas. Telephone 87 F

STATIONERY
at
HARPER'S,
411 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J

Mallinson's La Grippe Pills
25c.
A guaranteed cure for the grip. Relief after a few doses.
MALLINSON'S
North and Watchung avenues.

STAGE ROUTE.
Plainfield and Scotch Plains.
STAGE LEAVES PLAINFIELD
(E. FRONT ST., OPP. PARK AVE.)
9:30 a. m., 12:45, 4:00 and 6:00 P. M.
STAGE LEAVES SCOTCH PLAINS
(FRONT POST OFFICE)
10:30 a. m., 2:00, 5:00 and 7:00 p. m.
Upon notice a special stage will be held for parties of six or more attending the theatre or other attraction.
THOS. NEWMAN, Prop.

Receiver's Notice.

THOMAS E. H. CURTIS, Receiver of the Hall Electric Pump Company, by direction of the Chancellor of the State of New Jersey, hereby gives notice to the creditors of the said Hall Electric Pump Company, to present to the undersigned, Receiver, and prove before him under oath or affirmation or otherwise, as the said Receiver shall direct, to the satisfaction of the said Receiver, their several claims and demands against the said Hall Electric Pump Company, within two months from the sixth day of April A. D. 1899, or they will be excluded from the benefit of such dividends as may thereafter be made and declared by the Chancellor upon the proceeds of the effects of said Hall Electric Pump Company.
Dated, Plainfield, N. J., April 6th, 1899.
THOMAS E. H. CURTIS, Receiver.
Craig A. Marsh, Sol'r. 4 8 4w

A POET'S HELPMEET.

HOW MRS. RUDYARD KIPLING SMOOTHS THE PATH TO FAME.

She Deals With the Clamoring Publishers and Supplies a Business Balance Wheel For the Engine of Genius—Was a Vermont Girl.

The heroism and strength of character of Mrs. Rudyard Kipling has recently been put to the test. She has shown herself to be a woman of most unusual courage and fortitude, as well as delicacy of feeling and tenderness of heart.

Mrs. Kipling is to her talented husband a helpmeet in the truest sense and is heartily in sympathy with him in his work, while performing with womanly grace and devotion the offices of wife and mother. While not in the accepted sense a literary woman, having no inclinations and ambitions for herself in that direction, she takes great interest in the productions of her husband's brain and pen and at least on one occasion was a better judge of the merit of his work than was the author himself.

But for her the literature of the world would never have been enriched with "The Recessional," which many regard as Kipling's greatest poem. "The Recessional" was written, as the world knows, in London in the spring of 1897, when all England was stirred over the great imperialistic celebration in honor of Queen Victoria, but which was really an expression of national exaltation over Anglo-Saxon "dominion over palm and pine." Kipling's patriotic emotions were strongly stirred, and he sought to write worthily of the event. He was dissatisfied with what he had written, believing it to be unworthy of the greatness of the occasion and threw it into the wastebasket. Mrs. Kipling, recognizing the merit of the lines, rescued them from their place of consignment and saved them to the world, for which she is entitled to the world's gratitude.

Mrs. Kipling shares her husband's dislike of personal notoriety. Like him, she steadfastly refuses to be lionized and is little known to the public. It is said that she is practically his business manager and looks after money matters with the skill and shrewdness of a trained financier. It is intimated that she is quite competent to negotiate successfully with the sharpest of publishers and knows as well as they the value of products in the literary market.

She is quick to see the value of her husband's work as judged from a purely business point of view. If Mr. Kipling produces a dollar a word story, Mrs. Kipling knows it and knows better than he how to convince the publisher of its value. If it is a $2 a word production, she recognizes its value and is pretty apt to convince the publisher that it is worth that figure.

When a publisher wishes to negotiate for a Kipling story or poem, he must confront the shrewd and coolly calculating, but dignified and courteous, Mrs. Kipling, or the correspondence therefor must be conducted through her. She is said to be an expert bookkeeper and keeps accurate account of the earnings of his various productions. She looks carefully after the royalties, the copyrights and the thousand and one details of the extensive "Kipling literary plant."

Mrs. Kipling, who was formerly Miss Balestier, comes of old New England stock, the families of both her father and mother having long been prominent in Vermont. Her father, Wolcott Balestier, is a son of Joseph Navarro Balestier, who was for a time a successful real estate lawyer in New York and a man of many social charms and accomplishments. He was a great connoisseur in wines and one of the biggest importing houses in New York used to send him rare brands and vintages to sample that they might have his judgment upon their merits. He bought large blocks of real estate in and around Brattleboro, which have greatly increased in value.

MRS. RUDYARD KIPLING.

Mrs. Kipling is also one of the heirs of the large estate of the late Judge Peshine Smith, her mother's father, who was in many respects a most remarkable man. William H. Seward once said of him that he possessed a profounder knowledge of international law than any man then living. Upon Seward's recommendation the mikado of Japan employed Judge Smith to draft commercial treaties between that country and the great nations of the world. He remained six years in Japan and completed the commercial negotiations between that country and the United States as well as with other nations.

Mr. and Mrs. Kipling, whose domestic life is extremely felicitous, have two children, Elsie and John, their eldest daughter, Josephine, whom they were wont to playfully call their "international baby," having died during the time of Mr. Kipling's dangerous illness.

SAMUEL H. COON.

SUMMER NOVELTIES.

What Fashion Provides For Summer Wardrobes.

There are many attractive novelties in wash fabrics for chemisettes, bodices, the fronts of skirt waists and trimming purposes. These goods, which are sold by the yard, are of the finest nainsook or lawn, combined with valenciennes lace in various ways. In one case there are bands of finely tucked nainsook separated by bands of valenciennes insertion, beading or embroidery; in another the tucked bands are replaced by puffings; in another little frills of lace are sewed on the goods between the tucks. Colored batiste is sometimes used instead of white goods, and narrow strips of trimming of the same character are also shown. Embroidered swiss muslin trimmings are revived from the days of our grandmothers, and are as attractive as they are fragile.

After a season of retirement in favor of dark tan leather and kid, light tan shoes are again coming to the front and are to be worn with stockings of the same tint.

FOULARD GOWN.

Besides the usual laced low shoe, with a moderately heavy extension sole and a round toe, there are very attractive slippers with high heels, thin soles, a flap which comes over the top of the foot and a big, dull gold buckle. These are cool for summer wear and highly becoming to a pretty foot, although it is an open question whether tan or black stockings look better with them. There is a momentary fancy for tan openwork hosiery of fine lisle thread or silk.

The foulard gown illustrated has a skirt draped at the left side under three crystal buttons. The edge is bordered with russet guipure. The bodice has a yoke of russet guipure over violet taffeta, and is tight behind, while in front it is draped at the left side with a crystal buckle. The coquilles of the drapery are lined with violet taffeta and bordered with guipure. The collar is lined with puffings of white mousseline de sole. The tight sleeves have wrist frills of guipure, and the pointed belt is of violet taffeta. The hat of mauve straw is trimmed with a chou of tulle and a curling plume, the brim being lined with tulle ruches.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

FASHION HINTS.

Ruches, Boas and Other Attractive Novelties.

Neck ruches of flowers alone or of flowers mingled with gauze and ribbons are worn, and it is considered desirable to have the flowers match those in the hat, or be at least of the same color. Parma violets or the very dark ones, whole roses or petals of roses, camellias and large pinks, are the favorite flowers, and the ends of the boa are of plaited silk or mousseline de soie and bows of ribbon. Feather boas of mingled light and dark plumage are also much liked—some of the combinations being rose and brown, dark blue and light blue, red and white and gray and white.

A spring novelty for the neck consists of a valois collar lined with shirred silk or mousseline de soie and bordered with a fine garland or cord of flowers.

The employment of mousseline de soie is excessive. The mossy little ruches made of it which have been so much seen during the winter as a trimming for silk, satin and velvet, have now extended to woolen garments, and capes of heavy cloth are actually adorned with motifs designed of this perishable and fragile looking decoration.

NOVEL BODICE.

The bodice illustrated is of turquoise broche silk and is very tight fitting. It has a high, pointed corselet of black velvet, from the top of which bands of black velvet are carried obliquely across the bust and shoulders. These bands are fastened at the ends by steel buttons. The sleeves are of black velvet nearly to the shoulder, the upper part and a band at the waist being of the turquoise silk, crossed by velvet bands. The black velvet collar has flaring scallops at the top, and there is a black velvet cravat. Flaring cuffs of turquoise silk finish the wrists.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

Lokal-Nachrichten aus der alten Heimath.

Preußen.

Provinz Brandenburg.

Berlin. Im Jahre 1901 kann die Berliner Feuerwehr auf ein 50jähriges Bestehen zurückblicken. Es ist ein Komite in der Bildung begriffen, das zu diesem Zeitpunkt eine Internationale Ausstellung für Feuerschutz und Feuerrettungswesen in's Leben zu rufen beabsichtigt.—Die hiesigen Maurer haben beschlossen, am 1. Mai die Arbeit vollständig ruhen zu lassen, um für den Achtstundentag und die internationale Arbeiterverbrüderung zu demonstriren.—Hier starb der Professor der Chemie und Geheime Regierungsrath Dr. Karl Scheibler, bekannt durch seine Entdeckung des Strontianits, des rauchlosen Pulvers und durch sein in der Entwickelung der Rübenzucker-Industrie Epoche machendes Werk „Gehaltsermittelungen der Zuckerlösungen."

Köpenick. Auf dem Müggelsee sind die Ober-Sekundaner Walter Koeppen, Kurt Bünz und Albert Erber aus Berlin bei einer Bootfahrt ertrunken.

Landsberg a. d. W. Hier hat der Amtsgerichtsrath Meß durch einen Sturz aus dem Fenster Selbstmord begangen.

Schwiebus. Das Fest der diamantenen Hochzeit feierten in bester Gesundheit die Fabrikbesitzer-Eheleute Gottfried Rendler. Am gleichen Tage wurden zwei Enkel des Jubelpaares konfirmirt und die jüngste Urenkelin getauft. Als ein seltenes Ereigniß mag hierbei nicht unerwähnt bleiben, daß noch ein Zwillingsbruder des Jubilars lebt und derselbe, gleichfalls Urgroßvater des Täuflings, auch Mitpathe ist.

Provinz Hannover.

Göttingen. Das Sängerfest der vereinigten norddeutschen Liedertafeln wird nach nunmehr endgiltiger Feststellung in den Tagen vom 7. bis 10. Juli in unserer Stadt gefeiert. Zwischen 800 und 900 Anmeldungen liegen bis jetzt vor. Mit dem Bau der Festhalle wird zur Zeit begonnen.—Im Hainholz erschoß sich der Hörer der technischen Hochschule zu Hannover, Ingenieur Felix Funke aus Köln.

Bad Lauterberg. Die dieser Tage abgehaltene Reifeprüfung an der in weiten Kreisen bekannten hiesigen Ahn'schen Realschule hatte wiederum das günstige Ergebniß, daß wie bisher stets seit Bestehen der Anstalt sämmtlichen Prüflingen die Reife für den einjährig-freiwilligen Militärdienst zuerkannt werden konnte.

Provinz Hessen-Nassau.

Kassel. In einer vertraulichen Stadtverordneten-Sitzung wurde einem Antrage des Magistrats gemäß die Errichtung eines neuen monumentalen Rathhauses für die Stadt Kassel einstimmig beschlossen und der zur Ausführung der ersten Schritte erforderliche Kredit zur Verfügung gestellt.

Hanau. Die Strafkammer verurtheilte den Friedrich Trebing aus Frankfurt a. M., welcher am 25. Februar aus Unvorsichtigkeit seine Schwester, die Ehefrau des Kaufmanns Rühl, in ihrer hiesigen Wohnung mit einem Revolver erschoß, wegen fahrlässiger Tödtung zu sechs Monaten Gefängniß.

Wiesbaden. Im hiesigen Gerichtsgefängniß hat sich der Metzgerbursche Sondermann aus Furcht vor Strafe erhängt. Er war an einem unlängst verübten Ueberfall auf einen Handwerksburschen betheiligt.

Provinz Pommern.

Stettin. Auf Befehl des Kaisers hat Hausminister v. Wedel mehrere der Königlichen Familiengüter in Pommern mit ihrer Buttererzeugung dem Verkaufsverband norddeutscher Molkereien angeschlossen, um das ländliche Genossenschaftswesen zu unterstützen.

Bergen. Rentier Rebeski, ein alter Junggeselle, litt an Hühneraugen und besorgte sich das Schneiden derselben allein. Bald darauf schwoll der Fuß an und schließlich mußte Rebeski in das Krankenhaus geschafft werden. Die Blutvergiftung hatte nicht nur das Bein, sondern auch einen Arm in Mitleidenschaft gezogen, die schon so weit vorgeschritten war, daß dem Mann das kranke Bein unterhalb des Knies abgenommen werden mußte.

Provinz Posen.

Posen. Nach dem bisherigen Umfange der Sachsengängerei ist bestimmt anzunehmen, daß die heurige Abwanderung nach dem Westen noch größer sein wird als die vorjährige. Es dürften 50,000 bis 60,000 Menschen den Sommer über die Heimath verlassen. Die hiesige Landwirthschaft will in diesem Jahre eine sehr große Zahl galizischer Arbeiter beschäftigen.

Bromberg. Der Altsitzer Trawinski in Strelau gerieth mit seinem Sohn in Streit, wobei Trawinski seinen Sohn durch Messerstiche lebensgefährlich verwundete.

Crone a. Br. Die Friese'sche Brauerei ist total niedergebrannt; ein großer Vorrath an Gerste ist mitverbrannt.

ALEX. LUSARDI,
211 West Front Street,
Wholesale and retail dealer in foreign and domestic fruits, all kinds choice confectionery, nuts, bananas and cigars. California fruit a specialty. No branch stores 4 1 year

(A)
AMOS H. VAN HORN LIMITED
Note first name "AMOS" and No. "73" before entering store. Get off car at Plane St.
"Spring Openings"—so called—are common, HERE'S one in the Furniture and Carpet Line that proved
The Grandest Yet
—one that had a RIGHT to the name. Not another furniture and carpet house ever got together under its own roof a more elaborate, a more EXTENDED STOCK. Just think of our 3 great buildings given up to brand new Spring styles, ALL waiting for your choosing!
Prices as low as any Cash House, yet credit on your own terms.
Beautiful Souvenirs free to all lady visitors.

$7.69—a $15.00 Board, very much like cut, prettier if anything. The finest sideboard stock in all this city! Up to $125.

85c.
Antique Dining Chair, cane seat, brace arm—a $1.25 chair—others up $5.00 and $6.00—50 kinds.

Carpets—Beauties all of them—lovely Spring Colors, finest sort of weaves—and an immense variety—a 200-foot floor! Don't wonder these prices surprise: Good Ingrains, 26c. yard; very heavy Ingrains, 39c. yard; All-Wool Ingrains, 54c. yard; Brussels, 45c. yard; fine Velvets, 69c.
The stirring sale of 500 rolls of newly received Mattings is still on. China and Japan weaves—new colors.

$3.98
—antique oak—paneled sides finest sort of build, for it's a $5 make—with mirror it's $5.95—large lines of dressers, and bureaus, too.

$3.49
—upholstered body, tinsed steel wheels, with rod and parasol.

$4.98
—an $8.00 white enameled Bed, brass rails at head and foot. Brass centre ornaments and post mounts. There's one great dep't with nothing but white goods here! Beds, $1.95 to $65.

"The Domestic Sewing Machine"—The lightest running, longest wearing, surest make! Here—cash or credit.
NO "OPENING" COMPLETE WITHOUT AN EXHIBIT OF THE FAMOUS "PORTLAND RANGE." OVER 10,000 SOLD—NOT ONE AT FAULT!

Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd. 73 Market St., Near Plane St., Newark, N. J.
LOW PRICES—EASY TERMS.
Note first name "Amos."
Telephone 580. Goods delivered Free to any part of State.
CARFARE PAID TO OUT-OF-TOWN BUYERS.
A Private Delivery Wagon Sent on Request.

BOICE, RUNYON & CO.,
— DEALERS IN —
Lumber, Coal, Masons' Material &c
Our stock is under cover and we can always deliver dry stock. Agents for Adamant Wall Plaster. Orders solicited.
BOICE, RUNYON & CO.

SPECIAL SALE.
We will sell skirts and suits of our own make for this week at a price that will require no brass band to sell. An examination of our goods is all that is necessary. Ladies, as a rule, know where and when to buy. Our prices are lower than the lowest. For fit and make there are no equal in town. Call and inspect our stock.
Cloos & Richardson. LADIES' TAILORS, 325 W. FRONT ST

SPRING HATS,
SPRING NECKTIES,
SPRING SHIRTS
AT
JAMES R. BLAIR'S,
126 PARK AVENUE.

E. C. MULFORD, BROKER.
ARMSTRONG MULFORD, MANAGER.
169 NORTH AVENUE.
Bargains in REAL ESTATE, for sale or to let. MONEY to loan on first mortgage. FIRE INSURANCE—North America, of Philadelphia, Phoenix, of London, London and Lancashire of Liverpool, Queen of America. LIFE INSURANCE—New York Life
Telephone No. 673.

COAL
C is for coal, clean, cheery and cheap.
O is the order to lay in a heap.
A is the atmosphere warmed by its glow.
L is the light that starts it to go, and to get the best coal buy of Stevens & Co.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS.
THE DELINEATOR AND GLASS OF FASHION
For April Now Ready. Ask for the April Fashion Sheet.
Subscriptions taken.
A. L. & M. D. GORSLINE,
144 PARK AVE. PLAINFIELD, N. J.

5,000 FEET OF
MOULDINGS IN GILT AND HARD WOOD
Bring Your Pictures and Have Them Framed
At the PLAINFIELD ART GALLERY, Y. M. C. A. Building

Jersey Poultry
is the specialty of
SMALLEY BROS.,
144 North Avenue
Have you tried their
SAUSAGE
It is the best made in
PLAINFIELD

Elston M. French & Co.
Successors to VanBuren Bros.
Real Estate and Insurance.
Largest agency in the city. Loans negotiated.
168 NORTH AVENUE.
Opposite Depot

H. Eggerding,
131 Park Ave., Manufacturer of the Celebrated
C. O. D. CIGAR.
The best 5c cigar in the State, and made on the premises from the finest Havana. Clear Havana cigars a specialty. A large assortment of the choicest brands of domestic cigars

Central R. R. of New Jersey

Anthracite Coal Used Exclusively, Insuring Cleanliness and Comfort.

Stations in New York, foot of Liberty, and South Ferry Whitehall Streets.

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT NOV. 20th, 1898.

PLAINFIELD AND NEW YORK.

Leave Plainfield 2 14, 3 37, 5 37, 6 28, 7 00, 7 26, 8 00, 7 55, 8 00, 8 15, 8 30, 8 37, 8 48, 9 25, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 00, 1 15, 2 12, 2 25, 3 12, 3 45, 4 54, 5 37, 6 54, 8 21, 8 30, 8 45, 9 09, 9 39, 8 48, 9 15, 10 17, 11 28 p. m. Sunday, 2 14, 3 37, 5 59, 8 01, 8 52, 10 08, 11 10, a. m.; 12 m., 12 58, 1 45, 3 17, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 12, 8 32, 9 15, 10 22 p. m.

Leave New York, foot Liberty St. at 4 00, 4 30, 5 00, 7 15, 8 00, 8 40, 9 10 10 00 a. m.; 12 00 m., 1 00, 1 30, 2 00, 3 30, 3 45, 4 00, 4 40, 5 00, 5 15, 5 30, 5 45, 6 00, 6 15, 6 30, 7 00, 7 30, 8 00, 8 30, 9 15, 10 30, 11 45 p. m.; 12 15, 1 00 night. Sunday, 4 30, 7 00, 9 00, 9 15 a. m.; 12 m.; 1 00, 1 30, 2 30, 4 00, 5 30, 7 00, 7 30, 9 00, 10 00 p. m.; 12 15 night; 1 00 a. m.

Leave New York South Ferry from Whitehall St. at 7 10, 7 55, 8 35, 9 05, 9 55, 11 55 a. m., 12 55, 1 25, 2 25, 3 25, 3 35, 3 55, 4 35, 4 55, 5 25, 5 55, 6 10, 6 25, 6 55, 7 25, 7 40, 8 10, 9 10, 9 55, 11 40 p. m., 12 10 night. Sundays—At 6 55, 8 55 a. m., 12 00 m., 12 55, 1 25, 3 55, 6 40, 7 25, 8 55, 9 55 p. m., 12 10 night.

PLAINFIELD AND NEWARK.

Leave Plainfield at 5 37, 6 29, 7 00, 7 47, 8 13, 8 37, 9 25, 9 58, 10 37, 11 10 a. m.; 12 09, 1 15, 2 12, 2 25, 3 12, 3 45, 4 54, 5 37, 6 21, 6 45, 7 39, 8 45, 10 17, 11 28 p. m. Sunday 8 52, 10 08, 11 10 a. m.; 12 58, 1 45, 3 30, 5 41, 6 52, 8 32, 10 22 p. m.

Leave Newark at 6 15, 7 30, 8 05, 8 38, 9 08, 10 05 a. m.; 12 10, 1 05, 1 35, 2 40, 3 35, 4 02, 4 40, 5 04, 11 5 45, 6 19, 7 35, 8 10, 9 35, 10 05, 11 25 p. m. Sunday, 7 15, 9 05, 11 35 a. m.; 1 10, 2 45, 4 05, 5 55, 7 35, 9 15, 10 15 p. m.

Passengers for Newark please change car Elizabeth.

PLAINFIELD AND SOMERVILLE.

Leave Plainfield 5 18, 7 12, 8 19, 9 40, 9 54, 11 00 m., 1 01, 2 11, 2 27, 3 32, 4 35, 5 03 54, 6 04, 6 09, 5 19, 6 38, 7 12, 7 34, 8 21, 35, 11 28, p. m; 12 44 night. Sunday 5 45, 8 06 56, a.m; 2 03, 3 40, 5 00, 6 35, 8 30, 10 15, 11 14 p.m

Leave Somerville at 6 00, 6 30, 7, 7 27, 7 33, 7 45, 8 20, 9 15, 9 35, 10 15, 11 45, a. m; 12 50, 1 53, 2 05 3 20, 4 20, 5 25, 6 05, 6 05, 6 45, 8 22, 8 45, 11 05 p. m Sunday at 8 25, 9 45, 10 45 a. m; 12 35, 1 20, 5 15, 5 27, 7 53, 8 05, 8 45, 10 00 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND EASTON.

Leave Plainfield at 5 18, 8 19, 9 54 a. m., 1 01 2 7, 5 23, 6 38, 8 21 p. m. Sunday at 5 45 10 a. m; 2 08 6 35 p. m.

Leave Easton at 6 05, 7 01, 8 15, a. m; 12 36, 4 10, 5 10, 7 17, p. m. Sunday at 7 15, 11 22 a. m; 4 30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD AND LAKE HOPATCONG.

Leave Plainfield 7 12 a. m; 5 25 p. m.

WESTWARD CONNECTIONS.

5 18 a. m.—For Flemington, Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Pottsville, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

7 12 a. m.—For stations to High Bridge, connecting for stations on High Bridge Branch

8 19 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R R. Easton, Bangor and Mauch Chunk.

9 54 a. m.—For Flemington, D. L. & W. R R., Easton, Allentown, Reading, Harrisburg, Mauch Chunk, Williamsport, Tamaqua, Pottsville, Shamokin, Nanticoke and Upper Lehigh, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, &c., with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

1 01 p. m. way for Easton, German Valley and Chester, connecting at Junction for station on D. L. & W. R. R.

2 27 p. m. For Flemington, Easton, Bethlehem, Bangor, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamauqua, Sunbury, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton, with buffet parlor car to Mauch Chunk.

5 35 p. m., for Flemington and Easton connecting at High Bridge for stations on High Bridge Branch.

6 19 p. m.—For Flemington.

6 38 p. m.- For German Valley and Chester, Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, and Harrisburg and at Junction for D. L. & W. R. R.

8 21 p. m.—For Easton.

5 45 a. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Wilkesbarre and Scranton.

8 06 a. m. Sundays for Easton.

2 08 p. m. Sundays—For German Valley and Flanders, Easton, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Tamaqua, Sunbury, Lewisburg, Williamsport, Reading and Harrisburg.

5 09 p. m. Sundays—For Flemington.

6 35 p. m. Sundays—For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown, Mauch Chunk, Reading, Harrisburg, etc., and at Junction for D., L. & W. R. R.

FOR LONG BRANCH, OCEAN GROVE, ETC.

Leave Plainfield at 3 37, (5 37 for Sea Girt 9 18, 10:37 a. m.; 3 46, 6 21 p. m. Sundays, except Ocean Grove, 8 52 a. m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Perth Amboy, 3 37, 5 37, 8 13, 8 37, 9 58, 10:37 a. m; 1 15, 3 46, 5 37, 6 21, 6 30, 8 45 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a.m.; 3 30 p. m.

For Atlantic City, 3 37 a. m.; 1 15 p m.

For Freehold, 3 37, 8 13, 10:37 a. m.; 1 15, 3 46, 6 07 p. m.

For Lakewood, Toms River and Barnegat 3 37, 8 13 9 58 (Lakewood only) a.m., 1 15, 3 46 p. m. Sundays 8 52 a. m.

ROYAL BLUE LINE.

Leave Plainfield for Philadelphia, 5 17, 8 29, 9 44, 9 46, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 4 14, 5 09, 5 34*, 6 38*, 9 21 p. m., 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 54, 10 44 a.m.; 2 16, 4 55, 5 09*, 6 38* p m.; 1 17 night

For Trenton, 5 17, 7 12, 8 29, 9 46 a. m.; 1 01 2 16, 4 14, 5 34*, 6 38* 8 21, p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 5 45, 9 55 a. m.; 2 16, 4 55, 5 09*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Baltimore and Washington at 5 17, 8 44, 10 44 a. m.; 2 16, 5 34*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night. Sundays, 5 17, 10 44 a.m; 2 16, 5 09*, 6 38* p. m.; 1 17 night.

For Buffalo, Chicago and all points West, week-days at 9 54 a. m; 6 38 p m. Sundays 8 26 p m.

Plainfield passengers by trains marked) change cars at Bound Brook.

Through tickets to all points at lowest rates may be had on application in advance to the ticket agent at the station.

J. H OLHAUSEN,
General Superintendent.

H. P. BALDWIN,
General Passenger Agent

LEHIGH VALLEY RAILROAD

Time table in effect Feb. 5, 1899.

LEAVE SOUTH PLAINFIELD, N. J.

WESTWARD.

5 05 a. m. daily, 6 25 a 26 p. m. daily except Sundays. Easton local.

6 25 p. m. Sunday evening local for Mauch Chunk.

9 03 a. m. daily; Express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

11 03 a. m., 5 22 and 9 48 p. m. daily except Sunday. Local for Bound Brook.

12 03 p. m. daily except Sunday "Black Diamond Express" for Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

2 04 p. m. daily local for Easton and Wilkes-Barre.

4 56 p. m. daily except Sunday, express for Wilkes-Barre, Scranton, Pottsville, Hazleton, Shamokin, L. & B. Junction and principal intermediate stations.

7 05 and 9 22 p. m. daily, solid vestibule express for Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Chicago and principal intermediate stations.

9 02 p. m. Daily express for Easton, Bethlehem, Mauch Chunk, Sayre, Geneva, Rochester, Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Suspension Bridge, carries sleeping car passengers only, and no baggage east of Buffalo.

EASTWARD.

For New York and Brooklyn local 6 49, 7 40 and 9 40 a. m., 3 04 and 5 18 p. m. daily except Sunday Sundays 10 29 a.m., and 6 04 p.m. Express 7 06, 8 14, 10 09 a.m., 12 15, 2 50, 5 10, 7 07 and 9 06 p. m. daily except Sunday. Sunday 7 06 8 14 a.m., 2 50 and 7 07 p. m.

PERTH AMBOY BRANCH.

For Perth Amboy and intermediate stations 8 12 10 08 a. m., 5 22 and 7 26 p. m. daily except sundays. Sunday 10 29 a. m. and 7 06 p. m.

Trains leave Perth Amboy (State street) 7 12 8 26 a. m., 4 30 and 6 35 p. m., daily except Sunday. Sunday 7:13 a. m. and 5 42 p. m.

For further information call on or address the Ticket Agent, South Plainfield, N. J. Through tickets to all important western points may be purchased at the South Plainfield office.

Col. ROLLIN H. WILBUR,
General Superintendent.
S. Bethlehem, Pa.

CHAS. S. LEE,
General Passenger Agent
26 Cortlandt St., N. Y. City.

NEW YORK TERMINALS—Foot of Cortlandt Desbrosses and West 23d streets.

FRENCH

Plate glass mirror, oak mantel, complete with summer front, for $13 00. You can't equal it elsewhere.

CURTIS M. THORPE.

310-312 PARK AVE.

HURRAH! HURRAH! HURRAH!

Here we are, the largest and best equipped laundry in your state. We not only say this, but it is a positive fact. Our numerous laundries and branches are located in all the principal cities of the states of

NEW YORK, NEW JERSEY AND PENNSYLVANIA.

And can frankly say that the work turned out by each is appreciated by our numerous patrons. The introduction of

Our Celebrated Domestic Finish

has gained great fame. And still another great advantage is gained by your laundry coming to us, and that is, all your open front shirts are ironed by hand. Your collars and cuffs are turned and tipped in the proper way the maker intends them to be. Telephone or drop us postal. Will call and deliver free of charge.

City Steam and Hand Laundry

19 SOMERSET ST.

TELEPHONE.

Morey & LaRue, Proprietors.

PLAINFIELD N. J.

TEETH.

If you have any to be extracted remember you will not be hurt in the slightest. My local anæsthetic is the best that can be obtained and is not known to the other dentists in this city. Gas strictly fresh administered by an expert if you want that. If you need artificial teeth you may rest assured that the greatest care will be exercised in selecting shape and color to harmonize with the face, also to restore the features to their natural expression and fullness. This is most important.

Full Set (guaranteed)	$8
Bridgework	$5
Gold Crown, 22-k	$5
Gold Filling from $1 up
Silver Filling 50c. and	75c
Cement Filling	50c
Cleaning	75c
Extracting	25c
Painless Extracting	50c
Gas, first tooth	$1
Each one after	50c

DR. C. W. LEONARD,

FRONT ST. AND PARK AVE.

Entrance on Front St. PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Office Hours, 8 to 6.

J. C. STORM

Dealer in all kinds of

Choice Meats, Canada Mutton, Jersey Pork, Strictly Fresh Killed Poultry.

Game in Season. All Kinds of Bologna.

318 Liberty Street, near Fourth St.

RUSHMORE & CO.

WATCHUNG AVE. and FOURTH ST.

Dealers in

Lumber, Coal and Wood

Moulding & Planing Mill.

Turning and Scroll Sawing.

M. POWERS,

DEALER IN

LEHIGH COAL,

FLAGGING, CURBING, ETC.

Office 171 North Ave. [Telephone 67 A.

Yard 725 to 737 South Ave.]

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.

MONEY TO LOAN.

197 North Ave.

Wm. D. Thickstun. John P. Emmons

Telephone 601.

William Hand & Son,

STAGES

For Parties, etc. 518 Park avenue.

L. A. HUMMER,

Variety Market.

Meats, Fruits, Vegetables, Poultry, Eggs, etc. Goods called for and delivered.

163 SOMERSET STREET.

Formerly 220 Park Ave. Tel. 29 A.

Advertised Letters

Plainfield, N. J., April 10, 1899

Ackerman Miss Susan
Bantle Miss Johanna
Berry Mr John
Bolinger Mis Jos.
Brennan Mrs Eliza th
Brennan Miss Mary
Fifield Mr W B
Francis Mr A J
Goodhue Mrs Fred
Hanshaw Mr S W
Hoff Mr Elia J
Mates Mrs Manton
Miles Mrs
Musen Messrs F & F
Morris Mr C A
Peterson Miss Eliza-th
Phillips Mr H H
Sanders Mr J A
Schwartz Mr K
Smith Mr DeWitt
Steele Mr M
Stone Miss Mary
Volkman Miss M J
Walter Miss Lena
X Lerare P. O Box 18
Z Mrs

E. H. BIRD P. M.,
Plainfield, N. J.

THE SUPREME PONTIFFS.

There Have Been 263, With an Average Reign of Seven Years.

Leo XIII entered upon the ninetieth year of his age March 2 and the twenty-second of his supreme pontificate Feb. 20. Two hundred and sixty-two pontiffs have preceded Leo XIII, but of these only seven have occupied it for 21 years.

The average length of a papal reign is but little more than seven years. Ten popes died within a month after their election, and the shortest reign in the history of the papacy is that of St. Stephen II, which lasted only three days.

Of the 262 popes who preceded Leo XIII 88 have been canonized or beatified. Twelve popes have borne the name of Leo, and of the Leos five have been canonized as saints.

Leo X, the patron of Michael Angelo and Raphael and the great promoter of the revival of learning, was the youngest pontiff elected during the last 500 years, having been only 38 years of age, whereas the average age of popes at their election—at least during this period—has been about 60 years.

Of the 57 cardinals living 31 are Italian, 7 French, 5 Spanish, 4 Austria-Hungarian, 3 German, 1 Pole, 1 American, 1 Belgian, 1 Irish, 1 English, 1 Swiss and 1 Australian.

Pope Leo has created 117 cardinals, and during his pontificate 123 cardinals have passed away. Not a solitary member of the sacred college to which he was admitted by Pius IX, 46 years ago, is now living.—Freeman's Journal.

HERMITS OF ST. AUGUSTINE.

A Branch of the Ancient Order Established in New York.

Archbishop Corrigan has granted permission to the order of Hermits of St. Augustine of the Catholic Church to establish a branch in New York, and early in May the order will take formal possession of the convent at New Brighton, N. Y., which was built by the Sisters of the Visitation, but proved unsatisfactory for their purposes.

Mgr. Martinelli, until his appointment as apostolic delegate to the United States, was general of the Augustinians. The order is of great antiquity and was founded by St. Augustine, bishop of Hippo. Martin Luther was a member of their community. In the sixteenth century they possessed 3,000 friaries, with 30,000 friars. In England their most celebrated house was at Oxford. It was the home of Erasmus when he visited the university.

They were the first missionaries in our new possessions in the Philippines, where their friars are the numerical rivals of the Franciscans.

The first foundation of the order in the United States was made in Philadelphia in 1796 by Father Matthew Carr and Father John Rosseter. They commenced the erection of St. Augustine's church in September of that year. Among the subscribers to the building fund were George Washington and Stephen Girard. A member of the order, the Rev. Philip Larissy, according to the Catholic Almanac, celebrated the first mass in what is now the borough of Brooklyn.

A New Church in Rome.

The Dominican fathers in Rome, aided by the great and princely charity of the sovereign pontiff, are building a new Church of the Rosary in one of those extensive and rising suburbs of the Eternal City where priests and churches are few and the people sunk in the extreme poverty and wretchedness brought about by the grinding taxation and mad extravagance of the present usurping Italian government.—London Catholic News.

The Cell of St. Vincent.

The Lazare prison in Paris is not to be destroyed, as has been reported. Instead, it is being "restored" to preserve its ancient character as far as consistent with daily use. The prison was formerly a monastery. The cell in which St. Vincent de Paul passed the last 28 years of his life is still preserved as a chapel by the sisters of the Congregation de Marie Joseph.

Don't Blame God.

It is wrong to suggest that God is responsible for one's cheerfulness or despondency. God has given enough to every person to make him glad hearted if he will look at the things he has for which he ought to be grateful.

PERSONAL.

Bishop Wigger of Newark, N. J., is in poor health and has gone to Bermuda, where he will remain until April.

The Rev. Mother Digby, the mother general of the Society of the Sacred Heart, is now in America visiting the convents of the Sacred Heart in the United States and Canada.

The Rev. John W. Shanahan of Philadelphia, whom the pope has just designated bishop of Harrisburg, to succeed his brother, has for a long time been superintendent of the parochial school system of the archdiocese.

The Rev. Alexander V. Aschberg, S. J., of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Boston, has just been made the recipient of a medal from the emperor of Germany for faithful devotion to duty in the Franco-Prussian war of 1870.

Prince Maximilian of Saxony has been appointed curate in the chief Catholic church of Nuremberg, and, having put aside his title, will be known as Dr. Wettin. This is the surname of the family which has filled all the Saxon thrones since the fourteenth century.

The Rev. Father Thomas P. McLoughlin, the "singer priest" of the Church of the Transfiguration in Mott street, New York city, has set out to reclaim the unfortunate women of Chinatown.

Rev. Dr. Morrissey, president of the University of Notre Dame, Wisconsin, is on a visit to Rome.

ADVICE TO PARENTS.

INSPIRE YOUR CHILDREN WITH A LOVE OF VIRTUE.

Impress Upon Their Young Minds That This Life Is Not an End, but Only a Means by Which to Win Eternal Happiness in Heaven.

It were in vain that we endeavor to regulate the temper of children without the powerful aid of religion, which gives us just views of the objects around us and inspires dispositions corresponding to those views. The misfortune is that men are misled by false estimates; hence they discern not things as they really are, but suffer themselves to be imposed upon by the outward appearances. The best rule that parents can give to direct the judgment of their children is to impress on their minds this important truth: that we are here in this world only for a short time; that in the next we shall live forever, either happy in heaven or miserable in hell, and, therefore, whatever securely conducts to heaven is to be esteemed good, but whatever turns us from it and leads us to hell is evil and to be avoided in like manner; whatever puts us in danger of losing heaven, whatever makes the way to it more difficult, is not valued nor eagerly sought after.

If children were taught to bring all worldly objects to this test, they would then, make a true judgment of their value. But if, on the contrary, they consult only the world instead of the gospel, their judgment of things will be just the reverse, and they will consider the objects of pleasure, of avarice and of pride as alone worthy of their esteem and pursuit.

In order to elevate the minds of children above sensual objects parents and instructors should often recall their attention to the following great principles of religion

You believe in a God infinitely powerful, but do you pay him that respect and obedience which you owe him?

You believe God to be infinitely just and that he hateth sin. How, then, can you expect that your sinful actions will escape his terrible vengeance and indignation?

You believe God to be infinitely good. But what do you do to testify a grateful sense of his love toward you and induce him to bestow on you new favors and blessings?

You allow that you would not be a Christian if you doubted the mystery of the incarnation—that is, the mystery of God the Son being made man?

You believe that his infinite love brought him down from heaven to suffer and die on the cross in order to cleanse us from sin, to deliver us from hell and to open to us the kingdom of heaven, but the same divine faith likewise teaches that we must humble ourselves and deny ourselves and carry our cross after the example of our crucified Lord. And how, then, can we flatter ourselves that we are truly his disciples if we are so afraid of the least humiliation and suffering and so impatient under them?

By what means can you hope to partake of the merits of Christ's precious blood if you profane it by remaining in sin and neglect those holy sacraments which he ordained for the sanctification of our souls?

You wish to go to heaven. But how can you expect to gain that glorious kingdom if instead of loving God you suffer your heart to be enslaved by brutal passions and lusts?

When you do good actions, are diligent in Christian exercises, are sober, modest, etc., all this is highly praiseworthy and entitles you to the esteem and applause of men. But must this be the only or chief motive of such like actions? No, certainly, for in this case you would receive your recompense in this world. The practice only is Christian, which proceeds from Christian motives. Wherefore, a good Christian should always raise his views higher and perform his actions with the intention of pleasing God, his Creator. If you do so, God will accept your good actions as done for himself and will reward them accordingly.

In order to inspire children with a love of virtue the parent should endeavor to describe it in all its charms, and, on the contrary, paint in lively colors the ugliness and deformity of vice and the terrible judgment of God which will sooner or later fall upon the guilty sinner. Finally let parents often pray to God to give their children a teachable and good disposition, without which all their instructions will be to no purpose. Except the Lord build the house they labor in vain that build it.

Crowned With Golden Roses.

In St. Louis, on Jan. 31, the golden anniversary of Sister Vincentia's entrance into the Order of the Visitation was celebrated in the chapel of the Visitation convent. A solemn pontifical mass was sung by Archbishop Kain. After the mass Sister Vincentia was crowned with a wreath of golden roses by Archbishop Kain, who pronounced these words: "May this occasion be a day unto you of salvation and an hour of unceasing happiness."

After the ceremonies a procession was formed, headed by the class of '99. Next came a dozen girls and then Sister Vincentia, who wore her golden crown. Next came Archbishop Kain, followed by visiting priests. The procession proceeded to the dining room, where dinner was served.

What the Other Ones Were.

At one end of a long street in a west of England town stands the parish church, and at the other end is a Roman Catholic chapel. The character of the services in the parish church is decidedly "high"—indeed ultra ritualistic—and on a resident asking the Roman Catholic priest wherein the difference between the churches lay he replied, "We are papists, and they are apists."—London News.

NATIONAL CAPITAL.

A MEETING BETWEEN THE PRESIDENT AND SPEAKER REED.

Work on New York Harbor Defense—Situation at Manila—Talking of the Vice-Presidency—The Per Capita—Increased Consumption.

The meeting at Jekyl Island in Georgia of President McKinley and Speaker Reed was an interesting one, and is taken to mean that there is to be no Republican opposition to the re-election of Mr. Reed. The friends of both gentlemen persist in the statement that there is no political significance to this meeting of the two most influential officials of the nation. The meeting was arranged, it is said, with the idea of bringing about more cordial relations between Mr. Reed and the President. When Mr. McKinley passed through Brunswick he was greeted by a crowd of three thousand persons, who cheered him enthusiastically until the Colfax pulled out into the stream. At Valdosta and Waycross also the President was enthusiastically greeted by large crowds.

Proved Untrue.

The announcement of the death of John Sherman was not very much of a surprise to those who have known of his increasing infirmities. He went to Cuba on an excursion which took a large number of sightseers to the island on the steamer Paris, and was taken seriously ill in Santiago harbor.

Ex-Secretary John Sherman.

Happily the news of his death proved untrue, and at this writing there is some hope of his recovery. Mr. Sherman is one of the very few men now living who were in public life during the civil war, and until a year ago he retained his great influence as a public man, especially in his own State of Ohio. Few men have been more in the public gaze than Mr. Sherman has, and none that we recall have had a more varied and successful public career.

System of Defenses

If at any time during or previous to the Spanish-American war a hostile fleet had attempted to bombard New York and Brooklyn it would have found easy access through the eastern end of Long Island Sound. Now, however, such a fleet would meet with a hot reception. At last awakened to the importance of closing that open gate, the government has designed a system of defences which makes it practically impossible for an enemy to force his way through the channels.

The outer line of defences for Greater New York is now really completed. Plum, Gull and Fisher's islands, until now desolate, barren stretches of rock and sand, have been made a breastwork at the Sound approach. The government, realizing at last their important strategical position, has protected the most vulnerable entrance upon the metropolis, and the War Department defies an enemy, no matter how well equipped, to pass through the fire which can be trained from these three narrow strips of land.

It is generally agreed in the military world that had the United States been at war with England or with France, instead of having Spain to contend with, a fleet would have swept through the narrow passage at the eastern end of Connecticut and laid under contribution all points as far, surely, as Throgg's Neck. New Haven and Bridgeport, where are manufactured all manner or ordnance, would have been rich prey.

Many Obstacles Overcome.

The laying of emplacements in the rock and sand and gravel of these three islands has required all the skill and patience at the command of Major Leach and his assistants. Many obstacles have been encountered and overcome. When the war with Spain began, orders came to proceed uninterruptedly and with all possible haste with the mounting of the big guns. In one instance, there was no time or opportunity to erect a protecting sea wall so great was the pressure from Washington; and even now there remains one gap to be filled in of the bulwark against the water raised after peace was declared.

From Manila.

The information from Manila is to the effect that the efforts to bring peace both on Panay and Luzon give promise of success. There is apparently a steadily growing inclination on the part of the natives to cease fighting and become amenable to American authority, but the war spirit is kept alive by Aguinaldo and his immediate following and by a party of filibusters, who regard peace as a check to all freebooting. The natives under arms are insubordinate, being without pay, on very short rations and uninspired by love of glory or country. They are being kindly treated by our forces whenever taken or surrendered, and such good will is having as beneficial an effect as the force of our arms. It seems, then, that the situation in the Philippines is slowly but surely improving.

The Per Capita.

The "Statistical Abstract of the United States," with its interesting and suggestive per capita deductions for 1898, has appeared. It gives the population as 74,389,000. In 1868 the population was 36,973,000. The amount of money in existence in the United States by this latest official compilation is $35.39 for each inhabitant, an increase of $1.14 per capita in twelve months. In 1868 the money of the country was $19.38 for each person. There has been but one year in the thirty when the country had more money in proportion to population. That was 1892, when the per capita was $36.21. The money now in actual circulation, $24.71, exceeds the proportion of any previous year in the history of the country. The public debt, per capita, reached low-water mark in the last year of the Harrison administration, being then reduced to $12.86. The second Cleveland administration put out bonds to protect the gold reserve. An issue by the present administration for war purposes further swelled the debt, until now the per capita is $12.81. The interest on the public debt is 51 cents for each person. In 1868 it was $3.48.

Notwithstanding all that has been said about extravagance in pensions, the amount in proportion to the population is not burdensome. It is now $1.98, considerably less than it was five years ago and about what it has been for three years past. Pension expenditures increased much more rapidly than the population up to ten years ago. It was 65 cents in 1868 and $1.33 in 1888.

Increased Consumption.

Increased consumption follows increased ability to consume. It is a good index of prosperity. The United States patronage of the post offices was greater last year than ever before. It reached $1.20 for each person. In 1868 it was 44 cents. Consumption of raw cotton reached 25.26 pounds; wheat and wheat flour, 4.21 bushels; corn and corn meal, 22.73 bushels; sugar, 61.1 pounds; coffee, 11.45 pounds; tea, .91 pounds, whiskey, 1.10 gallons; beer, 15.64 gallons; wine, .28 gallons; wool, 5.34 pounds. In 1868 the per capita consumption ran about one-half of these amounts in sugar and coffee and cotton goods. The use of corn and corn products by Americans has increased very notably, while the consumption of wheat in proportion to population has decreased. Free trade is a dead issue. The tariff now amounts to $1.96 per person. That is lower than at any time since the war, save only during the first year of the Gorman-Wilson law, when it was $1.90. In 1868 the tariff amounted to $4.34 per capita. An interesting fact is that the people paid a smaller per capita of tariff in the first year of the Dingley law than during the two years preceding of the Gorman-Wilson law. Taxes on liquors and tobacco last year amounted to $2.30 per person. In 1868 the average was $5.17.

Talking of Roosevelt.

Senator William E. Chandler, of New Hampshire, made one of the most significant statements that have thus far touched upon the Republican campaign of 1900. It was to the effect that Governor Roosevelt might be nominated for second place on the ticket. "There is serious talk in Washington," he said, "about the advisability of running Governor Roosevelt on the Republican presidential ticket. For second place, I mean, because, of course, there is no possibility that President McKinley will not be renominated."

"How about Hobart for renomination?" Mr. Chandler was asked.

"Every Senator is thoroughly pleased with the Vice-President," was the reply. "There is the highest regard for him. But, the point about choosing Governor Roosevelt in his stead is that, with Roosevelt on the ticket, there would be every probability of carrying the city of New York and even the State. Roosevelt, many believe, would greatly strengthen the ticket."

A Disappearing Gun.

As to trusts, the Senator also had something to say.

"The remedy for trusts," he said, "is in the legislatures of the various States. To prohibit combinations of business of the same kind when such combinations would be injurious to the public good, all that would be necessary would be for State legislatures to tax them. Tax their capital stock, tax their bonds, and above all tax franchises. If such a course were adopted trusts could not exist. I do not mean to tax them unfairly. With a reasonable tax properly levied they would soon cease to exist."

The new Madrid cabinet finds it necessary to economize in every direction in order to make up for the mistakes of the Spanish army and navy in firing in every direction.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

It seems to be felt in Paris that the forthcoming exposition will exert a strong influence toward the suppression of revolutionary projects. Until the year 1900 is ended it will give the Parisians something as amusing as a revolution.—Chicago Record.

Flynn Bros.,

SHOE DEALERS,

222 WEST FRONT STREET,

Near Music Hall,

PLAINFIELD, N. J.

We can fill your shoe wants with comfort, economy and service. Goods selected from the best manufacturers, whose goods

Have stood the test for years.

LAIRE'S

SPRING AND SEASONABLE GOODS.

Garden Wheel Barrows.
Garden Tools, all kinds.
Garden Seeds, all varieties.
Lawn Seed.
Lawn Dressing.
Fertilizers, all kinds.
Lawn Rakes.
Ask to see the finest family scale made, for $1.50.

TELEPHONE CALL 682.

THE J. P. LAIRE HARDWARE CO.

WASHINGTON

VIA

OLD POINT COMFORT

is the most attractive short trip at this season of the year.

STEAMSHIPS OF THE OLD DOMINION LINE

PERFORM DAILY SERVICE.

Through tickets returning from Washington by rail or water.

For full information apply to

OLD DOMINION S. S. COMPANY,

Pier 26, North River, NEW YORK.

W. L. Guillaudeu Vice-Pres.,
& Traffic Mgr.

Ladies Desiring . . . .

KNIFE-PLEATING OR PINKING

done will please leave orders with Mrs. Chas. Brownell, 0 Watchung avenue, and it will receive prompt attention.

THE CRESCENT HOTEL,

corner Somerset and Chatham streets, North Plainfield. Regular and transient boarders.

RUDOLPH SPEIGEL, Proprietor

L. MORALLER & SON

Watchmakers and Jewelers

HAVE REMOVED TO 219 PARK AVE.

Next to Armstrong's Drug Store.

COLLIER,

SCIENTIFIC OPTICIAN.

Established 1869.

103 Park Avenue

Your Valuables,

will be safe in

Doane's Safe Deposit Vault.

Lock boxes from $3.50 to $10 a year

HENRY J. WIERENGA,

Furniture and Freight Express.

Prompt attention given to all orders left at Blair's Pat Store, 126 Park avenue.

E. S. F. RANDOLPH,

DRUGGIST,

Cor. Liberty and Fourth Sts. Telephone 781.

PRESCRIPTIONS FILLED DAY OR NIGHT.

H. HAND,

Licensed Auctioneer.

OFFICE—Corner South Ave. and Berckman St.

REAL ESTATE and FIRE INSURANCE.

JAUNTY MILITARY GIRLS.

A NEW ORGANIZATION AMONG THE BOROUGH'S FAIR SCHOLARS.

First Drill in the Schoolyard Yesterday Afternoon Performed Creditably—To Drill Regularly in the Future

A number of the young women of the Borough Public School have formed themselves into a semi-military organization and will meet frequently for drill. Yesterday afternoon for the first the young people met in the schoolyard, and for about one hour gave a very creditable exhibition of the ability to go through the several movements in military drill. There were a number of people present to watch the drill. Among those who take part in the drill are Miss Margaret McCutchen, Miss Curtis, Miss Sadie Howell, Miss Maude Honeyman, Miss Elsie Brokaw, Miss Ball, Miss Belle Milne, Miss Wells, Miss Marjorie Howard and several others younger in years.

All of the girls exhibit a liking for the drill and show a willingness to learn the tactics. Hereafter regular drills will be held with a view to attaining perfection. Mr. Fetzer, who drills Leal's cadets, has been engaged to drill the young women, and he was much gratified with the success attained yesterday

THE OLD MEN'S CLUB.

Asbestos Club Reorganizes Under a New Name.

The Asbestos Club is no more. Last night it went out of existence, and immediately the members organized themselves into the Plainfield Social Club. The same members that made the old Asbestos Club such a success will remain identified with the new club, but the rooms are to be fitted out in elaborate manner, carpets are to be laid, new furniture will be purchased, and the quarters made suitable to bring their wives and lady friends to at any time.

The officers elected last night were James Merritt, president; James Paul, secretary; and William Cosgrove, treasurer. The same rules will govern the new organization, and it is expected to make the club one of the most popular ones in the city.

A Pleasant Surprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard VanArsdale, of Orchard place, were pleasantly surprised last evening by a few friends. Music, playing of games and a social time in general was passed, and a bountiful repast was also served. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thorn, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Green, Lena Green, Mrs Phebe Moore, Mrs. Harry Green and daughter Viola, the Misses Sadie and Anna Searing, Mr. and Mrs. VanArsdale, Howard VanArsdale, Elmer Rutan, and Mr. and Mrs. George Hoffman, of Dunellen.

Reception for Church Choir.

Rev Father Smythe gave an informal reception to the members of the choir and the ushers of St. Mary's church at the Plainfield Catholic Club house, last evening. There were twenty-four present. Progressive euchre occupied the first part of the evening. Then came a supper and after that the guests spent the remainder of the time very pleasantly with singing and dancing.

Hedge on Fire.

A cedar hedge on the property occupied by Edward Perrin, located on Grandview avenue, near Watchung avenue, caught fire this morning at 11:05 o'clock and an alarm was sent in from Box No. 143, corner of Somerset street and Grandview avenue. The department responded at once but was not needed.

Meetings at Hope Chapel.

The Gospel meetings which are being conducted by Rev. Mr. Taylor, at Hope chapel, this week, are proving very succcessful. Last night the attendance was large and the leadership of Rev. Mr. Taylor is popular Tonight special services will be held and a large attendaece is desired.

Fire in a Chimney.

Second Assistant Chief Jennings and the Gazelle hose wagon were summoned to the residence of Mrs. Margaret Carney, 303 Central avenue this morning at 10 o'clock. There was a fire in the chimney that alarmed the household, but it quickly burned out.

Look in the Closet,

See if you can't find some old clothes, put aside because faded or spotted. We want you to bring any clothes of that sort to us—we'll clean them or dye them and make them wearable.

HILLIER & CO.,

129 West Front Street, Opposite White's. 'Phone 851.

A NEW TROLLEY ROUTE

UNCERTAINITY ABOUT FRANCHISE IN ROSELLE MAY MAKE A CHANGE.

A New Line Being Surveyed, the Idea Being to go Around Roselle and Connect With Newark by Irvington Line.

(Special to The Daily Press)

Westfield, April 13.—Ties have been delivered, rails will be on hand Saturday, and the laying of rails will be commenced on the Westfield and Elizabeth Street Railway next Monday at Garwood, where the graders are now at work.

In view of the uncertainity concerning the action of the Roselle Borough Council on the franchise for the street railway, and the possibility of the franchise being refused, engineers have been put at work doing the preliminary surveying for a cross-country line to go around Roselle. The idea is to strike off from South avenue, about half way berween the Rahway river in Cranford and Aldene station, bridge the Central Railroad, and take a straight line for Irvington, there to connect for Newark and New York.

This change would make the distance between towns along the railroad and Newark two miles shorter than by way of Elizabeth, and would open to travel a part of Union county that is unhandy to reach at present. The people along this proposed line are anxious for it, and are trying to have the company put it through, irrespective of the action of the Roselle Council.

AN EVENING MARRIAGE.

Miss Marguerite Flack and Frank Pope Take Nuptial Vows.

Last evening at 7:45 o'clock took place the marriage of Miss Marguerite Flack, niece of Robert Armstrong, of East Fourth street, and Frank Pope, of Manning avenue. The marriage was performed by Rev. Floyd Appleton, curate of Grace P. E. church, at his home on Crescent avenue.

The bride was gowned in white organdie over white silk, and she carried a bouquet of bridal roses. She was attended by Miss Clara Armstrong, her cousin, who wore a gown of white organdie over pink, and carried pink roses. The best man was Clifford Compton, an intimate friend of the groom.

They have gone to housekeeping at 64 Race street, in a newly-furnished home.

DEATH OF EDWIN SEWELL DRYDEN.

Made His Home With J. Meredith Dryden for Past Five Years.

The death of Edwin Sewell Dryden, of Watchung avenne, occurred at 1 o'clock this morning after a few days illness. The deceased was born in Baltimore, August 14th, 1815. He was a son of Major Joshua Dryden, who served in the War of 1812.

For the past five years Mr. Dryden has been making his home with his nephew, J. Meredith Dryden. The deceased was about eighty-four years of age.

The funeral services will be held tonight at the house, and will be in charge of Rev. J. W. Richardson, of the Park Avenue Baptist church. Interment, which will be private, will be in Baltimore.

—The directors of the Plainfield Building and Loan Association will be held this evening in the office of W. R. Codington, on Park avenue, corner of Second street.

—Fred Endress, the butcher, of 131-135 West Front street, desires to inform the public that this is his only place of business. He has disposed of his two shops in the West End, one on Muhlenberg place and the other on Liberty street.

To Cure a Cough in One Day
To Cure a Cold in One Day
To Cure Sore Throat in One Day
To Cure Hoarseness in One Day

Take Cleveland's Lung Healer, 25c. Trial size free. If it fails to cure, your money will be refunded. T. S. Armstrong, the apothecary, corner Park and North avenue.

Mrs. Grover Cleveland, at Princeton, N. J, said:

"Mr. Naylor, the carpet cleaning you did for me is entirely satisfactory."

A. F. Naylor,

Bedding Factory & Store,
'Phone 931 23 Somerset-st.

SPRING CLEANING

will soon be here, and while cleaning up your homes do not forget to clean your system.

Hepburn's Blood Purifier

for the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys, will do this in a satisfactory manner. Money refunded if it don't do what is claimed for it. We have made and sold it the same way for the past 14 years.

THE CENTRAL PHARMACY, HEPBURN & CO.

Cor. Park Ave. and Second St. Telephone 671.

FRIDAY AND Saturday SPECIALS AT S. SCHEUER & CO.'S, 239 and 241 West Front Street.

Best Family flour per 24½ lb bag, 49c.
Best XXXX Minn. flour per 24½ lb bag, 55c.
Fancy Selected Lemons, per doz 10c.
Fancy Selected Naval Oranges, per doz. 20c.
Extra Large Salt Herring, per doz. 15c.
New Salt Mackerel, each 8c.
2 lb Brick Codfish, per brick, 13c.
Uneeda Biscuits, per p'k'ge. 4c.

Fancy Broilers or Roasting Chickens, 16c lb.
Hindquarters Genuine Jersey Lamb, 14c lb.
Foreshoulders Lamb, 7c lb.
Plate or Brisket Corn Beef, 4c lb.
Sugar Cured Cal. Hams, 6c lb.
Home Made Bologna or Head Cheese, 8c lb.

FREE! FREE! FREE!
One Cake of Scheuer's Sweet Chocolate Given Away Free With 1 Pound of Our Self-Clarifying Coffee at 27 Cents Per Pound.

LADIES'

OXFORD TIES, $1.00 to $3.00

Our Spring stock of Ladies Oxfords have arrived. They always have been nice. This Season they are more so than ever All the new, Stylish Shapes. If you ride Bicycle or play Golf, our Welt Sole Tan Oxford will suit you.

A. WILLETT & SON

107 Park Avenue.

STILLMAN MUSIC HALL!

MAZE EDWARDS, Lessee and Manager. Telephone 722.

Two Grand Performances, Matinee and Night

Saturday, April 15, 1899.

The Great Singing Comedian,

MR. J. E. TOOLE,

And his Competent Company of Players, in the Romantic Comedy Success of Three Continents,

"Killarney and the Rhine."

Interspersed With Comedy, Pathos, Original Music, Songs and Dances, Special Scenery and Elaborate Costumes.

Prices—Matinee, 25c and 50c. Night, 25c, 35c, 50c and 75c. Reserved Seats Now on Sale.

Y. M. C. A. STAR COURSE.

Prof. Livingston Barbour.
IMPERSONATOR.
Monday, April 17, - 8 P. M.
Admission 25 Cents.
4 11 6

GRAND BAZAAR

in aid of
St. Joseph's Church, North Plainfield, will be held in
Saengerbund Hall
SOMERSET STREET,
Wednesday, Thursday and Friday Evenings,
APRIL 12, 13 AND 14.
Art Gallery, Refreshments, Music.
Admission 10 Cents.
4 11 4

STATIONERY LESS THAN COST.

The entire stock of R. C. Rand has been removed from West Front St. to

37 SOMERSET STREET,

Thorn's Block, where it is being closed out at less than cost in order to settle with his creditors. There are many bargains left. Come and get them. A. B. THORN, Assignee
4 7 6

This is a money-back store.

EXTRACT VANILLA 75c PER HALF PINT

Extracted From Selected Mexican Bean

POWERS Prescription Pharmacy

Somerset St. Craig Pl.

MANICURING, 25 CENTS.

REMOVING CORNS, 25c.
SHAMPOOING, With Massage, 50c.
M. V. Stickle, 149 E. Fifth St.

SCIENTIFIC MASSAGE.

MISS HOLMES.
440 West Front Street.

GEO. W. COLE,

UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER.
200 W. SECOND ST. TELEPHONE 153.
OFFICE OPEN DAY AND NIGHT.

H. DeMOTT,

UNDERTAKER AND EMBALMER.
Residence and office 89 Somerset St.
TELEPHONE 248 B.

DIED.

DRYDEN—Entered into rest at midnight, April 12th, Edwin Sewell Dryden, in his 84th year.
Interment, Baltimore, Md.

JOHNSON—In this city, Wednesday, April 12, 1899, Phebe A., wife of John Johnson, in her 71st year.
Funeral private. 4 12 2

WANTS AND OFFERS

GIRL wanted for general housework. Apply at 14 Craig place.

A BARGAIN—Lot 60 x 175, house, 9 rooms; all improvements; stable; good order, must be sold; price $3 000. Mulford, Broker, opposite Depot 4 13 2 eod

FIRST-CLASS laundress wants day's work. 210 West Fourth St.

—George E. Angleman will lead the East Third Street Mission meeting this evening.

FOR SALE CHEAP—Goat, wagon and harness. Address F. A., care Press. 4 12 2

WANTED—Seamtress work; will go out by the day; $1 25 per day. A. T., Box 195. Dunellen, N. J. 4 12 4

WANTED—Financial backing and Manager for my several inventions Inventor, care Press. 4 12 2

MAPLE and cherry trees for sale reasonable, 18 feet high. immediate shade. Address Owner, care Press. 4 11 3

LOST—Young brindle bulldog, white maskings. Return to E S Hooley, 70 Rockview avenue; liberal reward. 4 12 2

COOK stove for sale cheap. 72 Jackson avenue. 4 12 2

WANTED—Pure cow manure, state quantity and price. 739 West Eighth street. 4 12 2

FOR SALE—Three Shetland ponies, carriage and harness. Box 61, Westfield, N. J. 4 12 6

110 JACKSON avenue to let, first floor; barn if needed. 4 12 2

GENTLEMAN can have furnished room, with first-class board in small adult family, centrally located; price moderate. Address Home, care Press. 4 13 2 eod

FOR SALE—In Plainfield, N. J., a very desirable residence conveniently located to both station and stores; 14 rooms; city water; good sewerage; electric lights; large piazza; stable; large lot with trees and shrubbery. Will be sold at a bargain, owner's business necessitating his removal Inquire E C Mulford, Real Estate office, Plainfield, opposite Railroad Station. 4 13 6

LOST—Gold pin, fitted with pearls. Reward if returned to this office.

YOUNG lady would like position as stenographer and typewriter, or general office work. Address R., care Press. 4 13 3

WANTED—Position at general housework, or as upstairs girl. 913 West Third street. 4 13 2

TO LET—Half of house, improvements; small family; $12 615 East Second street. 4 13 3

FOR SALE—2½ story brown stone, 11 rooms; Bedford section Brooklyn; in good repair, $7,500 equity $2,000; will exchange for modern cottage, Plainfield or vicinity, not over $5 000. Address W. B., care Press.

WANTED—Strong young man to work in house, around place, and take care of a horse. Address Active, care Press.

EXPERIENCED cooks and chambermaids, want situations. Office 216 West Second street. 4 13 2

$18,000 TO LOAN. Robert M Clark, Attorney, 109 East Front street. 4 10 4

BARN to let, Second street, near Watchung avenue. Apply at Daily Press office. 3 13 tf

FIRST-CLASS help and first-class places at the Swedish Intelligence office, 22 Somerset place. 3 23 tf

NINE ROOM HOUSE to let all improvements, East Second street. Enquire Wm. Newcorn, 204 West Front street. 2 21 tf

TO LET—Four nice rooms. Apply 611 Liberty street 4 11 6

FOR SALE—At a great sacrifice 100 shares of Class E Stock of the Mercantile Co., Operative Bank, maturity value $100 each share, on which shares has been paid $225 00. Apply VanZandt & Voorhees, Park avenue. 4 6 tf

10 CRAIG place, boarders wanted, private family. 4 10 6

ST. Joseph's Home, conducted by the Sisters of Mercy, 43 Manning avenue. First-class places furnished and reliable help secured for those desiring girls. Dressmaking, sewing and embroidery done at the home. Pupils for piano instructions received at any time. 11 9 tf

TO RENT—The new dwelling house, 929 Madison avenue; has all the modern improvements throughout Street macadamized to curb. Apply to John M. Whiton, 821 Central avenue. 3 17 tf

6 ROOM house, new, near Netherwood station; to let or for sale. Sherwin's shoe store. 3 22 tf

WANTED—Houses to rent from $15 up. Elston M. French & Co. 2 1 tf

FOR SALE CHEAP—Sofa, 50 years old, (good as new) covered with oiled boiled leather. C. H. Schermerhorn, Babcock Building. 4 12 3

WANTED—Horse for light driving, for keep during summer months. Address Good Care, care Press 4 11 3

HOUSE for rent, 505 Watchung avenue, all improvements, 3 minutes from station. Inquire Neuman Bros., grocers. 4 11 6

DESIRABLE rooms, with good board. 62 Sandford avenue. 4 10 6

FOR SALE OR TO LET—A nice house, newly painted and papered, 7 rooms; city water; 10 Stone street, N. P., $16 00 J. B. Bovey, 237 Somerset street. 4 11 6

HANDSOMELY furnished rooms, with board; new apartment house. 122 Watchung avenue. 4 11 tf

SARDOU'S GREAT PLAY "DIPLOMACY," For Charity, Music Hall, Saturday evening, April 29th, at 8. Reserved Seats 50c, 75c, $1, $1.25. Armstrong's Drug Store. Every seat in hall gives good view of stage. Acoustic properties all right when house is full which is now assured. 4 7 td

BOYS' KNEE PANTS.

One Thousand Pairs of Knee Pants Sold in Three Days.

The stock of knee pants which we have recently purchased of Jos. Klein & Co., of 216-218 Broadway, New York City, were slightly damaged by water only, you could hardly tell when you look at them.

But having bought them at 20c on the dollar we have marked the prices on them so low that there is hardly a customer comes in but what carries away from ½ to 2 dozen pairs. We have re-assorted all the styles and sizes and marked them down lower than ever so as to dispose of the balance of the stock in the next three days.

All 50c knee pants marked down to 20c; 65c and 75c knee pants at 30c; all the knee pants of the 85c and the $1 kind at 38c; the $1.25 and $1.50 knee pants will go at 49c.

Every pair of these knee pants are guaranteed not to rip and are perfect fitters; in fact they are the finest stock ever shown in Plainfield. Over 1,500 pairs to choose from. Come and get your choice as they may all be gone soon.

Our regular men's and boys' clothing sale goes on as usual.

New York Clothing Co.

M. Weinberger, Manager. 214 West Front St., next door to Music Hall, Plainfield, N. J.

OPENING DAY, SATURDAY, APRIL 15, 1899, for the sale of desirable Villa Sites and building plots on easy terms in Somerset Park, North Plainfeld, New Jersey.

High Class Property in every respect. Church, School, 100 feet wide avenue, Electric Lights, Sidewalks, Ornamental Trees. A profitable investment. Real Estate Agents invited. Office on property for information. Main Office 2155 Seventh Avenue, New York.

Take Somerset Street Trolley to Somerset Park.

FURNITURE.

Closing out sale still going on. Every article a bargain. Can name a few prices only:

Towel Racks	25, 50, 75c, $1 &c
Fancy Tables	50, 75c, $1, 1.25 &c
Clothes Trees	65, 1.25, 2.75, 3.50 &c
Gold Chairs Upholstered seat	3.25, 4.75 &c
White Iron Beds Brass Trimming	3.25, 3 50, 4.00 &c

PACKER,

West Front St Corner Madison Ave.

F. L. C. MARTIN CYCLE CO.

SELL BICYCLES CHEAPER THAN OTHERS RENT THEM.

Terms: $1 Down, $1 Weekly.

108 and 110 EAST FOURTH STREET. (Near Park Avenue.)

CYCLISTS' CALENDAR
Sun Rises 5:23 a. m.
Sun Sets 6:37 p. m
Bicycle lanterns must be lighted at 7.37 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.
Showers Tonight. Fair and Cooler Saturday. Ther. 70.

ESTABLISHED MAY 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, N. J., FRIDAY, APRIL 14, 1899. TWO CENTS A COPY—$5 A YEAR.

MAKING PLANS FOR THE NEW REGIMENTS.

Probably Will Be Four, All up to The Hull Standard.

GEN. SEWELL TO COMMAND.

COLONEL GILMORE WILL BE MADE ONE OF GOVERNOR'S STAFF.

First to be Located in Newark, the Second and Third in Camden and Trenton, and the Fourth in Jersey City — Plan to Retain the Gun and Cavalry Organization in This State.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, April 14.—Now that the last of the New Jersey troops have been mustered out of the National service, the talk of reorganizing the Guard upon more modern plans has been renewed. The matter has been under discussion for some time by Governor Voorhees, Adjutant General Stryker and Major-General Sewell.

The plan most favored is said to be the reduction of the number of regiments to four. Under this plan Gen. Sewell is to remain in command, Col. Cooper, of the Seventh, is to be elevated to the command of the Second brigade, and, unless he wishes otherwise, General Wanser is to remain brigadier of the First brigade. The First regiment is to be located in Newark, having the present First regiment as its base. To this will be added the two companies in Orange, now a part of the Second regiment, and also those in Montclair, and perhaps others.

The Second and Third will be located in Camden and Trenton, respectively, and will be formed out of the regiments and companies now located in the southern part of the State. The Fourth will have headquarters in Jersey City and will be composed of the present Fourth, a portion of the Second, and possibly the Elizabeth companies of the Third.

By consolidating and enlarging companies and the reduction of the number of regiments the companies are to be brought up to the Hull bill standard. The regimental organization is to comply with that law in every measure possible.

There has been much talk as to where a place would be found for Colonel Quincy O'M. Gilmore, who comanded the Fourth regiment during the war.

It is said Governor Voorhees will appoint him to his staff, and that later he will be appointed by the Federal Government as instructor of the National Guard for this State.

The plan to retain the gun and cavalry organizations is welcomed by all, as with these remaining and the Naval Militia on its present good footing the State would be able to answer any call that the Government might make upon it.

It is also proposed to make the conditions of enlistment for new men more strict, and to comply as nearly as possible with the United States standards.

PROFIT IN BICYCLES TOO SMALL.

Directors of the Eldridge Company Decide to Wind Up Its Affairs.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Newark, April 14—The directors of the Eldridge Bicycle Company, which ran a branch store in Plainfield, decided at a recent meeting to wind up the affairs of the concern and a meeting of the stockholders has been called for May 10 to take action on the matter. There will be no opposition to the proposed step, according to the president of the company, William E. Zimmerman.

"The only reason for the decision to dissolve the business," he said Wednesday, "is that it was concluded that there was too little profit."

The Eldridge Company was organized in 1894. It then had the agency of one of the largest bicycle manufactories in the country. In 1897 this agency was relinquished. Since then the company has handled a wheel bearing its own name.

Played Quoits.

At the meeting of Paughcaughnaughsinque Tribe of Red Men Wednesday, two pale faces were adopted, one new member was re-instated, and there were four applications for membership. The latter part of the evening was spent in playing quoits, in which Voorhees and Osment beat Bush and Scribner.

At VanEmburgh's.

New shirt waists, 49c., 69c., 89c., 98c. Satin stock collars, 10c. Belts, 10c., 15c., 25c Bicycle suitings, 12c. Dress ginghams, 7c. Bleached table damask, 29c. House gowns, $1. Colored skirts, $1.00.

—Press want ads bring results.

FINE MUSIC WAS HEARD

SUCCESSFUL ENTERTAINMENT IN BOROUGH PUBLIC SCHOOL.

Last Part of the Programme Was Devoted to a Japanese Scene—Musical Instructor Lewis Was in Charge.

One of the best entertainments ever given in the North Plainfield Public High School took place last evening under the direction of Charles S. Lewis, musical instructor in the school. Those who took part in the entertainment were scholars in the school and their efforts were most creditable.

The programme was most all of a musical character. Part first was devoted to the rendition of several well-known songs by the scholars in the High School. The songs given were "Hail, Columbia," "Upidee," "The Happy Miller," 'Quadrilles," "Kentucky Babe," "Sylphs' Dance," and a Recessional. Every song was well rendered and elicited hearty applause from all.

The programme in part second was as follows: Recitation, "Aunt Melissie," Miss Isabel Milne; song, "Here we Come with a Hop," Frank Emmons, Clarence Hand, Frank Whitely; song with violin obligato, "Spring," Miss Agnes La Boyteax, George Smith; song, "Polliwog," Miss Millie Giese; piano solo, Miss May Conroy. There was also a milkmaid's drill in part second, which was given by older scholars. Each number in this part was very well received and many encores were given.

The last part was devoted to a Japanese scene. The selections, mostly musical, were pretty, some of them being from the opera "The Mikado." The platform was arranged in Japanese style, and the young women and girls were attired in Japanese dress.

The programme opened with a selection by the entire chorus of girls, then followed a selection, "Three Little Maids," by the Misses Isabel Milne, Aimee Emmons and Rita Pond. The next number was a song "Lady Picking Mulberries," by Miss Bessie Martin, and a pleasing selection was the "Mikado and Katisha," by Frank Bach, Ben Schuck and Edna Bowers. This was followed with a very pretty parasol drill by the girls, after which Miss Bessie Martin sang with good effect "Braid the Raven Hair." A number that made a decided hit was the singing of "Two Little Japanese Dolls," by Clyde MacDonald and Marion Mager, two little tots, who were obliged to repeat the song.

The next number was the singing of "He's Going to Marry Yum Yum," by Miss Aimee Emmons, assisted by the chorus. This was greatly enjoyed. The last selection was the "Good Night Chorus" by the entire chorus.

Credit is due Miss FanFleet, who presided at the piano, and to Mr. Lewis, for their efforts to make the affair a success, also to all who took part for their untiring efforts. The proceeds will be devoted to purchasing new music for the High School and there is no doubt now but what it will be secured.

New Trading Stamp Store.

The Newark Trading Stamp Company, the original, will open their handsome new store at the corner of Central avenue and West Second street tomorrow. This company is here to stay, and they invite the public to call and see the handsome stock of goods that can be had in exchange. On the opening day there will be given one dollar's worth of stamps free as a souvenir to everyone who calls with their stamp book. In another column appears the advertisement of the company.

Getting Points for "Diplomacy."

One of the boxes for the perfomance of "Diplomacy" at the Montauk Theatre, Brooklyn, last evening, was taken by Former Mayor William L. Saunders, of Rockview avenue, who took over to Brooklyn a party of those who are to take part in the performance of that same play in Plainfield, April 29th. The party included Mr. and Mrs. W. L Saunders, Miss Waring Miss Cooley, Miss Wickersham, P. H. Pinckoffs, Laurens H. VanBuren and Arthur Murphy.

Serving Notices.

Marshall Campbell, of the borough, is now busily engaged in serving notices on delinquent taxpayers who cannot be found in the usual way. According to law four days grace is given to pay up and in case of failure the delinquent can be arrested and locked up.

Hose Wagon Repaired.

The No. 2 hose wagon was not on duty yesterday at fire headquarters. The tires on the wheels had become loose, and it was necessary to shrink them on the wheels again before they were used much more. The wagon is now ready for anything.

—Use Press want ads.

FORMAL CLOSING OF THE Y. M. C A GYM.

Will be Held Thursday Evening of Next Week.

THREE YEARS' WORK SHOWN

IT WILL NOT BE AN EXHIBITION OF FANCY GYMNASTICS.

Instead the Visitors Will be Given an Idea of Exactly What is Taken up in the Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium—A Social Time Arranged for Two Weeks Later—Fencing to be an Attraction This Season.

Now that outdoor exercise is once more convenient, the interest in the work at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium is fast lessening. Cycling, baseball, golf and the other outdoor sports utilize most of the energy heretofore devoted, during the winter months, to indoor athletic and gymnastic work. Thursday evening of next week will see the formal closing of the gymnastic season at the Y. M. C. A.

The exercises that Physical Director C. E. A. Heywood have planned for that occasion, are not intended to form an exhibition of expert gymnastics but rather to show just exactly the kinds of work that are taken up in the local gymnasium. There will be the first year or beginner's work, the second year and the third year, which will include the most advanced gymnastic exercises practiced here.

While the exhibition Thursday night will really be the formal closing of the gymnasium for the summer season, the gymnasium itself will remain open all summer and most of the classes will be continued for a time at least, or until the attendance becomes so small that it is deemed best to give them up. One of the new things planned for the spring season in the gym is the taking up of fencing. There has been a single stick drill in progress for some time but now the members who care to, are to be taught how to handle the foils.

Two weeks from Thursday a social evening for the gymnastic members of the association is being planned. Then an informal programme will be given for the benefit of those who have taken part in the work in the gym this winter. It will be followed by the serving of light refreshments.

SAYS ALL WILL BE MADE GOOD.

M. V. Andrews Declares His Protested Checks Were Due to a Mistake.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 13, 1899.

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—I understand that you have given notice that checks of mine have gone to protest. I beg to inform these were lately, but will be made good. This was not from any fault of my own, as these things happen in many ways. I have had cashed in your own city over $2,500 checks of my making. I am very sorry that this last mistake happened, but all will be made good.

M. V. Andrews.

Delinquents Paying up.

It is very gratifying to the officials of the borough to learn that many persons affected by the Watchung avenue improvement are taking advantage of the 6 per cent. inducement and are rapidly settling their accounts. This is also true regarding the enforcement of the law regarding the payment of poll and personal tax. Judging by the way that delinquents are paying up it does not look as though any arrests would be made by Collector Brown.

More Gas for Somerville.

The Somerset Lighting Company, of Somerville, is laying pipes on its new mains. The new receiver, located on on the east end of the ball grounds, is now in use and gives a capacity for 65,000 cubic feet of gas where the capacity was limited to 15,000 before. The new machines for making gas are in full operation and old machines are still in place to provide against any possible breakdown.

To Make Application for License

James Loughlin, of this city, has made application to the Somerset County Courts for a license to sell spirituous and fermented liquous in North Plainfield Township at the place where he run a dancing platform last season, and the people living in the vicining are preparing a strong remonstrance to present to the court asking them not to grant the license.

Sociable at Congregational Church.

The members of the Women's Association of the Congregational church have prepared a sociable for this evening for the members of the congregation. It will be held in the church parlors. There is no extensive plan of entertainment, but an enjoyable programme will be given and refreshments served.

STOLE A SUIT OF CLOTHES

THEODORE TRENDLE GETS HIS WARDROBE AFTER MUCH TROUBLE.

William Chester Confesses to Have Taken It Out of a Closet Where the Owner Left It—Held for Grand Jury.

Wm. Chester spent most of yesterday and all of last night in the station house because the temptation to steal a suit of clothes from Theodore Trendle, man-of-all-work in an East Front street saloon, was too much for him to resist. When arraigned before Justice Nash this morning he pleaded guilty, and unless he can furnish $100 bail he will have to go to Elizabeth to await the action of the Grand Jury.

Trendle bought a new suit of clothes Wednesday, and instead of taking them he placed them in a closet in the saloon until night. He forgot them that night, and Thursday morning they were gone.

Trendle had noticed Chester hanging around the closet the day before, and at once suspected him of being the thief. Going out on the street Trendle confided his suspicions to Officer Flanigan, and while they were talking over the circumstances, Chester walked out of another saloon.

Trendle charged Chester with taking the suit of clothes, but the latter denied it. Chester was locked up, and finally confessed to Roundsman Flynn that he had sold the clothes to Wolff, the tailor, of 58 Somerset street, for $2 50. The police made a visit to the tailor and found the clotes there. Wolff gave them up to the police at once, after hearing the story, and is out his money, as Chester had spent a part of it, and the remainder the police confiscated.

WON A MEDICAL HONOR.

FRED HUGHES APPOINTED TO STAFF OF ST. VINCENT HOSPITAL.

He Stood First in a Competitive Class of Sixty Students in the College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York.

A great honor in the medical profession has been secured by Fred Hughes, of the borough. This week he passed the best examination in the contest for hospital appointment at the College of Physicians and Surgeons in New York. Mr. Hughes won first honors in a competition among sixty students. As a result Mr. Hughes has been appointed to St. Vincent Hospital in New York.

The second honors were won by George Ryder, of East Front street, who also entered the competition. The final examinations will be held next month and in June the two Plainfield young men will be graduated from the College.

It is seldom that these honors come to New Jersey, and the winner of first place deserves great credit for it represents a great deal of ability. This examination is one of the severest given to students.

Commencement Honors.

The honors for the Commencement at the Plainfield High School this year have been decided at a meeting of the class of '99. The class was allowed to select the valedictorian and salutatorian from among those eligible to the places by their high rank in studies during the four years. Miss Helen Hall will be valedictorian and Wm. A. Fisher salutatorian.

Cakewalk Contest.

A prize cakewalk followed the entertainment of Lucetta Council Wednesday night, in which three couples took part. They were Miss Annie Hart and James Burke, Miss Mamie Higgins and John Goff and Miss Sorensen and her brother Jep Sorensen. Mr. Goff and partner won the prize, a silk umbrella.

Apportionment of School Tax.

The State Board of Education has completed the apportionment to the counties of the school fund for the year 1899. Somerset's apportionment is $55,568.09. She will pay out $1,250. Her per capita census is $7.20; per capita enrollment, $9 92; amount per teacher, $427.44.

Burned in a Huge Crescent.

The brush on the mountains was on fire last night. It has been a long time since so much of it have been ablaze at the same time, and the sight attracted attention. The fire burned in the shape of a huge crescent, and a thick pall of smoke hung over the spot all night.

Received New Regalias.

At the meeting of Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., held last evening ten new members were elected, and the council received the handsome regalias won by them at the recent Daughters of America fair.

Senator to be Guest of Mayor.

Senator Reed will be the guest of Mayor Smalley at the performance of "Diplomacy," to be given in Music Hall, Saturday evening, April 29th.

COSTLY EXPERIENCE IN FREE ROOM RENT.

Corporal Rentlinger Loses His Money and Valuables.

ROBBED IN SCHORB'S HOTEL.

ACCEPTED HOSPITALITY MUCH TO HIS SORROW.

The Soldier's Friend Got Up in the Night and Looted the Former's Pockets and Then Locked Him in the Room—Police Notified This Morning and Hope to Catch the Thief.

Corporal Bernham Rentlinger, of Company L, Fourth New Jersey Volunteers, went to the police this morning with a story of having been robbed last night in Schorb's Hotel by a fellow lodger with whom he shared a room. The full name of the suspected thief is not known, but the police have a good description of him, and expect to capture him.

Rentlinger has been with his regiment every since last summer, and has been all through the South. He was discharged a few days ago, and although Plainfield is not his home he spent some time here before his enlistment, and so came back.

While walking around yesterday Rentlinger met this man whose surname is Stevens, whom he had known slightly before he went away.

The two men spent sometime together, and when they parted Stevens invited Rentlinger to share his room in Schorb's hotel.

This Rentlinger agreed to do, and the two parted. When bedtime came the two met again, and retired according to Stevens' plans. Stevens had been to the hotel early in the afternoon and hired a room, so nothing was thought of the two men going upstairs together.

Rentlinger says that when they got in the room, Stevens told him that he slept there all the time, and to prove it opened a trunk that happened to be in the room belonging to a lady boarder. He pulled out a quantity of clothing and said it belonged to his wife.

When Rentlinger awoke this morning his fellow lodger was gone, and when he tried to get out of the room found the door locked. Attracting the attention of a boy passing, Rentlinger was released. Then looking through his pockets found that all his money, amounting to $11, a revolver, a nickle watch and a medal presented to him while in the Carolinas, were gone.

The police were notified. Mr. Schorb says the man came there and hired a room for the night, telling him that there would be two to sleep there. Stevens is well known in the city, and it will be easy tracing him, the police say.

A QUIET WEDDING.

Miss Elizabeth C. Cashmen Becomes Mrs. Peter M. Christiansen.

Miss Elibabeth C. Cashmen, of Lyman place, and Peter M. Christiansen, were married last night at 7 o'clock by Rev. Joseph McKelvey, pastor of Warren chapel. The ceremony was witnessed only by the members of the two families.

Miss Juliet Grisly acted as bridemaid, and Thomas Brown as best man. The bride wore a traveling dress of a light grey color, and carried a bunch of pink roses. The bride maid was dressed in pink flowered silk, and also carried pink roses.

After the ceremony a wedding supper was served. The happy couple left the city on a late train to spend their honeymoon. Upon their return they will occupy a house on West Third street, which the groom has furnished throughout. The groom is an employe of the Plainfield Street Railway.

The couple received many handsome presents, including the usual assortment of silverware, china and other household articles.

A Demonstration.

At Woodhull & Martin's two demonstrators are giving an exhibition of the "Zaza" waving and curling pins. In the use of them only one pin is required to wave or curl the entire head of hair and ensures the most beauiful wave or curl without fear of rusting or discoloring the most delicate blonde or white. No pins are left in to hurt or feel uncomfortable.

New Central Engines Cause Changes.

The large new freight engines lately placed in service on the Central Railroad have made it necessary to move many poles and signals along the road, and in several instances alter depot platforms. The width of the engines is greater than that of the old ones.

TO GO TO HIGHER COURT.

LITIGATION BETWEEN BARD COMPANY AND RUNYON NOT ENDED.

Lawyer Murphy Criticises Justice Mosher for His Decision and Says the Case Will be Taken to a Comp tent Court.

The litigation between the defunct Bard Cycle Company and Editor Runyon, of the News, is not at an end yet, according to the following statement furnished The Press by Lawyer Murphy. As will be seen Mr. Murphy pours a little hot shot into Justice Mosher for the decision which the latter rendered in the matter:

To the Editor of The Daily Press:—My attention has been called to an article in the News, entitled "Tables Turned Upon the Bard Company," announcing the victory secured by Lawyer W. S. Angleman for his client, F. W. Runyon, editor of the News, in a suit brought by the Bard Company to recover the costs of the recent trial of property in which the verdict of the jury was given against Mr. Runyon.

Representing the Bard Company, I consider it my duty to endeavor to correct the erroneous impression which the public may entertain in regard to the standing of the Bard Company in this matter.

The facts are briefly as follows: Mr. Runyon, acting under the advice of his counsel, Mr. Angleman, refused to pay the costs awarded against him before Justice Mosher, and suit for the same was brought before Justice Mosher; not from choice, but for the reason that both Justices Nash and Moffett had already passed upon the matters in controversy, and there was no other alternative but to bring the case before Justice Mosher or the District Court at Elizabeth. This last course was not taken in order to save expense to all parties.

Before Justice Mosher the Bard Company, as plaintiff, proved its right to recover the cost, but the defendant, Mr. Runyon, filed a set off claiming allowance for a bill which he had but recently placed in judgment against the Bard Cycle Company, a different corporation. The decision rendered by Justice Mosher is an outrage upon law and justice, and although carefully prepared as published I recognize the effort of the lawyer who assisted the justice in its preparation. Justice Mosher made a gross blunder at the very beginning of the proceedings. The action is a statutory one and was brought "in debt," but, notwithstanding that, the papers handed him by us were properly prepared, issued a summons "on contract," and although his attention was called to this fatal descrepancy by counsel upon both sides, he refused to discontinue the case.

The absurdity of the decision can not be remedied by an appeal by reason of the fatal defect in the proceedings caused by the justice's blunder, for if judgment was rendered for the Bard Company it could be set aside in the higher courts. Mr. Runyon now claims two judgments, one against the Bard Cycle Company and one against the Bard Company for the same bill. No further comment is necessary other than that the matter will be taken before a court of competent jurisdiction for final settlement.

C. L. Murphy.

BAZAAR GOING ON SUCCESSFUL.

St. Joseph's Church Women are Meeting With Success.

The attendance at the bazaar now being held in Sangerbund Hall, under the auspices of the women of St. Joseph's church, was very largely attended last evening and all the booths did a good business. Garret Kiely won the handsome statute of "St Joseph" that was contested for. This evening all the other contests will be decided. There was a large number of people to take advantage of the dancing during the evening and everything passed off smoothly. The bazaar will continue this and tomorrow evenings, with additional attractions.

P. T. Bogart's Father Dead

J. B. Bogart, aged 65 years, of Brooklyn, father of P. T. Bogart, of the borough, died at his home last Monday after an illness of one week. The cause of death was paralysis. The funeral service was held from the late home Wednesday evening and interment was in the family plot, Hackensack, this morning. A widow and six children, five of whom are married, survive him.

To Elect Trustees.

A special meeting of the Board of Governors of the Park Club will be held Saturday evening when the Governors will appoint their representatives on the board of trustees of the Park Golf Club. As soon as they are appointed, the trustees will get together and formulate plans for the season for the club.

CITY OFFICIALS IN REVIVAL MEETINGS.

Judge Runyon and Councilman Andrews at Hope Chapel.

THEY LEAD IN SINGING.

EVANGELIST TAYLOR IS INTERESTING AND SUCCESSFUL.

A Special Effort Made to Interest Young People—The Bible is an Open Book to Mr. Taylor and He Quotes Scripture Liberally and Effectively—Novel Subject for Tonight.

All during this past week a series of evangelistic meetings have been held in Hope Chapel. The services are in charge of F. E. Taylor, a young man, but one thoroughly devoted to the work he is engaged. So far the meetings have been well attended, and much interest has been shown in every service.

Last night's service was a special one to induce the young folks to attend, and the result was gratifying. The entire front of the chapel was filled, and the interest was all that could be desired. Two city officials are among the workers, City Judge Runyon, who presides at the piano, and Councilman Andrews, who leads the singing. There is also a large chorus choir to assist.

Mr. Taylor's methods of conducting a revival are similar to those used by all successful evangelists. He believes in plenty of singing, and chooses spirited hymns, with harmony in them. He is an earnest speaker, and talks rapidly and without notes. He seems to have the entire Bible by heart, and finds no difficulty in quoting from it at any time.

His subject last night was "The Sweetest Word in the Bible." He read for the Scripture lesson the last chapter in Revelations, in which is the description of the Holy City, and which also contains so much of warning and so many invitations. The sweetest word, according to him, is the word "come," which is found three times in the seventeenth verse of this chapter, and over 1,900 times from Genesis to Revelations. He said it was God's greatest desire to have men come to Him, and said the one reason for Christ's coming into the world was to show the way clearer to them.

Mr. Taylor urged his hearers to look up from the worldly things on which their eyes were fixed, and to yearn for those heavenly things, which are so easy to attain.

Tonight Mr. Taylor will take for his subject, "Life or Death, Which?" The subject promises to be a novel one and no doubt the speaker will handle it in a characteristic way.

During the service Miss Kline sang a solo, "Ashamed of Jesus?" As she sang without the piano accompaniment, the effect was solemn.

ADULT CLASSES ENTERTAINED.

Hope Chapel Women Acted as Hosts for Older Sunday-school Scholars.

Last evening at Warren chapel an enjoyable event took place when the Ladies' Aid Society gave a supper and reception to the adult classes of the Sunday-school. The chapel looked very attractive. While supper was being served a music box furnished by Miss Lovell discoursed sweet music which gave added pleasure. There were in all ninety persons present. The affair was in charge of Mrs. A. V. D. Honeyman, as president of the society and assisting her were Mrs. J. A. Gavett, Mrs. Edward Taylor, Mrs. J. O. McKelvey, Mrs. Robert Cook, Mrs. J. Sutton, Mrs. Stiglitz, while the teachers of the various classes acted as waitresses.

During the reception those present joined in the singing of familiar hymns, while short and appropriate speeches were made by Joseph W. Gavett, Rev. J. O. McKelvey, Robert Cook and Mr. Strong. A vein of humor was evidenced by all. Instrumental music was also furnished by Mrs. J. O. McKelvey.

Crushed by Cars.

Lemuel Grippen, a Lehigh Valley conductor, was instantly killed while drilling cars at Whitehouse Station Tuesday. He was standing on a box car, when he slipped and was thrown between the cars. With rare presence of mind he rolled one side, where he was crushed between the depot platform and the trucks. His father was killed on the Central 20 years ago.

American Locomotives for Wales.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

Paterson, April 14.—The Cooke Locomotive Company of this city has received an order for five American locomotives for the Barry Railway at Wales.

—Press want ads pay.

THE PALACES AND TEMPLES OF ANCIENT EGYPT

had their walls shining with gold and sparkling with precious stones, but modern art has contrived to design decorations of a less costly character in the beautiful designs and refined colors and shades of Wall papers, friezes, etc., such as Woolston & Buckle keep in their varied and elegant stock at such tempting prices.

Woolston & Buckle,
PAINTERS AND DECORATORS
141 North Avenue.

ROGERS.
232 West 2d St.
Seafood for Health
Always
Desirable
when direct from the nets.

M. E. STEPHENSON.
146 NORTH AVE.
Weddings, Dinners and Receptions supplied with every requisite. China, Glass, Linen and Silver to loan.
ESTIMATES
cheerfully furnished. Telephone orders will receive prompt attention.
TELEPHONE 624.

A. H. ENANDER,
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for sewer connections
210 PARK AVE.

PHILLIP SWAIN,
ARTISTS' MATERIALS, PICTURES, FRAMES and LOOKING GLASSES.
811 West Front street.

THE GRANDVIEW
Meat Market
George Egel, Manager.
Dealer in Fresh and Salted Meats. Game season. Orders called for and delivered promptly. Cor. Grandview ave and Somerset street.

HOTEL KENSINGTON
(Licensed)
J. H. Staats, Prop'r.
107, 109, 111 NORTH AVENUE.
EVERYTHING NEW AND UP-TO-DATE.
AN INSPECTION SOLICITED.

SOMERSET HOTEL
Somerset St. and Lincoln Place.
North Plainfield, N. J.
W. F. DREYER, Proprietor.
AMPLE ACCOMODATIONS FOR MAN AND BEAST.

B. B. Maynard,
NEW SHOP
NEW FURNITURE
BEST SERVICE
Tonsorial Artist . . .
Also CHOICE CIGARS.
141 North Avenue. Plainfield, N. J.

NEUMAN BROS.,
GROCERS,
Watchung Ave & Fifth street.

A FIRST-CLASS GROCERY STORE.

John G. Bantle,
428 WATCHUNG AVENUE.
First-class
TAILOR
SPECIALTY OF
Ladies' Tailor-made Garments
Riding Habits and Bicycle Suits.

DOBBINS. CIGARS.
108 NORTH AVE.

SENATOR QUAY'S TRIAL

Employes of the Peoples Bank on the Stand.

PLUM TREE LETTER SHOWN

Opposing Counsel Reach an Agreement As to the Mode of Procedure in Identifying Evidence—Former Teller Taber Called to the Stand—Indications of a Long Trial.

Philadelphia, April 14.—According to indications the trial of ex-Senator Quay on the first of the indictments charging conspiracy to misuse the funds of the State deposited in the People's Bank is likely to continue into next week. It is believed, indeed, that the trial will not be over when the Legislature adjourns on April 20. The second and third days of the trial ended in legal deadlocks, and when court opened for the fourth day no one believed that the case would have progressed far by nightfall.

The prosecution had succeeded in having identified the books and papers found in Cashier Hopkins's desk. After a long wrangle the prosecution had also been successful in getting admitted into evidence five letters and two telegrams alleged to have been sent to Hopkins by M. S. Quay, and a letter alleged to have been sent to President McManes of the People's Bank by State Treasurer Haywood. The first five letters related to stock transactions, as did the telegrams, one of which contained the famous phrase about shaking the "plum tree." The letter to McManes referred to a deposit to be made in the People's Bank, which was not to be checked against until Richard R. Quay had arranged for the payment of a loan of like amount to the deposit.

It was said before court reconvened yesterday that an agreement had been made by which the bank's books would be identified separately and briefly by the former employes of the bank who had had to do with the entries in the books. The exact method of identification was not, however, outlined, and it was stated by one of the counsel for Quay that this was going to be the defence's day.

It was 10.30 o'clock before the active business of the day was begun by Mr. Rothermel calling to the witness stand Albert L. Taber, formerly receiving teller of the People's Bank. Mr. Taber testified as to his connection with the bank from 1884 and what his duties had been. He said that he had been a messenger until February, 1888, that from then till May, 1891, he made entries in the L to Z individual ledger, and that thereafter, until September, 1896, he made entries in the A to K individual ledger. From September, 1896, he had been receiving teller and had kept the receiving teller's books.

"Were your entries made in the regular course of business," asked Mr. Rothermel.

"I object," interrupted Mr. Shields. "That is for your Honor and the jury to decide."

The District Attorney said that he wanted to know what was the custom of the bank. He was instructed to alter his question and he went after the information in another way. The witness testified as to the way in which he received his information for making entries.

"Your books balanced?" asked Mr. Rothermel.

"Oh, yes," replied Mr. Taber; "they always did in the end," and a laugh ran round the court room.

Mr. Taber went on to say that other persons in the bank sometimes made authorized entries in the books in his charge; Mr. Hopkins sometimes made entries. The "Scratch book"—the book of original entries of deposits—the witness considered his own during the time he was receiving teller. On cross-examination the witness testified that Cashier Hopkins made entries in the cash book, general ledger, discount book, foreign and domestic bill books, cashier's book and check book. Mr. Hopkins had access to all those books at all times.

Mr. Taber's direct testimony was to the effect that the entries which he made were all on the dates of the transactions to which they related, but on cross-examination he testified that he made many entries from slips handed over by other persons in the bank, and that he knew nothing of the truth or falsity of the transaction to which any slip related. He could not even swear as to the truth or falsity of transactions recorded by checks which he saw and from which he made entries.

"There were errors in the bank's books?" interrogated Mr. Shields.

"Yes; clerical errors," replied the witness. His testimony on cross-examination was to the effect that he had no knowledge of events back of his record of them, and that he could swear only to his records.

"Mr. Hopkins had general direction over the clerks, and the system of bookkeeping was his?" asked Mr. Shields.

"Yes."

"Can you tell about how many of the books of the bank are missing?"

"From fifty to 100."

"How many were burned?"

"I don't know."

"You were present when the books and papers were taken out of Mr. Hopkins's desk?" asked Mr. Shields.

"I object," said Mr. Rothermel. "The witness did not testify to that."

"I wanted only to elicit some testimony regarding the letters already put in evidence," said Mr. Shields, as he accepted Judge Biddle's ruling sustaining the objection.

Mr. Taber then read a list of books which he said were missing from the bank.

"When did Mr. Hopkins die?" asked the District Attorney.

"On March 24, 1898," was the answer.

The dull and dready proceedings were in line with the purpose of the prosecution to prove the identity of the entries made in the books of the bank in the regular course of business, in order that these entries might be made a matter of evidence. The defence endeavored to show that the knowledge of the bookkeepers of the bank was not accurate knowledge, and did not extend beyond the fact of entry, and that Mr. Quay, while he had an account in the bank, had no bank book that was regularly balanced.

If Dot had played with common soap
What wreck there'd be to-morrow!
Her hands all chapped, her dress past hope,
Her toys a tale of sorrow.

But mother lets her play like this
And wash whate'er she chooses,
For not a thing will go amiss
When Ivory Soap she uses.

IVORY SOAP—99 44/100 PER CENT. PURE.

COPYRIGHT 1898 BY THE PROCTER & GAMBLE CO. CINCINNATI

TAMMANY ENJOYS ITSELF.

The Ten Dollar Jefferson Diners Make Merry.

New York, April 14.—The Jeffersonian $10 banquet was served to 2,000 people last night. In the improvised kitchen green turtle soup sizzled in huge caldrons; spring lamb roasted in the ovens; squab broiling lay in luscious heaps; new green peas, piles of crisp lettuce, baskets of small Bermuda potatoes and meats and vegetables galore were there.

The speaking began about 10 o'clock. Every one of the regular speakers had his effort either in type or in typewritten form, and as soon as the cigars are lighted the reporters were overwhelmed with "copy." The revised list of speakers is as follows:

President Perry Belmont, ex-Congressman, opening address.

Ex-Assemblyman John B. Stanchfield, of Elmira, former law partner of David B. Hill, "Jefferson."

Edward M. Shepard, of Kings, ex-leader of the Independent Democracy, "Expansion.

Ex-Judge Augustus Van Wyck, of Brooklyn, former candidate for Governor, "State Issues."

Congressman Amos J. Cummings, former chairman of the Naval Committee, "Our Army and Navy."

Former Assemblyman F. C. Schraub, of Lowville, ex-Commissioner of Agriculture, "Democracy of the State."

Gen. Isaac Catlin, of Brooklyn, former law partner of Gen. B. F. Tracy, "Brooklyn Democracy."

John W. Keller, Commissioner of Charities, "Our City."

Senator Thomas F. Grady, "The Legislature."

Fanciulli's band of fifty pieces played selections before the diners sat down and during the courses. Mr. Croker thinks that the dinner was the greatest affair of the kind ever held in this city. The crush in the boxes was great, for every purchaser of a box received requests for seats far in excess of the capacity of the boxes. The ladies purchased special gowns for the dinner.

THE RALEIGH RECEPTION.

The Cruiser on Her Way and Will Arrive on Time.

